

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC.

VOL. XXXVII.—NO. 28.

NEWTON, MASS., FRIDAY, APRIL 2, 1909.

TERMS, $2.00 A YEAR.

Newton Free Library

First National Bank of West Newton

Capital $100,000

Surplus and Undivided Profits $68,000

Officers

CHARLES E. HATFIELD, President

JOSEPH B. ROSS, Cashier

Directors

Harry L. Burrage
Ernest B. Dane
A. Stuart Pratt

George P. Bullard
Charles A. Potter
George Royal Pulsifer
Edward F. Woods

Alfred L. Barbour
Charles E. Hatfield
Robert W. Williamson

Depository for United States, Commonwealth of Massachusetts and
City of Newton

Safe Deposit Vaults for the Storage of Valuables

FIRE
MARINE LIABILITY
PLATE GLASS
BURGLARY
ACCIDENT
LIFE

S. T. EMERY
GENERAL INSURANCE
19 CENTRAL STREET
BOSTON

NEWTON CENTRE
1033 CENTRE STREET
TELEPHONES

Rambler Automobiles

THE CAR FOR COUNTRY ROADS

FOR SALE BY

A. H. WAITT

390 Centre Street - - - Newton

PHONE 962-2 NEWTON NORTH FOR A DEMONSTRATION

Metropolitan Laundry WATERTOWN, MASS.

H. H. Sawyer, Prop.

Best Work Possible to be Done

Work called for and delivered in all parts of Newton
Write or telephone and team will call

Ladies Tailoring and Millinery

H. WANSKER
(Formerly with J. Edelstein & Co.)

MME. W. KOFFLER
Paris Berlin

STREET COSTUMES
RIDING HABITS

LATEST FASHIONS
in
MILLINERY

REPAIRING AND ALTERING
363 Washington Street, Corner Thornton Street, Newton
Telephone 706-1 Newton North

Metropolitan Storage Warehouse Co.

BUILDING ABSOLUTELY FIREPROOF

184 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge, near Harvard Bridge

One of the best equipped warehouses in the country for the storage of Furniture Pianos, Books, Pictures, and Valuables. Every room practically a large safety vault. Loads taken directly to rooms requiring but one handling

An inspection of the building and our prices will interest all in want of storage. Telephone, 612 Cambridge.

Patents-Pensions

Patents secured or no fee charged. All kinds of pension claims prosecuted. Call or write Elmer C. Richardson, 37 Tremont St., Boston.
Associated with a Washington Patent Attorney.

The "KRAKAUER"

the Piano with a Human Voice

GEORGE LINCOLN PARKER

Successor to Lincoln & Parker

211-213 TREMONT ST., BOSTON

Opp. Hotel Touraine

ROOFING

Tel. Ex. 2182 Hay.

An examination of your premises and estimate on new work or repairs will be gladly furnished without charge.

Slate, Gravel, Copper and Tin Roofing

Promptness with Reasonable Prices
Guaranteed

A sample of our Welch slate roofing may be seen on the new house on Dunley Road, Oak Hill District, near the top of the hill.

E. B. BADGER & SONS CO.

63-75 Pitts St., Boston, Mass.

ROUD 420 Boylston St., Boston

Ladies' Tailor Berkeley Building

Room 322 Tel. 3129-1 Back Bay

Your inspection of Spring Styles is invited.

Tailored Suits $38 up. Suits made from Customers' materials $18 up. Also Garments remodelled, retitled; Pressed and Cleaned

JOHN A. SALMAN

21 Bromfield Street - - - BOSTON

THE MONO-GRAM MAN

All the latest designs in BELT BUCKLES on PINS. Mr. of FOBS and MONOGRAMS for all leather goods.

Also AUTO MONOGRAMS.

THE MOST IMPORTANT ARTICLE in a woman's wardrobe today is her corset, and whatever style of dress she may choose it is the corset that shows through it all and exposes her figure to the world. The CORSET Custom-Made
CORSET corrects negligence and compels the wearer to assume a graceful carriage and to avoid the stiff appearance that comes from an ill-fitting corset. This corset comes in all prices.
Also a full line of Special Ready-Made COR-SETS that will be fitted and altered Free of Charge.

MISS M. STRETCH

48 WINTER ST Room, 44, BOSTON

Newton.

Arch Supports made to fit your arch. One dollar per pair. J. Mc-Cammon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ivy of Fairmont avenue left yesterday on a business and pleasure trip to Iowa.

Get a cup of Old Holland coffee to-morrow at Irving and Whelden's, Centre street, and take home a sample of Tudor tea.

The mid-week meeting of the Immanuel church to-night will be in charge of Mr. E. D. Seccomb. Topic: Jacob and Esau.

The Misses Louise and Sarah Schaefer of Beechcroft road have returned from their school in New York for the spring vacation.

Miss L. M. Power and Miss May of Willard street are to make their home for the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Rowland Dyer of Brookline.

Mrs. Robert F. Cummings and Mrs. Perrin B. Whitney are with relatives in Walpole for a few weeks previous to going west for an extended stay.

Mrs. Sarah Stuart of 222 Pearl street will celebrate her eightieth birthday on Monday, April fifth, and will be at home from three to seven to receive friends.

At the Immanuel church next Sunday, Rev. James E. Norcross of Boston will preach in the morning, and Rev. F. H. Eveleth, D.D., of India will speak in the evening.

The Nonantum Boys' Club base ball team has organized for the coming season. Charles Chasson of Faxon street is the business manager. The boys are from 16 to 17 years of age.

Mr. Carlton Stanley of Washington street has recovered from an attack of scarlet fever and is able to be out. His daughter Alice and son Carlton are convalescent from the same disease.

A food and candy sale was held in the parlors of the Immanuel Baptist church, Saturday from 2 to 5 o'clock.

Mrs. L. E. Moore was in charge assisted by Mrs. Van Buskirk, Mrs. Til-us, Mrs. H. G. Reid and Mrs. Bradley.

At the Business Men's Class at Elliot church next Sunday Prof. Henry K. Rowe will continue his lectures on "World Wide Christianity," taking for a special theme, "Social Effects of Christianity in the East."

Prof. and Mrs. H. H. Powers have moved out of their house on Willard street and are guests of Mr. and Mrs.
Ralph E. Towle in the Croydon on Centre street. They intend sailing for Europe the middle of April.

Mr. Marcus Morton, whose address on "Abraham Lincoln, Politician and Statesman," was received with great favor at the Tuesday Club, recently, will repeat the address next Sunday, April 4, at 12 o'clock before the Men's League of the Immanuel Baptist church.

Duncan Reid is on duty at the Relief Station, Boston. Having completed his course at Harvard Medical, he has just won in competitive examination two appointments, one for six months as house officer in the contagious wards of the City Hospital, to be followed by a service of nearly two years as house officer in the medical wards of that institution.

Prof. and Mrs. H. H. Powers are moving from their house on Willard street. They sail April 17 for their summer abroad. Prof. Powers goes to Bangor, Me., for a two weeks' lecture appointment with the theological seminary of that place. Mrs. Powers is to be the guest for two weeks of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Towle at the Croydon, where she will be at home to her friends on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons until April 17.

On Wednesday evening the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and reading by Miss Helen Randall.

Miss Bertha Miner of High street,
who was taken to the Newton hospital last week, suffering from appendicitis, is convalescing.

Mr. William Mason of Oak street is in Georgia in the interests of the Gamewell Fire Alarm Telegraph Company.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

Everything Necessary for the Spring Cleaning Campaign

SPRING CLEANING CAMPAIGN

Naphthaline Balls...15c lb-2 lbs 25c

Flake Camphorline 15c lb-2 lbs 25c

Gum Camphor...75c lb

Sulphur-Sulphur Fumigators

Formaldehyde-Lye For Drains, Etc.

Disinfectants and deodorizers of all kinds at reasonable prices. Many other "Spring Cleaning" articles for your convenience. Watch our window display.

F. A. HUBBARD, 425 Centre St., Newton

BLANCHARD KING & CO

250 Boylston Street
Boston

In his neckties and in his shirts a man may permit himself to revel in color—though the rest of his raiment must be sober as a wren's.

In our ENGLISH CRAVATS you will find not only the fetching new tans, but an array of blues, greens, lavenders and mixtures—from the quietest to the most vivid.

There is, if anything, a still greater variety in SCOTCH MA-DRAS SHIRT FABRICS. We have—but words fail us to describe them. A visit to our shop will gratify your color sense.

Depositors Are Reminded That THE NEXT QUARTER DAY
—IS—APRIL 10
AT THE
NEWTON SAVINGS BANK

Money deposited on or before that day will then begin to earn dividends.
See Bank's regular advertisement in another column.

A. J. BLANCHARD, Treasurer.

Tel. 845-2 Newton No.

Miss MacCONNELL

Hair Dressing, Face Treatment,
Manicure, Chiropractic, Toilet Articles, Nails, Warts and Superfluous
Hair Removed

429 CENTRE STREET
Over Hubbard's Pharmacy

A. L. McWHIRTER
Piano Tuner

Res. 45 Irving Street Watertown
Tel. 538-2 or 678-3, Newton North
Experience from May 1906

SADDLE HORSES
TO LET
Lessons in Riding

C. M. GILBERT

580 California St., Newtonville

Tel. Newton North 1336-1

MILLINERY

Spring Exhibition very Exclusive Designs in Parisian and Domestic Models on Tuesday and Wednesday.

A. SHEPARD, Inc.

Mrs. F. Joseph Armstrong with A. Shepard, 200 Boylston Street, Opposite Public Gardens, Boston. Telephone.

DEPOSITORS' AFFAIRS STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL

All business entrusted to the Newton Trust Company is treated not only with care and promptness, but in the strictest confidence. Clerks are absolutely enjoined from betraying the slightest detail of any business passing through the offices.

Accounts Invited

INTEREST ALLOWED

NEWTON TRUST CO.

OFFICES

Bank Building
Newton, Mass.

Bray Block
Newton Centre, Mass.

Upper Falls.

—Mrs. Mills is seriously ill at her home on High street.

—The Newton Mills were closed on Wednesday for stock taking.

—Active steps are being taken to secure a playground in this village.

—Alderman T. W. White of Boylston street is confined to his home with illness.

—The Young Ladies' Aid met with Miss Elsie Young of Pennsylvania avenue last Monday.

—Mr. Henry Manning of Cliff road, who suffered from a shock on Thursday of last week, is recovering.

—The W. F. M. S. of the Methodist church will meet with Mrs. Bernard Billings of High street on Monday.

—Mrs. Cheatham of William street while at work in Boston last Friday was taken seriously ill with pneumonia.

—Miss Bertha Miner of High street,
who was taken to the Newton hospital last week, suffering from appendicitis, is convalescing.

—Mr. William Mason of Oak street is
in Georgia in the interests of the Gamewell Fire Alarm Telegraph Company.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

On Wednesday evening the La-
dies' Aid of the Methodist church held
a supper and entertainment in the
vestry. The program included piano
solos by Mr. Frank Twigg; vocal solos
by Mrs. Charles Johnson and read-
ing by Miss Helen Randall.

SOCIAL EDUCATION

BY NEWBOLD HAZARD
Author of the Human Limit

(Copyright 1909 by Edwin Chase Merrill)

In response to extensive inquiries relative to the working plan of the GOOD IDEA CLUB which has been recently formed in Auburndale through the cooperative efforts of neighbors and friends I am giving through the columns of our City's leading Weekly, the Newton Graphic, a series of articles describing in detail the objects we hope to reach, our methods of procedure and the educative value of our working plan.

These articles will appear each week under the head of Social Education and they may serve in a measure as a guide to other neighborhoods and social circles in other cities and towns who desire to follow our example and infuse a healthy moral tone into their social functions in order to satisfy the natural craving in every human breast for genial, wholehearted and uplifting enjoyment without the restrictions of race, creed and condition in life which tend to divide our social affairs into groups, and in many instances to so contract them that both old and young are deprived of local enjoyments to such an extent that they are forced outside of their home surroundings to satisfy the social appetite.

The first great social principle to be taken into consideration is HARMONY.

Harmony in social affairs can be set in motion by various methods but experience has taught us that other questions arise that make it difficult to preserve it. Harmony is a moral idea. It is also a moral ideal; because, having once entered our life, we will expend considerable energy to have it abide with us. Applied to social entertainments, therefore, harmony is but one factor to be taken into consideration. In the monthly socials of the Good Idea Club the idea of harmony is introduced by instrumental and vocal music.

Harmony is also regarded as the well-spring from whence good-fellowship is drawn and the means used to make lasting friendships possible. It is recognized as a force: a powerful human energy for the development of the good qualities, not only in ourselves, but in those with whom we come in contact. Through harmony the social nature is expanded and the terms, "brotherhood" and "sisterhood" made to mean something beyond idle words. Harmony often lifts us into the seventh heaven of happiness, for a brief season, during which we forget the cares and dull routine of poorly rewarded toil, the selfishness of a sordid world and the galling slavery of poverty and disease.

The respite which harmony affords often makes life look darker afterwards, but it leaves a good taste behind, and increases its value as an ideal.

The Good Idea Club believes it to be a good plan to avoid the extremes in harmony, which may be illustrated by mere tolerance to the wildest delirium of worship in the human relation. Neither of these states of feeling can stand the light of day, or contribute much to public morals. They have a morbid tendency and they are most frequently found on the roads that lead to sanitariums and nerve hospitals.

Long continued harmony nauseates like too much honey, and none at all indicates the savage nature. If we find where harmony begins and where it ends, perhaps we can find the middle term, or "golden mean" where safety and sanity are.

The same human function is concerned in all degrees of harmony, the sympathetic nervous system. The energy functioned by this system is one of life's mysteries. All we really know about it is, that Harmony is a common-sense name for that unknown and seductive siren who lures us into the gentle paths of peace with all the world, or whirls us towards the rocks of despair and destruction, according to the motive we have in mind when we invoke her power.

(To be continued)

COMING

Spring tarries late and winter lingers turns
And yet returns, his prestige to regain
The light is warmer, yet the fields retain Their winter soberness. Weeds, leaves and ferns
Upon the forest floor lie sodden. Mid them burns
The partridge berry's spark of fire that rain
Nor snow can quench. And still the old refrain Breathes in the pine or through the thicket mourns.
Spring tarries late. But be not without cheer.
Spring tarries but to gather strength. And hear
That little scrap of song that bright and clear Comes from yon bushy tangle to the ear
"I know where Spring is hiding, have no fear"
It sings, "I find her footsteps even here."

E. A. J.

HIGHLY FLAVORED

AROMATIC TOOTHPICKS

Physicians and dentists recommend toothpicks as protecting against dental decay and against germ of contagious disease. Our lot of aromatic TOOTHPICKS is very best made. They penetrate the teeth, sweeten the breath, and insure the flow of saliva. Please note the largest manufacturers of toothpicks in the country.

FILL OUT COUPON BELOW
and cut out for cost of postage and packing. Correspondence invited. With postage, local and outside, and postage paid.

NAME.....
Address.....
City.....
State.....
Postage.....

AROMATIC TOOTHPICK CO.

184 Summer St., Boston, Mass., Dept. 8

Please send me full lot of 500 AROMATIC TOOTHPICKS

Name.....

Address.....

City.....

State.....

Postage.....

THE COBB EASTMAN COMPANY

Our Furniture and Interior Woodwork is acknowledged the standard of workmanship in Fine Cabinet Making, and we guarantee its superior qualities. We make a specialty of designing and selling our own exclusive patterns, which are unexcelled in construction, style and finish, and cannot be found elsewhere. We invite your inspection of our Wall Papers, Fabrics and Decorations in charge of competent men.

FINE FURNITURE

DECORATIONS

WALL PAPERS

IMPORTED STUFFS

372-378 BOYLSTON STREET, BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS
101 PARK AVENUE, NEW YORK

THEATRES

Colonial Theatre.—It is a settled fact that Geo. M. Cohan himself is to appear with his Royal Family and the other one hundred members of his company, when that organization opens its two weeks' engagement in "The Yankee Prince" at the Colonial Theatre, Boston, Monday night, April 5th. Young Mr. Cohan's presence in "The Yankee Prince" cast during the coming fortnight there will positively be his last stage work for a long time. As a writer and composer of popular musical comedies Geo. M. Cohan stands alone. Cohan plays are invariably smart, snappy, concise, with plenty of witty dialogue and innumerable funny situations to make "the go" that Americans like so well. "The Yankee Prince" is one of the latest of the Cohan compositions, and it is thought by many to be his best. Of course it is musical; in fact it is said to fairly scintillate with melody of the true Cohan brand—and if this is so, Boston can prepare themselves for a real holiday treat. Besides the author, excellent supporting cast of principals, which include (among others) Jerry J. Cohan, Helen F. Cohan, Josephine Cohan, Tom Lewis, Sam J. Ryan, George Parsons, Frank Hollins, J. J. Lane, Robert Emmett Lennon, Dorothy Jordan, Lola Hoffman, William Leyle and Donald Crisp, the "Yankee Prince" chorus is commended for its dancing ability and vocal perfection, which is said to be particularly fascinating. There will be no Wednesday matinees during Mr. Cohan's engagement at the Colonial.

Keith's Theatre.—The week of April 5th at Keith's Theatre will see one of the biggest vaudeville bills in the history of the house. At the head of it will be Karno's English comedy company in "A Night in an English Music Hall," probably the greatest laughing show that has ever appeared in this country. This is the production in which a stage is shown on a stage, with the boxes filled with people and the English singers and performers of different kinds do their turns, while those in the boxes take a most prominent part. The ebullient swell, who expresses his approval and disapproval of the different performers, is one of the greatest bits of comedy introduced in years. Another star attraction will be dainty Bessie Wynn, the singing comedienne. The Six Musical Cutties, without question the greatest musical act on the stage, will also appear. Others will be Charles Leonard Fletcher, who has just returned from a successful season in London with some new impersonations; Edwards Davis & Company in a sketch called "All Rivers Meet at Sea"; the Mangrove Troupe; Lantoni, Lucier & Company; Arthur Huston; Alexander and Scott; Sansone and Dellah and others.

Orpheum Theatre.—No more welcome announcement to Boston theatre goers has ever been made by any vaudeville manager than that to the effect that Julian Eltinge, Boston's own star will head the unusually strong bill at the Orpheum Theatre next week. Mr. Eltinge is so well known in Boston that it seems hardly necessary for any comment on him. During the past season his improvement has been wonderful, considering the fact he has had no peer in his particular line of work for several seasons past. Surrounding him on this star bill will be Charles Ross of the well known Ross and Fenton pair, assisted by Anna Turner in an original creation of mimicry and travesty, "Chuckles." An operatic sensation is promised in the appearance of Henry Helme the Singer from the Alps. Gifted with a wonderful tenor voice this singer has created a furor. A curiously funny farce "My Wife Won't Let Me" will be presented in an inimitable way by Wilson Franklin and capable company. Other acts on this star bill will be Brothers De Wynn and their dogs, The Four Magnanis, Hickey and Nelson, Howard Howley and others.

Park Theatre.—So far I have seen but one play, "Father and the Boys," but that one is better than a dozen others put together that I have witnessed at various times, and which has passed muster as "big hits." It is by George Ade, as I suppose you know, and W. H. Crane, now the dean of the American comedy stage, and the very best of native comedians, is giving his finest art and his delightful personality to the leading part. And I had never suspected that it was in George Ade, brilliant wit and humorist that he is, to accomplish anything so undeniably clever and human in the way of a play as this latest effort. But, in "Father and the Boys" Mr. Ade has demonstrated that he is now in the front rank of native playwrights. It is unnecessary to say that the Indiana man is a past-master of fun in all its phases. And his fun is so clean, healthy, wholesome and contagious. And, commend me to Mr. Crane for getting every iota of fun out of every line given him to speak. Nothing is overdone, nothing underdone. Long may "Bill" Crane wave in this land of the free and home of the brave. No one who likes comedy at its best, no one who likes drama of any kind whatever, should fail to see Mr. Crane at the Park Theatre.

Mary Dascombe.

Castle Square Theatre.—Nothing better than "The Little Princess" could have been chosen by Mr. Craig for the coming holiday week at the Castle Square. It is a play to delight the children, and as they will have a rest from school and school duties, they will have plenty of opportunity for an afternoon's or evening's recreation at the theatre. "The Little Princess" is an adaptation by Frances Hodgson Burnett from her own story of "Sara Crewe," and it brings to the stage a group of children and pictures of child life that are sure to interest both young and old.

Boston Theatre.—Monday evening, April 12, the Boston Theatre returns to its former high estate as the house of big productions when the huge melodramatic success of the theatrical season—"Via Wireless"—will be produced with the original company. "Via Wireless" is a remarkable production because of two massive, realistic and spectacular scenes, declared to be the most notable ever staged in these respects. One shows the forging room of a steel plant at Pittsburg with work in full blast and another depicts a wreck and rescue at sea during the action of which a complete wireless plant is seen in practical operation. The company of players has many local favorites.

QUAINT FISHING SCENES

For his appearances at Tremont Temple on Friday evening and Saturday afternoon of next week Mr. R. G. Knowles announces as his subject "Fishes of France and Flanders." The subject affords Mr. Knowles an opportunity to show some of the quaintest fishing scenes he has ever witnessed in his travels and to bring to his audiences characteristic pictures of life in France, Flanders, and Holland. The remarkable success attending Mr. Knowles' work in taking motion pictures will be again illustrated in his reproduction of "the rolling bridge" which has rails on the bottom of the sea: a picture showing the largest catch of fish ever taken from the French coast, another reproducing the unique custom in Belgium of fishing on horseback, a curious picture showing characteristic scenes in Volendam on the Zuyder Zee and in the presentation of the Dutch county fair or Kermesse in which all the games are in full swing and the decorated vehicle, Dutch models, and other curious features are vividly reproduced. Mr. Knowles will make his last appearances at Tremont Temple on Friday evening, April 16th, and Saturday afternoon, April 17th, when he will describe and illustrate his trip to South Africa.

REAL ESTATE

A. J. McDonald has sold to E. F. Russ the new house, No. 25 Loring street, Newton Centre, together with 8,000 square feet of land, for occupancy. Alvord Bros. represented the purchaser in the transaction and A. Dudley Dowd the seller.

Alvord Bros. have rented the Hawthorne estate, No. 69 Pelham street, corner of Crescent avenue, Newton Centre, to James F. Cronan.

Alvord Bros. have rented a suite at Bradford Court, Newton Centre, to Joseph F. Kelley.

Alvord Bros. have rented the store, No. 791 Washington street, Newtonville, to Charles Kelsor. Mr. Kelsor will take immediate occupancy. The Morse estate are the lessors.

Alvord Bros. have rented the new brick and stone house, No. 680 Boylston street, Newton Highlands, for D. W. Eagles to A. W. Davis.

MR. WILLIAMS DEAD

The community was shocked last Friday morning to learn of the sudden death of Mr. George F. Williams, one of the best known and popular business men in Newtonville. Mr. Williams was found dead in bed at his home on Bowers street by his daughter, and first reports seemed to indicate that he had committed suicide. It is now known that Mr. Williams has been subject to insomnia for some time and had been in the habit of taking chloroform to put him to sleep.

The true facts will never be known, it is now thought, that while partially overcome by the drug he received an overdose, resulting in heart failure. It is certain that at 9.30 on Thursday evening he had telephoned a friend fixing an appointment at some later time and on his desk were papers which he had intended to act upon early Friday morning.

Mr. Williams was born in Petersham, Mass., and was 62 years of age. For many years he has been in the real estate business in Newtonville under the firm name of Turner and Williams. He was a member of Dalhousie lodge of Masons, of Newton Royal Arch Chapter, of which he had served for some years as secretary, of Gethsemane Commandery, Knights Templar, Gen. Hull lodge, A. O. U. W., and Mt. Ida Council, R. A. He was also an assistant assessor of the city. He is survived by two daughters and one son.

The funeral services were held in the Masonic lodge room, Newtonville, on Monday afternoon and were largely attended. Rev. Albert Hammett of the Universalist church officiated and the Mendelssohn quartet sang several selections. All the stores in the village were closed during the funeral.

The honorary pall bearers were Messrs. H. N. Milliken, Charles E. Hatfield, J. Franklin Hyder, representing the Masonic bodies, Mr. F. G. L. Henderson for the A. O. U. W., Mr. Charles D. Cabot for the Royal Arcanum, Messrs. G. P. Whitmore and E. P. Hatch for the Masonic Hall Association, of which Mr. Williams was a director, and Messrs. A. Sidney Bryant and Horace A. Carter. The active pall bearers were Messrs. W. H. Colgan, F. W. Freeman, R. E. Potter, C. H. Hayes, O. M. Fisher, A. H. Decatur.

F. M. Blanchard and Dr. C. A. Boultelle. The interment was in Mt. Auburn cemetery.

MR. JOSHUA W. DAVIS

Joshua W. Davis, who died at his home in Newton on the 22d of March, after an illness of less than two days, was born in South street, Boston, eighty years ago. His education was received in the public schools of the city, and upon his graduation from the English high school when he was about eighteen years of age he became a clerk in the office of the late Alphons Hardy, then located at 42 Commercial street. In 1852 he became a partner with Mr. Hardy and so continued for about eighteen years, when he withdrew from the firm. A little later he was invited by the late J. Montgomery Sears to take a responsible position in his office, which he accepted and held until the death of Mr. Sears. For several years he was on the board of directors of the Congregational Sunday school and Publishing Society and was chairman of the finance committee. For a long time he has taken a deep interest in Indian affairs and for several years was chairman of the Boston Indian Citizenship Committee, which office he resigned only ten days before his death. At the Mohonk Conference held to discuss questions bearing upon the "Indian question," he was a constant attendant, and by personal visits to the Indian reservations and interviews at Washington he was instrumental in securing important reforms in the treatment of the nation's wards.

Mr. Davis possessed a deeply religious nature, and as a member, and for twenty years a deacon of the Elliot church, Newton, he made his strong personality felt in all that pertained to the highest interests of the church. Funeral services were held in the church on Thursday the 25th inst. and a high tribute to his worth as a Christian business man and helper in all good works was paid him by Rev. Dr. Wolcott Calkins, a former pastor.

G. G.

Boston, March 31, 1909.

In addition to the above testimonial of a long time associate of Deacon Davis in his business, religious and philanthropic activities, I desire to add that for a great many years he was the chief promoter of the Old Colony Mission Chapel in Boston and some of his best years were invested in watchful devotion and activity for its prosperity. And there are multitudes of men, women and children that rise up to call him blessed for the unsolicited help he gave them in dire need.

The Benevolent Societies of the Broad Congregational church will miss his substantial helpfulness. His sympathies were always with the ideal citizenship that is distinguished from thoughtless partizanship. Newton is deprived of one of its best citizens by his decease. He was a familiar figure on our streets, as he resided right in the heart of the village. It is sad to realize that his wife, so long an invalid, is thus deprived of his warm and affectionate care.

W. H. P.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

At last the new storage tank and hot water heater has been installed and connections made. This, we hope, will solve the hot water problem.

A joint debate is being arranged with the Boston Association. Watch the bulletin board for announcement of subject and date.

Next Sunday the last of the meetings for men will be held at 3.15 P. M. William Macpherson speaks on "The Care of the Body." Every man in the Association is urged to hear him.

Save May 3rd, the date of the Annual Meeting and Banquet.

A Base Ball Association was organized March 24th, by the members with the following officers: President, Frank Belding; Vice-President, Willard Day; Secretary-Treasurer, Carl L. Ellison. The purpose of the Association is to give every member of the Y. M. C. A. a chance to play ball as well as to build up a representative team. A Twilight League will be organized as soon as possible. Those interested are invited to join in the movement to make base ball a game for every one this year. A membership fee of 50 cents was voted at this meeting. Hand in your name to the Secretary-Treasurer and get your friends to join.

Memberships are now 410;—226 Seniors, 184 Juniors. Let every one push it higher.

Charles G. Newcomb and Howard Moore are tied for first place in the billiard tournament. The tie will be played off in a series of three games which will prove interesting. Newton has been awarded the Championship Trophy on the basis of actual performances at the State Meet held March 18th.

A MEAN MAN

The meanest man in Massachusetts has been discovered. He is a builder; not of the substantial, reliable type, but a speculator, who builds without capital.

One day last winter, when the ground was covered with a glare of ice, the ladder on which one of his workmen was standing slipped, and the man fell, receiving injuries which kept him in bed many weeks.

Before sending the injured man home the builder inquired: "Are you married?" "Yes."

"Have you a family?" "Two children."

"O, you're all right," said the builder. "Most of the men have seven or eight children."

Aside from this cheerful assurance the employer showed no interest in the case. He neither offered assistance, nor inquired after the injured man in the long weeks that followed. But that he had not forgotten his employee was evident on pay day, when he carefully deducted from the poor fellow's wages for that last day, nearly one-fourth, as the accident had occurred between three and four o'clock in the afternoon.

Will not this builder take the prize for meanness?

A BOSTON BANK ACCOUNT

The American Trust Company accepts deposits by mail, thereby enabling persons residing outside of the city to have a bank account in Boston without being required to visit the bank in person. It is the aim of the management to render the highest degree of personal service, prompt attention being given to the requirements of out-of-town patrons.

Please write for our booklet which contains full information concerning our facilities.

American Trust Company

53 State Street, Boston, Mass.

Capital $1,000,000 Surplus(Earned) $1,800,000

OFFICERS

R. G. FESSENDEN, President
J. C. HOWE, Vice President
J. J. OLDFIELD, Treasurer
C. H. BOWEN, Secretary
G. W. AURYANSEN, Asst. Sec.
A. D. AURYANSEN, Asst. Sec.

West Newton.

—Miss Mariana C. Porter is making improvements to her house on Austin street.

—Hon. and Mrs. E. B. Wilson of Otis street have returned from Hot Springs, Va.

—Mrs. Willard C. Warren of Lenox street returns this week from a visit in New York.

—Miss Lucy C. Allen is visiting her brother Mr. Kenneth Allen, West End avenue, New York.

—Miss Bessie Fyffe of Perkins street has returned from a visit to her brother in Newport.

—Mr. Henry B. Day and family of Chestnut street have been spending a few days in New York.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Burrage of Temple street are back from a month's visit to southern California.

—Mr. Edward S. Allen and Mr. Harold Ames Allen are among the honor men at Harvard University.

—Mr. and Mrs. William M. Bullivant of Mt. Vernon street returns this week from a trip to California.

—Mr. James P. Murphy of Watertown street has rented for immediate occupancy a house on Charles street, Auburndale.

—The Loyal Temperance Legion will meet Sunday afternoon at 3.30 in the chapel of Lincoln Park church. All boys and girls invited.

—The Home Circle teams will call for goods for rummage sale, on Monday and Tuesday, April 12th and 13th. Please have goods ready.

—A meeting of the Red Bank Society was held Wednesday afternoon at the Congregational church. The subject considered was "Korea."

—Superintendent W. E. Gullford of the Newtonville post office has moved here from Newton Centre and is occupying the Cushman house on Eddy street.

—The "Church Night" service will be held this evening in the parlors of the Second Congregational church. Rev. J. Edgar Park will make an address on "The Beatific Vision."

—Rev. Charles J. Fowler of Balcarres road is moving to the Copeland house on Fountain street which he recently purchased. Mr. Copeland is settled in his new home on Mt. Vernon street.

—The local churches have arranged a series of union services to be held during holy week as follows: Tuesday, April 6th, Lincoln Park Baptist church; Wednesday, April 7th, Unitarian church; Thursday, April 8th, Church of the Messiah; Friday, April 9th, Second Congregational church.

—A largely attended vesper service was held Sunday afternoon at the Unitarian church. The vocal selections were rendered by the choir of the First church, Boston, composed of Mrs. Frances Dunton Wood, Mrs. Ann Miller Wood, Mr. William H. Dunham and Mr. Clarence E. Hay. Mr. H. G. Tucker, the organist, was in charge.

—The Baraca and Philathea classes of the Lincoln Park Baptist church presented a "Deed of Exhortation" last week Thursday evening in the vestry of the church. It was well attended in spite of the storm. There were about twenty invited guests from the Baraca class of the Brighton avenue Baptist church of Allston present.

NEWTON FREE LIBRARY

List of New Books.

ARNAUD, R. Louis-Philippe and his Sister: the political life and role of Adelaide of Orleans. EA288.A
BLACKER, J. F. Chats on Oriental China. WLB56
BRUCKNER, A. A Literary History of Russia; edited by Ellis H. Minns, translated by H. Havlock. ZY54.B83
CONNOR, Ralph, pseud. The Life of James Robertson, Missionary Superintendent in the Northwest Territories. BR5471.C
CORNISH, Francis Warre. Chivalry. (Social England series.) .FS.C81
FERNALD, James Champlin. A Working Grammar of the English Language; designed to give in simple statement the principles and methods of correct English speech and writing. XQ.F39
FOLWELL, William Watts. Minnesota: the North Star state. (American Commonwealths.) F911.F73
FROTHINGHAM, Arthur Lincoln, Jr. The Monuments of Christian Rome; from Constantine to the Renaissance. W36.F93
GADOW, Hans. Through Southern Mexico: an account of the travels of a naturalist. M95.G11
HAZARD, Bertha, ed. Three Years with the Poets: a text-book of poetry to be memorized by children during the first year in school. J.YP.9H33
HOPKINS, William John. The Sandman: his farm stories. JH774.5b
JACKSON, Mrs. F. Nevill. Toys of other Days. VLB313
NOYES, A. William Morris. (English Men of Letters.) EM384.N
OPPENHEIM, Edward Phillips. The Missioner. O 625 ms
SWETT, Sophie Miriam. Princess Walea. I 8975 pr
TERRY, Ellen. The story of my life: recollections and reflections. BT275.T
TOMPKINS, Eugene, and Kilby, Quincy. The History of the Boston Theatre, 1854-1901. VU844.BT5
WHIPPLE, George Chandler. Typhoid Fever; its causation, transmission and prevention. Q5QW.W6
WOODROW, Nancy H. W. The Silver Butterfly. W 86 a
WRIGHT, Edward S. Westward from the World. G133.W93
March 24, 1909.

WEST NEWTON PLAYGROUND.

A popular vote by postal card has been taken the past week in West Newton to ascertain public opinion as to the most desirable site for a playground. Three sites were mentioned and each voter in the village was asked to express an opinion. The replies as tabulated to date show 251 votes for the Elm and Webster streets site, 124 for the Cherry near River street site and 89 for the site at the corner of Auburn and Washington streets.

ABOUT TOWN

An illustration of the good done by Newton schools was shown last week when a little Russian girl of about 12, who has been in this country but seven weeks, gave a highly creditable reading in English before Mayor Hutchinson at the Stearns school.

The schools close today for the usual Easter recess of one week.

Sometimes when a woman throws a brick at an old hen in the garden, it is harder on the scenery than it is on the hen.

LADIES

Wishing a Desirable and Stylish Hat

—BUY AT—

GRACE'S New Millinery Store
156 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass.

We Cure Sick Chimneys

If you have a chimney which does not draw well we will make it draw or will make no charge. Smoky fireplaces absolutely cured by the use of our ventilators. Write for particulars.

The Vacuum Ventilating Co.
6 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass.

Tel. May. 972

A Boston Bank Account

There are many conveniences in having a Boston bank account.

There is also the advantage of being personally known to a strong metropolitan bank.

You can easily open an account with us by mail. Send your check or money-order, payable to this company, and we will send you a check book, and each month a statement of your account. Interest allowed on deposits.

Request by postal card will bring further information. Or, if you are in town, call in and talk with us.

CITY TRUST COMPANY

50 STATE STREET, BOSTON, MASS.

YOUNG MEN

WANTED

We recently promoted one of our young men to an important position as salesman, and are about to promote two more. We have room for two young men to learn the curtain business, with prospects for steady advancement. They must be high school graduates, ambitious, and come well recommended. Apply in the morning only.

MARTIN MANUFACTURING CO.
WEST NEWTON, MASS.

BANKS

NEWTON SAVINGS BANK.

BANK BUILDING, NEWTON, MASS.

INCORPORATED 1831.

Business Hours, 9 to 3, Saturdays, 9 to 1.

Total Assets last Quarter's Statement.

January 9th, 1909 $6,213,952.03

Quarterly Dividends the TENTH of January, April, July and October. Dividends are payable not before January 17 and July 17.

TRUSTEES:

John Ward, Samuel M. Jackson, Francis Murdock, Charles T. Pulsifer, William C. Strong, Eugene Fanning, B. Franklin Bacon, Samuel Farquhar, G. Fred Simpson, Edmund P. Wiswall, Thomas W. Proctor, William F. Bacon, Bernard E. Early, Henry E. Bothfield and William F. Harbach.

BOARD OF INVESTMENT:

Charles T. Pulsifer, Francis Murdock, Samuel M. Jackson, Henry E. Bothfield, William F. Harbach.

The Board meets every Tuesday afternoon to consider applications for loans.

CHARLES T. PULSIFER, President.
ADOLPHUS J. BLANCHARD, Treasurer.

WALTHAM SAVINGS BANK

702 Main Street, Waltham

Assets March 20, 1909, $4,183,509.35

Deposits begin to draw interest from the first day of January, April, July and October; and deposits made on any of the three business days immediately following the first day of said months are treated, in computing dividends, as having been made on the first day and will share in the next following dividend if remaining on deposit on the dividend date.

Dividends are payable on the second Wednesday of April and October.

Board of Investment

Henry N. Fisher, Enos F. Luce, Nathan Warren, Charles O. Morrill, Thomas H. Armstrong.

The Board meets every Monday at 4.30 P. M. to consider applications for loans.

GEORGE R. BEAL, Treasurer

Waltham Forge Blacksmithing

All kinds of Steel and Iron Forging with Power Hammer

BUILDING IRON WORK

Lawn Mowers Sharpened

SHOP, GIFFORD AVE., HALLS CORNER, WALTHAM

Telephone 304-1

VARGAS COFFEE

In Sealed Cans Only

This Coffee is one of the choicest that the world produces. Try it once and you will know why people insist on having "Vargas Coffee" and no other. It is for sale by the

Manhattan Market, 346 Centre Street, Newton, Mass.

Telephone 106-2 Newton North

where may be found a full line of Groceries, Provisions and all kinds of Sea Food at popular prices.

OUR ICE CREAM

is made from Pure Cream, that is why we like to sell it.

Our Sherberts are Delicious

TORRE'S

Tel. 732-1 Newton North

ALL ORDERS CHEERFULLY DELIVERED. 338 CENTRE STREET, NEWTON

Newton.

—Mr. Jacques is making improvements to his house on Eldridge street, occupied by Mrs. Merrihew.

—Mr. and Mrs. Luther Benyon of Russell road will move Saturday to their future home in Revere.

—Mrs. Arthur H. Bailey entertained the Freedman's Aid at her home on Boyd street, Thursday afternoon.

—Mr. Garfield Stone formerly of St. Mark's church, Brookline, is the new tenor in the Eliot church quartet.

—Rev. James F. Kelly preached the Lenten sermon at St. Patrick's church, Watertown, last Tuesday evening.

—Mrs. Elizabeth White has had plans made for a new house she intends building on Washington street.

—Mr. Bartlett Harwood of Waverley avenue is back from Middlesex school, Concord, for the Easter vacation.

—Mr. Harry B. Potter of Dorchester is moving into the Sprague house on Eliot street which he recently purchased.

—Rev. George W. Mansfield will be the conference preacher at the Methodist church next Sunday morning and evening.

—Mr. J. H. Duckett and family have moved here from Somerville and are occupying the Burbank house on Maple avenue.

—Mr. Grosvenor Calkins of Bellevue street was taken to the Eliot Hospital in Boston Tuesday for an operation for appendicitis.

—Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Harwood and Miss Gretchen Harwood of Waverley avenue return this week from Hamilton, Bermuda.

—Mr. R. J. Holmes of Bellevue street has been elected secretary of the Webster Club Council with Dartmouth college.

—Mr. H. W. Ball, a former well known resident of this place, is now owner of a large department store in St. Johnsbury, Vt.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Leonard, who have been spending several months in the West are now located in Los Angeles, California.

—The annual Good Friday service will be held in Eliot church, April 9th. Rev. Dr. O. P. Gifford of Brookline will give the address.

—The Home Circle teams will call for goods for rummage sale, on Monday and Tuesday, April 12th and 13th. Please have goods ready.

—Mr. S. A. Campbell and family of Charlesbank road moved Wednesday to the house formerly occupied by Mr. Hayden on Jefferson street.

—Mrs. J. Q. A. Whittemore of Washington street will have the sympathy of her friends in the loss of her father Mr. Bradford in New York.

—Mrs. D. M. James of Park street has been chosen one of the alternates from John Adams chapter, D. A. R. to the coming Continental Congress.

—An exhibition of paintings by Mr. William M. Paxton has been opened at the Rhode Island School of Design and will continue until April 16th.

—A Sunday school social was held at the Methodist church last Tuesday evening. Miss Clara M. Cushman was the special guest and speaker.

—The last of the formal organ recitals will be given at Eliot church on Thursday evening, April 8th. The organist will be Prof. H. J. Krumpel.

—Mr. Charles H. Peterson of Oakleigh road and Mr. George A. Newhall of Washington street are back from Washington and other southern points.

—Mr. Wallace Hackett, who is a student at the school of design in Providence, was the guest of relatives on Centre street the first of the week.

—The Rev. Dr. George S. Butters of Wesley street who is a member of the board of examiners to examine candidates for deacons and elders, is in Lowell this week attending the annual session of the New England conference of the Methodist Episcopal church.

—The third and last of the orchestral concerts under the direction of Mr. Arthur B. Keene, with Mr. J. Edgar Barnes as concert master, was held in Stanley hall, Hunnewell club, last Friday evening. Miss Isabella Pinkham, contralto soloist assisted most acceptably. Selections were from the compositions of Wagner, Offenbach, Gluck, Haydn, Gounod, Holmes, White, Jonas, Tonia and Tabbano.

—Mr. George Henry Adams, formerly a well known resident of this place and for many years in the grocery business here, died Monday after a brief illness at his apartment in Garrison hall, Boston. He was a native of Boston and was 72 years of age. A widow survives him. Funeral services were held from the Chapel in Mount Auburn cemetery, Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. F. A. Wiggins of Brookline officiating and selections were rendered by the Harvard Male quartet.

—The best way to cultivate an appetite is to cultivate a field, and then

Newton

—Mr. E. H. Ellison of Vernon street returns this week from a trip to Florida.

—"Guaranteed Box." Six pairs guaranteed to wear 6 mos. 25c per pair. J. McCammon.

—Miss Beatrice Rice of Boyd street has recovered from an illness and is able to be out.

—Mr. Walter C. Mandell is back from a business and pleasure trip to Portland, Ore.

—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Uhler of Eldridge street are back after a few weeks' absence.

—Mr. C. A. Potter of Maple avenue has moved into the Ferris bungalow on Capitol street.

—Mr. George Hitchcock is back from Hanover, N. H., and is at his home on Hollis street.

—Mrs. Henry M. Burt of Charlesbank road is back from a visit to relatives in Northampton.

—Mrs. Sumner Davis and family of Pearl street have moved to their future home in Charlestown.

—Mrs. Alvin R. Bailey of Richardson street left Friday for San Antonio, Texas where she goes to attend the meeting of the Council of the general federation of Women's Clubs.

—The regular meeting of the Immanuel Associates was held last evening in the vestry of the Immanuel Baptist church. A supper was served, followed by an interesting program.

—The last of the series of vesper services will be held at Channing church next Sunday evening. Rev. Adelbert L. Hudson will speak on "The Parable of Jesus; Wise and False Virgins."

—The regular meeting of the Tuesday Club was held Tuesday evening at the home of Dr. F. E. Spaulding on Highland avenue, Newtonville. Rev. H. Grant Person read a paper on "Gladstone."

—Mr. William G. Soule of Farlow road is one of the directors of the Pittsburg Plate Glass Company of Boston, recently incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts to manufacture and sell all kinds of glass.

—Mrs. Mabel L. Priest has been appointed a member of the committees on printing and on appeals by the request of the Massachusetts Society, D. R. Miss M. R. Wheeler is a member of the committee on investigation.

—Prof. Timothy Drake will give an illustrated lecture of the Passion Play at Ober Ammergau in the Methodist church, Centre street, Newton, next Thursday evening, at eight o'clock. Mrs. Marcia West Lewis will sing "Psalms," "The Holy City," etc.

—The meeting for conference and prayer at Eliot church this evening will take the form of a service of appreciation of the life and services of Deacon Joshua W. Davis. Rev. Dr. Wolcott Calkins will repeat the address that he gave at the funeral and others will speak.

—Mrs. Charles Warren Dyer has issued cards for the marriage of her daughter, Nora Gertrude, to Mr. Floris Wilhelm Rühle von Littenstern ter Meulen, the ceremony to take place at Grace church, Saturday afternoon, April 17th, at 3.30. A reception will follow in the parish house.

—Miss Anna M. Bryson, daughter of John Bryson, passed away at her home on Lincoln road last Friday after a several months' illness. She was a native of Newton and was 23 years of age. Deceased was a stenographer by occupation but had been unable to work for some time owing to failing health. The funeral was held from her late residence Monday morning at 8 o'clock and services followed at the Church of Our Lady at 9 o'clock. The burial was in Holyhood cemetery, Brookline.

—The last meeting for the season of the Newton Monday Evening Club was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. Charles S. Ensign on Billings park. There was a good attendance and the members discussed the question, "Would State Prohibition be Preferable to Our Present Local Option Law as a means of Permanently Promoting Temperance." A committee consisting of Rev. H. Grant Person, Rev. Dr. C. H. Daniels and Mr. J. R. W. Shapleigh was appointed to draw up a set of resolutions on the death of Mr. Joshua W. Davis, a member for many years of the club.

—Mrs. Mary Ellen Stetson widow of John Stetson died of heart trouble last Friday at her home on Park street. She had been in failing health for some time. Deceased was a native of Brunswick, Me., where she was born 76 years ago. She had been a resident of Newton for many years, was a loyal and active member of Channing church and its Women's Alliance and was also a member of the Social Science Club. Two sons survive her. Funeral services were held from the house Sunday afternoon and were attended by many relatives and friends. Rev. A. L. Hudson was the officiating clergyman and the burial was in Newton cemetery.

ANNOUNCEMENT

We beg to announce that on April First we purchased the shoe business formerly owned and conducted by Edward E. Barnes at No. 267 Washington Street, Newton, Mass. and took possession on that date under the firm name of

THE WALKER SHOE CO.

It is our intention to keep thoroughly abreast with the times in style, quality and price in Men's, Women's Misses and Children's high-grade footwear, and all of our lines will be selected with the view of embodying these important features. Being connected with the well-known firm of Walker and Whitman, Campello, Mass., manufacturers of Men's fine shoes, we shall make a specialty of this popular and celebrated make. We deem ourselves specially fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Frank A. Melvin, who was formerly with Mr. Barnes for about nine years, and is well-known to a large circle of friends. We trust that you will extend to the new firm a share of your patronage, and we assure you that we shall spare no pains to please you and merit your approval.

The Walker Shoe Co.

WILLIAM O WALKER

THEODORE C. WALKER

Newton.

—Dutch Clip for children. Fell Bros., Washington street, opp. Bank. tf.

—Mr. L. L. Tower has been ill this week at his home on Newtonville avenue.

—Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Curtiss of Centre street are back from a trip to New York.

—Mr. J. Murray Quinby of Waverley avenue is able to be out, after his recent illness.

—Mrs. J. D. Williams of Centre returns next week from a visit in Portland, Me.

—Mr. and Mrs. Andrew B. Cobb and the Misses Cobb of Centre street returned yesterday from the Hotel Somerset, Boston, where they spent the winter.

—Mrs. Margaret G. Guckenberger has resigned from the Channing church quartet. Mrs. Henry T. Wade will fill the vacant position for a few weeks.

—Miss Myra A. Southworth of Centre street was among the passengers sailing Saturday on the Canopic for Naples and other points in Southern Europe.

—The topic, "What Can Eliot Church do for Boston?" was continued at the missionary concert at Eliot church last Friday evening. This was a part of the general theme, "Duty of the Suburbs to the City," and the speakers were Rev. H. Grant Person and Messrs. J. R. Learned, P. W. Ganse, F. L. Trowbridge, W. H. Partridge and C. A. Haskell.

—There was a large audience at Grace church last Sunday evening when the vested choir gave a fine rendering of Stainer's "Crucifixion," under the direction of Mr. Charles N. Sladen with Mr. William G. Hambleton at the organ. The quartet and solo parts were taken by Messrs. W. Draper Snow, Jr., Ralph Somers, Albert Pickernell and Richard Hill.

—At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Black on Jefferson street last Thursday evening a "liberty party" was given to their son, Charles H. Black, it being his 21st birthday. A large number of friends were present from the Newtons, Boston, Haverhill, and elsewhere. During the evening the young man was presented with a writing desk and $50 in gold.

Newton.

—Telephone MacLean, 334-2 North, for all carpenter work. tf.

—Mr. George Agry, Jr. is making improvements to his house on Park street.

—Mrs. Frank Hopewell of Waverley venue has returned after a few weeks' absence.

—Mrs. George A. Blaney of Vernon court is back from a visit to friends in Salem.

—See the moderate price bathroom set in our window. Gallagher Bros., 413 Centre street. tf.

—Mrs. Frank A. Pickernell of Sargent street is among the patronesses for the performance to be given in Boston later for the benefit of Halle House.

—Mr. Albert B. Allison of Newtonville, formerly organist of the First church, Watertown, has been engaged as organist of the Immanuel Baptist church.

—The meeting of the Woman's Association at Eliot church on Tuesday was in charge of the Literary Committee. Miss Opdyke spoke on the work of the Boston Trade School for Girls and there was music and refreshments.

—At the residence of Mrs. Wetmore on Bacon street last Wednesday afternoon a pretty Easter sale was held under the auspices of Boynton lodge of Odd Ladies Sewing Circle. There was afternoon tea and later a supper was served. There was a good attendance and a satisfactory sum was realized.

—At the Methodist church last Monday evening the entertainment, which was given last Friday, was repeated. In the play "The Snuggles Family," the character parts were taken by Marion Butters, Harold Newcomb, Florence Ferguson, Rachel Rice, Grace Leonard, Margaret Webster, Elizabeth Fuller, Warren Fuller and Charles Ferguson. The characters in the play, "Love in Idleness," were taken by Burdett Mansfield, Eliza M. Leonard, Helen Ferguson and Marion O. Campbell. During the intermission a vocal solo was given by Miss Ruth Blaisdell and a violin solo by Miss Florence Ferguson. The entertainment was in charge of Mr. Clarence Campbell.

FOR THE PARTY.

Want something especially delicious to serve with the ices?

Want to delight every one present? Then order the favorite cake for all occasions

PLAIN RAISIN
CITRON
LADY MARBLE
DARK FRUIT SPONGE

SOLD IN ANY QUANTITY
ASK YOUR GROCER

Drake Bros. Co., Cake Bakers
Boston

If your particular grocer does not keep Drake's Cakes, we would thank you for his address.

Coffee

FREE DELIVERY

Tea

Sign of Big Tea Kettle
Greatest Variety and Finest Stock of Teas and Coffees in the World Retailing at Wholesale Prices

No State Packages. Your Order Filled with Fresh Roasted Coffee or New Crop Tea
ORIENTAL MALE HERRY JA VA
Best in the World

Oriental Tea Company
Importers and Retailers
ESTABLISHED IN 1888 AT
87 Court St., Scollay Sq., Boston
SEND FOR PRICE LIST

Telephone Automobile Supplies

James Cramp

MACHINIST

LAWN MOWERS

and All Kinds of Tools Sharpened

GENERAL MACHINE WORK

Automobile and Bicycle

Repairing

All Work Promptly Attended To

Bailey Place

NEWTONVILLE, MASS.

Rear Orr's Hardware Store

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC

Published every Friday at 10 Centre Place, - Newton, Mass.

Entered at the Post-office at Boston, Mass.
as second-class matter.

$2.00 per Year. Single Copies, 5 cents.
By mail free of postage.

All money sent at sender's risk.

All checks, drafts, and money orders
should be made payable to
NEWTON GRAPHIC PUBLISHING CO.,
J. C. BRIMMER, TREAS.

TELEPHONE NO. 77.

THE GRAPHIC is printed and mailed
Friday afternoons, and is for sale at all News-stands in the Newtons, and at the South Union Station, Boston.

All communications must be accompanied with the name of the writer, and unpublished communications cannot be returned by mail unless stamps are enclosed.

Notices of all local entertainments
to which admission is charged must be paid for at regular rates, 25 cents per line
in the reading matter, or $1.00 per inch in
the advertising columns.

I was sharply criticized this week for venturing to state recently what the opinion of the city was on a certain matter before the legislature. I recognize the difficulty in accurately gauging public opinion where no oportunity is given for a direct referendum. I assume no one would deny that the public opinion of this city is in favor of no license; and that under normal conditions, it would favor Republican candidates for office and Republican principles in government. But where minor matters are concerned it may well be an open question what a poll would show. On the matter criticized, I assumed that when the entire board of aldermen had voted unanimously in favor of certain legislation, when that action had been favorably commented upon in my presence by many past members of the city government and when no word of protest had been heard on the subject, I was justified in saying that the public opinion of the city was favorable. I may be wrong in this conclusion but I am willing to take the consequences of maintaining that position. In other matters of similar import, I firmly believe that public opinion is in favor of reducing the present high water rates in this city, and I should like very much to see a referendum on this subject. It might open the eyes of my friends and opposition. I also have faith enough in the intelligence of the voters of Newton to believe that they are willing to admit women tax payers to the right to vote for the city officers who will spend the money they pay for taxes and I also firmly believe that the city would be glad to express a favorable opinion on the subject of direct nominations for public officers, in spite of Representative Garcelon's position in opposition.

On these matters I believe I express the general opinion of Newton and until I see considerable light to the contrary I expect to advocate those measures in behalf of the city.

I wonder if the appointment of a committee by the aldermen to investigate the matter of garbage disposal had anything to do with the low price bid for the work last Monday.

STREET RAILWAY EMPLOYEES PLAY

The Suburban Railway Club, composed of employees of the Newton Street Railway Company and its allied roads, held a banquet and entertainment early Tuesday morning at Endicott hall, Waltham. The affair began at one o'clock in the morning, in order to allow all the men to attend and did not close until five o'clock. The entertainment consisted of a competitive program in which each division of the company contributed a number, for prizes offered by General Manager M. C. Brush and Asst. Manager C. A. Sylvester.
The Auburndale division gave vocal selections by a quartet, a cello, trombone, melohorn solos, a march, and a violin solo. The Newton and Boston division submitted recitations and a mock trial, the Waltham division gave two one-act farces, the Natick division a clog dance, and the Lexington division a minstrel show.

The judges, Mayor Walker of Waltham, Mr. Frank Sias of Newton Centre and Mr. Carl Alberte of Auburndale awarded first prize to the Newton & Boston division with 43 points and second to the Lexington division with 39 points.

A CARD

We thank most sincerely those who by sympathy and flowers helped us in our bereavement.

CLARA H. REED,
MRS. MARTHA REED.

On a Sabbatical Around the World

9. The Japanese at Home
By Prof. ALBERT BUSH-NESS HART.

The Earthquake and After

A review of Italy's own work of furnishing relief.
By H. NELSON GAY.

The Evening Schools'
Extra Activity

Simple ways in which Boston's children are taught at night.

Writers and Books
Music and Drama
Churchman Afield
Progress in Aeronautics

These are among the special feature articles to be found in the Boston

Transcript

Saturday, April 3, 1909

1865 THE OLD FIRM 1909
George H. Gregg & Son
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
All the Newtons 296 Walnut St., Newtonville

Women's Clubs.

Edited by Miss Grace M. Burt

The formation of classes within the clubs is something that seems to be growing in popularity. It may be a backward swing of the pendulum, not a retrograde motion, but a return on the part of some to the more serious work of a study club. A large portion of the clubs in the Federation in this state which have reached a membership of over two hundred either have departments that take charge of the program for certain of the regular meetings or are making a study of subjects of their special line of work. Other organizations form classes to study topics independently of the meetings of the club, sometimes they are offered to the members free of expenses, but more often there is a small fee additional to the regular membership. Occasionally these classes are open to outsiders upon the same terms as to members, but quite often there is a smaller fee to members than to non-members. Of the Newton clubs the Newton Centre Woman's Club has been foremost in the success of its classes and has offered to its members a greater variety than any of the others. This year they have included one in Current Events open free to all members, one in Shakespeare, one in Art Needlework, one for the study of English Cathedrals. During the spring there will be one for Bird Study and another in Botany. The Newtonville Guild has also made a beginning in this direction. Last year there was an Art class and this year one in Current Events has been conducted by Mrs.
May Alden Ward. The classes in this latter subject seem to be very popular throughout the clubs, possibly because it is an easy method of keeping in touch with matters of the day. They are, however, a great stimulus to the more intelligent understanding of present day affairs. In addition to these already named the choral and other musical classes offer opportunities to those who have ability in that line and become a great acquisition to the club itself. The choral class of the Dorchester Woman's Club is perhaps the best known and has been in existence for about fourteen years.
Its annual concert attracts club members from all about Greater Boston.
The Glee Club recently formed in the Cantabrigia Club of Cambridge is another such one which has already delighted the audience at the meeting of the State Federation. These are all examples which may well be followed and are just as much a part of the work as is the civic work.

A lecture on South America will be given by Senorita Hindobro in the chapel of the Auburndale Congregational church, on Tuesday evening,
April sixth, at eight o'clock. Senorita Hindobro is a native of South America and a brilliant and fascinating speaker. Her lecture will be fully illustrated by stereopticon pictures of unusual beauty. The Review Club, under whose auspices the lecture is given, extends a very cordial invitation to every one to be present, feeling sure that it will be a rare opportunity to enlarge one's knowledge of present conditions in South America.

The Newton Mothers' Club will meet with Mrs. L. B. Renfrew, 46
Clyde street, Newtonville, on Monday,
April 5th.

The next meeting of the Social Science Club on April 7 will be the monthly business session.

The Newtonville Woman's Guild will hold its annual musical next Tuesday afternoon at the New Church parlors.
The Current Events class of the Guild will meet on Thursday morning, April

The Late George D. Harvey

MR. G. D. HARVEY DEAD

Mr. George D. Harvey, one of the best known residents of Auburndale, died at his home in that village yesterday afternoon following a brief illness, since Monday, with abscess of the stomach.

George Daniel Harvey was born in Walpole, N. H., Dec. 20, 1840, his parents being Daniel and Fatima (Shedd) Harvey. He received his education in the public schools and the academy of his native town, and when fourteen years of age entered the employ of Norman H. Farr, a dry goods merchant at Bellows Falls, Vt. In 1857 he came to Boston and received employment in the firm of Farley, Bliss & Co., dry goods, where he remained until 1865.
From 1865 to 1868 he was in the wholesale department of Jordan, Marsh & Co., and then became the junior member of the firm of Farley, Amisden &

Co., the name being changed to Farley, Harvey & Co. in 1874; Mr. Harvey became the senior member of the firm on the death of Mr. N. W. Farley in 1881.

Mr. Harvey was a member of the Auburndale Congregational church, of the Home Market Club, the Republican Club, St. John's Free and Accepted Masons, St. Andrew's Chapter, Boston (Bethshmane) Commandery, Knights Templar, and was a director in the Fourth National Bank of Boston.

Mr. Harvey was twice married. His first wife was Miss Abba S. Briggs, by whom he had two sons, William D. of Newton Centre, and Fred P. Harvey of Reading. His second wife, by whom he is survived, was Miss Carrie V.
Batch of Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

Funeral services will be held on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock at his late home, 347 Central street, Auburndale.

ject "The Recent Revolution in Turkey and Its Consequences." Perhaps there is no one in America better fitted to speak with authority upon this subject than Dr. Barton from his long residence in that country. He said in part, that this revolution is more far-reaching than any other in the world and yet it has been accomplished without bloodshed. There were many difficulties attending it, since Turkey is not made up of one people, but of many peoples, and the hatred among the races has been exceedingly bitter. It is not merely a hatred of races but also a religious hatred. The empire extends about 1000 miles east to west, about 400 miles from the Black Sea to the Mediterranean and it is 1000 miles to the extreme southern limit. The population is 26,000,000 made up of many races including the leading historic races of the world. Dr.
Barton then went on to give some of the characteristics of these races. The Albanians, who are found in the northern part of Turkey in Europe have furnished the great generals, they have no literature and theirs is a mixed language. They are Mohammedans nominally. They are the great untamed race of Europe. In Western Turkey there are also the Greeks, who are the merchants, the bankers. In the East the Armenians are the most numerous and there correspond to the Greeks.
They are eager for education and are the enterprising people of the country.
In the east are also found the Kurds.
They belong to another historic race,
but very little is known about them and their history is still unwritten.

The great significance of this revolution is that it is a political upheaval. Up to July of last year Turkey was one of the most absolute monarchies of the world. There was no appeal from the will of the Sultan. His will was law and he ruled by a system of spies. Not less than 100,000 of them were thrown out of employment on July 24, 1908, when the constitution was proclaimed. Formerly the very wish of the Sultan had been law, but this was suddenly all changed under the constitution and the will of the people is now recognized. The reformers are known as the Young Turk party.
They obtained the oath of allegiance of the army and when the army no longer was loyal the Sultan was obliged to submit to the demands of the people. He, however, chose to proclaim the constitution himself. Since that time the whole palace force has been dismissed, his own private servants have been reduced in number, and the Sultan is doing no ruling at all. A parliament has been established and the people rule to-day.

Since this great social overturning the relations between the races has Continued on page 5.

The Newtonville Woman's Guild met on Tuesday afternoon, March 30. Miss Fanny B. Allen of West Newton gave a paper upon "A Visit to a Princess in Hungary." Miss Allen told of personal experiences in visiting an old school friend which were both interesting and entertaining.

The Newton Centre Woman's Club observed "guest night" on Thursday evening, March 25, in Bray hall. A reception was followed by the presentation of two plays. The first entitled,
"The Locket" was written by Miss Julia C. Colby, a daughter of one of the club members. The parts were taken as follows: Miss Tyler, Miss Lord, Miss Colby, Mr. Seltz, Mr. Hammond, Mr. Forbush. The second was "The Kleptomaniac," the parts being taken by Miss Twombly, Miss B.
Springer, Miss Shannon, Miss F.
Springer, Miss M. Cobb. The Mendelsohn trio rendered selections between the acts and for dancing which was continued until midnight. Both plays were well staged and received enthusiastic applause.

At the meeting of the Social Science Club on Wednesday morning the president, Mrs. H. H. Powers, referred briefly and feelingly to the loss which the club has sustained in the death of Mrs. M. E. Stetson. The formal tribute will be presented at the meeting next week.

The speaker of the morning was
Rev. Dr. James L. Barton and his sub-

BOSTON, MASS.
95 to 105 WASHINGTON ST.
The new management of this store confidently stakes
a seventy-five-year reputation for reliability, and for keeping up to the fashion,
on its present output, the
most interesting SPRING
CLOTHES that have appeared for years; with long lapels, close-set buttons, cuff
sleeves, etc., of attractive pattern and design.

SUITS FROM
$12.50 TO $30.00
OVERCOATS FROM
$15.00 TO $30.00

James O. O'Brien
(22)

DR. N. LOUISE RAND
OSTEOPATH
50 CHESTNUT ST., WEST NEWTON
Office Hours
Monday, Wednesday and Friday 2-5 P. M.
Telephone 204-5 Newton West

WANTED

Three hairs from your head. Falling hair is caused by pinched nerves;
all hair is governed by nerves; send me 3 hairs wrapped in clean paper for chemical analysis. HYRON EFFORD, competent osteopath on hair, 194
Hoyland Street, Boston.

A. H. WAITT

390 Centre Street
Phone 882-2 Newton North

FOR RENT

Lower apt. in new house, will be ready MAY 1st. 7 rms. and bath, set tubs, gas, gas range, hot-water heat,
lease at 39 per month, including water.
Nice 10-room house in good neighborhood, convenient, for lease at $30
mo.

BRIGHTON

A new 2-family house, ready April
15th. Upper, 7 rooms and bath, $28.
Lower, 6 rooms and bath, $25.
Now is the time to list your houses
with me for results.

FOR SALE

WEST NEWTON
Modern 7-room house and stable,
6,250 feet land, $3,250.

BRIGHTON
NEW 2-family house, $6,200.

WEST NEWTON
Newly refinished house, 9,420 feet
land, $8,000, easy terms. INVESTI-GATE.
A house of 11 rooms, bath, etc.,
7,500 feet land, $6,500.

AUBURNDALE
A nice house, 9 rooms and bath,
5,900 feet land, $2,750, $300 or $400
down, bal. mtg.
Consult my new up-to-date list of SPRING BARGAINS if you contemplate buying.

Something New in
Cold Storage of Furs

Our new (permanently installed) VACUUM PROCESS for the cleaning of FURS and RUGS is just completed. By this new method surprising results are obtained without the least injury to the furs.

Absolute cleanliness is insured without injury to the pelts,
which was unavoidable under the old method of whipping now commonly in use. This new cleaner is used on all furs and rugs without further charge than regular storage rates.

FURS CALLED FOR AND DELIVERED

Telephone Oxford 620-621

LAMSON & HUBBARD

FURRIERS

92 Bedford St., Boston, Mass.

NO DOUBT

You are going to paper one or more rooms this Spring. Let us
Show You Our Line of Wall Papers

WE ALSO TINT CEILINGS

HOUGH & JONES CO.

Tel. 732-2 North

244 Washington Street

Newton

NEWTON CO-OPERATIVE BANK

SHARES SOLD MARCH AND SEPTEMBER

Money Available at all times on Newton Mortgages

Bank Meetings Monthly, 1st Tuesday, 8 P. M.

JAMES W. FRENCH, Pres.
Tremont Bldg., Boston

J. CHEEVER FULLER, Secy. and Treas.
297 Walnut St., Newtonville

P. SIMONS

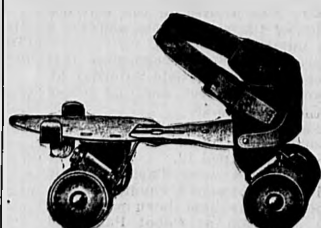

The Old Reliable Ladies' Tailor

Suits and Outside Garments Made in the Latest Styles.

PERFECT FIT GUARANTEED

3 MOODY ST., WALTHAM.

Telephone 185-3 Waltham.

Extension Roller Skates

50c., $1.00, $1.50 and upwards

SHEET BRASS & GERMAN SILVER

for Lamp Shades, Trays, Etc.

Fringe, Fasteners and Tools, Jig

Saws and Woods

CHANDLER & BARBER

HARDWARE DEALERS

124 Summer St., Boston, Mass.

FINE UPHOLSTERING

Antique and Second Hand Furniture

Bought and Sold

Window Shades To Order

Furniture Packing and Shipping

SEELEY BROS. CO.

803 Washington St., Newtonville, Tel. 703-1 N

Telephone 306-2 Brighton

MATTRESSES
MADE OVER

WILLIAM P. MULCAHY

UPHOLSTERING

CARPET WORK

372 Washington St., BRIGHTON, MASS.

THE Woman's Journal

A SUFFRAGE PAPER

Published Weekly

EDITED BY

Alice Stone Blackwell

6 Beacon St., Boston

$1.00 PER YEAR

Automobile Painting
and Repairing

Alterations Made and Repairing a Specialty

J. P. RAMES

815 WALTHAM ST., WEST NEWTON
Telephone 398-3 Newton West

KIDDER, PEABODY & CO.

115 DEVONSHIRE ST. 56 WALL ST.
BOSTON NEW YORK

Investment Securities

Foreign Exchange

Letters of Credit

Agents and Attorneys for Baring Brothers & Co., Ltd.

LONDON

EASTER PLANTS

LILIES, CARNATIONS, AZALEAS, HYDRANGERS

SPIRAEAS, GERANIUMS, ROSES, CARNATIONS AND VIOLETS

TEL. NEW. NORTH 733-4

NEWTON ROSE CONSERVATORIES

Orders delivered to all parts of Newton.

H. S. COURTNEY, Manager

DRY COLD STORAGE

For Furs, Woolen Clothing, Rugs

Constant improvement of our facilities and increase of this branch of our business enables us to offer you a Reduced Rate of only 3% of the agreed valuation.

FURS CALLED FOR & DELIVERED

A. N. COOK & CO.
(N. C. COOK, Proprietor)
161 Tremont Street, Boston.

Newtonville.

—Mr. George M. Bridges is making improvements to his house on Walnut street.

—Mrs. L. E. Huston of Newtonville avenue is reported seriously ill at the Newton hospital.

—Miss Rose Cunningham will give a pupils' piano recital in Temple hall to-morrow afternoon.

—Miss Dorothy Lucas of Kirkstall road is back from the Bennett school at Millbank, N. Y.

—Mrs. Mabel Barnes of Lowell avenue has returned from a visit to friends in Fitchburg.

—Mrs. E. F. Claflin of Mount Vernon street left Wednesday to visit friends in Providence, R. I.

—Col. C. H. French delivered an interesting lecture on "India and Switzerland" in the hall of the Horace Mann school, Wednesday evening.

—Owing to illness Dr. Edwood Worcester has been obliged to cancel all outside engagements, and will not speak at St. John's church, Rev. Daniel Dulany Addison, D.D., rector of All Saints church, Brookline, will preach in his stead next Sunday afternoon.

West Newton.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Macomber of Prince street are home from Washington, D. C.

—Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Shattuck of Austin street are home from a month's trip to Havana.

—Mr. Henry E. Copeland and family are occupying their new home on Mt. Vernon street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Day of Chestnut street have returned from Hot Springs, Va.

—The Journey Club meet at Mrs. Arthur G. Hosmer's, Austin street, on Thursday afternoon last.

—Mrs. W. B. H. Dowse and daughter, Miss Beatrice, are home from a week's stay in New York.

—Miss Marguerite Whidden of Winthrop street returned on Sunday from a five weeks' trip in Mexico.

—Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Palmer and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Cress arrived home on Saturday from Atlantic City.

—Mr. George P. Bullard of Temple street arrived home on Saturday from a six weeks' trip on the continent.

—Miss H. E. Hart of New York is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. H. Kimberly of Fairfax street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Palmer, nee Perkins of Margin street, have taken an apartment in the Lyman, Wellesley Hills.

—Letter Carrier and Mrs. Charles A. Luffe of Henshaw terrace are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter.

—Mr. Jarvis Lamson, Jr., of New York is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis Lamson of Temple street.

—Mr. F. W. Woodward of Washington street has moved to the Jonsson house on Webster street, which he recently purchased.

—Miss Ruth Friend of Prince street has returned from the Newton hospital, following an operation, and is reported as convalescent.

—Mr. N. L. Berry, formerly instructor in drawing in the Newton schools, will have an art exhibit at the Neighborhood clubhouse in the near future.

—Mr. H. A. Baker, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Abbot Mann of Sewall street, left on Wednesday for his home in Buffalo, N. Y.

—Rehearsals are in progress for the play "Why Smith Left Home," to be given by the Players' Club in Players' hall on the evenings of April 26, 27 and 28th.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Elkins of Highland street have returned from a trip embracing points of interest in Atlantic City, Washington, D.C., and New York City.

—The Senior Class, N. H. S., held a well attended dance at the Northgate Club on Saturday evening.

—P. S. Webster and Mrs. E. D. Van Tassel were the matrons.

—King Solomon Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Boston paid a visit to Newton Lodge, No. 92, on Wednesday evening.

Following the degree work, speeches and an entertainment were enjoyed.

—Rodney M. Lucas observed his 85th birthday at his home on Hunter street Saturday evening, when he received many hearty congratulations of a host of friends.

—Special services are to be held at the Second Congregational church on the evenings of Holy Week. On Good Friday evening the preacher will be Rev. Frank R. Shipman of Andover.

—Anthony Louis formerly of West Newton announces that he is now engaged with M. H. Haase, Newton.

All orders for upholstery, by mail or telephone, will receive his personal attention.

—Rev. Robert W. Van Kirk and family are occupying the Lincoln Park church parsonage, having moved this week from Jackson, Mich. Rev. Van Kirk will preach his first sermon on Sunday, April 4th.

—There was a peculiar accident Wednesday afternoon when a pony owned by W. J. Forbush and a bicycle rider collided at Washington and Highland street. Neither the rider nor the animal were seriously injured.

—There was a well attended tea at the residence of Mrs. Edward M. Myrick of Exeter street last week Thursday, from 4 to 6. Mrs. Myrick was assisted in receiving by Mrs. J. C. Jaynes and Mrs. John S. Alley. Miss Alley, Miss Myrick, Miss Berry and Miss Sherman poured. The house was attractively decorated with palms, cut-flowers and orchids.

—The resolution, "that Spanish war veterans should be given 10 per cent preference in civil service examinations," was debated by the Newton Catholic club members last evening, the affirmative being taken by Bernard D. Farrell and James Hargodon and the negative by Frank Kelly and William Geegan.

—Box 352 was rung in Wednesday for a fire on the roof of the house of Cole Williams, 137 Hicks street, caused by locomotive sparks. The quick work of the firemen extinguished with little damage resulting a blaze that would have threatened the Hicks street neighborhood had it gained much headway.

—Mrs. Mary J. Houghton, for many years a resident of this village died on Monday at her home, corner of Washington and Elm streets, after a long period of failing health. She was 81 years of age and was the widow of the late Benjamin F. Houghton, for whom "Houghton's corner" was named. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Frank Fuller. Funeral services were held at her late home on Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Dr. H. J. Patrick and Rev. Dr. T. P. Prudden officiating. The Mendelssohn quartet sang "Some Sweet Day," "Lead, Kindly Light" and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere."

—Mills undertaking rooms, 817-819 Washington street, Newtonville. Tel. 112-3. Leave calls with H. S. Hiltz, Elliot Station.

—Papers have been prepared for the sale of the Hoxie house on Walnut street to Mr. Allen W. Parmeter of Cambridge, who expects to take possession May 1st.

—Mrs. Emeline Crane, a former well known resident of this place has moved to San Francisco, Cal., where she will make her home with relatives.

—Mr. W. R. Marsh of Garden City, N. Y., has been visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Marsh of Lake avenue.

—Miss M. J. Sedgwick of Floral street, who has been ill several weeks, is improving.

—Mr. John Hardy of San Domingo is visiting his brother, Mr. George Hardy of Floral street.

—At the Congregational church last Sunday evening, Rev. Roy B. Guild, New England Field Secretary for the Congregational Church Building Society, gave an illustrated lecture on "The Evolution of the West." The pictures described the industrial, social and religious development of the Great American Desert. A large audience was present.

—Mr. A. B. C. Deming of Erie avenue is out again after a two weeks illness with the grippe.

—Miss Helen Mansfield is visiting friends in Rahway, N. J.

—Mr. and Mrs. P. Hutchinson of Lincoln street have returned home from their trip to Atlantic City, N. J.

—The Rev. J. E. Charlton completed his pastorate at the Methodist church last Sunday. The audience of the evening overflowed into the vestry when the pastor preached on "Christ is all, and in all." Sixteen persons were received into the church.

—The Rev. Arthur Bonner of Northampton, a former pastor, will preach both morning and evening at the Methodist church next Sunday.

Newton Highlands

—The Twentieth Annual Convention of the Christian Endeavorers of Middlesex County will be held on "Patriots' Day," Monday, April 19th, at the First Baptist church, Malden.

There will be afternoon and evening sessions at 2.30 and 7.00 o'clock, respectively.

The local arrangements are being cared for by committees from the Christian Endeavor societies of the Everett and Malden Local Union, under the general direction of Mr. John F. Root. Mr. Herbert A. Snow, of Arlington, who is President of the County Union and Chairman of the Program Committee, announces that the Convention topic will be "The Call for Reapers." The list of speakers with their topics he expects to announce next week.

The office of A. H. Walt reports the sale of the Crosby house, Park street, which is to be torn down and removed. Also the sale of the house, 40 Capitol street, Watertown, H. W. Otis owner.

—The new chorus vested choir will begin next Sunday at the Methodist church and will be in addition to Miss Williams the soloist. Prof. Maxm of Pratt Maxm of the Faxon Piano School, Boston, will be the conductor.

—Mr. Kenneth Churchhill, who is a member of the freshman class at Bowdoin College, has been elected recording secretary of the Bowdoin Christian Association.

—An interesting meeting of the Men's Outlook class was held Sunday at Central church. Mr. George H. Ellis was the guest of the class and spoke on "The Open or Closed Shop."

Remember Our Toric Bifocals are

The Best Combination of Far and Near Lenses that can be made

Pinkham & Smith Company

TWO (288-290 Boylston Street) Boston
STORES (13 1/2 Bromfield Street) Boston

J. W. McIntyre. The pretty souvenirs were awarded to Mrs. Crawford, Mrs. Bell, of Brookline, Mrs. Hyfield, Mrs. Sampson, Miss Helen Clarke and Mrs. Foster. The table decorations were jonquils and violets and the same colors were carried out in the cakes and ices.

The scores at which Saturday night were as follows:—

Gregory and Gleason	79
Hyfield and F. E. Sawyer	76
Hickox and Wilcox	70
Sprague and E. F. Sawyer	69
Crawford and Tolman	67
Roney and Eustis	64
Snyder and Cummings	63
Gay and Dexter	63
Estabrooks and Alexander	63
Loring and Hall	63
Tuttle and Douglas	58
Marshall and Naylor	56
Sampson and Jos. Smith	52
Brown and Walt	51
Pearson and Edmonds	51
Uiley and Alden	45

LINCOLN FARM ASSOCIATION

Contributions for the Lincoln Farm Association have been received from the following:

Messrs. George Hutchinson, Henry B. Day, Benj. S. Palmer, F. W. Remick, Norman H. George, Clifton H. Dwinell, John S. Alley, Josiah E. Bacon, Col. Isaac F. Kingsbury, Mr. Charles S. Ensign, Mrs. Charles S. Ensign, Miss A. Gertrude Ensign, Mr. W. N. Donovan, Miss Elizabeth M. Kelley, Mrs. Frances J. Young, Mr. Walter Koenig, Mr. Ed. Arthur Ryall.

Contributions may be left at the Drug Stores, or with the following members of the committee:

Messrs. William C. Bray, Frank E. Spaulding, John S. Alley, A. C. Burnett, William F. Bacon.

EDWIN C. CHILDS, JR., Treas. Lincoln Centenary Committee for the City of Newton.

MIDDLESEX COUNTY C. E.

The office of A. H. Walt reports the sale of the Crosby house, Park street, which is to be torn down and removed. Also the sale of the house, 40 Capitol street, Watertown, H. W. Otis owner.

—The new chorus vested choir will begin next Sunday at the Methodist church and will be in addition to Miss Williams the soloist. Prof. Maxm of Pratt Maxm of the Faxon Piano School, Boston, will be the conductor.

—Mr. Kenneth Churchhill, who is a member of the freshman class at Bowdoin College, has been elected recording secretary of the Bowdoin Christian Association.

—An interesting meeting of the Men's Outlook class was held Sunday at Central church. Mr. George H. Ellis was the guest of the class and spoke on "The Open or Closed Shop."

AMONG WOMEN

Continued from page 4.

been greatly changed. They are now uniting in building up the Ottoman Empire. Formerly the Sultan could not let the people travel. As soon as the constitution went into effect there was immediately freedom of travel, anyone can come and go all over the empire. In the same way freedom of the press has been obtained. There were almost no newspapers before this time and what there were, were under strictest censorship. Now papers are springing up all over the country and American and European papers are also circulated freely.

The effect of all this change upon the life of the people is colossal. It cannot be expressed.

But the greatest significance is the religious one. It has been a Mohammedan country. The Mohammedans had certain rights, while the Christians had none. But recently a Mohammedan has been condemned to death for killing a Greek Christian. The most astonishing change is the recognition on the part of the Mohammedan high priest that they and the Christians worship the same God and that as a consequence they are all brethren.

This was proclaimed in the name of the Sultan. They now admit that they are only a part of the people of the world. The speaker feels that this is the beginning of the disintegration of Mohammedanism. Since religious liberty has been declared many Mohammedans are found in the Christian schools. A new era in Mohammedanism is now opening.

MORTGAGES

LOANS AT FAIR RATES
ON NEWTON REAL ESTATE

WEST NEWTON SAVINGS BANK

HOURS, 8.30 TO 12 AND 1 TO 3

SATURDAY, 8.30 TO 12

HALL & LYON CO.

OF NEW ENGLAND

The Rexall Store.

APOTHECARIES

HALLS CORNER, 117 Moody St., WALTHAM

WALTHAM'S MONEY SAVING DRUG STORE

Spring Medicines at Cut Prices

$1.00 Sagwa	85c	Rexall Beef Iron Wine, pint.	45c
50c Sagwa	45c	Rexall Co. Syr. Hypophos	85c
$1.50 Fellow's Syrup	$1.15	Rexall Sarsaparilla Tonic	69c
$1.00 Peruna	83c	Rexall Mucutone	89c
$1.00 Hood's Sarsap	75c	Rexall Bamboo Brier	69c
$1.00 Pinkham's Comp.	71c	Rexall Americanitis 75c and $1.50
$1.00 Swamp Root	72c	5 gr. Blaud Pill, 100 for	19c
$1.00 Father John	79c	5 gr. Cascara Tab., 100 for	19c
25c Kickapoo Pills	20c	2 gr. Quinine Pills, 100 for	19c
25c Beecham Pills	20c	Hall Blood Maker	50c
$1.50 Kennedy Discovery	$1.25	Sedlitz Powders, 1 doz.	20c
50c Doan's Kidney	39c	Hydrogen Per Oxide, pint	25c
25c Atwood's Bitters	17c	Pure Imported Olive Oil, pint.	50c

House Cleaning Necessities

Col-Tar Inc, pt	25c	Moth Balls	10c
Col-Tar Inc, qt	40c	Cedar Lavender Co.	15c
Hall's Disinfectant	25c	Moth Flakes	10c
Ant. Bug and Roach Pr	10 & 25c	Martin's Pest Exterminators	50c
Rough on Rats	15 & 25c	Chloride Lime, lb	15c
Pr Borax, 1 lb	15c	Household Ammonia, pt	10c

STATIONERY

We are Selling a line of Stationery in boxes and pads, Passepartouts, Paper Waste Baskets, Inks, Muclilage, Pastes, etc., at our usual low prices.

Iver Johnson
Racyle
Columbia

STANDARD MAKES OF BICYCLES IN STOCK

Hardware, Paint and Oils

KODAKS and SUPPLIES

W. E. Tomlinson EDDY BLOCK
WEST NEWTON

Easter Offerings Lamson Prints in Easter Covers 10c to 35c. Easter Cards, Booklets and Post Cards in great variety

ALSO Latest Colors and Styles in Neckwear and Gloves That May Interest You

MARY E. HOSMER

1405 Washington Street - West Newton

A. L. JORDAN

House Painter and Interior Decorator

Latest Designs in Wall Papers. (Refinishing Furniture a Specialty)

54 Chestnut Street (near depot) West Newton Telephone Connection

Ladies and Mens Fine Tailoring

Remodeling, Pressing, Cleaning and Dyeing, Alterations, Etc.

First Class Monthly Work at Reduced Prices. Satisfaction Guaranteed.

G. SHERMAN

52 Chestnut Street - West Newton

HOUSE LOTS, NEWTONVILLE

FOR SALE—Desirable building lots in good locality, 5 to 10 minutes walk from railroad station. Apply in person, by mail or by letter to G. W. Aubrey, 12 Judkins St., Newtonville.

FOR SALE—Loose hay for cows, fine condition. H. Swallow, Concord St., Newton Lower Falls.

TO LET—Large furnished front chamber, bay window, steam heat and gas. Also front and back attic. Apply at 1055 Washington St., West Newton, Mass.

TO LET—NEWTON—Two large square rooms, on bath room floor, connected by hall opening to private veranda. Best of table board; 3 minutes to steam and electric. Terms, reasonable. Address N. Box 49. Tel. 86-5, Newton North.

TO LET—Large furnished front room and alcove, suitable for one or two gentlemen, with heat, gas, bath and use of telephone. Convenient to everything. Apply after 6.30 P. M. at Suite 5, The Carlton, 239 Washington Street, Newton.

TO LET—5 pleasant rooms up stairs, to a small family for light housekeeping. Rent, 15 dollars per month. Inquire of H. Lentell, 49 Pearl, opposite Peabody St.

STABLE FOR RENT—Four stalls, two carriage houses, adjoining rear of Robinson Block, West Newton. F. D. Tarlton, Agent.

Wanted.

WANTED—A second-hand Orient Buckboard. Apply Box 2, Newton.

ROOM WITH BREAKFASTS WANTED—Within 5 or 6 minutes walk from Newton station, vicinity Vernon and Baldwin Streets preferred; house with modern plumbing; reasonable, permanent. Address L. Graphic Office.

BOY WANTED—About 15, to take care of horses, pantry and garden; chance for something better if satisfactory. No cigarette smoker wanted. 213 Commonwealth Ave., Auburndale, Tel. Newton West, 345-4.

EXPERIENCED DRUGMAKER would like more engagements by the day. Address D. Graphic Office.

FOUND—An English Gordon Setter, no name or collar. Owner can have same by calling at 38 Cemetery Ave., Newton Centre.

EGGS FOR HATCHING—Single comb White Leghorn, splendid stock, $1.50 per 15, $3.00 per 100. Barred Plymouth Rock, from Orms station stock, $1.50 per 15, Nevada St. Poultry Yards, 133 Nevada St., Newtonville.

EGGS FOR INVALIDS, from grain fed hen; delicate flavor; each week dated when packed; large and small sizes. Prices reasonable. Nevada St. Poultry Yards, 133 Nevada St., Newtonville.

How About It?

Do your dress shirts always please you when you open your laundry package? They will if we do your work, for it's a hobby with us to have them laundered with a clear, even, domestic finish; smooth neck-band, raised eyelets for studs, no bulging of bosom on either side, and with cuffs curved ready to button.

Better try us next week!

Waltham Laundry Company

Telephone, Newton West 345-4
G. A. FREEMAN, AGENT
2163 COMMONWEALTH AVE., AUBURNDALE

Frederic Hinkley Edward F. Woods
HINKLEY & WOODS
FIRE INSURANCE
32 KILBY ST.
BOSTON
MOVABLE, BURGLARY AND EVERY DESCRIPTION OF INSURANCE AT LOWEST RATES.
Telephone 1465, 1466, 1467 & 4085 Wm.

The Allen School
WEST NEWTON, MASS.

EVERETT STARR JONES, Head Master.
For Boys ranging in age from ten upwards Special attention given to individual requirements. Large and efficient corps of instructors First class equipment

Telephone N. West 361-1.

PARIS PATTERN SUPPLY CO.

Are fitting Ladies to Dresses Absolutely Perfect in Paper Patterns of Advanced Designs. Shirts, Jackets, Waists and Shirt Waists. Etc. From these fitted patterns a lady can make her dress without trying on.

169 Tremont Street, Near New Herald Bldg. Boston

1829 1908

Lewandos

AMERICA'S GREATEST

Cleanders Dyers Launderers

TELEPHONE 300 NEWTON NORTH CONNECTS ALL DEPARTMENTS

Cleanse or Dye and Refinish	Clothes	Blankets	Curtains
	Portieres	Draperies	Rugs
	Carpets	Gloves	Laces
			Ribbons

Ornate Feathers Cleaned Curled Dyed and Old Feathers made over into Tips and Plumes

Our teams running from Watertown Shop 1 Glen Street call for and deliver packages in all the Newtons

OUR LAUNDRY WORK IS THE BEST OBTAINABLE

Lewandos Lewandos Lewandos

Boston Shops 284 Boylston Street and 17 Temple Place

Trees! Shrubs! Roses!

Buy Direct From Grower and Save Money

We are the largest growers of Fruit and Ornamental Trees, Shrubs, Roses, and Old Fashioned Flowers in New England. 300 Acres. No Agents.

Large Illustrated Catalogue FREE

THE NEW ENGLAND NURSERIES, Inc.,

Bedford, Mass.

Telephone Lexington 274-3

BUY AN ADJUSTED

DOG MUZZLE

for 25c, 50c and 75c of

D. J. MAHONEY, Harnessmaker

Watertown Square

Mfr. of Fine Harness and Dealer in Ready Made Harnesses, Robes, Blankets, Whips, Etc.

FOR SALE AT A BARGAIN

One High Potted Antique Mahogany Bedstead (very desirable) original cost $300.

One Antique Mahogany Dresser with Mirror.

One Antique Mahogany Secretary.

One Antique Claw Foot Sofa.

One Antique Mahogany (10') Angle Top English Centre Table.

Every piece in perfect condition. Call and look them over.

W. H. TABOR

Upholsterer

567 Main Street, Waltham

Telephone 484-4

MAX KEEZER

HARVARD STUDENTS' CAST-OFF

CLOTHING FOR SALE

DRESS SUITS TO LET

3 Bow St., Cambridge Mass.

Take Harvard Square Car and get off at Quincy Hall

TELEPHONE 1731-1 CAMBRIDGE

Monumental Work

IN GRANITE AND MARBLE

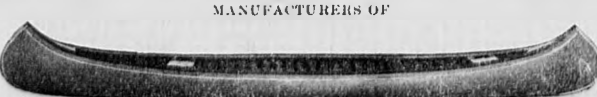

Lettering in Cemeteries satisfactorily done

Open Wednesday, Friday and Saturday Evenings

M. KEANE, Telephone 188-2 731 Main St., Waltham

H. B. ARNOLD & CO.

MANUFACTURERS OF

Canvas Boats and Canoes

Above canoe represents ARNOLD'S ORIGINAL BOW. We build the prettiest, safest and easiest paddling canoe on the river. If you are thinking of purchasing a canoe call on us and we will show you what we have in the canoe line.

Boats and Canoes To Let

299 Crescent Street, Waltham, Mass.

ELECTRIC CARS PASS THE DOOR.

Newtonville.

—Small pig heads, 14c, Harcourt's.

—Mrs. D. C. Heath of Highland avenue returns this week from a visit to relatives in Vermont.

—The young son of Mr. D. M. Leonard of Albemarle road has recovered from an attack of pneumonia.

—At the residence of Mrs. John Goddard on Brookside avenue yesterday the last regular all day sewing meeting of the Woman's League was held.

—At the annual New England conference of the Methodist Women's Aid Union held in Malden, Friday, Mrs. Bridges was among those making addresses.

—At the recent annual meeting of the New England Street Railway Club held in Boston, Mr. Matthew C. Brush was elected a member of the executive committee.

—Mr. Frederick B. Homer of Kimball terrace is a promoter of the New England Lead, Zinc Mines Company of Portland, recently incorporated under the laws of Maine.

—Rev. James W. Campbell of Newtonville avenue left Wednesday to attend the annual Methodist conference in Lowell. He will return and occupy his own pulpit on Sunday.

—Mr. Edward K. Hall of Beaumont avenue was in New York the last of the week where he went to attend the annual meeting of the inter-collegiate football rules committee.

—At the annual meeting of the Massachusetts Bible Society held recently at the rooms of the Twentieth Century Club, Rev. Charles M. Southgate of Mt. Vernon street was elected superintendent.

—A food sale under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary, will be held at St. John's church, Saturday afternoon, April 10th. The Young Woman's Club will hold a candy sale at the same time.

—The subscription assembly held at the Newton Boat Club last evening was attended by about 20 couples. Dancing was from 8 to 11.30. The patrons were Mrs. William E. Brown and Miss Fannie Lane.

—Col. Frank B. Stevens of Birch Hill road was among the guests and speakers and Mr. Herbert S. Kempton was another guest at the dinner given in honor of George F. Babbitt of the Boston Herald in Boston last Friday evening.

—Rev. James W. Campbell is arranging for a lecture on "The Diamond Fields of Dixie," to be given later at the Methodist church. This will be descriptive of a journey through the south land and will be illustrated by stereoscopic views.

—A Lenten service will be held at the First Universalist church next Wednesday evening at 7.30. Rev. Harvey Maxwell of Somerville will preach the sermon and the quartet will assist at the musical service.

—Prof. David S. Blaupied of Crafts street was elected president of the Montpelier Seminary Alumni Association at the annual meeting and banquet held Friday evening at the Copple Square hotel, Boston.

—The regular meeting of the Universalist Men's Club will be held Monday evening in the parish house of the Universalist church. The members of the central club will be the special guests. Supper will be served at 6.30, and later Hon. John N. Cole will speak on "Paternalism in Government."

—The regular meeting of the Every Saturday Club will be held Saturday evening at the home of Mr. Edward W. Greene of Mt. Vernon street. "Tennyson's Religious Views" will be the topic, several of his poems being considered. The committee in charge is Mrs. W. C. Boyden, Rev. J. T. Stocking and Mrs. Mary R. Martin.

—The finance committee of Central church has made the following appointments: for ushers, Messrs. John L. Palmer, chief usher, E. E. Wakefield, Jr., Russell C. Gibbs, Samuel Craig, George S. Montgomery, Lawrence Bevan; for collectors, Messrs. Lewis Puffer, William H. Carey, Louis V. Washburn, Robert W. Boyden, Adam Craig, Evert C. Caldwell, Edwin Vose, Lawrence Montgomery.

—The Newton High School Club, connected with the Massachusetts Institute of Technology has chosen the following officers to serve the coming year: President, A. A. Gould, '10; Secretary, M. C. Sherman, '10; Treasurer, J. Fuller, '11. A new constitution was adopted and a committee was appointed to arrange for the annual dinner the second week in April, at which the retiring president, F. M. Green, '09, will act as toastmaster.

—Passion week services are to be held at Central church from April 6th to April 9th, at 7.45 o'clock. The general theme will be "Salvation Through Christ." The speakers will be as follows: Tuesday, Rev. Dr. W. C. Gorton of Auburndale; Wednesday, Rev. Dr. George T. Smart of Newton Highlands; Thursday, Rev. W. C. Rhoades of Roxbury; Friday, Rev. A. B. Penniman of Chicago. The Lord's supper will be observed Friday evening.

Auburndale.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Proffit of the Melrose moved Friday to Plympton.

—Mr. Alexander P. Maynard of Lexington street is back from a Southern trip.

—Mrs. E. M. Mason of Commonwealth avenue is in Boston for a few weeks.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Darling sailed on the Canopic for Naples March 27, 1909.

—Mrs. Robert H. James and children of Central street are in Lakewood, N. J. for a few weeks.

—Miss Elizabeth T. Ordway of Grove street is back from a visit to friends in Hartford, Conn.

—Mr. R. S. Elliot has been making extensive improvements to his residence on Auburn street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Kirby of Myrtle avenue are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

—Mr. J. P. Waring and family of Lexington street have returned from a trip to Virginia Beach, Virginia.

—Miss Dora Allen of Washington street, will continue her visit in Jamaica through the spring season.

—Miss Dorothy Gore entertained the Searchlight Club last Monday afternoon at her home on Rowe street.

—Mr. James P. Murphy and family have moved here from West Newton and will reside at 89 Charles street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Thorndike of Islington road are back from a visit to Summerville, South Carolina.

—Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Fluke of Weston have arrived in England going across on the Saxonia of the Cunard line.

—The Sunday school benevolence at the Congregational church during April will be for the American Missionary Association.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Barrot of the Oxford, Boston, have rented the Tyler house on Hancock street and are moving in this week.

—Mr. and Mrs. Alfred H. Aldrich have moved here from Newton and are making their home in the Snow house on Fern street.

—Mr. Roswell S. Douglass will be in Lowell Sunday where he will speak on "The Laymen's Movement," at the Methodist Conference.

—The Home Circle teams will call for goods for rummage sale, on Monday and Tuesday, April 12th and 13th. Please have goods ready.

—The Centenary Methodist church is undergoing repairs. A portion of the auditorium is being repainted and a new carpet is being laid.

—Mr. Alexander McLeod left Tuesday for visits to Montreal, Canada, and Evert, Michigan on his way to his home in Northwest territory.

—At Lasell seminary last Tuesday evening a pupils' recital was given which was largely attended by the teachers, pupils and their friends.

—Lasell seminary closed today for the Easter recess. A party of students will enjoy a trip to Washington, chaperoned by a member of the faculty.

—Mr. Frank Carey, who is a student at Amherst college, has been elected one of the editors of the Olio, the college year book of the junior class.

—The young daughter of Mr. J. S. Smith of Auburn street has recovered from an attack of typhoid fever and has returned from the Newton hospital.

—Miss Carrie Lamond has returned from Mt. Holyoke college for the Easter vacation. The Misses Ruth Strongman and Emily Farley are back from Vassar.

—Mr. Fred E. Whiting of Islington road will have the sympathy of his many friends in the death of his father, Mr. George F. Whiting, in Cambridge last Sunday.

—Miss Ann B. Smith, a teacher for 33 years at the Williams grammar school died of pneumonia last Sunday at her home in Natick. She was about 68 years of age. Two brothers and one sister survive her.

—The union evangelist services are being continued, a union meeting having been held at the Methodist church last Sunday evening. Next Sunday evening the service will be at the Congregational church and the following Sunday at the Church of the Messiah.

—At the church of the Messiah Holy week will be observed as follows: Monday, Tuesday and Saturday, evening prayer at 4.30; Wednesday, service and pictures at 4.30; Monday, Thursday, holy communion at 7.45 and Good Friday, morning prayer and ante communion at 9 o'clock.

—In the recent blackthorn stick prize contest of the Boston Post Mr. Robert Moore Douglas of Charles street had an Irish bog oak shillalah said to be a relic of what is known as the Mitchellstown massacre of September 9th, 1857. Mr. J. F. Douglas of Charles avenue also had a stick on exhibition said to be 111 years old.

LADIES' TAILOR AND DRESSMAKING SUITS, SKIRTS AND COATS TO ORDER. Fancy and Costumes for all occasions, style and fit guaranteed. Alterations, Cleansing and Pressing.

L. E. CARNALL
266 Moody St. WALTHAM, MASS

JOBBER PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO Estimates Given

HARDWOOD FLOORS A SPECIALTY
RODERICK MACLEAN
Carpenter and Builder

Shop: 10 Centre Place, Tel. 384-2
Residence: 36 Thornton Street Newton, Mass.

Middlesex Collection Agency
COLLECTIONS MADE ANYWHERE
No Collection, Established 1908. No Charge
General Office, Room 8, A. O. U. W. Building
Waltham

HARCOURT'S MARKET

841 Washington Street

Headquarters for the Famous

Hatchet Brand of Canned Goods

CHOICE MEATS

FRUITS and VEGETABLES

BUTTER and EGGS

Our Motto: The Best.

Telephone Newton North 131.

The Children's Favorite Photographer.

Webster, Waltham.

111 MOODY STREET

S. M. GILMAN, Ladies Hatter

Successor to M. M. Doyle

99 Moody Street, Waltham

OPENING

WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY and FRIDAY MARCH 24th, 25th and 26th, 1909

The Latest Imported and Domestic

Pattern Hats and Novelties

PRICES RIGHT TO SUIT THE TIMES

All are cordially invited

—Rev. Dr. E. E. Strong of Central street is one of the vice presidents and Bishop W. P. Mallahan of Grove street a member of the board of trustees of the Massachusetts Bible Society elected at the recent annual meeting.

—At the Congregational church last Sunday, to supplement the temperance lesson in the Sunday school, Miss Esther Sprague of Somerville sang two temperance songs, accompanied by the harp; and the Loyal Legion sang assisted by Miss Miriam Herron and Miss Miriam Spaulding, violinists, and Mr. Paul Spaulding, cornetist.

—Rev. Charles E. Spaulding of Central street is attending the annual session of the New England Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church in Lowell this week where he is a member of the board of examiners of candidates for deacons' and elders' orders. Saturday morning Mr. Spaulding will conduct the devotional service and will speak on the theme "Sources of Power."

—The last entertainment, under the auspices of the Village Improvement Society, it being the sixth annual dramatics, was held in Normbega hall last Monday and Tuesday evenings. In the one act comedietta, "Man Proposes," by Sidney Grundy, the character parts were well taken by Mr. Harold W. Knowlton and the Misses Ethel Underwood and Marion Dillingham. The laughable one act farce by Thomas J. Williams, entitled "Dunducketty's Picnic," created much amusement and each part was well portrayed by Messrs. Charles W. Blood, Theodore W. Chandler, J. Scott Ryder, Lester S. Walling, and the Misses Margaret E. Goodrich and Mary R. Davidson. The director was Mr. Charles E. Kennedy and the stage manager Mr. Howard L. Blackwell.

Hugging the stove is not nearly as good fun as hugging your best girl and it would be quite unnecessary if you had in your house, a "WINCHESTER" heater which is made for either steam or hot water heat. Catalogue free. Smith & Thayer Company, 236 Congress street, Boston, Mass.

CITY HALL NOTES.

Street Commissioner Ross opened bids for concrete work on Tuesday. Three bids were received: Simpson Bros. Corporation for 64 cents per sq. yard; Warren Bros. Co., 57 cents and C. W. Dillhoff & Co., 76 cents. The price for 1908 was 56 cents.

The garbage contract for the next three years has been awarded the W. H. Mague Co. at $6000 per year. The new contract includes a large area at Oak Hill which has not been served in the past.

Street Commissioner Ross has started work in laying out about the city using the terracotta preparation of asphalt base with oil. The streets are nasty for a few hours but the dust will be effectively laid for a few weeks.

AUBURNDALE STUDIO

It will be of interest to residents of Newton to know that Mrs. May Sleep Ruggles, the contralto soloist and teacher of voice, Boston, with studio 602 Pierce building, Copley square, will receive pupils at her residence, 33 Hancock street, Auburndale. Mrs. Ruggles is the principal of the Liederkreis school of vocal music.

Is Your House Wired?

WITH ELECTRICITY AT 12 CENTS

Every Householder Should Obtain Estimates

Wm. H. Colgan

ELECTRICAL CONTRACTOR

1238 Washington St., West Newton Tel. N. West 310

Carriage and Automobile Painting

L. P. BONNIER, Shop 80 Arsenal Street, Watertown

(Formerly with the best Automobile Painter in N. Y. City.)

ALL WORK GUARANTEED. CALL AND GET OUR PRICES.

Back Bay Veterinary Hospital

332 NEWBURY ST., BOSTON

THE BEST ORDERED AND EQUIPPED HOSPITAL FOR ANIMALS IN BOSTON

Outside Calls Given Prompt Attention Day or Night

OPERATIONS A SPECIALTY

JAMES WILLIAM TOBIN, M. D. V.

SUCCESSOR TO LYMAN & LYMAN

Telephone, Hospital 2200 Back Bay. Residence Telephone, Brookline 1101-4

"It has a flavor all its own"

WHITE HOUSE COFFEE

"Prepared for market in the cleanest, best lighted, best ventilated coffee establishment in the world, where automatic machinery working in pure air and sunlight handles the coffee without the touch of a hand from the bag of import to the sealed air-tight package. Considering, too, that 'White House' is composed of the finest coffees that grow and that its blend is the result of fifty years' experience, is it any wonder that it has a flavor all its own?"

BEST GROCERS SELL IT. If yours hasn't it, write us.

DWINELL-WRIGHT COMPANY,
Principal Office Boston,
Boston and Chicago.

F. H. FRANKLIN, Newton, Mass.
GAWN WILSON, Newton, Mass.
W. S. HAYDEN, Newton, Mass.
H. B. COFFIN, Newton.
REES & BERNIER, Newton.
MANHATTAN MARKET, Newton.
ERNEST E. FORSYTH, Newton.
L. E. MURPHY & CO., Newton Centre.
W. F. WOODMAN, Newton Centre.
W. O. KNAPP & CO., Newton Centre.
FRANK FROST & CO., Newton Centre.
F. S. KEMPTON, Newton Centre.
MURPHY'S MARKET, Newton Highlands.
W. H. BRAYTON, Newton Highlands.
C. STROUT & SONS, Newtonville.
HENRY W. BATES, Newtonville.
FRED L. COOK, West Newton.
W. J. FURBUSH, West Newton.
C. D. ALLEN, West Newton.
J. S. KENNEDY CO., New. Up. Falls.
CHRISTOPHER McHALE,
FRANK W. BRIDGES, Auburndale.

Custom Harness and Fine Trunk and Bag Repairs

John F. Conley
176 MOODY STREET WALTHAM, MASS.

I. L. CORTELL & Co.

Formerly with Shreve, Crump & Low and Jordan Marsh & Co.

Electricians and Gas Fitters

JOBBER IN ALL BRANCHES
373 Washington St., Brighton
Telephone 108-2 Brighton

Spring 1909 PATTERN HATS

LATEST NOVELTIES

Flowers, Feathers Etc.

FROM TUESDAY, MARCH 30th

PERKINS

182 Moody Street, Waltham

Largest Line of Hair Goods in the City

Psyche Puffs 98c Upwards

TO FIGHT FIRE

Comprehensive Plans Proposed For Metropolitan District

Interest in the problem of more efficient fire protection for the metropolitan district, which was aroused by the destructive conflagration in Chelsea last spring, has produced a tentative plan for mutual aid system between Boston and the cities and towns within a radius of eight miles from the state house.

When the call for assistance was sent out broadcast by the chief of the Chelsea fire department the absence of any mutual aid system caused delay and confusion. Some cities and towns responded to the summons by sending every steam engine they had, thus endangering their own communities. Boston, although amply protected by its system of covering the posts of engine companies which were sent out of town, was embarrassed that day by a fire of great magnitude and threatening consequences in East Boston.

In order that the fire apparatus now located in the metropolitan district may be employed economically and with the greatest efficiency for every community within the district, it is proposed that a system shall be adopted by which when a serious fire breaks out the nearest apparatus in other cities may immediately respond. Carrying out the plan apparatus located farther away shall be moved to take the place of the companies which have answered the early alarms.

Under this plan, if a fire broke out in Cambridge which was getting beyond the strength of the local department, the nearest apparatus in Boston or Somerville, as the case might be, would respond without the delay entailed by a special summons by telephone. The deserted fire houses in Somerville would be occupied by the company of an adjoining city, while if Boston engines responded in great number, the towns having apparatus nearest to the outlying sections would send their men to protect the limits of Boston, "covering" the districts of companies which were substituting in the city proper districts.

There are 81 fire engines and a large number of other kinds of fire-fighting machinery within the radius of eight miles of the state house. This equipment is considered ample to protect a territory of this size, if employed upon a mutual aid plan.

A perfect system of reciprocity among the cities and towns could be put in operation, it is believed, with but the expenditure of a comparatively small sum for an interurban fire alarm equipment.

Boston has such an arrangement now with Cambridge and Brookline which has been to the advantage of the three. The general mutual aid plan is, therefore, an extension of the system which has been beneficial, as this experiment shows.

The subject is under inquiry by a committee appointed at last year's meeting of the Massachusetts state firemen's association which was held at Nantucket. The members of the committee are Chief Mullen of Boston chairman, Chief Bunker of Cambridge, Chief Hopkins of Somerville, Chief Randlett of Newton, Chief Spencer of Chelsea and Benjamin W. Wells, ex-fire commissioner of Boston, who was named as honorary counsel. Lieut. Joseph A. Webber, aid to Chief Mullen, is secretary.

As a basis for the more pretentious plan Chief Spencer and Mr. Wells were requested to prepare an assignment book for the interchange of apparatus between Chelsea, Everett and Revere.

As far as the general plan is concerned the committee recommends adopting the system within the eight-mile district, which includes Boston, Revere, Melrose, Medford, Somerville, Cambridge, Brookline, Dedham, Hyde Park, Milton, Chelsea, Newton, Winchester, Everett, Malden, Watertown, Waltham, Stoneham and Woburn.

Discussing the exigency which demands a system of mutual aid the committee in its preliminary report says: "With the exception of Boston, none of the cities and towns mentioned can afford to maintain apparatus and men in sufficient strength to handle more than the ordinary blaze. What would be the opinion if East Boston, Charlestown, Dorchester, Roxbury or West Roxbury depended on their local apparatus until the spread of the fire forced them to call on the neighboring territory for help and this call had to be given by telephone without definite advance arrangement? This is the present situation in the cities and towns outside of Boston.

"The merging of Brighton, Charlestown, West Roxbury and Dorchester with old Boston made new and sensible fire fighting conditions, and the Boston assignment book or running card provides for instant response on signals from the various sections. So, with all the cities and towns within this proposed area an arrangement can be made at small cost that will provide for what might be described as an extension of the Boston assignment book or running card.

"There are certain good features in the suggestion of a metropolitan fire department, but to the student of the subject there are at the present time, at least, serious objections to such a change. Under the metropolitan aid plan the fire service of the district could be made absolutely effective and the item of waste caused by the duplication of apparatus would be eliminated. As an example of results in money saving of co-operation two instances arranged for in Boston within a few years will illustrate.

"In 1905 a committee of national insurance experts, after a careful study of Boston fire conditions, recommended that a fire station to contain a chemical engine and company be placed at the outer end of the Back Bay district in the neighborhood of Cottage Farm. Less than 100 yards over the Boston line across St. Mary's street is located a Brookline combination wagon and company. Arrangement was made with Brookline whereby their company receives all the Boston alarms and this company now responds to the alarms from boxes in territory distant from the nearest Boston apparatus. This covers the bare spot and Boston need not build an additional house or maintain an extra company at this point and yet the protection now given is ample.

"The other instance, Germantown, a section of the city far removed from local protection and located on the Dedham border, is now sufficiently covered by arrangement with that town. A Dedham fire alarm box has been placed on the same post with the Boston box, and the instructions are in case of fire to pull both boxes. The Dedham apparatus being very much nearer than the Boston arrives in good season (an engine and a light combination truck), and thus the long-petitioned-for Boston firehouse and company are made unnecessary.

These two examples mean a first cost saving of $35,000 to $45,000 and an annual maintenance cost of, at least, $15,000."

Speaking of the confusion at the time of the Chelsea fire the committee instances this waste of energy through lack of system:

"Messages were delayed, telephone circuits were early broken by the flames and each town receiving a message deliberated upon what aid they could conveniently spare, and furnished it promptly or otherwise, as they saw fit. Word did not reach Lynn of Chelsea's danger until 12.35, nearly an hour after the fire had taken the chief's message. The call for help was given in Brookline at 1 p. m. Engines from Brookline, Hyde Park, Quincy and Dedham traversed the whole length of Boston, passing engines on the way that had not moved from their quarters. Wakefield and Melrose made almost as long journeys from the north. Some 30 engines from Boston and the metropolitan district reached Chelsea during the day, but it was nearly dark before all of this help had arrived.

"Under a metropolitan organization Hyde Park and Dedham would merely have covered into West Roxbury or Dorchester in the rear of a general movement toward Chelsea.

"When the Chelsea chief sent his appeal to the firemen from neighboring towns he had no means of knowing how generous or how prompt the response would be. If he pulled the sixth alarm from a metropolitan box, he would have known to an engine and almost to a minute just what to expect."

The committee illustrates the operation of the mutual aid plan by assuming that a sixth or general alarm has been sounded for a fire in Chelsea, and then indicating how well the metropolitan district would be protected:

"Although 20 engines have gone to work in Chelsea, 61 engines still remain to respond to further calls. Every section of the great area is well protected, Cambridge and Somerville moving into Somerville and Charlestown respectively, while there is a general movement northward on the part of the Boston department to fill in the gaps left by the departure of engines for East Boston and Chelsea.

"There is one Newton engine in Brighton and another in Brookline while Brookline has gone over the Boston line into Longwood. There is a Waltham engine in Newton and the whole great department is on the quiver for the next move. Cambridge, with a usual complement of seven engines, has six within its borders, one having come to it from Brighton, Somerville has lost but one steamer, and is amply covered by Medford and by the Cambridge engines on its boundary. Everett is covered by a Malden engine and Malden retains two of its three companies.

"But one house in the downtown district of Boston is vacant and should a great fire break out at this crisis in the wholesale district, four alarms would call out 30 percent of the force provided by the regular city running card. Most of the companies doing duty down town have moved down from the South End and Back Bay, but they lose their identity on entering the downtown house and for a new fire operate as the company whose quarters they take. However confusing to the layman, there is nothing ambiguous or perplexing to the firemen about the system of covering in. The plan proposed is not a new venture, but merely an extension to the metropolitan district of the system long in force within the boundaries of Boston."

The committee asks these pertinent questions:

"With 81 engines located within eight miles of Boston state house, an area no larger than is comprised within the city limits of Philadelphia, is there any sound reason why Chelsea should fight a growing conflagration for more than half an hour with only three companies, or why it should take six hours longer to bring 30 engines to her relief? Is there any sound reason why Brighton should wait for assistance to come from the South End and the foot of Beacon hill when engines could be rushed from Cambridge and Watertown in one-third the time?"

To adopt the mutual aid plan for a radius including 32 cities and towns, the committee reports that a fire alarm system with seven circuits running to a central point in Boston will be required. Each unit in the combination will need a sounding machine to transmit signals to the Boston fire alarm office. The Boston operator will disseminate the signals on a repeating machine and every city and town in the district will be advised of the call for outside help. Apparatus within the district will be prepared to respond according to the assignment book.

Before recommending any legislation the committee declares its intention to be to seek the support and cooperation of the authorities of the cities and towns in the district.

ORGAN RECITAL.

Program of free organ recital to be given at the Elliot church, Newton, Thursday evening, April 8, at 8 o'clock by Prof. H. J. Krumpel.

Bolide—Orchestral Overture
Sir Edward Elgar—Love's Greeting
Krumpholtz—Fantasia and Fugue
Edward German—Pastorale
Saint-Saens—The Swan
Krumpholtz—Sonata D'Amour (In three movements)

1. Marguerite
2. Millicent
3. Victoria

Irison—Communion
Schumann—Slumber-song
Krumpholtz—Improvisation on a favorite hymn-tune
Alfred R. Gault—Adoration
Krumpholtz—Hosanna in Excelsis

McKenney & Waterbury Co., No. 181 Franklin St., corner Congress, are offering some rare bargains in Gas and Electric Table and Floor Lamps, from an assortment of over five hundred styles.

An unusual opportunity for those in want of more light for their homes.

UNDER THE GILDED DOME.

My letter was crowded out of last week and appears in another part of this issue.

The past week has brought to light another instance of the peculiar manner in which the state of Massachusetts transacts its business. On a bill to require the city of Boston to pay for the gypsy moth work out of its treasury instead of by special assessments upon the property improved, the committee on Taxation has presented a general bill which affects the entire Commonwealth. The effect of this measure is sweeping, especially in those communities where appropriations for the present year are based upon the possible income to be derived from the assessments on private property. In Newton last year nearly $150,000 was received from this form of assessments and the appropriations for 1909 were planned upon the certainty of income from this source. To deprive the city treasury of this money would create a deficit and when this is caused by legislation upon which the city has had no notice, some form of protest is certainly proper.

The appointment and confirmation of State Treasurer Chapin as Bank Commissioner precipitates the fight scheduled for next fall for the Republican nomination for that office. Mr. A. P. Langtry the editor of the Springfield Union, a successful and energetic man has been a possible candidate for this office and is now actively in the field. His leading competitor is Senator Stevens of Somerville who has the advantage of membership in the body which will choose the state treasurer to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the year. The caucus is set for next Wednesday when the Republicans will decide upon a candidate. The business record of Mr. Langtry as compared with his opponent is greatly to his advantage and unless some dark horse appears it would seem as if his election was certain.

Next general court has been reported on the two bills presented by this city in relation to the distribution of the corporation taxes and the apportionment or basis for assessment of the state tax. While it was felt that the bill to postpone the new law, which takes away half of our income from this source, would meet with defeat, the justice of the bill to readjust the basis of the state tax so as to eliminate the valuation of the corporation tax taken away, was so apparent that an adverse report was not expected. I am informed that the Committee on Taxation gave reference to the next legislature as they were told that it would be impossible to readjust the basis for the present year and that the law itself would take care of the matter in 1910. While this reason seems valid on its face Newton will be unjustly taxed for 1909.

The labor committee has favorably reported the bill relative to employment of labor in any public work including such work done by contract, and which still further restricts the liberty of the city. The present unjust law prohibits any city employee to be "requested or required" to work more than 8 hours in any one day, nor more

Boston Safe Deposit and Trust Co.

87 MILK STREET, BOSTON
In Active Business Since 1875

A capital, surplus and undivided profits of $3,500,000 make this company one of the strongest of Boston's financial institutions. It offers its services in the following departments.

BANKING DEPARTMENT Pays interest on deposits subject to check. A legal depository for Executors, Administrators, Trustees and Money in Suit.

Bond and Transfer Department Acts as Trustee under Railroad and other Corporation mortgages and as transfer Agent and Register of stock.

Safe Deposit Department Offers absolute security for papers and other valuables, and a location in the heart of the financial district.

Trust Department Acts as Executor, Administrator, Trustee, Guardian of Property and Attorney.

Capital $1,000,000 Surplus (earned) $2,000,000

than 48 hours in any week, and has added largely to the cost of public work in Newton. I have frequently commented upon its unjust features and it is not necessary to state further on this point. The bill now proposed will not "require nor permit" more than 8 hours a day etc. The permit clause is most sweeping and will work a hardship in the smaller places where it is not easy to fill vacancies promptly or efficiently. Representative Garcelon intends to take active steps to defeat the proposition and I trust his efforts will be successful.

Another measure reported by the Metropolitan Affairs committee will add $939,000 to the indebtedness of the district for a sixty inch water main thru Newton from Weston to the Chestnut Hill reservoir, for additional pumping machinery at Chestnut Hill and other work in the district. Something of the resulting cost can be approximated when it is stated that the annual charge for interest and sinking funds for this item will foot up over $45,000. Fortunately Newton does not bear a large proportion of the water debt expenses but it will be up to the rest of the district to stand a heavy increase in their water assessments when this measure becomes law.

J. C. Brimblecom.

CANTATA

The special monthly vesper service was held at Elliot Church last Sunday afternoon. The musical composition rendered was J. H. Maunders' "Olivet to Calvary." The quartet, Miss Josephine Knight, soprano; Miss Adelaide Griggs, contralto; Harold S. Tripp, tenor, and Leverett B. Merrill, bass, were assisted by a chorus of 45 voices. The first part describes the Lord's "Journey to Jerusalem"; "Before Jerusalem"; "In the Temple"; and "The Mount of Olives." The second part is in six sections, "A New Commandment"; "Gethsemane"; "Betrayed and Forsaken"; "Before Pilate"; "The March to Calvary"; and "Calvary." The Cantata was most impressively rendered, the members of the quartet being in excellent voice, and the large chorus gave volume and tone to their parts of the program. The Cantata was given under the direction of Mr. Everett E. Truette, the organist and

SCHOOL MASTERS' CLUB

The Schoolmasters' Club held a meeting and dinner at the Brae Burn Country Club Saturday evening. May or Hutchinson and Hon. Henry E. Bothfield, chairman of the School Committee were special guests. President Chase presided. In addition to the guests the other speakers were Messrs Kenelin Winslow of the Stearns School, M. W. Murray, supervisor of manual training in the Newton schools, and Samuel Thurber, Jr., of the Newton High School. The musical program consisted of a duet by Messrs Walton and Dodge, solo by Mr. Chase and college songs by a quartet. Newton

The Secret in Getting Good HOSIERY

LIES MORE IN WHERE YOU BUY IT THAN IN THE PRICE YOU PAY. A STORE THAT RELIES ON BUYING SECONDS, OR RUN OF THE MILL QUALITIES, IN ORDER TO BE ABLE TO QUOTE SEEMINGLY LOW PRICES, IS NEITHER FAIR TO ITS CUSTOMERS NOR TO ITSELF. WE BUY DIRECT FROM THE MILLS, AND IT'S AN IRON-CLAD RULE OF THIS STORE NEVER TO BUY ANYTHING BUT FIRST GRADE GOODS.

OUR OPENING SPRING EXHIBIT OF HOSIERY FOR WOMEN AND MEN IS DECIDEDLY WORTH YOUR ATTENTION.

Men's Hosiery

NEW FANCY HOSIERY.

Cleverly executed designs, in the newest Spring coloring, fabric not overlooked either. Come in and spend a few moments looking at what we're showing for . . . 25c pr

SOLID COLOR HOSIERY 25c.

Some of the newest shades, and certainly some of the finest materials we have ever shown at the price. Cadet and Navy Blue, Lavender, Old Rose, Maroon, Green, Purple, all the pretty colors . . . 25c pr

FANCY HOSIERY at 12½c.

Scores of pretty designs, varieties enough to suit every taste. Whatever your favorite color, you'll find it here in every size; plain colors, too. All at . . . 12½c pr

FINE MACO HOSIERY 12½c.

120 dozen now in stock, made from specially selected yarns to our special order; every pair warranted; good shape, fast dye, and as perfect in every respect the price will buy . . . 12½c pr

Women's Hosiery

THE "GOLDEN ROD" STOCKING.

Made with the tight knit heel and toe. Saves darning. Black and Tan shades, both guaranteed fast . . . 15c pr

GAUZE Lisle HOSIERY.

A beautifully finished yarn, soft and silky, but with the wiry wearing qualities peculiar to lisle. Black or Tan . . . 35c pr., 3 pr. $1.00

Lisle HOSIERY at 35c pr.

Another particularly good stocking, slightly heavier in weight than the above, and made with cotton sole and six thread toe, and double garter top. . . 35c pr., 3 pr. $1.00

CADET STOCKINGS.

The toughest stocking made for juvenile wear; will stand the test . . . 25c pr

BOYS' STOCKINGS at 12½c.

Stainless dye, double knee; made on contract according to our specifications. The best 12½c value in the world . . . 2 pr. 25c

Money Refunded if Not Satisfied.

Legal Stamps

P. P. ADAMS' BIG DEPT. STORE

133 to 139 Moody Street, Waltham

HENRY RUSSELL

Regular Flour

A REVELATION TO BREAD MAKERS

FOR SALE BY

GAWN WILSON, Newton
F. H. FRANKLIN, Newton
E. F. FORSYTH, Newton
NANTUCKET, N.Y., Newton
NONANTUM, N.Y., Newton
REES & BERNIER, Newton
P. T. LARKIN, West Newton
RICHARDSON'S, N.Y., Newton Centre

ELLIS BROS., Newton Centre
JAMES A. EARLY, Lower Falls
RICHARDSON'S, N.Y., Newton Highlands
JOHN HEAL, Newtonville
M. P. MCKINNON, Newtonville
E. W. CONANT, Waban
FRANK W. BRIDGES, Auburndale
FRANK HOLT, Auburndale

Brae-Burn Nursery

6. HOWARD FROST & CO., 193 FULLER STREET WEST NEWTON

Easter Millinery

ONE THOUSAND DESIGNS
TO SELECT FROM

Bennett's
FINE MILLINERY

525 to 529 MASS. AVE., CAMBRIDGE
OPEN EVENINGS

Newton Centre.

—Mr. Dana Estes has returned to home from a trip in Africa.

—Mr. Albert Temperley is seriously ill at his home on Center street.

—Mr. Guy Randlet of Amherst is visiting his parents on Bowen street.

—Mr. Samuel Bowman and family of Cypress street have moved to Summer street.

—Miss Florence Fifield of Iowa is visiting Miss Eva Osborne of Maple park this week.

—Mr. Marsena Butts of Brown is visiting his parents on Summer street this week.

—Mrs. Lewis E. Murphy, who has been ill at her home on Pelham street, is again able to be out.

—Mrs. Geo. E. B. Putnam has returned to his home on Elmwood street, from a short stay in Connecticut.

—Mr. Fred Wilson and family of Pelham street have moved into the Garvey estate on the same street.

—Mr. Arthur Washburn of Parker street left this week for Washington, where he will spend a few weeks.

—Miss Marguerite Taylor of Northfield is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Bowen of Center street.

—Mr. Arthur Muldoon, who has been seriously ill at his home on Langley road is again able to be out.

—Mr. Stuart Rand of Yale is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Avery L. Rand of Grafton street this week.

—Miss Lillian D. Osborne, who has been visiting friends on Trowbridge street has returned to her home in Revere.

—Mrs. A. T. Twombly, who has been visiting friends in Hudson, N. Y., has returned to her home on Crescent avenue.

—Last Monday evening a company of friends enjoyed a whist party at the home of Mr. F. E. Cooke of Paul street.

—Next Thursday evening at the Methodist church, Holy Communion will be served, in preparation for Good Friday.

—While employed in painting on the roof of the Armstrong dwelling at Hammond street and Commonwealth avenue, Chestnut Hill, Tuesday afternoon, Thomas Bullam, aged 28, living at 67 First street, Chelsea, fell and severely injured his head and body. He was taken to the Newton hospital.

—At the evening service to be held in the Methodist church next Sunday, the choir will be assisted by Master Clyde Close, boy soloist of St. Paul's Episcopal church, Boston.

—The fourth vespers service of the First church, Sunday afternoon, was attended by a large number of music lovers. Walter E. Young, the director, selected Gounod's "Redemption" for presentation by 12 soloists from Boston churches. Rev. E. M. Noyes preached.

MORRIS LADIES' HATTER

121 Moody Street, Waltham

WILL SHOW

PATTERN HATS

during this week, also correct Millinery for Girls

THE NEWTON TAILORING CO.

Ladies' and Gent's Custom Tailors.

Suits Made to Order in the Latest Styles. Cleaning, Dyeing, Pressing and Repairing. Ladies' Garments Altered and Remodeled.

413 CENTRE STREET OPP. THE POST OFFICE NEWTON, MASS.

Work called for and delivered. Special Arrangements for Monthly Pressing.

Tel. 706-4. Open Evenings

REMOVAL ANNOUNCEMENT

The Two Brothers TAILORS

in consequence of expiration of lease have removed to

No. 653 Main St. opposite the Common Waltham

and are ready to show Spring Samples and take your Order for Spring Clothing

—Mills undertaking rooms, 817-819 Washington street, Newtonville, Tel. Newton N. 112-3.

—Mr. R. R. Bishop, Jr., was among the passengers sailing Saturday on the Canope for Naples and other Mediterranean ports.

—Mrs. Adelaide J. F. Swett has purchased the Swift farm in Sherborn and will occupy after making improvements.

—Mrs. Mary A. Fowle will have the sympathy of her friends in the death of her father, Mr. Stephen D. Fowler, in Foxboro last Sunday.

—Mr. Walter B. Randlett of Bowen street, chief of the Newton fire department, has returned from a business trip to New York.

—Ensign John Edwards Otterman, U. S. N., has moved here from Newton and is occupying the new Stearns house on Stearns street.

—Miss Marion Hay of the choir of the Unitarian church was the soloist at the vesper service at Channing church, Newton, last Sunday evening.

—Mildred N. Frost, 10, has been awarded a Wellesley College honor scholarship in recognition of a high degree of excellence in academic work.

—Prof. O. E. Burton, dean of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, was the guest and speaker at the 1903 class dinner at the Union last week.

—Messrs. Frederic M. Butts, James Bartlett Melcher, Hyman L. Bravo, Frank C. Hatch, Jr., and Raymond D. Hunting are back from Amherst for the Easter vacation.

—A complimentary dinner is to be given Mr. Lewis R. Spence, the new president of the American Automobile Association. The affair will take place next Tuesday evening at the Bay State Automobile Club House.

—The pulpit of the Unitarian Society will be occupied next Sunday by Rev. A. T. Bowser, who will be pleasantly remembered as pastor of the Society some fifteen years ago. Mr. Bowser's subject will be "The present trend of religious thought."

Waban.

—Mr. O. R. Rice of Waban avenue entertained the Duplicate Whist Club on last Saturday evening.

—Last Sunday morning the Rev. Mr. E. E. Strong of Amherst preached at the Union church service.

—Mr. F. H. Putnam of Upland road is out again, after being confined to his home by illness for some weeks.

—The Guild of the Good Shepherd met for its regular work with Mrs. Wm. Saville, Windsor road, on Tuesday afternoon.

—Mr. Harry A. Walker of Chestnut street returned last week from a business trip of several weeks through the West.

—Mills undertaking rooms, 817-819 Washington street, Newtonville, Tel. 112-3. Leave calls at Rhodes' Drug store. Tel. Newton S. 237-3.

—This week's meeting of the Sewing Circle of the Union church was held at the home of Mrs. F. A. Arend, Windsor road, on Tuesday.

—Mr. George M. Angier of Pine Ridge road starts next week Tuesday for England, where he will remain a month on business. His brother, Mr. Edward Angier, accompanies him.

—Mr. and Mrs. Archie C. Burnett of Waban avenue sail on the Ivernia for England and the continent next Tuesday on a trip combining business and pleasure.

—Mr. Daniel I. Baker a resident of Waban for 10 years, has closed his residence on Windsor road this week and moved to his new estate in Hopkinton, where he will now reside.

—Mrs. Sawyer's senior dancing class ended its season on Tuesday with a charming German and party at Whitney hall, Brookline, joining with classes from Brookline and Newton Highlands.

—One of the most enjoyable dances of the season was given by the Waban Tennis Courts in Waban hall on Wednesday night, more than sixty members of the club being in attendance. Music for dancing was furnished by an excellent orchestra and refreshments were served.

—A socially and financially successful supper was held in Waban hall last Friday evening by the Union church society, nearly ninety guests being present. An informal photograph concert and dance for the young set followed, being much enjoyed. The proceeds went to the building fund.

EASTER WHIST

Under the auspices of the West Newton Woman's Educational Club an Easter whist will be given at the Newton Club, Walnut street, Newtonville, Monday, April 12, 1909, at 2.30 P. M. Patronesses: Mrs. Samuel L. Powers, Mrs. Alexander M. Ferris, Mrs. Wm. J. Pollett of Newton; Mrs. Jarvis Lamson, Mrs. Henry A. Robinson, Mrs. Charles E. Hatfield and Mrs. Everett Jones of West Newton; Mrs. Daniel G. White, Mrs. Edward B. Bowen, Newton Centre; Mrs. Geo. J. Barker of Waltham and Mrs. Alfred J. Paul of Brookline; Mrs. Samuel L. Eaton of Newton Highlands; Mrs. D. C. Heath, Mrs. Chas. S. Dennison and Mrs. Elizabeth S. Barker of Newtonville.

Refreshment tables presented over by the President, Mrs. Alvin H. Clifford, vice presidents, Mrs. Thomas M. Elwell, Mrs. Robert Gorton and Mrs. Elizabeth S. Barker of Newtonville.

FOREIGN CRETONNES
The largest and most complete line in New England, for coverings and hangings. It will pay you to call and see them. Colorings and designs entirely different from those shown in the other stores. Prices right. Benis & Jewett, Bray Block, Newton Centre.

CITY OFFICIAL DEAD

Mr. Joshua A. Harding, for the past nine years scaler of weights and measures for the city, died this morning at his home on Watertown street, after an illness of several weeks. Mr. Harding was 66 years of age and is survived by a widow.

NEW PASTOR

Rev. Dr. Charles M. Melden who has just resigned as president of Wilbraham academy has begun his pastorate in the Methodist church at Newton Centre.

Dr. Melden had been president of Wilbraham academy since April, 1907. He was born in Salem and was educated in Boston university, Worcester, where he remained six years. In 1903 he took charge of the Matthews street church in Providence, remaining there until he became president at Wilbraham.

He began preaching, however, in 1882. He had pastored in Byfield, Lawrence, Northampton and Somerville. In 1894 he became pastor of Central church in Brockton. Three years afterward he was made president of Clark university, Worcester, where he remained six years. In 1903 he took charge of the Matthews street church in Providence, remaining there until he became president at Wilbraham.

POLICE NOTES

On Wednesday a fine of $50 was imposed upon Julius Pass, for alleged keeping his grocery at 81 West street, Nonantum, open on the Lord's day, after testimony had been introduced in court that Pass had offered a witness $3 if he would not appear. The fine was one of the heaviest imposed in a similar case here in recent years. Pass was charged with having sold tobacco and fruit on Sunday after the police had warned him that he should not violate the closing ordinance. One witness said that Pass had offered him $3 upon condition that he fall to appear against him, and that when the offer was refused Pass told the witness to be sure to tell the truth. "If you desired the witness to tell the truth why did you try to bribe him not to appear?" asked Judge Kennedy. "That was a most serious offense."

GIRLS' GYMNASIUM MEET

The first annual gymnastic meet of the girls of the High School took place last Friday afternoon before a large audience of friends and relatives. Nearly 400 girls participated in the floor work, each class being greeted with loud applause as it took the floor. The senior class wore white blouses, blue bloomers and large blue bows across the breast, the juniors a similar dress with green ties, the sophomores were all in blue with red ties, and the freshmen, in blue with yellow ties. While waiting their turn on the floor the classes sat in Turkish fashion at one side of the drill hall. Besides the floor work there were exhibitions on the parallel bars, vaulting, running, high jump, rope climbing, bean bag races, relay races, dancing by the freshmen and aesthetic dancing by the higher classes. In the relay races, the sophomores beat the freshmen, the juniors beat the seniors and then won the finals from the sophs. In the bean bag races the juniors repeated the same program. The judges were Miss Barnes, of the Brookline High School, Miss Otis, of the Walnut Hill School, Miss Shaw, of the Brighton High School and Miss Wallace of Radcliffe College. They awarded the meet to the juniors with 80 points, the freshmen and seniors tying with 30 each and sophomores scoring but 10. As Mr. Adams announced the decisions the classes were heartily cheered. The meet netted about $100 which will be used for gymnasium purposes. Its success is largely due to the efforts of Miss Shephardson, the director of physical culture and her assistant, Miss Westgate.

MR. DOHERTY DEAD

Mr. Norbert S. Doherty, a well known resident of Newton and son of Matthew and Elizabeth Doherty of Clinton street, died on Tuesday. He was 41 years of age and was the brother of Rev. Fr. Austin E. Doherty of St. Philip's church, South End, Boston. He was a particularly brilliant man, being a fine musician and an organizer of skill. The funeral was held from his late home, Thursday morning at 9 o'clock and solemn requiem mass followed at the Church of Our Lady at 10 o'clock. Rev. Fr. Austin E. Doherty was celebrant of the mass. Rev. Fr. Kelly and Rev. Fr. Malone were the deacon and subdeacon respectively, while Rev. Fr. Wm. H. O'Connell of St. Philip's church, Boston, was the master of ceremonies.

Interment took place in the Catholic cemetery at Witham. Among the priests who attended the services were Rev. Fr. Nicholas J. Murphy of Belmont, Rev. Fr. P. J. O'Donnell, pastor of St. Philip's church, Boston; Rev. Fr. John Donovan of Ipswich, Rev. Fr. B. F. Teeling of St. Philip's church, Boston; Rev. Fr. James J. McCarthy of the cathedral of the Holy Cross, Boston; Rev. Fr. Thomas F. McCarthy of St. Francis de Sales' church, Charlestown; Rev. Fr. James Haney of the Church of the Sacred Heart, Newton Centre; Rev. Fr. J. J. McCafferty, chaplain of the Austin farm, West Roxbury; Rev. Fr. Ulrich of the Gate of Heaven church, South Boston; Rev. Fr. Kennedy of St. Peter's church, Dorchester.

Next Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, in St. Philip's church, in Boston, a solemn high mass of requiem will be offered for the repose of the soul of the deceased.

BUTTONS

DRESS PLAITING
I HAVE introduced new methods for the production of SUNBURST SKIRTS, which enable me to plait Sunburst Skirts for $1.50 Covered and Ivory Rim Buttons in great variety to order. I give prompt attention to mail and express orders.

C. E. PANNING
48 WINTER ST., Room 50, BOSTON, MASS. TELEPHONE CONNECTION.

Mrs. W. S. Butler's

21st ANNUAL

MAY FESTIVAL
MECHANICS BUILDING
SATURDAY, MAY 1, 1909

Dances Under the Direction of

Mrs. LILLA VILES WYMAN

Afternoon at 2. Evening at 8

Tickets for sale at 178 Tremont St., Room 21, and at Connelly & Burke's after April 1.

Steam, Hot Water Heating and Plumbing

Attachments applied to Hot Air Furnaces to heat one or more rooms by Hot Water
... GENERAL REPAIR WORK ...

WALTER B. WOLCOTT
65 Elmwood Street, - Newton
Telephone

CANOE

We carry a large Stock constantly on hand of
MOTOR AND PADDLEING CANOES

made of the best Materials and in all Styles. Prices from $25.00 to $65.00. Painting, Varnishing and Repairing neatly and promptly done. Paddles, Back Boards, Canoe Stock and Fittings Sold at Wholesale and Retail. 200 Canoes to select from, long and short deck. Unfinished Canoes for sale with or without Canvas. Our business covers 23,580 feet of floor space. Mail orders receive careful attention.

Waltham Boat and Canoe Co.
H. P. BARTLETT, Prop. Woerd Avenue, Waltham, Mass.
Telephone 577-2 Waltham

Everything that is new and up-to-date in the

Millinery Line

CAN BE FOUND AT

Miss J. A. Daniels

210 1-2 MOODY STREET, WALTHAM

A Large Assortment of Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats, Flowers, Novelties Etc. to select from

Cafe Bova

THE LEADING

Italian Restaurant

OF BOSTON

96 Arch Street, Boston

3 Doors from Summer Street

$1.00 Table D'Hote Dinner

INCLUDING WINE

(SATURDAY $1.25)

5 to 8.30 P. M.

Booths Reserved Until 6.30 P. M.

Music Until 11 O'clock

Leo E. Bova & Co., Proprietors

Tel. 1612 Fort Hill.

RUSSIAN IMPORTING CO.

429 Boylston Street, Boston

Different from everything else.

Every article in this shop bears the marks of quality and beauty, and is the product of Russian peasant handicraft.

Linens and Laces

Shirtdress Patterns

Old Jewelry and Silver

Copper and Brass

Artistic Newton Cottages

Delightfully located on a charming knoll, near the high school, Newtonville. Thoroughly modern, single story structures, 8 and 9 rooms, hardwood floors, open fireplaces, etc. Well constructed, cellars of solid concrete, 10,000 foot lots with granite walks. Low prices and reasonable terms to effect immediate sale.

ALVORD BROS., & CO.

AGENTS

Newton Centre

79 Milk Street, Boston

Wear the

Lamson &

Hubbard Hat

None Better Made

$300

$400

$500

Lamson & Hubbard

92 Bedford St. and 173 Washington St.

BOSTON

WHEN IN NEED OF

Insurance

CONSULT

ROWE & PORTER

15 Central Street, Boston

Tel. Main 664

Mortgagee's Sale of Real Estate

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by William Rooney to Mary H. Stoddard, dated Sept. 8th, 1908, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book 3389, Page 899, for breach of the conditions of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction on the premises hereinafter described, on Monday, the twelfth day of April, A. D. 1909, at three o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises in said mortgage deed described, viz:—A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon, situated on Highland Street, in that part of Newton called West Newton, and bounded as described, viz:—Beginning on the Easterly side of Highland Street at the Northwest corner of the granted premises, and thence running Easterly and bounded Northerly by land now or late of Pierpont Wise, 153.50 feet; thence now or late of Howland, thence Southerly and bounded Easterly by said Howland land, 198.57 feet to land now or late of Kempton; thence Westerly and bounded Southerly by said Kempton land, 133.30 feet to said Highland Street; thence Northerly and bounded Westerly by said Highland Street, 207.06 feet to the point of beginning. Containing about 30,000 sq. ft. of land. Said premises will be sold subject to a first mortgage of $6,000, accrued interest thereon, and to any and all unpaid taxes, tax titles or municipal assessments, if any. Terms, $500 at time and place of sale, balance in ten days.

MARY H. STODDARD, Mortgagee.

Theodore L. Stoddard, Att'y.

10 Tremont St., Room 69.

Mortgagee's Sale of Real Estate

By virtue of and pursuant to the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage given by Alton Babcock to Charles C. Stearns dated March ninth, 1906, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book 3318, Page 477 for breach of the conditions therein contained and for the purpose of foreclosing the same will be sold at public auction on the premises hereinafter described on Monday April 26th, 1909, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises in said mortgage deed described as follows:

Two certain lots or parcels of land in Newton in said County of Middlesex, being lots numbered thirty-one and thirty-five on a plan of lots at Newton Highlands owned by Edgar J. Porter, Jr. Worthington Jr. Engineer, March 1896, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book of plans 49, plan 38, to which reference may be had for a more particular description.

Said lots are more particularly bounded and described as follows:

Lot thirty-one is bounded South-westerly by Boylston Road 62.25-100 feet, North-westerly by lot thirty on said plan 78.48-100 feet, North-easterly by lot twenty-four and twenty-five on said plan 101.01-100 feet and South-westerly by lot forty-two and forty-three on said plan 83.88-100 feet.

Lot thirty-five is bounded North-easterly on said Boylston Road 62.25-100 feet, North-westerly by lot thirty-four on said plan 77.88-100 feet, Westerly by lot thirty-nine on said plan 54.4-10 feet and South-easterly by lot forty and forty-one on said plan 83.4-10 feet.

Said premises will be sold subject to any existing restrictions of record and any liens for taxes or assessments.

$200 at time and place of sale. Other terms at sale.

STEPHEN A. POPE,

Assignee and present holder of said mortgage.

Ralph H. McDaniel, Att'y.

40 State St., Boston, Mass.

Mortgagee's Sale of Real Estate

By virtue of and pursuant to the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage given by Alton Babcock to Charles C. Stearns dated March ninth, 1906, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book of plans 49, plan 38, to which reference may be had for a more particular description.

Said lots are more particularly bounded and described as follows:

Lot thirty-one is bounded South-westerly by Boylston Road 62.25-100 feet, North-westerly by lot thirty on said plan 78.48-100 feet, North-easterly by lot twenty-four and twenty-five on said plan 101.01-100 feet and South-westerly by lot forty-two and forty-three on said plan 83.88-100 feet.

Lot thirty-five is bounded North-easterly on said Boylston Road 62.25-100 feet, North-westerly by lot thirty-four on said plan 77.88-100 feet, Westerly by lot thirty-nine on said plan 54.4-10 feet and South-easterly by lot forty and forty-one on said plan 83.4-10 feet.

Said premises will be sold subject to any existing restrictions of record and any liens for taxes or assessments.

$200 at time and place of sale. Other terms at sale.

STEPHEN A. POPE,

Assignee and present holder of said mortgage.

Ralph H. McDaniel, Att'y.

40 State St., Boston, Mass.

Mortgagee's Sale of Real Estate

By virtue of and pursuant to the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage given by Alton Babcock to Charles C. Stearns dated March ninth, 1906, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book of plans 49, plan 38, to which reference may be had for a more particular description.

Said lots are more particularly bounded and described as follows:

Lot thirty-one is bounded South-westerly by Boylston Road 62.25-100 feet, North-westerly by lot thirty on said plan 78.48-100 feet, North-easterly by lot twenty-four and twenty-five on said plan 101.01-100 feet and South-westerly by lot forty-two and forty-three on said plan 83.88-1

FROM ABROAD

ANOTHER INTERESTING LETTER FROM ROME

March 9, 22 o'clock
Excelsior Hotel, Rome.

I started early this morning—ten o'clock is early for a woman up till one A. M.—and walked over a mile cross-town to get a certain green car near the Ferrovia (R. Station) to make a visit to the church and Campo Santo (cemetery) of St. Lorenzo, the shrine and also the pet of Pio IX. It was he who developed it, and ordered his very plain tomb to be there. But he did not restrict the Crypt decorations, and all Catholic Christendom has united in making it a perfect jewel casket. It is under the Church, and on descending the marble staircase I was first shown the great iron and marble enclosure of the tomb of St. Lorenzo. There is a marble tablet in one side, on which a yellow stain is pointed out, as the impression of the martyr's body. The piece of the gridiron on which he is said to have suffered torture is shown in St. Lorenzo in Lucina, very near my hotel—where I go to see my favorite "crucifixion" by Guido Biondi. Then I went inside the high iron work enclosed crypt, and saw the tomb, made familiar by pictures—a plain, white marble sarcophagus, enclosed by a circular iron rail, to keep off the reverent touch of pilgrims. He was the Pope of our childhood, made so by our intimacy with chromos and engravings of his benign countenance. Over the tomb is a beautiful mosaic of the shepherd with a lamb across his shoulders. The entire wall is a mosaic curtain of circular coats of arms, about ten inches in diameter, bearing the names and mottoes of every Roman Catholic Country, Order and Fraternity. About are magnificent mosaics, heavily studded with glass jewels which add to their brilliancy. The three over the main doorway are "The Immaculate Conception" in the centre, and on either side "The Conclio Vaticano" and "Pio IX. recita tutti Nazioni." The Pontifical vestments are magnificent, in colors and mother-of-pearl thickly studded with gems. "America" in "Reception of All Nations" is distinguished by the flag draped across her figure. The Altar at one end of the Crypt is a miracle of jade, lapis lazuli, verd antique and fancy marbles and bronze.

Outside I strolled through the Cemetery and heard many strange spring birds which so forcibly reminded me of you, that I was not surprised to find your dear letter here, on my return. Telepathy again? Right after luncheon I started out again, and rode to the English Cemetery to see the graves of Keats, that melancholy poet, who ordered that his epitaph should be: "Here lies one whose name was writ in water"—and his admirer, Percy Bysshe Shelley, whose heart is buried here, wrote that the water was from the tears of his friends.

Then I started on my long anticipated walk out the Appian Way. I had a two mile stretch from Porta St. Paolo to Porta Sebastiano, along the Via Muro directly under the high old turreted wall of the city—Then my two Scotch companions wearied, and returned through Porta Appia to town, while I struck off westward into Via Appia. Half way to the Catacombs of St. Callistus I unexpectedly found the Quo Vadis Church where a fine cast of St. Angelo's "Christo" is placed back of a grating in the pavement, where they show the print—in a marble block—of two feet, said to be those of Our Blessed Lord! (continued)

tain it is that "The Sign of the Cross" and "Quo Vadis" were inspired by this Legend. As I walked along again I was hailed by friends, from Hingham, who frantically waved their hands to me, and stopped their cab for a chat. After another mile I entered the grounds of the St. Callistus Monastery, and paid my Lira, signed the Register, and then descended with a lot of people from Hill (also in this Hotel) to the Catacombs. The I could understand most of the Italian monks' explanations, I got bewildered by their Spanish exclamations so I soon deserted, and joined an English man and his English speaking monk for the end of the tour of the subterranean chambers—very like those at St. Agnese and St. Sebastian. Rather than retrace my steps I courageously set off across country, by a road so soaked by the month of rains that we fairly waded in mud; the Swiss Germans I now picked up wanted to investigate the next Catacombs "St. Petronilla" and "Domatilla," so in I went—and I've had enough to last the rest of my life, thank you. The violet enclosed, was plucked enroute. Graves in both cemeteries were covered with them. Then on, on, ever westward, wallowing in mire, avoiding giant, white ox teams, ensuring the distance at wads of wine "trattoria," until each "ten minutes" more seemed miles. But in the sunset glory, with a vivid Zodiacal light flaming up in the north-west we finally reached "St. Paolo outside the Walls"—I had come in a circle of eight or nine miles, nearly back to the English Cemetery! Fortunately we first caught the six o'clock—excuse me, 18 o'clock car to the city—and it was just 19 o'clock when I reached home after two car rides. Thus ended my walk out the Appian Way. But I am glad to have taken it—and I am not as lame as I feared, nor at all tired. I enjoy seeing the primitive farm life. The man power instead of machinery. Poor little old Italy, when will it improve on the antique, high, heavy harness, with the rabbit's tail on a feather aloft to ward off evil spirits—When put the bit into instead of over the mule's mouth, the strikes me as more merciful than our shafts. The carts are antique too. The queer wine carts, loaded with barrels, with a side-way hood, at the front end, under which the driver sleeps on his buffalo robes leaving mules or oxen to go as they please. The dinner bundle of straw dangles at the end of shaft, tantalizingly near the horses' noses. The loading of coal onto the N. D. Lloyd ships is all by basket loads carried aboard from ghettos, and the same tiny baskets figure here and in Spain, wherever earth or stone is moved. The farm implements are most primitive, too. I saw grain winnowed in big hand sieves and tossed high in the air to separate the chaff! To-day a hand pump was drawing water from a swift, running brook, and everywhere men and women—are plodding along in the methods used by their great-grandparents.

I happened into a military funeral 10-day, platoons of cavalry and a solemn brass band playing minor dirges obstructed my car, while the flower decked hearse (draped like a coffin) and cab loads of owens unloaded at a church on our route. It all interests, even if it delays me. There is no use in being in a hurry over here—they don't understand the word. So I learn to allow extra time for delays.

Spring Announcement

IN MY NEW PARLORS AT

7 Temple Place Room 63 Boston

I WILL HAVE ON EXHIBITION

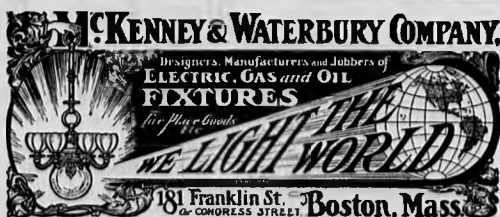

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday

French Pattern Hats and Turbans which will be pleased to show to my patrons

Mme. Buettel Arnould

NOW 7 TEMPLE PLACE, ROOM 63, BOSTON

Take Elevator Telephone Connection

Hairdressing and Manicure Shop

Boston's Most Unique and "Up-to-the-Minute" Most Improved and advanced methods used in Hairdressing, Facial Treatment, Shampooing and Hair-Dressing

SHEPHERD AND FORD Telephone 1950-2 Oxford 178 TREMONT STREET, ROOM 46-47 (Fourth Floor) BOSTON, MASS. (Near Tremont Theatre)

P. E. Waltner & Co. Tailors

17 MILK STREET, BOSTON

P. E. WALTNER, Formerly Cutter for W. C. Brooks & Co.

The picture gallery at The Vatican is not yet open the promised for March 1. Now we learn that it will be opened with a grand function on the eighth. The winter tourists have been much disappointed, but the move to the new building is at last completed. It was hard on people who were here only a few days or a week, to miss the greatest picture in the world—Raphael's "Transfiguration"—but we have such a plenty of time here, over two months—and besides I really have the great modern mosaic copies in St. Pietro, of it, and of Guido Reni's "St. Michael." Of the many antiques here, I admire most the pictures and books. Old dates, from 1554 A. D. to 1795 A. D. are a perfect obsession, and my Bievanni and "Imitation of Jesus Christ" in four different languages will help swell the library of our dear Seminarian. I also picked up a Phnedri—Aesop's Fables, in Latin and Greek—last week, very ancient date and print, and two Quarto volumes of the Bible in the Vulgate, the Psalms being in parallel columns of Latin and Greek. I much prefer such treasures to any modern jewelry or objects d'art.

Bishop Jagger of Ohio—who lived in West Newton, now in charge of our continental churches, was here a week ago and confirmed four or five adults—one a lady from Cambridge.

I meet Bishop Lawrence's sister every week at American Church Sewing Guild. I have joined it (Mondays) and the circle of the English Church (Thursdays) impartially! We are still having showers, dirty weather; with a rainy November in Spain, and rain almost constantly here and in Naples the past three months I feel inclined to become a weather growler, with the rest of the world.

I get out every day and walk miles sight-seeing. Have seen most of the larger and more prominent Roman churches and now am going to galleries, the Doric open only Tuesdays and Fridays and the Rospiello, where is Guido Reni's "Aurora" only Wednesdays and Saturdays, so that those days have slipped by several times unheeded.

Rome is filling up, and there is now a prospect that Court receptions may be resumed—for which fulfillment of hope and plans my friend is waiting. I am quite anxious to see the Holy Father, but his influenza prevented any audience the past fortnight, and I fear my credentials may not arrive in time for me to attend one—there is so much red tape about it. If I do go, I will write again—all the particulars.

L. A. C.

WARNING FROM CALIFORNIA

The secretary of the Newton Associated Charities has received the following letter:

Los Angeles, Cal., Mar. 18, 1909.

To the Secretary:

At a meeting of the Charity Conference Committee of Los Angeles, the following resolution was adopted:

"The Charity Conference Committee of Los Angeles in assembled session this day, March 16, 1909, sends greetings to kindred organizations throughout the Middle West and Eastern and Southern States, and requests, in the name of charity and humanity, that organized charities and physicians should not persist in sending patients in the advanced stages of tuberculosis to Los Angeles, only to cause suffering to the indigent and a burden to communities to which such patients have no ties. If this practice continues, we give warning that we shall be obliged to promptly return such indigent patients to the place from which they were sent."

It is not the intention of the Conference to even seem unkind by this action. Leaving entirely out of the question the financial ability of the charities to take care of these people, the suffering we are called upon to witness in these cases, without the ability to relieve, makes it imperative in the name of humanity to beg of your society your aid and, that these people may be kept where they can be properly taken care of among their friends, and to relieve as far as possible their sufferings in their last stages of tuberculosis.

We trust you will understand our motive, and give this resolution as wide publicity as possible.

Yours very truly,
H. W. Frank, President.
Spencer H. Sewall, Secretary.

Lillian H. Whitman, the popular milliner of 25 Winter street, Boston, is showing more unique designs in spring millinery; also a beautiful display of flowers and novelties. A visit to this shop is sure to prove most pleasing.

REAL ESTATE.

John T. Burns, Newton, reports agreements signed for sale of 1665 Centre street, Newton Highlands, a modern family house rated at $6500. The grantor is to be Edward Ely floor and the purchaser Mr. A. W. Parmer who will occupy. With the property there are 6200 feet of land. This is the fourth property in the immediate neighborhood to have been sold recently by the above broker.

The Dr. E. Earl Hopkins house, 442 Walnut street, Newtonville, has been leased to Mr. Louis E. Emmes of Harvard Medical School. Mr. Emmes and family to occupy by April 1st. John T. Burns was the broker.

Mr. Frederick M. Wood has leased the estate situated at 9 Eldredge street through John T. Burns. Miss M. H. Henry was the lessor.

Mr. J. B. Duckett of Somerville has leased the Burbank house, 15 Maple avenue, Newton for immediate occupancy.

Mr. James Currier has rented 40 Union street, owned by Mr. Louis Crowe. John T. Burns was the broker in above transactions.

Henry H. Read has leased the Stevenson house, situated No. 27 Stearns street, Newton Centre, to Mr. John E. Otterson who moves from Newton.

NEWTON CHORAL UNION

The Newton Choral Union have in preparation "The Rose Maiden," which will be given in May under the direction of Mr. Horace M. Walton. Mrs. H. E. Currier of Newtonville will sing the title roll. The excellent work of other concerts by the Union guarantees an artistic performance.

Newton Centre.

—Mr. Sumner R. Vinton has moved from Chesley road to 31 Tarlton road.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dickey of Cypress street have moved to Clinton place.

—Prof. A. E. Burton and family of Brighton have moved to Webster court.

—Mr. W. B. Blason and family have moved from Ripley terrace to Beacon street.

—Mr. A. W. McKey of Allston has rented the house 181 Gibbs street and moved in Monday.

—Judge Robert F. Raymond is again at his home on Berwick road, after a short stay in Plymouth.

—Mr. Henry A. Wheeler has had plans drawn for a house he intends building on Beacon street.

—Miss Edith Clark of Willow street is recovering from an operation for appendicitis at the hospital.

—Miss Mina A. Boyd, who has been visiting her parents on Albion street has returned to New Hampshire.

—Mr. Alexander Montgomery has returned to his home on Warren street from a short trip through the West.

—Mr. George Linn, who has been confined to his home on Langley road for the past week is again able to be out.

—Mr. Rhoderick McAskil who has been in West Newton, now in charge of our continental churches, was here a week ago and confirmed four or five adults—one a lady from Cambridge.

—Dr. George E. May of Commonwealth avenue was among the southern tourists registered recently at Pinehurst.

—Mills undertaking rooms, 817-819 Washington street, Newtonville. Tel. 1123. Leave calls with H. S. Hiltz, Eliot Station.

—Mr. Bernard S. O'Kane, who is a student at Boston college, has been re-elected captain of the college baseball nine for the coming season.

—Mr. David B. Waters, a member of the sophomore class at Boston college, is a candidate for a place in the trials for the coming oratorical contest.

—Mr. H. J. Holt of Boston has purchased the Cobb estate on Pleasant street, the property consisting of a frame dwelling house and 19,000 square feet of land.

—Mr. O. Champlin Burrage, a recent graduate of the Newton Baptist Theological Institution, has had conferred on him by Oxford University the degree of Litt D, in recognition of successful researches which Mr. Burrage has made in Puritan and Congregational history.

—In less than six weeks the gypsy moths and other pests will begin to hatch. After that date wholesale extermination of them would obviously be more difficult than now while the clusters are in the nests, containing from three to five hundred eggs. If your premises have not already received attention, either some private contractor should be employed, or word sent to Mr. Charles J. Bucknam, Forest Commissioner, City Hall, West Newton, under whose direction the work will be done by his department at cost.

West Newton.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Macomber of Prince street are in the South.

—Miss Marguerite Wise of Highland street has returned from New York.

—Mr. H. A. Bennett of Otis street is making extensive improvements to his home.

—Mr. Willard C. Warren of Lenox street is spending the rest of the month in New York.

—Mr. Bradley has been confined to his home on Waltham street with a severe attack of grip.

—Mr. W. W. Trowbridge has purchased the Yerard estate on Alden court for investment.

—Mr. Walter W. Hartell of Philadelphia has moved into the Hawley house on Highland avenue.

—Miss Harriet N. Hanford, secretary of the Allen school, has gone to California to visit relatives.

—Mr. Charles Hatch of Watertown street has returned from Amherst college for the Easter vacation.

—Mr. James Magne and family are moving here from Philadelphia and will reside at 8 Grant street.

—Mrs. Emma Baker and the Misses Baker of Fountain street move next week to Washington street, Faneuil.

—Ground was broken for a new house on Greenough street for Mr. H. G. Chesley of Auburn street this week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Metcalf of St. Paul, Minn., are visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. John W. Carter of Otis street.

—Dr. W. C. Canfield and family moved this week from Bristol. R. I. to the Gane estate on Waltham street which he recently purchased.

—Miss Katherine Ames, Miss Marguerite Hatfield, Miss Robbins and Miss Pushee are home from Smith college for the Easter vacation.

—The Seven Day Adventists have moved from 1271 Washington street to the Mague Lower hall and will conduct services there in the future.

—Miss Katherine Ames of Highland street, who is a member of the sophomore class at Smith college, is to have one of the character parts in the coming comic opera to be given by the students.

—Mr. Edward H. Drew is to be a speaker later at one of the five Sunday afternoon lectures on the "Brotherhood of Nations" arranged by the Free Religious Association and to be given in the hall of the Twentieth Century Club.

Our new and thoroughly modern banking rooms and safe deposit vaults place at your command banking facilities that are second to none.

The Commonwealth Trust Co.

88 Summer Street corner Devonshire Street. Boston

Auburndale.

—Miss May Sullivan of Washington street is quite ill at the Newton hospital.

—Mrs. Caroline M. Dodge of Woodland road is with friends in Chicago for a few weeks.

—Mr. Monroe M. Holdsworth of Ware road is at the Newton hospital again for medical treatment.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Sadler of Ware road returned Friday from Florida, where they spent the winter.

—Mr. David W. Morton has had plans made for a new house he intends building on Charles street.

—New steel rails are being laid on tracks one and two on the Boston & Albany, used for the express trains.

—Mr. Edward E. Fernald of Newell road has bought for investment the Blackstock estate on Auburndale avenue.

—Master Carl Smith, who has been quite ill with scarlet fever at his home on Auburndale avenue is reported improving.

—Mr. John G. Simonds and family are moving from Central street to the house formerly occupied by Mr. Dressler on Fern street.

—Mr. Harding and family have moved here from Jamaica Plain and will make their home in the Skinner house on Auburn street.

—Mr. T. G. Blackstock of Auburndale avenue has purchased and will soon occupy the house corner of Lexington and Freeman streets.

—Mr. William E. Conroy of Weston, a member of the junior class of Boston college, is among the applicants for places in the trials for the coming oratorical contest.

—Mr. Theodore W. Dike, who has been spending several weeks at his home on Hancock street, is back at Alberta, Northwest Territory, where he has business interests.

—Mr. William Dresser of Central street has located in Seattle, Wash., where he is to be manager of a large hotel now under construction. His family leave soon to join him in that city.

—In the Taylor building on Auburn street last Friday afternoon a successful sale of food, aprons and fancy articles was held under the auspices of the Newton Ladies' Home Circle. The proceeds of the sale will be used for charitable purposes.

Newton.

—Comfortable Shoes and Men's furnishings at J. McCombs's.

—Mr. J. J. Doherty of Waban park is spending the early spring season in Florida.

—Mrs. A. C. Cummings of the Warren, who has been quite ill is improving in health.

—Mrs. Cummings and Mrs. Ralph C. Emery are back from a vacation trip to Bermuda.

—Mrs. Benjamin I. Leeds of Bennington street is returning from a visit to Atlantic City, N. J.

—Dr. Edward Fall has had ground broken for a new house he intends building on his land corner Galen and Boyd streets.

—Mr. Howard Lyman of Newtonville avenue has accepted the position of soloist on Sunday evenings at People's Temple, Boston.

—The young son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Fawcett of Hyde avenue is recovering from a surgical operation and has returned from the Emerson hospital.

CITY HALL NOTES.

Street Commissioner Ross was a speaker last week Wednesday at the smoke talk of the Massachusetts Highway Association in Boston, with the use of tar and asphalt in constructing macadam roads as his topic.

The board of health has required the owners of the tenement building on Mechanic street, Upper Falls, to comply with the law relative to cubic feet of space for each person residing therein.

MANUFACTURERS OF Flags
Tents
Awnings
And all kinds of Canvas Goods

COTTON DUCK
From 1 to 12 Feet Wide

For Roofs, Wagons, Laundries, Boats; and various other purposes. CANOPIES TO LET FOR WEDDINGS, RECEPTIONS, ETC.

C. H. BATCHELDER & CO.

Telephone, Richmond 1575

234-236-238-240 State Street, Boston

Waban.

—Misses Margaret and Agnes Breck of Beacon street are now in Virginia for a stay of several weeks.

—Mrs. H. R. Lane of Pine Ridge road is again improving rapidly, after a relapse during a severe case of grippe.

—Miss Margaret Davidson has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. B. Hoffman Davidson of Plainfield street the past fortnight.

—It is reported that the Blatchford residence on the corner of Beacon street and Windsor road has been purchased by Mr. A. H. Willis of Windsor road.

Newton Highlands

—Mr. W. M. Guild is remodelling his residence on Endicott street.

—Miss Singleton, who has been visiting at her home on Erie avenue, left Monday for Albany, N. Y.

—Mr. and Mrs. Freedom Hutchinson of Lincoln street are spending a few days at Atlantic City, N. J.

—Mr. W. B. Broderick will erect a house on Bowdoin street next to the residence of V. Greenidge, this spring.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

The members of the association, both boys and men, are taking advantage of the fine weather to do some outdoor running. Our door running is one of the best forms of exercise and it will be the policy of the physical department to take the men's and boys' classes out doors for various forms of outdoor exercise and games as soon as the warm weather comes to stay.

Ask about the summer membership rates.

Adam had a right to think his wife the prettiest woman in the whole world.

Caroline MILLINERY
486 BOYLSTON ST., BOSTON
In Block of Brunswick Hotel
SPRING OPENING

CAST OFF CLOTHING WANTED

HIGHEST CASH PRICES PAID
TED SKINNER 39 Boylston St., Harvard Sq.
CA 718 Tel. 223-1 Camb

Goodyear Rubber House
24 School Street Boston
Tel. Main 840

VISIT THE Waverley Conservatories

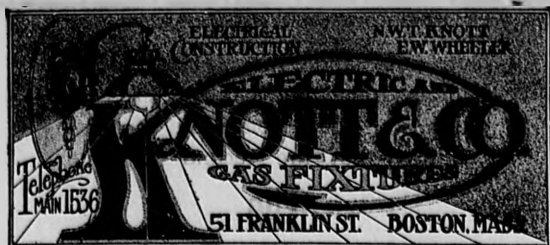

Beautiful Plants and Flowers
WILLIAM W. EDGAR CO.
Tel. 58-1 Belmont

First-Class Dressmaker
would like engagement to go out by the day. Address L. L. BOWER, 50 Bowers Street, Newtonville.

TO RENT.

House 10 Rms. Modern. Hard Wood floors, open Plumbing, broad Piazzas, first class Neighborhood, 17213 ft. land, shade and fruit trees, 5 minutes from Steam and Electric. (Good Repair.)

APPLY TO
TURNER & WILLIAMS
NEWTONVILLE, MASS.
Telephone 424-2 North

HARRIS E. JOHNNOT
Electrician and Contractor
431 CENTRE ST., NEWTON
Telephones: Office, 725-2; Residence, 728-2

Boston Elevated Railway Co

SURFACE LINES
WATERTOWN TO HANOVER ST. (Via Arsenal St.)—5.31 a.m., and intervals of 10, 15 and 20 minutes to 11.31 p.m. SUNDAY—7.03 a.m., and intervals of 20 and 15 minutes to 11.32 p.m.

NEWTON AND WATERTOWN TO HANOVER ST. (Via Mt. Auburn)—5.15 a.m., and intervals of 8, 15 and 20 minutes to 12.13 a.m. SUNDAY—5.54 a.m., and intervals of 15 and 10 minutes to 12.13 a.m.

NIGHT AND EARLY MORNING SERVICE. Newton to Adams Sq., via Mt. Auburn. 12.42, 1.39, 2.39, 4.39 (5.39, Sunday) a.m. Return leave Adams Sq. 12.35, 1.35, 2.35, 3.35, 4.35, (5.35 Sunday) a.m.

NEWTON AND WATERTOWN TO PARK ST. SUBWAY (Via Mt. Auburn St.)—7.02 a.m., and every 15 minutes to 10.49 p.m. SUNDAY 8.17 a.m., and every 15 minutes to 10.49 p.m.

C. S. SERGEANT, Vice-Pres.
January 9, 1909.

H. W. BERRY
Sole Agent for the Celebrated Gold Medal STRICH & ZEIDLER, also first class H.W. BERRY, JAMES & HOLMSTROM and KELLER & SONS

PIANOS
648 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON
Tel. 1279-2 Oxford.

FRANCIS MURDOCK
Insurance Agent
BANK BUILDING, NEWTON, MASS.
INSURANCE TO ANY AMOUNT placed in first-class Stock and Mutual Companies. Sole Agent for Newton of the Middlesex Mutual of Concord, Mass.

JAMES PAXTON & CO.
Confectioners and Caterers
388 Centre Street, - Newton
ELIOT BLOCK
Telephone, Newton North 68

ROBERT F. CRANITCH
(Successor to L. H. Cranitch)
House, Sign and Ornamental Painter
Paper Hangings in Great Variety.
Work promptly done.
Walnut Street Newtonville

Monumental Works
Established 1873.
GEORGE R. SANDS
457 Mt. Auburn Street
CAMBRIDGE
Telephone
Real Estate and Insurance

INSURANCE
Do you realize that the average loss by fire in U. S. is about $500,000 a day. Right here in Massachusetts over 8000 dwellings were either destroyed or damaged during 1907, costing insurance companies $1,180,052.
Failure to insure is gross negligence. The cost is small, protection absolute. Be sure your automobile is covered. Accidents are alarmingly frequent.

G. B. Macomber
151 Milk Street - Boston
Telephone 438-2 Newton North
Established 1857 Telephone 2957

EDWARD F. BARNES
Real Estate Agent and Broker
Expert Appraiser, Notary Public

MONEY TO LOAN ON MORTGAGES
Insurance Agent and Auctioneer. Member of the Real Estate Exchange.
31 STATE STREET, BOSTON
Brackett's Block, Newton

W. S. & F. EDMANDS
INSURANCE AGENCY
Established 30 Years

Fire Marine Burglary
Automobile Accident
Strongest Stock and Mutual Companies
178 Devonshire St. 392 Centre St. 81 Union St.
BOSTON NEWTON N. CENTRE
Tel. 3159-31. 312-1 N. N. 72-2 N. S.

Schools and Teachers.

THE ALMON WALTHAM ORCHESTRA
(Fifth consecutive year at Mt. Ida School. Over 300 consecutive Saturday Evening Concerts at C. S. Cobb Co's Dept. Store.)
MUSIC FOR ALL OCCASIONS
Address
14 Fiske Avenue, Waltham, Mass.

L. EDWIN CHASE
TEACHER OF
Violin and Mandolin
BEST METHODS
Warner Building Newton

A. H. HANDLEY
MUSIC For All Occasions
105 OAKLEIGH ROAD
NEWTON
TELEPHONE

VOCAL AND VIOLIN INSTRUCTION
(Belgium Bowing)
MRS. MARCUS G. HALEY
9 PARK STREET NEWTON

NEWCOMB'S
Newton and Boston
EXPRESS

CHARLES G. NEWCOMB
PROPRIETOR AND MANAGER
402 Centre Street - Newton
Telephone North 690

GEO. W. BUSH
FUNERAL and FURNISHING
Undertaker
Coffins Caskets Robes
and every modern requisite for the proper performance of the business constantly on hand.

Elmwood Street, Newton
HENRY F. CATE
Successor to STEPHEN F. CATE
Undertaker

1231 Washington St. West Newton
Telephone Connection
GEO. W. MILLS
Undertaker

18 Years' Experience Highest Reference
Cliffin Bldg., 817-819 Washington St., Newtonville
Telephones Office 112-3, Residence 855-2 N. N.
VINELAND
UNFERMENTED GRAPE JUICE

A Life Giving Drink
25 and 45c.
G. P. ATKINS
Centre Street - Newton

FRENCH MILLINER
Leading Styles in Millinery
Mlle. Robillard
48 Main Street - Watertown Square

MRS. B. HOFFMAN
CHIROPY
Hair Dressing Manicuring
Shampooing Facial and Scalp Massage
Room 5, 27 Moody St., Waltham, Mass.
Tel. 596-4.

Members of the Master Builders Association
166 Devonshire Street
(Established 1896.) (Incorporated 1894.)
(Connected by Telephone.)
JOHN FARQUHAR'S SONS,
INCORPORATED.

Roofers and Metal Workers.
Dealers in All Roofing Materials.
Slate, Copper, Tin, Tile, and Composition
Roofing, Skylights, Cornices, Gutters,
Conductors, etc.
Special attention given to repairs of all kinds of Roofing.

Office, 20 and 22 East Street, Boston, Mass.
Wharf, 60-72 Washington Ave., Boston, Mass.
Directors: Samuel Farquhar, Pres.; Joseph Farquhar, Treas. and Supt.; Frank C. Farquhar, Sec'y.; Kollin Farquhar.

Dentists.
DR. S. F. CHASE
DENTIST
Dennison Building, Washington Street
Corner Walnut, Newtonville
Careful and thorough operating in all branches.
New Method for Artificial Teeth

CHOICE NECKWEAR AND SHIRTS FOR MEN

Well dressed men, anxious to possess the very latest wearing apparel, especially in the line of shirts and neckties, should make a special point of looking over the large and choice assortment of things that Blanchard, King & Co. are showing at their establishment, 250 Hoyalton street. In shirts there are some attractive pieces in Scotch madras, in coat shirts, for the most part. The negligee shirts have cuffs with slightly rounded corners, which are to be much affected this spring. The neckwear is shown in a bewildering array of colors. Most everything is of English silk and the four-in-hands are being shown in some strikingly effective combinations. Some pieces for afternoon and evening wear in graduated soft tones are quite the most exclusive things seen in a long time. There is, of course, a full line of gloves, collars, hosiery. One has little idea what beautiful things can be obtained until the stock of Blanchard, King & Co. is seen.

NEW CHURCH FORMED

As a result of a series of camp meetings held in this city last summer a Seventh Day Advent church has been formed in West Newton, which includes in its membership persons living in various sections of Newton.

The organization starts with a flourishing membership. A plan to build a church, which has been under consideration, has been abandoned for the present, quarters having just been secured in a building at 1244 Washington street. Here the new parish is to hold a series of gospel lectures on Thursday evenings, for the purpose of stimulating interest in the church among the many persons throughout the city who became interested in the movement at the camp meetings.

Rev. Herbert C. Hartwell of Boston has accepted the position of pastor of the new flock, and he has already begun active work here. The church is organized with Moses C. Davis, elder; Miss Susan Fiske, clerk and treasurer; and Dr. Clem Symonds of Waltham as superintendent of the Sabbath school.

Rev. Mr. Hartwell is to conduct the series of gospel lectures, each of which will be illustrated with stereoscopic views. Next Thursday evening the subject will be "The Rise and Fall of the Earth's Great Empires," while on the evening of April 1 the subject will be "A Remarkable Prophecy and its Wonderful Fulfillment." There will be no admission fee, and an invitation has been extended to the general public to attend.

FIRE FIGHTERS GIVE NO QUARTER

A stationary fire engine sucking veritable rivers of water, now hurling these with the impact of a cataract clear to the roof of a forty-story skyscraper, now turning a deluge from sixty to a hundred and eighty streams against a burning city block, now snuffing out a conflagration which on the wings of a fifty-miles-an-hour gale threatens an entire town with destruction, and now conquering two, four or six fires that may have broken out at the same time in widely separated districts, such a device is the high pressure fire service, the wonderful new fire fighting machine which is going to revolutionize our fire fighting methods so that within five years not a fire engine will be seen within the heart of any of our first class cities.

Although at present the new system is in operation in only a single district in the Borough of Manhattan, not in a generation has an invention aroused keener world-wide interest among those entrusted with the conduct of municipal affairs. From almost every big city in the United States, from every country in Europe even from far-off Japan engineers have gone to Manhattan to view for themselves the almost incredible performances of the new device. For aside from economic features so vital that before long they will be felt by every household in the country, the new system means no less than that hereafter our cities, any of which are today at the mercy of a Baltimore or a San Francisco fire, will be rendered absolutely fireproof. And so perfect is the new device in even every theoretical requirement of the ideal modern fire fighting contrivance that it is safe to say its principles will remain in use for all time to come, at least as long as water remains the chief reliance for conquering conflagrations. From "Fire Fighter That Gives No Quarter," in Technical World Magazine for April.

REAL ESTATE

Turner and Williams have sold the Alice A. L. Knowles estate, located at 77 Page road, to Caroline J. Schaeckle, who now occupies.

AID FOR DR. GRENFELL

Twice a year, in the Spring when navigation opens, and in the Fall before navigation closes, Dr. Grenfell's schooner comes to Boston for supplies, purchased and contributed, as she remains in port only long enough to take her cargo aboard it is necessary that the articles which are contributed should be collected, packed, and marked, ready to be sent to the vessel when she arrives. A late letter from Miss White, secretary N. E. Grenfell Association, tells me that the schooner will probably be in Boston about the first of May. Miss White is to give me timely notice of the arrival and sailing date which I will give notice of when the time comes. Dr. Grenfell needs no introduction to the people of Newton, he and his work are well known. The talented magazine writer, P. T. McGrath, says of Dr. Grenfell in a late number of "Review of Reviews": "The writer has known Wilfred Thomsen Grenfell ever since he began his work on the Labrador waters in 1892, and honestly believes that no man, single handed, has achieved in any part of the world such a variety of philanthropic successes, as stand to the credit of 'Grenfell of Labrador.'" Preacher, teacher, physician, surgeon, magistrate, policeman, navigator, pilot, charity commissioner, orphan's guardian, grand almoner of the whole seafaring, wreck investigator, cartographer, rescuer of imperiled fishermen, and savior of stranded sailors—he is a remarkable provision, indeed to everyone whose livelihood is secured on the lonely, desolate seacoast. Does not any man who comes anywhere near meeting this list of acquisitions deserve to be most royally aided? He ought not to be obliged to beg and he is not. This winter he has been engaged in the work of raising $100,000 for a home for the sailors at St. John's Newfoundland. All the winter and spring he has been working "like a hired man," travelling north to Canada, west to California and the Northern Pacific States, and speaking in many places in New England.

Supplies needed are good, whole, woolen garments for men, women and children; shoes for children, 4 to 12 years of age; hospital stores, reading matter, not too heavy in character, for the older people, and story books and papers and magazines for the little ones. Gospel hymns, discarded toys, if whole, Christmas cards, in fact anything that the good judgment of a good housewife would suggest. Dr. Grenfell wishes donors of barrels or boxes to place inside on top of the articles a paper stating from whom the donation comes, in order that he, or his secretary, can acknowledge them. Boxes, barrels and packages should be marked Dr. W. T. Grenfell, St. Anthony, Newfoundland. It has been my experience that our local expression responds very promptly to a suggestion of free transportation to the schooner. The first of May will soon be here. Let's get busy and have our donations ready when the schooner arrives, for the cause of the Labrador Mission.

Horatio Carter.

GOOD IDEA CLUB

The March Social of the Good Idea Club of Abundant was held in Norumbega hall last Saturday evening.

While the attendance was not quite as large as that in February there was a more general participation in the festivities afforded. The club members expressed themselves as well satisfied with the success of their attempt to strike a sympathetic chord in every one present, either mentally or physically.

Under the leadership of Miss Eleanor Brian of Boston, some very pleasing instrumental music was rendered; notably a concert selection by Miss Edith Jacobs, who is an accomplished pianist, and orchestra music with Miss Brian, violin; Miss Keith, cornet, and Miss Fiske, piano. All of these musicians are pupils of the Boston Conservatory of Music.

Miss Rosa B. Allen contributed vocal selections and a mixed quartet with Miss Jacobs, pianist. Miss Mabel White furnished several readings in the person of Mr. Arthur Treloar, who also officiated as floor director and master of ceremonies. Mr. H. W. Stowell had charge of the whist tables and Mr. T. G. Blackstock served the ice cream and cake.

Dancing was freely participated in throughout the evening, and waltzes, two-steps, barn dances, the Virginia reel and Portland farcy were sandwiched in between order of exercises.

Evidences of harmony, equality and hearty co-operation were everywhere apparent, and the whole social seemed to appeal simultaneously to the mental, social and physical natures of the club members, providing a unit of enjoyment which they believe to be healthy, moral and uplifting.

It was announced that the April Social would take the form of a "Shirt Waist Party" and the Referee has promised to give the members a practical demonstration of the Good Idea Club's system of physical culture. At a recent meeting of the Executive Board, the following By-Laws were adopted:—

Membership Fees.

Sect. 1. All membership fees are due and payable to the Treasurer on the first day of each calendar month, except from such membership cards as are issued on credit.
Sect. 2. Membership fees are due from members whether they attend the functions of the club, or not.
Sect. 3. All overdue membership fees must be paid to the Treasurer as regulated under "Arrears and Suspensions," before the holders of membership cards are entitled to the privileges accorded to members in good standing.

Miss Morris (the Ladies' Hatter, 121 Moody street, Waltham, is showing one of the Finest Millinery displays of exclusive designs in the city. See adv.

UNDER THE GILDED DOME

The most important matters this week at the State House were the defeat of the woman's suffrage bill and the postponement to next year of the proposed amendment to the constitution prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors in the state. Our representatives spoke on both matters, Mr. Bishop opposing the woman's suffrage bill, and Mr. Garcelon opposing the prohibition amendment. The woman's suffrage matter was killed 43 to 160, Messrs. Bishop and Garcelon voting against it with Mr. Converse unplaced. The prohibition amendment was postponed until next year, Mr. Bishop voting to postpone and Mr. Converse again unplaced.

I am a little surprised at the votes of Messrs. Bishop and Converse against the bill to give East Boston 80 cent gas, altho it is possible that they were prompted to do so by the fact that the bill was not recorded on this matter.

The bill to authorize assessments for use of dust laying materials on streets, other than water, petitioned for by this city has been favorably reported and no serious opposition is expected.

The bill to postpone the evil day when the new corporation tax goes into effect will be given leave to with draw as expected. This would have saved Newton the loss of about $70,000 income the present year. The accompanying bill to readjust the basis of assessment of the state tax to eliminate the loss occasioned by the new corporation tax law will probably be favored. Its passage is a mere act of justice, as it is not fair to take away income and then assess taxes on what has just been taken away.

My assistance has been asked to favor the establishment of a state commission to regulate the issuance of municipal notes and bonds. While it is undoubtedly true that some municipalities do not have the common sense to regulate their expenses to income, it is not the fact in this city and for one I am opposed to a condition which would require our city government to seek and receive the approval of a state board before being able for instance, to erect a new school house. It is simply one more step in the progress we are making towards a centralized form of government and so far as I am concerned I shall favor keeping as much power as possible in the local authorities.

It is rather curious that the legislature has enacted a bill to allow the mayor of Newton to become a member of the school committee, while this week it has refused a similar request from the city of Quincy.

Leave to withdraw has been given on the direct nomination bills and accepted by the Senate. In connection with this subject the following portion of an editorial from the Haverhill Record hits the nail on the head:

"Chairman Garcelon of the committee, an 'anti,' in discussing this subject the past week, hit the keynote of the opposition when he said that 'the organization is against it.' This is practically the Alpha and Omega and most of the intermediary characters of the faithful adherents of the Republican state committee 'machine.'"

The Record also has the following in its news story of state house affairs on the same subject:
"In talking with Chairman Garcelon of the committee this week the chief learned for a certainty that the chief reason why the committee, or a majority of it, is against this plan, was because of the opposition of the so called Republican 'organization.' It has been known all along by the advocates of direct nominations that the Republican 'machine' would do everything in its power to prevent the adoption of any of the proposed laws, and it has been even intimated that the committee was made up with this idea in view."

J. C. Brimblecom.

CEMETERIES OF THE FUTURE

Some startling suggestions are advanced by Mr. Howard Evans Wood, in Suburban Life for April, writing under the above title. Among other things he says: "The most radical mutation now being made in modern cemeteries has to do with abandoning useless graves and monuments. Formerly the graves had both headstones and footstones. Now, only headstones are considered necessary, and in the best cemeteries there are restrictions as to the size of headstones, especially as respects the height above ground. In the cemetery of the future, the headstones will not appear above the surface at all, but will be placed level with the ground, even as is now required in Lakewood Cemetery, in Minneapolis. This is, of course, a startling innovation, but is meeting with popular approval."

N. H. S.

Dunne, '09, the former crack 3rd base man of De Meritte School, will be unable to go out for the High School team, as he needs the extra time for study, so that he can enter Dartmouth in the fall.

LEGAL NOTICES

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

Middlesex, ss.
PROBATE COURT.
To all persons who are or may become interested in the estate held in trust by Edward T. Troffter, under the will of Edward T. Troffter, late of Newton, in said County, deceased, and all persons who may be interested in the same, notice is hereby given that the said Edward T. Troffter, trustee under said instrument, has presented his petition for authority to mortgage certain real estate therein specified, held by him as such trustee to raise the sum of One Thousand dollars, for the purpose of paying an existing lien upon said premises.
You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the fifth day of April, A. D. 1909, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted. And said trustee is ordered to serve this citation by publishing the same once in each week for three successive weeks in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in Newton, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court; and to send, or cause to be sent, a written or printed copy hereof, properly mailed, postage paid, to each of the persons interested in said trust estate, or their legal representatives, known to him, at least seven days at least before said Court.
Witness, CHARLES J. MCINTIRE, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this eighth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine.
W. E. ROGERS, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

Middlesex, ss.
PROBATE COURT.
To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Harriet Mason, late of Newton, in said County, deceased.
Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Theodora Tyler, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to her, the executrix therein named, without giving a surety on her official bond.
You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the sixth day of April, A. D. 1909, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.
And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in Newton, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing post-paid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.
Witness, CHARLES J. MCINTIRE, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this thirteenth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine.
W. E. ROGERS, Register.

Notice is hereby given, that the subscriber has been duly appointed administrator with the will annexed of the estate of Henry J. Marham, late of Newton, in the County of Middlesex, deceased, and has taken upon himself that trust by giving bond, as the law directs. All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to FREDERICK S. MARSHMAN, Adm., etc.
Address, 68 St. James St., Newton, March 20, 1909.

Notice is hereby given, that the subscriber has been duly appointed administrator of the estate of Caroline Pearl Braman, late of Newton, in the County of Middlesex, deceased, and has taken upon himself that trust by giving bond, as the law directs. All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to the subscriber.
Witness, CHARLES S. PEARL, Adm.
Address, 87 Milk St., Room 40, Boston, March 15, 1909.

Lost Savings Bank Book

Newton Savings Bank Book No. 37903
Newton Savings Bank Book No. 28708
has been lost and application made for payment of the account in accordance with Sec. 40 Chap. 600 of the Acts of 1908. Payment has been stopped.

LADIES FINE DRESSMAKING

Suits & Outside Garments of every description made to order.
LATEST NEW YORK DESIGNS.
(Evening Dresses a Specialty)
MRS. T. A. COLEMAN, New York Dressmaker
11 Chestnut Street, - WEST NEWTON

SPOT CASH PAID

For All Kinds of Furniture, Carpets, Rugs, Ranges
Bedding, Old Feather Beds
Antiques, Etc.
PIANO AND FURNITURE MOVING
P. R. PHELAN, 729 Main Street, Cambridgeport

Ping Pong Photos

35 for 25c, taken in five positions (day or night). Frames 10c, doz.
CUMMINGS PING PONG STUDIO
103 MOODY ST. WALTHAM

20 YEARS' EXPERIENCE!
Scientific Spraying and Trimming of Trees
and ALL BRANCHES OF FORESTRY
GYPSY AND BROWN-TAILED MOTH WORK
Given Careful Attention
Four years with the Massachusetts Board of Agriculture as Gypsy Moth Commissioner
W. J. HUNTER, Expert Forester
Prospect Hill Ave. - Waltham, Mass.

Lawyers.

LAW OFFICE
W. S. & W. S. SLOCUM
WINFIELD S. SLOCUM
City Solicitor of Newton
Rooms 1103, 1104 Carney Bldg.
44 Tremont St., BOSTON, MASS.
Residence, Newtonville

JOHN IRVING FLORIST

Cut Flowers, House Plants, Funeral Designs,
Flowers for Weddings and Parties.
PEARL STREET NEWTON
Telephone Connection

WHY BUY NEW HATS?
Your own can be made like new at a great saving to you.
Hodges'
HAT BLEACHERY
37 TEMPLE PLACE
We cleanse or color
Felt and Beaver Hats and change them to the prevailing New Shapes of the Season

Partridge
Photographer and...
Frame Maker

WE have on exhibition in our window at the NEWTONVILLE STUDIO the finest display of PORTRAITS in free-hand ever shown in this vicinity. They are in CRAYON, RED CHALK and WATER COLORS on IVORY, PARCHEMENT and PORCELAINE. We should be pleased to quote prices. We should also be pleased to have you call and see them whether you wish to order or not.

BROOKLINE, 27 Harvard Street ROXBURY, 2832 Washington Street

Why Certainly
You Can Rid Your House of Water Bugs and Roaches if You Use...
Barnard's Water Bug and Roach Exterminator.
ITS WARRANTED. SOLD EVERYWHERE. BY MAIL 50c.

BARNARD & CO., 7 Temple Place

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC.

Newton Free Libr.

VOL. XXXVII.—NO. 29.

NEWTON, MASS., FRIDAY, APRIL 9, 1909.

TERMS, $2.00 A YEAR.

First National Bank of West Newton

Capital $100,000

Surplus and Undivided Profits $68,000

Officers

CHARLES E. HATFIELD, President

JOSEPH B. ROSS, Cashier

Directors

Harry L. Burrage
Ernest B. Dane
A. Stuart Pratt

George P. Bullard
Charles A. Potter
George Royal Pulsifer
Edward F. Woods

Alfred L. Barbour
Charles E. Hatfield
Robert W. Williamson

Depository for United States, Commonwealth of Massachusetts and City of Newton

Safe Deposit Vaults for the Storage of Valuables

FIRE
MARINE LIABILITY
PLATE GLASS
BURGLARY
ACCIDENT
LIFE

S. T. EMERY
GENERAL INSURANCE
19 CENTRAL STREET
BOSTON

NEWTON CENTRE
1933 CENTRE STREET
TELEPHONES

Rambler Automobiles

THE CAR FOR COUNTRY ROADS

FOR SALE BY

A. H. WAITT

390 Centre Street

Newton

PHONE 962-2 NEWTON NORTH FOR A DEMONSTRATION

Metropolitan Laundry WATERTOWN, MASS.

H. H. Sawyer, Prop.

Best Work Possible to be Done

Work called for and delivered in all parts of Newton

Write or telephone and team will call

Ladies Tailoring and Millinery

H. WANSKER
(Formerly with J. Edelstein & Co.)
STREET COSTUMES
RIDING HABITS
REPAIRING AND ALTERING
363 Washington Street, Corner Thornton Street, Newton
Telephone 706-1 Newton North

MME. W. KOFFLER
Paris
LATEST FASHIONS
in
MILLINERY
363 Washington Street, Corner Thornton Street, Newton
Telephone 706-1 Newton North

Metropolitan Storage Warehouse Co.

BUILDING ABSOLUTELY FIREPROOF

184 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge, near Harvard Bridge

One of the best equipped warehouses in the country for the storage of Furniture, Pianos, Books, Pictures, and Valuables. Every room practically a large safety vault. Loads taken directly to rooms requiring but one handling.

An inspection of the building and our prices will interest all in want of storage. Telephone, 612 Cambridge.

Patents-Pensions

Patents secured or no fee charged. All kinds of pension claims prosecuted. Call or write Elmer C. Richardson, 37 Tremont St., Boston. Associated with a Washington Patent Attorney.

The "Cecilian"

The Perfect Piano Player

GEORGE LINCOLN PARKER
Successor to Lincoln & Parker
211-213 TREMONT ST., BOSTON
Opposite Hotel Touraine

ROOFING

State, Gravel, Copper and Tin Roofing
Also on Alterations or Repairs
Promptness with Reasonable Prices
Guaranteed
A sample of our Welch slate roofing may be seen on the new house on Dudley Road, Oak Hill District, near the top of the hill.
E. B. BADGER & SONS CO.
63-75 Pitts St., Boston, Mass.

ROUD
Ladies' Tailor
420 Boylston St., Boston
Berkeley Building
Room 322
Tel. 3159-1 Back Bay
Your inspection of Spring Styles is invited.
Tailored Suits $35 up. Suits made from Customers' materials $18 up. Also Garments remodelled, refitted; Pressed and Cleaned

THE MONO-GRAM
MAN

All the latest designs in BELT BUCKLES on PINS. Mr. of FODS and MONOGRAMS for all leather goods. Also AUTO MONOGRAMS.
JOHN A. SALMAN
21 Bromfield Street
BOSTON

THE MOST IMPORTANT ARTICLE in a woman's wardrobe today is her corset, and whatever style of dress she may choose it is the corset that shows through it all and expresses her taste or the lack of it. The CORSET Custom-Made CORSET corrects negligence and compels the wearer to assume a graceful carriage and to avoid the stiff appearance that comes from an ill-fitting corset. This corset comes in all sizes. Also a full line of Special Ready-Made CORSETS that will be fitted and altered Free of Charge.
MISS M. STRETCH
48 WINTER ST Room, 44, BOSTON

SHEPARD

LADIES' HATTER
Exclusive designs. Reasonable prices.
296 Boylston Street
P. Joseph Armstrong with A. Shepard, Inc. Opposite Public Gardens

IMPORTANT TO LADIES

For the month of April we will make a $30 tailored suit in the newest and most correct spring styles, made to your measure from all-wool cloths, worsteds, panamas and serges, in plain and fancy stripes, for $15. This order is good only on orders taken in March. Perfect fit and shape guaranteed. Open Tues., Thurs. and Saturday evenings.

S. D. COHEN & CO.
Designers and Ladies' Tailors
694 Washington St., Boston,
Take elevator.

Sun Plaited Skirts

AND BUTTONS

made plain or with rim
ACCORDION and KNIFE PLATINGS

Mrs. D. A. Inwood.
58 WINTER STREET, BOSTON

ASH BARREL
Extra Strong
$2.00 to $3.00
ASH SIFTERS
Garbage Cans
The Best Makes
$1.25 to $2.50

F. A. WALKER & Co.
83-85 Cornhill, Boston
ESTABLISHED 1825

OPENING AT McDOWELL'S
25 WINTER STREET, BOSTON
Imported Crinoline Models and Latest Paris Fashions
We will exhibit our new models of SKIRTS, COATS, SUITS, JACKETS AND SHIRT WAISTS
Only place of its kind where ladies are invited to call and try on Crinoline models and see the effect of the garment, patterns for which are on sale.

Just Now

I am able to offer you a very attractive new house in the most select section of this city and am able to quote a price as low as $5,100. This artistic single house is situated within five minutes of steam and electric lines and near schools, churches, etc. There are 8 rooms with all modern appointments, electric lights, concrete cellar, granite tile walks, high ventilation. A very substantial and up to date home at a moderate price and very easy terms.

TO LET
Ten-room house, hardwood floors, open plumbing, $51.
Two 12-room houses with modern improvements, $50 each.
House and stable, convenient situation, $45.
Modern Dutch-roof house, oak floors, $10.
New lower suite, hot water heat, $35.50.
Single houses, 9 and 10 rooms, improvements, $30 and $32.
Eight-room single house, $25—Half double house, $20.

SEVERAL OTHERS
JOHN T. BURNS
Real Estate
363 Centre Street
Newton

Newton.

—Cut flowers and potted plants at Lane's Wash'n street, opp. bank. tr.
—"Guaranteed Sox." Six pairs guaranteed to wear 6 mos. 25c per pair, J. McCammon.

—Rev. F. D. Matthews and family of Mt Ida terrace will return tomorrow from their vacation trip.

—The Neighborhood Circle will meet next Monday afternoon with Mrs. Henry A. Nealley on Garden road.

—Bishop Hartzell of Africa was the guest, the first of the week, of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Drew of Baldwin street.

—Mrs. Frank A. Day gave a pretty luncheon, followed by bridge whilst at her home on Sargent street Thursday afternoon.

—Georgianna Seymour entertained her little friends on Monday afternoon at her home on Tremont street, in honor of her birthday.

—Mr. and Mrs. G. Fred Simpson of Franklin street and Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Brackett of Hunnewell hill have returned from a visit in Lakewood, N. J.

—At the recent Methodist conference held in Lowell, Rev. Dr. Charles F. Rice was reappointed district superintendent of the Cambridge district for the coming year.

"Hello!" "Yes, this is Hubbard's." Send me a pound of that Confectionery, such as I saw in your window. Is it good? Nothing finer.

HUBBARD'S

Is but another word for Quality and Reliability

It is our aim to give the people the best for their money.
Try some of the following for Easter:
Wenz's, 70c lb.; 40c half lb. Utopian, 50c lb.; 25c half lb. Schraff's, 60c lb.; 30c half lb. Huyler's, 80c lb.; 45c half lb., and many others, Saturday Candy, 28c lb.

F. A. HUBBARD, 425 Centre St., Newton

BLANCHARD KING & CO

250 Boylston Street
Boston

In his neckties and in his shirts a man may permit himself to revel in color—though the rest of his raiment must be sober as a wren's.

In our ENGLISH CRAVATS you will find not only the fetching new tans, but an array of blues, greens, lavenders and mixtures—from the quietest to the most vivid.

There is, if anything, a still greater variety in SCOTCH MADRAS SHIRT FABRICS. We have—but words fail us to describe them. A visit to our shop will gratify your color sense.

Depositors Are Reminded That

THE NEXT QUARTER DAY

—IS—

APRIL 10

AT THE

NEWTON SAVINGS BANK

Money deposited on or before that day will then begin to earn dividends. See Bank's regular advertisement in another column.

A. J. BLANCHARD, Treasurer.

Tel. 545-2 Newton No.

Miss MacCONNELL

Hair Dressing, Face Treatment
Manicure, Chiro-pody, Toilet Articles Toilets, Wigs and Superlatives
Hair Removed
429 CENTRE STREET
Over Hubbard's Pharmacy

A. L. McWHIRTER
Piano Tuner
Res. 45 Irving Street Watertown
Tel. 559-2 or 879-3. Newton North
Experience from May 1906

SADDLE HORSES TO LET

Lessons in Riding

C. M. GILBERT

580 California St., Newtonville

Tel. Newton North 1356-1

HALL CLOCKS PRATT

53 Franklin Street, Boston

DEPOSITORS' AFFAIRS STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL

The board of directors in considering loans, investments and other matters, regard them all as strictly confidential business of the Trust Company. Clerks are absolutely enjoined from betraying the slightest detail of any business passing through the offices.

NEW CURRENCY ALWAYS USED IN CASHING CHECKS

Accounts Invited

NEWTON TRUST CO.

OFFICES

Bank Building
Newton, Mass.

Bray Block
Newton Centre, Mass.

Newton.

—The Woman's Auxiliary to the Y. M. C. A. will hold a sale of useful and fancy articles, cake and candy, at Mrs. Moore's, 199 Church street, on Thursday, April 15, 2.30 to 5.30 P. M.

—Mr. Thomas Green, a well known resident on Emerson street, died yesterday of pneumonia, after a short illness. The funeral will be held from his late residence Saturday morning at 9 o'clock.

—At the annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of Immanuel church, Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Stephen Moore was elected president, Mrs. W. H. Capen, vice president, Mrs. Mary C. Hemenway, secretary, and Mrs. G. S. Harwood, Mrs. F. J. Dodge and Miss Georgia Dupee, collectors.

—The Young Woman's Mission Club of Immanuel church met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Walter C. Wrye on Hunnewell terrace. The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. J. W. Blaisdell; vice president, Mrs. F. E. Kimball; secretary, Mrs. C. V. Moore; treasurer, Miss Emma G. Safford.

—At the Methodist church last evening Rev. Timothy Drake gave his famous lecture on "The Passion Play at Ober Ammergau." Prof. Drake devoted nearly two months' time in the summer of 1900 in Oberammergau, getting acquainted with the various persons who impersonated the characters and these experiences he described as well as the play itself. The lecture was illustrated by a large number of stereopticon views, many of them colored.

—Mrs. Sarah M. Stuart, widow of Timothy Stuart, observed her 80th birthday on Monday by holding a family reunion at her home on Pearl street. Beside the relatives many friends called between the hours of 3 and 7 to offer congratulations. She was the recipient of flowers and other appropriate gifts. Mrs. Stuart was a native of Cork, Ireland, and came to this country as a young girl. She has lived in her present home for 40 years. Her husband was the grandson of Duncan Stuart, the pioneer settler of Saco, Me.

GAMMA SIGMA DRAMATICS

Two sketches were produced with ability which won enthusiastic applause Wednesday evening, when the Gamma Sigma fraternity of Newton high school gave its second annual dramatics before an audience which well filled Players' hall, West Newton. "A Cup of Tea" was the opening sketch. Charles L. Foote appeared as Sir Chas. Seymour, Robert Burns played the role of Scroggins, W. Laurence Beckett appeared as Joseph and Benjamin A. Knowlton was capital as lady Clara Seymour.

After several selections by the high school orchestra there was given the sketch, "Stand by the Flag," in which the cast was: Israel Gordon, Charles F. Hawes, Jr.; Harry Gordon, Theodore Chandler; Arthur Gordon, Edward H. Woods; Cupid, Robert Burns; Terrance, Ted Davis.
Morgan G. Chamberlin was stage

Dille, The Corsetiere

149A Tremont Street, Room 21, Boston

offers to the readers of The Graphic a stock of corsets, the regular prices of which have been $2, $3 and $4.50. Miss Dille will make a special price of $1, $1.50 and $2 on the lot for April. Every corset to be fitted by an expert and all alterations to be made free of charge.

manager, Stanley W. Merrill assistant and the ushers included Whitney Lippincott, Augustus P. Browne, Frank L. Converse, Samuel S. Crocker, Jr., Paul W. Cutler, Richard W. Sprague, Gordon B. Van Tassel, Louis V. N. Washburn and Henry H. Wellington. The committee in charge comprised Edward S. Pratt, George B. Van Tassel and Morgan G. Chamberlin.

MR. HARVEY BURIED

The respect and esteem in which the late George D. Harvey was held was strikingly manifested last Sunday afternoon when the funeral services were held from his late home on Central street, Auburndale. The spacious mansion was crowded to the door with friends and business associates, many of whom stood during the whole hour, in positions where nothing could be heard. Rev. W. C. Gordon, pastor of the Auburndale Congregational church was in charge and read the scriptures and delivered the prayer. Remarks were also made by Rev. E. E. Strong, for thirty years a close neighbor of Mr. Harvey. The Mendelssohn quartet sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," "Nearer, My God, To Thee," and "Softly and Tenderly." The display of flowers was magnificent, the room in which the casket lay being filled with beautiful pieces, while the hallway was also filled.

An impressive feature of the departure of the funeral party from the house was the tribute given by the employees of the firm of Farley, Harvey & Co., of which Mr. Harvey was senior partner. The burl was in the Newton cemetery, where prayers were said by Rev. Dr. Gordon.

Established 1860

JAMES I. WINGATE & SON

Painters & Decorators
402 BOYLSTON ST., BOSTON

We solicit an opportunity to demonstrate our ability to quote satisfactory prices on

Exterior Painting
Interior Painting
Hardwood Finishing
Ceilings, Etc., Etc.
Wall papers and Draperies
Furniture and Hardwood Floors
Rugs and Carpets

Secure our Estimates before placing your orders
Special designs without charge

J. MURRAY QUINBY

206 Waverley Ave.
NEWTON REPRESENTATIVE
Telephone 491-1 N. S.

For Efficient Service and Quick Results

List Your Properties

WITH

FERNALD & SQUIRE

Real Estate

1105 Tremont Building, Boston

or Telephone Newton West 574-3

PLANTS AT AUCTION TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS

Hardy Roses, Shrubs and Fancy Evergreens for Tubs and Lawns

N. F. MCCARTHY & CO., AUCTIONEERS
84 HAWLEY STREET, BOSTON

RAINBOW DYES

Something new—One Dye for all fabrics

FOR HOME USE, 10c PACKAGE

LANE'S 285 Washington Street, Newton

WANTED

WANTED—Second Hand Furniture of all kinds. Spot cash and fair prices paid. Good bargains always to be had in New and Second Hand Furniture at The Furniture Exchange 288 Main St., Waltham (next to gas office).

N. R. KNIGHTS & CO., AUCTIONEERS, Office 73 Tremont St., Boston

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE IN WEST NEWTON.

By license of the Probate Court of the County of Middlesex in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, dated March 22d, 1909, the subscriber, executor of the last will of J. Upham Smith, late of Newton in said County of Middlesex, deceased, will sell at public auction on the premises on Tuesday, the twenty-seventh day of April, 1909, current, the following described parcels of land, namely:—

First:

At 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

A parcel of land, with the buildings thereon, situated on the Southwesterly side of River Street in that part of said Newton called West Newton, at the corner of said River Street and Lexington Street, containing about 2500 sq. ft. of land and bounded as follows:—Northerly by said River Street about fifty (50) feet; Southerly by land of McNeary about fifty (50) feet; Southwesterly by land of Dugan about fifty (50) feet; and Northwesterly by land of McNeary about fifty (50) feet.

Secondly:

At 3:15 o'clock in the afternoon.

A parcel of land, with the buildings thereon, situated on Smith Court near River Street in West Newton, containing about 16,000 sq. ft. of land, and bounded as follows:—Northerly by said Smith Court by two lines about two hundred fifty (250) feet; Easterly by land of Kenyon about fifty (50) feet; Southerly by land of Quinn by the end of Ryan Court and by land of Curley about two hundred fifty (250) feet; Westerly by another parcel of land belonging to the estate of J. Upham Smith about forty (40) feet.

Also, a parcel of land, with the buildings thereon, situated at the end of said Smith Court in West Newton, containing about 4000 sq. ft. of land, and bounded as follows:—Easterly by the end of said Court and by other land belonging to the estate of J. Upham Smith; Southerly by land now or late of Nickerson and Northerly by land of Gallagher and Nickerson.

Also, a parcel of land at the Westerly corner of said River Street and Smith Court in West Newton, containing about 2,300 sq. ft. of land, bounded Northerly by said River Street about forty-five (45) feet; Southerly by said Smith Court about fifty (50) feet; Westerly by land of Gallagher about forty (40) feet and Northerly by land of Gallagher about forty-five (45) feet.

Thirdly:

At 3:45 o'clock in the afternoon.

A parcel of land situated on and near Cherry Street in said West Newton, containing about 22,315 sq. ft. of land, and bounded as follows:—Northerly by said Cherry Street about one hundred (100) feet; Southerly by land of Trefoley about two hundred ten (210) feet; Northwesterly by land now or late of Nickerson formerly of Mague about two hundred fifteen (215) feet; Northwesterly by land of Brady about one hundred fifteen (115) feet; Southerly by land of Gaw about forty-five (45) feet; Southwesterly by land of Costello about twenty-five (25) feet; Southerly by said land of Costello about fifty (50) feet; Northwesterly by said land of Costello about one hundred twenty-five (125) feet.

Fourthly:

At 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

A parcel of land, with the buildings thereon, situated on the Northerly side of Watertown Street in said West Newton, containing 8 acres and about 38,800 sq. ft. of land, and bounded as follows:—Southerly by said Watertown Street about eight hundred (800) feet; Southwesterly by land of Farhush about four hundred twenty-five (425) feet; Northerly by two lines by land of Eliza A. Potter about three hundred seventy-five (375) feet; Westerly by said land of Potter about four hundred thirty (430) feet; Northerly by land of Amory about two hundred fifty (250) feet; and Easterly by land of Wells about four hundred ten (410) feet.

$200 will be required to be paid at the time and place of sale by the purchaser of the parcel last described and $50 by the purchaser of each of the other parcels.

LAWRENCE BOND, Executor of the will of J. UPHAM SMITH, Old South Building, Boston, Mass., April 30, 1909.

ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the West Newton Savings Bank Corporation will be held on Tuesday, April 13, 1909, at 7:30 o'clock P. M., at the office of the Bank.

ALFRED L. BARBOUR, Clerk.

REAL ESTATE
ROBINSON
NATURAL PUBLIC MORTGAGE INSURANCE
ALBANY, MASS.

ANTISEPTIC TOOTH PICKS
Physicians and dentists recommend toothpicks as protection against dental decay. Our patent antiseptic toothpicks are the best made. They preserve the teeth, sweeten the breath and increase the flow of saliva. Flavors are cinnamon, saffron and peppermint. Full size box sent for 15c, postage and coupon below. We are the largest manufacturers of toothpicks in the country.

CUTLER TOILET CO., Boston, Mass.
Correspondence invited with dealers, hotel men, druggists and physicians.
We want dealers and agents everywhere. Agents are making from $5 to $10 a day.

CUTLER TOILET CO., 1st Building, Boston, Mass.
Enclosed find 15c for each box and one box of 300 Antiseptic Toothpicks.
My name is _____
My address is _____ Your name (Name) _____
(Address) _____

THE COBB EASTMAN COMPANY

Our Furniture and Interior Woodwork is acknowledged the standard of workmanship in Fine Cabinet Making, and we guarantee its superior qualities. We make a specialty of designing and selling our own exclusive patterns, which are unequalled in construction, style and finish, and cannot be found elsewhere. We invite your inspection of our Wall Papers, Fabrics and Decorations in charge of competent men.

FINE FURNITURE
DECORATIONS
WALL PAPERS
IMPORTED STUFFS

372-378 BOYLSTON STREET, BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS
101 PARK AVENUE, NEW YORK

LETTER CARRIERS' BENEFIT

The annual concert, reunion, and dance of the Letter Carriers' Mutual Benefit Association, will be held in Mechanics Building, Thursday evening, April 15. The Letter Carriers of Newton are united and most enthusiastic in making this reunion a social and financial success. Daily the boys in gray can be seen while patrolling their routes with a pleasing smile, in anticipation of the coming event, which promises to be an evening of pleasure and merry making.

Arrangements for the affair have been in progress for the past two months and reports from all parts of the postal district indicate that this reunion will be the grandest affair in the history of the organization. A corps of 40 fashionably gowned matrons and young ladies, will assist the officers and reception committee in receiving and entertaining their guests. Every provision is being made for the comfort and pleasure of the many thousands of friends, who will undoubtedly be in attendance, and to accommodate this great throng both Mechanics and Exhibition Halls have been secured. These spacious halls will be handsomely decorated, with national colors, works of art, ferns, palms, and potted plants in profusion. One of the features of the evening will be a musical program arranged by the Boston Letter Carriers' band of 40 pieces from 8 till 9:15. This will be in Mechanics Hall, which will be reserved for dancing, to continue until 2 o'clock. Exhibition Hall, will be used for a promenade, and for serving refreshments, and here an orchestra of 30 pieces will play promenade music throughout the evening. Young women will serve light lunch, ice cream, cake and coffee until the close of the reunion.

The transportation committee have arranged with the Boston Elevated to have cars run to and from Newton until the close of the function. Newton being just admitted to the Boston Postal District, the carriers of this city have become members of the Letter Carriers Mutual Benefit Association. This Association is one of the largest of its kind in New England. It is organized on business principles with a charter from the state. It pays in sickness, a weekly benefit, and time of death $1000 to the widow or orphan. When carriers become disabled, or unable to perform their duty, through sickness or accident or old age, their pay at once ceases, the government makes no provisions for them. It is to supply the lack of government aid in cases of sickness or death, that the carriers have united to establish a permanent benefit fund. Every dollar realized from these reunions is used in paying sick and death benefits, as according to the charter, none of the Association money can be used for any other purpose.

The list of invited guests includes the names of men prominent in National, State and City affairs. Among them are the following: Postmaster E. C. Mansfield, Assistant Postmaster Frank H. Haynes, Governor Eben S. Draper, Lieut. Governor L. A. Frothingham.

LODGES.

Waban lodge, I. O. O. F. observed Ladies' Night in Denison hall, Newtonville last Wednesday evening. The members of Lafayette and Home lodges were the guests. The entertainment was provided by the Kate Belle Walton Concert Company.

The annual dinner and entertainment of Charles Ward Post 62, G. A. R. will take place in Temple hall, Newtonville, Monday evening, April 12th. The dinner will be provided by Tent 2, Daughters of Veterans. The program will consist of addresses, poems and recitations by Post talent and vocal and instrumental music.

The annual Easter ball of the Garden City Mutual Aid Society will be held in Bray hall, Newton Centre next Monday evening. This Society is composed of employees of the Newton Street Railroad Company. A concert will be given from 8 to 9, dancing following until 3 o'clock. Music the McIntyre orchestra.

If young Spendthrift would settle down he might soon be able to settle up.

A Boston Bank Account

There are many conveniences in having a Boston bank account.

There is also the advantage of being personally known to a strong metropolitan Bank.

You can easily open an account with us by mail. Send your check or money order, payable to this company, and we will send you a check book, and each month a statement of your account. Interest allowed on deposits.

Request by postal card will bring further information. Or, if you are in town, call in and talk with us.

City Trust Company
50 STATE STREET, BOSTON, MASS.

NEWTON TRUST COMPANY TO IMPROVE ITS QUARTERS

The first of a series of important changes and improvements in the quarters of the Newton Trust Company, is now under way. In the construction of a large concrete storage vault in the basement. In its handling of safe deposit boxes and storage the Company has been handicapped for lack of room, and plans, just approved by the directors contemplate a thorough remodeling of the basement and first floor of the building. The safe deposit department will be removed to the basement, and will be handsomely fitted with tiled walls and adequate conveniences for the examination of private papers. A new safe-deposit vault is also to be built in the basement which will add to the safety and convenience of those who rent safes from the Trust Company. Ample storage will also be provided and a hydraulic lift from the side walk on the Centre street side will facilitate the handling of trunks and boxes. Concrete construction is considered the most practical for safe deposit vaults at the present day, as modern safe breakers are furnished with apparatus which creates a temperature of 6000 degrees against which the best of steel is worthless. A concrete vault is impregnable to ordinary and even extraordinary means of breaking and entering, and when reinforced with steel rails or rods, is considered absolutely burglar proof. Simpson Bros. Corporation are doing the present work—a sufficient guarantee that it will be of the best. Both vaults are to be electrically protected by the modern system of the Bankers' Electric Protection Company, which is the best procurable.

The removal of the safe deposit vaults from the first floor will allow much needed room for the constantly increasing business of the Company. The present directors' room will be divided in half one portion being used as a private office by the treasurer while the other enlarged and separated from the public office by a low railing, will be used by the other officers of the Company. Three cages will be provided for the tellers, and the present front moved back and straightened. The customers' room will be larger and fitted with the best of furniture and every possible convenience provided for the transaction of business.

The changes outlined will probably take several months for consummation.

ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Newton Upper Falls Improvement Society was held in Wade hall, Monday evening. After the reading of records for the past year and hearing the reports of the officers, Mr. John A. Gould, chairman of the playground committee, submitted his report. He said in part that Dudley's field, on Chestnut street, could be purchased for $4,500, and after considering the project for the past 8 years, it was time to act. Alderman White also spoke in favor and the project was passed by a unanimous vote.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Thomas J. Sullivan; vice-president, John A. Gould; secretary and treasurer, Herbert E. Child; finance committee, Wilbur Hallday, J. W. C. Esterbrook, J. K. Hemphill, J. A. Cahill; public works committee, Alderman T. W. White, George Flood, Walter S. Fisher, H. E. Child, R. L. Lord. The president in a few well chosen remarks next introduced the speaker of the evening, City Forester C. I. Bucknam, who spoke on the moth pest.

Mr. Bucknam said that while he was there to talk on the moth question, he was glad he came early to hear the question of the playground debated. On the moth question the city was in a serious condition, but the winter work was near completion.

They started out in the fall with 100 men for what he considered a 4 months' work, but owing to the number of egg clusters and numerous places they were allowed to collect during the past 2 years it would take 100 men 6 months to cover the city. In the city of Somerville in 1901, 1902, 1903 it cost $24,000, but by consistent working the cost was only $5,000 in 1908. In this city for the following summer there were 11 crews with state inspectors and he guaranteed there would be no trees stripped this summer and another winter would see them all under control. The elm tree beetle, which ruined so much hawthorn with our majestic shade trees last fall were also being looked after, and after hatching, when the trouble begins, the leaves would be well sprayed and a spraying machine would be stationed in this village for that purpose, also a number of parasites were being let loose around consisting of beetles and wasps, one beetle alone consuming from 28 to 32 caterpillars a day, the United States Government allowing the city $25,000 to help the work along. He said that Upper Falls was in a fairly good condition, there being only one or two bad spots. After a rising vote of thanks to the speaker, the meeting was adjourned to April 22d.

NEWTON CLUB.

Governor and Mrs. Draper, Lieut. Governor Frothingham and State treasurer and Mrs. Chapin will be guests at a dinner to be held at the Newton Club, Wednesday, April 14th. There will be a reception at 7 o'clock and dinner will be served at 7:30.

REAL ESTATE.

The office of A. H. Walth reports that papers have been passed on sale of the 7-room house of H. W. Otis, 40 Capitol street, Watertown, to Mrs. E. L. Walth, who buys for investment, also that Mr. Mathew Sheridan has purchased the house, 123 Park street, owned by U. C. Crosby of New York City. Mr. Sheridan will start removing the building about April 15th.

A BOSTON BANK ACCOUNT

The American Trust Company accepts deposits by mail, thereby enabling persons residing outside of the city to have a bank account in Boston without being required to visit the bank in person. It is the aim of the management to render the highest degree of personal service, prompt attention being given to the requirements of out-of-town patrons.

Please write for our booklet which contains full information concerning our facilities.

American Trust Company

53 State Street, Boston, Mass.

Capital $1,000,000 Surplus (Earned) $1,800,000

OFFICERS

R. G. FESSENDEN, President
J. C. HOWE, Vice President
J. J. OLDFIELD, Treasurer
C. H. BOWEN, Secretary
G. W. AURYANSEN, Asst. Sec.
A. D. AURYANSEN, Asst. Sec.

McKENNEY & WATERBURY COMPANY.
Designers, Manufacturers and Jobbers of
ELECTRIC GAS AND OIL FIXTURES
"We Light the World"
181 Franklin St., Boston, Mass.

LADIES

Wishing a Desirable and Stylish Hat

—BUY AT—

GRACE'S New Millinery Store
156 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass.

FARRINGTON
FLOOR FINISH

Does your hard-wood floor look as if good times would come again no more?

When you wear through the surface coating you are wearing away the wood itself and it will never be right again until you lay a new floor.

HURRY and put on a coat of

Farrington Floor Finish

It will dry in one hour—to walk on, and ANYONE can apply it.

Odorless—Never Slippery—Will not Crack or Scratch White—Not Turned White by Water—Just the Right Gloss—Needs no Rubbing—Durably Elastic

Longest Wear, Least Labor and Greatest Economy Guaranteed. "Moneyback Basis"

Full directions for using and valuable suggestions on the proper care of floors, on every can.

Order of your own dealer or delivered free through us on receipt of price, $2.50 per gallon. Booklet sent on request.

For sale in Boston and vicinity by

J. B. Hunter & Company, 60 Summer Street
Chandler & Barber, 124 Summer Street
R. H. White Company, Washington Street
Jordan Marsh Company, Washington Street
Wm. A. Henry & Co., 7 Union Street
Wm. S. Mulligan, 669 Atlantic Avenue.
Eaton Sq. Hardware Co., 336 Bowdoin Street, Dorchester
The Hoyt Co., 347 & 443 Broadway, South Boston, 1246 Dorchester Avenue, Dorchester
C. M. Pray, 1839 Washington Street, Roxbury Egleston Sq. Hardware Co., 3105 Washington St., Roxbury
J. A. Higgins, Waltham

FARRINGTON COMPANY
MANUFACTURING CHEMISTS
15 STATE ST. BOSTON, MASS.

Safeguarding Your Estate

The Boston Safe Deposit & Trust Co. offers what no individual can, in directing Estates and Trust Funds.

SECURITY—It gives bonds, secured by the capital, surplus, undivided profits, and stockholders' liability—a guarantee of $4,500,000.

PERMANENCE—The individual trustee may be incapacitated. This company will always fulfill its duties; its charter is perpetual.

JUDGEMENT—The efficiency of this company depends on no one man. All of the executive board act together.

ACCESSIBILITY—The individual trustee may be ill or out of town. This company is accessible every business day.

COMPENSATION—The charges are no more than those customarily made by individuals, and are annually confirmed by the Probate Court.

A booklet elucidating this safeguarded trusteeship for your asking.

BOSTON SAFE DEPOSIT & TRUST CO.

87 MILK STREET, BOSTON

Goodyear Rubber House

24 School Street Boston
Tel. Main 840

BANKS

NEWTON SAVINGS BANK.

BANK BUILDING, NEWTON, MASS.
INCORPORATED 1831.

Business Hours, 9 to 3, Saturdays, 9 to 1
Total Assets last Quarter's Statement.
January 9th, 1909 $6,213,952.03

Quarter Days the TENTH of January, April, July and October. Dividends are payable not before January 17 and July 17.

TRUSTEES:

John Ward, Samuel M. Jackson, Francis Murdock, Charles T. Pulsifer, William C. Strong, Eugene Fanning, Franklin Bacon, Samuel Farquhar, Fred Simpson, Edmund T. Wiswall, Thomas W. Proctor, William F. Bacon, Bernard Kearley, Henry E. Bothfield and William F. Harbach.

BOARD OF INVESTMENT:

Charles T. Pulsifer, Francis Murdock, Samuel M. Jackson, William F. Harbach, Henry E. Bothfield.

The Board meets every Tuesday afternoon to consider applications for loans.

CHARLES T. PULSIFER, President.

ADOLPHUS J. BLANCHARD, Treasurer.

WALTHAM SAVINGS BANK

702 Main Street, Waltham

Assets March 20, 1909, $4,163,509.35

Deposits begin to draw interest from the first day of January, April, July and October; and deposits made on any of the three business days immediately following the first day of said months are treated, in computing dividends, as having been made on the first day and will share in the next following dividend if remaining on deposit on the dividend date.

Dividends are payable on the second Wednesday of April and October.

Board of Investment

Henry N. Fisher, Enos F. Luce, Nathan Warren, Charles O. Morrill, Nathan H. Armstrong.

The Board meets every Monday at 4.30 P. M. to consider applications for loans.

GEORGE R. BEAL, Treasurer

Waltham Forge Blacksmithing

All kinds of Steel and Iron Forging with Power Hammer

BUILDING IRON WORK

Lawn Mowers Sharpened

SHOP, GIFFORD AVE., HALLS CORNER, WALTHAM
Telephone 304-1

VARGAS COFFEE

In Sealed Cans Only

This Coffee is one of the choicest that the world produces. Try it once and you will know why people insist on having "Vargas Coffee" and no other. It is for sale by the

Manhattan Market, 346 Centre Street, Newton, Mass.

Telephone 106 2 Newton North

where may be found a full line of Groceries, Provisions and all kinds of Sea Food at popular prices.

OUR ICE CREAM

is made from Pure Cream, that is why we like to sell it.

Our Sherberts are Delicious

TORRE'S

Tel. 732-1 Newton North

ALL ORDERS CHEERFULLY DELIVERED. 338 CENTRE STREET, NEWTON

SOCIAL EDUCATION

BY NEWBOLD HAZARD

Author of the Human Limit

(Copyright 1909 by Edwin Chase Merrill)

(Continued from last week)

In order to get a clear idea of Harmony it is necessary to find a basis for comparison. On the positive side of the question we have already seen that there are three distinct lines of demarcation, viz: toleration good-fellowship and ill-will.

According to the Emersonian philosophy things go by twos; like day and night; summer and winter, past and future, in divisions of time; right and left, forward and backward, straight and curved, in terms of space—both being the arena of human evolution. The dual idea is further exemplified in man through the visible facts of his organism: two eyes for seeing, two ears for hearing, and two arms and legs to administer to his physical needs. The Froebel philosophy recognizes these truths, since they are indisputable, but it goes one step further and endeavors to find a third term, or middle ground, which answers all the demands of three-fold development in man, with a cosmic foundation for it in Nature's facts and forces.

We are able to discover twilight between day and night; we can find the mildness of spring between winter and summer, in the midst of which the farmer sows his seed, and the golden autumn between summer and winter with its fruition of harvest; we always have the present with us, which is the meeting point between the past and future; between the right and left we can go straight ahead; instead of going forward or backward we can turn about; we can proceed in a straight line, in a circular direction to the right, or in a circular direction to the left, and find a common meeting point. In the human organism modern physiology has located the eye of imagination in the middle of a man's head and the realm of thought between the faculties of hearing, seeing and speech, and when a man extends the right hand of good-fellowship to his neighbor, he has three arms working for him instead of two, and when he walks an extra block to do that neighbor a kindness which he forgets to charge up against him, his footsteps are lightened by an invisible, but potent force that is highly self-stimulating.

Regarding harmony in the light of the dual theory, the negative term is discord. We find discord in the cosmic world in volcanic eruptions; in the destruction of lightning's bolt; in the devastation of fire and flood. Human discord is seen in weakness, worry and despair; in egotism, self-righteousness and greed; in poverty, disease and crime. Victims of discord are burdened upon each other, and in the mad race for supremacy in the satisfying of dual desire, the weak are driven to the wall by fear, cowardice and selfishness; by dishonesty, cunning and slander; by suspicion, insanity and tragedy. To record the ever increasing results of discord, our newspapers have grown, in some instances, from a dozen sheets to mammoth publications that one issue would fill a good-sized book. Discord is distortion, exaggeration and sensationalism; it is the food of passion, lust and deception; it is the devil that breeds upon the human imagination until all the horrors of possible evil are in the narrow of our bones and makes us start at every shadow, not excluding our own.

Notwithstanding all this, superstition is dying—probably from being overgrown.

Here and there are instances of moral courage that fears not; that faces all the opposition of custom, the ridicule of evil insinuations and the egotism of narrow beliefs. He who dares to cast the stone of prejudice from the meal-sack of fossilism, because he believes upon broader lines than his ancestors, is working towards a higher state than self-aggrandizement. He is delving for those who follow as well as for those abreast, and for their self-mastery, as well as for his own.

If the extremes of discord lead to the sacrifice of human life, and the extremes of harmony demand the sacrifice of self, then our three-fold philosophy teaches us to look for safety in a middle point of view. Even discord can be utilized by common sense.

If by Social Education we can reach the paths of peace, the earth's bounteousness through honest toil, and the pleasures of being useful to our neighbors and friends in the moral affairs of life, then let us examine the social conditions as they exist today, and meet their inconsistencies, squarely; and if we are not appalled to the point of flinching at what we uncover, it may be possible to suggest an antidote for the poisonous germs of envy, jealousy and hate, of pain, sorrow and remorse. (To be continued)

R. G. KNOWLES LECTURES

In closing his series of appearances at Tremont Temple on Friday evening and Saturday afternoon of next week, Mr. R. G. Knowles is to tell of his rambles among the fisher folk of France and Flanders, the topic originally announced for this week. Mr. Knowles has fully justified his claim to being "a humorous traveler" in these appearances as his talk adds a cheer to his descriptions of foreign travel which is a constant source of pleasure to all who hear him. He has shown himself an adept in the art of the photographer and exhibited some of the best motion pictures ever shown.

CARD.

To the kind friends and neighbors who have helped us in our time of trouble by word and deed we desire to express our appreciation and thanks.

Mrs. Joshua A. Harding.

Miss Marcia M. Smith.

Y. M. C. A.

The annual Easter Sale of Fancy and Useful Articles, cake and candy, will be held at Mrs. L. E. Moore's, 199 Church street, on Thursday afternoon, April 15, from 2.30 to 5.30.

MUSICAL CONGRESS

What is believed to be the greatest musical congress ever attempted in the vicinity of Boston is at present under preparation by a vast chorus of more than 400 mixed voices, which on the night of Patriots' Day, April 19, in Mechanics' building, Huntington avenue, Boston, will render a more than two hours' program that is bound to attract considerable attention from all parts of Greater Boston. The event is being arranged by the Young Men's Catholic Association of that city and is to be conducted in aid of Boston College, the proceeds to be turned over to Rev. Fr. Thomas J. Gasson, S. J., the president.

Those interested in education in the greater city and the Catholic clergy and laity of the archdiocese of Boston are familiar with the work that Fr. Gasson has undertaken, namely, the extension of the present college to become a university with a series of finely equipped buildings to be erected on the land in Newton, and already named and known as University Heights.

It is the hope of the president that the work on the first of the buildings will begin the coming summer and through the Young Men's Catholic Association a decided addition to the fund is looked for as an outcome of the musical congress now under way. It is believed that at least $10,000 will be raised from this source. Catholic people of the whole diocese have been invited to participate in this affair and to join with the organization in making it an eminent success.

For more than a quarter of a century the Young Men's Catholic Association has been closely identified with the interests of the college and the Jesuit fathers. One has been interested in the welfare of the other in all that time. The membership does not consist wholly of alumni of the college. On the contrary the members include hundreds of well known men of the city whose affiliation with the college interest has been derived from their knowledge of the effort of the faculties of the college year after year in furthering and advancing the interest of the association. It might, therefore be said that the attempt now under way is the payment of a debt of gratitude.

The event for Patriots' Day night in Mechanics' building has been planned with a view to interest one and all and every detail has been looked forward to for the convenience and accommodation of the thousands who will attend from outside the city or the immediate suburbs. The splendid musical program will be concluded by 10.30 o'clock, thus allowing every opportunity for out of town patrons to catch their trains for home. The program, however, will continue through until 2 o'clock the next morning, for a brilliant dancing party will occur immediately after the musical congress.

So that an idea of the scope of the event for the early evening might be obtained by those interested Mr. Theron D. Perkins, who is the director of the vast chorus outlined a day or two ago the program and the features are almost beyond comprehension. The musical congress will be built upon an international peace congress idea, thus allowing of a plot to add interest. With the sounding of a dozen cannon, the reports to be attained by instrumental arrangement, the delegates to the international congress will be first seen and these will consist of the great chorus representing every nation.

A band of 75 pieces will furnish the accompaniment to the great chorus and then the extensive program of a peace conference, carried out in music will commence. Throughout the two hours and more there will be elaborate and extensive calisthenic and electrical features that will add an artistic element to the event which will be most pleasing as a scenic production.

Auburndale.

—Mr. and Mrs. John L. White of Auburndale avenue returned Monday from a trip to Florida.

—Mrs. Robblee is confined to the home of her daughter on Ash street the result of an accident.

—The vested choir of the Church of the Messiah will sing at the Newton hospital Sunday morning.

—Collections for Home Circle Rumage Sale Monday and Tuesday, April 12 and 13. Please be ready.

—Mrs. Henry H. Haskell of Hawthorne avenue has returned from a trip to Minneapolis, Minn.

—Mr. Frank Aucolin and family of Woodbine street have moved to their future home on Auburn street.

—Mrs. L. A. Pickard of Dorchester is moving here and will occupy the Newell house 30 Vista avenue.

—The Woodland Golf Club has been placed in section one for the coming competition for the state trophy.

—Mr. A. E. Phelps and family have moved into the suite in the Melrose formerly occupied by Mr. Proffitt.

—Mr. Guy M. Winslow, principal of Lasell seminary, has purchased the Pickard house on Woodland road.

—Mr. C. W. Hubbard and family of Bay State road, Boston, have moved to their summer home in Weston.

—Edward, the young son of Mr. Thomaas Hanney of Melrose street is recovering from an attack of pneumonia.

—Gladys, the young daughter of Mr. McDonald of Lexington street is seriously ill with pneumonia at her home.

—Mr. Herbert B. Goodrich, who is a member of the senior class at Amherst college is home for the Easter recess.

—Mrs. Joseph Cook of Woodland road has been elected one of the managers of the American Ramabul Association.

—A union Good Friday service will be held this evening in the Methodist church. The various pastors will participate in the program.

—The annual meeting of the Newton Boat Club will be held at the club house at Riverside, Monday, evening, April 12th at 8 o'clock.

—The many friends of Mr. George M. Flske of Wolcott street will be pleased to learn that he is improving in health and is able to be out.

—Miss Addie F. Orne has purchased the White house, 53 Maple street, for investment. Mr. and Mrs. Horace C. Dunham are the present occupants.

—Mrs. May Sleeper Ruggles of Hancock street assisted in the musical program at the Palm Sunday service held Sunday evening at Elliot church, Roxbury.

—Mr. A. Lincoln Flske of Boston has purchased the Brigham estate in Weston and will make extensive alterations and improvements to the property.

—Rev. Dr. Francis E. Clark of Central avenue has been elected a vice president of the organization formed in the interest of the coming missionary exposition.

DRY COLD STORAGE

—FOR—
Furs, Clothing and Rugs

Constant improvement of our facilities and increase of this branch of our business enables us to offer the

REDUCED RATE OF 3 PER CENT.

of the agreed valuation with reasonable minimum charges.

Our modern scientific methods of examining and cleaning furs by expert furriers before they are put in storage is worth alone the entire cost. REDUCED PRICES on all furs purchased or remodeled now, with STORAGE FREE.

FURS CALLED FOR AND DELIVERED

Telephone Oxford 1186

A. N. COOK & CO.

N. C. COOK, Proprietor

HATTERS AND FURRIERS

161 TREMONT STREET, BOSTON

—Mr. Charles H. Dow is moving here from Boston and will reside on Bourne street.

—Mr. R. L. Douglas was elected treasurer of the Laymen's Association of New England at its annual meeting held at the Methodist conference in Lowell last week.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Spaulding were among those assisting in the rendering of the Easter cantata "The Resurrection," at the Union church, Boston, last Sunday evening.

—Dr. Eugene U. Ufford conducted the meeting of the Friends' class at the Congregational church last Sunday and spoke on the general theme, "The Church's Primary Object."

—Mrs. Norton of Grove street will receive fruit, jellies or money for the flower mission which is conducted in Boston under the direction of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Messrs. Frederic C. Eaton and Sargent F. Eaton are back from Dartmouth college for the spring vacation. Mr. Clarence L. Tower has returned from Cornell and John R. Chandler from Yale.

—There was a good attendance at the Charles C. Burr school last Thursday evening when an entertainment was given by the pupils. Each grade gave an exercise, either a drill or calisthenic games.

—Mr. Walter N. Walling of Woodbine street, who has been recovering for a year and a half from a severe accident, resumed his work as an engineer on the Boston and Albany railroad last Saturday.

—Rev. C. E. Spaulding and family of Central street have returned from Lowell where Mr. Spaulding attended the Methodist conference. Rev. Mr. Spaulding will continue as pastor of the Methodist church the coming year.

—The new Xye park is to be beautified with some flowering shrubs, a Japanese maple and other plants and trees, these having been received from the department of agriculture at Washington by President George M. Flske of the Village Improvement Association.

—A union meeting of the Mothers' Association and the Gordon W. C. T. U. was held Wednesday afternoon at the Congregational church. The special guest was Miss Cora F. Stoddard, secretary of the Scientific Temperance Federation, who spoke on "The Child's Claim to Wellbeing."

—The exercises on consecration of the Church of the Messiah will take place Monday, April 19th at 10.30 in the church building, corner Auburn street and Commonwealth avenue. A luncheon will be served to the vestry and invited guests, following the service in the parish hall.

—At the Congregational church last Tuesday evening, under the auspices of the Review Club, Sonorita Hindobro of Chili gave a lecture on "South America." She described the country, its people, their manners and customs and the work they are doing along educational and religious lines.

Gold Spring Boat House

NEEDHAM STREET BRIDGE

Newton Upper Falls

Boats and Canoes for Sale and to Let. Storage by the month, season or year. 20 miles of river without a carry. Ice, Cream, Confectionery Tonics, Moxie, Tobacco and Cigars for sale. Gasoline and Valvoline for Motor Boats and Automobiles. Newton and Boston Street Railway to Oak Street. Tel. Newton South 21398.

JAMES B. LESTER, Proprietor

CITY OF NEWTON

At a meeting of the Board of Health held at City Hall on Monday, April 1, 1907, it was ORDERED, that no owner or manager of any tenement or lodging house shall permit more than one person for every 400 cubic feet of air space in any one sleeping room.

ALFRED M. RUSSELL, Clerk.

A true copy—attest.
ALFRED M. RUSSELL, Clerk.

Geo. W. Bush Co.

FUNERAL and FURNISHING

Undertakers

Coffins Caskets Robes

and every modern requisite for the proper performance of the business constantly on hand.

Elmwood Street, Newton

M. M. Motorcycle

Is the best built motorcycle ever built.

It is the only perfect motorcycle ever made. It has no vibration and is perfectly noiseless. Write or call for demonstration. You can always see a full line of new and second-hand motorcycles at

W. A. F. Estes Motorcycle Exchange

107 Alder St., Waltham, Mass.

Agent for M. M. Motorcycles.

DRAKE'S

TRADE MARK

PLAIN POUND CAKE

The absence of fruits and flavors enables one to judge the high quality and purity of the materials in this cake.

The exquisite flavor is there, because of fine goods, skillfully put together.

Sold by your Grocer in any quantity

Drake Bros. Co.

BOSTON

Coffee

FREE DELIVERY

Tea

Sign of Big Tea Kettle
Greatest Variety and Finest Stock of Teas and Coffees in the World
Retailed at Wholesale Prices

No State Packages. Your Order Filled with Fresh Roasted Coffee or New Crop Tea
ORIENTAL MALE BERRY JA VA
Best in the World

Oriental Tea Company
Importers and Retailers
ESTABLISHED IN 1868 AT
87 Court St., Scollay Sq., Boston
SEND FOR PRICE LIST

Telephone Automobile Supplies

James Cramp MACHINIST

LAWN MOWERS
and All Kinds of Tools Sharpened

GENERAL MACHINE WORK

Automobile and Bicycle Repairing

All Work Promptly Attended To
Bailey Place

NEWTONVILLE, MASS.
Rear Orr's Hardware Store

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC

Published every Friday at 10 Centre Place, - Newton, Mass.

Entered at the Post-office at Boston, Mass.,
as second-class matter.

$2.00 per Year. Single Copies, 5 cents.
By mail free of postage.

All money sent at sender's risk.

All checks, drafts, and money orders
should be made payable to

NEWTON GRAPHIC PUBLISHING CO.,

J. C. BRIMBLECOM, Treas.

TELEPHONE NO. 77.

The Graphic is printed and mailed
Friday afternoon and is for sale at all News-stands in the Newtons, and at the South Union Station, Boston.

All communications must be accompanied with the name of the writer, and unpublished communications cannot be returned by mail unless stamps are enclosed.

Notices of all social entertainments
to which admission is charged must be paid for at regular rates, 25 cents per line
in the reading matter, or $1.00 per inch in
the advertising columns.

UNDER THE GILDED DOME

The only matter to which legislators have given attention this week has been the election of a state treasurer. A strenuous campaign has been waged between Senator Stevens of Somerville and Editor Langtry of Springfield, and which up to midnight
Tuesday night had resulted in a practical tie, with some 25 or 30 Republicans unplaced. Something evidently happened at that time for at two o'clock, Wednesday morning, Mr.
Langtry withdrew and requested his friends to vote for Representative Kemp, whose name had frequently been mentioned during the campaign.
From a close friendship with Mr.
Langtry, I am aware that something extraordinary happened that night, for he is no quitter, and would have gone down with colors flying in a free and fair fight. Ugly rumors have been current about the corridors since the caucus which nominated Mr. Stevens by a large vote, as to the attitude of certain Republican members of the legislature. Under these circumstances I much regret that Representative Bishop who did not decide to support Mr. Stevens until late Tuesday afternoon, should have been selected to nominate the gentleman in the caucus. His action, however, was offset by the fact that Representative
Garcelon did the same honor for Mr.
Kemp, so that the city of Newton was not officially represented by the action of either.

The street sprinkling bill has been signed by the Governor and there is now full authority to lay dust in any manner that is deemed advisable and collect assessments for so doing.

The bill relating to assessments for destruction of moth nests on private property has opened up a unique situation. Following the exposure given the matter last week, it has been found that the present law authorizes an assessment for abating the nuisance caused by the moths—the method followed in Newton—and another section authorizes the assessment of betterments for the same work. The new bill repeals the betterment provision only, so that as far as we are concerned the matter is of no consequence. It is a fine illustration, however, of the looseness of ordinary legislation.

Representative Bishop heads a committee of conference with the Senate over a "fool" bill to prohibit certain kinds of advertising in newspapers unless labelled "advertisement." While the bill does not affect reputable newspapers, in my opinion, it closely touches the freedom of the press guaranteed by the constitution and I hope the deadlock will continue until the session closes.

The Legal Affairs committee has reported a sensible bill to allow the sale of ice cream, soda, candy and fruit on Sunday, under license from the city fathers. A joker has been found in the bill as reported, which will debar such sale by druggists holding sixth class liquor licenses. It will undoubtedly be amended in this particular and will legalize what is now the general custom all over the state.

An important bill has come in from the Committee on Taxation which changes the date for assessment from May 1st to April 1st. I assume this is intended to hit the summer residence tax dodgers, but it will also help to get out the rate a trifle earlier and will thereby bring in collections to the city treasury so much the sooner.

The Education Committee has voted to report favorably on the bill to incorporate the Massachusetts college, also an attempt will be made to postpone consideration until next year.
In view of the effort and money given this very worthy project by its supporters, it would seem too bad to de-

Easter Music

Fine programs in churches of Boston and vicinity.

Predecessors of Easter

A summary of curious and interesting legends. By JOHN RITCHIE, JR.

Education in Japan

A remarkable complete and highly organized system.
By ALBERT BUSHNELL
HART.

Notes and Queries
Writers and Books
Music and Drama
Churchman Afield

These are among the
special feature articles to be found in the Boston

Transcript

Saturday, April 10, 1909

1865 THE OLD FIRM 1909

George H. Gregg & Son
FUNERAL DIRECTORS

All the Newtons 296 Walnut St., Newtonville

lay the advantages to be offered 20,000 young persons to secure a higher education.

J. C. Brimblecom.

Women's Clubs.

Edited by Miss Grace M. Burt

In these days when spring housecleaning is engaging many minds, the clubs would do well to look about them and see if there is not some city house-cleaning that might well be done. Are there no vacant lots scattered with papers that could well be cleared up? Then, how about the billboards? Are they an ornament to the city or do they disfigure the buildings and street corners? These are matters that may well be looked into and some of the clubs are already beginning to consider them. Experts agree that the best, and perhaps the only way to make any headway in this matter is to arouse public sentiment. The poet has said, "A thing of beauty is a joy forever." Look at Nonantum square when taking a car for Boston some morning and consider if it sits in the heart a joy one would wish to have endure forever.

Mrs. F. D. Sampson, Miss Eunice
J. Simpson and Miss Kate W. Fox presided at the social held in the parlors of the New England Women's Club on April sixth. There were a number of tables at bridge and afternoon tea was served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Farrington and Mrs.
Perkins. The tea table looked bright and spring like with its yellow decorations, consisting of jonquils, yellow bonbons, toy Easter chickens, and crystallized grape fruit. This was the second in the series held in the club parlors and on Tuesday, April 13, Mrs.
Bradbury and Mrs. Mayberry of Waltham will entertain at 2 P. M. Guests invited by club members will be welcome.

At last Monday's meeting of the Waban Woman's Club, Mr. F. Schuyler Matthews gave a very enjoyable lecture on "Birds and their Songs." Colored plates, representing the various birds, and piano interpretations of their songs added much interest to the lecture. Mrs. Frank A. Arend was the hostess, entertaining the club in the Waban hall. On April 22d, Mr.
John Beach will give "A Stevenson Story and Song Recital." This is the club's annual Children's Day and will likewise be held in the hall.

The annual meeting of the Newton
Federation of Women's Clubs will be held at the Congregational church, Newtonville, on Tuesday, May 4th.
Further particulars will be given later.

The regular meeting of the Social Science Club will be omitted next Wednesday morning. Instead the club will have a luncheon at the Hunnewell Club on Thursday, April 15, at twelve o'clock.

The Monday Club of Newton Highlands observed "Children's Day" at the Hyde School hall on April 5th.
Rev. J. T. Stocking delighted the children with his stories. Piano selections were rendered by Miss Ruth Peckham, a club daughter, and refreshments were served. The club meets next week with Miss Warren of Winchester street.

The annual musical of the Newton-ville Woman's Guild was given on Tuesday afternoon, April 6, under the direction of the music committee, Mrs.
D. E. Baker, chairman. The program included three groups of songs by Miss Gertrude Bellows and music by the West Newton Chorus of which Miss Hewins is director. Mrs. Baker and Miss Gertrude Belcher acted as accompanists. The affair was much enjoyed by all who attended.

A meeting of the Perlan Club was held on Wednesday, April 7, with Mrs.
Charles R. Brown. The subject considered was "Aerial Navigation." Papers were read by Mrs. Rumery, Mrs.
Garrison, Mrs. Titus and Mrs. Fisher.
A poem was read by Mrs. Thompson.

The Social Science Club held its regular monthly business meeting on Wednesday morning. Routine business was transacted and the customary reports submitted. Mrs. F. H.
Tucker gave a tribute to Mrs. Stetson and her work for the club during the twenty or more years she was a member. Her love for the club, her loyalty to all its interests and her ready willingness to serve it in any way that she could were particularly emphasized. Several members added their personal word of love and appreciation. Mrs. W. D. Swan, chairman of the Social Service committee, reported that the stamp savings work is well established and going on satisfactorily; also that a tent has been purchased with money appropriated by the club and will soon be put up for the use of a tuberculosis patient.

Mrs. Hornbrooke spoke of the rejection by the Senate of a bill which would allow the employees of the Metropolitan water works to kill certain wild birds. Mrs. Sondericker gave an interesting report of legislative affairs, both of measures now before the legislature and of matters disposed of by Congress at the close of the last session and of the present work of tariff revision.

The annual meeting of the Channing Alliance will be held in the church parlors on Tuesday, April 13, at 10.30. There will be the usual annual reports of officers and of chairmen of committees and the election of officers for next year. Luncheon will be served at one o'clock. After luncheon an attractive program has been arranged, including brief words from presidents of neighboring branches, from a director of the National Alliance and others.

Prof. Henry Lawrence Southwick, through his noble, realistic rendition of the great tragedy, "The Cardinal King," charmed, beyond measure, the members and guests of the West Newton Women's Educational Club at the regular meeting on March 29. Mrs.

Wallace A. Fitch opened a discussion on "The Lady of the Decoration" by a vivid yet brief outline of the plot;
Mrs. Walter A. Beedle touched delightfully upon leading incidents; Mrs.
George W. Roope in a keen analysis of the character of the "Lady" offered the opinion that through no effort of the imagination could the delightful womanly woman be suspected of a leaning toward suffrage; Mrs. Henry B. Fager in quick repartee replied most fittingly. To Mrs. William B.
Blakemore fell the task of the moralists; the lessons to be learned from the "Widow who could not be sorry,"
were many and fully appreciated.

The pink and green (club colors) social tea, in charge of Mrs. Wallace
I. Lamson, chairman, and her clever committee, was daintily original and produced for the club the compliment of a promise of permanent interior improvements from the arbiter of the destiny of Players' hall.

Mrs. Lamson and Mrs. Ernest D.
Parsons were the pourers.
The Newton Mothers' Club met with Mrs. Renfrew on Monday, April 5th.
The speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. Slocomb of Worcester, who spoke upon "The Story-Teller of Copenhagen," Hans Christian Anderson. The talk which was much enjoyed was followed by the usual social hour.

The annual meeting of the Newton
Centre Woman's Club was held on Thursday morning, April 8. The reports were of much interest and showed the club to be in a flourishing condition. The program for the year has been unusually fine. The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. Henry H.
Kendall; vice-presidents, Mrs. W. E.
Shedd, Mrs. Matt B. Jones; recording secretary, Mrs. Albert M. Fowle; corresponding secretary, Miss Elizabeth
T. Mills; treasurer, Mrs. Charles L.
Smith; auditor, Mrs. W. B. Neal.

The Newton Parliamentary Law and Debating Club held its last regular meeting on April 8. The following officers were elected for next year:
President, Mrs. W. H. Bliss; vice-presidents, Mrs. Alfred W. Fuller, Mrs. John Leavitt, Miss Eunice Simpson; secretary and treasurer, Mrs.
Wingate; auditor, Mrs. A. H. Clifford.
The club will have several social meetings before the close of the session.

EASTER MUSIC

Newton Centre M. E. Church

A. M.

Organ Prelude—Theme, "Unfold, ye everlasting portals".....Gounod Anthem—"Hallelujah! Christ is risen"
.....Spliney
Recitatives—"Who shall roll us away the stone," and "Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth," and Chorus—"He is risen." Oratorio of "Emmanuel"
.....Trowbridge

Solo—"Come, see the place where the Lord lay".....Parker
Miss Leonard
Carol—"The world itself keeps Easter Day".....Gerritt-Smith
With sermon by the new pastor,
Dr. Melden

Organ Postlude—Theme, "Worthy is the Lamb that was slain".....Handel Vested Choir of Men and Boys, J.
Elliot Trowbridge, Organist and Choir-Master. Soprano Soloist, Miss Eleanor
H. Leonard, Bible School Service at 4 P. M. Carols, etc., by School and Choir.

Immanuel Baptist Church

Morning, 10.30

Anthem, "Christ is Risen"
Edmund Turner

Contralto Solo.
Offertory, Soprano Solo, "Messiah Victorious".....Hammond Anthem, "Christ being raised from the dead".....James H. Rogers Evening, 7 O'clock

Cantata, Chorus Choir, assisted by Quartet.
"Resurrection".....C. F. Manney
Mrs. May Shepard Hayward, Soprano; Miss Edith Weyer, Contralto; Dr. L. H. Naylor, Tenor; Mr. F. W.
Chase, Bass; Mr. Albert B. Allison,
Organist and Director.

Church of the Messiah, Auburndale
10.30 A. M.

Processional Hymn 112, from Lyr-Davidica
Easter Canticle, "Christ our Passover"

Te Deum Laudamus in F
E. H. Titcomb
Jubilate Deo in F.....E. H. Titcomb
Introit.....W. C. MacFarlane
Kyrie Eleison (from Mass in C)
Schubert

Glória Tibi.....Plain Song
Hymn 121, The strife is o'er Palestrina

Offertory Anthem.....Vincent
Sanctus.....Plain Song
Communion Hymn 225.....Hodges
Glória in Excelsis.....Plain Song
Recessional Hymn 110.....Sullivan

4 P. M.

Hymn 121.....Palestrina
Violin and Organ.
Carol, Bright Easter Skies!
Apostles' Creed.
Collects.

Carol, Christ is risen!
Lesson.
Carol, Christ the Lord is risen today.
Baptism.
Violin and Organ.
Hymn 112.
Offertory.
Benediction.
Distribution of Plants.

7.30 P. M.

Processional Hymn 113.....Sullivan
Glória.....Plain Song
Magnificat in F; Nunc Dimittis in F
E. H. Titcomb
Hymn 116.....Roper
Offertory Anthem.....W. C. MacFarlane
Recessional Hymn 121.....Palestrina
E. H. Titcomb, Organist and Choirmaster.

First Church, Newton Centre

Morning

Prelude—Air in G.....Bach
Violin and Organ
Easter Cantata—The Resurrection
Manney
Offertory—Ave Maria.....Handel
Postlude—Hallelujah.....Handel Violinist, Mrs. Allen Hubbard, assisting Quartet: Soprano, Miss Stedman; Alto, Madame Goole; Tenor, W.
Hills; Bass, Dr. Clark; Mr. Walter E.
Young, Choirmaster and Director.

Unitarian Church, Newton Centre

Morning

Et Resurrexit.....Mozart
Andante.....Moffett
Alleluia.....Humphries
Awake Triumphant Morn.....Schnecker
Melody.....Massenet
Come, Gentle Spring.....Haydn
Our Lord is risen.....A. S. Loud
Postlude.....Mendelssohn

Second Church, West Newton

A. M.

Te Deum in B, flat minor, Arthur Foote
As Christ was raised
Herbert W. Wareing
As it began to dawn, Myles B. Foster
I know that my Redeemer liveth
From "The Messiah"
Nathaniel H. Pride, Organist and Director; Mrs. Alice Stevens, Soprano;
Mrs. Bertha Putney-Dudley, Contralto;
Howard W. Lyman, Tenor; Edwin P.
Leonard, Bass.

Unitarian Church

1. Introduction—From the Redemption.....Gounod
2. Doxology.
3. Invocation.
4. Chorus—"The Earth is my possession." Sopranos, "O Lord, wilt thou remember me." Baritone Solo, "In very truth." Choir,
"Lord Jesus, thou to all bringest light".....Gounod
5. Prayer.
6. Chant—Lord's Prayer.
7. Solo.....Mr. Schalk
8. Scripture.
9. Chorus—"Beside the Cross".....Gounod
10. Sermon.
11. Trio—Choir and Mr. Schalk, "Into the ocean of thy peace"
H. G. Tucker
12. Postlude—Unfold, ye portals,
From the Redemption.....Gounod

Central Church, Newtonville

Morning

Prelude—Spring Song.....Hollins
Anthem—"As it began to dawn"
Vincent
Anthem—"I am He that liveth." King Trio—"Let chimes of Easter be gladly rung".....Abt
Postlude—Toccata.....d'Evry
There will be a Vesper Service at 4.30 P. M., when the cantata, "The Resurrection," by Charles Fonteyn Marney, will be given.

A man said the other day that he should like to reparer his living room, but he couldn't get a good pattern for the money he wanted to pay.

A good many have that idea, and it is totally wrong. We have patterns IN STOCK and others in samples that are attractive and inexpensive. Many of them are new.

Come in and look, or let us call. Ring Newton South 20 or Needham 28-1.

BEMIS & JEWETT
WALL PAPERS—ALL KINDS
NEWTON CENTRE
NEEDHAM

BOSTON, MASS.

95 to 105 WASHINGTON ST.

The new management of this store confidently stakes

a seventy-five-year reputation for reliability, and for
keeping up to the fashion,
on its present output, the
most interesting SPRING
CLOTHES that have appeared for years; with long lappels, close-set buttons, cuff
sleeves, etc., of attractive pattern and design.

SUITS FROM
$12.50 TO $30.00
OVERCOATS FROM
$15.00 TO $30.00

James O. O'Brien
Signature

DR. N. LOUISE RAND

OSTEOPATH
60 CHESTNUT ST., WEST NEWTON
Office Hours

Monday, Wednesday and Friday, 2-5 P. M.
Telephone 204-5 Newton West

A. H. WAITT

390 Centre Street
Phone 982-2 Newton North

FOR RENT

Lower apt. in new house, will be ready MAY 1st. 7 rms. and bath, set
tubs, gas, gas range, hot-water heat,
lease at 39 per month, including water.
Nice 10-room house in good neighborhood, convenient, for lease at $30
mo.

BRIGHTON

A new 2-family house, ready April
15th. Upper, 7 rooms and bath, $28.
Lower, 6 rooms and bath, $25.

Now is the time to list your houses
with me for results.

REAL ESTATE
AUTO
FIRE INSURANCE

FOR SALE

WEST NEWTON
Modern 7-room house and stable,
6,250 feet land, $3,250.

BRIGHTON

NEW 2-family house, $6,200.

WEST NEWTON

Newly refinished house, 9,420 feet
land, $8,000, easy terms. INVESTI-GATE.

A house of 11 rooms, bath, etc.,
7,500 feet land, $6,500.

AUBURNDALE

A nice house, 8 rooms and bath,
5,900 feet land, $2,750, $300 or $400
down, bal. mfg.

Consult my new up-to-date list of SPRING BARGAINS if you contemplate buying.

Something New in
Cold Storage of Furs

Our new (permanently installed) VACUUM PROCESS for the cleaning of FURS and RUGS is just completed. By this new method surprising results are obtained without the least
injury to the furs.

Absolute cleanliness is insured without injury to the pelts,
which was unavoidable under the old method of whipping now commonly in use. This new cleaner is used on all furs and rugs without further charge than regular storage rates.

FURS CALLED FOR AND DELIVERED

Telephone Oxford 620-821

LAMSON & HUBBARD
FURRIERS

92 Bedford St., Boston, Mass.

NO DOUBT

You are going to paper one or more rooms this Spring. Let us
Show You Our Line of Wall Papers

WE ALSO TINT CEILINGS

HOUGH & JONES CO.

Tel. 732-2 North

244 Washington Street - - - Newton

NEWTON CO-OPERATIVE BANK

SHARES SOLD MARCH AND SEPTEMBER

Money Available at all times on Newton Mortgages

Bank Meetings Monthly, 1st Tuesday, 8 P. M.

JAMES W. FRENCH, Pres. J. CHEEVER FULLER, Secy. and Treas.

Tremont Bldg., Boston 297 Walnut St., Newtonville

P. SIMONS

The Old Reliable Ladies' Tailor

Suits and Outside Garments Made in the Latest Styles.

PERFECT FIT GUARANTEED

3 MOODY ST., WALTHAM.

Telephone 185-3 Waltham.

Telephone 306-2 Brighton

MATTRESSES
MADE OVER

WILLIAM P. MULCAHY

UPHOLSTERING
CARPET WORK

372 Washington St., BRIGHTON, MASS.

W. A. FAYEN

Practical Harness Maker

Full Equipment of Stable Furnishings

Trunks and Bags Repaired

529 Waltham St., West Newton

Tel. 492-1 Newton West

Frederic Hinchley Edward F. Woods

HINCKLEY & WOODS

INSURANCE
32 KILBY ST.
BOSTON

DESCRIPTION OF INSUR-ANCE AT LOWEST RATES.
Telephone 1485, 1486, 1487 & 4086 Mals.

THE Woman's Journal

A SUFFRAGE PAPER

Published Weekly

EDITED BY

Alice Stone Blackwell

EASTER PLANTSLILIES, CARNATIONS
AZALEAS, HYDRANGERS

SPIRAEAS, GERANIUMS, ROSES, CARNATIONS AND VIOLETS

TEL. NEW. NORTH 733-4

NEWTON ROSE CONSERVATORIES.

Orders delivered to all parts of Newton.

H. S. COURTNEY, Manager

COOK'S AVENUE HATWill outwear two of the ordinary kind and look better in the end$4.00Cold Storage of Furs
and Clothing
Articles called forA. N. Cook & Co
161 Tremont Street, BostonNewtonville.

—Mrs. E. A. Wilkie is reported quite ill at her home on Mill street.

—Gladys Kessler is ill with pneumonia at her home on Walnut place.

—Grace, the young daughter of Mr. Grafton Sanderson of Otis street is ill with pneumonia.

—Congratulations for Mr. and Mrs. William H. Osborne of Cabot street on the birth of a son.

—Dorothy, the young daughter of Mr. Thomas Bradshaw of Otis street is confined to her home by illness.

—On the Claffin field grounds today the Newton High School base ball team will play the Needham team.

—Mr. George Livermore gave a dinner to a number of his friends on Wednesday. Covers laid for eight.

—Mrs. William P. Upham of Highland avenue has returned from a visit to her daughter in Washington, D. C.

—Mrs. D. C. Heath of Highland avenue has returned from New York and is entertaining her daughter Mrs. Arnold Heath.

—Miss Ethel Gammons entertained the Young Woman's Club of St. John's church at her home on Parsons street last Saturday afternoon.

—The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church were the guests of the Robinson church society at Malden last Tuesday afternoon.

—Mr. and Mrs. Philip Walters Carter announce the engagement of their daughter Miss Dorothy Carter to Philip Walker Carter of West Newton.

—Mr. J. P. Richardson of Page road playing with J. C. Brimbleton of Newton won second prize in the New England whist championship for men's pairs just completed.

—The many friends of Edward C. Johnson of Mt. Vernon street will be pleased to learn that after a serious operation at the Newton hospital he is slowly recovering.

—The new vested choir began its work at the Methodist church on Sunday and promises to be an attractive addition to the service. Miss Williams is the soloist and Prof. George Pratt Maxim of Boston is the conductor as well as organist.

—A pleasant social gathering of the parish was held last Thursday evening in the Universalist church. Supper was served at 6.30 and later monologues were given by Miss Helen Clark and mandolin and guitar selections by Messrs. Campbell, Johnson and Seaverns.

—The monthly meeting of the Central Club will be held Thursday evening in the parlors of Central church. Supper will be served at 7 and at 8 o'clock Mr. Horace Fletcher will speak on "How to Live." Complimentary tickets for the lecture can be secured of Rev. Mr. Stocking or the officers of the club.

—Miss Harriet Morse gave a pretty dinner party last Friday. Among the guests were Mrs. Elsie Phelan Larsen, who played some of her compositions, Miss Margaret Barry, Miss Loomis, the Misses McDonald, Joe Chipman, Ralph Menard, who sang two of his latest songs, Mr. Loomis, Mr. Barry, Dr. Place, Dr. Hayward and others.

—The firemen had a hard fight to save several dwellings near Commonwealth avenue and Walnut street yesterday forenoon, when a brush fire gained such headway that it burned over a large portion of Grove hill before it was under control. A shower of sparks was blown onto the dwelling of Charles E. Adams, 27 Grove Hill avenue, and several times the piazza caught fire, but the firemen kept the house and others in the vicinity well wet down.

—Miss Marie Griffin, who is studying singing at the New England Conservatory of Music, Boston, was one of a number of the more proficient students who were selected as soloists for a recital given in Recital hall of the Conservatory building last Saturday afternoon. Miss Griffin sang two songs, Lefebvre's "Ici Bas" and Terhede's "L'extremite." Her work was in the clear Italian style which is emphasized at the oldest and largest of American music schools.

ORGAN RECITAL

The last of the series of formal organ recitals was given at Eliot church last evening by Prof. H. J. Krumpohl, the blind organist. His growing popularity drew a large number and his excellent work was appreciated by all. The program was an artistic one and among the selections were two of his own composition.

Remember Our
Toric Bifocals
areThe Best Combination of Far and Near Lenses that can be madePinkham & Smith CompanyTWO 288-290 Boylston Street Boston STORES 13 1/2 Bromfield Street Boston

ville.

Refreshment tables presided over by the President, Mrs. Alvin H. Clifford, vice presidents, Mrs. Thomas M. Elwell, Mrs. Robert Gorton and Mrs. Wesley J. Furbush.

Committee in Charge: Mrs. Henry A. Young, Mrs. Fred B. Young, Mrs. Arthur M. Moore and Mrs. F. C. Graves. Tickets may be obtained from the committee.

LIEDERHEIM SCHOOL OF VOCAL MUSIC

Is prepared to furnish especially trained voices for CHURCH CHOIRS, both for permanent positions and for SUBSTITUTE work on short notice. Also for Entertainments, one, or several voices. Can furnish entire programs. Fine talent. Popular prices. Many attractive combinations of talent; for example:

—ECHOES FROM THE BALKANS. An original and unique Entertainments of BULGARIAN and ORIENTAL, FOLK-SONGS and NATIONAL AIRS. Vocalist: Mrs. MAY SLEEPER RUGGLES, Boston and Auburndale. Narrator and Instrumentalist: Rev. WILLIAM WASHBURN SLEEPER, Wellesley, Mass.

—"Delightfully out of the ordinary. Bright as a May morning. Fascinating, exquisite." (Rev. Dr. Turk, Natick.)

—Another combination is "THE LAWSON SISTERS TRIO." Charming songs and charming singers. For particulars address Mrs. MAY SLEEPER RUGGLES, Principal, Auburndale, Mass. (Telephone connections.)

DIRTY WATER

Residents of Newton Highlands and portions of Newtonville had a disagreeable experience Wednesday morning with the city water. The water department is making its annual cleaning of the water mains and began about midnight Tuesday to clean the large main on the south side of the city. A new system was used and the work was not completed in time to allow the water to settle before the morning consumption began. Complaints were numerous on Wednesday but ceased yesterday.

"Built to protect the owner in the coldest weather and not in July" is the boast made by the makers of the "WINCHESTER" steam and hot water heater. It does its best work in zero weather.

Smith & Thayer Company, 236 Congress street, Boston, Mass.

ARE YOU ALIVE

to your own interests? If you are, you will try our laundry work one week and see how much better the cuffs attached to your negligee shirts are laundered. They do not crack or blister, and they are just stiff enough. The cuffs are curved, too, all ready to put the cuff links in.

No Rough Edges!

Waltham Laundry Company

Telephone, Newton West 348-4

G. A. FREEMAN, AGENT

2163 COMMONWEALTH AVE., AUBURNDALE

JOHN H. MANTER
Carpenter and Builder

ORDERS PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO

With Henry H. Hunt 17 Years

John H. Manter

128 Webster Street

Telephone 247-1 N. W. WEST NEWTON

Painting, Interior Decorating

AND PAPER HANGING

Now is the season to send in your orders.

G. W. TERRELL

988 Waterdown Street WEST NEWTON

Telephone 256-5 Newton West.

WANTED

Three hairs from your head. Falling hair is caused by pinched nerves; all hair is governed by nerves; send me 3 hairs wrapped in clean paper for chemical analysis. HYLON EFFORD, competent osteopath on hair, 194 Boylston Street, Boston.

MORTGAGESLOANS AT FAIR RATES ON NEWTON REAL ESTATEWEST NEWTON SAVINGS BANK

HOURS, 8.30 TO 12 AND 1 TO 3

SATURDAY, 8.30 TO 12

HALL & LYON CO.

OF NEW ENGLAND

The Rexall Store.

APOTHECARIES

HALLS CORNER, 117
Moody St., WALTHAM

WALTHAM'S MONEY SAVING DRUG STORE

Fine Assortment
EASTER POSTAL CARDS
1c eachEASTER SALE

Easter Gifts are popular, and the custom of making an Easter Gift is as much in line as at Christmas or on Birthdays. Make the heart of mother, sister or sweetheart glad by a box of Candy or bottle of Perfumery. Many suitable Easter Gifts can be selected from our Toilet, Stationery and Candy Departments at a nominal cost.

EASTER PERFUMES AND TOILETSAscension Violet Water, 25c, 50c, 75c
Ascension Violet Ext., 1/2 oz., 25c
Ascension Violet Ext., 1 oz., 50c
Ascension Violet Ext., 2 oz., $1.00
Hudnut's Violet Water, 75c, $1.40
Hudnut's Extracts, 50c, $1.00
R. & G. Violet Water, 75c, $1.40
Colgate's Toilet Water, 25c, 39c, 59c
Corylopsis Talc, 15c
Cuticura Soap, cake, 15c
Woodbury Soap, cake, 15c
Rexall Soap, cake, 10c
French Vio. Soap, cake, 10c
Santal Tooth Powder, 19c
Santal Tooth Paste, 19c
Calox Tooth Powder, 19c
Glass Ash Trays, 10c
Passepartout Frames, 5c
Passepartout Pictures, 10cEASTER CANDIESFenway Chocolates, 1 lb box...60c
Fenway Chocolates, 1/2 lb box...30c
Fenway Cocktails, 1/2 lb box...25c
Schrafft's Chocolates, 1 lb box...60c
Schrafft's Chocolates, 1/2 lb box...30c
Lowney's Chocolates, 1 lb box...60c
Lowney's Chocolates, 1/2 lb box...30c
West Point Choc'te Mix, lb...25c
Salted Peanuts, lb...20c
Saturday Candy (40c value)...29c
Molasses Kisses, lb...20c
Sonoma Figs, lb...20c
Roxmoor Chips, lb...25c
Maple Cream Walnuts, lb...25c
Vanilla Cream Walnuts...25c
Raspberry & Lemon Jellies, lb...25c
Fenway Milk Choc., 3-5c cakes, 10c
Hersey's Milk Choc. Kisses, 25c box
Fenway Choc. Maple Walnut...69c box 10cPATENT MEDICINES
CUT PRICES$1.00 Indian Sagwa85c
50c Indian Sagwa45c
$1.00 Peruna83c
$1.00 Swamp Root72c
$1.00 Hood's Sarsaparilla75c
$1.00 Ayer's Sarsaparilla85c
$1.00 Pinkham's Comp.71c
$1.00 Warner's Safe Cure79c
$1.00 Cooper's Discovery85c
25c Atwood Bitters17c
50c Milk Magnesia40c
50c Hoff's Malt Extract25c
25c St. Louis Malt Extract17c
$1.00 Russell's Emulsion79c
50c Sulpho Naphthol40c
25c Sulpho Naphthol20c
25c Sal Hepatica20c
50c Doan's Kidney Pills39c
$1.00 Rexall Sarsap'la Tonic69c $1.00 Rexall Mucu-Tone89cToilet SpecialOne face cloth free with a cake of Hall's Tar Soap, at - - - - - 15cEaster Candy SpecialChocolate, Marshmallow Jellies, 40c value
29c PoundART WASTE BASKETSMade of heavy pasteboard.
Floral decorated 10c eachThe Allen School

WEST NEWTON, MASS.

EVERETT STARR JONES, Head Master.

For Boys ranging in age from ten upwards Special attention given to individual requirements. Large and efficient corps of instructors First class equipment

Telephone N. West 361-1.

PARIS PATTERN SUPPLY CO.

Are fitting Ladies to Dresses Absolutely Perfect in Paper Patterns of Advanced Designs. Shirts, Jackets, Waists and Shirt Waists, Etc. From these fitted patterns a lady can make her dress without trying on.

169 Tremont Street, Near New Herald Bldg. Boston

HOUSE LOTS, NEWTONVILLE

FOR SALE—Desirable building lots in good locality, 5 to 10 minutes' walk from railroad station. Apply in person by mail or by letter to G. V. Auryanesh, 49 Judkins St., Newtonville.

LOST

LOST—In West Newton—A silver watch and initials and silver fob of Mexican coins. Finder will be suitably rewarded by returning to Mrs. C. A. Fitzgerald, 160 Chestnut street, West Newton.

LOST—At Newton Corner, Thursday, J. P. M.—A pocket-book containing a sum of money. Finder will be rewarded by returning same to M. M. this office.

LOST—A small milk box with four tails. Finder please leave at 1120 Walnut street, Newton Highlands and receive reward.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Louse hay for cows, fine condition. H. Swallow, Concord St., Newton Lower Falls.

FOR SALE—A bike-gear, rubber-tired, open wagon in good condition. Will be sold cheap if taken at once. Address Box 35 Newton.

To Let.

TO LET—Large furnished front room and alcove, suitable for one or two gentlemen, with heat, gas, bath and use of telephone. Convenient to everything. Apply after 6.30 P. M. at Suite 5, The Charlton, 239 Washington Street, Newton.

TO LET—Desirable large warm, sunny, pleasant single and connecting rooms, with or without board, 92 Washington park, Newtonville.

Iver Johnson
Racyle
Columbia

STANDARD MAKES OF BICYCLES IN STOCK

Hardware, Paint and Oils

KODAKS and SUPPLIES

W. E. Tomlinson EDDY BLOCK
WEST NEWTONEaster Offerings

Lamson Prints in Easter Covers 10c to 35c. Easter Cards, Booklets and Post Cards in great variety

Latest Colors and Styles in Neckwear and Gloves That May Interest You

MARY E. HOSMER

1405 Washington Street - - - West Newton

A. L. JORDAN

House Painter and Interior Decorator

Latest Designs in Wall Papers. (Refinishing Furniture a Specialty)

54 Chestnut Street (near depot) West Newton Telephone Connection

Ladies and Mens Fine Tailoring

Remodeling, Pressing, Cleaning and Dyeing, Alterations, Etc.

First Class Monthly Work at Reduced Prices. Satisfaction Guaranteed.

G. SHERMAN

52 Chestnut Street - - - West Newton

STABLE FOR RENT—Four stalls, two carriage houses, adjoining rear of Robinson Block, West Newton. E. D. Tarlton, Agent.

EGGS FOR HATCHING—Single comb White Leghorn, splendid stock, $1.50 per 15, $5.00 per 100. Barred Plymouth Rock, from Orino standard stock, $1.50 per 15, Nevada St. Poultry Yards, 123 Nevada St., Newtonville.

EGGS FOR INVALIDS—From grain fed hens; delicate flavor; each egg dated when packed; large and small size. Prices reasonable. Nevada St. Poultry Yards, 123 Nevada St., Newtonville.

WANTED—A second-hand canopy top beach wagon—cheap for spot cash, G. H. Graphic Office.

WANTED—A woman to serve as companion during the day. Telephone Newton North 767-1 or address N. Graphic Office.

1820 1908

Lewandos

AMERICA'S GREATEST

Cleanders Dyers Launderers

Cleanse or Dye and Refinish

Clothes Portieres Blankets Curtains Blankets Draperies Rugs Carpets Gloves Laces Ribbons

Outrich Feathers Cleaned Curled Dyed and Old Feathers made over into Tips and Plumes

Our teams running from Watertown Shop 1 Galen Street call for and deliver packages in all the Newtons

OUR LAUNDRY WORK IS THE BEST OBTAINABLE

Lewandos Lewandos Lewandos

Boston Shops 284 Boylston Street and 17 Temple Place

Newtonville.

—Small pig heads, 14c, Harcourt's.

—Collections for Home Circle Rummage Sale Monday and Tuesday, April 12 and 13. Please be ready.

—Mrs. Sophia Adams Clark on April 7th celebrated her ninetieth birthday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frederick B. Young on Central Avenue. Relatives and friends called during the day to pay loving tribute.

—Small pig hams, 14c—Harcourt's.

—Mr. and Mrs. William L. Wadleigh of Walker street are back from an extended trip to Havana and Mexico.

—Miss Edith Swift, who has been located at Charlestown, N. H., during the winter is now visiting her brother in Elizabeth, N. J. Miss Swift is improving in health and hopes to return to Rome, Italy, soon where she is manager of Crandon Hall, a school for girls.

Trees! Shrubs! Roses!

Buy Direct From Grower and Save Money

We are the largest growers of Fruit and Ornamental Trees, Shrubs, Roses, and Old Fashioned Flowers in New England. 300 Acres. No Agents.

Large Illustrated Catalogue FREE

THE NEW ENGLAND NURSERIES, Inc.,

Bedford, Mass.

Telephone Lexington 274-3

MAX KEEZER

HARVARD STUDENTS' CAST-OFF

CLOTHING FOR SALE

DRESS SUITS TO LET

3 Bow St., Cambridge Mass.

Take Harvard Square Car and get off at Quincy Hall

TELEPHONE 1751-1 CAMBRIDGE

FOR SALE AT A BARGAIN

One High Potted Antique Mahogany Bedstead (very desirable) original cost $300.

One Antique Mahogany Dresser with Mirror.

One Antique Mahogany Secretary.

One Antique Mahogany Bedstead.

One Antique Mahogany (16) Angle Top English Centre Table.

Every piece in perfect condition. Call and look them over.

W. H. TABOR

Upholsterer

567 Main Street, Waltham

Telephone 448-1

F. A. WALKER & CO.

Kitchen Furnishings

Standard of Quality the Best. Assortment Unequaled

Enamelled Ware, Tin Ware, Copper Ware, Aluminum Ware, Wooden Ware, Cutlery, Brushes, Crockery, Moulds, etc.

Also FIREPLACE FITTINGS ESPECIALLY LOW PRICES for SUMMER HOUSES

Eddy's Standard Refrigerators

FREE DELIVERY

83-85 Cornhill ESTABLISHED 1825 BOSTON TEL. MAY. 54

Monumental Work

IN GRANITE AND MARBLE

Lettering in Cemeteries satisfactorily done

Open Wednesday, Friday and Saturday Evenings

M. KEANE, Telephone 188-2 731 Main St., Waltham

H. B. ARNOLD & CO.

MANUFACTURERS OF

Canvas Boats and Canoes

Above canoe represents ARNOLD'S ORIGINAL BOW. We build the prettiest, safest and easiest paddling canoe on the river. If you are thinking of purchasing a canoe call on us and we will show you what we have in the canoe line.

Boats and Canoes To Let

299 Crescent Street, Waltham, Mass.

ELECTRIC CARS PASS THE DOOR.

—Mrs. William Price of Page road is in Montclair, N. J.

—Mrs. R. B. Carter of Walnut street has returned from a trip to California.

—Mrs. Herbert Cobb of Highland Avenue is spending the spring season in the south.

—Mr. and Mrs. S. Lee Crockett of Chesley Avenue are moving this week to their future home in Waltham.

—Mrs. L. B. Renfrew entertained the Newton Mothers' Club at her home on Clyde street last Monday.

—The Albemarle Golf Club has been placed in section one for the coming competition for the state golf trophy.

—Mills undertaking rooms, 817-819 Washington street, Newtonville, Tel. Newton N. 112-3.

—Mr. William Lodge is making improvements to his residence on Cabot street.

—Telephone J. W. Blakeney & Co. when you want your room painted and papered, 713-2 North.

—At the Methodist church next Sunday morning there will be a special Easter sermon with an appropriate musical program.

—The last of the social meetings for the parish of the New church will be held in the parish house next Friday evening. The entertainment will consist of charades.

—Daniels & Howlett Co., Morse Building, Newtonville, painting, decorating, hardwood finishing and wall papers.

—Mr. Charles Kelser has moved from the Claffin building to the Morse block, the change being necessary as his present shop is to be used for the local branch of the post office.

—Mr. and Mrs. Astley Atkins of Washington park will make their future home in the Leonard house on Lowell Avenue, formerly occupied by Mr. Bowen.

—Mr. Harold D. Billings of Walnut street won the championship in the boxing contest, which was a part of the M. I. T. Gymnastic tournament, held in the gymnasium of the school in Boston last Monday.

—Mr. Herbert L. Williams, who was called home by the death of his father will return Saturday to Leeds, North Dakota. His sister Miss Lillian E. Williams has resumed her studies at Mount Holyoke college.

—The annual Lenten service was held Wednesday evening at the Universalist church. There was a special musical program and the sermon was delivered by Rev. Harley Maxwell of Somerville.

—Mrs. Frances Huston, wife of Llewellyn Huston of Newtonville Avenue passed away Tuesday at the Woman's Charity Club hospital in Roxbury after several weeks' illness. She was 51 years of age. Her husband survives her. The funeral was held Friday morning and the burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery, West Roxbury.

—Mr. George F. Heywood of Omar terrace passed away Saturday after a long period of failing health. He was 58 years of age and was a painter by occupation. His mother and one sister survive him. Funeral services were held from the house Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. James W. Campbell, pastor of the Methodist church officiating, and the interment was in Newton cemetery.

—Bishop Hartzell assisted at the service at the Methodist church last Sunday morning and made an address at the session of the Sunday school. The school pledged the sum of $250 a year for five years for mission work in Africa and Mr. Loring Green will go to Africa for missionary service after a course of study at the Springfield Training School.

—The regular meeting of the Universalist Men's Club was held Monday evening in the parish house of the Universalist church. There was a good attendance and the members of the Central Club were the special guests. Hon. John N. Cole, ex speaker of the Massachusetts House of Representatives was the speaker and gave an interesting and instructive address on "Paternalism in Government."

—The funeral of Curtis Gould, the four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Gould, who disappeared December 28th, and whose body was found floating in the Neponset river last Friday, was held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family residence on Elliot street, Milton. The burial was in the Milton cemetery. The sympathy of many Newton friends go out to the parents and grand parents of the boy in their great bereavement.

—A marriage of interest to friends here was that of Dr. Austin Trafton Brant, son of Rev. Dr. John F. Brant of Mt. Vernon terrace and Miss Lillie Pettengill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pettengill which occurred Monday, March 29th, in Lansing, Michigan. At the close of a two weeks' wedding trip Dr. and Mrs. Brant will return and make their home at the corner of Beacon street and Massachusetts Avenue. Dr. Brant is a graduate of Boston University, class of 1904, of the Harvard Medical School and has certificate of service in the city and Massachusetts General Hospitals.

HARCOURT'S MARKET

841 Washington Street

Headquarters for the Famous

Hatchet Brand of Canned Goods

CHOICE MEATS

FRUITS and VEGETABLES

BUTTER and EGGS

Our Motto: The Best.

Telephone Newton North 131.

EASTER MUSIC

Universalist Church

Organ Prelude Claussmann

Anthem, "Christ The Lord Is Risen Today" Quartet

Solo, "Alleluia" Mrs. Louis S. Ross

With Violin Obligato, Miss May Casey

Easter Carol, "The Lilly of the Valley" Quartet

E. M. Anderson

Solo, "Hosanna" Mr. F. S. Fairchild

Anthem, "Rejoice, Rejoice On This Glad Day" Quartet

Wm. R. Spence

Organ Postlude Lachner

Miss Maud Emerson, Organist; Mrs. Louis S. Ross, Soprano; Miss Bessie H. Bates, Contralto; Mr. F. Lincoln Peirce, Tenor; Mr. F. S. Fairchild, Bass.

Highlands Congregational Church

10.30 A. M.

Prelude, Organ and Violin, "Adagio Religioso" Bohm

Anthem: "Te Deum In B flat" West

"Now Is Christ Risen" Nichol

"Come, Sing We Loud Hosannas" Spence

Offertory, Organ and Violin, "Andante" Bongartz

Postlude, "Alleluia" Dubois

Chorus choir assisted by Mrs. A. M. Tewksbury, Soprano; Violinist, Mrs. Jennie L. Parmelee; Organist and Director, Miss Mary F. Curtiss.

Ellet Church

Morning

Prelude for Violin, Cello and Organ, Finale from Suite, Op. 149

Easter Anthem, with Violin and Cello obligato "Awake thou that sleepest"

Quintet, with Violin and Cello obligato "Why seek ye the living among the dead?"

Meditation for Violin, Cello and Organ, Poeme Pastoral Boides

Easter Song for Soprano with Violin and Cello Obligato "Hosanna"

Organ Postlude, Grand Choeur in G Salome

Afternoon

Organ Prelude, Adagio (Fifth Sonata)

Anthem, "God hath appointed a day"

Quartet, "Christ is risen from the dead"

Choral hymns, Lord's Prayer and Vesper hymn.

Organ Postlude, Rondo Hollins

Choir:—Miss Josephine Knight, Soprano; Miss Adelaide Griggs, Contralto; Mr. J. Garfield Stone, Tenor; Mr. Leverett B. Merrill, Bass. Chorus of 45 Voices. Mr. Everett E. Truette, Organist and Choirmaster. Assisted at the morning service by Mr. Frederick W. Kraft, Violinist, and Arthur Hadley, Cellist.

The Lincoln Park Baptist Church

10.45 A. M.

Organ Prelude, Grand Chorus in E flat

Anthem, There is a green hill far away

Response, Hear our prayer, Hambleton

Soprano Solo Selected

Anthem, Alleluia! Christ is Risen

Organ Postlude, Hallelujah Chorus

Chorus of 20 Voices; Miss Olive Burdison, Soprano Soloist; Mr. W. G. Hambleton, Choirmaster; Francis C. Pitman, Organist.

Grace Church

10.30 A. M.

Prelude, Easter Day Hambleton

Processional 115 Martin

Christ our Passover Tours

Venite and Gloria Tonus Peregrinus

Te Deum Hambleton

Jubilate Hambleton

Introit 121 Victory

Kyrie and Gloria Tibi Hambleton

Hymn 112 Worgan

Anthem, Christ is risen Hambleton

Sanctus Hambleton

Angus Del Hambleton

Gloria in Excelsis Hambleton

None Dimittis Roman Chant

Recessional 116 Roper

Postlude, Allegro in E flat, Hambleton

4.00 P. M.

Processional 115 Martin

Gloria Tonus Peregrinus

Hymn 114 Hopkins

Magnificat Tonus Peregrinus

Carol, God hath sent His Angels. Anon

Carol, Christ is Risen F. M. W.

Anthem, Words of Hymn 111 Combs

Recessional 110 Sullivan

7.30 P. M.

Prelude, Reverie Helmand

Processional 122 Gauntlett

Hymn 336 Hastings

Hymn 123 Sullivan

Anthem, Christ is risen Hambleton

Recessional 121 Palestrina

Postlude, Offertory in A flat (by request) Read

Vested Choir of 36 men and boys; Chas. N. Sladen, Choirmaster; Wm. G. Hambleton, Organist.

Channing Church

10.30 A. M.

Prelude, Reverie, Opus 33, No. 3

Anthem, As it began to dawn Foster

Anthem, O light, that breaks from yonder tomb Dressler

Violin obligato

Easter Carol, Ring out glad bells of Easter-tide Bartlett

Anthem, Ye sons and daughters of the king Bartlett

Violin Solo, Romance, Opus 9

Postlude, Christus resurrexit

Ravanello

Miss Adalyn Riley, Soprano; Mrs. Florence Glover Wade, Contralto; Mr. E. P. Perry, Tenor; Mr. Ralph E.

The Children's Favorite

Photographer.

Webster, Waltham.

111 MOODY STREET

S. M. GILMAN, Ladies Hatter

Successor to M. M. Doyle

99 Moody Street, Waltham

OPENING

WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY and FRIDAY MARCH 24th, 25th and 26th, 1909

The Latest Imported and Domestic

Pattern Hats and Novelties

PRICES RIGHT TO SUIT THE TIMES

All are cordially invited

The Prestige of Our Splendid

"WHITE HOUSE" COFFEE

Will most certainly inspire perfect confidence in our equally superb White House TEAS which are put up in 4 1/2 lb. carefully sealed tins and warranted to give complete satisfaction

BOTH WHITE HOUSE COFFEE & WHITE HOUSE TEAS ARE THE PRODUCT OF THE MOST FAMOUS PLANTATIONS IN THE WORLD.

"WHITE HOUSE" TEAS ARE SOLD UNDER THESE DISTINCTIVE NAMES: "FORMOSA COOLONG", "INDIA & CEYLON", "ORANGE PEKOE", "ENGLISH BREAKFAST"

Brown, Bass, assisted by Miss Helen Fay Bascom, Violinist. Mr. Henry T. Wade, Organist and Director.

NEWTON METHODIST CHURCH

10.30 A. M.

Organ Prelude—Allegro, with Chorale

Easter Carols

a "Christ is Risen"

b "What is the Song this Easter Morn"

Offertory—Andante Gertrude Smith

Female Chorus—"Hark the Easter Bells are Ringing" Gaston Borch

Anthem—"Christ the Lord is Risen Again" Joseph L. Roelke

Postlude—Ritardito Horatio Parker

Quartet—Mrs. Mabel L. Barber, soprano; Mrs. H. Leonard, alto; Dr. A. H. McIntosh, tenor; Geo. W. Barber, bass, and director, assisted by chorus.

Mrs. Dorothy W. Sprague, organist; Miss Elsa M. Leonard, pianist.

DEATHS

HARRIGAN—In Newton Centre, April 1st, Dennis Harrigan, aged 69 yrs.

HARDING—In West Newton, April 2, Joshua Allen Harding, aged 66 yrs., 3 mos., 6 dys.

HARVEY—In Andoverdale, April 1st, George Daniel Harvey, aged 68 yrs., 3 mos., 11 dys.

HUSTON—In Boston, April 6th, Frances, wife of Llewellyn Huston, aged 31 yrs., 9 mos., 7 dys.

HEYWOOD—In Newton, April 4th, George F. Heywood, aged 58 yrs.

WHITMORE—April 3d, William D. Whitmore, Jr., of West Newton.

Is Your House Wired? WITH ELECTRICITY AT 12 CENTS

Every Householder Should Obtain Estimates

Wm. H. Colgan

ELECTRICAL CONTRACTOR

1238 Washington St., West Newton

Tel. N. West 310

Carriage and Automobile Painting

L. P. BONNIER, Shop 80 Arsenal Street, Watertown

(Formerly with the best Automobile Painter in N. Y. City.)

ALL WORK GUARANTEED. CALL AND GET OUR PRICES.

Back Bay Veterinary Hospital

332 NEWBURY ST., BOSTON

THE BEST ORDERED AND EQUIPPED HOSPITAL FOR ANIMALS IN BOSTON

Outside Calls Given Prompt Attention Day or Night

OPERATIONS A SPECIALTY

JAMES WILLIAM TOBIN, M. D. V.

Telephone, Hospital 2200 Back Bay. Residence Telephone, Brookline 1101-1

Easter Lillies

LANE'S, 285 Washington Street

OPPOSITE BANK

Newton.

—Comfortable Shoes and Men's furnishings at J. McCammon's. tf

—Miss Frances C. Peters of Wesley street is visiting relatives in Canada.

—Mr. and Mrs. William Kimball of Carleton street will make their future home in Belfast, Me.

—Mrs. William Macpherson of Washington street is spending a part of the month in Portland, Me.

—Mrs. C. S. Packard of Wesley street has returned from a short visit to relatives in Taunton.

—Miss Lynch of Eldredge street is home from St. Agnes School, Albany, New York, for a short vacation.

—Mrs. D. Fletcher Barber and daughters of Newtonville avenue are spending the week in New York.

—Miss Viara Cushman, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Fox of Church street, has returned to Springfield.

—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Curran of Pearl street are receiving the congratulations of their friends on the birth of a daughter.

—The regular meeting of the Young Woman's Mission Club was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Walter C. Wrye on Hunnewell terrace. Miss Emma G. Safford was the leader and the members considered the topic "Burma."

Newton

—Mrs. C. S. Emmons and Miss Dorothy Emmons of Bennington street are spending the week in Lexington.

—Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Holbrook of Waverley avenue are back from a several months' trip to California.

—Miss Pearl Whitcomb of Centre street has returned from Beverly Farms where she is a school teacher.

—Mr. Charles E. Libbey and family are moving here from Auburn, Me., and will make their home on Tremont street.

—Mr. Leonard M. Cotton and family of Church street moved Saturday to their new house on Waban avenue, Waban.

—Mr. F. A. Hubbard of Hollis street has been in Tampa, Florida, the past week where he was called by the death of his brother.

—Mr. Nathan Heard of Waverley avenue is back from a trip to New York. Mrs. Heard will remain in that city a few weeks longer.

—Messrs. Robert J. Holmes, Max L. Holmes, William I. Fearing, Leland Powers, Warren C. Agry, Gaston J. Sherer, H. B. Whitcomb and Henry R. Viets, Jr., are back from Dartmouth.

—Mr. Charles H. Brackett has returned from Williams, Robert Porter, George Lord and Nelson Gay from Phillips Academy at Andover.

Newton.

—A quick, clean, shave. Fell Bros., 289 Washington street.

—Mr. John McCammon of Gramere street is back from a pleasure trip to Bermuda.

—Mrs. Ralph W. Bartlett of Arlington street is able to be out after her recent illness.

—See the moderate price bathroom set in our window. Gallagher Bros., 413 Centre street.

—Mr. Frank H. Burt of Charlesbank road has been in New York on a business trip the past week.

—Mrs. H. R. Viets has returned from Concord and has opened her house on Hunnewell avenue.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Stanley of Centre street returned Sunday from a trip to Texas and other southern points.

—In the Elliot parlors Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock a cake and candy sale will be held under the auspices of the Elliot Aids.

—Mr. Joseph H. Wheelock of Washington street is returning from England, where he went to look after business interests.

—In the delivery room of the Newton Free Library the Library Art Club has a fine exhibition of some fifty photographs of Japan.

—The North Church Racquet Club will lay out two new tennis courts on the Frye estate at Nonantum to be used the coming season.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Boyd and the Misses Olive and Eleanor Boyd of Washington street were recent guests registered at the Hot Springs, Va.

—Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert R. Griffin and daughter Dorothy of Hunnewell avenue are spending Easter week with friends in New York City and Asbury Park, N. J.

—At the annual meeting of the Abbot Academy Club held at the Hotel Vendome, Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Frank W. Stearns of Park street was elected a vice president.

—Miss Dora Hadden entertained the Elliot Guild at her home on Tremont street last Tuesday afternoon. "Burma" was considered under the leadership of Mrs. Frank Hopewell.

—An all day meeting of the Woman's Association was held Tuesday in the parlors of Elliot church. Basket lunch was served at noon and a business meeting followed in the afternoon.

—Mr. J. H. Hustis, assistant general manager of the Boston and Albany railroad, is a member of the committee of representative men organized to make Boston the finest city in the world by 1915.

—Mrs. Mary C. Hemenway was the leader of the Woman's Missionary Society at the meeting held Wednesday afternoon in the parlors of the Immanuel Baptist church, and spoke on "The Land of the Pagoda."

—The clerks and carriers of the Newton post office have organized a baseball team and have issued a challenge to a similar team from West Newton for a game on Cabot park, Monday morning, April 19th.

—Mrs. Alexander M. Ferris, Mrs. Mabel L. Priest and Miss Clara Coburn were among the guests present at the informal reception of Daughters of the Revolution, held in the society rooms in Boston, last Friday.

—The annual meeting of the Channing branch of the Women's Alliance will be held next Tuesday morning at 10.15 in the parlors of Channing church. Reports will be read, officers elected and a luncheon will be served.

—At the meeting of Paul Revere Chapter, D. A. R., to celebrate the 15th anniversary of its formation, held at the Hotel Vendome last Thursday, Miss Jessie M. Fisher of Church street read a paper on "Home Life in the City."

—The Woman's Missionary Society, connected with the Methodist church will meet next Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Anna Eager on Oakleigh road. The home society will be in charge of the program and Mrs. D. E. Brown will speak on "Orientals and Mormons."

—The young people of Grace church will decorate the church Easter Eve. The music to be rendered by the choir Easter Sunday was composed especially for the occasion by Mr. William C. Hambleton, the organist, and is dedicated to Rev. Dr. Laurens MacLure, the rector of the church.

—The entertainment entitled "The District School at Blue Berry Corner" which was given at the North church Wednesday and Thursday evenings of last week, proved to be a social and financial success. The leading parts were taken by Rev. and Mrs. H. E. Oxnard, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Childs, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Leslie A. Burgess, William E. Lowry, Franklin P. Lowry, Mrs. Edwin Frye and Mrs. Albert Frye.

Newton.

—Telephone MacLean, 384-2 North, for all carpenter work.

—Mr. Frank Hopewell of Waverley avenue has returned from the Hot Springs.

—Arch Supports made to fit your arch. One dollar per pair. J. McCammon.

—Mrs. John W. Remmonds of Tremont street is improving from a quite severe illness.

—Miss Grace J. Edwards of Linder terrace, who is a teacher in the Underwood school, is spending the vacation at her home in West Hampton.

—The young son of Mr. William G. Soule of Farlow road is recovering from a severe surgical operation and has returned from the Newton hospital.

—Mr. Harry Mason of Falmouth has been in town this week and has been assisting in F. A. Hubbard's drug store during the absence of Mr. Hubbard.

—Mrs. C. B. Prescott of Centre street is back from an extended southern trip. Mr. Otis B. Prescott has returned from a several months' visit in Europe.

—Rev. Dr. C. H. Patton of Franklin street is one of the members of the executive committee organized in the interests of the coming missionary conference.

—Mr. Charles G. Newcomb, proprietor of Newcomb's Auto Express, has purchased a new automobile truck. This addition is made necessary by increasing business.

—Mrs. Albert K. Watts, who has been visiting relatives and friends in Boston and vicinity, was a passenger sailing on the Cunard ship "Ivernia," Tuesday for her home in England.

—The Good Friday service at Elliot church this evening will be largely of a musical character. The church choir will sing and the address will be by Rev. Dr. O. P. Gifford of Brookline.

—Hon. Alonzo R. Weed of Park street was elected secretary of the Preachers' Aid Society of the New England Methodist Conference at the recent annual meeting held in Boston.

—Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Brackett of Hunnewell hill, who have been visiting at Lakewood, N. J., with Mr. and Mrs. G. Fred Simpson, return tomorrow. Mr. and Mrs. Simpson expect to be away a few weeks longer.

—Mr. Paul N. Rice of Wesleyan University has returned for a visit to his father on Newtonville avenue. His sister Miss Rachel Rice returned with him, having spent a week at the home of her uncle in Middletown, Conn.

—Mr. H. Nelson Gay, who is honorary secretary of the American Relief Fund Committee in Rome, had an interesting article on "The Earthquake and After," a review of Italy's own relief measures, in last Saturday's edition of the Boston Transcript.

—Mrs. Andrew B. Cobb, Mrs. Ezra C. Fitch, Mrs. G. S. Harwood, Mrs. Charles A. Haskell, Mrs. Frank W. Stearns, Mrs. John Q. A. Whittemore and Mrs. Charles Whittemore are among the patronesses for the three muscades to be held at the Tullerles this month in aid of the surgical tuberculosis apartment of the New England Peabody Home for Crippled Children.

LLOYD'S EYEGLASSES & SPECTACLES

Everybody is very welcome to have his glasses "straightened" at any of our stores, at any time, without charge.

ANDREW J. LLOYD CO.
315 Washington St. Boston.
310 Boylston St.
75 Summer St.
and 1252 Massachusetts Ave Cambridge

LADIES' TAILOR AND DRESSMAKING SUITS, SKIRTS AND COATS to Order. Fancy Waists and Costumes for all occasions, style and fit guaranteed. Alterations, Cleaning and Pressing.

L. E. CARNALL
266 Moody St. WALTHAM, MASS

Middlesex Collection Agency
COLLECTIONS MADE ANYWHERE
No Collection, Established 1908. No Charge
General Office, Room 8, A. O. U. W. Building, Waltham

CITY OF NEWTON

At a meeting of the Board of Health held at City Hall on Monday, February 1, 1909, it was ORDERED, in accordance with the provisions of Section 2 of Chapter 503 of the Acts of 1907, the Board recommends the following as a spittoon for factories:—the spittoon to be of metal or hard glazed pottery, or of such material as may be satisfactory to the Board of Health, with sides not less than 3 1/4 inches high, and with an opening not less than 5 in. in diameter.

It is also ORDERED, that the number of spittoons required be determined for each factory individually.

ALFRED M. RUSSELL, Clerk.

A true copy—attest.
ALFRED M. RUSSELL, Clerk.

We Cure Sick Chimneys

If you have a chimney which does not draw well we will make it draw or will make no charge. Smoky fireplaces absolutely cured by the use of our ventilators. Write for particulars.

The Vacuum Ventilating Co.
6 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass.

1 Tel. May. 972

Brae-Burn Nursery

G. HOWARD FROST & CO., 193 FULLER STREET WEST NEWTON

Hairdressing and Manicure Shop

Boston's Most Unique and "Up-to-the-Minute"
Most improved and advanced methods used in Manicuring, Facial Treatment, Shampooing and Hair-Dressing

SHEPHERD AND FORD Telephone 1956-2 Oxford
175 TREMONT STREET, ROOM 46-47 (Fourth Floor) BOSTON, MASS.
(Near Tremont Theatre)

P. E. Waltner & Co.

Tailors

17 MILK STREET, BOSTON

P. E. WALTNER, Formerly Cutter for W. C. Brooks & Co.

MANUFACTURERS OF

Flags

Tents

Awnings

[And all kinds of Canvas Goods]

COTTON DUCK
From 1 to 12 Feet Wide

For Roofs, Wagons, Laundries, Boats; and various other purposes.
CANOPIES TO LET FOR WEDDINGS, RECEPTIONS, ETC.

C. H. BATCHELDER & CO.

Telephone, Richmond 1573 234-236-238-240 State Street, Boston

Spring Announcement

IN MY NEW PARLORS AT

7 Temple Place Room 63 Boston

I WILL HAVE ON EXHIBITION

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday

French Pattern Hats and Turbans which will be pleased to show to my patrons

Mme. Buettel Arnould

NOW 7 TEMPLE PLACE, ROOM 63, BOSTON

Take Elevator

Telephone Connection

Caroline MILLINERY
486 BOYLSTON ST., BOSTON
In Block of Brunswick Hotel
SPRING OPENING

ESTABLISHED 1859
J. S. Waterman & Sons
Incorporated
UNDERTAKERS
2326-2328 Washington Street, Boston
Adjoining Dudley St. Terminal Station
Personal attention given to all Funerals, Cremation and Cemetery arrangements.
The price of each casket is plainly marked.
Established prices for all work.
Advice and information given.
Complete equipment in every particular.
Chapel for funeral services without charge.
GEORGE H. WATERMAN, President
FRANK S. WATERMAN, Treasurer
Telephone Boxbury 72
Marconi Cable address, "Undertaker Boston."

The Latest Footwear Fashions from New York and Paris

are ready for you at our store, because we sell the famous Regal Shoes for Women. Each one of these Regal styles is an exact reproduction of an expensive custom model, and possesses the exclusive style of a made-to-order shoe.

REGAL SHOES

For Women

have long been famous for their high quality. Their price is the same all the year 'round. They not only afford you correct style, but also perfect fit and comfort—because they are made in quarter-sizes—just double the usual number of shoe-fittings.

$350 $400 and $500

WE ARE REGAL AGENTS

And Carry a Full Stock of Regals for Men and Women

P. P. ADAMS, Big Dry Goods Department Store

133-139 MOODY STREET, WALTHAM

Easter Millinery

ONE THOUSAND
DESIGNS
TO SELECT FROM

Bennett's
FINE MILLINERY

525 to 529 MASS. AVE., CAMBRIDGE

OPEN EVENINGS

Newton Centre.

—Mr. Thomas Armstrong of Maple park left this week for California.
—Mr. and Mrs. Michael Lyons of Center street are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter last Tuesday.

—Mills undertaking rooms, 817-819 Washington street, Newtonville, Tel. Newton N. 112-3.
—Next Sunday evening the Rev. Maurice A. Levy of the First Baptist church will preach in Tremont Temple.

—Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Cameron of Clinton place are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter last Tuesday.

—Miss Margaret Rand who has been confined to her home on Grafton street with a broken leg for the past few months is again able to be out.

—Miss Edith Clark has returned to her home on Willard street from the Newton hospital, where she was operated upon for appendicitis.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Woolway of Bowen street are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son last Friday night.

—At the annual business meeting of the Baptist Social Union, held in Ford hall, Boston, last Wednesday evening, Mr. William G. Burbeck of Grant avenue was elected treasurer.

—The annual meeting of the Men's Club of Trinity parish, taking the form of Ladies' Night, will be held next Monday evening at the home of Mr. Robert Casson on Gray Cliff road.

—Mr. Allston Burr of Chestnut Hill road gave an illustrated lecture on "Climbs in the Bernese Alps in 1908" before the Appalachian Mountain Club in Huntington hall, Boston, last Wednesday evening.

—The wedding of Mr. Chas. E. Frye of Wilton, N. H., and Miss Elizabeth P. Osborne, a former resident of this village, occurred last Wednesday evening in New Hampshire.

—The Travelers' At Home Club met last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Geo. L. West of Beacon street and Mrs. J. E. Holbrook gave a lecture on "India."

—The members of the Fortnightly Club held an interesting meeting last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. R. Kimball of Oxford road, when Mrs. R. R. Truitt of Cambridge gave a talk on "An Afternoon of Children's Songs."

—Last Sunday morning while Mr. Ralph Card was climbing one of his trees at his home on Mill street, he fell a distance of about twenty-five feet, landing on his shoulders and rendering him unconscious.

—Last Monday night box 75 was rung in about 8.15, but on the arrival of the apparatus no blaze was able to be located. It is thought that the alarm was pulled by some of the boys of this village.

—Next Sunday morning at the Baptist church, the Rev. Maurice A. Levy will preach, taking as his subject "The Great Migration." In the afternoon the regular Easter concert given by the scholars of the Sunday school will occur at four o'clock.

—At the dancing party given in the ball room of the Hotel Somerset, Boston, Saturday afternoon, the Newton matrons were Mesdames Harry J. Carlson, H. E. Clifford, William P. Cooke, A. Dudley Dowd, George H. Spalding and George S. Smith.

—Mr. Cyrus T. Schirmer of Commonwealth avenue, who is an officer in the evening party association of Tufts college, was a member of the committee of arrangements for the dance held in Goddard gymnasium last Friday evening.

—At a meeting held in Boston last week to form an organization for the coming missionary exposition, Rev. Dr. James L. Barton and President W. E. Huntington were elected vice-presidents and Rev. M. A. Levy a member of the executive committee.

—At the Unitarian church next Sunday there will be a union Easter service of the congregation and Sunday School. Rev. George S. Badger, in charge of the work of the American Unitarian Association in New York City, will conduct the services, and there will be a special musical program.

—Mr. Lewis R. Spear, the recently elected president of the American Automobile Association, was given a complimentary banquet by his friends, which included the directors of the Bay State Automobile Association. In the rooms of the association last Tuesday evening. Many representative men were present and among the speakers were President John H. MacAlman of the Boston Automobile Dealers' Association; ex-Congressman Samuel L. Powers; James C. White, Mayor Hibbard's private secretary; and Messrs. Coughlin of Worcester, Chase of Leominster, Haynes of Springfield, Helme of Lowell and Bliss of Malden.

HUNNEWELL CLUB

The bowling teams captained by Messrs Ryder, Learned and Paul are tied for first place in the club tournament.

Mrs. Secomb's team is first in the ladies' bowling tournament.

Mr. H. M. North has reached the finals in the cow boy pool games in class C and will play the winner of the Wilcox-Chapman match. In class A the finals will be played by H. L. Dexter and C. S. Spencer.

At what Saturday night, Marshall and Naylor won first place and Snyder and Loring second.

MORRIS LADIES' HATTER

121 Moody Street, Waltham

WILL SHOW

PATTERN HATS

during this week, also correct Millinery for Girls

THE NEWTON TAILORING CO.

Ladies' and Gent's Custom Tailors.

Suits Made to Order in the Latest Styles. Cleaning, Dyeing, Pressing and Repairing. Ladies' Garments Altered and Remodeled.

413 CENTRE STREET NEWTON, MASS.

Work called for and delivered. Special Arrangements for Monthly Pressing. Tel. 706-4. Open Evenings

REMOVAL ANNOUNCEMENT

The Two Brothers TAILORS

in consequence of expiration of lease have removed to

No. 653 Main St. Waltham

and are ready to show Spring Samples and take your Order for Spring Clothing

Newton Highlands

—Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Nellis have returned from Cuba.

—Mrs. A. L. Pratt is visiting in Washington, D. C.

—Hon. S. W. Jones has returned from Washington, D. C.

—Dr. and Mrs. S. L. Eaton of Lake avenue returned yesterday from a visit in New York.

—Mrs. W. E. B. Ryder of Lincoln street and Mrs. C. F. Johnson of Erie avenue are spending a week in Washington, D. C.

—The second grand social and dance to be given by the Walnut A. C. will take place at Lincoln hall on Friday evening, April 16th.

—The C. I. S. C. will meet with Mrs. Cobb, Boylston street on Monday at the usual time.

—Mrs. Frank R. Moore of Elliot will read a paper on her ancestor Gen. Stark, at the next meeting of the Lucy Jackson Chapter D. A. R.

—Mills undertaking rooms, 817-819 Washington street, Newtonville, Tel. 112-3. Leave calls with H. S. Hiltz, Elliot Station.

—The Newton Highlands Shakespeare Club will meet April 10, at the home of Mrs. F. C. Snow, 33 Harrison street. The work for the afternoon will be a review of King Henry V., conducted by Mrs. Edgar J. Smith.

—Losing control of a cart in which he was coasting down the steep hill on Columbus street late Friday afternoon, Gresham Hardy, son of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Hardy of Floral street collided with a tree and was seriously injured.

Upper Falls.

—Mr. and Mrs. William Shaker of Elliot street are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

—Monday evening the Young Ladies' Aid held their annual meeting at the home of Miss Isabelle Shaker. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. W. Halliday; vice-president, Miss Ida M. Pettet; secretary and treasurer, Miss Elsie Dyson; work committee, Mrs. W. Clancy; Mrs. Everett Gulliver, Miss Mary L. Wilde; flower committee, Mrs. Arthur Rumery.

—Thursday afternoon the Ladies' Aid held their annual meeting at the home of Mrs. Everett Gulliver of Rockland place. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Charles Mills; vice-president, Mrs. W. D. Churchill; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. W. Halliday; work committee, Mrs. Helen Randall, Mrs. Alex. Dresser, Mrs. W. Clancy; paragon committee, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. G. Dyson, Mrs. S. Shaker; supper committee, Mrs. H. Manning; social committee, Mrs. T. E. Lees.

Waban.

—Mr. Robert O. Brigham of Pine Ridge road arrived home from a month's stay in Bermuda on Saturday.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Conway of Windsor road returned on Wednesday from a fortnight's pleasure trip to the South.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Webster of Windsor road started Tuesday on a few days' trip to New York and Washington.

—Mrs. J. H. Breck of Beacon street and daughters Miss Margaret and Miss Agnes have returned from a fortnight's stay in Virginia.

—Mills undertaking rooms, 817-819 Washington street, Newtonville, Tel. 112-3. Leave calls at Rhodes' Drug store. Tel. Newton S. 237-3.

—Mr. Wm. P. Brown of Windsor road has joined the ranks of automobile owners, having recently purchased a car and erected an auto house.

—The weekly meeting of the Church of the Good Shepherd Guild was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. O. Stetson, Pine Ridge road.

—Mrs. Joseph Congdon's mother, Madame Cherrington, will have the next meeting of the Sewing Circle of the Union church at her home on Waban avenue.

—The many friends of Mrs. Francis Davis of West Newton, formerly Miss Esther Saville of Windsor road will be pleased to learn of the birth of a baby son last Monday.

—The Rev. Charles S. Brooks of Wellesley preached at last Sunday morning's service at the Union church in the absence of the regular pastor, the Rev. Mr. Seabury who will return this week.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Burnett of Waban avenue, Mr. G. M. Angier of Pine Ridge road and his brother, Mr. Edward Angier, sailed for England on Tuesday on the Ivernia and all will be gone several weeks.

—An informal and very enjoyable dance was held in Waban hall on Saturday evening, Miss Anna Webster and her brother Mr. Frederick Webster entertaining a number of their young friends in that manner.

—Miss Grace and Miss Marion Miller of Chestnut street were hostesses at a four table bridge party on Monday night, several of the guests being from out of town. Miss Sibyl Stone and Mr. Amasa C. Gould captured the artistic souvenirs.

—Mr. and Mrs. Winfred M. Thompson, who were married last Saturday, have taken possession of their new home on Avalon road. Mrs. Thompson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Mellen and Mr. Thompson is connected with the Boston Globe.

—Dr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Parker of Collins road gave a dance and German in Waban hall from 4 till 7 on Wednesday for their children Miss Chithro and Master Dean. The affair was thoroughly enjoyed by thirty odd of their young friends, and favors and decorations were charming.

—The Waban Tennis Courts have been put in order during the past week and by Saturday should be in excellent playing condition. Alterations and improvements are also being made in the grounds. Messrs. C. C. Blaney, W. M. Buffon and E. H. Robinson are in charge of the work.

THEATRES

Castle Square Theatre—The most famous of Mrs. Humphrey Ward's novels, "The Marriage of William Ashe" will form one of the most popular plays of the season at the Castle Square. It will be played only next week, and its English scenes and characters will be taken full advantage of in the way of the stage settings and clever acting. The plot discloses the romance of William Ashe, a rising young English politician, who later becomes prime minister of England, and Lady Kitty, whose capriciousness and frivolous spirit leads him a merry dance when he finally marries her. The play mingles clouds with sunshine, and there is much of exciting incident and emotion in its successive scenes, the action taking the leading characters to Italy for the last act. On Monday, April 12th, the musical comedy season at the Castle Square begins with a grand production of "A Runaway Girl." The cast will be made up of the entire John Craig Stock Company, including Mr. Craig, Mary Young and Louise Le Baron.

Hollis Street Theatre—Though the capacity of the Hollis Street Theatre has been nightly tested the past three weeks by the audiences attracted thither by Charles Frohman's notable presentation of the distinguished ten-playwright, William Gillette, in the remarkable modern drama, in four acts, entitled "Samson," it is due, I feel, that the attention of those of your readers who patronize only the important class of amusements, should be particularly called to the fact that but a few more evenings remain of Mr. Gillette's imperatively limited engagement at the Hollis. The Hollis now announces that the last matinee of Mr. Gillette in "Samson" will be given next Saturday afternoon, 17th instant, and the final performance is positively scheduled for the same evening. The story of "Samson" is one of such virility and enormous moral intent that only a cast of finished skill and power could ever succeed in interpreting its subtle and at times cyclical text. Mr. Gillette's role in "Samson" is totally unlike any other that he has undertaken in his career. His versatility, upon a pause of thought over the round of his successes both as author and actor, becomes simply astonishing. It is not to be wondered at that so extraordinary a man should magnetize even non-theatregoers and attract them, along with the general public, into the theatres that are fortunate to secure him for a visit, however brief.

Colonial Theatre—With an audience, to welcome them, that completely filled every available inch of sitting and standing-room in the beautiful Colonial Theatre, the reunited Cohan family returned to Boston last Monday night, and received an ovation that was a demonstration of their popularity. The last performance will be given on Saturday night, April 17, and for the benefit of suburban amusement seekers the management announce that the curtain will rise at 8.15 at night, and 2.15 at the Saturday matinee, and the final curtain will fall at 10.45 at night, and 4.45 at the Saturday matinee.

LADIES' NIGHT

On Wednesday evening, Lafayette, Waban and Home Lodges, I. O. O. F., held a ladies' night in Dennison hall, Newtonville. The entertainment was given by the Millie Beardsley Concert Co., and consisted of orchestral selections by Miss Grace English, violinist; Miss Grace Dean, cornetist; Miss Lillian White, drummer; Miss Grace Lentz, pianist; Scotch songs by Miss Chisholm; readings by Miss Freeman Keith; violin solos by Miss Grace English; duets by Miss Louise Chisholm and Mrs. Beardsley, and drum solos by Miss Lillian White. The program was rendered in a highly artistic manner and each number was generously applauded. Refreshments and dancing followed. The committee in charge were Messrs. Charles Fewkes, Arthur Rumery, G. W. Gleason, C. F. Dow, George Fewkes, Hiram Forbes, B. F. Newhall, E. C. Richardson and F. E. Peterson.

MONEY TO LOAN

on WATCHES, DIAMONDS, JEWELRY, etc. Highest Cash Prices paid for Old Gold and Silver

Fine Watch and Jewelry Repairing BRIGHTON LOAN OFFICE 780 Washington Street Cor. Chestnut Hill Avenue, Brighton

DR. E. HEATH CLARK

OSTEOPATH
Ripley Terrace, NEWTON CENTRE
Monday and Thursday, Hours 1 to 4
Evenings by Appointment

Boston Branch Office, 755 Boylston Street, Newton South 588-4 Back Bay 346

Newton Centre Houses

$4000 to $8000

HENRY H. READ

SOME EXTRA GOOD BARGAINS
Home Office 17 Paul St., Newton Centre

Golf Stockings

Hewins & Hollis

4 Hamilton Place, Boston

Steam, Hot Water Heating and Plumbing

Attachments applied to Hot Air Furnaces to heat one or more rooms by Hot Water
... GENERAL REPAIR WORK ...

WALTER B. WOLCOTT

85 Elmwood Street, - Newton
Telephone

CANOEES

We carry a large Stock constantly on hand of
MOTOR AND PADDLEING CANOES

made of the best Materials and in all Styles. Prices from $25.00 to $65.00. Painting, Varnishing and Repairing neatly and promptly done. Paddles, Back Boards, Canoe Stock and Fittings Sold at Wholesale and Retail. 200 Canoes to select from, long and short deck. Unfinished Canoes for sale with or without Canvas. Our business covers 23,580 feet of floor space. Mail orders receive careful attention.

Waltham Boat and Canoe Co.

H. P. BARTLETT, Prop. Woerd Avenue, Waltham, Mass.
Telephone 377-2 Waltham

YOUR NEW

EASTER HAT

Will be the correct style and also becoming to you if it comes from our millinery parlors

Miss J. A. Daniels

210 1-2 MOODY STREET, WALTHAM

OVER LINCOLN'S SHOE STORE

Cafe Bova

THE LEADING

Italian Restaurant

OF BOSTON

96 Arch Street, Boston

3 Doors from Summer Street

$1.00 Table D'Hot Dinner

INCLUDING WINE

(SATURDAY $1.25)

5 to 8.30 P. M.

Booths Reserved Until 8.30 P. M.

Music Until 11 O'clock

Leo E. Bova & Co., Proprietors

Tel. 1612 Fort Hill.

RUSSIAN IMPORTING CO.

429 Boylston Street, Boston

Different from everything else.

Every article in this shop bears the marks of oddity, quaintness and beauty, and is the product of Russian peasant handicraft.
Linen and Lace
Old Jewelry and Silver
Copper and Brass

Artistic Newton Cottages

Delightfully located on a charming knoll, near the high school, Newtonville. Thoroughly modern, shingle stain structures, 8 and 9 rooms hardwood floors, open fire places, etc. Well constructed, cellars of solid concrete, 10,000 foot lots with grandly landscaped walks. Low prices and reasonable terms to effect immediate sale.

ALVORD BROS., & CO.

AGENTS
Newton Centre 79 Milk Street, Boston Newtonville

Wear the

Lamson & Hubbard Hat

None Better Made

$300 $400
$500

Lamson & Hubbard

92 Bedford St. and 173 Washington St.

BOSTON

WHEN IN NEED OF

Insurance

CONSULT

Rowe & Porter

15 Central Street, Boston
Tel. Main 664

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

PROBATE COURT.

Middlesex, ss.
To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of George D. Harvey late of Newton in said County, deceased.

WHEREAS, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Charles Balch Harvey, William D. Harvey and Fred P. Harvey who pray that letters testamentary may be issued to them, the executors therein named, without giving a surety on their official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge in said County of Middlesex, on the twenty-sixth day of April A. D. 1909, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioners are hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic a newspaper published in Newton the last publication to be one day at least, before said Court, and by mailing post-paid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this sixth day of April in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

PROBATE COURT.

Middlesex, ss.
To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Joshua W. Davis late of Newton in said County, deceased.

WHEREAS, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Samuel B. Capen who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to him, the executor therein named, without giving a surety on his official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge in said County of Middlesex, on the twenty-seventh day of April A. D. 1909, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioners are hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic a newspaper published in Newton the last publication to be one day at least, before said Court, and by mailing post-paid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this sixth day of April in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

Notice is hereby given, that the subscriber has been duly appointed executor of the will of George W. Bartlett late of Newton in the County of Middlesex, deceased, testate, and has taken upon himself that trust by giving bond, as the law directs. All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are hereby required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to,

LOUISE C. BARTLETT, Executrix.

Address, care of J. P. Prince, 53 State St., Boston.

BUTTONS

DRESS PLAITING

I HAVE introduced a method for the production of SUNBURST SKIRTS, which enable me to plait Sunburst Skirts for $1.50

Covered and Ivory Kim Buttons in great variety to order.

I give prompt attention to mail and express orders.

C. E. FANNING

48 WINTER ST., Room 50, BOSTON, MASS.
TELEPHONE CONNECTION.

Mrs. W. S. Butler's

21st ANNUAL

MAY FESTIVAL

MECHANICS BUILDING

SATURDAY, MAY 1, 1909

Dances Under the Direction of

Mrs. LILLA VILES WYMAN

Afternoon at 2. Evening at 8

Tickets for sale at 175 Tremont St., Rooms 21, and at Connelly & Burke's after April 1.

NEWTON HIGH SCHOOLS

Head Masters Explain Their Scope and Purpose

The series of meetings which have been held in all the villages of Newton under the auspices of the School Committee to inform parents of the High School facilities which will be in readiness the coming fall have been of unusual interest. It has seemed wise therefore to summarize the principal points made at these meetings or the benefit of those who were unable to attend them as well as to refresh the minds of those who were present.

The remarks made by Mr. Enoch C. Adams, headmaster of the present High School and of Mr. Charles Kirschner, headmaster-elect of the new Technical High School are substantially as follows:

MR. CHARLES L. KIRSCHNER

While the Technical High School will be a new institution for the City of Newton, it is not by any means an experiment. Manual Training or Technical High Schools were first started in this country about twenty-five years ago; and it is safe to say that to-day, where no such school exists, one is being urged. New Haven built her technical high school 15 years ago when the registration in her high school was about 750. Hartford and Springfield started their technical departments with about the same registration in the high school. Springfield has since built a beautiful technical school to accommodate 1,000, and it is now over-crowded. Hartford is about to spend $500,000 to $800,000 dollars on a new technical school. The City of Newton is starting her technical high school with a registration in her high school of over 1,000. Judging from the experience of the cities, the starting of the school here is timely, not alone in relieving the present school, but in meeting the demands of the present day for more technical instruction among boys and girls of the high school age.

The school will start with the Commercial Department transferred from the present school. It will also start a first class in the more strictly technical departments. If there should be enough students in the first year class of the present high school desiring to be transferred to the new school, a second year class will be formed in academic work, and will be graduated with three years of technical work, receiving the regular diploma.

The technical high school and the present high school are not to be run as rival institutions. They are to be run as parts of the Newton High School system.

While the Technical High School is to give a general education, the same as the academic high school; it is intended to give the boys and girls a high school education with the aid of manual or technical training. The purposes of the two schools are the same, but the methods will differ.

The manual or technical subjects are given for the knowledge or power to be gained thru them, just as history and chemistry are given for the knowledge and power to be gained through them.

The aim is to weave into the academic studies a practical training involving modern industrial and household activities. Practical, to some, means only manual labor, hand work or suggests a lack of all trades. The practical value of a school task lies not so much in what you do with it, as much as in what it does for you. This, in a way, shows the difference between a trade school and a technical school. The practical work in a trade school is emphasized for the skill to be developed in the hand, i. e., for the product.

The technical school treats the work from the educational standpoint, and considers only such work as will exercise the mind while developing the skill. When an operation no longer requires thought, i. e., when the work becomes mechanical, it no longer has a place in the school. The trade school gives special training; the technical school general training.

A girl at school may design a dress, study the materials, estimate the cost, draft the patterns, cut and finish the garment; or a boy may design a table, study the choice of woods, estimate the cost and time of constructing, make and finish the table, comparing final results with first estimates. The work in either case has been practical; not so much in what has been done by the girl or boy, as in what the experience in planning and thinking out and making the object has done for the girl or boy. The girl may never become a dressmaker nor the boy a carpenter, but both have been trained to originate and put their thoughts into something definite; and at the same time their judgment, observation and self-reliance have been greatly strengthened. The practical effect of the training it not necessarily shown in the dress or table; it will be shown later in the management of the home, the office or factory.

Some minds are trained through books alone; but it is a recognized fact that hand training has a great disciplinary value for mind training.

The training of the hand along with the mind is training the whole boy, the whole girl. Such complete training does more than to make a skilled craftsman—One becomes a judge of good design, construction and careful workmanship, a better judge of labor. Herein lies its greatest value; not that the girl or the boy may become a dressmaker or carpenter, but rather that they may better understand the problems underlying our industries as well as the value of time and labor, and thus become wiser and more intelligent directors of labor in the home, office and factory. Hand training, in this sense, is given for its educational value, its cultural value, and as a by-product we have a "handy" boy and girl.

Our aim is to put boys and girls in touch with modern industrial and household activities, along with the more so-called cultural studies. Present day conditions tend to keep boys and girls away from all thoughts of these activities until the school days are over. The usual high school tends to give the student an experience wholly from books. The technical high school adds to this an experience with materials.

Boys and girls love to handle material, to cut and form it, to make things. There is a training and experience in doing this that can be gained in no other way. The school tends to direct and guide this desire of the child into useful and developing channels.

The technical school tries to give all those who desire it, an insight and practice into the principles underlying our industries and homes. Going back two or three generations, the household itself accomplished this, as it was an industrial center. All that was necessary in the way of food, clothing and other necessities were raised, made or obtained in or about this home. To provide food, there was the plowing, sowing, cultivating, harvesting and grinding, as well as the more immediate preparation of the food. For clothing the sheep were sheared, the wool carded and spun and the cloth woven. For light, the killing of the animal, the trying of the fat, making of the wick and molding of the candle. Likewise in building, there was the long, laborious task of felling the trees, cutting and truing the timbers, forging of the nails etc. Each one in the household co-operated and was responsible for his share of the work. The children would watch the processes from the raw material to the finished product; and as they grew older, would gradually break into the activities and share in the general work. Thus did each growing child participate in the daily work and gain a working knowledge of the industries and household activities of the time. Our present day conditions have changed all this. Some say that it is due to the perfection of machinery and the result of indulgent parents. This we do know, that no more effort than a telephone call will bring to your door, within an hour, the products of the world's markets. At any rate, the boy or girl of to-day does not have the chance to become useful; neither to-day have the chance to watch men engaged in the industries. Boys find "no admittance" on the factory doors; girls practically find the same thing on the kitchen door.

Thus has the technical school sprung up to assume the right to take the place of the old household, to train and cultivate its students in an industrial atmosphere. Its object is to train for order and industry, that the boys and girls may grow up feeling a responsibility to produce and to respect labor.

The school does not attempt to teach any specific trade, but rather to give a broad, general experience and insight into many lines of work, as of old. There is also something more to the shop work than just shaping wood, iron or cloth. Each article to be made must first be planned and thought about, and working drawings prepared. This is design, just as your house, my suit or your hat must have been first thought of, planned and designed. The artistic finishing or combination of colors is the applied art side of the work. In this school a great deal of time and emphasis is placed upon designing and upon artistic finish.

The technical work is not intended to rob the student of his academic work, but on the other hand to strengthen it by making application of principles learned. The amount of book work in many of the courses of the school does not differ materially from that given in the ordinary high school. All the book subjects usually found in a high school are given in a Technical High School. Generally more attention is paid to the sciences than the languages; but electives are given to admit of any desired course. While the technical work is that much additional work, it is not an added burden, but comes as a relief from the routine school room work. We rest not through illness, but rather through change of occupation. The work is looked forward to with pleasure. A rainy day is no inducement to keep a boy at home. Usually two periods a day are spent in the shop, laboratories or drawing rooms. The student must prepare most of his studies outside of school hours. He is practically busy all the time he is in school, either reciting or at work in shop or drawing room. You may draw your own conclusion as to whether it is a school for a lazy boy or girl.

In the courses for girls the household activities take the place of the shop work for boys. The aim is to create a respect for the home. The work may be classified under three heads:— food, clothing and the home. Under foods, a scientific study is made of foods and food values; buying and the preparation of food as well as serving it. During the course the girls alternate in the capacity of mistress, maid, cook and landlady. In this way she views the subject from every standpoint. Home nursing is included and the work is very practical.

Under the subject clothing, is the planning, designing and making of clothes. Starting with plain sewing, the work advances through designing, measuring, drafting, cutting and finishing garments. The work is practical and includes the selection of materials in relation to cost, to laundering and service intended. Millinery is also included and designs are carefully prepared.

The house is considered from the first planning to the finished home. A study is made of the several rooms, and each is considered in regard to service, finish, style of decoration, furnishing and costs in each case. Under decoration the girls are taught to design tapestries, hangings, etc. Wood carving and pottery are also introduced. The managing of the household is placed upon a more scientific basis, and it is really a study of household economy. It is a study of the home and all that implies, to the end that girls will look with pleasure and delight upon the work. It enables them to plan and manage in a happier, healthier and more economical way.

The boys' work includes wood-working, wood-turning and cabinet making. Forging, including ornamental iron work—as andirons etc.; also, hardening and tempering of steel, brazing etc. Hand and machine working in iron, steel, brass and sheet metal. Mechanical and free hand drawing is given in considerable amount. Many boys take up drafting-room positions upon graduating. There is no time enough spent in any one line of shop work for a boy to become a master of it; but he does acquire a knowledge of and a degree of skill in the several branches that are of great practical value to him. A boy can also better judge his capabilities and decide along what line his future work should follow.

The school at present enjoys the certificate privilege at all the colleges in which the certificate system is in operation. It is the policy of the school to grant a certificate only to those pupils whose work has been especially satisfactory. In other words, to give it as a reward of merit. All the colleges request the schools issuing certificates to allow them to decide by examination all doubtful cases. It will thus be seen that a pupil may be graduated from the High School and not be entitled to a college certificate as the college certificate standard is at least ten points higher than the standard required for graduation.

We claim, and we think make our claim good, that we avoid the cramming process in our college classes, i. e., the mere preparation for an examination. We often find it difficult to impress upon a boy the necessity of thorough daily preparation. He may, perhaps, have a brother at Harvard who does very little work each day, but crams for his hour examination and his mid-terms. In fact, we often find the influence of this phase of college life very detrimental to scholarship in the High School. It is barely possible that you a man in college can neglect the work in a course, and then by cramming, and by using midnight oil and lead towels, still pass the required examinations; but the boy in a preparatory school must make thorough daily preparation in order to develop the proper mental fibre and lay a foundation for his more advanced studies.

Our proximity to colleges in and about Boston tends to influence in many ways the standards of work and morals in the High School. Just one illustration will suffice to show what we have in mind. There were two girls in a family, one of them in a neighboring college, the other in the High School. They were both studying Latin. The college girl was, with the advice of her instructors, using a translation—while the school girl was digging away at her Vergil with such legitimate helps—as grammar, vocabulary, and notes—as a school girl ought use. It was very difficult to make the latter see clearly why it was right for her sister to use the translation and wrong for her to do so. It is easy for us who are older to differentiate between the two situations, but much more difficult for a young person whose moral standards have not been tested by experience, to understand why she is forbidden to tread the easy path over which her sister is allowed to ride.

A young man in college without much daily effort can, by means of tutors and all-night study, get ready for an examination in a few days, while a boy in a preparatory school who adopts the same method of work is doomed to absolute failure. It is the systematic and regular effort continued throughout the school year that really develops intellectual fibre, just the same as moral fibre is the growth of a consistent and unbroken effort put forth by the moral nature.

This naturally leads us to consider how many hours a boy of high school age ought to devote to his books each day. The High School session is from 8:30 o'clock until 1:30, with something more than half an hour for recesses. At the longest the period of work is not more than four hours and a half. Lessons are assigned with the expectation that the average boy must spend at least three hours in study at home. This entails seven hours and a half of work each day.

Now the question arises as to when this home work should be done. It would seem best that the pupil study an hour or an hour and a half in the afternoon, and two hours in the evening. From the time of dismissal until six o'clock there are four hours and a half. If the pupil spends three hours and a half in rest and playing, there will still remain an hour for study before dinner. I have no doubt that all parents agree with me in believing that such a division of the afternoon between work and play is very desirable. I also feel sure that you, as do I, find it somewhat difficult to have this arrangement carried out in your home to your satisfaction. The boy claims that it breaks into his afternoon and spoils his play, but let us consider for a moment what often does happen: As soon as the boy has finished his lunch, he rushes forth to the ball field, the skating rink, or the gymnasium, and exercises until his physical energy is used up. He then returns home, eats his dinner, and when he attempts to study, finds that he is so completely exhausted that he can accomplish little. If sleep

preparatory for Harvard, Radcliffe, or any other New England college in four years. As the requirements for admission to some colleges are very heavy, it is desirable in many cases for a pupil to devote five years to his college preparation. In case a young man is going to Harvard, this arrangement need cause no real loss of time, as with this more thorough preparation, an average boy can easily complete the course in three years. Many of the boys who prepare for Harvard in four years complete their college course in three years. While the preparation for college is a necessary incident in a high school course, the methods of work as such as will give the best kind of mental training to the average boy or girl.

The school at present enjoys the certificate privilege at all the colleges in which the certificate system is in operation. It is the policy of the school to grant a certificate only to those pupils whose work has been especially satisfactory. In other words, to give it as a reward of merit. All the colleges request the schools issuing certificates to allow them to decide by examination all doubtful cases. It will thus be seen that a pupil may be graduated from the High School and not be entitled to a college certificate as the college certificate standard is at least ten points higher than the standard required for graduation.

We claim, and we think make our claim good, that we avoid the cramming process in our college classes, i. e., the mere preparation for an examination. We often find it difficult to impress upon a boy the necessity of thorough daily preparation. He may, perhaps, have a brother at Harvard who does very little work each day, but crams for his hour examination and his mid-terms. In fact, we often find the influence of this phase of college life very detrimental to scholarship in the High School. It is barely possible that you a man in college can neglect the work in a course, and then by cramming, and by using midnight oil and lead towels, still pass the required examinations; but the boy in a preparatory school must make thorough daily preparation in order to develop the proper mental fibre and lay a foundation for his more advanced studies.

Our proximity to colleges in and about Boston tends to influence in many ways the standards of work and morals in the High School. Just one illustration will suffice to show what we have in mind. There were two girls in a family, one of them in a neighboring college, the other in the High School. They were both studying Latin. The college girl was, with the advice of her instructors, using a translation—while the school girl was digging away at her Vergil with such legitimate helps—as grammar, vocabulary, and notes—as a school girl ought use. It was very difficult to make the latter see clearly why it was right for her sister to use the translation and wrong for her to do so. It is easy for us who are older to differentiate between the two situations, but much more difficult for a young person whose moral standards have not been tested by experience, to understand why she is forbidden to tread the easy path over which her sister is allowed to ride.

A young man in college without much daily effort can, by means of tutors and all-night study, get ready for an examination in a few days, while a boy in a preparatory school who adopts the same method of work is doomed to absolute failure. It is the systematic and regular effort continued throughout the school year that really develops intellectual fibre, just the same as moral fibre is the growth of a consistent and unbroken effort put forth by the moral nature.

This naturally leads us to consider how many hours a boy of high school age ought to devote to his books each day. The High School session is from 8:30 o'clock until 1:30, with something more than half an hour for recesses. At the longest the period of work is not more than four hours and a half. Lessons are assigned with the expectation that the average boy must spend at least three hours in study at home. This entails seven hours and a half of work each day.

Now the question arises as to when this home work should be done. It would seem best that the pupil study an hour or an hour and a half in the afternoon, and two hours in the evening. From the time of dismissal until six o'clock there are four hours and a half. If the pupil spends three hours and a half in rest and playing, there will still remain an hour for study before dinner. I have no doubt that all parents agree with me in believing that such a division of the afternoon between work and play is very desirable. I also feel sure that you, as do I, find it somewhat difficult to have this arrangement carried out in your home to your satisfaction. The boy claims that it breaks into his afternoon and spoils his play, but let us consider for a moment what often does happen: As soon as the boy has finished his lunch, he rushes forth to the ball field, the skating rink, or the gymnasium, and exercises until his physical energy is used up. He then returns home, eats his dinner, and when he attempts to study, finds that he is so completely exhausted that he can accomplish little. If sleep

preparatory for Harvard, Radcliffe, or any other New England college in four years. As the requirements for admission to some colleges are very heavy, it is desirable in many cases for a pupil to devote five years to his college preparation. In case a young man is going to Harvard, this arrangement need cause no real loss of time, as with this more thorough preparation, an average boy can easily complete the course in three years. Many of the boys who prepare for Harvard in four years complete their college course in three years. While the preparation for college is a necessary incident in a high school course, the methods of work as such as will give the best kind of mental training to the average boy or girl.

The school at present enjoys the certificate privilege at all the colleges in which the certificate system is in operation. It is the policy of the school to grant a certificate only to those pupils whose work has been especially satisfactory. In other words, to give it as a reward of merit. All the colleges request the schools issuing certificates to allow them to decide by examination all doubtful cases. It will thus be seen that a pupil may be graduated from the High School and not be entitled to a college certificate as the college certificate standard is at least ten points higher than the standard required for graduation.

We claim, and we think make our claim good, that we avoid the cramming process in our college classes, i. e., the mere preparation for an examination. We often find it difficult to impress upon a boy the necessity of thorough daily preparation. He may, perhaps, have a brother at Harvard who does very little work each day, but crams for his hour examination and his mid-terms. In fact, we often find the influence of this phase of college life very detrimental to scholarship in the High School. It is barely possible that you a man in college can neglect the work in a course, and then by cramming, and by using midnight oil and lead towels, still pass the required examinations; but the boy in a preparatory school must make thorough daily preparation in order to develop the proper mental fibre and lay a foundation for his more advanced studies.

Our proximity to colleges in and about Boston tends to influence in many ways the standards of work and morals in the High School. Just one illustration will suffice to show what we have in mind. There were two girls in a family, one of them in a neighboring college, the other in the High School. They were both studying Latin. The college girl was, with the advice of her instructors, using a translation—while the school girl was digging away at her Vergil with such legitimate helps—as grammar, vocabulary, and notes—as a school girl ought use. It was very difficult to make the latter see clearly why it was right for her sister to use the translation and wrong for her to do so. It is easy for us who are older to differentiate between the two situations, but much more difficult for a young person whose moral standards have not been tested by experience, to understand why she is forbidden to tread the easy path over which her sister is allowed to ride.

A young man in college without much daily effort can, by means of tutors and all-night study, get ready for an examination in a few days, while a boy in a preparatory school who adopts the same method of work is doomed to absolute failure. It is the systematic and regular effort continued throughout the school year that really develops intellectual fibre, just the same as moral fibre is the growth of a consistent and unbroken effort put forth by the moral nature.

This naturally leads us to consider how many hours a boy of high school age ought to devote to his books each day. The High School session is from 8:30 o'clock until 1:30, with something more than half an hour for recesses. At the longest the period of work is not more than four hours and a half. Lessons are assigned with the expectation that the average boy must spend at least three hours in study at home. This entails seven hours and a half of work each day.

Now the question arises as to when this home work should be done. It would seem best that the pupil study an hour or an hour and a half in the afternoon, and two hours in the evening. From the time of dismissal until six o'clock there are four hours and a half. If the pupil spends three hours and a half in rest and playing, there will still remain an hour for study before dinner. I have no doubt that all parents agree with me in believing that such a division of the afternoon between work and play is very desirable. I also feel sure that you, as do I, find it somewhat difficult to have this arrangement carried out in your home to your satisfaction. The boy claims that it breaks into his afternoon and spoils his play, but let us consider for a moment what often does happen: As soon as the boy has finished his lunch, he rushes forth to the ball field, the skating rink, or the gymnasium, and exercises until his physical energy is used up. He then returns home, eats his dinner, and when he attempts to study, finds that he is so completely exhausted that he can accomplish little. If sleep

preparatory for Harvard, Radcliffe, or any other New England college in four years. As the requirements for admission to some colleges are very heavy, it is desirable in many cases for a pupil to devote five years to his college preparation. In case a young man is going to Harvard, this arrangement need cause no real loss of time, as with this more thorough preparation, an average boy can easily complete the course in three years. Many of the boys who prepare for Harvard in four years complete their college course in three years. While the preparation for college is a necessary incident in a high school course, the methods of work as such as will give the best kind of mental training to the average boy or girl.

The school at present enjoys the certificate privilege at all the colleges in which the certificate system is in operation. It is the policy of the school to grant a certificate only to those pupils whose work has been especially satisfactory. In other words, to give it as a reward of merit. All the colleges request the schools issuing certificates to allow them to decide by examination all doubtful cases. It will thus be seen that a pupil may be graduated from the High School and not be entitled to a college certificate as the college certificate standard is at least ten points higher than the standard required for graduation.

We claim, and we think make our claim good, that we avoid the cramming process in our college classes, i. e., the mere preparation for an examination. We often find it difficult to impress upon a boy the necessity of thorough daily preparation. He may, perhaps, have a brother at Harvard who does very little work each day, but crams for his hour examination and his mid-terms. In fact, we often find the influence of this phase of college life very detrimental to scholarship in the High School. It is barely possible that you a man in college can neglect the work in a course, and then by cramming, and by using midnight oil and lead towels, still pass the required examinations; but the boy in a preparatory school must make thorough daily preparation in order to develop the proper mental fibre and lay a foundation for his more advanced studies.

Our proximity to colleges in and about Boston tends to influence in many ways the standards of work and morals in the High School. Just one illustration will suffice to show what we have in mind. There were two girls in a family, one of them in a neighboring college, the other in the High School. They were both studying Latin. The college girl was, with the advice of her instructors, using a translation—while the school girl was digging away at her Vergil with such legitimate helps—as grammar, vocabulary, and notes—as a school girl ought use. It was very difficult to make the latter see clearly why it was right for her sister to use the translation and wrong for her to do so. It is easy for us who are older to differentiate between the two situations, but much more difficult for a young person whose moral standards have not been tested by experience, to understand why she is forbidden to tread the easy path over which her sister is allowed to ride.

A young man in college without much daily effort can, by means of tutors and all-night study, get ready for an examination in a few days, while a boy in a preparatory school who adopts the same method of work is doomed to absolute failure. It is the systematic and regular effort continued throughout the school year that really develops intellectual fibre, just the same as moral fibre is the growth of a consistent and unbroken effort put forth by the moral nature.

This naturally leads us to consider how many hours a boy of high school age ought to devote to his books each day. The High School session is from 8:30 o'clock until 1:30, with something more than half an hour for recesses. At the longest the period of work is not more than four hours and a half. Lessons are assigned with the expectation that the average boy must spend at least three hours in study at home. This entails seven hours and a half of work each day.

Now the question arises as to when this home work should be done. It would seem best that the pupil study an hour or an hour and a half in the afternoon, and two hours in the evening. From the time of dismissal until six o'clock there are four hours and a half. If the pupil spends three hours and a half in rest and playing, there will still remain an hour for study before dinner. I have no doubt that all parents agree with me in believing that such a division of the afternoon between work and play is very desirable. I also feel sure that you, as do I, find it somewhat difficult to have this arrangement carried out in your home to your satisfaction. The boy claims that it breaks into his afternoon and spoils his play, but let us consider for a moment what often does happen: As soon as the boy has finished his lunch, he rushes forth to the ball field, the skating rink, or the gymnasium, and exercises until his physical energy is used up. He then returns home, eats his dinner, and when he attempts to study, finds that he is so completely exhausted that he can accomplish little. If sleep

preparatory for Harvard, Radcliffe, or any other New England college in four years. As the requirements for admission to some colleges are very heavy, it is desirable in many cases for a pupil to devote five years to his college preparation. In case a young man is going to Harvard, this arrangement need cause no real loss of time, as with this more thorough preparation, an average boy can easily complete the course in three years. Many of the boys who prepare for Harvard in four years complete their college course in three years. While the preparation for college is a necessary incident in a high school course, the methods of work as such as will give the best kind of mental training to the average boy or girl.

The school at present enjoys the certificate privilege at all the colleges in which the certificate system is in operation. It is the policy of the school to grant a certificate only to those pupils whose work has been especially satisfactory. In other words, to give it as a reward of merit. All the colleges request the schools issuing certificates to allow them to decide by examination all doubtful cases. It will thus be seen that a pupil may be graduated from the High School and not be entitled to a college certificate as the college certificate standard is at least ten points higher than the standard required for graduation.

We claim, and we think make our claim good, that we avoid the cramming process in our college classes, i. e., the mere preparation for an examination. We often find it difficult to impress upon a boy the necessity of thorough daily preparation. He may, perhaps, have a brother at Harvard who does very little work each day, but crams for his hour examination and his mid-terms. In fact, we often find the influence of this phase of college life very detrimental to scholarship in the High School. It is barely possible that you a man in college can neglect the work in a course, and then by cramming, and by using midnight oil and lead towels, still pass the required examinations; but the boy in a preparatory school must make thorough daily preparation in order to develop the proper mental fibre and lay a foundation for his more advanced studies.

Our proximity to colleges in and about Boston tends to influence in many ways the standards of work and morals in the High School. Just one illustration will suffice to show what we have in mind. There were two girls in a family, one of them in a neighboring college, the other in the High School. They were both studying Latin. The college girl was, with the advice of her instructors, using a translation—while the school girl was digging away at her Vergil with such legitimate helps—as grammar, vocabulary, and notes—as a school girl ought use. It was very difficult to make the latter see clearly why it was right for her sister to use the translation and wrong for her to do so. It is easy for us who are older to differentiate between the two situations, but much more difficult for a young person whose moral standards have not been tested by experience, to understand why she is forbidden to tread the easy path over which her sister is allowed to ride.

A young man in college without much daily effort can, by means of tutors and all-night study, get ready for an examination in a few days, while a boy in a preparatory school who adopts the same method of work is doomed to absolute failure. It is the systematic and regular effort continued throughout the school year that really develops intellectual fibre, just the same as moral fibre is the growth of a consistent and unbroken effort put forth by the moral nature.

This naturally leads us to consider how many hours a boy of high school age ought to devote to his books each day. The High School session is from 8:30 o'clock until 1:30, with something more than half an hour for recesses. At the longest the period of work is not more than four hours and a half. Lessons are assigned with the expectation that the average boy must spend at least three hours in study at home. This entails seven hours and a half of work each day.

Now the question arises as to when this home work should be done. It would seem best that the pupil study an hour or an hour and a half in the afternoon, and two hours in the evening. From the time of dismissal until six o'clock there are four hours and a half. If the pupil spends three hours and a half in rest and playing, there will still remain an hour for study before dinner. I have no doubt that all parents agree with me in believing that such a division of the afternoon between work and play is very desirable. I also feel sure that you, as do I, find it somewhat difficult to have this arrangement carried out in your home to your satisfaction. The boy claims that it breaks into his afternoon and spoils his play, but let us consider for a moment what often does happen: As soon as the boy has finished his lunch, he rushes forth to the ball field, the skating rink, or the gymnasium, and exercises until his physical energy is used up. He then returns home, eats his dinner, and when he attempts to study, finds that he is so completely exhausted that he can accomplish little. If sleep

preparatory for Harvard, Radcliffe, or any other New England college in four years. As the requirements for admission to some colleges are very heavy, it is desirable in many cases for a pupil to devote five years to his college preparation. In case a young man is going to Harvard, this arrangement need cause no real loss of time, as with this more thorough preparation, an average boy can easily complete the course in three years. Many of the boys who prepare for Harvard in four years complete their college course in three years. While the preparation for college is a necessary incident in a high school course, the methods of work as such as will give the best kind of mental training to the average boy or girl.

The school at present enjoys the certificate privilege at all the colleges in which the certificate system is in operation. It is the policy of the school to grant a certificate only to those pupils whose work has been especially satisfactory. In other words, to give it as a reward of merit. All the colleges request the schools issuing certificates to allow them to decide by examination all doubtful cases. It will thus be seen that a pupil may be graduated from the High School and not be entitled to a college certificate as the college certificate standard is at least ten points higher than the standard required for graduation.

We claim, and we think make our claim good, that we avoid the cramming process in our college classes, i. e., the mere preparation for an examination. We often find it difficult to impress upon a boy the necessity of thorough daily preparation. He may, perhaps, have a brother at Harvard who does very little work each day, but crams for his hour examination and his mid-terms. In fact, we often find the influence of this phase of college life very detrimental to scholarship in the High School. It is barely possible that you a man in college can neglect the work in a course, and then by cramming, and by using midnight oil and lead towels, still pass the required examinations; but the boy in a preparatory school must make thorough daily preparation in order to develop the proper mental fibre and lay a foundation for his more advanced studies.

Our proximity to colleges in and about Boston tends to influence in many ways the standards of work and morals in the High School. Just one illustration will suffice to show what we have in mind. There were two girls in a family, one of them in a neighboring college, the other in the High School. They were both studying Latin. The college girl was, with the advice of her instructors, using a translation—while the school girl was digging away at her Vergil with such legitimate helps—as grammar, vocabulary, and notes—as a school girl ought use. It was very difficult to make the latter see clearly why it was right for her sister to use the translation and wrong for her to do so. It is easy for us who are older to differentiate between the two situations, but much more difficult for a young person whose moral standards have not been tested by experience, to understand why she is forbidden to tread the easy path over which her sister is allowed to ride.

A young man in college without much daily effort can, by means of tutors and all-night study, get ready for an examination in a few days, while a boy in a preparatory school who adopts the same method of work is doomed to absolute failure. It is the systematic and regular effort continued throughout the school year that really develops intellectual fibre, just the same as moral fibre is the growth of a consistent and unbroken effort put forth by the moral nature.

This naturally leads us to consider how many hours a boy of high school age ought to devote to his books each day. The High School session is from 8:30 o'clock until 1:30, with something more than half an hour for recesses. At the longest the period of work is not more than four hours and a half. Lessons are assigned with the expectation that the average boy must spend at least three hours in study at home. This entails seven hours and a half of work each day.

Now the question arises as to when this home work should be done. It would seem best that the pupil study an hour or an hour and a half in the afternoon, and two hours in the evening. From the time of dismissal until six o'clock there are four hours and a half. If the pupil spends three hours and a half in rest and playing, there will still remain an hour for study before dinner. I have no doubt that all parents agree with me in believing that such a division of the afternoon between work and play is very desirable. I also feel sure that you, as do I, find it somewhat difficult to have this arrangement carried out in your home to your satisfaction. The boy claims that it breaks into his afternoon and spoils his play, but let us consider for a moment what often does happen: As soon as the boy has finished his lunch, he rushes forth to the ball field, the skating rink, or the gymnasium, and exercises until his physical energy is used up. He then returns home, eats his dinner, and when he attempts to study, finds that he is so completely exhausted that he can accomplish little. If sleep

preparatory for Harvard, Radcliffe, or any other New England college in four years. As the requirements for admission to some colleges are very heavy, it is desirable in many cases for a pupil to devote five years to his college preparation. In case a young man is going to Harvard, this arrangement need cause no real loss of time, as with this more thorough preparation, an average boy can easily complete the course in three years. Many of the boys who prepare for Harvard in four years complete their college course in three years. While the preparation for college is a necessary incident in a high school course, the methods of work as such as will give the best kind of mental training to the average boy or girl.

The school at present enjoys the certificate privilege at all the colleges in which the certificate system is in operation. It is the policy of the school to grant a certificate only to those pupils whose work has been especially satisfactory. In other words, to give it as a reward of merit. All the colleges request the schools issuing certificates to allow them to decide by examination all doubtful cases. It will thus be seen that a pupil may be graduated from the High School and not be entitled to a college certificate as the college certificate standard is at least ten points higher than the standard required for graduation.

We claim, and we think make our claim good, that we avoid the cramming process in our college classes, i. e., the mere preparation for an examination. We often find it difficult to impress upon a boy the necessity of thorough daily preparation. He may, perhaps, have a brother at Harvard who does very little work each day, but crams for his hour examination and his mid-terms. In fact, we often find the influence of this phase of college life very detrimental to scholarship in the High School. It is barely possible that you a man in college can neglect the work in a course, and then by cramming, and by using midnight oil and lead towels, still pass the required examinations; but the boy in a preparatory school must make thorough daily preparation in order to develop the proper mental fibre and lay a foundation for his more advanced studies.

Our proximity to colleges in and about Boston tends to influence in many ways the standards of work and morals in the High School. Just one illustration will suffice to show what we have in mind. There were two girls in a family, one of them in a neighboring college, the other in the High School. They were both studying Latin. The college girl was, with the advice of her instructors, using a translation—while the school girl was digging away at her Vergil with such legitimate helps—as grammar, vocabulary, and notes—as a school girl ought use. It was very difficult to make the latter see clearly why it was right for her sister to use the translation and wrong for her to do so. It is easy for us who are older to differentiate between the two situations, but much more difficult for a young person whose moral standards have not been tested by experience, to understand why she is forbidden to tread the easy path over which her sister is allowed to ride.

A young man in college without much daily effort can, by means of tutors and all-night study, get ready for an examination in a few days, while a boy in a preparatory school who adopts the same method of work is doomed to absolute failure. It is the systematic and regular effort continued throughout the school year that really develops intellectual fibre, just the same as moral fibre is the growth of a consistent and unbroken effort put forth by the moral nature.

</

HARRIS E. JOHNNOT
Electrician and Contractor
431 CENTRE ST., NEWTON

Telephones: Office, 728-2; Newton, 728-2

Boston Elevated Railway Co.

SURFACE LINES

WATERTOWN TO HANOVER ST. (Via Arsenal St.)—5.31 a.m., and intervals of 10, 15 and 20 minutes to 11.31 p.m. SUNDAY—7.03 a.m., and intervals of 20 and 15 minutes to 11.32 p.m.

NEWTON AND WATERTOWN TO HANOVER ST. (Via Mt. Auburn)—5.15 a.m., and intervals of 8, 15 and 20 minutes to 12.13 a.m. SUNDAY—5.54 a.m., and intervals of 15 and 10 minutes to 12.13 a.m.

NIGHT AND EARLY MORNING SERVICE. Newton to Adams Sq., via Mt. Auburn. 12.42, 1.39, 2.39, 4.39 (5.39, Sunday) a.m. Return leave Adams Sq. 12.35, 1.35, 2.35, 3.35, 4.35, (5.35 Sunday) a.m.

NEWTON AND WATERTOWN TO PARK ST. SUBWAY. (Via Mt. Auburn)—5.15 a.m., and every 15 minutes to 10.49 p.m. SUNDAY 8.17 a.m., and every 15 minutes to 10.49 p.m.

WATERTOWN SQ. TO SUBWAY. (Via North Beacon St. and Commonwealth Ave.)—5.40, 5.54 a.m., and intervals of 8 and 15 minutes to 11.09 p.m. SUNDAY—5.53, 7.23, 7.54 a.m., and intervals of 15 minutes to 11.09 p.m.

C. S. SERGEANT, Vice-Pres.
January 9, 1909.

H. W. BERRY

Sole Agent for the Celebrated Gold Medal STRICH & ZEIDLER, also first class M. W. BERRY, JAMES & HOLMSTROM and KELLEY & SONS

PIANOS

846 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON
Tel. 1292 Oxford.

FRANCIS MURDOCK

Insurance Agent
BANK BUILDING, NEWTON, MASS.
INSURANCE TO ANY AMOUNT placed in first-class Stock and Mutual companies. Sole Agent for Newton of the Middlesex Mutual of Concord, Mass.

JAMES PAXTON & CO.

Confectioners and Caterers

388 Centre Street, - Newton

ELIOT BLOCK

Telephone, Newton North 68

ROBERT F. CRANITCH

(Successor to L. H. Cranitch)
House, Sign and Ornamental Painter
Paper Hangings in Great Variety.
Work promptly done.
Walnut Street Newtonville

Monumental Works

Established 1873.

GEORGE R. SANDS

457 Mt. Auburn Street CAMBRIDGE

Real Estate and Insurance

INSURANCE

Do you realize that the average loss by fire in U. S. is about $500,000 a day. Right here in Massachusetts over 3000 dwellings were either destroyed or damaged during 1907, costing Insurance Companies $1,180,952.

Failure to insure is gross negligence. The cost is small, protection absolute. Insure your automobile is covered. Accidents are alarmingly frequent.

G. B. Macomber

151 Milk Street, - Boston
Telephone 492-2 Newton North

EDWARD F. BARNES

Real Estate Agent and Broker
Expert Appraiser, Notary Public

MONEY TO LOAN ON MORTGAGES

Insurance Agent and Auctioneer. Member of the Real Estate Exchange.

31 STATE STREET, BOSTON

Brackett's Block, Newton

W. S. & F. EDMANDS

INSURANCE

AGENCY

Established 39 Years

Fire Marine Burglary
Automobile Accident

Strongest Stock and Mutual Companies

178 Devonshire St. 392 Centre St. 81 Union St.
BOSTON NEWTON N. CENTRE

Tel. 3159 M. 132-1 N. N. 72-2 N. S.

Schools and Teachers.

THE ALMON WALTHAM ORCHESTRA

(Fifth consecutive year at Mt. Ida School. Over 300 consecutive Saturday Evening Concerts at S. Cobb Co's. Dep't Store.)

MUSIC FOR ALL OCCASIONS

Address

14 Fiske Avenue, Waltham, Mass.

L. EDWIN CHASE

TEACHER OF

Violin and Mandolin

BEST METHODS

Warner Building Newton

A. H. HANDLEY

MUSIC For All Occasions

105 OAKLEIGH ROAD

TELEPHONE NEWTON

VOCAL AND

VIOLIN INSTRUCTION

(Belgium Bowing)

MRS. MARCUS G. HALEY

9 PARK STREET NEWTON

NEWCOMB'S

Newton and Boston

EXPRESS

CHARLES G. NEWCOMB

PROPRIETOR AND MANAGER

402 Centre Street - Newton

Telephone North 690

GEO. W. BUSH

FUNERAL and FURNISHING

Undertaker

Coffins Caskets Robes

and every modern requisite for the proper performance of the business constantly on hand.

Elmwood Street, Newton

HENRY F. CATE

SUCCESSOR TO STEPHEN F. CATE

Undertaker

1251 Washington St. West Newton

Telephone Connection

GEO. W. MILLS

Undertaker

18 Years' Experience Highest Reference

Citlin Bldg., 817-819 Washington St., Newtonville

Telephone Office 112-3, Residence 855-2 N. N.

VINELAND

UNFERMENTED GRAPE JUICE

A Life Giving Drink

25 and 45c.

G. P. ATKINS

Centre Street - Newton

FRENCH MILLINER

Leading Styles in Millinery

AL. ROBILLARD

48 Main Street Watertown Square

MRS. B. HOFFMAN

CHIROPY

Hair Dressing Manicuring

Shampooing Facial and Scalp Massage

Permanent Building

Room 5, 27 Moody St., Waltham, Mass.

Tel. 596-4.

Members of the Master Builders Association

(Established 1896.) (Incorporated 1894.)

(Connected by Telephone.)

JOHN FARQUHAR'S SONS,

INCORPORATED.

Roofers and Metal Workers.

Dealers in All Roofing Materials.

State, Copper, Tin, Tile, and Composition

Roofing, Skylights, Cornices, Gutters,

Conductors etc.

Special attention given to repairs of all kind of Roofing.

Office, 20 and 22 East Street, Boston, Mass.

Wharf, 60-72 Washington Ave., Boston, Mass.

Directors: Samuel Farquhar, Pres.; Joseph Farquhar, Treas.; and Supr. Frank C. Farquhar, Sec'y.; Rollin Farquhar.

Dentists.

DR. S. F. CHASE

DENTIST

Dennison Building, Washington Street

Corner Walnut, Newtonville

Careful and thorough operating in all branches.

New Method for Artificial Teeth

NEWTON LADIES HOME CIRCLE.

The Editor of the Graphic has kindly given up space to explain the aims and accomplishments of our Circle. Early in the fall of 1888 a few ladies from the several wards of Newton (members of the disbanded Charles Ward Relief Corps) met to consider the forming of a society for benevolent and social purposes. With hearts and hands ready to resume work, the Society was formed, officers were chosen, and meetings were held twice a month. We pledged ourselves to work faithfully for our soldier poor and for any deserving poor in our city. A committee of two from each ward was appointed to investigate and report such cases as were brought to their notice. A relief fund was started by the annual dues of one dollar and the generous gift of fifty dollars from a friend. In January, 1889, our by-laws were formed and we were presented with a fine gavel. Thus with a good membership, a small sum in our treasury and the gavel we were well equipped for good systematic work.

Meantime our hands were not idle. A piece of cloth was made into sheets and pillow slips; another into underwear, that we might respond to our relief committee's calls. In gleaming the records of twenty years, replete with thrilling items of interest, it is difficult to do justice to our work in a short paper. At every meeting we have cases of great destitution brought by our committee. Men out of work, families without food or fire, women sick and in sorrow, little children hungry and barefooted. So carefully has our help been given that we review few cases of charity unwisely bestowed. For several years we paid board of a refined and worthy woman, through misfortune hopelessly crippled, physically and financially. For years a mother struggling with ill health and a growing family has received an allowance monthly. We have an unwritten law by which the names of these recipients may be known only to our President and the committee—and so living here in our beautiful, prosperous city we find these cases—and our warm-hearted vigilant members feel it a pleasure to respond.

In 1890 we decided to extend our work beyond city limits. We furnished a bed in the Little Wanderers Home, Boston. In May same year, we gave to the newly formed Sons of Veterans, side arms for the officers. The same year we fully furnished one of the best rooms in the Soldiers Home, Chelsea. In 1892 it was our privilege to take a corner-room in the then newly added wing in our Newton Hospital and fully furnish it. Both of these and many other cases have been handled and both have been maintained and replenished as needed. In 1893 we gave the furnishings for the Doctors' room in the then new part of the Newton Hospital. In 1902 a travelling library was sent to the Monmouth Life Saving Station. The same year and in 1904, we earned and gave to the Floating Hospital one hundred dollars. Thus having for two years a Home Circle day.

We recall smaller gifts; fifty night-dresses made and given to our Hospital; sixty night shirts given the Soldiers Home; two suppers furnished the Union Rescue Mission, Boston and a generous contribution for furnishing a sitting room there. Where do we get the money? Our funds are often low but the treasury has never been empty. Our dues, sales, suppers, and pound parties, our entertainments, and best of all our rummage sales have given us nearly eight thousand dollars, to use. We are indebted to our energetic cutting committee who never allows us to forget the work basket. Her record is over eleven hundred and fifty (1150) aprons, cut, made and sold, besides innumerable garments and articles of bedding. The friendly call, the cordial hand clasp, words of advice, sympathy and good cheer, brightening many a pathway, fill our unwritten record.

"The sweetest lives are those to duty wed,
Whose deeds both great and small
Are close knit strands of an unbroken thread
Where love ennobles all.
The world may sound no trumpet,
Ring no bells,
The Book of Life the shining record tell."
In 1896 the Circle joined the Newton Federation; in 1902 the State Federation.
The presidents have been:
Mrs. W. R. Dimond, Lower Falls; Mrs. Wm. Lodge, Newtonville; Mrs. Geo. M. Fiske, Auburndale; Mrs. C. M. Kimball, West Newton; Mrs. Wm. Pearson, Newton; Mrs. Richard Anderson, West Newton; Mrs. S. A. Langley, West Newton; Mrs. W. F. Jones, Auburndale; Mrs. W. F. Hadlock, Auburndale; Mrs. C. H. Stacy, West Newton.

Present officers:
President, Mrs. H. H. Hunt, West Newton; 1st Vice-President, Mrs. F. C. Graves, West Newton; 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. H. L. Glazier, West Newton; Recording Secretary, Mrs. W. P. Hadlock, Auburndale; Treasurer, Mrs. A. F. Kimball, West Newton; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Bertram Childs, Auburndale; Auditor, Mrs. J. McArthur, West Newton.

NEWTON HIGH SCHOOLS

(Continued from preceding page)

Those of us who have kept in touch with the educational discussions of the day are fully aware that secret societies and clubs in high schools are receiving much attention and adverse criticism. It is generally admitted that in all high schools where such societies thrive, they cause a great injury to the work, discipline, and morale of the school. In some states, stringent laws have been passed to prevent the existence of secret societies and fraternities, and in our own state there is a bill before the Legislature to prevent such societies in the high schools of the Commonwealth. It is not necessary for me to go at length into the reasons why these societies work harm to a school. It is sufficient to say that they are not democratic, they form cliques and draw lines between different groups of pupils where no lines ought to exist. High school pupils are usually of an age when their judgment is too immature to make it possible for them to govern wisely any body over which they have absolute control. Observation shows that even when a society is organized under the best conditions and from the best elements of a school, it soon deteriorates, and the standard of character required for membership is lowered. Wealth, good fellowship, and other social traits soon take the place of true worth, in determining the desirability of boy or girl for membership.

When boys and girls are thus associated in a club, they are bound closely together and are very loyal to each other. They stand by one another without the discrimination of men. When one member of the society is aggrieved, they are all likely to be aggrieved; when one member is disciplined, they all feel disciplined. If an influential member is satisfied with his studies, the other members are very likely to be satisfied with the same standard; if a serious question of discipline arises, they are likely to stand loyal to their club or fraternity, rather than to the school.

The Newton High School has been exceptionally free from the bad influence of such societies. So far as I know, there are in the school only two secret societies, one of which is a fraternity. Occasionally, there has been evidence of some effort on the part of the organizations to place their members in influential positions in athletic organizations and in classes. Thus far, however, the number belonging to these societies is so small that no ill effects have been observed. The same, however, cannot be said in regard to their influence upon scholarship.

Besides these organizations, there are clubs formed in most of the classes, which maintain a social life more or less active, during the last three years of the course. Such clubs are wholly beyond the jurisdiction of the school authorities. None of them ever hold any meetings in the school building, or give out any public notices. These clubs of young girls may be good, or may be bad in their influence upon the school. I refer to them because the school, as well as the Head Master, has received some very severe and unfair criticism, as he thinks, on account of the existence of such organizations. The parents who have offered these criticisms have held the school and the Head Master wholly responsible for the clubs. It is nearer the truth to say that the home is responsible for them. The meetings are usually held at the homes of the pupils; parents, of course, allow their daughters to join the club and attend its meetings. I do not know that it would be desirable to do away with all these organizations if it were possible, for undoubtedly, under the wise guidance of their mothers, the young ladies ought to get some profit from meeting together in a social and informal way. But of secret societies and clubs, and fraternities, no one who studies the question can have any feeling toward them except of strong disapproval. The psychology of the group is a curious thing. Boys and girls when banded together will do things that as individuals they would never think of doing. It is here that the danger existing in secret societies in high schools lurks. Some daring, irresponsible fellow proposes certain courses of action, and the rest follow. The members league themselves against the discipline of the school and often make its administration very difficult.

The school is willing and under obligation to meet its responsibility in all these matters: will not the home do the same?

Newton; 1st Vice-President, Mrs. F. C. Graves, West Newton; 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. H. L. Glazier, West Newton; Recording Secretary, Mrs. W. P. Hadlock, Auburndale; Treasurer, Mrs. A. F. Kimball, West Newton; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Bertram Childs, Auburndale; Auditor, Mrs. J. McArthur, West Newton.

THEATRES

Kelth's Theatre—This is a season of big things at Kelth's Theatre, both in the way of exceptionally strong vaudeville acts and the number of legitimate actors and actresses who are appearing in sketches. Perhaps the most notable example of this is William H. Thompson, with a sketch writer for him by Sir Conan Doyle, called "Vaterrloo." There will also be another newcomer in Marie Dahlton, the little English woman, who does an act that is original, with a winning personality that goes a long way toward making it the great success that it is. Other features are Wilfred Clark & Company in a sketch and Ben Welch, the Hebrew Impersonator. Others are the Four Harveys, World and Kingston and Alcide Capitaine; Binns, Binns, and Binns; in Granman and a number yet to be announced. For the first time since Kelth's Theatre was opened "continuous" performance will be done away with and instead two shows will be given each day, the intention being to carry out this policy during the spring and summer. Kelth's has been the home of "continuous" performance.

Orpheum Theatre—The tremendous success attending the engagement of Julius Elling, the world's greatest portrayal of feminine characters at the Orpheum Theatre this week, has induced the management to extend his engagement for another week. Another Boston favorite who will be seen at this popular theatre is Charles J. Ross of the famous Ross and Fenton pair. This time his vehicle is an original creation "Chuckles" by Mabel Fenton, in which he will be assisted by that talented actress Anna Turner. The balance of the bill will include Harry Foster, late comedian in "It Happened in Nordanland" and Rose Bold in a one-act absurdity "A Letter From Mother," and other headline features.

Boston Theatre—Frederic Thompson's newest dramatic production "Via Wireless," which has just finished a six months' successful run in New York, Philadelphia and Chicago, comes to the Boston Theatre Monday night, April 12. "Via Wireless" is remarkable for two great scenes, each of which is novel and dramatic in the extreme. In the second act the action takes place in the forging room of a Pittsburgh steel plant, and Mr. Thompson's stage setting is an absolute duplicate of the real scene in the Midvale steel works. The other is perhaps the most talked about scene that has ever been presented on our stage. It is the scene from which the play takes its name and represents a Porto Rican liner in the act of rescuing by means of wireless telegraphy the crew and passengers of a yacht which is going to pieces in a storm at night on a reef thirty miles away. The company is of unusual size, with many local favorites.

Tremont Theatre—"The Servant in the House," played by the famous original Henry Miller Associate Players at the Tremont Theatre, has set all Boston talking. This unique drama by Charles Rann Kennedy, and critics unite in agreeing is the most important contribution to the theatre and to dramatic literature of recent years. "The Servant in the House" first attracted amazed attention because one of the principal characters, Anson, bears a startling resemblance in looks and demeanor to the accepted idea of Christ. But it retained its hold upon the public by the truth of its purpose, the dramatic intensity of its situations, and its vital, human story. The cast is composed of Edith Wynne Matlisson, Tyrone Power, Walter Hampden, Arthur Lewis, Mabel Moore, Ben Field and Frank Mills. Matlisson is given Wednesdays and Saturdays.

NEWTON FREE LIBRARY

List of New Books

BEARNE, David. Lance and his Friends. J.B.381.1
BELLLOC, Hilaire. On Nothing and Kindred Subjects. Y.B.417.0
BENSON, Arthur Christopher. At Large. Y.B.441
BLAKE, Harriet Bailey Slawwood. Letters of Mrs. James G. Blaine, edited by Harriet S. Blaine Beale. 2 vols. EB.573.9.B
BLISS, Edwin Munsell. The Missionary Enterprise: a concise history of its objects, methods and extension. DS.861
BREELMAN, James. Why We Love Lincoln. EL.638.0r
CURTIS, Alice Turner. Grandpa's Little Girls at School. J.94 Ga
ELLIS, Mina Benson Hubbard. A Woman's Way through Unknown Labrador. G.818.847
EWART, Nellie E. Daily Living: a manual designed to simplify the work of the housekeeper. RV.1294
KONNEDY, Charles Rann. The Winter Feast. YD.K.38 w
KENT, Charles Foster. The Founders and Rulers of United Israel; from the death of Moses to the division of the Hebrew Kingdom. CB.H.147
LA FARGE, John. The Higher Life in Art: a series of lectures on the Barlizon School of France, inaugurating the Seamon course at the Art Institute of Chicago. WP.39.1.13
MANN, Albert William. History of the Forty-Fifth Regiment, Massachusetts Volunteer Militia: the "Cadet Regiment." F834M.131
ONKEN, William Henry, and Baker, Joseph B. Harper's How to Understand Electrical Work. T.G.1.058
ORCUTT, William Dana. The Spell. O.648.8
REYNOLDS, Victor. Stories of the English and Dutch Artists, from the time of the Van Eycks to the end of the Seventeenth Century. W.464.133
SMITH, Arthur D. Howden. Fighting the Turk in the Balkans: an American's adventures with the Macedonian revolutionists. F69.864
STEVENSON, Augusta. Children's Classics in Dramatic Form. J.YD.583
WEBSTER, Henry Kitchell. The Whipsnapper Man. W.394 w
April 7, 1909.

One of the most insidious and unexpected forms of attack, is to tread upon a tack.

LEGAL NOTICES

Mortgagee's Sale of Real Estate

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage given by Alton Babcock to Charles C. Stearns dated March ninth, 1906, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book 3218, Page 177 for breach of the conditions therein contained and for the purpose of foreclosing the same will be sold at public auction on the premises hereinafter described on Monday April 26th, 1909, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises in said mortgage described as follows:

Two certain lots or parcels of land in Newton in said County of Middlesex, being lots numbered thirty-one and thirty-five on a plan of lots at Newton Highlands owned by Edgar W. Foster, Esq. Worthington Jr. Engineer, March 1894, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book of plans 98, plan 36, to which reference may be had for a more particular description.

Said lots are more particularly bounded and described as follows: Lot thirty-one is bounded South-westerly by Boylston Road 62.5-100 feet, North-westerly by lot thirty on said plan 73.48-100 feet, North-easterly by lot twenty-four and twenty-five on said plan 101.61-100 feet and Southerly by lots forty-two and forty-three on said plan 83.88-100 feet.

Lot thirty-five is bounded North-easterly on said Boylston Road 52.3-10 feet, North-westerly by lot thirty-four on said plan 77.88-100 feet, West-north-westerly on said plan 64.4-10 feet and Southerly by lots forty and forty-one on said plan 83.4-10 feet.

Said premises will be sold subject to any existing restrictions of record and any liens for taxes or assessments, $200 at time and place of sale. Other terms at sale.

STEPHEN A. POPE,
Assignee and present holder of said mortgage.
Ralph B. McDaniel, Atty.,
60 State St., Boston, Mass.

Mortgagee's Sale of Real Estate

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by William Rooney to Mary H. Steadman, dated Sept. 8th, 1908, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book 3288, Page 589, for breach of the conditions of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction on the premises hereinafter described, on Monday, the twelfth day of April, A. D. 1909, at three o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises in said mortgage described, viz:—A certain parcel of land in the City of Boston, situated on Highland Street, in that part of Newton called West Newton, and bounded and described, viz:—Beginning on the Easterly side of Highland Street at the North-westerly corner of the granted premises, and thence running Easterly and bounded Northerly by land now or late of Pierpont Wise, 152.50 feet in land now or late of Pierpont Wise, thence Northerly and bounded Easterly by said Howard land, 158.87 feet in land now or late of Kempton; thence Westerly and bounded Southerly by said Kempton land, 132.30 feet to said Highland Street; thence Northerly and bounded Westerly by said Highland Street, 207.06 feet to the point of beginning. Containing about 30,000 sq. ft. of land. Said premises will be sold subject to a first mortgage of $6,000, accrued interest thereon, and to any and all unpaid taxes, tax titles or municipal assessments, if any. Terms, $500 at time and place of sale, balance in ten days.

MARY H. STODDARD, Mortgagee.
March thirteenth 1909.
Theodore L. Stoddard, Atty.,
10 Trem

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC.

Newton Free

VOL. XXXVII.—NO. 30.

NEWTON, MASS., FRIDAY, APRIL 16, 1909.

TERMS, $2.00 A YEAR.

First National Bank of West Newton

Capital $100,000

Surplus and Undivided Profits $68,000

Officers

CHARLES E. HATFIELD, President

JOSEPH B. ROSS, Cashier

Directors

Harry L. Burrage
Ernest B. Dane
A. Stuart Pratt

George P. Bullard
Charles A. Potter
George Royal Pulsifer
Edward F. Woods

Alfred L. Barbour
Charles E. Hatfield
Robert W. Williamson

Depository for United States, Commonwealth of Massachusetts and City of Newton

Safe Deposit Vaults for the Storage of Valuables

FIRE
MARINE LIABILITY
PLATE GLASS
BURGLARY
ACCIDENT
LIFE

S. T. EMERY
GENERAL INSURANCE
19 CENTRAL STREET
BOSTON

NEWTON CENTRE
1933 CENTRE STREET
TELEPHONES

Rambler Automobiles

THE CAR FOR COUNTRY ROADS

FOR SALE BY

A. H. WAITT

390 Centre Street

Newton

PHONE 962-2 NEWTON NORTH FOR A DEMONSTRATION

Metropolitan Laundry WATERTOWN, MASS.

H. H. Sawyer, Prop.

Best Work Possible to be Done

Work called for and delivered in all parts of Newton

Write or telephone and team will call

Ladies Tailoring and Millinery

H. WANSKER
(Formerly with J. Edelstein & Co.)
STREET COSTUMES
RIDING HABITS
REPAIRING AND ALTERING

MME. W. KOFFLER
Paris
LATEST FASHIONS
in
MILLINERY

363 Washington Street, Corner Thornton Street, Newton
Telephone 706-1 Newton North

Metropolitan Storage Warehouse Co.

BUILDING ABSOLUTELY FIREPROOF

184 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge, near Harvard Bridge

One of the best equipped warehouses in the country for the storage of Furniture, Pianos, Books, Pictures, and Valuables. Every room practically a large safety vault. Loads taken directly to rooms requiring but one handling.

An inspection of the building and our prices will interest all in want of storage. Telephone, 612 Cambridge.

Patents-Pensions

Patents secured or no fee charged. All kinds of pension claims prosecuted. Call or write Elmer C. Richardson, 37 Tremont St., Boston. Associated with a Washington Patent Attorney.

The "KRAKAUER"

he Piano with a Human Voice

GEORGE LINCOLN PARKER

Successor to Lincoln & Parker

211-213 TREMONT ST., BOSTON

Opp. Hotel Touraine

ROOFING

Slate, Green, Copper and Tin Roofing
Also on Alterations or Repairs
Promptness with Reasonable Prices
Guaranteed

A sample of our Welch slate roofing may be seen on the new house on Dudley Road, Oak Hill District, near the top of the hill.

E. B. BADGER & SONS CO.
63-75 Pitts St., Boston, Mass.

ROUD Ladies' Tailor

420 Boylston St., Boston
Berkley Building
Room 322
Tel. 3159-1 Back Bay
Your inspection of Spring Styles is invited. Tailored Suits $35 up. Suits made from Customers' materials $18 up. Also Garments remodelled, refitted; Pressed and Cleaned

THE MONOGRAM MAN

All the latest designs in BELT BUCKLES on PINS, Mfr. of PINS and MONOGRAMS for all leather goods. Also AUTO MONOGRAMS.

JOHN A. SALMAN
21 Bromfield Street - BOSTON

THE MOST IMPORTANT ARTICLE in a woman's wardrobe today is her corset, and whatever style of dress she may choose it is the corset that shows through it all and expresses her taste and her health. The OSARINA Custom-Made CORSET corrects negligence and compels the wearer to assume a graceful carriage and to avoid the stiff appearance that comes from an ill-fitting corset. This corset comes in all prices. Also a full line of Special Ready-Made CORSETS that will be fitted and altered Free of Charge.

MISS M. STRETCH
48 WINTER ST. Room, 44, BOSTON

SHEPARD LADIES' HATTER

Exclusive designs. Reasonable prices.
296 Boylston Street
F. Joseph Armstrong with A. Shepard, Inc. Opposite Public Gardens

IMPORTANT TO LADIES

For the month of April we will make a $30 tailored suit in the newest and most correct spring styles, made to your measure from all-wool cloths, worsteds, panamas and serges, in plain and fancy stripes, for $15. This order is good only on orders taken in March. Perfect fit and shape guaranteed. Open Tues., Thurs. and Saturday evenings.

S. D. COHEN & CO.
Designers and Ladies' Tailors
694 Washington St., Boston,
Take elevator.

Sun Plaited Skirts AND BUTTONS

made plain or with rim
ACCORDION and KNIFE PLAITS

Mrs. D. A. Inwood.
58 WINTER STREET, BOSTON

ASH BARREL
Extra Strong
$2.00 to $3.00
ASH SIFTERS
Garbage Cans
The Best Makes
$1.25 to $2.50

F. A. WALKER & Co.
83-85 Cornhill, Boston
ESTABLISHED 1825

OPENING AT MCDOWELL'S
25 WINTER STREET, BOSTON
Imported Crinoline Models and Latest Paris Fashions
We will exhibit our new models of SKIRTS, COATS, SUITS, JACKETS AND SHIRT WAISTS
Only place of its kind where ladies are invited to call and try on Crinoline models and see the effect of the garment, patterns for which are on sale.

SADDLE HORSES TO LET

Lessons in Riding

C. M. GILBERT

580 California St., Newtonville
Tel. Newton North 1386-1

A. L. McWHIRTER
Piano Tuner

Res. 45 Irving Street Watertown
Tel. 659-2 of 973.3. Newton North
Experience from May 1896

HALL CLOCKS PRATT

53 Franklin Street, Boston

NEW SHOE FIRM

The Walker Shoe Company, which has recently purchased the shoe business of Mr. E. E. Barnes, Stevens Building, Nonantum Square, Newton, is composed of Messrs. W. O. and T. C. Walker, both well known residents of this city. Mr. W. O. Walker is and has been for many years a manufacturer of men's fine shoes and has a thorough knowledge of the shoe business. The new firm will keep a full line of high grade footwear for men, women, misses and children and intend by courtesy and strict attention to business to satisfy the most exacting of patrons.

It will be the policy of the Walker Shoe Company to so serve the people of Newton that it will become unnecessary to go to Boston for footwear.

S. R. Knights & Co., Office 73 Tremont Street, Boston

Trustee's Auction Sale

ESTATE OF THE LATE D. W. FARQUHAR
Pembroke and Durant Streets
NEWTON

Will be sold by Public Auction, on the premises, Monday, April 26th at 4 o'clock p. m. Modern house, 5 rooms on first floor, 10 chambers, bath and toilets on second and third floors. Slat roof, copper gutters. Lot of 19,000 to 28,500 feet as wanted. Particulars of J. W. French, 73 Tremont Street, Boston, or Auctioneers.

FERNALD & SQUIRE

1105 Tremont Building, Boston

Real Estate

in the Newtons and Auburndale.
New properties being listed daily.

Let us serve YOU

Residence Telephone Newton West 874-3

BLANCHARD KING & CO

250 Boylston Street
Boston

In his neckties and in his shirts a man may permit himself to revel in color—though the rest of his raiment must be sober as a wren's.

In our ENGLISH CRAVATS you will find not only the fetching new tans, but an array of blues, greens, lavenders and mixtures—from the quietest to the most vivid.

There is, if anything, a still greater variety in SCOTCH MADRAS SHIRT FABRICS. We have—but words fail us to describe them. A visit to our shop will gratify your color sense.

Tel. 545-2 Newton No.

Miss MacCONNELL

Hair Dressing, Face Treatment
Manicure, Chirophy, Toilet Articles
Nails, Warts and Superfluous Hair Removed
429 CENTRE STREET
Over Hubbard's Pharmacy

My Newtonville Office

As successor to Turner & Williams I shall carry on their business at 90 Powers street, where my representative will endeavor to give your patronage the most careful attention. Together with my Newton office I shall be in a more able position to handle Newton properties and currently solicit the care of your estate, no matter where situated in the Newtons.

WEST NEWTON

Very attractive 8-room house, hardwood floors, open plumbing, 3 fireplaces, 7,500 feet land, fine location. Actually mortgaged for $5,000. Now can be purchased far below assessment for $4,000. This house is in first-class condition and is a great sacrifice at the above price, photo at office.

DESIRABLE LAND

Situated in Newton, Newtonville, Newton Centre, Newton Highlands, West Newton Hillside and in fact every Newton village. Over 500 parcels listed. Consult me if you wish to build.

NEWTONS—TO LET

Everything That Is Available

John T. Burns, Real Estate

363 Centre Street Newton
90 Bowers Street Newtonville
331 Wash. Street Brighton

DEPOSITORS' AFFAIRS STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL

The board of directors in considering loans, investments and other matters, regard them all as strictly confidential business of the Trust Company.

Clerks are absolutely enjoined from betraying the slightest detail of any business passing through the offices.

NEW CURRENCY ALWAYS USED IN CASHING CHECKS

Accounts Invited

NEWTON TRUST CO.

OFFICES

Bank Building
Newton, Mass.

Bray Block
Newton Centre, Mass.

Newton.

—Cut flowers and potted plants at Lane's, Wash'n st. Tel. 694-4 No. 11.

—"Guaranteed Sox." Six pairs guaranteed to wear 6 mos. 25c per pair, J. McCammon.

—Mrs. Henry A. Nealley of Garden road entertained the Neighborhood Circle of West Newton at her home Monday afternoon.

—Dr. H. C. Spencer was one of the ushers at the recent wedding of his brother, Lieut. Theodore K. Spencer, to Miss Mildred Gammons at the First Congregational church, Chelsea.

—Mr. and Mrs. William T. Rich gave a pretty party last Monday evening at their home on Sargent street in honor of their son William's birthday. A number of young people were present and games were enjoyed, followed by refreshments.

—Channing Alliance held its annual meeting on Tuesday morning in the church parlors. The annual reports showed that good work had been done during the year. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Miss Jessie M. Fishson; vice-president, Mrs. M. W. Simpson; Mrs. F. A. Wetherbee; Mrs. J. W. McIntyre; recording secretary, Miss Helen L. Wells; corresponding secretary, Mrs. A. W. Blakemore; treasurer, Miss Harriet W. Stevens; auditor, Miss Maud B. Henry; director for three years, Miss Minnie R. Wheeler. Luncheon was served by a committee of ladies under the direction of Mrs. J. F. Bothfeld. The after-luncheon program included greetings from Mrs. Arthur Robbins, president of the Belmont Alliance Branch, and from Mrs. W. H. Alline, of the Branch of the Second church, Boston, and readings by Mrs. A. C. Cummings. Rev. A. L. Hudson concluded exercises with brief remarks upon the special work of the Alliance in the churches and the opportunities that lie before Unitarians. The Alliance has lost five members by death during the year, Mrs. Charles Newell, Mrs. Frank Owen, Miss Susan J. Bailey, Mrs. C. H. Stone, and Mrs. John Stetson. In recognition of their services Channing Branch has contributed to the Memorial Fund of the National Alliance to place their names upon the Memorial List.

MR. S. S. WHITNEY DEAD

Mr. Samuel S. Whitney, one of the best known members of the Grand Army in this city, died Monday morning at the Baptist hospital in Rox-

Are You Ready?

The Photographic Season is at hand. Let us help you double the pleasure of the out-door days.

We cordially invite your attention.

Largest and Best Stock of Eastman Camera and Kodak Goods in Newton.

KODAKS, $5.00 and upwards.
BROWNIE CAMERAS, $1.00 to $12.00
Everything Photographic.

F. A. HUBBARD, 425 Centre St., Newton

Dille, The Corsetiere

149A Tremont Street, Room 21, Boston

offers to the readers of The Graphic a stock of corsets, the regular prices of which have been $2, $3 and $4.50. Mme Dille will make a special price of $1, $1.50 and $2 on the lot for April. Every corset to be fitted by an expert and all alterations to be made free of charge.

PLANTS AT AUCTION TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS

Hardy Roses, Shrubs and Fancy Evergreens for Tubs and Lawns

N. F. MCCARTHY & CO., AUCTIONEERS

84 HAWLEY STREET, BOSTON

bury after a long illness, with spinal trouble. Mr. Whitney was one of the most enthusiastic and devoted members of Charles Ward Post, 62, G. A. R., serving as commander in 1889-90 and again in 1895-96, as post adjutant for many years and at the time of his death was post, historian and engaged upon a comprehensive history of the Post. He was born in Dedham, January 14, 1848, and educated in the Natick High school and at Allen's West Newton Classical school and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. At the age of 16 he enlisted in Co. A, 60th Mass. Vol. and served 100 days as a drummer boy. For many years he was a gauger in the U. S. Internal Revenue service, became city almoner of Newton in 1894 and agent of the board of health in 1898. In 1899 he resigned from his city office and re-entered the revenue service. For the past two years he has been in ill health, entering the hospital last fall.

He is survived by a widow, who was formerly Miss Margaret Wallace of Springfield, O., a son Leighton and a daughter, Maude. Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon, with prayers at his late home, on Elmwood street, Newton, at two o'clock, and services at G. A. R. Hall, Newtonville, at three o'clock.

Here, amid associations which he loved, a large number of friends, including many members of Charles Ward Post, gathered to pay their last tribute of respect. The services consisted of reading of scriptures and remarks by Rev. H. Grant Person, pastor of Eliot church, followed by the beautiful burial service of the Grand Army. This impressive service was performed by Commander Reid, Chaplain S. P. Putnam and Comrades, Hosea Hyde, A. T. Sylvester and Henry Haynie. A splendid eulogy was given by Chaplain Putnam. There was singing of "Lead, Kindly Light" and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," by Miss Louise Chisholm, soprano, and Mrs. M. Millie Beardsley, contralto, a solo, "One Sweetly Solenn Thought," by Miss Chisholm and Miss Grace English, violinist played the "Traumerel." At the close of the service taps were sounded by the bugler of Co. C, 5th Regiment. The interment was in the Soldiers' lot at the Newton cemetery.

Established 1860

JAMES I. WINGATE & SON

Painters & Decorators
402 BOYLSTON ST., BOSTON

We solicit an opportunity to demonstrate our ability to quote satisfactory prices on

Exterior Painting
Interior Painting
Hardwood Finishing
Ceilings, Etc., Etc.
Wall papers and Draperies
Furniture and Hardwood Floors
Rugs and Carpets

Secure our Estimates before placing your orders
Special designs without charge

J. MURRAY QUINBY

206 Waverley Ave.
NEWTON REPRESENTATIVE
Telephone 491-1 N. N.

RAINBOW DYES

Something new—One Dye for all fabrics

FOR HOME USE, 10c PACKAGE

LANE'S 285 Washington Street, Newton

WANTED

WANTED—Second Hand Furniture of all kinds. Spot cash and fair prices paid. Good bargains always to be had in New and Second Hand Furniture at The Furniture Exchange, 683 Main St., Waltham (next to gas office).

S. R. KNIGHTS & CO., AUCTIONEERS, Office 73 Tremont St., Boston.

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE IN WEST NEWTON.

By license of the Probate Court of the County of Middlesex in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, dated March 22d, 1909, the subscriber, executor of the last will of J. Upham Smith, late of Newton in said County of Middlesex, deceased, will sell at public auction on the premises on Tuesday, the twenty-seventh day of April, 1909, current, the following described parcels of land, namely:—

First:

At 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

A parcel of land, with the buildings thereon, situated on the Southwesterly side of River Street, in the part of said Newton called West Newton, near the corner of said River Street and Lexington Street, containing about 2500 sq. ft. of land, and bounded as follows:—Northerly by said River Street about fifty (50) feet; Southerly by land of Kenney about fifty (50) feet; Southwesterly by land of Dugan about fifty (50) feet; and Northwesterly by land of McNamara about fifty (50) feet.

Secondly:

At 3:15 o'clock in the afternoon.

A parcel of land, with the buildings thereon, situated on Smith Court near River Street in West Newton, containing about 16,000 sq. ft. of land, and bounded as follows:—Northerly by said Smith Court by two lines about two hundred fifty (250) feet; Easterly by land of Kenney about seventy (70) feet; Southerly by land of Quinn by the end of Ryan Court and by land of Carey about two hundred fifty (250) feet; Westerly by another parcel of land belonging to the estate of J. Upham Smith about forty (40) feet.

Also, a parcel of land, with the buildings thereon, situated at the end of said Smith Court in West Newton, containing about 4000 sq. ft. of land, and bounded as follows:—Easterly by the end of said Court and by other land belonging to the estate of J. Upham Smith; Southerly by land now or late of Curley; Westerly by land now or late of Nickerson and Northerly by land of Gallagher and Nickerson.

Also, a parcel of land at the West corner of said River Street and Smith Court, containing about 2,500 sq. ft. of land, bounded Northerly by said River Street about forty-five (45) feet; Southerly by said Smith Court about fifty-five (55) feet; Westerly by land of Gallagher about forty (40) feet and Northerly by land of Gallagher about forty-five (45) feet.

Thirdly:

At 3:45 o'clock in the afternoon.

A parcel of land situated on and near Cherry Street in said West Newton, containing about 22,345 sq. ft. of land, and bounded as follows:—Northerly by said Cherry Street about one hundred (100) feet; Southerly by land of Trefry about two hundred (200) feet; Northwesterly by land now or late of Nickerson formerly of Mague about two hundred fifteen (215) feet; Northerly by land of Grady about one hundred fifteen (115) feet; Southwesterly by land of Gaud about forty-five (45) feet; Southwesterly by land of Costello about twenty-five (25) feet; Southerly by said land of Costello about fifty (50) feet; Northerly by said land of Costello about one hundred twenty-five (125) feet.

Fourthly:

At 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

A parcel of land, with the buildings thereon, situated on the Northerly side of Watertown Street in said West Newton, containing 8 acres and 38,860 sq. ft. of land, and bounded as follows:—Southerly by said Watertown Street about eight hundred (800) feet; Southwesterly by land of Furbush about four hundred twenty-five (425) feet; Northerly by two lines by land of Eliza A. Potter about three hundred seventy-five (375) feet; Westerly by said land of Potter about four hundred thirty (430) feet; Northerly by land of Amory about two hundred fifty (250) feet; and Easterly by land of Wells about four hundred ten (410) feet.

$500 will be required to be paid at the time and place of sale by the purchaser of the parcel last described and $50 by the purchaser of each of the other parcels.

LAWRENCE BOND, Executor of the will of J. UPHAM SMITH, Old South Building, Boston, Mass., April 3d, 1909.

Dentists.

DR. S. F. CHASE DENTIST

Dennison Building, Washington Street
Corner Walnut, Newtonville
Careful and thorough operating in all branches.
New Method for Artificial Teeth

REAL ESTATE
ROBINSON
NOTARY PUBLIC MORTGAGES
INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE
145 NEWVILLE MASS.

HIGHLY FLAVORED AROMATIC TOOTH PICKS

These and druggists recommend toothpick as a preventive against dental decay and as a means of removing food from between the teeth. These picks are made of the finest material and are highly flavored. They are sold in packages of ten and twenty. We are the largest manufacturers of toothpicks in the country.

FILL OUT COUPON BELOW and get list for list of postage and drug prices every where.

AROMATIC TOOTH PICK CO.
184 Summer St., Boston, Mass., Dept. 6
Please send me full list of 100 AROMATIC TOOTH PICKS.
Name.....
Address.....
Druggist's Name.....
My Address.....

THE COBB EASTMAN COMPANY

SUMMER FURNITURE

Willow-ware and tattan in beautiful patterns in tans, green silver-gray and natural, with taffeta and cretonne cushions in new designs.

Mission Furniture in fumed oak in our own and Craftsman patterns.
New taffetas and cretonnes in domestic and foreign designs all ready for inspection.

372-378 BOYLSTON STREET, BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS
101 PARK AVENUE, NEW YORK

SOCIAL EDUCATION

BY NEWBOLD HAZARD

Author of the Human Limit

(Copyright 1909 by Edwin Chase Merrill)

(Continued from last week)

One of the more common examples where the social instinct is prostituted for the preservation and aggrandizement of self, is the modern method of salesmanship tolerated and often encouraged by so-called respectable business houses. Competition may be the life of trade, but in this strenuous age, it is carried to that point where it results in dishonest living.

According to some modern methods of thinking, a living life is preferable to a dead truth. This appears to be sound logic to some thinkers through their distorted mode of reasoning, only. Narrow minds often have very peculiar view-points. In reality, a truth never dies; for it always relates to some attribute of life, itself; while the lie always kills in the end, and thereby becomes a part of death.

The "cracker-jack" salesman is not only a cracker of jokes, but he often acts the part of a consummate jack. He has his yarns all carefully catalogued to suit every shade of morality, and he draws from his miscellaneous store to get into harmony with his customers. The greater his success in breaking through the reserve of a sober business mind, the higher goes the price of his goods. His unpardonable sin is narrating the wrong joke at the right time. He is genial, apparently filled to the brim with royal good-fellowship, and his smile beams forth with a stamp of genuine friendship. When harmony is once established, it is quite easy to lie about the quality of his goods, the time of probable delivery, and the completeness of his stock on hand; and he forgets that Time tells the story true. The energy of his social nature is used for a purpose that is ultimately selfish, and the daily assumption of this false position poisons all his other social relations. When good nature is forced to simulate what it does not really feel, it reacts upon itself. When this type of salesman is thus false to himself, the initial reaction comes after the customer's back is turned: he laughs in fiendish glee at his victim's gullibility. The goods must be sold, however, to pay a salesman's salary, and his fear of losing that, induces him to stoop to any means of self-preservation; and once launched upon such a course, he often becomes so puffed up with his selfish importance that he finally enjoys the egotistical feeling aroused.

A "slick" salesman of this well-known species uses both the forces of harmony and suggestion, which are the two leading principles of the practice known as hypnotism. The class of salesman whom this description covers, are full-fledged hypnotists in every sense of the term, so far as selling goods is concerned. If they could apply these principles to the bank and file, as well as to their customers, they would make star stage performers and make everybody laugh with them at the ridiculous antics of the poor fools who took stock in their inflated representations.

The hypnotist, who poses as such, is one who prostitutes his social nature for selfish purposes. This definition accounts for the public disfavor in which these so-called "professors" are held. They usually have a small private following, however, among seers after the marvelous. Even these disciples secretly doubt and despise the claims of their leaders.

The world is full of both male and female hypnotists, who do not consciously pose as such; and they are called by various uncouth names. Shall we blame them? Most assuredly, no. They are the natural result of diseased social conditions, and the almost universal ignorance of the principles of social psychology. We must blame the prevailing systems of education. These systems have many serious charges against them.

Let us follow one of these professional salesmen, who succeeds in the manner just described, outside of the field of his operations. Let us go home with him to his own fireside, upon one of those rare intervals when he actually arrives there—for like attracts like. His social nature is tired, having been drawn upon all day for business purposes, and he finds it very hard to use it legitimately. He is dictatorial to his wife, and cross to his children. He is nauseated by much loud laughter, and many winning smiles that really mean nothing to him but selfishness. He wants to doze in his chair, or read, or anything to forget the hollowness of the idea that mankind is a brotherhood—a point of view which he is daily forced to assume, although in his heart he knows better.

If a neighbor calls, he may warm up a little by an effort, (for he knows the art of entertaining), but the patient, long-suffering wife and his soul-hungry children creep into the background of discord until their lord and master sallies forth the next day in faultless attire to sell the warmth of his nature that he has withheld from his dear ones. Neighbors? What use are they to him? He cannot afford to waste his precious energies on people who are not prospective customers. He earns too large a salary to associate with the common herd. His importance must be impressed upon everybody in order to maintain his right to domestic misery and false social relations that breed disease amid the foulness of a mis-spent life.

He will even condescend to own, when among his kind, that he is a victim to necessary business customs and rails against the irony of his fate. There comes a time, also, when a remedy would be welcome; but it is then too late, he argues. This kind are always cowards at heart and easily discouraged.

Any observant citizen can see this type of salesman on every hand. They all succeed in making money, but it slips as easily through their fingers; and too many fill the graves of the drunkard and pauper. Their woman-kind, peering in insane asylums and their children are burdens upon the state, for this phase of social disease breeds and fosters the criminal nature. This class of salesman, represents but one extreme out of three types. We will proceed to examine the other two.

(To be continued.)

NEWTON FREE LIBRARY

List of New Books

BENSON, Edward Frederic. The Climber. B443 cl
BLANCHARD, Gilbert Ella. A Journey of Joy. J1532 j
CHESTERTON, Gilbert Keith. Gilbert K. Chesterton: a criticism. ZYA.42
GARRISON, Wendell Phillips. Letters and Memorials of Wendell Phillips Garrison, Literary Editor of "The Nation," 1865-1906. Y.G193 l
HOPMAN, Frank Sargent. The Sphere of Religion: a consideration of its nature and of its influence upon the progress of civilization. BR.H675
LOWES, Emily Leigh. Chaucer's Life and Needlework. WUL.135
LOWNDERS, Marie Adelaide Belloc. The Pulse of Life. L9549 p
NOYES, Ella. The Story of Milan; illustrated by Dora Noyes. (The Medieval Town series.) F36M.N
PORTER, Arthur Kingsley. Medieval Architecture, its Origins and Development; with lists of monuments and bibliographies. 2 vols. WF13.P83
RAWLINGS, Gertrude Burford. Coins and how to know them. FN.R19
RITCHIE, Anne Isabella Thackeray. Blackstock Papers. Y.R511
SAWYER, Edith Augusta. The Christ-mas Maker's Club. J821 c
SCOTT, A. MacCallum. Through Pin-land. G537.S42
SEABURY, J. B. The Vision of a Short Life: a memorial of Warren Bartlett Seabury, one of the founders of the Yale Mission College in China. ES.4383.S
SOARES, Theodore Gerald. Heroes of Israel; text of the hero stories with notes and questions for young students. CXX.567 h STANDAGE, H. C. Decoration of Metal, Wood, Glass, etc.: a book for manufacturers, mechanics, painters, decorators, and all workmen in the fancy trades. RZS.578
SWETT, Sophie Miriam. Princess Winda. J8975 pr
WELLS, Herbert George. Tono-Bungay. W1636 pr
WHIPPLE, Wayne. The Story-Life of Lincoln. EL.638.Wp

WOLASTON, A. F. R. From Ru-wenzel to the Congo: a naturalist's journey across Africa. (173.W83
April 14, 1909.

THEATRES

Hollis Street Theatre.—Commencing Monday matinee, April 19, Marie Cahill comes for a limited engagement, presenting her newest offering, "The Boys and Betty," described as an unusual musical play, with book and lyrics by George V. Hobart and music by Silvio Heli. In addition to the fact that the comedienne has probably secured the best play in her stellar career, she has this season been surrounded with a rather remarkable company. The cast supporting includes Eugene Cowles, the famous basso so long associated with the Bostonians; Harriet Burt, Sam B. Hardy, William G. Stewart, James B. Carson, Wallace McCutcheon, Jr., Macey Harlam, Edward Earle, Anna Mooney and Marguerite Binford. Miss Cahill's chorus girls have always been out of the ordinary, both from the standpoint of good looks and ability to wear stunning costumes, and it is said that this year there is no exception to the rule. The comedienne will have a number of new song hits to offer, the titles of which are suggestive of the Cahill style of entertainment.

Kelth's Theatre.—Those who have laughed over "From Zaza to Uncle Tom," which has been played over 600 times by William H. Murphy and Blanche Nichols, will welcome something new from this pair of favorites. It is called "A School of Acting," and is a satire, poking fun at stage struck youths and maidens, whose wealthy parents are willing to back them in theatrical enterprises and the finish is the biggest laughing sensation now in vaudeville. Other big features will be Marie Dalton, "A Night With The Poets." Also on the bill is that old time favorite, Gus Williams, the original of the German comedians and who is today brighter and more up-to-date than ever. Also on the bill will be Clifford and Burke in a black face specialty; Wornwood's Animals; Josephine Davis; the Yamamoto Brothers; Alba and others.

Orpheum Theatre.—A glance at the bill next week will easily convince any theatre-goer that there has been nothing like it ever before placed before a Boston audience. To begin with there is George Primrose the most famous Minstrel of them all and conceded to be America's most graceful dancer. And in head-line feature will be that inimitable creator of comedy characters, Katie Barry. She will present next week an entirely new production which suits her perhaps better than anything in which she has appeared. Lovers of animals will be delighted with the offering of Alf. W. Loyal with his comedy dogs. The musical end of the program will be contributed to by Eugenio Torre, the celebrated operatic tenor from the Metropolitan Opera Company. The American Rosebuds, the Austin Brothers will be seen in a whirlwind of original fooleries, the Three Saytons will present their wonderful alligator stunt and other star acts will complete the truly remarkable bill.

Boston Theatre.—Frederic Thompson's notable scenic melodrama, "Via Wireless," which opened at the Boston Theatre for an extended engagement last Monday evening, exhibited two examples of novel and effective stage mechanism which were in all respects the most impressive ever displayed in connection with any play seen in Boston. The first of the two great scenes is laid in the forging room of the Durant Steel Works at Pittsburg, where a huge gun is lifted from the furnace and plunged into the oil bath in full sight of the audience. The other great scene depicts a hurricane at sea with a huge liner tossing on the waves, bent on rescuing a wrecked yacht, from which has been sent by wireless telegraphy an appeal for help. The play is provided with a story of love and villainy, but its action is of a quiet and subdued order and is wholly devoid of the sensational "thrillers" which generally pervade the melodrama of the present day stage. Regular matinees are on Wednesdays and Saturdays. There will be a special matinee on Monday (Patriots' Day).

A HAPPY EXPERIENCE

The Editor of the Newton Graphic:—The long and well known Renaissance Polytechnic Institute at Troy, N. Y., recently began making a collection of pictures, as many as possible, photographs, etc., of its graduates, from its beginning in 1824. S. Edward Warren, C. E., long connected, as student or professor, with the Institute, 1850-1872, recently sent to the Institute a three-quarter size crayon portrait. This was so much admired that he had a second one made for himself.

S. E. W.

A BOSTON BANK ACCOUNT

The American Trust Company accepts deposits by mail, thereby enabling persons residing outside of the city to have a bank account in Boston without being required to visit the bank in person. It is the aim of the management to render the highest degree of personal service, prompt attention being given to the requirements of out-of-town patrons.

Please write for our booklet which contains full information concerning our facilities.

American Trust Company

53 State Street, Boston, Mass.

Capital $1,000,000 Surplus (Earned) $1,800,000

OFFICERS

R. G. FESSENDEN, President
J. C. HOWE, Vice President C. H. BOWEN, Secretary
J. J. OLDFIELD, Treasurer G. W. AURYANSEN, Asst. Sec.
A. D. AURYANSEN, Asst. Sec.

MCKENNEY & WATERBURY COMPANY.
Designers, Manufacturers and Dealers of ELECTRIC GAS and OIL FIXTURES
for Place and
THE LIGHT WORLD
181 Franklin St., Boston, Mass.
6th CONGRESS STREET.

LADIES

Wishing a Desirable and Stylish Hat

—BUY AT—

GRACE'S New Millinery Store

156 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass.

FARRINGTON

FLOOR FINISH

Few
Modern Houses
Use Carpets

Hardwood floors and rugs are preferable. Most people dislike hardwood because it is slippery. That is the fault of the finish.

Ask any physician of the danger to the aged, the constant nervous strain upon the agile and the risk to children of slippery waxed floors. We can cite the cases of a hospital nurse, broken arm; child of five, permanent spinal injury; aged lady who made afternoon call at wax floor house, fatal shock.

Farrington Floor Finish Is Never Slippery

It dries instantly. Is odorless. Has just the right gloss and is easy to apply. Anyone can use it.

Order of your own dealer or sent express prepaid.

$2.50 Per Gallon
on receipt of price

Booklet sent free on request.

FARRINGTON COMPANY
MANUFACTURING CHEMISTS
15 STATE ST. BOSTON, MASS.

ELECTED

The favorite candidate in any coffee contest. Honest way through; before the public many years; never a fault to its discredit; never a change or variation in its highest-grade quality.

FOR SALE BY
THE BEST DEALERS

A Boston Bank Account

There are many conveniences in having a Boston bank account

There is also the advantage of being personally known to a strong metropolitan Bank.

You can easily open an account with us by mail. Send your check or money order, payable to this company, and we will send you a check book, and each month a statement of your account. Interest allowed on deposits.

Request by postal card will bring further information. Or, if you are in town, call in and talk with us.

City Trust Company
50 STATE STREET, BOSTON, MASS.

Are You About to Make a Will and Appoint Executors and Trustees, or to Create Trusts Operative During Your Lifetime?

This company offers its services through its Trust Department, which is now entrusted with the care of over $12,500,00 of property held by the Company as Executor, Trustee and Attorney.

Boston Safe Deposit and Trust Company
87 MILK STREET, BOSTON

Goodyear Rubber House
24 School Street Boston
Tel. Main 840

BANKS

NEWTON SAVINGS BANK.

BANK BUILDING, NEWTON, MASS.

INCORPORATED 1881.

Business Hours, 9 to 3, Saturdays, 9 to 1.

Total Assets last Quarter's Statement.

January 9th, 1909 $6,213,952.03

Quarter Days the TENTH of January, April, July and October. Dividends are payable not before January 17 and July 17.

TRUSTEES:

John Ward, Samuel M. Jackson, Francis Murdock, Charles T. Pilsifer, William C. Strong, Eugene Fanning, B. Franklin Bacon, Samuel Farquhar, G. Fred Simpson, Edmund T. Wiswall, Thomas W. Proctor, William F. Bacon, Bernard Barry, Henry E. Bothfeld and William F. Harbach.

BOARD OF INVESTMENT:

Charles T. Pilsifer, Francis Murdock, Henry E. Bothfeld, William F. Harbach.

The Board meets every Tuesday afternoon to consider applications for loans.

CHARLES T. PILSIFER, President.
ADOLPHUS J. BLANCHARD, Treasurer.

WALTHAM SAVINGS BANK

702 Main Street, Waltham

Assets March 20, 1909, $4,183,509.35

Deposits begin to draw interest from the first day of January, April, July and October; and deposits made on any of the three business days immediately following the first day of said months are treated, in computing dividends as having been made on the first day and will share in the next following dividend if remaining on deposit on the dividend date.

Dividends are payable on the second Wednesday of April and October.

Board of Investment

Henry N. Fisher, Enos F. Luce, Nathan Warren, Charles O. Morrill, Thomas H. Armstrong.

The Board meets every Monday at 4.30 P. M. to consider applications for loans.

GEORGE R. BEAL, Treasurer

BUY AN ADJUSTED

DOC MUZZLE

for 25c, 50c and 75c of

D. J. MAHONEY, Harnessmaker

Waterloo Square

Mfr. of Fine Harness and Dealer in Ready Made Harnesses, Robes, Blankets, Whips, Etc.

A Baker Hanged

In the year 1600 B. C. Pharoah had his baker hanged for using bad flour.

Russell's Regular

would have saved his life. There has been no better flour made these 3500 years.

A REVELATION TO BREAD MAKERS

FOR SALE BY

GAWN WILSON, Newton
F. H. FRANKLIN, Newton
E. E. FORSYTH, Newton
NAN HATTAN, M.T., Newton
NONANTUM, M.T., Newton
REES & BERNIER, Newton
FRED L. COOK, West Newton
P. T. LARKIN, West Newton
RICHARDSON'S M.T., Newton Centre
J. D. Satchelder & Co., 29 John St., Boston, Distributing Agents

ELLIS BROS., Newton Centre
JAMES A. BARKLY, Lower Falls
RICHARDSON'S M.T., Newton Highlands
JOHN HEAL, Newtonville
M. P. MCKINNON, Newtonville
E. W. CONANT, Waban
FRANK W. BRIDGES, Auburndale
FRANK HOLT, Auburndale

OUR ICE CREAM

is made from Pure Cream, that is why we like to sell it.

Our Sherberts are Delicious

TORRE'S

Tel. 732-1 Newton North

ALL ORDERS CHEERFULLY DELIVERED. 338 CENTRE STREET, NEWTON

Newton.

—Dutch Clip for children. Fell Bros., Washington street, opp. Bank. U.

—Miss Olive Boyd of Washington street is home from an extended southern trip.

—Arch Supports made to fit your arch. One dollar per pair. J. McCammon. U.

—Special rates to large estates on papering and painting. J. W. Blakey & Co., 713-2 North. U.

—Mrs. A. A. Roff of Troy, New York, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Elliot of Maple street.

—Mrs. D. F. Barber and the Misses Barber of Newtonville avenue have returned from a trip to New York.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Traiser and Miss Traiser of Kenrick street return this week from a trip through the South.

—Miss Clara Cushman leaves Tuesday for Los Angeles, Cal., and will sail on Sunday, May 2 from San Francisco for China.

—Mr. Frank O. Stetson of Park street will make his future home with his cousins, the Misses Owen on Vernon street.

—Mrs. Edwin A. Whitney of Maple street entertained the Freedman's Aid at her home on Maple street last Wednesday afternoon.

—Mr. Fred A. Hubbard of Hollis street returned the first of the week from Tampa, Fla., where he attended the funeral of his brother.

—Rev. George Hale Reed of Belmont will occupy the pulpit of Channing church next Sunday morning in exchange with the pastor.

—Mr. and Mrs. Eben H. Ellison of Vernon street will have the sympathy of their friends in the death of their infant daughter on Monday.

—A meeting of the Helpers will be held this afternoon in the parlors of Eliot church. The topic to be considered is "Prince Siddartha and His Followers."

—Mr. Winthrop B. Allen of Park street was a member of the committee of arrangements for the series of tableaux given by the Copley Society in Copley hall, Boston, last Monday evening.

—Prof. H. H. Powers, president of the Bureau of University Travel, with Mrs. Powers and a party of 35 tourists sail Saturday from Boston on the Romanic of the White Star line for a tour of southern Europe.

—At the Seaman's Friend Society on Hanover street last Tuesday evening the Eliot church choir gave an entertainment before a large and appreciative audience. A number of interested friends from here were present.

—Mr. Herbert Whitcomb and Miss Mary Whitcomb of Centre street leave the last of the week for Moganett, where they will stay over the holiday. Miss Pearl Whitcomb is spending her vacation in Washington, D. C.

—The regular meeting of the Tuesday Club was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. Marcus Morton on Highland avenue, Newtonville. Mr. Thomas Weston read an interesting paper on "The Battle of Bunker Hill."

—The Union Good Friday service held at Eliot church last Friday evening was largely attended. Rev. Dr. O. P. Gifford of Brookline made the address and the pastors of the other local churches participated in the exercises.

—At Eliot church next Sunday morning Rev. H. Grant Person will preach a sermon to young people. In the afternoon Rev. Adelbert L. Hudson of Channing church will speak at the monthly visitation of neighboring clergymen.

—A successful cake, candy and flower sale was held in the parlors of Eliot church last Saturday afternoon. The tables were prettily decorated and the Eliot aids were assisted in the sale by Miss Eleanor Nichols and a number of other ladies.

—At the morning service at Grace church on Sunday a handsome silver alms basin for the church, appropriately engraved, was given by Miss Charlotte L. Bullens in memory of her father, the late George S. Bullens, who was for many years a warden of the church.

—The Entertainment Club will present Marie J. Warren's 3-act comedy, "The Elopement of Ellen," in the Channing church parlors next Wednesday evening. A strong cast of characters has been secured and the play will be presented under the direction of Mr. Henry P. Curtiss.

—The Union meeting of the Women's Missionary Societies held at the Immanuel Baptist church Wednesday afternoon was in the interests of the home department and the Cradle Roll department of the Bible school. Mrs. Florence Sears Ware of Worcester was present and made an address.

—A meeting of the Woman's Association was held Tuesday afternoon in the parlors of Eliot church. The home missionary department was in charge and Rev. William Ewing, missionary secretary of the Congregational Sunday School and Publishing Society, spoke on "Helping to Shape a New State."

Coffee

FREE DELIVERY

Tea

Sign of Big Tea Kettle
Greatest Variety and Finest Stock of Teas and Coffees in the World
Retail at Wholesale Prices

No State Packages. Your Order Filled with Fresh Roasted Coffee or New Crop Tea
ORIENTAL MALE HERRY JA VA
Best in the World

Oriental Tea Company

Importers and Retailers
ESTABLISHED IN 1868 AT
87 Court St., Scollay Sq., Boston
SEND FOR PRICE LIST

FOR MEN WHO CARE

The Waukerz Shoe

WILL PROVE THE MOST SATISFACTORY SHOE YOU EVER WORE

- 1st. The styles are absolutely correct and up-to-date.
- 2d. The materials are the very best which can be bought.
- 3d. The workmanship is the highest example of "shoe art."
- 4th. The fitting qualities are perfect.

You will never know all-round foot comfort until you wear the "Waukerz" Shoe

All Leathers for All Weathers

SOLD BY

The Walker Shoe Co., Newton Mass.

TELEPHONE CONNECTION

Newton.

—Telephone MacLean, 384-2 North, for all carpenter work. U.

—Comfortable Shoes and Men's furnishings at J. McCammon's. U.

—Mr. F. H. Burt of Charlesbank road is back from a business trip to New York.

—Mr. William F. Hammett of Sargent street is back from a business trip to Wisconsin.

—See the moderate price bathroom set in our window. Gallagher Bros., 413 Centre street. U.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Hersom of Centre street moved yesterday to their future home in Dover.

—Mrs. C. S. Emmons and Miss Dorothy Emmons of Bennington street are back from a short visit in Lexington.

—Dr. and Mrs. George Cutler return soon from an outing in California and will open their house on Hunnewell Hill.

—Mr. Herbert A. Wilder and his sister, Miss Esther Wilder of Fairmount avenue return this week from a trip to Florida and other southern points.

—Rev. Dr. Laurens MacLure of church street leaves Monday for a trip to Pittsburg. On Wednesday he will officiate at the wedding of some friends in that city.

—The Ladies' Benevolent Society of the Immanuel Baptist church will hold a chafing dish social at the home of Mrs. S. L. Durgin, 45 Arlington street, next Wednesday evening.

—Mrs. Samuel L. Powers of Arlington street is among the patronesses for the concert to be given this evening in Steiner hall, Boston, by the Dartmouth college clubs.

—Mr. Leverett B. Merrill of the Eliot church quartet was among the soloists at the rendering of Gounod's "Redemption," by the Handel and Haydn Society in Symphony hall Sunday evening.

—Messdames William R. Dewey, Frank A. Day, F. A. Pickens, Sidney Harwood, S. L. Powers, H. G. Pratt, Edward Sawyer, A. R. Wood and G. M. Wood were among the patronesses for the Hale House Matinee held in Boston Monday afternoon.

—Mr. Archer Gibson, who has given several recitals at Eliot church during the past three years, has resigned as organist of the Brick Presbyterian church in New York. Mr. Gibson is also private organist for Henry C. Frick, W. D. Sloan and Charles M. Schwab.

—Mr. William Caven Barron and Miss Ethel Maud Tomlinson will give an Evening of Sacred Story in Music and Speech at the Methodist church on Sunday evening. Mr. Barron will play his own compositions on the piano and Miss Tomlinson will read "The Other Wise Man," by Henry Van Dyke.

—The regular meeting of the William H. Davis Club was held Tuesday evening in the parlors of Eliot church. The guest of the club was Mr. Melville C. Freeman of Malden, who gave an interesting and instructive address on "Napoleon." He described the life of the great leader from his early boyhood to his death giving most vivid word pictures of the battles and other great events which happened during his career. The annual banquet of the club will take place May 10th.

—The armory at Washington street and Centre place received a scorching Tuesday noon, when a fire started on the south side of the roof, presumably from locomotive sparks. A pedestrian saw the brisk blaze and sent in an alarm from box 117 in front of the building. When the firemen arrived the bell in the tower at the Centre place side of the armory was still ringing the alarm. The firemen scaled the roof and tore up several feet of shingles and roofing near the ridgepole. The damage amounted to about $100.

Schools and Teachers.

THE ALMON WALTHAM ORCHESTRA

(Fifth consecutive year at Mt. Ida School. Over 300 consecutive Saturday Evening Concerts at C. S. Cobb Co's Dept Store.)
MUSIC FOR ALL OCCASIONS
Address

14 Fiske Avenue, Waltham, Mass.

L. EDWIN CHASE

TEACHER OF

Violin and Mandolin

BEST METHODS

Warner Building, Newton

VOCAL AND

VIOLIN INSTRUCTION

(Belgium Bowling)

MRS. MARCUS G. HALEY

9 PARK STREET, NEWTON

A. H. HANDLEY

MUSIC For All Occasions

105 OAKLEIGH ROAD

NEWTON

Members of the Master Builders' Association
166 Devonshire Street
(Established 1836.) (Incorporated 1894.)
(Connected by Telephone.)

JOHN FARQUHAR'S SONS,

INCORPORATED.

Roofers and Metal Workers.

Dealers in All Roofing Materials.

Slate, Copper, Tin, Tile, and Composition
Roofing, Skylights, Cornices, Gutters,
Conductors, etc.

Special attention given to repairs of all kinds of Roofing.

Office, 20 and 22 East Street, Boston, Mass.

Wharf, 60-72 Washington Ave., Boston, Mass.
Directors: Samuel Farquhar, Pres.; Joseph Farquhar, Treas. and Supt.; Frank C. Farquhar, Sec'y.; Rollie Farquhar.

Geo. W. Bush Co.

FUNERAL and FURNISHING

Undertakers

Coffins Caskets Robes

and every modern requisite for the proper performance of the business constantly on hand.

Elmwood Street, Newton

LADIES FINE DRESSMAKING

Suits & Outside Garments of every description made to order.
LATEST NEW YORK DESIGNS
(Evening Dresses a Specialty)

MRS. T. A. COLEMAN, New York Dressmaker
11 Chestnut Street, WEST NEWTON

Gold Spring Boat House

NEEDHAM STREET BRIDGE

Newton Upper Falls

Boats and Canoes for Sale and to Let. Storage by the month, season or year. 20 miles of river without a carry. Ice, Cream, Confectionery

Tonics, Moxie, Tobacco and Cigars for sale. Gasoline and Valvoline for Motor Boats and Automobiles. Newton and Boston Street Railway

to Oak Street. Tel. Newton South 21398.

JAMES B. LESTER, Proprietor

Waltham Forge Blacksmithing

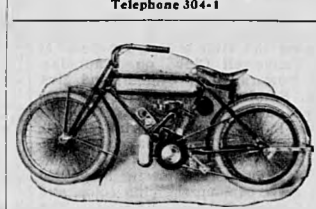

All kinds of Steel and Iron Forging with Power Hammer

BUILDING IRON WORK

Lawn Mowers Sharpened

SHOP, GIFFORD AVE., HALLS CORNER, WALTHAM

Telephone 304-1

M. M. Motorcycle

Is the best built motorcycle ever built.

It is the only perfect motorcycle ever made. It has no vibration and is perfectly noiseless. Write or call for demonstration. You can always see a full line of new and second-hand motorcycles at

W. A. F. Estes Motorcycle Exchange

107 Alder St., Waltham, Mass.

Agent for M. M. Motorcycles.

DRAKE'S

PLAIN POUND CAKE

The absence of fruits and flavors enables one to judge the high quality and purity of the materials in this cake.

The exquisite flavor is there, because of fine goods, skillfully put together.

Sold by your Grocer in any quantity

Drake Bros. Co.

BOSTON

Telephone Automobile Supplies

James Cramp

MACHINIST

LAWN MOWERS

and All Kinds of Tools Sharpened

GENERAL MACHINE WORK

Automobile and Bicycle

Repairing

All Work Promptly Attended To

Bailey Place

NEWTONVILLE, MASS.

Rear Orr's Hardware Store

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC

Published every Friday at 10 Centre Place, - Newton, Mass.Entered at the Post-office at Boston, Mass.,
as second-class matter.

$2.00 per Year.

Single Copies, 5 cents.

By mail free of postage.

All money sent at sender's risk.

All checks, drafts, and money orders should be made payable toNEWTON GRAPHIC PUBLISHING CO., J. C. BRIMBLECOM, Treas.

TELEPHONE NO. 77.

The Graphic is printed and mailed
Friday afternoons, and is for sale at all
news-stands in the Newtons, and at the South Union Station, Boston.All communications must be accompanied with the name of the writer, and unpublished communications cannot be returned by mail unless stamps are enclosed.Notices of all local entertainments
to which admission is charged must be paid for at regular rates, 25 cents per line
in the reading matter, or $1.00 per line in the advertising columns.

Women's Clubs.

Edited by Miss Grace M. Burt

The committees of the Massachusetts State Federation have been trying an experiment this spring in holding some of their conferences outside of Boston. The Education committee held its conference at Fitchburg in March, and the Household Economics committee at Natick on Tuesday of this week. The Forestry committee, of which Mrs. F. H. Tucker is chairman, held its conference at the Twentieth Century Club rooms to-day. The attendance of those held out of town has not been very large, but this has been due to the fact that there has been some misunderstanding in regard to them. A little more advertising of the purpose of these conferences and an announcement that they are open to all club women, and not merely to chairmen of the respective committees, will another year certainly bring out larger representations. It is a move in the right direction to give the club women throughout the state wider opportunity of coming in close touch with the Federation work, for a much deeper interest can be secured by personal contact with the women doing the work.

The Monday Club of Newton Highlands considered three queens at its meeting on April 12. Queen Anne, Empress Josephine and Marie Antoinette. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Stone of Walnut street.

The annual meeting of the Auburn-dale Review Club will be held on Tuesday, April 20th, at the home of Mrs.
Charles Strongman on Woodland road.

The Newtonville Woman's Guild will hold its annual meeting at the New Church parlors on Tuesday, April 20.
The Newton Ladies' Home Circle
will meet on Tuesday, April 20, at 2.30 P. M. in Society hall, Auburn street,
Auburndale.

In place of the usual meeting of the Social Science Club on Wednesday morning the club held a luncheon at the Hunnewell Club on Thursday.
Mrs. Powers, the president, and Mrs.
F. E. Stanley, chairman of the committee of arrangements, received the guests in the parlors during the social hour preceding the luncheon. Tables laid for about eighty were decorated with baskets of Easter lilies tied with green ribbon, the club color, and potted plants in green and white. The other rooms were also profusely decorated with cut flowers and potted plants. After luncheon Mrs. Powers acting as toastmistress presented Mrs.
Alfred W. Fuller who responded to the toast, "Our Luncheon." Miss Weston in "A Tale of Woe" told humorously the trials of the chairman of the Board of Directors. Mrs. E. M.
Moore voted the feelings of "The New Member." A piano duet by Mrs.
J. F. Boitfield and Mrs. J. W. McIntyre then followed. Miss Anna Whiting, who was introduced as a "U. B." or an "unappropriated blessing," gave an amusing sketch on "The Management of 'children,'" her text, as she said, taken from the "Book of Modern Revelations," being "Mary don't."
"The Club Husband" was responded to by Mrs. C. B. Gleason who is intimately connected with two club husbands. Mrs. Walcott Calkins responded gracefully to "Our Ideal Club President." The program closed with a song "To Our Club" by Mrs. H. P.
Kenway. Two songs by Mrs. Carl Ellison with Miss Manning at the piano added much to the pleasure of the afternoon. Before adjourning the meeting Mrs. Powers took occasion to say goodbye to the members, as she sails for Europe on Saturday, and to express in her charming way the pleasure and privilege it had been to serve the club this year.

The subject of the paper next week will be "The Newspaper and the Citizen." Guests may be invited.

ENJOYABLE MUSICALS

Mrs. A. H. Handley gave the second of her pleasing musicals at her home on Oakleigh road last Friday evening. The artists were William F.
Dodge, violin; Carl W. Dodge, cello;
Ernest W. Harrison, piano and Miss Villemann, soprano. Miss Villemann sang two groups of songs which included compositions of Gounod, Rollinger, Lehmann, Mr. Wm.
F. Dodge played the Saint Saens "Ton-doin and Introduction" for a violin solo; Carl W. Dodge rendered the popular "Hungarian Rhapsody" for a cello solo and the concerted numbers included trios by Brahms, Huber-stein, Widor and Beethoven. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Wm.
F. Plant, Dr. and Mrs. M. E. Gleason,
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Merritt, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman O. Stanley, Mr. and Mrs.
Bernard Listemann, Mr. and Mrs. R. P.
Hains, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McGaffee, and many other friends and music lovers from Newton, Brookline, Jam-maica Plain and Boston.

1865 THE OLD FIRM 1909

George H. Gregg & Son
FUNERAL DIRECTORS

All the Newtons 296 Walnut St., Newtonville

GOV. DRAPER DINED

Newton Club Is the Host

The reorganized Newton Club gave its first social function last Wednesday evening, with an elaborate dinner in honor of Governor and Mrs. Eben
S. Draper. The high standard, so many years maintained by the old club was most worthily upheld, every appointment, the decorations, the music, the menu, the favors, the vlands and the speaking being of the highest order. The Governor was greeted by nearly one hundred and fifty of the best citizens of the city, and it was all in all the leading social event of the season.

A reception was held at seven o'clock, the receiving line consisting of President James L. Richards, his daughter, Mrs. R. J. Leonard, Governor and Mrs. Draper, Bank Commissioner and Mrs. Arthur B. Chapin, Mayor and Mrs. George Hutchinson, and Rev. and Mrs. Julian C. Jaynes.
The dinner was served a half hour later in the large assembly hall, which had been turned into a bower of beauty for the occasion. Festoons of asparagus green encircled the stage and gave emphasis to the club monogram "N. C." which hung in the center. Roses and palms covered the side walls and the round tables at which the dinner was served was heaped high with baskets and mounds of Richmond and bridesmaid roses. Pink baskets filled with candies and nuts were the individual favors and the menus, with the state seal in color and the club seal in relief were most artistic.
Music was rendered by the Boston
Philharmonic Orchestra Club.

Seated at the head table with Governor and Mrs. Draper, were President Richards, Mrs. R. J. Leonard, Hon.
and Mrs. George Hutchinson, Representative and Mrs. H. P. Converse, Mr. and Mrs. James Richard Carter, Rev.
and Mrs. J. C. Jaynes, Mr. and Mrs.
J. H. Hustis, and Mr. and Mrs. C. E.
Hatfield. After coffee had been served, President Richards presented Rev. Julian C. Jaynes as the toastmaster, a most excellent selection as everyone will admit. Mr. Jaynes was at his best, and his introductions of the speakers were most felicitous. Addresses were made by Governor Draper, Hon. A. B.
Chapin, Mayor Hutchinson, Rev. Edward M. Noyes and Rev. Dr. Laurens MacLure.

Among others present were:
Mr. and Mrs. Ellisha L. Avery, Mr.
Charles F. Avery, Mr. Charles H. Avery,
Miss Gladys Avery, Mr. and Mrs. C. J.
Bailley, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Biehler, and Mrs. M. C. Brush, Mr. and Mrs.
Charles M. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. E. B.
Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bridgman,
Mr. and Mrs. Z. E. Booth, Mrs. P. H.
Blake, Miss Leah Bailey, Mr. George P.
Bullard, Miss Marion Bullard, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Coolidge, Dr. and Mrs.
C. M. Casselberry, Mr. S. A. Conover,
Miss Maud Conover, Mr. and Mrs. A. H.
Deatur, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Friel,
Mr. C. S. Denison, Miss Olivia Denison,
Mr. and Mrs. John Edley, Miss Madeline Erskine, Mr. and Mrs. Wm.
M. Flanders, Miss Maud Flanders, Miss
Marguerite Flanders, Mr. Alvan R.
Flanders, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Friel,
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. French, Hon. John
A. Fenno, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Follett,
Dr. Austin W. Follett, Mr. Wm. Dana Follett, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gould, Mr.
and Mrs. F. J. Hale, Mr. and Mrs. E. P.
Hatch, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Harwood, Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Hopkins, Miss Helen Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. Julian C. Jaynes, Hon. and Mrs. Seward W. Jones, Miss Mabel E.
Jones, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Leonard, Mr.
and Mrs. G. B. Macomber, Mr. and Mrs.
J. W. Moore, Dr. and Mrs. Laurens MacLure, Mr. and Mrs. E. Melcher, Miss Marrow, Miss Helen McKinney, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Naele, Rev. and Mrs. E. M.
Noyes, Mr. Arthur L. Noyes, Rev. and Mrs. J. Edgar Park, Mr. and Mrs. Wm.
F. Plant, Miss Amy Plant, Mr. and Mrs.
E. Palmer, Mrs. Samuel L. Powers,
Mr. and Mrs. H. Pierce, Mr. and Mrs.
Rice, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Renick, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs.
L. H. Spear, Miss Carrie Spear, Rev.
and Mrs. J. T. Stocking, Dr. and Mrs.
George T. Smart, Mrs. G. S. Stevens,
Miss Ruth Stevens, Mr. C. F. Stocum,
Dr. and Mrs. George H. Talbot, Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Yeo, Mr. and Mrs. D. Van
Tassel, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Webster,
Miss Mary Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. H. A.
Young.

N. H. S.

Trials of members of the newly formed debating club took place Wednesday afternoon before the entire school, the resolution being "That government control of public transit lines is desirable." The affirmative was given by Smart and Wilson and the negative was presented by Draper and Raymond.

In Temple hall next Friday evening the annual dancing party of the senior class of the Newton high school will be held.

The Newton high school baseball team opened its season Tuesday afternoon with Volkman on the latter's field in Allston and were defeated, 5 to 2 in an interesting game. Capt.
Donahue, together with the whole Newton team, were very much surprised over the result, as they expected to win. "Tip" O'Neill, Capt.
"Huck" Donahue and Jim Ryan played their usual fine game for Newton, while the pitching of LaCroix and the all around play of Capt. Mitchell were the bright features of Volkman's play.
Volkman outfielded, outlaided, and outplayed Newton in all departments of the game.

GRAND ARMY DINED

The first annual dinner complimentary to Charles Ward Post, 62, was served in Grand Army hall, Newton-ville, Monday evening, by Mrs. A. E.
Cunningham Tent 2, D. of V., there being many guests. The feast was followed by music, recitation of "The Irish Corporal" by Commander James
P. Reid and addresses by D. H. L.
Gleason, W. A. Wetherbee, Chaplain
Putnam and H. A. Bonnette of Newton Centre.

CHURCH TO BE CONSECRATED

The Church of the Messiah, being free from debt, will be consecrated by the Rt. Rev. Wm. Lawrence, D.D., on Monday the 19th at 10.30 A. M. The consecration sermon will be preached by Rev. Henry S. Nash, D.D., professor in the Episcopal theological school, Cambridge.

ARNOLD-FREEMAN

Miss Helen Hunt Freeman, the daughter of Mrs. Harriet M. Freeman of West Newton, became the bride of Rev. Harold Greene Arnold, minister of the Unitarian church at Bridgewater, Mass., last Monday evening. The ceremony took place at the Unitarian church, West Newton, which was filled with the many friends of the young couple, and adorned with palms and Easter lilies. The bride wore a gown of white satin crepe, trimmed with rose point lace, and was accompanied by her sister, Miss Caroline L. Freeman, as maid of honor, dressed in white lace over pale yellow satin, and carrying yellow roses, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Frederic W. Freeman, as matron of honor, gowned in white embrodered chiffon over pale yellow satin, and carrying white marguerites.
The bridesmaids, Miss Ethel Hale
Freeman, sister of the bride, Miss Eleanor W. Leatherbee, Miss Margaret Whidden of West Newton and Miss Constance Arnold of Providence, R. I., sisters of the groom, were gowned in white embroidered chiffon over pale yellow satin and carried bouquets of white marguerites.

Rev. Julian C. Jaynes, minister of the church performed the ceremony and the bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Frederic W. Freeman of West Newton.

Mr. Frederic W. Arnold of Chicago, brother of the groom, was the best man and the guests were seated by these ushers—Messrs. Herbert C.
Wells of Kingston, R. I., Evan Owen of New York, Palfrey Perkins of Salem, F. Rogers Thomas of West Newton, Maynard C. Hutchinson of New York and W. G. T. Fernandez of Baluchistan, India.

While the guests were assembling
Mr. Frank Lynes rendered a delightful program on the organ.

A small reception followed the ceremony at the Freeman residence, 258
Mt. Vernon street, West Newton, which was decorated with southern smilax and marguerites.

Rev. and Mrs. Arnold will make their home at 162 South street, Bridgewater, Mass.

CURTIS-HANSEN

The wedding of Miss Christine Hansen, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Hans C. Hansen of Newton, and Mr.
Sidney Curtis of Brooklyn, N. Y., took place last Wednesday evening at Eliot church. The ceremony was performed at eight o'clock by Rev. H. Grant Person, pastor of the church.

The bride was dressed in ivory white satin, trimmed with rare lace, with orange blossoms in her hair, and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Miss Georgia Gidden of Cambridge, the maid of honor, was gowned in pink crepe de chine with lace jacket trimmed with pink velvet and soutache braid, and carried pink roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Bertha C. Carpenter of Cambridge, Miss Florence I. Titcomb and Miss Olive H.
Dunne of Newton, and Miss Mabel Vinal of Dorchester wore pink messeline with wreaths in their hair and carried ribboned baskets of pink sweet peas.

Mr. Reddington DeCormis of Cambridge was the best man and the ushers were Messrs. H. Alfred Hansen of Auburndale, Luther A. Hansen of Dorchester, brothers of the bride, Maxwell Shattuck of Wellesley Hills, Harvard, '09, and Dr. Walter Young and Harry
B. Young of Dedham.

A reception followed at the home of the bride, 75 Hunnewell avenue, Newton, which was simply but effectively decorated with palms, asparagus green, laurel and roses, with the dining room in yellow. Mr. and Mrs.
Curtis were assisted in receiving their friends by Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hansen, Mrs. James Curtis, and Mr. James Curtis, mother and brother of the groom, after which they left for a wedding trip to the South.

The groom was three years Instructor in argumentation at Harvard. As an undergraduate he was a member of one of the musical clubs and active in debating work. Each year as a member of the track team he ran in the dual meets with Yale and in the intercollegiate meets at Mott Haven and Philadelphia. For some time he has been assistant secretary of Harvard Alumni Association.

MR. CROSBY DEAD

Mr. George W. Crosby, for many years a resident of Newton, died Wednesday night at the home of his niece, Mrs. Leslie M. Dorr, at Newton Highlands.

He was born in Leominster Oct. 23, 1835, and was graduated from Harvard in 1858. For nearly 40 years he served the R. H. White Company as treasurer of the corporation, and financial manager.

His wife and only son died several years ago. He is survived by three sisters. He was a member of the Graduate Club of his class and of the Hunnewell Club of this city. The funeral will take place Saturday at 3
P. M. in the chapel of the Newton cen-etury.

NEWTON BOAT CLUB

The annual meeting of the Newton
Boat Club was held at the club house last Monday evening. Satisfactory annual reports were read and the following officers elected: President, H.
Alfred Hansen; vice president, Frank Booth; secretary, Ernest Booth; treasurer, Charles E. Hatfield; Captain, Charles E. Fogg.

MAN KILLED

Patsy Duluke, a track hand of the Boston & Albany Railroad, was instantly killed by being struck by a train Monday afternoon near the Auburndale station. He was at work on the track, and apparently did not hear the approaching train, as he stepped in front of it. Duluke lived at 43 Oak street, West Newton.

EXHIBITION AND SALE

There will be an exhibition of oil paintings by Nathaniel L. Berry at the Neighborhood Club House, Berkeley street, West Newton, on Friday, April 16, from 10 A. M. to 10 P. M., and on Saturday, the 17th, from 10 A. M. to 6 P. M.

It is said of Robert Walpole, that "flowery oratory he despised." We like to have a man come from Missouri, because we then can "show him" that the "WINCHESTER" steam or hot water heater has no superior.
Smith & Thayer Company, 236 Congress street, Boston, Mass.

That bug-bear of expense!

WOULDN'T you have one or more of your rooms repapered this spring if "it didn't cost so much?"

Do you really know what it will cost? We believe we can surprise you both as to cost and the kind of paper
we can give you.

An inquiry costs you nothing and puts you under no obligation.

BEMIS & JEWETT

ECONOMICAL PAPER HANGERS

NEWTON CENTRE

NEEDHAM

BOSTON, MASS.

95 to 105 WASHINGTON ST.

The new management of this store confidently stakes

a seventy-five-year reputation for reliability, and for

keeping up to the fashion,

on its present output, the

most interesting SPRING

CLOTHES that have appeared for years; with long lapels, close-set buttons, cuff
sleeves, etc., of attractive pattern and design.

SUITS FROM

$12.50 TO $30.00

OVERCOATS FROM

$15.00 TO $30.00

DR. N. LOUISE RAND

OSTEOPATH

60 CHESTNUT ST., WEST NEWTON

Office Hours

Monday, Wednesday and Friday 2-8 P. M.

Telephone 204-5 Newton West

LAWN SEED

Extra Fine Mixture

20c qt. $1.00 Peck

"Boston Favorite" Sweet Peas

and Nasturtium Seed

Very Fine Mixed Colors

10c per ounce

A LARGE LINE OF

Vegetable and Flower Seeds

This department is in charge of an experienced seedman

CHANDLER & BARBER

HARDWARE DEALERS

124 Summer St., Boston, Mass.

Automobile Painting

and Repairing

Alterations Made and Repairing a Specialty

J. P. RAMBE

515 WALTHAM ST., WEST NEWTON

Telephone 398-3 Newton West

THE Woman's Journal

A SUFFRAGE PAPER

Published Weekly

EDITED BY

Alice Stone Blackwell

6 Beacon St., Boston

$1.50 PER YEAR

FINE UPHOLSTERING

Antique and Second Hand Furniture

Bought and Sold

Window Shades To Order

Furniture Packing and Shipping

SEELEY BROS. CO.

803 Washington St., Newtonville. Tel. 703-1N.N

A. H. WAITT

390 Centre Street

Phone 982-2 Newton North

FOR RENT

Lower apt. in new house, will be ready MAY 1st. 7 rms. and bath, set
tubs, gas, gas range, hot-water heat,
lease at 39 per month, including water.
Nice 10-room house in good neighborhood, convenient, for lease at $30
mo.

BRIGHTON

A new 2-family house, ready April
15th. Upper, 7 rooms and bath, $28.
Lower, 6 rooms and bath, $25.
Now is the time to list your houses
with me for results.

REAL ESTATE
AUTO
FIRE INSURANCE

FOR SALE

WEST NEWTON
Modern 7-room house and stable,
6,250 feet land, $3,250.

BRIGHTON

NEW 2-family house, $6,200.

WEST NEWTON

Newly refinished house, 9,420 feet
land, $8,000, easy terms. INVESTI-GATE.

A house of 11 rooms, bath, etc.,
7,500 feet land, $6,500.

AUBURNDAL

A nice house, 9 rooms and bath,
5,900 feet land, $2,750, $300 or $400
down, bal. mtg.

Consult my new up-to-date list of SPRING BARGAINS if you contemplate buying.

SPRING MILLINERY

80 Bowers Street Newtonville

Opp. Depot

NEXT MONDAY

is the right time for us to begin doing your laundry work. The sheets, pillow slips, towels and table linen are so clean, fresh and inviting as we launder them, you will wonder why you had not tried us before. Why not make arrangements today?

Waltham Laundry Co.

Telephone Newton West 345-4

G. A. FREEMAN, Agent

2163 Commonwealth Avenue, Auburndale

Something New in
Cold Storage of Furs

Our new (permanently installed) VACUUM PROCESS for the cleaning of FURS and RUGS is just completed. By this new method surprising results are obtained without the least
injury to the furs.

Absolute cleanliness is insured without injury to the pelts,
which was unavoidable under the old method of whipping now commonly in use. This new cleaner is used on all furs and rugs without further charge than regular storage rates.

FURS CALLED FOR AND DELIVERED

Telephone Oxford 620-621

LAMSON & HUBBARD

FURRIERS

92 Bedford St., Boston, Mass.

NEWTON CO-OPERATIVE BANK

SHARES SOLD MARCH AND SEPTEMBER

Money Available at all times on Newton Mortgages

Bank Meetings Monthly, 1st Tuesday, 8 P. M.

JAMES W. FRENCH, Pres.

Tremont Bldg., Boston

J. CHEEVER FULLER, Secy. and Trans.

297 Walnut St., Newtonville

SPECIAL FOR THIS WEEK

Our $4.98 Trimmed Hats

in all the leading shapes, trimmed with flowers and foliage.

We are also carrying a line of

Mushroom, Sailors and Bucket Shaped Hats

which we are selling at reasonable prices.

EASTER PLANTS

LILIES, CARNATIONS
AZALEAS, HYDRANGERS
SPIRAEAS, GERANIUMS, ROSES, CARNATIONS AND VIOLETS
TEL. NEW. NORTH 733-4
Orders delivered to all parts of Newton.

NEWTON ROSE CONSERVATORIES.

H. S. COURTNEY, Manager

COOK'S AVENUE HAT

Will outwear two
of the ordinary kind and look better in the end

$4.00

Cold Storage of Furs
and Clothing
Articles called for

A. N. Cook & Co
161 Tremont Street, Boston

Newtonville.

—Small pig hams, 14c lb. Harcourt's.
—Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Jackson are here from England, the guests of Mr. Jackson's mother, Mrs. M. A. Jackson on Mill street.

—Daniels & Howlett Co., Morse Building, Newtonville, painting, decorating, hardwood finishing and wall papers.

—The Ladies' Aid Society will hold a food sale in the vestry of the Methodist church Saturday afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock.

—The beautiful decorations at the Governor's dinner in the Newton Club, Wednesday night, were from the Newton Rose Conservatories.

—The annual children's May party in charge of the Sewing Circle, will be held May 8th in the parish house of the Universalist church.

—The annual parish supper will be held in the parish house of the Universalist church next Thursday evening. Supper will be served at 6:30 and the business session will follow at 8 o'clock.

—The last social of the season will be held this evening in the parlors of the New Church. The entertainment of the evening will consist of Charades presented by Miss Annie Payson Call and Miss Louise G. Detrick.

—Mr. E. J. Cox entertained a house party of college students from Wellesley, Simmons, Radcliffe, and Harvard last week, at his brother's cottage at Winthrop Great Head.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kempton Clark of Newtonville announce the engagement of their daughter, Janet Crighton, to Mr. Carl August Ruckteschel of Cambridge and Wurzberg, Germany.

—The ladies of Central church are planning for the largest annual luncheon ever given by the Charity Square, to be held on April 28th, at one o'clock, and promise a pleasant time to all who attend.

—The regular monthly meeting of the Central Club was held last evening in the Central church parlors. Mr. Horace Fletcher of New York was the guest of the club and spoke on the topic, "How to Live."

—The last meeting of the Thespians for the season will be held this evening in the parish house of the Universalist church. Several members will present the play, "The Man From Texas," and there will be a musical program.

—The monthly meeting of the visitors and directors of the associated charities will be held in the Central church parlors Thursday afternoon at 3:30. Miss Farmer, assistant head worker in the Social Service department of the Massachusetts general hospital, Boston, will speak of her work. All interested persons are invited to be present.

—The last social for the season was held Tuesday evening in the parlors of Central church. There was a good attendance and a pleasing entertainment was given by the Queens of Avillon, which included a bright little farce, entitled "The Real Thing," and a series of tableaux, illustrating vocations for girls and "The Idyls of the King."

—The last meeting of the Every Saturday Club for the season will be held Saturday evening at the home of Mr. A. P. Walker on Birch Hill road. The general topics will be "Tennyson and His Literary Peers; Influence upon Literature and upon Life; Critical Estimate." The committee in charge of the program consists of Mrs. G. H. Wilkins, Mr. A. P. Walker and Mr. Samuel Thurber, Jr.

HARCOURT'S MARKET

841 Washington Street

Headquarters for the Famous
Hatchet Brand of Canned Goods

CHOICE MEATS
FRUITS and VEGETABLES
BUTTER and EGGS

Our Motto: The Best.

Telephone Newton North 131.

Newtonville.

—Miss Annie A. Jackson is reported quite ill at her home on Mill street.

—Mills undertaking rooms, 817-819 Washington street, Newtonville, Tel. Newton N. 112-3.

—Mrs. Charles C. Livermore will entertain the Woman's Auxiliary of St. John's church at her home on Walnut street next Wednesday afternoon.

—Rev. Edgar E. Davidson of Prescott street sailed from New York Wednesday for England. Before his return Mr. Davidson will visit Egypt and Palestine.

—The engagement is announced of Miss Margaret E. Babcock, daughter of Mrs. Charles F. Babcock of Roxbury to Eugene Everett Petee of Newtonville.

—Under the direction of the Young People's League a pop vaudeville and dance will be given in the New Church parlors next Wednesday evening for the benefit of the Portland New Church Society.

—The arrangements for the food and candy sale, to be held at St. John's church on Saturday afternoon, have been completed. Mrs. Ella F. Richardson and the Woman's Auxiliary and Mrs. James P. Richardson and the Young Woman's Club will be in charge.

—In the hall of the Clafin school last Thursday afternoon Col. C. H. French gave an interesting moving picture lecture illustrating people and places in Alaska, the Klondike, India, Japan and elsewhere. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the athletic association.

—A reception to the missionaries living at the missionary home at Auburndale was given in the Central church parlors Wednesday afternoon by the local Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. The program consisted of stories and anecdotes told informally after which tea was served.

—A public meeting of the Woman's Universalist Missionary Society of Massachusetts was held yesterday at the First Universalist church. At the afternoon session Rev. W. B. Geoghegan made an address on "Social Service of the Churches," and Rev. Dr. Clarence E. Rich on "The Universalist Mission from the Japanese Point of View."

—Mr. Charles W. Hamilton, a well known resident on Walnut street, and engaged in the shoe manufacturing business in Boston, died at the Newton hospital Tuesday of stomach trouble, after a week's illness. Deceased was 48 years of age. He is survived by a widow, a son Daniel and a daughter Dorothy. Funeral services will be held from his late residence this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

West Newton.

—Room to let at 126 Webster street.

—Mr. George P. Bullard arrived home from Europe last Monday on the Romanic.

—Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Hubbard of Hillsdale avenue are in Washington, D. C., this week.

—The Journey Club met with Mrs. James A. Neal of Highland street on Thursday afternoon last.

—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Gill and son Fletcher of Lenox street have returned from Washington, D. C.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wyman and daughter Miss Gladys of Temple street have returned from Friendship, Me.

—Mr. and Mrs. William M. Bullivant of Mt. Vernon street are home from a six weeks' trip in California.

—Mrs. John F. Rice of Waterbury, Conn., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Felton of Chestnut street.

—Mrs. M. M. Wadsworth and the Misses Wadsworth of Highland avenue are home from Washington, D. C.

—Mr. and Mrs. John N. Eaton of Lenox street entertained at dinner followed by bridge on Wednesday evening.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Edson of Sterling street left on Thursday for a trip to Philadelphia and Washington, D. C.

—Miss Esther Lowe of Highland street is in Montreal, Can., where she was maid of honor at a wedding on Thursday.

—Miss Fanny B. Carpenter and Mrs. E. D. Macintosh were passengers arriving Thursday from Europe on the Leyland liner Winifredian.

—The W. C. T. U. will meet Monday evening at 7:45 o'clock with Mrs. Teulon, 30 Webster street. Subject, "The Temperance Workers of 1909."

—Anthony Louis formerly of West Newton announces that he is now engaged with M. H. Haase, Newton. All orders for upholstery, by mail or telephone, will receive his personal attention.

—The Men's Club of the Lincoln Park Baptist church enjoyed a supper on Tuesday, followed by an entertainment and a talk on Esperanto by Mr. Ernest F. Dow.

—Mr. George H. Fernald of Margin street leaves next week to take charge of an extensive display of automatic machinery, at the Alaska, Yukon, Pacific Exposition, in Seattle, Washington. He will not return until November.

—Mr. Jarvis Lamson of Temple street left on Monday evening for Washington, D. C. Mr. Lamson is one of a committee of five selected by the Furriers' Association to appear before the Ways and Means Committee on the tariff.

—The Junior Parish held a special song service in the parlors of the Unitarian church last Sunday evening. Miss Ethel Jaynes was in charge and an address was made by the president, Mr. Edward C. Tolman. Mrs. A. P. Carter was at the piano and others assisting in the musical program were the Misses Helen Alley, Clara Bullard and Margaret Baldwin.

Remember Our Toric Bifocals
are

The Best Combination of Far and Near Lenses that can be made

Pinkham & Smith Company

TWO STORES: 288-290 Boylston Street Boston

13 1/2 Bromfield Street Boston

—Miss Elizabeth J. Gaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gaw, and Mr. Sylvanus Smith of Rosindale were married Monday evening at the home of the bride's parents, 293 Webster street, Rev. W. W. Doran of Plymouth officiating. The ceremony was attended by immediate relatives and friends. Miss Anna G. Gaw, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The best man was Walter Anderson of Boston. A reception followed. After a trip the couple will reside at 12 Haskell street, Allston.

Auburndale.

—Miss Eleanor J. McKenzie, principal of the Charles C. Burr school, is seriously ill at her home in Brookline.

—At Lasell seminary last evening an author's reading was given by Mrs. Margaret Deland. There was a representative audience of teachers, pupils and their friends.

—The three-act drama "Breezy Point" will be given in Players' Small hall, for the benefit of the Church of the Messiah next Wednesday evening, followed by dancing. Tickets, 35 cents.

—The missionaries living at the missionary home on Hancock street were given a reception Wednesday afternoon at Central church, Newton, after a trip to Central church, Newtonary Society.

—Judge "Ben" Lindsay of Denver delivered an interesting lecture on "The Juvenile Court and the Delinquent Boy" before the Lasell seminary students Wednesday afternoon in the gymnasium.

—A pretty subscription dance was given in Norumbega hall last Tuesday evening. Some 20 couples were present and dancing was enjoyed from 8 to 12. Messrs. Thayer and Johnson were in charge of the affair.

—Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Francis N. Peloubet of Woodland road are to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary on Wednesday, April 28th. They have issued cards for an at home from 3 to 5 and 8 to 10 on that date.

—Rev. Dr. Francis E. Clark of Central street left Monday for a Western and Southern trip to attend State Christian Endeavor Conventions. He will go to Alabama, Florida, North Carolina and Georgia and union meetings in Chicago, Evansville, Indiana, Nashville and Philadelphia.

—Mrs. Joanna Dunning, a former well known resident on Ware road, died Tuesday of last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Trimble on May street, Roxbury. The funeral was held Thursday from the family residence, Rev. Dr. Durkee officiating, and the burial was in Woodlawn cemetery.

—Mr. Joseph Johnson, son of Jeremiah Johnson, died of pneumonia Friday, after a brief illness, at his home on Washington street. He was a native of Newton Centre, where he was born 35 years ago. Deceased was connected with his father in the care of the Woodland Golf Club grounds. The funeral was held Sunday and the burial followed in Newton cemetery.

W. A. FAYEN
Practical Harness Maker

Full Equipment of Stable Furnishings
Trunks and Bags Repaired

529 Waltham St., West Newton

Tel. 492-1 Newton West

P. SIMONSThe Old Reliable Ladies' Tailor

Suits and Outside Garments Made in the Latest Styles.

PERFECT FIT GUARANTEED

3 MOODY ST., WALTHAM.

Telephone 185-3 Waltham.

HODGES
LADIES' HATS
Cleaned or Dyed
and made over into the latest fashionable styles.
WE SAVE
YOU
HALF
THE PRICE OF A NEW HAT PANAMA
HATS
Bleached, Re-blackened and Trimmed put on.

MORTGAGES

LOANS AT FAIR RATES
ON NEWTON REAL ESTATE

WEST NEWTON SAVINGS BANK

HOURS, 8.30 TO 12 AND 1 TO 3

SATURDAY, 8.30 TO 12

NOTICE

This is to give notice that I will not be responsible for any bills contracted by my wife, Flora A. Taylor, 10 Beech Street, Newton.

J. E. TAYLOR.

Notice is hereby given, that the partnership heretofore existing between John B. Turner and George F. Williams has been dissolved by the death of George F. Williams.

The insurance business of said firm will be carried on by John B. Turner and the real estate business has been sold to John T. Burns.

All persons indebted to the firm of Turner & Williams are requested to make payments to

JOHN B. TURNER,
90 Bowdoin St., Newtonville.

Painting, Interior Decorating

AND PAPER HANGING

Now is the season to send in your orders.

G. W. TERRELL

888 Watertown Street WEST NEWTON

Telephone 266 Newton West.

WANTED

Three hairs from your head. Falling hair is caused by pinched nerves; all hair is governed by nerves; send me 3 hairs wrapped in clean paper for chemical analysis. BYRON EFFORD, competent osteopath on hair, 134 Boylston Street, Boston.

JOHN H. MANTER
Carpenter and Builder

ORDERS PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO

With Henry H. Hunt 17 Years

John H. Manter

128 Webster Street

Telephone 247-1 N. W. WEST NEWTON

JANE O'DONNELL
Ladies' Dress and Coat Maker

Alterations and Reparing. Latest Patterns on hand. Fit and Workmanship Guaranteed

853 Washington Street Newtonville

The Allen School
WEST NEWTON, MASS.

EVERETT STARR JONES, Head Master.

For Boys ranging in age from ten upwards Special attention given to individual requirements. Large and efficient corps of instructors First class equipment

Telephone N. West 361-1.

PARIS PATTERN SUPPLY CO.

Are fitting Ladies to Dresses Absolutely Perfect in Paper Patterns of Advanced Designs. Shirts, Jackets, Waists and Shirt Waists, Etc. From these fitted patterns a lady can make her dress without trying on.

169 Tremont Street, Near New Herald Bldg. Boston

HOUSE LOTS, NEWTONVILLE

FOR SALE—Desirable building lots in good locality, 5 to 10 minutes' walk from railroad station. Apply in person, by mail or by letter to G. W. Auryansen, 49 Judkins St., Newtonville.

Wants.

WANTED—A second girl, Nova Scotia preferred. References required. Call at 124 Vernon St. Monday or Tuesday evening.

WANTED—In one of the Newtons, by man and wife, 3 to 5 rooms for light housekeeping. E. T. P., 914 Watertown St., West Newton.

WANTED—A good general housework girl in small family. Must be neat and willing. Call at 148 Church St., Newton, Mass.

WANTED—Experienced nursing; willing to help in kitchen, or would go out through the day; capable of taking person, by mail or by letter to G. W. Auryansen, 49 Judkins St., Newtonville.

Mrs. D. C. Nute, Suite 2, 330 Centre St., Newton, Mass.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Phaeton buggy; little used; suitable for small family; seven at stable, No. 141 Cypress St., Newton Centre.

FOR SALE—Stanley touring car. Call at 59 Elmwood St., Newton.

FOR SALE—Loose hay for cows, fine condition. H. Swallow, Concord St., Newton Lower Falls.

FOR SALE—A bike-gear, rubber-tired, open wagon in good condition. Will be sold cheap if taken at once. Address Box 36 Newton.

STATION CARRIAGE FOR SALE—Made very light for Newton hills. Will sell cheap; can be seen at 159 Prince St., West Newton.

Miscellaneous.

LOST—A setter pup, 7 months' old; white with black and white stripes on face, body white with black spots. Write or return to A. P. Adams, 37 Park Ave., Newton, and get reward.

—EXPERIENCED DRESSMAKER would like more engagements by the day. Address D. Graphic Office.

HOUGHTON & DUTTON CO.

We Wish to Call Especial Attention to

OUR SUPERB
SPRING STOCKS

THIS STORE, we believe, is the busiest in all Boston, as the result of nearly 40 years of honest, straightforward advertising, together with quantities and quantities to back up our announcements. We believe our assortment of good, serviceable, seasonable merchandise is second to none in the city, while our prices show that nowhere can you buy to greater advantage. Our Millinery Department has won great prestige, a fact that is emphasized by the great throngs that assemble here daily. Our Women's and Children's Department of ready-made garments have never shown so many smart and shapely models. Our Shoe, Glove, Hosiery and kindred departments are at their best. The result of weeks of hard work and ceaseless effort is now ready for your inspection. Remember, we give great values for little money.

Merchants Legal Stamps On All Purchases. Double Stamps Every Forenoon.

DOES YOUR HOUSE NEED PAINTING

OR

Papering this Spring

We have a select line of latest designs in Wall Papers; Mixed Paints, Jap-a-lac, Liquid Veneer, Picture Mouldings, Etc. at Boston Prices.

GEORGE S. GORDON, 325 Auburn Street, Auburndale

Telephones, Office 528-5 N. W. Residence 528-1 N. W.

Iver Johnson
Racyle
Columbia

STANDARD MAKES OF BICYCLES IN STOCK

Hardware, Paint and Oils

KODAKS and SUPPLIES

W. E. Tomlinson EDDY BLOCK
WEST NEWTON*Easter Offerings Lamson Prints in Easter Covers 10c to 35c. Easter Cards, Booklets and Post Cards in great variety

Also
Latest Colors and Styles in Neckware and Gloves That May Interest You

MARY E. HOSMER

1405 Washington Street - West Newton

A. L. JORDANHouse Painter and Interior Decorator

Latest Designs in Wall Papers. (Refinishing Furniture a Specialty)

54 Chestnut Street (near depot) West Newton

Ladies and Mens Fine Tailoring

Remodeling, Pressing, Cleaning and Dyeing, Alterations, Etc.
First Class Monthly Work at Reduced Prices. Satisfaction Guaranteed.

G. SHERMAN

52 Chestnut Street - West Newton

To Let.

TO LET—Small suite of pleasant outside rooms, on lower floor, with modern conveniences, in good location, large yard with shade trees. References required. Apply at 96 Boyd St., Newton, Mass.

ROOM FOR RENT in the Warren, Suite 5. Telephone No. 607-1, Newton North.

TO LET—Large furnished front room and alcove, suitable for one or two gentlemen, with heat, gas, bath and use of telephone. Convenient to everything. Apply after 6:30 P. M. at Suite 5, The Carlton, 239 Washington Street, Newton.

SUITE TO RENT—2nd floor suite, 4 large rooms, bath and kitchen to rent from May 1st. Fine view. Apply at 159 Newtonville Ave., Newton.

TO LET—Desirable large warm, sunny, pleasant single and connecting rooms, with or without board, 92 Washington park, Newtonville.

TO LET—5 rooms and bath, $11 per month. Address F. 384 Cherry St., West Newton.

TO LET—Furnished rooms, 59 Elmwood St., Newton.

TEASEMENT TO LET—Robinson Block, West Newton, $9.50 per month. F. D. Tarlton, Agent, West Newton.

1829 1908

Lewandos

AMERICA'S GREATEST

Cleaners Dyers Launderers

TELEPHONE 300 NEWTON NORTH CONNECTS ALL DEPARTMENTS

Cleanse or Dye and Refinish

Clothes Blankets Curtains Portieres Draperies Rugs Carpets Gloves Laces Ribbons

Ostrich Feathers Cleaned Curled Dyed and Old Feathers made over into Tips and Plumes

Our teams running from Watertown Shop 1 Galen Street call for and deliver packages in all the Newtons

OUR LAUNDRY WORK IS THE BEST OBTAINABLE

Lewandos Lewandos Lewandos

Boston Shops 284 Boylston Street and 17 Temple Place

Trees! Shrubs! Roses!

Buy Direct From Grower and Save Money

We are the largest growers of Fruit and Ornamental Trees, Shrubs, Roses, and Old Fashioned Flowers in New England. 300 Acres. No Agents.

Large Illustrated Catalogue FREE

THE NEW ENGLAND NURSERIES, Inc.,

Bedford, Mass.

Telephone Lexington 274-3

MAX KEEZER

HARVARD STUDENTS' CAST-OFF CLOTHING FOR SALE

DRESS SUITS TO LET

3 Bow St., Cambridge Mass

Take Harvard Square Car and get off at Quincy Hall

TELEPHONE 1751-1 CAMBRIDGE

FOR SALE AT A BARGAIN

One High Potted Antique Mahogany Bedstead (very desirable) original cost $300.

One Antique Mahogany Dresser with Mirror.

One Antique Mahogany Secretary.

One Antique Claw Foot Sofa.

One Antique Mahogany (16) Angle Top English Centre Table.

Every piece in perfect condition. Call and look them over.

W. H. TABOR

Upholsterer

567 Main Street, Waltham

Telephone 448-4

NEWCOMB'S

Newton and Boston EXPRESS

CHARLES G. NEWCOMB PROPRIETOR AND MANAGER

402 Centre Street - Newton

Telephone North 690

Monumental Work

IN GRANITE AND MARBLE

Lettering in Cemeteries satisfactorily done

Open Wednesday, Friday and Saturday Evenings

M. KEANE, Telephone 188-2 731 Main St., Waltham

H. B. ARNOLD & CO.

MANUFACTURERS OF

Canvas Boats and Canoes

Above canoe represents ARNOLD'S ORIGINAL BOW. We build the prettiest, safest and easiest paddling canoe on the river. If you are thinking of purchasing a canoe call on us and we will show you what we have in the canoe line.

Boats and Canoes To Let

299 Crescent Street, Waltham, Mass.

ELECTRIC CARS PASS THE DOOR.

WELL-KNOWN REAL ESTATE BUSINESS CHANGES HANDS

The long established and well-known real estate firm of Turner & Williams, of Newtonville has been transferred to Mr. John T. Burns of Newton, who has taken possession. The offices at 90 Bowers street, Newtonville will be entirely remodelled and the business will be carried on by Mr. Burns' son, Thomas H. Burns; and together with Newton office will enable this firm to be in closer contact with their clients and property owners in the Newtons.

NEW PROFESSOR

The announcement was made this week that Prof. George Cross of McMaster university, Toronto, was unanimously chosen to fill the chair of Christian theology in the Newton theological institution, Newton Centre, at a meeting of the trustees held in Boston. It is understood here that he will accept and will begin his new duties with the beginning of the next academic year in September.

He was born in Northumberland, Ont., in 1862, and is married and has two daughters. In 1901 he became professor of church history at McMaster university. Last year he declined a call to the head professorship in the University of Chicago, where he had given lectures during the past few years. In the Newton theological institution he will succeed Dr. Nathan E. Wood, who retired last year. The chair has since been temporarily filled by Dr. H. C. Sheldon of Boston university.

MUSIC AT ELIOT CHURCH

Organ Prelude, Spring Song... Hollins
Te Deum in B flat... Mietzke
Quartet—O taste and see how gracious... Marston Tenor solo, with Violin obligato—
"Heavenly Light"... Gounod Organ Postlude, Allegro Vivace from Second Sonata... Mendelssohn
The choir will be assisted by Miss Helen Bascomb, Violinist.

REAL ESTATE

Wiley S. & Frank Edmonds have recently completed sales and rentals in Newton. Sale of about one and a half acres of land situated corner of Park avenue and Brackett road, from Mrs. Wm. H. Brackett to Mr. Miner Robinson who will use the entire tract for erection of residence and stable.

Sale of the choice lot of 16,700 feet, corner of Franklin street and Beechcroft road from Farlow Heir Land Trust to Mr. F. I. Libby who will at once build residence on plans of Brainard & Leeds, architects.

Rental of No. 334 Franklin street, corner of Canton street, to Mr. Clifford C. Emerson.

Also the J. H. Wheelock estate, corner of Washington street and Hunnewell avenue, to Mr. Chas. W. Wentz who moves from Brookline.

Newton Centre. Sale of all the land of Mr. D. I. Kidder fronting on Grey Cliff road and Beacon street, comprising 40,700 feet, on which the purchaser, Mr. H. H. Matthews, will build one house for his own occupancy.

GOOD IDEA CLUB SOCIAL

The monthly social of the Good Idea Club of Auburndale will be held on Tuesday evening, April 27th at the Norumbega hall. It will be a "Shirt Waist Party" and the general entertainment will consist of professional musical features, suitable readings and other good things which this club has specialized. An interesting feature of the evening will be the presentation of new educative ideas along the lines of co-operative and co-educative physical culture according to the latest methods of social psychology.

ORGAN RECITAL

Mr. John Herman Loud's 30th free organ recital in First Baptist church, Newton Centre, will take place next Monday evening. Miss Marian Haskell, soprano, will assist.

PROGRAM

1. Prelude and Fugue in A minor Bach
2. April Song... Brewer
3. Soprano Recit. and Aria—"On Mighty Pains"... Haydn
(From "The Creation")
4. Vorspiel to "Parsifal"... Wagner
(By special request)
5. Marche Funebre et Chant Seraphique... Guilmant
6. Solos:
a "Ah, but a Day"... Mrs. Beach
b "In snowy weather"... Max Reger
c "The Year's at the Spring"... Mrs. Beach
7. Improvisation on a given theme.

LLOYD'S

EYEGLASSES & SPECTACLES

Everyone is cordially invited to examine our stock and facilities for making glasses; and to compare our prices, without incurring the least obligation to buy.

ANDREW J. LLOYD CO.
315 Washington St.
310 Boylston St.
75 Summer St.
Boston.
and 1252 Massachusetts Ave. Cambridge

THE UNITARIAN CLUB

The Unitarian Club will conclude its series of meetings for the season at Channing church on Friday evening, April 23, at 8 o'clock with the annual ladies' night. Mrs. Margaret Deland will read two of her essays, "The Immediate Jewel" and "Concerning the Saints," and music will be furnished under direction of Mr. Henry T. Wade. After the completion of the program there will be an informal reception and refreshments will be served.

CITY OF NEWTON.

Notice is hereby given under Chapter 100 of the Revised Laws that Wilbur A. Payne is an applicant for a sixth-class liquor license for use in his business as an apothecary at 1003 Watertown Street, Ward 3.

By order of the Board of Aldermen, ISAAC F. KINGSBURY, City Clerk.

CITY OF NEWTON.

Notice is hereby given under Chapter 100 of the Revised Laws that P. J. Evremont Lacroix is an applicant for a sixth-class liquor license for use in his business as an apothecary at 302 Watertown Street, Ward 1.

By order of the Board of Aldermen, ISAAC F. KINGSBURY, City Clerk.

CITY OF NEWTON.

Notice is hereby given under Chapter 100 of the Revised Laws that Fred A. Hubbard is an applicant for a sixth-class liquor license for use in his business as an apothecary at 425 Centre Street, Ward 1.

By order of the Board of Aldermen, ISAAC F. KINGSBURY, City Clerk.

CITY OF NEWTON.

Notice is hereby given under Chapter 100 of the Revised Laws that Walter P. Thorne is an applicant for a sixth-class liquor license for use in his business as an apothecary at 293 Auburn Street, Ward 4.

By order of the Board of Aldermen, ISAAC F. KINGSBURY, City Clerk.

CITY OF NEWTON.

Notice is hereby given under Chapter 100 of the Revised Laws that Hermon O. Webster is an applicant for a sixth-class liquor license for use in his business as an apothecary at 349 Auburn Street, Ward 4.

By order of the Board of Aldermen, ISAAC F. KINGSBURY, City Clerk.

CITY OF NEWTON.

Notice is hereby given under Chapter 100 of the Revised Laws that Walter E. Mars is an applicant for a sixth-class liquor license for use in his business as an apothecary at 258 Washington Street, Ward 7.

By order of the Board of Aldermen, ISAAC F. KINGSBURY, City Clerk.

CITY OF NEWTON.

Notice is hereby given under Chapter 100 of the Revised Laws that Alexander Fox is an applicant for a sixth-class liquor license for use in his business as an apothecary at 334 Watertown Street, Ward 1.

By order of the Board of Aldermen, ISAAC F. KINGSBURY, City Clerk.

CITY OF NEWTON.

Notice is hereby given under Chapter 100 of the Revised Laws that George W. Hunt is an applicant for a sixth-class liquor license for use in his business as an apothecary at 1409 Washington Street, Ward 3.

By order of the Board of Aldermen, ISAAC F. KINGSBURY, City Clerk.

CITY OF NEWTON.

Notice is hereby given under Chapter 100 of the Revised Laws that Joseph G. Kilburn is an applicant for a sixth-class liquor license for use in his business as an apothecary at 291 Watertown Street, Ward 1.

By order of the Board of Aldermen, ISAAC F. KINGSBURY, City Clerk.

CITY OF NEWTON.

Notice is hereby given under Chapter 100 of the Revised Laws that Wm. F. Hahn is an applicant for a sixth-class liquor license for use in his business as an apothecary at 354 Centre Street, Ward 7.

By order of the Board of Aldermen, ISAAC F. KINGSBURY, City Clerk.

CITY OF NEWTON.

Notice is hereby given under Chapter 100 of the Revised Laws that Edward F. Partridge is an applicant for a sixth-class liquor license for use in his business as an apothecary at 835 Washington Street, Ward 2.

By order of the Board of Aldermen, ISAAC F. KINGSBURY, City Clerk.

CITY OF NEWTON.

Notice is hereby given under Chapter 100 of the Revised Laws that Arthur Hudson is an applicant for a sixth-class liquor license for use in his business as an apothecary at 265 Washington Street, Ward 7.

By order of the Board of Aldermen, ISAAC F. KINGSBURY, City Clerk.

CITY OF NEWTON.

Notice is hereby given under Chapter 100 of the Revised Laws that Isaac H. Snow is an applicant for a sixth-class liquor license for use in his business as an apothecary at 1381 Washington Street, Ward 3.

By order of the Board of Aldermen, ISAAC F. KINGSBURY, City Clerk.

CITY OF NEWTON.

Notice is hereby given under Chapter 100 of the Revised Laws that Gordon H. Rhodes is an applicant for a sixth-class liquor license for use in his business as an apothecary at 1619 Beacon Street, Ward 5.

By order of the Board of Aldermen, ISAAC F. KINGSBURY, City Clerk.

CITY OF NEWTON.

Notice is hereby given under Chapter 100 of the Revised Laws that Thomas W. White is an applicant for a sixth-class liquor license for use in his business as an apothecary at 391 Eliot Street, Ward 5.

By order of the Board of Aldermen, ISAAC F. KINGSBURY, City Clerk.

The Children's Favorite Photographer.

Webster, Waltham.

111 MOODY STREET

FRANCIS MURDOCK

Insurance Agent

BANK BUILDING. NEWTON, MASS.

INSURANCE TO ANY AMOUNT placed in first-class Stock and Mutual companies

Sole Agent for Newton of the Middlesex Mutual of Concord, Mass.

JAMES PAXTON & CO.

Confectioners and Caterers

388 Centre Street, - Newton

ELIOT BLOCK

Telephone, Newton North 68

HENRY F. CATE

Successor to STEPHEN F. CATE

Undertaker

1251 Washington St. West Newton

Telephone Connection

GEO. W. MILLS

Undertaker

48 Years' Experience Highest Reference

Claffin Bldg., 817-819 Washington St., Newtonville

Telephone Office 112-3, Residence 855-2 N. N.

VINELAND

UNFERMENTED GRAPE JUICE

A Life Giving Drink

25 and 45c.

G. P. ATKINS

Centre Street - Newton

Monumental Works

Established 1873.

GEORGE R. SANDS

457 Mt. Auburn Street

Telephone CAMBRIDGE

Mortgagee's Sale of Real Estate

By virtue of and pursuant to the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage given by Alton Babcock to Charles C. Stearns dated March ninth, 1906 and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book 3218, Page 477 for breach of the conditions therein contained and for the purpose of foreclosing the same will be sold at public auction on the premises hereinafter described on Monday April 26th 1909 at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises in said mortgage deed described as follows:

Two certain lots or parcels of land in Newton in said County of Middlesex, being lots numbered thirty-one and thirty-five on a plan of lots at Newton Highlands owned by Edgar W. Foster, E. Worthington Jr. Engineer, March 1896, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book of plans 89, plan 36, to which reference may be had for a more particular description.

Said lots are more particularly bounded and described as follows: Lot thirty-one is bounded South-west by Boylston Road 62.25-100 feet North-west by lot thirty on said plan 79.48-100 feet, North-east by lot twenty-four and twenty-five on said plan 101.61-100 feet and South-east by lot forty-two and forty-three on said plan 83.88-100 feet.

Lot thirty-five is bounded North-east by said Boylston Road 92.3-100 feet, North-west by lot thirty-four on said plan 77.88-100 feet, West by lot thirty-nine on said plan 64.4-100 feet and South by lot forty and forty-one on said plan 83.4-100 feet.

Said premises will be sold subject to any existing restrictions of record and any liens for taxes or assessments, $200 at time and place of sale. Other terms at sale.

STEPHEN A. POPE, Assignee and present holder of said mortgage.

Ralph B. McDaniel, Atty., 60 State St., Boston, Mass.

Is Your House Wired?

WITH ELECTRICITY AT 12 CENTS

Every Householder Should Obtain Estimates

Wm. H. Colgan

ELECTRICAL CONTRACTOR

1238 Washington St., West Newton

Telephone N. West 310

Carriage and Automobile Painting

L. P. BONNIER, Shop 80 Arsenal Street, Watertown

(Formerly with the best Automobile Painter in N. Y. City.)

ALL WORK GUARANTEED. CALL AND GET OUR PRICES.

Back Bay Veterinary Hospital

332 NEWBURY ST., BOSTON

THE BEST ORDERED AND EQUIPPED HOSPITAL FOR ANIMALS IN BOSTON

Outside Calls Given Prompt Attention Day or Night

OPERATIONS A SPECIALTY

JAMES WILLIAM TOBIN, M. D. V.

SUCCESSOR TO LYMAN & LYMAN

Telephone, Hospital 2200 Back Bay. Residence Telephone, Brookline 1101-4.

ROBERT F. CRANITCH

(Successor to L. H. Cranitch)

House, Sign and Ornamental Painter

Paper Hangings in Great Variety. Work Promptly Done.

Walnut Street Newtonville.

FRENCH MILLINER

Leading Styles in Millinery

MILLE. ROBILLARD

48 Main Street Watertown Square.

MRS. B. HOFFMAN

CHIROPODY

Hair Dressing Facial and Scalp Massage. Manicuring

Parmenter Building Room 5, 27 Moody St., Waltham, Mass.

Tel. 596-4.

CAST OFF CLOTHING WANTED

HIGHEST CASH PRICES PAID

TED SKINNER 39 Boylston St., Harvard Sq. CAMB. Tel. 223-1 Camb.

H. W. BERRY

Sole Agent for the Celebrated Gold Medal STRICH & ZEIDLER, also first class H.W. BERRY, JAMES & HOLMSTROM and KELLER & SONS

PIANOS

646 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON.

Tel. 1278-2 Oxford.

JOBING PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO

Estimates Given

HARDWOOD FLOORS A SPECIALTY

RODERICK MacLEAN

Carpenter and Builder

Shop: 16 Centre Place, Tel. 384-3

Residence: 36 Thorne Street, Newton, Mass.

Waverley Conservatories

Beautiful Plants and Flowers

WILLIAM W. EDGAR CO.

Tel. 58-1 Belmont

First-Class Dressmaker

would like engagement to go out by the day. Address L. L. BOWER, 60 Bowers Street, Newtonville.

TO RENT.

House 10 Rms. Modern. Hard Wood floors, open Plumbing, broad Piazzas, first class Neighborhood, 17213 ft. land, shade and fruit trees, 3 minutes from Steam and Electric. (Good Repair.)

TURNER & WILLIAMS

NEWTONVILLE, MASS.

Telephone 424-2 North

Custom Harness and Fine Trunk and Bag Repairs

John F. Conley

176 MOODY STREET WALTHAM, MASS.

I. L. CORTELL & CO.

Formerly with Shreve, Crump & Low and Jordan Marsh & Co.

Electricians and Gas Fitters

JOBING IN ALL BRANCHES

373 Washington St., Brighton

Telephone 108-2 Brighton

Our new and thoroughly modern banking rooms and safe deposit vaults place at your command banking facilities that are second to none.

The Commonwealth Trust Co.
88 Summer Street corner Devonshire Street, Boston

We Cure Sick Chimneys

If you have a chimney which does not draw well we will make it draw or will make no charge. Smoky fireplaces absolutely cured by the use of our ventilators. Write for particulars.

The Vacuum Ventilating Co.
6 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass.
Tel. Hay. 972

Partridge and ...
Photographer and ...
Frame Maker

WE have on exhibition in our window at the NEWTONVILLE STUDIO the finest display of PORTRAITS in free-hand ever shown in this vicinity. They are in CRAYON, RED CHALK and WATER COLORS on IVORY, PARCHMENT and PORCELAIN. We should be pleased to quote prices. We should also be pleased to have you call and see them whether you wish to order or not.

BROOKLINE, 27 Harvard Street

ROXBURY, 2832 Washington Street

Why Certainly

You Can Rid Your House of Water Bugs and Roaches if You Use . . .

Barnard's Water Bug and Roach Exterminator.
ITS WARRANTED. SOLD EVERYWHERE. BY MAIL 50c.
BARNARD & CO., 7 Temple Place

Brae-Burn Nursery

6. HOWARD FROST & CO., 193 FULLER STREET WEST NEWTON

Hairdressing and Manicure Shop

Boston's Most Unique and "Up-to-the-Minute" Most Improved and Advanced Methods used in Manicuring, Facial Treatment, Shampooing and Hair-Dressing

SHEPHERD AND FORD Telephone 1986-2 Oxford
175 TREMONT STREET, ROOM 46-47 (Fourth Floor) BOSTON, MASS.
(Near Tremont Theatre)

P. E. Waltner & Co.

Tailors

17 MILK STREET, BOSTON

P. E. WALTNER, Formerly Outfit for W. C. Brooks & Co.

MANUFACTURERS OF Flags
Tents
Awnings
(And all kinds of Canvas Goods)

COTTON DUCK
From 1 to 12 Feet Wide

For Roofs, Wagons, Landfills, Boats, and various other purposes.
CANOPIES TO LET FOR WEDDINGS, RECEPTIONS, ETC.

C. H. BATCHELDER & CO.

Telephone, Richmond 1575

234-236-238-240 State Street, Boston

Mme. Buettel Arnould Millinery Parlors

AND

J. C. Arnould
French Ostrich Feather Work

ARE NOW LOCATED AT 7 TEMPLE PLACE, ROOMS 63-64 BOSTON
TAKE ELEVATOR

Board of Aldermen

A lively hearing on a petition that the aldermen revoke a license to keep and sell gasoline, occupied considerable time at the regular meeting of the aldermen last Monday evening. President Weston was in the chair and Aldermen Avery, Bacon, Cabot, Clarke, Day, Doherty, Gray, Holmes, Lyons, Miller, Moore, Palmer, Stone, Underwood, Webster and White were also present.

Mr. Charles B. Lentell, a large property owner in the vicinity of Mr. Person's place strongly objected to the use of the premises for the storage of oil, and called attention to the fact that practically no notice had been given the abutters by the posting of the notice of the previous hearing. Objections were also entered by Mr. Fred W. Cole, H. W. Sweet and E. B. Clark on the ground that such a business was a nuisance and would cause property to depreciate. Mr. C. A. Person said that after receiving the permit of the board he had purchased the property, and erected a barn and believed he would have just cause to complain if the permit was now revoked. Mr. J. Weston Allen also represented Mr. Person and said that the approval of the state police had been withheld until the past ten days by the press of other business, but that he felt authorized to state that unless this board took different action, the permit would be approved at the state house. Mr. Allen also called attention to the fact that until the business was actually established, there could be no cause for revocation.

A hearing which was to have been held on the petition of Fred A. Harvie to locate a 15 H. P. steam engine and 30 H. P. boiler on Washington street, Lower Falls, was called off, as Mr. Harvie sent in a sarcastic letter withdrawing his petition.

No one appeared at hearings on petitions of the Telephone Co. for attachments on Harvard street and for locations on Rutledge road, nor upon orders taking land for sewer purposes in Farlow and Huntington roads, and for concrete sidewalks under betterment act on Lexington street and on Rogers street.

The mayor sent in the appointment of John G. Thompson as assistant assessor in Ward 2, vice Williams deceased, and the appointment was confirmed with 15 favorable ballots.

Communications were received from the board of health for sewers in Bradford road, Carver road, Plymouth road, Endicott street and Windsor road, from Public Buildings commissioner relative to application of John Shorten to erect a frame store on California street, from the American Trust Co. relative to tracks on Homer street, and from the Police Commissioner of Boston relative to appointment of Eugene E. Lawson, Robert C. Karnes and Robert Walsh as railroad police officers.

A communication was received from the Secretary of the Commonwealth relative to the incorporation of the Keneseth Israel Anshe Sephard and a favorable recommendation was voted.

Petitions were received from W. Z. Ripley for laying out of Bracebridge road, of F. J. Pingree for sewer in Windsor road, of the Supt. Working Boys' Home for concrete sidewalks on Winchester street, of F. W. Cole for concrete sidewalks under betterment act on Floral and Boylston streets, of Catherine E. Kennedy for damages on account of fall on Cherry street, of Jos. S. Hunt for concrete sidewalk under betterment act on Auburn and Woodbine streets, of F. J. Ritter for sewer in Manomet road, of Edward C. Hammond and Frances A. Beasley for damages for cutting down of trees.

Petitions of E. A. Robinson and R. J. Morrissey for auctioneers' licenses were granted.

Hearings on April 26 were ordered on petitions of the Telephone Company for attachments on West street, Commonwealth avenue and Lexington street and hearings were ordered for May 10 on petitions of W. H. Colgan to locate a 10 H. P. gas engine at 1238 Washington street and of F. F. Dudley for license to sell gasoline at 2056 Commonwealth avenue.

These petitions for various licenses were received:—

Common Victuallers: Mrs. D. E. Kessler, 331 Watertown street; J. B. Morrell, 832 Washington street; F. H. Boston, 1257 Washington street; Gustav Neuenfeld, Metropolitan Park; Boat House; Gray & Frost, 121 Charles street; Charles H. Sadler, Terminal Boat House; Norumbega Park Co., Norumbega Park; Ralph R. Hill, Boat House; Metropolitan Park; John R. Robertson, Boat House; William A. Sweetall Co., Commonwealth avenue and Washington street; Mrs. Carrie Gordon, 337 Chestnut street; A. D. Merriam, 663 Walnut street; William P. Sweeney, 257 Washington street; Arthur E. Stoddard, 353 Centre street; F. S. Wilbur, 311 Centre street; Louis Solari, 315 Centre street; Alexander Gilmore, 851 Washington street; Charles A. Baker, 1373 Washington street; John R. Laurie, 216 Washington street; John H. Sullivan, Lanch Cart, 250 Washington street; James E. MacKinnon, 57 Langleigh road.

Liquor: Timothy P. O'Keefe, Jacob McKinnon, Abraham Luff, Max Canter, Philip Shriberg, Morris Greenwald, Benjamin Glitz, Max Silverman, Abram Trackman, Joseph Hoffman, Morris Gilka, Hyman Shelman, John J. Miskella, John J. Delaney, Abram Shreier, Jacob Klugman, L. Grinspoon, Davis Bronfman, Hyman Mellman, Joseph Mellman, George Beck, Sam Wax, Max Mellman.

Sixth Class Liquor: Fred A. Hubbard, 425 Centre street; Joseph G. Kilburn, 25 Watertown street; P. J. Eyremond, Lacey's, 302 Watertown street; Alexander Fox, 334 Watertown street; John F. Payne, 277 Walnut street; Edward F. Partridge, 835 Washington street; George A. Edmonds, 300 Walnut street; George W. Hunt, 1409 Washington street; Wilbur F. Payne, 1003 Watertown street; Isaac H. Snow, 1381 Washington street; Albert F. Wright, 1355 Washington street; Walter P. Thorn, 293 Auburn street; Hermon O. Webster, 349 Auburn street; Thomas W. White, 301 Elliot street; Joseph T. Waterhouse, 1 Lincoln street; Jacob I. Green, 32 Lincoln street; Gordon H. Rhodes, 1649 Beacon street; Bernard Hillings Co., Inc., 1009 Chestnut street; William Hahn, 105 Union street; John J. Noble, 1217 Centre street; William

F. Hahn, 354 Centre street; Arthur Hudson, 265 Washington street; Walter E. Mars, 258 Washington street.

Billiard Tables, Pool Tables, Bowling Alleys: Newton Club, 345 Walnut street; Michael L. Flaherty, 357 Watertown street; George F. Hall, 357 Watertown street; Neighborhood Club, 24 Berkeley street; B. F. Lyons, 1395 Washington street; D. F. Riordan, 301 Auburn street; Newton Boat Club, Inc., 107 Charles street; Charles D. Buono, 341 Auburn street; George W. Dunleavy, 2260 Washington street and 86 High street; Odd Fellows Building Association, 1156 Walnut street; Quinobquin Association, Chestnut street; Ellis O'Hara, 342 Elliot street; W. Q. Gulliver, 17 Lincoln street; Brue Burn Country Club, 326 Fuller street; Chestnut Hill Club, 50 Middlesex road; William Webb, 83 Union street; Ira Locke & Co., 287 Washington street; Y. M. C. A., 394 Centre street; Hunnewell Club, 84 Eldridge street; William P. Sweeney, 255 Washington street.

Intelligence Offices: Mrs. Ellen A. Kelley, 387 Washington street; A. A. Kneeland, 831 Washington street; J. M. Jones, 727 Washington street; Mary F. McCraw, 9 Curve street; Mrs. H. J. O'Neill, 27 Chestnut street; Mary E. Hosmer, 1405 Washington street; Mrs. Violet Davis, 1153 Walnut street; Newton Centre Employment and Industrial Exchange, 70 Union street; Louis A. Vachon, 1209 Centre street; Newton Women's Exchange, 275 Washington street; Mary E. P. Sloan, 342 Centre street; Estella V. Makee, 93 Union street.

Express Wagons and Liquor Transportation Permits: Michael J. Mulcahy, John Muse, Nicholas Vedueco, W. O. Harrington, Giacomo De Luca, J. S. Roberts & Son, Martin J. Feeney, E. I. Lindley, Domenico Guzzi, Johnson & Keyes Ex. Co., Isaac Stewart, Christopher McHale, F. Casbarri, Joseph P. Burke, Adams Ex. Co., J. H. Smith, Agent, Robert H. Langell, Charles G. Newcomb, H. M. Leacy, Horatio Butters, William Bailey, Daniel F. Warren, Mary J. Kenny, American Express Co., Shea's Ex. John F. Taylor, William C. McIntosh, James Troy, Walter Burns, C. H. Keefe.

Wagons: R. J. Murphy, William J. Holmes, Arthur J. Gibson, P. H. Donahue, Walter P. Sisson, Mrs. Margaret Brady, John J. Eustis, Edward Wilson, Christopher O'Brien, M. C. Hardy, N. A. Ross, Charles Carter, Martin Maloney, Frank Benson, J. W. Wilson & Co., H. M. Manning, George B. Wilson, Frank Graham, Muldoon & Stanfield, Robert Weir, J. H. Murray, H. A. Eagles, W. H. McIntire, S. J. McNelly, W. J. Kocher, J. O. Smart.

Hackney Carriages: John Flood, Mrs. Margaret Brady, A. F. Whalen, A. F. Harrington, J. O. Smart, Timothy J. Kennedy, J. V. Monaghan & Son, T. F. Niellody, W. N. Fisher, William C. McIntosh, Frank Graham, C. B. Holden, Robert Weir, Muldoon & Stanfield, Henry C. Daniels, Geo. W. Bush Co., J. F. Schworer, James M. Fitzgerald, S. J. McNelly, W. J. Kocher.

Inholders: Harry T. Miller, Woodland Park Hotel; C. H. Shelnut, 19 Woodbine street, Ward 4.

Amusement Park: Norumbega Park Co.

Dealer in Second-Hand Articles: J. H. Murray, 1233 Centre street; Sealey Bros. Co., 803 Washington street; Fannie H. Tinkel, 405 Watertown street.

Power Boats: Moses Colon, Young & Thompson.

On reports of committees, settlements were authorized in claims of Ellen Driscoll, $80, Jeremiah J. McCarthy, $30, and John J. Murphy $23, the Gas Light Co. was granted location for pole and attachments on Sterling street, and a relocation on Allston street, the Telephone Company was granted, attachments on Forest avenue and Allston street, location on Allston street, the Gas Light Co. given permit to remove a pole on Allston street, a minors' license was granted Francis P. Kenefick, licenses as weigher of coal and measurer of wood granted Henry T. Hesse, permits given Lewis Andrews to erect a frame store addition on Oak street to Thos. F. Seeley to alter the second story of building on Church street, and John H. Barry granted permit to run a moving picture and vaudeville show in Nonantum hall.

Leave to withdraw was also voted on claims of Edward A. Janse for damages to cows, to W. A. Fernald for abatement of betterment assessment on Winona street, to F. A. Dolloff for damages received on Boylston street, to the Gas Light Co. for pole locations on Putnam street, to the Telephone Co. for attachments on Allston street, and on the application of M. E. Boardley to erect a lunch room on Commonwealth avenue.

Orders were also passed appropriating $22,000 for equipment of Technical High school, authorizing issue of $32,000 in serial bonds for ten years for construction and equipment of Technical High School, assigning hearings April 26 on concrete sidewalks under betterment act on Centre and on Cypress streets, and for alteration of Charles street, taking land for sewer purposes and authorizing construction in Farlow and Huntington roads, authorizing concrete sidewalks under betterment act on Lexington street and on Rogers street, authorizing sewers in Windsor road and in Commonwealth avenue, Ward 4, transferring $1,500 from certain appropriations to parks and playgrounds, transferring $287.50 from Technical High school account to Miscellaneous account, abating certain assessments levied years ago for work on Newtonville drain and on Mugge drain, authorizing the sprinkling of certain streets and the levying of assessments therefor, returning $2 paid by the late G. F. Williams deceased for an auctioneer license, granting $300 for miscellaneous expenses Police department, authorizing water mains in Oakwood road and Whitlow road.

An order offered by Alderman Moore requesting the chief of district police to disapprove permit to C. A. Person to keep and sell gasoline on Winchester street was referred, after Aldermen White and Day had protested against immediate action.

A long recess was held for committee meetings and the board adjourned at 9:38.

Some folks have rats in their garrets, some have rats in their cellars, and while not a few young ladies have good-sized rats in their hair.

Dry Cold Storage

Furs, Clothing and Rugs

Constant improvement of our facilities and increase of this branch of our business enables us to offer the

Reduced Rate of 3%

of the agreed valuation with reasonable minimum charges.

Our modern scientific methods of examining and cleaning furs by expert furriers before they are put in storage is worth alone the entire cost. REDUCED PRICES on all furs purchased or remodeled now, with STORAGE FREE.

FURS CALLED FOR AND DELIVERED

Telephone Oxford 1396

A. N. COOK & CO.

N. C. COOK, Proprietor

HATTERS AND FURRIERS

161 TREMONT STREET, BOSTON

Boston Elevated Railway Co.

SURFACE LINES

WATERTOWN TO HANOVER ST. (Via Arsenal St.)—6:31 a.m., and intervals of 10, 15 and 20 minutes to 11:31 p.m. SUNDAY—7:03 a.m., and intervals of 20 and 15 minutes to 11:32 p.m.

NEWTON AND WATERTOWN TO HANOVER ST. (Via Mt. Auburn)—5:15 a.m., and intervals of 8, 15 and 20 minutes to 12:13 a.m. SUNDAY—5:54 a.m., and intervals of 15 and 10 minutes to 12:13 a.m.

NIGHT AND EARLY MORNING SERVICE. Newton to Adams Sq., via Mt. Auburn, 12:42, 1:39, 2:39, 4:39 (5:39 Sunday) a.m. Return leave Adams Sq. 12:35, 1:35, 2:35, 3:35, 4:35, (5:35 Sunday) a.m.

NEWTON AND WATERTOWN TO PARK ST. SUBWAY (Via Mt. Auburn St.)—7:02 a.m., and every 15 minutes to 10:49 p.m. SUNDAY 8:17 a.m., and every 15 minutes to 10:49 p.m.

WATERTOWN SQ. TO SUBWAY. (Via North Beacon St. and Commonwealth Ave.)—5:40, 5:54 a.m., and intervals of 8 and 15 minutes to 11:05 p.m. SUNDAY—6:53, 7:23, 7:54 a.m., and intervals of 15 minutes to 11:05 p.m.

C. S. SERGEANT, Vice-Pres.
January 9, 1909.

LADIES' TAILOR AND DRESSMAKING SUITS, SKIRTS AND COATS to Order. Fancy Waists and Costumes for all occasions, style and fit guaranteed. Alterations, Cleaning and Pressing.

L. E. CARNALL

288 Moody St. WALTHAM, MASS.

Middlesex Collection Agency

COLLECTIONS MADE ANYWHERE

No Collection, Established 1908. No Charge General Office, Room 8, A. O. U. W. Building Waltham

20 YEARS' EXPERIENCE!

Scientific Spraying and Trimming of Trees

and ALL BRANCHES OF FORESTRY

BYPSY AND BROWN-TAILED MOTH WORK

Given Careful Attention

Four years with the Massachusetts Board of Agriculture on Gypsy Moth Commission

W. J. HUNTER, Expert Forester

Prospect Hill Ave. Waltham, Mass.

Lawyers.

LAW OFFICE

W. S. & W. S. SLOCUM

WINFIELD S. SLOCUM

City Solicitor of Newton

Rooms 1103, 1104 Carney Bldg.

44 Tremont St., BOSTON, MASS.

Residence, Newtonville

After Easter Dress Good Values

Perhaps you haven't as yet selected the material for your NEW SPRING SUIT, and the satisfaction of having it made from the best materials may be yours if you'll only take time to look into the value that this Dress Goods Section offers the coming week. All the old line staples, all the new modish, graceful fabrics that are the creation of this season's designers, as well as the trimmings and linings, are here for you, for the outlay of very little money.

Come and See For Yourself

42-INCH FRENCH SERGE.

Showing the Self Color Stripe, particularly good for summer wear $1.00 yd

ALL WORSTED SERGES.

Every color now in stock, 50 inches wide. No better material made for service and durability of color..... $1.00 yd

FANCY STRIPE MOHAIRS.

50 inches wide, stylish, durable and makes up beautifully $1.50 yd

LITTLE PRINCESS CLOTH.

36 inches wide; Pink, Reseda, Light Navy, Dark Navy, Black, Brown, Grey and Red. Half wool, crepe weave, with self colored dot 29c yd

STRIPE PRUNELLA.

42 inches wide, showing all the season's most wanted colors $1.00 yd

SHADOW STRIPE SILKS.

Cadet, Navy, Rose, Lavender and Pink. All good shades 39c yd

SATIN FOULARDS.

The shipment received this week completes our stock. We're showing some beautiful effects..... 75c yd

ROUGH PONGEES.

A serviceable, and at the same time stylish material for the summer dress. Here in variety of shades..... 49c yd

OUR SKIRT MAKER DELIVERED TO US THIS WEEK SIX NEW SPRING MODELS FROM WHICH WE WILL MAKE YOU A SKIRT FROM MATERIALS BOUGHT HERE FOR $1.50 EXTRA—GUARANTEEING A PERFECT FIT.

Legal Stamps

P. P. ADAMS'

BIG DRY GOODS DEPARTMENT STORE

133, 135, 137, 139 Moody St., Waltham

Newton Centre.

—Mills undertaking rooms, 817-819 Washington street, Newtonville, Tel. Newton N. 1123.

—Last Tuesday afternoon the Home Missionary Society of the Baptist church held their monthly meeting.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Fitz of Homer street are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter last Monday.

—The neighbors met with Rev. Dr. Geo. E. Horr of Institution avenue on Monday and Rev. J. M. English made an address.

—Prof. John M. Barker who has been spending a few days in New York has returned to his home on Kenwood avenue.

—Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ulmer, Jr., of Bowen street have the sympathy of their friends in the loss of their infant child last Saturday.

—The Farther Lights Circle of the Baptist church held a meeting last Monday afternoon at the home of Miss Elizabeth Stiles of Parker street.

—The 30th annual meeting of the Newton Centre Improvement Association will be held in the library of the Mason school, on Tuesday, April 27, at 7.45 P. M.

—Last Monday evening at the home of Mr. Robert Casson, the men of Trinity parish held a business meeting, and a short address was made by Mr. Albert Merrill.

—Next Tuesday evening the members of the Cottage Prayer meeting will hold their meeting at the home of Mrs. James Clark of Willow street. A cordial invitation is extended to all to be present.

—Next Monday at the Methodist church the state convention of the Epworth League will be held. A banquet will be served in the evening, and at 7.30 o'clock, Bishop Hamilton will make an address.

—The death of Mr. William Gage, an inmate at the Poor Farm on Winchester street occurred last Saturday morning. Mr. Gage was sixty-eight years old, and a resident of this village for many years.

—Early last Monday morning the residents about Crystal Lake were awakened by the reports of several rifle shots. It was only an amateur hunter attempting to kill some wild geese which had alighted on the lake.

—The death of the three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Kelly of North street occurred last Wednesday afternoon at the Newton hospital. The little girl died of burns which she contracted early this week while playing near the fire.

—The wedding of Mr. James Melaney of North street, and Miss Elizabeth Williams of Cemetery avenue, took place last Wednesday morning at the Church of the Sacred Heart, the Rev. Fr. Riordan officiating. After a short honeymoon they will reside in Boston, where he is employed as a clerk in the post-office.

—Preliminary arrangements have been made for a mass meeting in the assembly hall of the Mason school, Monday evening, April 26, when the representative committee of citizens will report on an organization for the welfare of the Boys of the village. It is expected that addresses will be given by Mr. Lee F. Hammer, Mr. John E. Gunkel and Miss Jane Day.

—The Unitarian Society has extended a call to Rev. Alton H. Robinson, for the last five years settled at Newburgh, N. Y., and he will become its pastor early in May. Mr. Robinson was born and bred in New England, received his education at Harvard, and is himself the son of a Unitarian minister. Next Sunday the pulpit will be supplied by Rev. George Gilmore of Buffalo.

Waban.

—Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Turner of Windsor road on the birth of a son on Wednesday.

—Mrs. Wm. A. Toles of Moffat road entertained the members of the Luncheon Whist Club on Thursday afternoon.

—Miss Eleanor Putnam of Upland road was confined to her home for several days last week by a severely sprained ankle.

—The Guild of the Good Shepherd held its weekly meeting at the home of Madame Chadbourne, Irvington street, Tuesday.

—Mills undertaking rooms, 817-819 Washington street, Newtonville. Tel. 1123. Leave calls at Rhodes' Drug store. Tel. Newton S. 2373.

J. D. Packard & Sons Co.

29 BRIGHTON AVENUE, ALLSTON

Have on hand a large assortment of high grade horses, consisting of Matched Pairs, Sadlers and family horses.

Telephone Brighton 361-3

THE NEWTON TAILORING CO.

Ladies' and Gent's Custom Tailors.

Suits Made to Order in the Latest Styles. Cleaning, Dyeing, Pressing and Repairing. Ladies' Garments Altered and Renodeled.

413 CENTRE STREET OPP. THE POST OFFICE NEWTON, MASS.

Work called for and delivered. Special Arrangements for Monthly Pressing. Tel. 706-4. Open Evenings

GEO. T. HOYT CO.

Bunting-Flags

Canopies for Church and Home Weddings

Horse and Wagon Covers

Tents, Etc.

52 SOUTH MARKET STREET

Corner Commercial, BOSTON, MASS.

Tel. Richmond 1015

Newton Highlands

—The Monday Club will meet next Tuesday with Mrs. Geo. M. Stone on Walnut street.

—A food sale will be held by the ladies of the M. E. church at Miss Chase's store on Saturday afternoon.

—Mrs. W. E. B. Ryler and Mrs. C. F. Johnson have returned home from a week's outing at Washington, D. C.

—The C. L. S. C. will meet next Tuesday afternoon, April 20, at the home of Miss Ella N. Bacall, Forest street.

—Mills undertaking rooms, 817-819 Washington street, Newtonville. Tel. 1123. Leave calls with H. S. Hiltz, Eliot Station.

—Mr. Freedom Hutchinson and family of Lincoln street moved into their new house on Centre street, Newton, this week.

—Mr. H. A. Edgecomb of Norman road, who has been a stenographer in the service of the War Department Engineers for the last ten years, has been appointed official stenographer of the Superior Court for Plymouth County.

—Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Mellor of Plymouth announce the engagement of their daughter, Ethel Louise to Mr. William R. Owings of Fisher avenue. Mr. Owings is a practicing attorney in Boston and is a graduate of Georgetown University.

—A regular meeting of the Men's League, which was held at the Congregational church last night, an illustrated lecture was given by Rev. R. B. Guild, his subject being "The Man From Italy." A large number attended the meeting.

LAND-STILES

Miss Elizabeth C. Stiles, the daughter of Mrs. Dwight Chester of Newton Centre became the bride of Mr. Emory Scott Land, assistant naval constructor, U. S. N., yesterday afternoon at four o'clock. The ceremony took place at the First Baptist church, Newton Centre, which was beautifully decorated with greens and Easter lilies.

The bridegroom, who is a graduate of Mass. Institute of Technology, the University of Wyoming, and of the Annapolis Naval Academy, '02, was in full uniform, as were five of the ushers, Lieutenant Byron Long, U. S. N., Connecticut, Lieutenant Samuel M. Robinson, U. S. N., Vermont, Lieutenant Donald C. Bingham, U. S. N., Viper, Asst. Naval Constructor George C. Westervelt, U. S. N., and Assistant Naval Constructor Lewis B. McBride, U. S. N., Connecticut. Mr. Junior F. Mathews of New York was also an usher. The uniforms of the wedding party, together with those worn by many of the guests gave the affair a brilliancy which was rather unusual for this city.

The bride was accompanied by Miss Gertrude R. Beecher of Brooklyn, N. Y., as maid of honor, and the best man was Dr. Robert Smith of Chicago.

The bride wore a white satin princess gown trimmed with rose point lace, and her veil of antique rose point lace had been worn by her mother. The bridesmaids, Miss Hazel Glenn Briggs of Auburn, N. Y., Miss Helen Macafee of New Haven, Conn., Miss Jessie Ames of Lowell, Miss Hope T. Parks of Newton Centre, and the matron of the brides, Mrs. Francis W. Tully of Chestnut Hill, presented a rainbow effect with massive line dresses of green, lavender, champagne, yellow, blue and rose, with chiffon embroidered coats, picture hats, wreaths of flowers and long tulle strings.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Robert G. Seymour of Philadelphia, assisted by Rev. Maurice A. Levy, pastor of the church.

A navy class pin set with a rare sapphire was the groom's gift to the bride.

A reception followed at the home of the bride at Parker street, where an interesting feature was the cutting of the wedding cake with the sword of the bridegroom.

After October 1st, Mr. and Mrs. Land will be at home at 149 Willow street, Brooklyn, N. Y., where the groom is superintending the construction of the U. S. S. Florida.

WEST NEWTON.

—Mrs. Mary S. Hunter, widow of the late Ira Hunter, died yesterday morning at her home on Putnam street, aged 90 years. Mrs. Hunter was one of the oldest residents of West Newton and is survived by a son Mr. Frank E. Hunter, and one daughter, Mrs. John S. Leonard of Boston. The funeral will be held from her late residence Saturday afternoon at one o'clock.

—Mr. John A. Bruce, for many years an assistant to Mr. Henry F. Cate, the undertaker, and his father, the late Stephen F. Cate, died last Tuesday at the Newton hospital, following a shock of paralysis which took place early Sunday morning at his room on Marginal street. Mr. Bruce was 64 years of age and had resided for many years in this village. He had been employed by three generations of the Cate family and remembered as far back as the fourth generation. He was a member of Waltham Lodge, Knights of Honor. Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at the chapel of Lincoln Park church, Rev. E. F. Snell and Rev. R. W. Van Kirk officiating, and the interment was at Weston.

Trees, Shrubs

Evergreens and Vines

Rhododendrons a Specialty

Write for Catalogue or telephone

Jamaica 377

Eastern Nurseries

HENRY S. DAWSON, Mgr.

Office at Jamaica Plain, Mass.

Nurseries at Holliston

JOHN IRVING

FLORIST

Cut Flowers, House Plants, Funeral Designs

Flowers for Weddings and Parties.

PEARL STREET NEWTON

Telephone Connection

Lost Savings Bank Book

Savings Bank Books as listed below are lost, and application has been made for payment of the accounts in accordance with Sec. 40, Chap. 230, of the Acts of 1908. Payment has been stopped.—Newton Savings Bank Book No. 163053

Moderate Cost House

$4000, Newton Centre

9 rooms, 10,000 feet High Land near Station
Henry H. Read, 45 Milk Street, Boston
17 PAUL STREET, NEWTON CENTRE

MONEY TO LOAN

on WATCHES, DIAMONDS, JEWELRY, etc.
Highest Cash Prices paid for Old Gold and Silver
Fine Watch and Jewelry Repairing
BRIGHTON LOAN OFFICE
360 Washington Street, Cor. Chestnut Hill Avenue, Brighton

DR. E. HEATH CLARK

108 TEOPATH

Ripley Terrace, NEWTON CENTRE
Monday and Thursday, Hours 1 to 4
Evenings by Appointment
Boston Branch Office, 728 Boylston Street,
Newton South 288-4 Back Bay 346

CARD OF THANKS

I desire to express my thanks to Messrs. Rowe & Porter, insurance brokers, 15 Central St., representing the Queen & North British & Mercantile Ins. Cos., for their absolute fairness and speedy settlement of the losses suffered by fire on March 7, when practically all was annihilated. Mr. George L. Allen comes in for his share. As delegate of the above companies to adjust my claims, he showed himself to be fair-minded, safeguarding the interest of not only the insurers but of the insured as well.

Yours truly,
P. S.—Will resume business in a short time.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

PROBATE COURT.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Ellen S. Chambers, late of Newton, in said County, deceased: WHEREAS, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Nellie L. Goring, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to her, the executrix therein named, without giving a surety on her official bond. You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge in said County of Middlesex, on the twentieth day of May, A. D. 1909, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in Newton, in said County, to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing post-paid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court, and is the product of said Court, on the sixth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

PROBATE COURT.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of Mary A. Reed, late of Newton, in said County, deceased: WHEREAS, a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Frederick A. O'Connor of Newton, in the County of Middlesex, without giving a surety on her bond. You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the sixth day of May, A. D. 1909, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in Newton, in said County, to be one day, at least, before said Court. Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this fourth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

PROBATE COURT.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of Joseph Otis Broad, late of Newton, in said County, deceased: WHEREAS, a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Besse Imogene Broad, of Newton, in the County of Middlesex, without giving a surety on her bond. You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the fourth day of May, A. D. 1909, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in Newton, in said County, to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this third day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

PROBATE COURT.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of Charles A. Potter and John A. Potter, both of Newton, in said County of Middlesex, without giving a surety on their bond. You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of May, A. D. 1909, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioners are hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in Newton, in said County, to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this fifth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

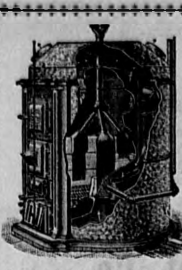

PROBATE COURT.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of Ellen S. Chambers, late of Newton, in said County, deceased: WHEREAS, a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Frederick A. O'Connor of Newton, in the County of Middlesex, without giving a surety on her bond. You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of May, A. D. 1909, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in Newton, in said County, to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this fifth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

Steam, Hot Water Heating and Plumbing

Attachments applied to Hot Air Furnaces to heat one or more rooms by Hot Water... GENERAL REPAIR WORK...

WALTER B. WOLCOTT

65 Elmwood Street, - Newton

Telephone

CANOE

We carry a large Stock constantly on hand of MOTOR AND PADDLEING CANOES

made of the best Materials and in all Styles. Prices from $25.00 to $65.00. Painting, Varnishing and Repairing neatly and promptly done. Paddles, Back Boards, Canoe Stock and Fittings Sold at Wholesale and Retail. 200 Canoes to select from, long and short deck. Unfinished Canoes for sale with or without Canvas. Our business covers 23,580 feet of floor space. Mail orders receive careful attention.

Waltham Boat and Canoe Co.
H. P. BARTLETT, Prop. Woerd Avenue, Waltham, Mass.
Telephone 577-2 Waltham

Cafe Bova

THE LEADING

Italian Restaurant

OF BOSTON

96 Arch Street, Boston

3 Doors from Summer Street

$1.00 Table D'Hote Dinner

INCLUDING WINE

(SATURDAY $1.25)

5 to 8.30 P. M.

Booths Reserved Until 6.30 P. M.

Music Until 11 O'clock

Leo E. Bova & Co., Proprietors

Tel. 1612 Fort Hill.

RUSSIAN IMPORTING CO.

428 Boylston Street, Boston

Different from everything else

Every article in this shop bears the ear-

marks of oddity,

quaintness and beauty,

and is the product of Russian peasant handicraft.

Linens and Laces

Old Jewelry and Silver

Copper and Brass

Artistic Newton Cottages

Delightfully located on a charming knoll, near the high school, Newtonville. Thoroughly modern, shingle style structure, 8

and 9 rooms, hardwood floors, open fireplaces, etc. Well constructed, cellars of solid concrete, 10,000 foot lots with gran-ulitic walks. Low prices and reasonable terms to effect immediate sale.

ALVORD BROS., & CO.

AGENTS

Newton Centre Newtonville

79 Milk Street, Boston

Wear the

Lamson &

Hubbard Hat

None Better Made

$300

$400

$500

Lamson & Hubbard

92 Bedford St. and 173 Washington St.

BOSTON

WHEN IN NEED OF

Insurance

CONSULT

ROWE & PORTER

15 Central Street, Boston

Tel. Main 684

BUTTONS

DRESS PLAITING

I HAVE introduced new methods for the production of SUNBURST SKIRTS, which enable me to plait Sunburst Skirts for $1.60

Covered and Ivory Trim Buttons in great variety to order.

I give prompt attention to mail and express orders.

C. E. FANNING

48 WINTER ST., Room 50, BOSTON, MASS

TELEPHONE CONNECTION.

Golf Stockings

Hewins & Hollis

4 Hamilton Place, Boston

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

PROBATE COURT.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of George D. Harvey late of Newton in said County, deceased: WHEREAS, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Carrie Balch Harvey, William D. Harvey and Fred P. Harvey who pray that letters testamentary may be issued to them, the executrix therein named, without giving a surety on their official bond.

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC.

VOL. XXXVII.—NO. 31.

NEWTON, MASS., FRIDAY, APRIL 23, 1909.

TERMS, $2.00 A YEAR.

First National Bank of West Newton

Capital $100,000

Surplus and Undivided Profits $68,000

Officers

CHARLES E. HATFIELD, President

JOSEPH B. ROSS, Cashier

Directors

Harry L. Burrage
Ernest B. Dane
A. Stuart Pratt

George P. Bullard
Charles A. Potter
George Royal Pulsifer
Edward F. Woods

Alfred L. Barbour
Charles E. Hatfield
Robert W. Williamson

Depository for United States, Commonwealth of Massachusetts and City of Newton

Safe Deposit Vaults for the Storage of Valuables

FIRE
MARINE LIABILITY
PLATE GLASS
BURGLARY
ACCIDENT
LIFE

S. T. EMERY
GENERAL INSURANCE
19 CENTRAL STREET
BOSTON

NEWTON CENTRE
1922 CENTRE STREET
TELEPHONES

Metropolitan Laundry

WATERTOWN, MASS.

H. H. Sawyer, Prop.

Best Work Possible to be Done

Work called for and delivered in all parts of Newton
Write or telephone and team will call

Rambler Automobiles

THE CAR FOR COUNTRY ROADS
FOR SALE BY

A. H. WAITT

390 Centre Street Newton

PHONE 962-2 NEWTON NORTH FOR A DEMONSTRATION

Ladies Tailoring and Millinery

H. WANSKER
(Formerly with J. Edelstein & Co.)

MME. W. KOFFLER
Paris Berlin

STREET COSTUMES
RIDING HABITS

LATEST FASHIONS
in MILLINERY

REPAIRING AND ALTERING

MILLINERY

363 Washington Street, Corner Thornton Street, Newton

Telephone 706-1 Newton North

Metropolitan Storage Warehouse Co.

BUILDING ABSOLUTELY FIREPROOF

184 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge, near Harvard Bridge

One of the best equipped warehouses in the country for the storage of Furniture, Pianos, Books, Pictures, and Valuables. Every room practically a large safety vault. Loads taken directly to rooms requiring but one handling.

An inspection of the building and our prices will interest all in want of storage. Telephone, 612 Cambridge.

Weber's Sample Shoe Outlet

OPPOSITE ADAMS HOUSE — 564 WASHINGTON STREET — ROOM 4

Just received 5000 pairs from different manufacturers of the very latest Snappy Up-to-Date Shoes and Oxfords in Wine, Tan and black. These are samples and countermands.

Women's $3.50 Shoes at $2.25, $2.80 and $2.75
Men's $5.00 Shoes at $3.00
Ten's $3.50 Shoes at $2.50
This is no humbug ad. We give you a square deal every day in the year. Buy your shoes of us and save from $1.00 to $2.00.

Exclusive agents for the famous Everwear Hosiery. We guarantee this hosiery for 6 months or new pairs given.

Guaranteed six months.

DON'T FORGET THE PLACE

564 Washington Street, Room 4. Up One Flight, Take Elevator
Open Evenings Until 7. Saturdays Until 10.

The "Cecilian"

The Perfect Piano Player

Come in and hear the latest records

GEORGE LINCOLN PARKER
Successor to Lincoln & Parker
211-213 TREMONT ST., BOSTON
Opposite Hotel Touraine

THE MOST IMPORTANT ARTICLE in a woman's wardrobe today is her corset, and whatever style of dress she may choose it is the corset that shows through it all and expresses her taste or the lack of it. The CZARINA Custom-Made CORSET corrects negligence and compels the wearer to assume a graceful carriage and to avoid the stiff appearance that comes from an ill-fitting corset. This corset comes in all prices. Also a full line of Special Ready-Made CORSETS that will be fitted and altered Free of Charge.

MISS M. STRETCH
48 WINTER ST Room, 44, BOSTON

SHEPARD LADIES' HATTER

Exclusive designs. Reasonable prices.
296 Boylston Street

F. Joseph Armstrong with A. Shepard, Inc. Opposite Public Gardens

IMPORTANT TO LADIES

For the month of April we will make a $30 tailored suit in the newest and most correct spring styles, made to your measure from all-wool cloths, worsteds, panamas and serges, in plain and fancy stripes, for $15. This order is good only on orders taken in March. Perfect fit and shape guaranteed. Open Tues., Thurs. and Saturday evenings.

S. D. COHEN & CO.
Designers and Ladies' Tailors
694 Washington St., Boston,
Take elevator.

Sun Plaited Skirts

AND BUTTONS

made plain or with rim
ACCORDION and KNIFE PLAITINGS

Mrs. D. A. Inwood.
58 WINTER STREET, BOSTON

ASH BARREL
Extra Strong
$2.00 to $3.00
ASH SIFTERS
Garbage Cans
The Best Makes
$1.25 to $2.50

F. A. WALKER & Co.
83-85 Cornhill, Boston
ESTABLISHED 1825

OPENING AT MCDOWELL'S
25 WINTER STREET, BOSTON
Imported Crinoline Models and Latest Paris Fashions
We will exhibit our new models of SKIRTS, COATS, SUITS, JACKETS AND HAT WANTS
Only place of its kind where ladies are invited to call and try on Crinoline models and see the effect of the garment, patterns for which are on sale.

SADDLE HORSES

TO LET

Lessons in Riding

C. M. GILBERT

580 California St., Newtonville

Tel. Newton North 1356-1

A. L. McWHIRTER
Piano Tuner
Res. 45 Irving Street Watertown
Tel. 638-2 or 979-3, Newton North
Experience from May 1906

HALL CLOCKS

PRATT

53 Franklin Street, Boston

BASE BALL.

In a game replete with spectacular base running and brilliant individual feats, executed chiefly by both of the umpires, the Pin Cushion Stickers decisively defeated the Gardner A. A. at Boyd Park, Newton last Monday morning by the score of 12 to 9. While the Gardner A. A. put up a strong game and at all times gave a good exhibition of base ball, considering their captain was absent, try as they might they could at no time equal the ease and proficiency with which the Stickers played. The latter clouted the ball at will. The features of the game were the base-throwing of Egan and Whitehead and the "square-deal" umpiring of Arizona Smith.

NECKWEAR

FOR MEN AND WOMEN

We are presenting an exquisite Collection of Spring Neckwear to our patrons, chosen with fine care and with due regard for the differences in Men's taste.

Friends refer to our shop as

"THE FINE ART HABERDASHERY"

BLANCHARD KING & CO

250 Boylston Street
Boston

S. R. Knights & Co., Office 73 Tremont Street, Boston

Trustee's Auction Sale

ESTATE OF THE LATE D. W. FARQUHAR
Pembroke and Durant Streets
NEWTON

Will be sold by Public Auction, on the premises, Monday, April 26th at 4 o'clock p. m. Modern house, 5 rooms on first floor, 10 chambers, bath and toilets on second and third floors. Slated roof, copper gutters. Lot of 19,000 to 28,500 feet as wanted. Particulars of J. W. French, 73 Tremont Street, Boston, or Auctioneers.

Tel. 545-2 Newton No.

Miss MacCONNELL

Hair Dressing, Face Treatment
Manicure, Chiropody, Toilet Articles
Nails, Warts and Superfluous Hair Removed
429 CENTRE STREET
Over Hubbard's Pharmacy

Patents-Pensions

Patents secured or no fee charged. All kinds of pension claims prosecuted. Call or write Elmer C. Richardson, 37 Tremont St., Boston. Associated with a Washington Patent Attorney

ROUD
Ladies' Tailor
420 Boylston St., Boston
Berkley Building
Room 322
Tel. 3159-1 Back Bay
Your inspection of Spring Styles is invited. Tailored Suits $35 up. Suits made from Customers' materials $18 up. Also garments remodelled, refitted; Pressed and Cleaned

THE MONO-GRAM
MAN

All the latest designs in BELT BUCKLES on PINS, Mfr. of FOBS and MONOGRAMS for all leather goods. Also AUTO MONOGRAMS.

JOHN A. SALMAN

21 Bromfield Street BOSTON

DEPOSITORS' AFFAIRS

STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL

The board of directors in considering loans, investments and other matters, regard them all as strictly confidential business of the Trust Company. Clerks are absolutely enjoined from betraying the slightest detail of any business passing through the offices.

NEW CURRENCY ALWAYS USED IN CASHING CHECKS

Accounts Invited

NEWTON TRUST CO.

OFFICES

Bank Building
Newton, Mass.

Bray Block
Newton Centre, Mass.

PASTOR RESIGNS

Rev. Frank B. Matthews, pastor of Immanuel Baptist church, surprised his congregation last Sunday morning by reading his letter of resignation. Mr. Matthews has been pastor of the church since September, 1899 and was universally esteemed. He resigns to accept a call from the First Baptist church of Redlands, Cal., which was tendered him a few weeks ago. Mr. Matthews' absence a short time ago was for the purpose of enabling him to visit the Redlands church.

Mr. Matthews is a native of the Pacific coast and received his education in the State University of Oregon and at the Rochester, N. Y. Theological Seminary. His first pastorate was at North Tonawanda, N. Y., which he resigned after a year of service to accept the pulpit of Immanuel church.

Mr. Matthews will preach his last sermon in Newton on May 2nd, and will leave that week for his new home in California. His new church offers a much larger field than Newton, having 500 members and a fine equipment for work.

ROOFING
Tel. Ex. 2152 Hay.
An examination of your premises and estimate on new work or repairs will be gladly furnished without charge.
Slate, Gravel, Copper and Tin Roofing
Also on Alterations or Repairs
Promptness with Reasonable Prices
Guaranteed
A sample of our Welch slate roofing may be seen on the new house on Dudley Road, Oak Hill District, near the top of the hill.
E. B. BADGER & SONS CO.
63-75 Pitts St., Boston, Mass.

Established 1860

JAMES I. WINGATE & SON

Painters & Decorators
402 BOYLSTON ST., BOSTON

We solicit an opportunity to demonstrate our ability to quote satisfactory prices on

Exterior Painting
Interior Painting
Hardwood Finishing
Ceilings, Etc., Etc.
Wall papers and Draperies
Furniture and Hardwood Floors
Rugs and Carpets

Secure our Estimates before placing your orders
Special designs without charge

J. MURRAY QUINBY

206 Waverley Ave.
NEWTON REPRESENTATIVE
Telephone 491-1 N. N.

BOOKS

Wanted to buy Books, Pamphlets, Magazines, Prints, Etc.

MISS LIENEMANN

38 Nevada Street Newtonville

Fernald & Squire

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE

1105 Tremont Building, Boston

FOR SALE, Auburndale. Well located; house, 9 rooms, bath, open plumbing, hard floors on first floor. $720 ft. land, more if desired. Only $3050.

AUBURNDALE. In best residential section. 11 rooms, bath, new plumbing and furnace, stable, 20,000 ft. land. Exceptional price, $6200.
Now is the time to list your properties for sale or rent.

PLANTS AT AUCTION

TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS

Hardy Roses, Shrubs and Fancy Evergreens for Tubs and Lawns

N. F. MCCARTHY & CO., AUCTIONEERS

84 HAWLEY STREET, BOSTON

Crawford

Cooking-Ranges

Our New Range a Hit!

"Palace Crawford" for large families, and "Castle Crawford" for average use.

The useless End Hearth is omitted. The ashes fall into a HOD far below the fire, which makes their removal easier and the grates to last longer. The Coal and Ash Hods are of the same size, and the Ash Hod when emptied can be returned full of coal. There is also more room on top.

Made by Walker & Pratt Mfg. Co., 31-35 Union St., Boston

WALKER & PRATT MFG. CO. WATERTOWN STORE

ANNUAL REUNION

At the 26th annual reunion of the Old Hawes Grammar School Boys, held 15th inst. at Young's Hotel, Boston, Mr. John Souther, now in his 93d year was present. This school, altho located in South Boston (the old building now occupied by primary classes) still stands on Broadway and was amongst the first if not the very first public grammar school in the city of gregational church. Mr. Davis Z. T. Gift Club was in Pinehurst, N. C., this Boston. Mr. Souther entered the school in 1823 the very first of its existence and is the only member of that first class alive. He spoke to the edification of his younger schoolmates. Mr. Wm. H. Partridge was present, of the class of 1853 graduation. Geo. Dana Burrage of Newtonville was president and presided with due grace. Henry C. Hardon now retired, entered that school as his first experience in Boston public school service. Mr. Partridge was one of his very first pupils and Mrs. Partridge was one of his pupils in a subsequent grammar school, of which he was master.

LODGES

The members of Division 54, A. O. H. are rehearsing an original drama, entitled "Uncle Rube," which will be presented in Players' hall, West Newton, early in May.

In Odd Fellows' hall, West Newton, Monday evening, May 24th, West Newton Lodge, N. E. O. P., will hold a May party. The program will consist of whist and dancing.

The "pop" concert of Mt. Ida Council, B. A., will be given next Monday evening in Dennison hall, Newtonville. The talent will be the Hayden Trio.

A meeting of Newton Centre Court, M. C. O. F., was held last evening in Circuit hall. Captain John Ryan of police headquarters was the special guest and told the story of Indian campaigns.

PECULIAR ACCIDENT

The family of Charles W. Richards had a narrow escape from serious injury early Wednesday morning, when an explosion occurred in a defective boiler in the cellar of their home at 626 Commonwealth avenue, cor Centre street, Newton Centre.

The family were asleep in the second story, but were awakened by the explosion, which shook the entire house. A considerable section of the ceiling and one side of the kitchen were demolished, together with much of the furnishings of the room, while most of the windows in the house were smashed. The cause of the explosion is not known, but it is believed that in some manner the water supply leading to the boiler became clogged and caused steam to form in the boiler. The explosion aroused several families in the neighborhood.

The dwelling caught fire. The Newton Centre apparatus quickly responded on a still alarm before the flames gained much headway. The damage is estimated at about $500.

SPADE—VITTON

Mr. Allen L. Spade and Mrs. Ellen M. Vitton of Springfield, Vt., were married Monday afternoon by the Rev. J. Edgar Park, pastor of Second Congregational church, at the home of Mrs. Charles W. Hazen, a daughter of the bride, at 860 Watertown street. The ceremony was witnessed by immediate relatives, who extended hearty congratulations. After a trip the couple will reside in Springfield, Vt., where the groom is a well known farmer. It was the second marriage of the groom and the third marriage of the bride.

Intending purchasers of fine horses or ponies will find a choice collection at J. D. Packard & Sons Co.'s stables, 29 Brighton avenue, Allston, where they have the largest variety in New England all acclimated and ready for immediate use.

ON THE DEATH OF LITTLE WALTER HEALEY

GONE TO GOD

Such a little babe,
O, so dear,
God has taken from us,
Home made dear.

Such a little soul,
O, so pure,
In the Saviour's arms,
You may be sure.

Such a little snowdrop,
O, so white,
Planted in God's garden,
Angels to delight.

Such a little jewel,
O, so bright,
Leading us to heaven
With his light.

Our babe is safely harbored,
Yet our eyes are dim,
He can never come back to us,
But we can go to him.

E. W. S.

TOWER'S PATENT, ROUND END

ANTISEPTIC TOOTH PICKS

Physicians and dentists recommend toothpicks as protection against dental decay. Our patent antiseptic toothpicks are the best made. They preserve the teeth, sweeten the breath and increase the flow of saliva. Flavors are cinnamon, sage and peppermint. Full size box sent for 15c, postage and coupon below. We are the largest cut manufacturers of toothpicks in the country.

CUTLER TOWER CO., 144 SUMMIT ST., BOSTON, MASS.

Correspondence invited with dentists, hotel men, druggists and physicians.

We want dealers and agents everywhere. Agents are making from $5 to $10 a day.

CUTLER TOWER CO., 144 SUMMIT ST., BOSTON, MASS.

Enclosed find 15c for which please send me one box of 300 Antiseptic Toothpicks.

My dentist's name is _____

My druggist's name is _____ Very truly (Name) _____

(Address) _____

THE COBB EASTMAN COMPANY

SUMMER FURNITURE

Willow-ware and rattan in beautiful patterns in tans, green silver-gray and natural, with taffeta and cretonne cushions in new designs.

Mission Furniture in fumed oak in our own and Craftsman patterns.

New taffetas and cretonnes in domestic and foreign designs all ready for inspection.

372-378 BOYLSTON STREET, BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS
101 PARK AVENUE, NEW YORK

POLICE COURT NOTES.

A row which followed a Polish wedding in a Winchester street house at Newton Highlands, Sunday evening, caused John and Kasage Groel, brothers, to be arraigned in court Tuesday on charges of assaulting Adam Vinton, a fellow countryman. For assault with a dangerous weapon, John Groel was given six months in the house of correction, and for assault and battery, Kasage was given four months. Both prisoners were given an additional month apiece for drunkenness. Vinton testified he was proceeding along the sidewalk on the way home from the wedding celebration when the Groel brothers suddenly jumped at him and stabbed him so severely that he had to be attended by a doctor.

An altercation which started among several spectators at a baseball game in West Newton Monday afternoon resulted in the arraignment of three West Newton men in court here Tuesday morning.

William H. Ryan, for assault, was given three months in the house of correction; Bartholomew J. Ryan, for drunkenness, was fined $5 but a charge of attempting to rescue a prisoner on which he had been arrested was not pressed. Francis Maloney, charged with assaulting patrolman Forristall, was fined $15, and appealed, being held in $300. It was alleged that John Lill was the victim of the assault.

On Wednesday morning, James F. Lyons was fined $35 for attempt to rescue a prisoner.

James Choloski of Walnut street, Lower Falls, was convicted in court Tuesday morning of attempting to rescue a prisoner, John Moore, whom patrolman "Joe" Seaver had arrested the night previous, on a charge of drunkenness, and was fined $10. Moore was fined $5.

HATS

Fashion has caused quite a commotion on the hat question.

What can be said in favor of the broad-brimmed hat, the flower-decked inverted dishpan and peach basket—

First, that we are all—man—woman and child—members of the human family—that the comfort, happiness and rights of each one should be respected and regarded, one for the others. What is the offence of the brown-brimmed hat? If worn anywhere else but in the street it is an offence—and there is no denying the fact. The sidewalks and streets are surely more suitable places for this display. There is room enough and to spare—and no one need fear an injury or the loss of an eye or any other danger—that is—if one is careful to give the hat a wide berth. The rules that have been insisted upon are just and right—to bar them from churches—the theatre and every other place—where people seated desire to see the speakers on any platform where entertainment is given. Is not this reasonable? And let me remind the wearer of the hat, that she is in the same box—and must suffer the same disagreeable sensations if seated behind one of these hats. The milliners are suggesting a way out of the difficulty—to build the pulpit higher. But think of it—what an expense this would be—and halls—and concert rooms where the public frequent. Don't let us go back on common sense. This is an age of evolution, where intelligence is taking rapid strides—when love and good will prompts us to do just the right thing, for ourselves and every body else.

This picture represents a small oak tree with thirty-eight winter webs of the brown-tail moth caterpillar, that, at the rate of two hundred fifty per nest contain ninety-five hundred small caterpillars, which stay in the caterpillar form all winter, inside the nests.

It is very important when one of these nests is cut off that it be picked up and with the others placed in a hot fire or furnace and burned. The watchword of the moth crews in the employ of the city, is, "cut a nest, watch it and see that it is picked up and accounted for."

To lose one of these nests means some two hundred and fifty brown-tail caterpillars let loose to come forth in the spring and destroy the property.

COMMUNICATION

Auburndale, Mass., April 18, 1909.

Mr. Editor:—

The ruthless destruction of trees in Auburndale by the City Forester was noted by one Newton paper last week. The following are the facts in this matter. The City Forester's crews did not cut the trees but they were cut by policemen who claim they had permission or authority from the City Forester. Nor were they cut for the purpose of destroying moths as the City Forester on Dec. 28, 1908, certified over his own signature that the work of removing the moths had been inspected and the work found to be thoroughly done and accepted. It seems the City Forester gave the policemen the word for cutting the trees and burning the brush and as the wood was worth about eight dollars per cord, this was quite an incentive to cut the trees as well as a profitable job. We learn the wood was sold, any way much of the wood from the trees cut has been hauled away, but the brush has not yet been burned. Many trees cut were perfectly sound, seemingly nothing more or less than wanton destruction.

A SUFFERER.

(Ed.—City Forester Bucknam informs me that these trees were cut down by order of the state superintendent, acting under authority given him by law.)

A BOSTON BANK ACCOUNT

The American Trust Company accepts deposits by mail, thereby enabling persons residing outside of the city to have a bank account in Boston without being required to visit the bank in person. It is the aim of the management to render the highest degree of personal service, prompt attention being given to the requirements of out-of-town patrons.

Please write for our booklet which contains full information concerning our facilities.

American Trust Company

53 State Street, Boston, Mass.

Capital $1,000,000 Surplus (Earned) $1,800,000

OFFICERS

R. G. FESSENDEN, President
J. C. HOWE, Vice President C. H. BOWEN, Secretary
J. J. OLDFIELD, Treasurer G. W. AURYANSEN, Asst. Sec.
A. D. AURYANSEN, Asst. Sec.

C. KENNEY & WATERBURY COMPANY.

Designers, Manufacturers and Jobbers of
ELECTRIC GAS AND OIL FIXTURES

First Floor Goods
WE LIGHT THE WORLD

181 Franklin St. Boston, Mass.
OR CONGRESS STREET

LADIES

Wishing a Desirable and Stylish Hat

—BUY AT—

GRACE'S New Millinery Store
156 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass.

FARRINGTON

FLOOR FINISH

Few Modern Houses
Use Carpets

Hardwood floors and rugs are preferable. Most people dislike hardwood because it is slippery. That is the fault of the finish.

Ask any physician of the danger to the aged, the constant nervous strain upon the agile and the risk to children of slippery waxed floors. We can cite the cases of a hospital nurse, broken arm; child of five, permanent spinal injury; aged lady who made afternoon call at wax floor house, fatal shock.

Farrington Floor Finish
Is Never Slippery

It dries instantly. Is odorless.
Has just the right gloss and is easy to apply. Anyone can use it.

Order of your own dealer or sent express prepaid.

$2.50 Per Gallon
on receipt of price

Booklet sent free on request.

FARRINGTON COMPANY
MANUFACTURING CHEMISTS
15 STATE ST. BOSTON, MASS.

A Boston Bank Account

There are many conveniences in having a Boston bank account

There is also the advantage of being personally known to a strong metropolitan Bank.

You can easily open an account with us by mail. Send your check or money order, payable to this company, and we will send you a check book, and each month a statement of your account. Interest allowed on deposits.

Request by postal card will bring further information. Or, if you are in town, call in and talk with us.

City Trust Company
50 STATE STREET, BOSTON, MASS.

1829 1909

Lewandos

AMERICA'S GREATEST

Cleanders Dyers Launderers

TELEPHONE 300 NEWTON NORTH CONNECTS ALL DEPARTMENTS

Cleanse or Dye and Refinish	Clothes	Blankets	Curtains
	Portieres	Draperies	Rugs
	Carpets	Gloves	Laces
			Ribbons

Ostrich Feathers Cleaned Curled Dyed and Old Feathers made over into Tips and Plumes

Our teams running from Watertown Shop 1 Galen Street call for and deliver packages in all the Newtons

OUR LAUNDRY WORK IS THE BEST OBTAINABLE

Lewandos Lewandos Lewandos

Boston Shops 284 Boylston Street and 17 Temple Place

NEWTON SAVINGS BANK.

BANK BUILDING, NEWTON, MASS.

INCORPORATED 1831.

Business Hours, 9 to 3, Saturdays, 9 to 1.

Total Assets last Quarter's Statement, January 9th, 1909 $6,213,952.03

Quarter Days the TENTH of January, April, July and October. Dividends are payable not before January 17 and July 17.

TRUSTEES:
John Ward, Samuel M. Jackson, Francis Murdock, Charles T. Pulsifer, William C. Strong, Eugene Fanning, B. Franklin Bacon, Samuel F. Barbour, G. Fred Simpson, Edmund J. Wiswall, Thomas W. Proctor, William F. Bacon, Bernard Barry, Henry E. Bothfield and William F. Harbach.

BOARD OF INVESTMENT:
Charles T. Pulsifer, Francis Murdock, Samuel M. Jackson, William F. Harbach, Henry E. Bothfield.

The Board meets every Tuesday afternoon to consider applications for loans.

CHARLES T. PULSIFER, President.
ADOLPHUS J. BLANCHARD, Treasurer.

WALTHAM SAVINGS BANK

702 Main Street, Waltham

Assets March 20, 1909, $4,183,509.35

Deposits begin to draw interest from the first day of January, April, July and October, and deposits made on any of the three business days immediately following the first day of said months are treated, in computing dividends, as having been made on the first day and will share in the next following dividend if remaining on deposit on the dividend date.

Dividends are payable on the second Wednesday of April and October.

Board of Investment
Henry N. Fisher, Enos F. Lucas, Nathan Warren, Charles O. Morrill, Thomas H. Armstrong.

The Board meets every Monday at 4.30 P. M. to consider applications for loans.

GEORGE R. BEAL, Treasurer.

Waltham Forge Blacksmithing

All kinds of Steel and Iron Forging with Power Hammer

BUILDING IRON WORK

Lawn Mowers Sharpened

SHOP, GIFFORD AVE., CORNER WALTHAM

Telephone 304-1

A REVELATION TO BREAD MAKERS FOR SALE BY GAWN WILSON, Newton
P. H. FRANKLIN, Newton
E. E. PURKINS, Newton
MANHATTAN MKT., Newton
NONANTUM MKT., Newton
KEES & DENNIS, Newton
FRED L. COOK, West Newton
P. T. LARKIN, West Newton
RICHARDSON'S ARTL., Newton Centre
J. D. Batchelder & Co., 29 John St., Boston, Distributing Agents

OUR ICE CREAM

is made from Pure Cream, that is why we like to sell it.

Our Sherberts are Delicious

TORRE'S

Tel. 732-1 Newton North

ALL ORDERS CHEERFULLY DELIVERED. 338 CENTRE STREET, NEWTON

Newton.

—Dutch Clip for children. Fell Bros., Washington street, opp. Bank. tf.

—Mr. Raymond Hamilton is moving into the Sprague house on Elliot street.

—Mrs. Albert T. Stevens has been ill this week at her home on Emerson street.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Davidson have returned from a five months' trip to California.

—Miss Daisy Rooney of Jewett place has gone to Jefferson for a few weeks' visit.

—Mr. Lewis E. Coffin is making improvements to his residence on Bellevue street.

—Mrs. Nathan Heard of Waverley avenue has returned from a trip to New York.

—Mr. Charles Stevens is here from California, the guest of his parents on Church street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jesse C. Ivy of Fairmont avenue are back from a trip through the West.

—The vesper services at Elliot church will be discontinued from May 1st to October 1st.

—Mrs. John M. Whittemore of Hunnewell avenue is improving in health and is able to be out.

—Mr. Harry Mason, who has been visiting relatives here has returned to his home in Falmouth.

—Mr. Frank O. Barber and family of Maple avenue are back from a short outing at Pigeon Cove.

—Special rates to large estates on papering and painting. J. W. Blakey & Co., 713-2 North. tf.

—The Misses Ferry of Saratoga Springs, N. Y., are guests of their sister, Mrs. H. Grant Person of Bellevue street.

—Lieut. Col. George H. Benyon made an official inspection of the 2d Corps Cadets in Salem on Tuesday evening.

—Among the well known men who will go on the coming New England tour of the Boston Merchants' Association are Albert G. Barber and Oliver M. Fisher of Newton.

—Rev. Dr. Charles F. Rice of Newtonville avenue and his son, Mr. Horace J. Rice of Springfield are back from a week's visit to Washington and other southern points.

—Rev. Roy B. Guild, secretary of the Church Building Society, will give a stereoscopic lecture on "Winning the West Up to Date," in the Elliot church parlors this evening.

—Mrs. Samuel L. Powers of Arlington street was among the patronesses for the spring concert of the Dartmouth Musical Clubs, held Friday evening in Stielert hall, Boston.

—A moving picture entertainment will be given in the Channing church parlors next Friday evening. The proceeds will be used to assist a student at the Calhoun school in Alabama.

—At the social meeting of the Wheaton Seminary Alumnae Association, held at the Hotel Vendome, Boston, last Saturday afternoon, Mrs. C. O. Tucker assisted at the tea tables.

—The last social for the season was held at Elliot church last evening. A pleasing entertainment was given by the Elliot Co-operative Club and refreshments with a social hour followed.

—Mrs. Alvin R. Bailey of Richardson street, a former regent of Paul Revere Chapter, D. A. R., was one of the representatives of the chapter at the continental congress held in Washington this week.

—The regular meeting of the Helping Hand will be held Tuesday afternoon in the parish house of Grace church and the meeting of the Girls' Friendly Society will be held Thursday evening.

—Messrs. J. W. French, C. H. Breck, F. W. Stearns and L. D. Towle were among the invited guests at the annual dinner of the Boston Real Estate Exchange held Saturday at the Hotel Somerset, Boston.

—Mrs. John G. Andrews entertained the Elliot Guild at her home on Franklin street last Wednesday evening.

—Miss Anna B. Taft was the guest of the Guild and spoke on "Rural Conditions in Massachusetts."

—Rev. Henry K. Rowe will continue his lectures on "World Wide Christianity" before the Business Men's Class at Elliot church next Sunday. His theme will be "The Light of the World in the Dark Continent."

—The fiftieth anniversary of the birth of the Bible school, connected with the Immanuel Baptist church, will be observed in the main auditorium next Sunday evening. Messrs. Stephen Moore and Herbert F. Bent are expected to speak and there will be other attractive exercises.

—At the Methodist church last Sunday evening an entertainment of sacred story in speech and music was given by William Cayen Barron and Miss Ethel Maud Tomlinson. Mr. Barron rendered his own compositions on the piano, which interpreted the highest emotions in Scotch, Dutch and Irish life and Miss Tomlinson gave Van Dyke's "The Other Wise Man," and "Story of Mary Magdalene."

Coffee Tea

FREE DELIVERY

Sign of Big Tea Kettle
Greatest Variety and Finest Stock of Teas and Coffees in the World
Retailed at Wholesale Prices

No Stale Packages. Your Order Filled with Fresh Roasted Coffee or New Crop Tea
ORIENTAL TEA COMPANY
Best in the World

Oriental Tea Company
Importers and Retailers
ESTABLISHED IN 1888 AT
87 COURT ST., SCOLLAY SQ., BOSTON
SEND FOR PRICE LIST

Newton.

—Cut flowers and potted plants at Lane's, Wash'n st. Tel. 694-4 No. 11.

—Mrs. William H. Davis is spending a part of the month in New Jersey.

—Mr. Gay of Church street has been ill the past week at the Newton hospital.

—Mrs. Arthur H. Bailey of Boyd street is visiting relatives in New Jersey.

—Arch Supports made to fit your arch. One dollar per pair. J. McCammon. tf.

—Mr. Charles H. Buswell of Franklin street returned the last of the week from a trip to New York.

—Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Viets of Hunnewell avenue leave Sunday for a trip to the Pacific coast.

—Mr. Charles Webb and family are moving back from New Haven, Conn., and will occupy their house on Waban park.

—Mr. Fred Birkenshaw is moving here from Pittsfield and will have charge of the furnishing department at the Aetna mill.

—Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Calkins were among the passengers on the White Star liner Romantic which sailed Saturday for the Azores and Naples.

—Mr. R. W. Dodge is having the foundation put in for a store and apartment block he intends building on Galen street. F. H. Gowing is the architect.

—Miss Helen Fay Bascom of Rochester, N. Y., who has been spending the winter on Park street, played the violin obligato at Elliot church last Sunday morning.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Fox of Church street have moved to their future home in Catskill, N. Y. Mr. Fox will be connected with his brother in the fruit business.

—Mr. Frank W. Stearns of Park street was among the guests present at the annual dinner of the Boston Real Estate Exchange held Saturday evening at the Hotel Somerset, Boston.

—Mr. D. Fletcher Barber of the New England Hardware Association, among the Boston business men who is active in protesting against the abolition of rail differentials to Boston.

—Master Willard Meakin of the Grace church choir, was the soloist at the meeting of the Wheaton Seminary Alumnae Association, held at the Hotel Vendome last Saturday afternoon.

—The alarm from box 112 Monday afternoon was for a fire in the house occupied by Mr. J. R. Simpson on Washington street, caused by a barrel of paper in the basement becoming ignited.

—Mr. John Hermann Loud of Oakleigh road gave one of his free organ recitals in the First Baptist church, Newton Centre, last Monday evening. He was assisted in the artistic program by Miss Marion Haskell, soprano soloist.

—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Howard Stone have sent out cards for the marriage reception of their daughter, Freda Louise and Mr. Henry Baldwin (Cognell), to follow the ceremony, Tuesday, May 4th, from 4 to 5.30 at 19 Ashford street, Allston.

—Among the members of the student committee of arrangements for the exhibition of vacation studies done by students of the Museum of Fine Arts now being held in the new studio building, Boston, is Miss Florence L. Ivy of Fairmont avenue.

—The Grace church Year Book has just been issued and is a neat publication with green covers. It contains pictures of the exterior and interior of the church, the officers and reports of the various societies and a statement of the financial condition of the society.

—At the Tremont street Methodist church last Friday morning the funeral of Mr. John M. Gould was held and was conducted by Rev. Dr. George S. Butters, pastor of the Methodist church. The burial was in Connecticut.

—Mr. Gould was the son of the late Rev. Dr. J. B. Gould, was a Boston lawyer for many years and was a writer on law subjects, on the United States statutes and on banking. For a number of years he was employed in the office of the reporter of decisions with Judge Lathrop. He was a native of Marshfield, where he was born 61 years ago and he was a graduate of Brown university.

—Many will be pleased to know that Mr. Warren Partridge, son of Mr. William H. Partridge, who has been an electrical engineer in the employ of the gigantic Public Service Corporation of New Jersey since his graduation from the Lawrence Scientific School of Harvard college has removed from Orange of that state, to Springfield, Ill., where he assumes the general superintendency of the Springfield Railway & Light Companies, comprehending its three Gas, Steam Heating, Consolidated Railway Light, Heat & Power companies. He is a graduate of the public schools of Newton, where he was born and lived until his removal to New Jersey.

—At the Tremont street Methodist church last Friday morning the funeral of Mr. John M. Gould was held and was conducted by Rev. Dr. George S. Butters, pastor of the Methodist church. The burial was in Connecticut.

—Mr. Gould was the son of the late Rev. Dr. J. B. Gould, was a Boston lawyer for many years and was a writer on law subjects, on the United States statutes and on banking. For a number of years he was employed in the office of the reporter of decisions with Judge Lathrop. He was a native of Marshfield, where he was born 61 years ago and he was a graduate of Brown university.

—Many will be pleased to know that Mr. Warren Partridge, son of Mr. William H. Partridge, who has been an electrical engineer in the employ of the gigantic Public Service Corporation of New Jersey since his graduation from the Lawrence Scientific School of Harvard college has removed from Orange of that state, to Springfield, Ill., where he assumes the general superintendency of the Springfield Railway & Light Companies, comprehending its three Gas, Steam Heating, Consolidated Railway Light, Heat & Power companies. He is a graduate of the public schools of Newton, where he was born and lived until his removal to New Jersey.

—At the Tremont street Methodist church last Friday morning the funeral of Mr. John M. Gould was held and was conducted by Rev. Dr. George S. Butters, pastor of the Methodist church. The burial was in Connecticut.

—Mr. Gould was the son of the late Rev. Dr. J. B. Gould, was a Boston lawyer for many years and was a writer on law subjects, on the United States statutes and on banking. For a number of years he was employed in the office of the reporter of decisions with Judge Lathrop. He was a native of Marshfield, where he was born 61 years ago and he was a graduate of Brown university.

—Many will be pleased to know that Mr. Warren Partridge, son of Mr. William H. Partridge, who has been an electrical engineer in the employ of the gigantic Public Service Corporation of New Jersey since his graduation from the Lawrence Scientific School of Harvard college has removed from Orange of that state, to Springfield, Ill., where he assumes the general superintendency of the Springfield Railway & Light Companies, comprehending its three Gas, Steam Heating, Consolidated Railway Light, Heat & Power companies. He is a graduate of the public schools of Newton, where he was born and lived until his removal to New Jersey.

—At the Tremont street Methodist church last Friday morning the funeral of Mr. John M. Gould was held and was conducted by Rev. Dr. George S. Butters, pastor of the Methodist church. The burial was in Connecticut.

—Mr. Gould was the son of the late Rev. Dr. J. B. Gould, was a Boston lawyer for many years and was a writer on law subjects, on the United States statutes and on banking. For a number of years he was employed in the office of the reporter of decisions with Judge Lathrop. He was a native of Marshfield, where he was born 61 years ago and he was a graduate of Brown university.

—Many will be pleased to know that Mr. Warren Partridge, son of Mr. William H. Partridge, who has been an electrical engineer in the employ of the gigantic Public Service Corporation of New Jersey since his graduation from the Lawrence Scientific School of Harvard college has removed from Orange of that state, to Springfield, Ill., where he assumes the general superintendency of the Springfield Railway & Light Companies, comprehending its three Gas, Steam Heating, Consolidated Railway Light, Heat & Power companies. He is a graduate of the public schools of Newton, where he was born and lived until his removal to New Jersey.

—At the Tremont street Methodist church last Friday morning the funeral of Mr. John M. Gould was held and was conducted by Rev. Dr. George S. Butters, pastor of the Methodist church. The burial was in Connecticut.

—Mr. Gould was the son of the late Rev. Dr. J. B. Gould, was a Boston lawyer for many years and was a writer on law subjects, on the United States statutes and on banking. For a number of years he was employed in the office of the reporter of decisions with Judge Lathrop. He was a native of Marshfield, where he was born 61 years ago and he was a graduate of Brown university.

—Many will be pleased to know that Mr. Warren Partridge, son of Mr. William H. Partridge, who has been an electrical engineer in the employ of the gigantic Public Service Corporation of New Jersey since his graduation from the Lawrence Scientific School of Harvard college has removed from Orange of that state, to Springfield, Ill., where he assumes the general superintendency of the Springfield Railway & Light Companies, comprehending its three Gas, Steam Heating, Consolidated Railway Light, Heat & Power companies. He is a graduate of the public schools of Newton, where he was born and lived until his removal to New Jersey.

—At the Tremont street Methodist church last Friday morning the funeral of Mr. John M. Gould was held and was conducted by Rev. Dr. George S. Butters, pastor of the Methodist church. The burial was in Connecticut.

—Mr. Gould was the son of the late Rev. Dr. J. B. Gould, was a Boston lawyer for many years and was a writer on law subjects, on the United States statutes and on banking. For a number of years he was employed in the office of the reporter of decisions with Judge Lathrop. He was a native of Marshfield, where he was born 61 years ago and he was a graduate of Brown university.

—Many will be pleased to know that Mr. Warren Partridge, son of Mr. William H. Partridge, who has been an electrical engineer in the employ of the gigantic Public Service Corporation of New Jersey since his graduation from the Lawrence Scientific School of Harvard college has removed from Orange of that state, to Springfield, Ill., where he assumes the general superintendency of the Springfield Railway & Light Companies, comprehending its three Gas, Steam Heating, Consolidated Railway Light, Heat & Power companies. He is a graduate of the public schools of Newton, where he was born and lived until his removal to New Jersey.

—At the Tremont street Methodist church last Friday morning the funeral of Mr. John M. Gould was held and was conducted by Rev. Dr. George S. Butters, pastor of the Methodist church. The burial was in Connecticut.

Accounts Solicited

This company solicits your account, whether it is large or small. Its officers will welcome an opportunity to talk over banking matters and discuss the special advantages offered by this institution, whether an account is opened or not. Interest paid on daily balances subject to check.

BOSTON SAFE DEPOSIT & TRUST CO.

87 MILK STREET, BOSTON

CAPITAL $1,000,000

SURPLUS (Earned) $2,000,000

Newton

—Miss Grace Larkin of Washington street is back from Portland, Me.

—Mr. J. O'Rourke of Centre street will make his future home in South Boston.

—Miss Florence Patterson of Galen street is back from a visit in Northampton.

—Mr. Charles M. Boyd and family of Washington street are back from the South.

—Mr. A. T. Clark and family are moving from Nonantum street to 51 Pearl street.

—"Guaranteed Sox." Six pairs guaranteed to wear 6 mos. 25c per pair. J. McCammon. tf.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Ober of Vernon street have re-opened their home on St. James street.

—Lieut. and Mrs. Emil Svaz, nee Virginia Beach, are in Cambridge, the guests of relatives.

—Mr. Joseph B. Kelly and family have moved to Newton Centre and are residing at Bradford court.

—Messrs. F. M. MacLean and N. W. Hart were among the guests registered recently at Pinehurst.

—Mrs. E. H. Byington of Franklin street is spending a part of the spring season in Lakewood, N. J.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Batchelder of Troy, N. Y., are the guests of relatives on Church street.

—Mr. J. Henry Bacon has broken ground for a new house he intends building on Arundel terrace.

—Mr. Walter Hart has moved here from Lynn and is occupying the Pinkham house on Oakleigh road.

—Mr. John Mitchell and family have moved here from Watertown and will reside on Centre street.

—Mr. E. K. Boynton has taken apartments at the home of Mrs. Peterson on Church street for the spring season.

—At the Tremont street Methodist church last Friday morning the funeral of Mr. John M. Gould was held and was conducted by Rev. Dr. George S. Butters, pastor of the Methodist church. The burial was in Connecticut.

—Mr. Gould was the son of the late Rev. Dr. J. B. Gould, was a Boston lawyer for many years and was a writer on law subjects, on the United States statutes and on banking. For a number of years he was employed in the office of the reporter of decisions with Judge Lathrop. He was a native of Marshfield, where he was born 61 years ago and he was a graduate of Brown university.

—Many will be pleased to know that Mr. Warren Partridge, son of Mr. William H. Partridge, who has been an electrical engineer in the employ of the gigantic Public Service Corporation of New Jersey since his graduation from the Lawrence Scientific School of Harvard college has removed from Orange of that state, to Springfield, Ill., where he assumes the general superintendency of the Springfield Railway & Light Companies, comprehending its three Gas, Steam Heating, Consolidated Railway Light, Heat & Power companies. He is a graduate of the public schools of Newton, where he was born and lived until his removal to New Jersey.

—At the Tremont street Methodist church last Friday morning the funeral of Mr. John M. Gould was held and was conducted by Rev. Dr. George S. Butters, pastor of the Methodist church. The burial was in Connecticut.

—Mr. Gould was the son of the late Rev. Dr. J. B. Gould, was a Boston lawyer for many years and was a writer on law subjects, on the United States statutes and on banking. For a number of years he was employed in the office of the reporter of decisions with Judge Lathrop. He was a native of Marshfield, where he was born 61 years ago and he was a graduate of Brown university.

—Many will be pleased to know that Mr. Warren Partridge, son of Mr. William H. Partridge, who has been an electrical engineer in the employ of the gigantic Public Service Corporation of New Jersey since his graduation from the Lawrence Scientific School of Harvard college has removed from Orange of that state, to Springfield, Ill., where he assumes the general superintendency of the Springfield Railway & Light Companies, comprehending its three Gas, Steam Heating, Consolidated Railway Light, Heat & Power companies. He is a graduate of the public schools of Newton, where he was born and lived until his removal to New Jersey.

—At the Tremont street Methodist church last Friday morning the funeral of Mr. John M. Gould was held and was conducted by Rev. Dr. George S. Butters, pastor of the Methodist church. The burial was in Connecticut.

—Mr. Gould was the son of the late Rev. Dr. J. B. Gould, was a Boston lawyer for many years and was a writer on law subjects, on the United States statutes and on banking. For a number of years he was employed in the office of the reporter of decisions with Judge Lathrop. He was a native of Marshfield, where he was born 61 years ago and he was a graduate of Brown university.

—Many will be pleased to know that Mr. Warren Partridge, son of Mr. William H. Partridge, who has been an electrical engineer in the employ of the gigantic Public Service Corporation of New Jersey since his graduation from the Lawrence Scientific School of Harvard college has removed from Orange of that state, to Springfield, Ill., where he assumes the general superintendency of the Springfield Railway & Light Companies, comprehending its three Gas, Steam Heating, Consolidated Railway Light, Heat & Power companies. He is a graduate of the public schools of Newton, where he was born and lived until his removal to New Jersey.

—At the Tremont street Methodist church last Friday morning the funeral of Mr. John M. Gould was held and was conducted by Rev. Dr. George S. Butters, pastor of the Methodist church. The burial was in Connecticut.

—Mr. Gould was the son of the late Rev. Dr. J. B. Gould, was a Boston lawyer for many years and was a writer on law subjects, on the United States statutes and on banking. For a number of years he was employed in the office of the reporter of decisions with Judge Lathrop. He was a native of Marshfield, where he was born 61 years ago and he was a graduate of Brown university.

—Many will be pleased to know that Mr. Warren Partridge, son of Mr. William H. Partridge, who has been an electrical engineer in the employ of the gigantic Public Service Corporation of New Jersey since his graduation from the Lawrence Scientific School of Harvard college has removed from Orange of that state, to Springfield, Ill., where he assumes the general superintendency of the Springfield Railway & Light Companies, comprehending its three Gas, Steam Heating, Consolidated Railway Light, Heat & Power companies. He is a graduate of the public schools of Newton, where he was born and lived until his removal to New Jersey.

—At the Tremont street Methodist church last Friday morning the funeral of Mr. John M. Gould was held and was conducted by Rev. Dr. George S. Butters, pastor of the Methodist church. The burial was in Connecticut.

—Mr. Gould was the son of the late Rev. Dr. J. B. Gould, was a Boston lawyer for many years and was a writer on law subjects, on the United States statutes and on banking. For a number of years he was employed in the office of the reporter of decisions with Judge Lathrop. He was a native of Marshfield, where he was born 61 years ago and he was a graduate of Brown university.

FAMOUS

Wherever fine coffees are wanted this splendid coffee finds a quick sale and a welcome such as has not been accorded to any other brand. Its praises are sounded from coast to coast.

FOR SALE BY THE BEST DEALERS

RAINBOW DYES

Something new—One Dye for all fabrics

FOR HOME USE, 10c PACKAGE

LANE'S 285 Washington Street, Newton

Gold Spring Boat House

NEEDHAM STREET BRIDGE

Newton Upper Falls

Boats and Canoes for Sale and to Let. Storage by the month, season or year. 20 miles of river without a carry. Ice, Cream, Confectionery

Tonics, Moxie, Tobacco and Cigars for sale. Gasoline and Valvoline for Motor Boats and Automobiles.

Newton and Boston Street Railway to Oak Street. Tel. Newton South 21398.

JAMES B. LESTER, Proprietor

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC

Published every Friday at 10 Centre Place, - Newton, Mass.

Entered at the Post-office at Boston, Mass.,
as second-class matter.

$2.00 per Year. Single Copies, 5 cents.
By mail free of postage.

All money sent at sender's risk.

All checks, drafts, and money orders
should be made payable to
NEWTON GRAPHIC PUBLISHING CO.,
J. C. BRIMBLECOM, Treas.

TELEPHONE NO. 77.

The GRAPHIC is printed and mailed
Friday afternoons, and is for sale at all
news-stands in the Newtons, and at the South Union Station, Boston.

All communications must be accompanied with the name of the writer, and
unpublished communications cannot be returned by mail unless stamps are enclosed.

Notices of all local entertainments
to which admission is charged must be paid for at regular rates, 25 cents per line
in the reading matter, or $1.00 per line in the advertising columns.

UNDER THE GILDED DOME

The only matter of strictly local interest this week was the recommendation to the Taxation Committee of Mayor Hutchinson's bill in relation to the readjustment of basis of the state tax. This matter had been referred to the next General Court as the present law deemed broad enough to fix the matter in 1910. Further investigation, however, showed, that the law applied simply to shares "held" by residents of the different municipalities and as the new corporation tax law relieves Newton of about half the taxes raised from those shares, it was seen that the state tax law needed readjustment in order to be equitable. The committee has asked Tax Commissioner Trefry to draft a new bill and it will probably be reported within a few days.

The railroad merger has developed a new phase this week with a message of Governor Draper suggesting the creation of a holding corporation for the Boston & Maine Railroad stock now held by Mr. Billiard of Connecticut. Without definite data, it would seem useless to create such a corporation as the Governor desires unless
Mr. Billiard is willing to sell his stock to the proposed incorporators. If this condition can be covered, the Governor has made an admirable suggestion to calm down the cranks who see blood on the moon whenever the New Haven control is suggested.

The Committee on Education has reported a bill to incorporate the Massachusetts College, with two senators dissenting. The objections are not against the purpose of the bill, but rather to allow the State Board of Education to give it careful consideration. As this board is heartily in favor of the plan, the delay seems needless, and where men of wealth are waiting to put $3,000,000 into the matter, it is possible that the postponement may cool their present ardor and the Commonwealth lose an excellent opportunity to advance the cause of education.
The dissenters present three objections to immediate action. The use of the name Massachusetts, which by the way is already used by over 300 private and semi-public institutions in the state;—the legal right of school committees to authorize the use of school buildings for the purpose of the college,—a right which is constantly exercised all over the Commonwealth for other uses;—the granting of degrees by the new college,—the bill specifically providing that all the presidents of colleges in Massachusetts shall be members of the board to grant such degrees. While the passage of the bill to incorporate is likely in the House, it is feared that the dissenting senators may be successful in postponing in the senate.

Our representatives were all recorded against the bill to require shares and articles made in our prisons to be marked "Convict Made." This bill was a shrewd move to measure the absurdity of which can be seen when it is learned that there are but 375 unskilled prisoners working at the shoe industry in the prisons of the state as against 72,000 skilled workmen in the shoe manufacturing. The bill was only defeated by a tie vote.

The Committee on Counties has reported a bill authorizing a county tax of $672,261.19 for Middlesex County as against $604,700 for 1908. It is evident that our county tax will accompany the city tax in its coming rise.

The eight hour labor bill has had various amendments offered, one of which strikes out the objectionable word, "permit" and if adopted might improve the onerous burden of the present law.

Another bill which has more than passing interest places the principal and deputy sealer of weights and measures under the classified civil service. Representative Garcelon informs me that he intends to oppose that portion placing the principal sealer in the service as he believes that the heads of departments should not be covered by the civil service—and in which I heartily agree.

The members acted like a parcel of school boys this week in turning away to the opening bank bill game and leaving important business to suffer in the meantime.

Yesterday morning the House, contrary to all expectations, by a vote of 92 to 76, substituted a bill to give to places where Massachusetts corporations are located, all the taxes levied upon the stock of such corporations.
It will be recalled that the act of last year taking away half the corporation tax goes into effect May 1st of this year, causing an estimated loss in the income of our city of something near $50,000. It will easily be seen that the present attempt is a serious matter for this city. It is possible that the measure can be defeated on its further readings, or the Senate may come to our rescue.

J. C. Brimblecom.

1865 THE OLD FIRM 1909

George H. Gregg & Son

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

All the Newtons 296 Walnut St., Newtonville

EPWORTH CONVENTION

Last Monday at the Methodist church, Newton Centre, one of the largest attended Epworth League conventions was held under the direction of Rev. A. F. Reimer, the president of the Cambridge district of the Epworth League. In the morning, after a short devotional and business meeting, the Rev. James W. Campbell of Newton-ville made a short address, after which a luncheon was served. Again at two o'clock, several interesting and instructive fifteen minute addresses were delivered by prominent clergymen and workers of the league. Rev.
E. L. Mills of South Boston spoke on Spiritual Work. Rev. Fred B. Fisher of the First church, Boston, spoke on World Wide Evangelism. Rev. E. J.
Helms of Morgan memorial spoke on Mercy and Help. Miss Margaret A.
Nichols of Dorchester spoke on Social and Literary. Miss Alice F. Sumner of Providence, R. I., spoke on Story Telling in the Junior League. Rev.
Lewis C. Wright of Gardner spoke on Building Life by Bible Study, and Rev.
M. A. Levy, pastor of the First Bapttist church of this city, made a short address. At six-thirty o'clock, Miss Kathryn M. Murray of the local chapter took her place at the piano and to the music about 250 people marched to a banquet served in the dining hall, after which several toasts were given. Rev. A. F. Reimer of Arlington acting as toastmaster. In the evening Holy Communion was administered by Rev. Dr. Chas. M. Melden, pastor of the church. At eight o'clock a lecture was delivered by Bishop John W. Hamilton, D.D., LL.D., resident Bishop of New England to a large and interested audience composed of delegations from the several churches in this district. After a solo by Mrs.
John M. Dick of Rice street, the benediction was pronounced by the Bishop.

MINSTREL SHOW

The plans of the Ladies' Aid Society connected with the Working Boys' Home of Newton Highlands for their annual minstrel show, are rapidly maturing. For several years this has been the best attended event held in the vicinity of Newton and this year a very unique and pleasing program has been arranged. The Ladies' Aid Society, under whose immediate auspices the event is being held, numbers about fifty of the representative young ladies of Newton and Waterbury, and for the past seven years has been of great assistance to the Home. Rehearsals which indicate that the performance will be one of the best of its kind ever given in this vicinity have been in progress under the direction of Mr. George Madden.

The event will be held in Players hall, West Newton on Thursday and Friday evenings, April 29th and 30th, and Thursday evening, May 6th. With such end men as Frank Cunningham of Auburndale, William Gero of Newton, Henry Turner of Newton, Albert Moore of Newton Centre, Albert Ryan of West Newton, and Robert Blue of Newton, an abundance of clever jokes and local hits are expected. The interlocutor will be Mr. Mark V. Croker of Newton Upper Falls, a popular member of the Knights of Columbus and one of the best known men in Newton.
Other soloists are Miss Helen M. Murphy of Newton Upper Falls, Miss M.
Elizabeth Lane of Newton Centre,
Miss Frances Cavanagh of Newton,
Miss Gertrude Moriarty of Cambridge,
Miss Mary Bryson of Newton, Miss Beatrice Slattery of Newton Upper Falls, Miss Nellie Murphy of Newton,
Mr. Daniel Kenslea of Newton, Mr.
John Earle of Newton and Mr. Homer Sullivan of Boston, Miss Mary Smith and Mr. Peter Rooney.

THE MARATHON RACE

Local interest on Patriots' Day centered in the B. A. A. Marathon race, the course for which in this city included Washington street from Lower Falls to Commonwealth avenue and Commonwealth avenue from Washington street to the Boston line. It is estimated that the spectators and automobiles who witnessed this race in Newton ran well up into the thousands. One man places the crowd at the corner of Washington street and Commonwealth avenue at over 5,000 and the Lower Falls, the corners where Commonwealth avenue crosses Chestnut street, Walnut street and Centre street were also crowded. The local men entered failed to make much of a showing and indeed it is doubtful if any of the crowd had any interest in the affair except that of curiosity.
From comments heard at the time and since, it is evident that there is a strong feeling that such a race should either be prohibited or entries allowed under the most severe restrictions.
The spectacle as the weary athletes (of all sizes, shapes and conditions) plodded along (Commonwealth avenue was not calculated to give a good opinion as to the benefits to be derived from the race.

The police arrangements were much liked by the B. A. A. officials and Chief Mitchell has received a letter of thanks on the way in which he handled the crowds.

DEATHS

HARDY—At Newtonville, April 22, Matilda K. wife of Fred S. Hardy, aged 43 years. Funeral services Sunday at 3 P. M. from 162 Mt. Vernon street.

SOMETHING NEW

is only attractive when associated

SOMETHING GOOD

Our latest addition of fresh MAPLE SYRUP bears out this assertion. Try it—15c cake 2 for 25c. Don't forget the line of confectionery that always sells for which we are exclusive agents. Wafers, Foss, Utopian, Schrafft's and our ever famous mints

F. A. HUBBARD, 425 Centre St., Newton

HUNNEWELL CLUB

The cow boy pool tournament is progressing. Mr. H. M. North has won in class C, Mr. C. R. Loring in class B, Mr. H. L. Dexter and Mr. C.
S. Spencer are in the finals in class
A and Mr. R. L. Chipman has reached the finals in class D.

Mr. C. O. Tucker won the cup on Patriots' Day with 343 for a three string total.

In the men's bowling tournament,
Capt. Learned's team has a good lead, with Capt. Ryder and Capt. Paul making a close fight for second place.

Mrs. Seccomb's team consisting of Mrs. North, Miss Brown and Miss Sec-comb has won the ladies' bowling tournament.

Saturday scores at whist were as follows:
Ryfield and Gregory 76
Hall and Snyder 76
Tolman and Eastis 71
Glenison and E. F. Sawyer 65
Sampson and Brown 65
Pearson and Marshall 64
Douglas and Alden 63
White and Barney 63
Ulmer and Conover 61
Miller and Edmunds 61
Gay and Jos. Smith 60
Loring and C. C. Smith 59
C. J. Brown and Dr. Chapman 54
Cummings and Utley 54
Bailey and F. E. Sawyer 49
Alexander and Estabrooks 44

The week previous, high scores at whist were made by Sampson and Snyder plus 10 and Brown and Walit plus 8½.

MISS DYAR MARRIED

In Grace church, Newton Saturday afternoon Miss Nora Gertrude Dyar, the daughter of Mrs. Charles Warren Dyar of Bennington street, Newton, became the bride of Floris Ruhl von Lillenstern ter Meulen of Nitracht, Holland. Included in the guests that filled the church were friends from New York, Boston and other places.
At 3:30 o'clock the ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. Laurens T. MacLure. The bride wore a gown of old Point de Venise lace. Her attendant was a sister, Miss Amey C.
Dyar, who, as maid of honor, wore pale yellow satin. The best man was Steven Plek of New York. Following the ceremony a reception was held in the parish house. The bride was assisted in receiving by her mother and sisters. The ushers were Messrs.
Henry M. Davis and Edward S. Coleman of New York, William J. Ladd of Winchester and Kenneth B. Hastings
of Boston.

GOOD IDEA CLUB SOCIAL

The program of the Good Idea Club
Social for next Tuesday evening, April 27th, is a very attractive one, and every member is urged to be present.
The Imperial Ladies' Quartet of Boston will contribute several vocal selections. The ability of these ladies is well-known throughout New England, and the club is very fortunate in securing these artists as members of their organization. The personnel of this quartet is, Miss Mary White, soprano, Miss Marie DeWaele, mezzo soprano, Miss Gertrude DeVine, first alto and Miss Mabelle Trask, second alto, with Mr. Lyman F. Brackett as musical director.

The dancing and physical culture sessions will be in charge of Mr.
Alphonso Josephs Sheafe, also of Boston. Prof. Sheafe is world-famed as the translator of Zorn's Grammar of Art of Dancing, which is the recognized authority on rhythmic movements, and he alone holds the degree of S.D. in America.

The instrumental music will be furnished by the Club's ladies' orchestra,
Miss Eleanor Brian, leader.

With several readings, whist, smoke-talking, and refreshments, this "Shirlout Party" will be the event of the season in Auburndale, and the club members have invited quite a number of their friends to enjoy the evening with them. The entertainment begins promptly at eight o'clock in Norum.

MRS. BUTLER'S MAY FESTIVAL

Mrs. W. S. Butler has made elaborate plans for her twenty-first May festival to be given in Mechanics building after the afternoon and evening of Saturday, May 1. With the assistance of Mrs. Lilla Viles Wyman, a large number of children are being rehearsed for what promises to be the most brilliant of the long series of festivals.

There is to be a long program and it will include many novelties. The participants will wear brilliant costumes, which always make a pretty picture on the floor of the great auditorium. There is much pleasurable anticipation on the part of those who have attended in previous years.

Great Sacrifice!

Newton Property for sale. Situated in convenient section of West Newton.
Owner must sell at once. This estate cost $8,000 and can be purchased now for $1,100. Consists of modern 2-room house, three open fireplaces, metal cellings, cemented cellar, bay windows, large piazza, 7,500 feet of land. An opportunity that should not be overlooked. Shown at any time from my Newton or Newtonville office.

NEWTONVILLE HOUSES.

Two attractive 31-room houses, excellent situations, all conveniences, $55
each. Colonial house of 10 rooms, $50; 9-room modern house in convenient location, $45; 2 detached up-to-date houses, $40 and $42; attractive 9-room house in first-class section, $40; cottage of 8 rooms, $35; 9-room half house, $35;
house with stable, $43; single house, $30, also $25; half house, $16.50.

SEE MY LIST.

John T. Burns, Real Estate

363 Centre Street Newton
90 Bowers Street Newtonville

THE HIGHLAND GLEE CLUB

The many friends of the Highland Glee Club will be glad to note that the third concert will be given in the Newton Highlands Congregational church, Wednesday evening, May 12th, 1909. The club will be assisted by Mrs. Frances Duntion Wood, soprano (formerly of the Elliot church, Newton).

It is expected that this will be the event of the spring and the past successes of the club will insure a very enjoyable evening.

The announcement of the program will be made later.

N. H. S.

Last Friday Newton High School baseball team played their first game on the new Claffin field, defeating Stone School of Boston, 13-0. It also being Newton's first victory of the season. Newton played well, showing a vast improvement over the Volkman game.

Monday morning Newton defeated Rock Ridge, 6-0, in a well played game, before a large crowd. The teams were evenly matched, Newton having a little more luck than Rock Ridge. The catching of Jim Ryan and the hitting of "Tip" O'Neill for Newton and the playing of Capt. Stevenson and Manson for Rock Ridge were the features of the game.

POP CONCERT

Mt. Ida Council Royal Arcanum, will hold something new in the way of an entertainment next Monday night, it being a real Pop Concert at which the entertainment will be instrumental music by the Hayden Trio. The room will be arranged with small tables and chairs similar to the Pop Concerts at Music Hall, Boston, and Ice cream, tonics, cigars and candy will be on sale, the wants of all present being attended to by fifteen young ladies. After the Pop Concert is over the floor will be cleared for dancing which will be kept up until 11 o'clock. Mt. Ida Council is evidently a live organization. Every month this year imitations have taken place; every alternate meeting has been in the nature of an entertainment either for the members or for the members and friends. This Pop Concert is perhaps the most elaborate of their attempts in the way of a public entertainment and it is anticipated that it will call together not only the members and their friends but many who enjoy a concert of this kind.

"DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE."

"As good as a sermon" was the remark made by a minister who recently heard Prof. John Duxbury read Stevenson's extraordinary story of "Dr.
Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" before a large and enthusiastic audience.

We are glad to announce that Mr.
Duxbury will repeat this story in his own fascinating way at the Central Congregational church, Walnut street, Newtonville, under the auspices of the Central Club, Sunday evening, May 9th, at 7.30 o'clock. The public are invited.

BREEZY POINT

In aid of the Church of the Messiah of Auburndale the drama "Breezy Point" was given a successful presentation in Players' hall, West Newton, Wednesday evening. The cast included M. C. Blakemore, Marjorie L. Roop, Hazel C. Bold, M. Millie Beardslee, Lanette C. Palmer, Annie M. Fitch,
Dorothy Farnham, Ruth G. Beeble,
Edith Farnham and Helen K. Shalles.
Music was furnished by an orchestra directed by M. Millie Beardslee.

PARISH MEETING

The annual meeting of the Unitarian Society of West Newton was held last week Monday evening, with a slim attendance on account of the Freeman wedding which took place the same evening. Mr. George H. Ellis was moderator and these officers were elected:
Standing Committee, Mr. Henry Whitmore, Mr. John S. Alley, Mr. Charles E. Hatfield, Mrs. E. M. Myrick and Mrs.
H. A. Robbins; Clerk, Mr. Arthur T.
Lovett; treasurer, Mr. Francis Newhall, trustee (for five years), Hon. George Hutchinson.

Castle Square Theatre—"The Runaway Girl" is here for another week.
Her reception at the Castle Square has been a hearty and enthusiastic one, and there is every outlook for as great a triumph as was "The Circus Girl."
The best musical comedy is even better than its predecessor. Its tunes are brighter, its humor is merrier, its scenes and costumes are at least as brilliant, and in variety it is fully up to the greatest expectation. And best of all the John Craig Stock Company, with a chorus of forty, and orchestra
under the leadership of Joseph Marr, and several additional leading singers,
including Louise Le Baron and Bert Young, was never better or more pleasingly rounded than in this production. "The Runaway Girl" is a constant succession of beautiful stage pictures, and its humor and musical attractions are irresistible.

If you have a room you want refinished this spring and are in doubt as to just how to have it done, we would much like to call and give suggestions.

It is our business to KNOW what will suit different rooms in paper, paint and mouldings, and we are often able to give hints that will help.

It will cost you nothing to get our ideas.

BEMIS & JEWETT

INTERIOR DECORATORS

NEWTON CENTRE

NEEDHAM

A. H. WAITT

390 Centre Street
Phone 982-2 Newton North

FOR RENT

Lower apt. in new house, will be ready MAY 1st. 7 rms. and bath, set
tubs, gas, gas range, hot-water heat,
lease at 39 per month, including water.

Nice 10-room house in good neighborhood, convenient, for lease at $30
mo.

BRIGHTON

A new 2-family house, ready April
15th. Upper, 7 rooms and bath, $28.
Lower, 6 rooms and bath, $25.

Now is the time to list your houses
with me for results.

FOR SALE

WEST NEWTON
Modern 7-room house and stable,
6,250 feet land, $3,250.

BRIGHTON
NEW 2-family house, $6,200.

WEST NEWTON

Nowly refinished house, 9,420 feet
land, $8,000, easy terms. INVESTI-GATE.

A house of 11 rooms, bath, etc.,
7,500 feet land, $6,500.

AUBURNDALE

A nice house, 9 rooms and bath,
5,900 feet land, $2,750, $300 or $400
down, bal. mtg.

Consult my new up-to-date list of SPRING BARGAINS if you contemplate buying.

Gates
Millinery

SPRING MILLINERY

80 Bowers Street Newtonville
Opp. Depot

BLANKETS

Now is the time to have us cleanse your blankets before putting them away for the summer. Better telephone us today?

Waltham Laundry Co

Telephone Newton West 345-4

G. A. FREEMAN, Agent

2163 Commonwealth Avenue, Auburndale

NEWTON CO-OPERATIVE BANK

SHARES SOLD MARCH AND SEPTEMBER

Money Available at all times on Newton Mortgages

Bank Meetings Monthly, 1st Tuesday, 8 P. M.

JAMES W. FRENCH, Pres.

Tremont Bldg., Boston

J. CHEEVER FULLER, Secy. and Treas.

297 Walnut St., Newtonville

SPECIAL FOR THIS WEEK

Our $4.98 Trimmed Hats

in all the leading shapes, trimmed with flowers and foliage.

We are also carrying a line of

Mushroom, Sailors and Bucket Shaped Hats

which we are selling at reasonable prices. Call and inspect our line

Mrs. S. M. GILMAN

99 Moody Street, Waltham

We are busy as Bees

But if you want Painting or Paperhanging, we can do it and do it right, for we have the facilities and equipment to carry through any job large or small.

HOUGH & JONES CO.

House Painters

244 Washington Street

Newton

Luncheons

Prepared with particular attention to the requirements of shoppers.

Dinners

The best foods of the season carefully served. Orchestra from 5.30 to 7.30.

Catering

Years of catering for fashionable occasions ensure menu of taste and proper service.

McDONALD-WEBER CO.

Tel. 433 Oxford. 156 Tremont St.

Confections Soda Pastries Favors

DR. N. LOUISE RAND

OSTEOPATH

CHESTNUT ST., WEST NEWTON

Office Hours

Monday, Wednesday and Friday 2-5 P. M.

Telephone 204-5 Newton West

Automobile Painting

and Repairing

PHONE NEWTON NORTH NO. 733-4 FOR ALL KINDS OF BEDDING PLANTS
 PANSIES GERANIUMS VERBENAS PETUNIAS TOMATO PLANTS
 ASTORS SALVIA LOBELIAS VINCAS
 COLEUS (all colors) HELIOTROPE CANNAS FERNS Delivered to All Parts of Newton
 NEWTON ROSE CONSERVATORIES
 Newtonville Ave. and Harvard St., Newtonville
 H. S. COURTNEY, Manager

COOK'S AVENUE HAT

Will outwear two of the ordinary kind and look better in the end

$4.00

Cold Storage of Furs and Clothing
 Articles called for

A. N. Cook & Co
 161 Tremont Street, Boston

Newtonville.

—Mr. Austin R. Mitchell of Walnut street is back from Lakewood, N. J.

—Mrs. S. D. Bullock and children are quite ill at their home on Cabot street.

—Dr. Mary Florence Taft, will make her future home in the Bridges house on Walnut street.

—The offering to be taken at Central church next Sunday will be for the Ministerial relief fund.

—Mr. Paul O'Donnell of Washington street has resumed his studies at Holy Cross College, Worcester.

—Mr. Thomas W. Wales, Jr., has leased for immediate occupancy the Trowbridge house, 66 Clyde street.

—Mr. J. J. Cornish and family are settled in their future home, the Hollings house on Washington street.

—Mr. Harry M. Stonemetz of Churchill avenue is away on a business trip through the Arizona mining camp region.

—Mrs. W. A. Kemper of Rochester, N. Y., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Richardson of Highland avenue.

—At the Universalist church next Sunday Rev. Albert Hammett's subject will be "That Play, The Servant in the House."

—Miss Helen Rogers is home from Northampton and is entertaining Miss Doris Kerwin of Wisconsin, at her home on Page road.

—Mr. Fred H. Daniels of Trowbridge avenue, superintendent of drawing in the public schools, intends building a new house on Oakwood road.

—Mr. Harold D. Billings, M. I. T., '10, secured one of the copies of "Technique," at the annual rush held in Boston, Saturday afternoon.

—The Newton Woman's Exchange which has heretofore been closed during the lunch hour will hereafter be open from 8.30 to 5.30 daily.

—Mrs. Theodore A. Hildreth of Austin street returned this week from Michigan where she attended the funeral of her sister and step mother.

—Miss Clara B. Cooke of Prescott street has returned from Washington, D. C., where she went as chaperone of the senior class at the Brockton High School.

—Mr. John L. Torrio has resigned as clerk at Payne's drug store. Mr. Edward Flaherty of Newton Highlands has been engaged to fill the vacant position.

—Mr. William L. Puffer of Mt. Vernon street has been employed by Mayor Hibbard of Boston to consider the proposed five year contract for street lighting with the Edison Company.

—Rev. Dr. John F. Brant of Mt. Vernon terrace, who is secretary of the International Reform Bureau, was the preacher at the First Baptist church in Watertown, last Sunday morning.

—The fourth annual luncheon of Charity Square will be held at Central church, next Wednesday. Luncheon will be served at one o'clock and will be followed by an interesting program.

—Mr. William J. Tripp of Lowell avenue was among the guests present at the annual spring dinner of the Gridiron Club held in the new Willard hotel, Washington, last Saturday evening.

—Mrs. D. C. Heath of Highland avenue attended the meeting and dinner of the New England Alumni Association of Oswego Normal and Training School, held in Boston, Saturday afternoon.

HARCOURT'S MARKET

841 Washington Street

Headquarters for the Famous
Hatch Brand of Canned Goods
CHOICE MEATS
FRUITS and VEGETABLES
BUTTER and EGGS

Our Motto: The Best.

Telephone Newton North 151.

Remember Our Toric Bifocals are

The Best Combination of Far and Near Lenses that can be made

Pinkham & Smith Company

TWO STORES (288-290 Boylston Street Boston)
 13% Bromfield Street Boston

—Mr. George Porter of West Newton is the new clerk at Dyer's market.

—Miss Josephine Sherwood, who graduated from Radcliffe College in 1899, was among those assisting in the benefit for the Radcliffe scholarship fund held in New York last Friday afternoon.

—The Men's Outlook Class at Central church last Sunday was addressed by Rev. Dr. John F. Brant, secretary of the International Reform Bureau. Dr. Brant described the work of the bureau in behalf of moral legislation in the towns and cities.

—The annual parish supper was held at the Universalist church last evening. Supper was served in the parish house at 6.30 and later the annual business meeting was held and addresses were made by Rev. Richard E. Sykes and Rev. R. Perry Bush.

West Newton.

—Mrs. Thomas E. Stutson is quite ill at her home on Fountain street.

—Miss Mariana C. Porter is making improvements to her house on Austin street.

—Mr. C. E. Haskell has rented and moved into the Allen house on Webster street.

—Mrs. Ernest F. Lovejoy of Lenox street entertained at whist on Tuesday afternoon.

—Mr. O. N. Towne and family of Wiswell street are moving this week to Newtonville.

—Mr. Alexander D. Fraser has rented for immediate occupancy the Lesh house on Cross street.

—Mrs. Pierpont Wise of Highland street gave a luncheon and whist on Wednesday afternoon.

—Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Palmer of Chestnut street entertained friends at whist on Monday evening.

—Mr. John A. Duane is making improvements to his property located on River and Sheridan streets.

—The Misses Bullard of Temple street are entertaining their cousin, Miss Clara L. Jenks of East Oswego, N. Y.

—Mr. Stephen C. Lowe of Highland street has been elected a member of the Merchants' Association of Boston.

—Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel L. Berry intend moving back from Waltham and will make their home on Parsons street.

—Mrs. William Hammond of Prince street, who has been confined to her home on account of illness, is convalescent.

—Mr. Frank B. Sisson of Washington street is at the hospital, where he had his hand and a part of his arm removed.

—Mr. A. C. Dunmore and family moved last week from Kimball terrace, Newtonville to the house No. 12, Balcarras road.

—Mr. and Mrs. Fred P. Hayward, who have occupied the Newton house on Lenox street for the past year have moved to Milton.

—Mrs. E. F. Ruddle of Springfield, Mass., formerly of this place, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Rodney M. Lucas of Hunter street.

—Mrs. A. J. Paul of Brookline gave a most enjoyable card party and tea at the Brae Burn Country Club yesterday afternoon.

—Mr. George P. Whitmore and family have returned after a winter's absence and have opened their house on Winthrop street.

—Mr. Charles Matlack spoke on "Immigration" at the meeting of the Young Citizens' Class at the Unitarian church last Sunday.

—Mr. Raynor H. Allen has been elected a member of the class day committee at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

—Mr. Andrew B. Potter of Waltham street left on Sunday for New York, where he has accepted a position with a large electrical concern.

—The Newton Woman's Exchange which has heretofore been closed during the lunch hour will hereafter be open from 8.30 to 5.30 daily.

—Mr. and Mrs. William M. Bullivant announce the engagement of their daughter Marjorie to Mr. Carroll B. Nichols of Philadelphia, Pa.

—Mayor George Hutchinson and Mr. Harry G. Rhue will be passengers on the coming New England tour of the Boston Merchants' Association.

—Mr. George H. Ellis, representing the Boston Stationers' Association, is active in protesting against the abolition of rail differentials to Boston.

—Mrs. Lennox H. Lindsay was among the passengers sailing for the Azores and Mediterranean last Saturday on the Romanic of the White Star line.

—Mr. Edward B. Drew was the guest of the Twentieth Century Club Saturday afternoon and made an address on "Our Brotherhood with China."

—The Elliot house on Mt. Vernon street has been leased to Mr. William Cooper of Newton Lower Falls, who will occupy after making improvements.

—At the recent annual meeting of the Boston Clearing House Association, Mr. Daniel G. Wing was chosen a member of the clearing house committee.

—The final rehearsals are being held for the spring production of "The Players." The play, "Why Smith Left Home," will be presented in Players' hall, April 26, 27 and 28.

—Rev. J. Edgar Park of Winthrop street attended the dinner of the Old South Club given Thursday evening at the Hotel Somerset in honor of Rev. Dr. George A. Gordon.

—Prof. William Hovgaard of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology was among the guests present at the dinner given Friday evening by Naval Constructor and Mrs. Elliot Snow at the Charlestown Navy Yard.

Auburndale.

—The Newton Woman's Exchange which has heretofore been closed during the lunch hour will hereafter be open from 8.30 to 5.30 daily.

—The work on the improvement of Nye Park has commenced in earnest, and the barren spot will soon be one of interest and beauty. The Village Improvement Society deserves much credit for this improvement.

—An entertainment and sale of aprons, home made cake and candles will be held at the Centenary Methodist church next Thursday. Sale opens at 2 o'clock and at 7.45. An exhibition will be given consisting of music and tableaux by the pupils of Miss Lough-ton's School of Expression in Boston.

—The Ladies' Aid of the Auburndale Centenary Methodist church will hold an apron sale and entertainment at the church next Thursday afternoon and evening. The entertainment which begins at 7.45 P. M. will consist of readings, vocal music and patriotic tableaux by the pupils of Miss Lough-ton's school of expression, Boston.

—The West Newton postal clerks and carriers defeated the Newton postal clerks and carriers in a well contested game of baseball at Cabot park, on Patriots' Day morning. The features of the game were the pitching of Capt. Ryan, the batting of Meekins and fielding of Lafée. The score was 15-3.

—Ambassador White of France gave a dinner in honor of Bishop Thomas A. Jagger, formerly of Winthrop street and now in charge of the Episcopal church in Europe, Thursday evening of last week in Paris. Among the guests were men and women prominent in social and literary circles in America and Europe.

—Prof. William L. Puffer of Mt. Vernon street has been engaged by Mayor Hibbard of Boston to inquire into the merits of the five year contract that it is proposed to make for the city with the Edison Electric Illuminating Company. Prof. Puffer is now engaged in the profession of a consulting and electrical engineer.

—Last Saturday afternoon at the family residence on Putnam street the funeral of Mrs. Mary S. Hunter was held and was attended by many relatives and friends. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Henry J. Patrick and Rev. J. Edgar Park and the burial was in Newton cemetery. There were many floral tributes.

—The funeral of John S. Sullivan, who died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Daniel Reardon of Cherry street on Saturday was held at St. Bernard's church on Tuesday morning. Mr. Sullivan was recently admitted to the bar previous to which he was connected with the Washington Post. Interment was in the family lot, Ipswich, Mass.

Waban.

—Mills undertaking rooms, 817-819 Washington street, Newtonville. Tel. 112-3. Leave calls at Rhodes' drug store. Tel. Newton S. 237-3.

—Mr. F. W. Webster and family of Windsor road spent the week's end and holiday at their summer home in Canton.

—Mr. F. H. Putnam of Upland road has recently purchased nearly two acres of land adjoining his residence and on which an extensive job of grading and planting is being done.

—The Guild of the Good Shepherd met at the home of Mrs. C. B. McGee, Chestnut street on Tuesday for their weekly work. On Friday next they plan to hold a sale of fancy and useful articles in Waban hall.

—The children's afternoon of the Waban Woman's Club was held in Waban hall Thursday and brought out a large number of little guests. An entertainment, delightful alike to the children and the older listener, was furnished by Mr. John Beach, in a Stevenson Story and Song Recital.

—The boys' athletic club's ball team took the measure of the married men in the first game of the season on the morning of the 19th, by a score that was too large to count. G. Williams pitched an effective game for the winners for several innings but was hard hit toward the end when the "Has-beens" nearly tied the score. None of the pitchers for the men—and they used six—were able to locate the plate.

—The crowning event of the Beacon Club's season was a dinner at the Boston City Club held Wednesday evening. The club was most favored in having as the guest of honor, the Hon. John W. Weeks, representative of this district in Congress, who came on from Washington for the occasion. His informal talk on "The House of Representatives, its foremost members, its Speaker, the rules and tariff bill was one of the most intensely interesting and instructive of the winter's entertainments. Mr. Weeks' intimate knowledge of his topic and the convincing proofs which he offered on every point put a new light on the much discussed matters of national moment. More than fifty members were present and the dinner was excellent.

NEWTON HOME

The annual reception of the Newton Home for Aged People, Newton Upper Falls, will be held May first. Everyone is cordially invited.

MORTGAGES

LOANS AT FAIR RATES
 ON NEWTON REAL ESTATE

WEST NEWTON SAVINGS BANK

HOURS, 8.30 TO 12 AND 1 TO 3

SATURDAY, 8.30 TO 12

HALL & LYON CO.

OF NEW ENGLAND

The Retail Store.

APOTHECARIES

HALLS CORNER, 117

Moody St., WALTHAM

WALTHAM'S MONEY SAVING DRUG STORE

Just Prices

Cedar Lavender Co.

Kills Moths, Buffalo Bugs, Eggs and all,

15c pound pkg

Hydrogen Peroxide

Useful in Every household,

25c Pint Bottle

$1.00 Swamp Root 72c
 50c Swamp Root 40c
 $1.00 Father John 79c
 50c Father John 40c
 $1.00 Scott's Emulsion 71c
 $1.00 Sagwa 85c
 25c Kickapoo Oil 20c
 25c Kickapoo Worm Loz. 20c
 25c Kickapoo Salve 20c
 50c Doan's Pills 39c
 25c Beecham's Pills 20c
 Liquid Crystalline (for bugs) pints 25c
 Insect Powder 10c to 75c
 Roach Sault 10c and 20c
 Peterman's Discovery 25c
 Strong Household Ammonia, bottle 10c
 Witch Hazel, pints 20c
 Ant and Roach Powder, 10c, 15c, 25c, 45c

Dead Stuck 20c
 Powdered Borax, lb 15c
 Carter's Ink, bottle 5c
 Mucilage, bottle 5c and 10c
 Art Paste in tubes 5c and 10c
 Paper Waste Baskets 10c
 Billiken Puzzles 25c
 Elastic Bands, box 10c and 25c
 Sealing Wax, stick 10c
 Lead Pencils 5c
 Pad Paper 10c to 25c
 Box Writing Paper 10c to $1.00
 Style Lead Pencils 10c
 Poker Chips 39c-50c
 Glass Cigar Trays 10c
 Modelling Clay 25c
 Fountain Pens $1.50 to $2.50
 Passepartouts 10c
 Passepartout Frames 5c
 Watch Fobs 50c
 Souvenir Post Cards 1c
 Comic Post Cards 1c

Waxed Paper

For home use, 36 feet by 12 inches,

5c

Blaud's Iron Pills

Make Blood, 100 5-Grain Pills,

19c

MARTIN'S PEST EXTERMINATORS

Eleven (11) different Powders, one for each pest. Each one sure death to the particular pest put up for.
 Moths, Silver Bugs, Rats, Mice, Bed Bugs, Buffalo Bugs, etc.
 Exterminated to the limit by using MARTIN'S POWDERS.

50c and $1.00 Per Box

WE ARE MARTIN'S SPECIAL WALTHAM AGENTS.

Iver Johnson Racycle Columbia

STANDARD MAKES OF BICYCLES IN STOCK

Hardware, Paint and Oils

KODAKS and SUPPLIES

W. E. Tomlinson EDDY BLOCK
 WEST NEWTON

There is Something Here You Need

Latest Styles in Shirt Waists and New Idea Patterns, Veilings, Ruchings, Chamois Gloves, Dressmakers Findings, Etc.

MARY E. HOSMER

1405 Washington Street - West Newton

A. L. JORDAN

House Painter and Interior Decorator

Latest Designs in Wall Papers. (Refinishing Furniture a Specialty)

54 Chestnut Street (near depot) West Newton Telephone Connection

PARIS PATTERN SUPPLY CO.

Are fitting Ladies to Dresses Absolutely Perfect in Paper Patterns of Advanced Designs. Shirts, Jackets, Waists and Shirt Waists, Etc. From these fitted patterns a lady can make her dress without trying on.

169 Tremont Street, Near New Herald Bldg. Boston

WANTED.

WANTED—General housework girl, three in family, modern flat, gas range, good references, wages, $4.50. Apply Cement House, 695 Washington St., Brighton Hill.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Phaeton buggy, little worn, suitable for small horse; seen at stable, No. 141 Cypress St., Newton Centre.

STATION CARRIAGE FOR SALE—Made very light for Newton hills. Will sell cheap, can be seen at 159 Prince St., West Newton.

Miscellaneous.

BOSTON TERRIER PUP, pedigree stock, nice Brindle, with perfect white markings, good head and tail, for sale cheap if taken at once. 110 Webster St., West Newton.

TO LET—Large furnished front room and alcove, suitable for one or two gentlemen, with heat, gas, bath and use of telephone. Convenient to everything. Apply after 6.30 P. M. at Suite 5, The Carlton, 233 Washington Street, Newton.

TO SUELT—NEWTON. Furnished suite, two rooms, kitchenette, bath, continuous hot water, all modern conveniences. From May 1st to Oct. 1st. Address Mrs. A. P. C. 457 Centre St., Suite 12, Newton. Tel. 1528-2, Newtonville.

TO LET—A nice large stable, storage for automobiles, terms reasonable, gas and water. Apply at 19 Maple Ave., Newton.

TO LET—2 sunny front rooms furnished or unfurnished, with or without board; good location. Address J. this office.

TO LET—Half a new double house, ten rooms, all modern conveniences, 17 Elliot St., Watertown. Five minutes from Newton Square. Apply C. S. Nelson, 72 Charlesbank Road, Newton.

TO LET—Desirable large warm, sunny, pleasant single and connecting rooms, with or without board, 93 Washington park, Newtonville.

TERMINAL TO LET—Robinson Block, West Newton, $9.50 per month, P. D. Tarlton, Agent, West Newton.

HOUGHTON & DUTTON CO.

We Wish to Call Especial Attention to
OUR SUPERB
SPRING STOCKS

THIS STORE, we believe, is the busiest in all Boston, as the result of nearly 40 years of honest, straightforward advertising, together with quantities and quantities to back up our announcements. We believe, our assortment of good, serviceable, seasonable merchandise is second to none in the city, while our prices show that nowhere can you buy to greater advantage. Our Millinery Department has won great prestige, a fact that is emphasized by the great throngs that assemble here daily. Our Women's and Children's Department of ready-made garments have never shown so many smart and shapely models. Our Shoe, Glove, Hosiery and kindred departments are at their best. The result of weeks of hard work and ceaseless effort is now ready for your inspection. Remember, we give great values for little money.

Merchants Legal Stamps On All Purchases. Double Stamps Every Forenoon.

Newton

—Mr. Amsten is making improvements to his property adjoining the Marlon on Washington street.

—Mrs. Harriet E. Ringrose and family of Thornton street have moved into the Stanton house on Emerson street.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Crosby were passengers sailing on the Kronprinzessin Cecilie from New York to Bremen last Tuesday.

—Mr. Clifford C. Emerson and family of the Croydon will make their future home in the Rogers house on Franklin street.

—Mr. and Mrs. John T. Judd of Park street and Mrs. H. B. Stebbins of Edgemoor street were recent guests registered at Hot Springs.

—Miss Ruth Lisle, who has spent the winter on Church street, is moving to Newton Centre, where she will fill a professional engagement.

—Mr. Howard W. Jenkins of Hollis street has purchased a lot of land near Marlon and intends building a bungalow to be occupied the coming season.

—Mrs. Augustus Gray Harris of Concord, N. H., announces the engagement of her daughter Julia Atherton, to Mr. Robert Whiting Harrington of Newton.

—Rev. Hilary Bygrave, a former resident of Newton and more recently living in Belmont, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Unitarian church at Scituate.

—At a business meeting of the recently organized Middlesex G. A. R. Association held in Natick Monday, Mr. John Flood of Washington street was elected quarter master.

—The high wind Monday afternoon caused a flagstaff to fall across the fire alarm wires on Bellevue street, near Lewis terrace, carrying away the wires and demolishing a fence.

—Mr. W. M. Paxton of Elmwood street is among the Boston artists who contributed a painting to the collection which is on exhibition this week at the Macbeth galleries in New York.

—Miss Lillian Snelling, a former well known resident on Sargent street, has been engaged by the manager of the Metropolitan Opera House company to sing important roles during the season of 1909-10. Miss Snelling is contralto of the Fifth Avenue Baptist church in New York and is a pupil of Mrs. Laura E. Morrill of New York and formerly of Boston.

J. D. Packard & Sons Co.

29 BRIGHTON AVENUE, ALLSTON

Have on hand a large assortment of high grade horses, consisting of Matched Pairs, Sadlers and family horses.

Telephone Brighton 361-3

Nonantum Cycle Co.

Bicycles of all kinds sold and exchanged
AUTOMOBILE AND BICYCLE REPAIRING
Auto and Bicycle Tires Sold and Repaired. Lawn Mowers Sharpened and broken parts replaced.

Send postal or call
Work called for and delivered

NONANTUM CYCLE CO.

363 Watertown Street - Newton, Mass.
P. R. DENNING, Manager

Women's Clubs.

Edited by Miss Grace M. Burt

The Springfield Women's Club is making extensive preparations for the entertainment of the State Federation for the annual meeting to be held on May 19 and 20. The sessions on May 19 will be held in the High School hall at 3 and 7.45 P. M., followed by a reception in the Springfield Women's club house. On the next day the session will be in the Church of the Unity. By courtesy of the hostess club there will be an excursion on Thursday afternoon to the Country Club. Special rates at the hotels will be announced later. There will be special round trip tickets, one and three-fifths fare from central points, good going out on any train May 18, 19 and 20, and returning on any train May 19, 20 and 21. No luncheon will be provided on either day.

The annual meeting of the Social Science Club will be held at the Hunnewell Club on April 28 at 10 A. M.

The Newton Federation will hold its annual meeting at the Congregational church, Newtonville, on Tuesday, May 4, at 10.15 A. M. The morning session will be given up to reports and the election of officers. Luncheon will be served at one o'clock. An interesting program is being arranged for the afternoon, details of which will be given next week. Luncheon tickets at sixty cents each can be secured from the presidents of the individual clubs and none will be sold on the day of the meeting.

The Monday Club of Newton Highlands had an afternoon of American History at its meeting on April 20. Papers were given on "The Colonial Wars" and on "The Pilgrims and Puritans in Old England and in New England." Music was furnished by Mrs. Shumway. The club will have its annual meeting next Monday, April 26, with Mrs. Cummings.

The annual meeting of the Auburn-dale Review Club was held with Mrs. Charles Strongman on Tuesday, April 20th. Miss Alice Ranlett, who prepared the topics for study for the next year, outlined the general plan to be followed, which embraces, besides drama, history, literature and study of the cathedrals in France. Four lectures are to be given on subjects relating to the winter's study. The following officers were elected for next year: President, Mrs. Henry G. Hill-dreth; vice-president, Mrs. Edward F. Miller; secretary, Miss Louise Pelou-bet; treasurer, Mrs. William Fuller; directors, Mrs. R. L. Bridgman, Mrs. F. F. Davidson, Mrs. W. L. Carver.

The Perler Club met on Wednesday afternoon, April 21st with Mrs. Ryder. Mrs. Child read a paper on "Bees and Ants." Mrs. Halliday told the stories of "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm" and "The Old Peabody Pew," written by Mrs. Kate Douglas Wiggin. Mrs. Gallison read a short selection. A whist party has also been held by the club at Wade hall for the benefit of the new play ground for Upper Falls.

At the meeting of the Social Science Club on Wednesday morning, April 21, Miss Jennie L. Hamilton gave an interesting paper, entitled "The Newspaper and the Citizen." In giving a brief summary of facts concerning the early newspapers Miss Hamilton stated that there were thirteen colonial papers, the Boston Newsletter being one of the earliest. The Worcester Spy originated as a Boston production, but was later moved to Worcester and today enjoys the distinction of being the oldest newspaper in the country. The first daily was printed in Philadelphia in 1784. The New York Sun was the first penny paper and the New York Herald the first eight-page paper. Previous to 1860 the newspaper contents were essays on morals, politics and on subjects of the day. They contained views rather than news. She told how Horace Greeley would frequently leave out columns of advertising in order to print long articles setting forth his views. But with the outbreak of the Civil War newspaper reading became general and from that time they have been filled with news as that term is understood today. It has been estimated that eight billion copies of newspapers are issued a year at the present time. The modern newspaper is a perfectly appointed business enterprise, a money making industry run for dividends rather than for ideals. The carrying on of the modern newspaper costs, it is estimated, from $20,000 to $35,000 a week and dividends are paid on from five to fifteen million dollars. Miss Hamilton went into details regarding the large force of editors and writers necessary for producing the great daily. Relative to the habit of newspaper reading she stated that one-half the people make it all their reading, while all people make it about one-half their reading. She considers it a great civilizing agency and a good field for high minded young people.

THE PLAYERS

The Players will present the play "Why Smith Left Home" in Playco's hall, West Newton, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, April 26, 27, 28.

Some of the neckwear worn by fashionable young men is so loud that you can hear it in the next block.

THE Woman's Journal A SUFFRAGE PAPER

Published Weekly

EDITED BY

Alice Stone Blackwell

6 Beacon St., Boston

$1.50 PER YEAR

IN MEMORIAM

FRANK WINTHROP DRAPER, M.D.

Died in Brookline, April 19.

Seldom is the community called upon to mourn the loss of so valuable a citizen as Dr. Draper.

Born in Wayland, Mass., in 1843. Graduated in Arts at Brown university in 1862 and in Medicine at the Harvard medical school in 1868, he diligently laid the foundations for his beneficent and successful life work.

Immediately after graduating from college, he enlisted for the defence of his country in the Civil War as a private in 35th Mass. Volunteers and by his merit was advanced till in 1864 he was an acting assistant Brigade Adjutant General. He served in many parts of the country, was present at the surrender of Johnston and resigned in June, 1865. A valuable history of his life as a soldier, entitled "A Soldier's Narrative" was published by his native town.

It was, however, as a physician that he was best known, and he was recognized as a leader and authority in certain departments of medicine. On the establishment of the Massachusetts Medical Examiner System, which succeeded the old Coronor System, in 1877 Dr. Draper was appointed by the Governor as Medical Examiner for the Southern Suffolk district, till in 1905, on account of failing health, he felt obliged to decline a reappointment. It was largely to his fidelity, skill and rare fitness for the position, that much of the success of the system was due, and on his resignation both the medical and legal professions testified to the exalted character of his work. To this public work was added that of a member of the State Board of Health from 1886 to 1902.

The high esteem in which he was held professionally was shown by his election to membership in many medical and scientific societies and the profession in the state showed their appreciation by choosing him for many years, as a member of the Council of the Massachusetts Medical Society, as its secretary, 1873-75; treasurer, 1875-81; orator, 1892 and president, 1900-1902.

He was an authority in legal medicine; for years was professor in that department in the Harvard medical school; wrote many papers on that subject for medical societies and journals, and in 1904 published a volume, entitled "Legal Medicine" which is a recognized standard text-book and authority.

Dr. Draper was a clear, forceful writer, a model in style. He was comparatively modest and extremely lovable. Failing health for the past four years has laid him aside from active work, but he has borne his affliction with cheerfulness and patience and leaves an example of a life especially devoted to the public good and accomplishing much therefore.

ENTERTAINMENT CLUB

In the Channing church parlors last Wednesday evening, Marie J. Warren's three-act farce comedy, entitled "The Elopement of Ellen," was presented before an appreciative audience made up largely of members of the club. New scenery added considerably to the effectiveness of the production and the character parts were well taken. The cast was as follows: Dorothy March, engaged to Max

Robert Shepard, Molly's brother
Erskine P. Noyes
John Hume, Rector of St. Agnes Horace C. Harrington
Molly, his wife, Helen Clarke
Richard Ford, Kenneth Howard
Max Ten Eyck, 'Chum of Robert's' Winthrop A. Mandell
June Haverhill, Wellesley, '06
Margery F. Adams

The annual meeting of the club will be held next Monday evening, at 8 P. M.

D. A. R.

The Lucy Jackson Chapter, D. A. R. of Newton, was entertained at the Neighborhood Club of West Newton, April 12, by Mrs. Walter Allen, Mrs. Clinton L. Eddy, Mrs. Frank M. Sherman, and Mrs. John L. Eaton.

The Regent, Mrs. Arthur P. Friend presided, and introduced the new State Vice-Regent, Mrs. Davidson of Watertown, who was the guest of the chapter and gave a short address.

Mrs. Moore, a chapter member, read a very interesting paper on her ancestor, General Stack, followed by some delightful music on the violin, rendered by Miss Gertrude Bellows, accompanied by Miss Wise and Miss Dayton sang charmingly.

The dainty refreshments were served by Miss Fannie Allen and Mrs. Arthur G. Homer, assisted by young ladies.

Something New in Cold Storage of Furs

Our new (permanently installed) VACUUM PROCESS for the cleaning of FURS and RUGS is just completed. By this new method surprising results are obtained without the least injury to the furs.

Absolute cleanliness is insured without injury to the pelts, which was unavoidable under the old method of whipping now commonly in use. This new cleaner is used on all furs and rugs without further charge than regular storage rates.

FURS CALLED FOR AND DELIVERED

Telephone Oxford 620-621

LAMSON & HUBBARD

FURRIERS

92 Bedford St., Boston, Mass.

Auburndale.

—Mr. W. H. Munroe is building an addition to his house on Washington street.

—Mr. Elbridge A. Walker is making improvements to his property on Melrose street.

—Master Edward Hanlon of Melrose street continues to improve from his recent illness.

—Mr. and Mrs. Edwin R. Frost of Auburn street are back after a winter's absence.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Kent have moved from Bourne street to a house on Auburn street.

—Mr. Edward Mansfield and family are moving into the Forbes house on Lexington street.

—Mr. Fred W. Dudley has rented and opened the Ford garage on Commonwealth avenue.

—Mr. John Fraser and family have moved into their future home on Commonwealth avenue.

—Mrs. Henry A. Priest of Vista avenue is spending a part of the month in Washington, D. C.

—Mr. James H. Kendall and family of Woodland road are at their summer home at Holden, N. H.

—The young daughter of Mr. Milo Fanning is much improved after an attack of pneumonia.

—Mrs. Julia E. Lamb of Auburndale avenue returned last week from an extended southern trip.

—Mrs. Charles Strongman entertained the Review Club Tuesday at her home on Woodland road.

—Mr. Edward Wilson of Grove street left Saturday for Augusta, Me., where he will go into the optical business.

—Miss Nora Swanzy of Honolulu, Sandwich Islands, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Arthur C. Farley of Central street.

—Mr. Hubert B. Goodrich has returned to Amherst, where he is a member of the senior class at Amherst college.

—The Knights of King Arthur are preparing a dramatic entertainment to be given in Norumbega hall next Monday evening.

—Mr. H. L. Govilman has had plans drawn for a two story frame residence he intends building on Hawthorne avenue.

—Mrs. Alma W. Tower and the Misses Bessie and Alma Tower of Myrtle avenue are back from Hampton, West Virginia.

—Mrs. George W. Jacobs and children of Orris street are in Illinois, where they will spend the spring season with relatives.

—At the residence of Mrs. L. K. Browne on Hancock street last Tuesday afternoon a meeting of the Searchlight Club was held.

—Mr. W. P. Snow of Lexington street is moving to the Bourne house on Woodbine street which he recently bought and remodeled.

—Mr. and Mrs. William H. Smith of Hartford, Conn., have been recent guests of their daughter, Mrs. Arthur W. Hollis of Central street.

—Mr. John T. Benson has returned from the South with his collection of animals and is preparing his exhibits at Norumbega and Lexington parks.

—The foundation is in for Mr. Edward C. Hammond's new house on Groveland street and the carpenters are putting up the frame this week.

—Mr. L. D. Pierce of the Woodland Golf Club was in Pinehurst, N. C., this week, where he participated in the first annual mid-April golf tournament.

—Mr. H. H. Newell and family of Vista avenue have moved to Hancock, N. H.

—Mrs. Edgar H. Close and son Gerald of Central street are in Washington, D. C.

—The Newton Boat Club bowling team will play the Neighborhood team on the home alleys next Wednesday evening in the Boston pin tournament.

—On the Woodland Golf Club links Saturday afternoon the members will play a two ball foursome, 18 holes, one half aggregate handicap to be used.

—A dancing party was held in Norumbega hall last Saturday evening, under the direction of Mrs. E. B. Drost and given for her daughter and her younger friends.

—At the annual dinner and reunion of the Boston Kimball Union Academy Association, held Thursday evening at the Hotel Bellevue, Rev. Dr. Francis E. Clark, '69, made an address on "The Ministry."

—Mr. George S. Freeman, who is to be in charge of the restaurant at Norumbega Park the coming season, is moving his family here from Boston and will occupy the Wheeler house on Woodbine street.

—Mr. Everett Howard Titcomb of Melrose street assisted in the musical program at the meeting of the Wheaton Seminary Alumnae Association, held at the Hotel Vendome, Boston, last Saturday afternoon.

—Miss Annie C. Strong had charge of one of the Worker's Conferences held Monday at the annual convention of the Christian Endeavorers of Middlesex County which took place at the First Baptist church, Malden.

—Messrs. Frank F. Davidson of Hancock street and William T. Farley of Central street are among the Boston business men who will go on the New England tour to be taken by the Boston Merchants' Association.

—The Loyal Temperance Legion met Sunday afternoon in the Methodist chapel, Rev. Dr. W. C. Gordon made an address. The boys of the Legion will hold an athletic meet on Saturday, commencing at 10 o'clock.

—At the missionary home on Hancock street last Wednesday afternoon a meeting of the missionary societies of the Congregational church was held. Mrs. Joseph Cook and Mrs. Dillingham were the speakers and described the work being done in mission fields.

—At the monthly missionary concert held Sunday evening at the Congregational church, Mr. David Z. T. Yul, a Chinese student at the Episcopal Theological school in Cambridge, gave an interesting account of the work of Christian missions in China.

—In Norumbega hall last Friday evening the closing exhibition of Miss Elizabeth Cornwell's dancing school was held. There was a large attendance, including many relatives and friends of the pupils. Mrs. Farley, Mrs. Gibbs and Mrs. Pickard were the matrons.

—Mrs. John McMillen provided the special musical program at the 19th anniversary of the founding of the Union Rescue Mission in Boston which was observed last week at the Park Street Church. Mr. F. F. Davidson, president of the mission, was one of the speakers.

—A wedding of interest to friends here was that of Miss Alice Elizabeth O'Donnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis J. O'Donnell of Lexington street and Mr. Edward Albert Connolly the well known electrician. The ceremony took place at the parochial residence of St. Bernard's church, Wednesday, April 14th, and Rev. C. J. Galligan was the officiating clergyman.

LADIES TAILORING

Suits, Riding Habits and Out side Garments a Specialty
Orders Taken Without a Deposit. All Work Guaranteed. Repairing and Remodeling Etc.

L. FELDBERG

327 Auburn Street, Auburndale

Telephone 363-2 Newton West

DOES YOUR HOUSE NEED PAINTING

OR

Papering this Spring

We have a select line of latest designs in Wall Papers; Mixed Paints, Jap-a-lac, Liquid Veneer, Picture Mouldings, Etc. at Boston Prices.

GEORGE S. GORDON, 325 Auburn Street, Auburndale

Telephones, Office 628-6 N. W. Residence 628-1 N. W.

Our new and thoroughly modern banking rooms and safe deposit vaults place at your command banking facilities that are second to none.

The Commonwealth Trust Co.
88 Summer Street corner Devonshire Street, Boston

LLOYD'S EYEGLASSES & SPECTACLES

Our fine factory arrangements, our great stock of material, our unusually wide and long experience our long and steadily growing list of customers are perfect assurances of the goodness of our glasses and the satisfactory prices.

ANDREW J. LLOYD CO.
315 Washington St. Boston.
310 Boylston St.
75 Summer St.
1252 Massachusetts Ave. Cambridge

CARE OF REAL ESTATE

Is solicited. Having now the management of fifty or more estates in Newton and other suburbs, I have every facility to make my returns to owners the largest that is consistent with good management. My charges are reasonable and if your real estate is not paying you well, telephone E. Arthur Robinson.

This is the Universal Incandescent Kerosene Mantle Lamp
the best and cheapest to be had. 100 candle power, six hours for one cent. Brighter than Gas or Electricity. The most perfect reading or sewing light yet invented. Odorless smokeless, can not explode, no parts to get out of order and easy to care for.

These lamps can be seen or orders left at the following places:

HARRINGTONS NEWS STAND NEWTON
WOODMAN'S NEWS STAND NEWTON CENTRE.
or telephone Garden City Supply Co., Newton Centre

HODGES
LADIES' HATS
Cleansed or Dyed and made over into the latest prevailing shades.

WE SAVE YOU HALF

BLEACHERY

ESTABLISHED 1869
J. S. Waterman & Sons
Incorporated
2328-2329 Washington Street, Boston
Adjoining Dudley St. Terminal Station
Personal attention given to all Funeral Orations and Cemetery arrangements.
The price of each casket is plainly marked.
Established prices for all work.
Advice and information given.
Complete equipment in every particular.
Chapel for funeral services without charge.
GEORGE H. WATERMAN, President,
FRANK S. WATERMAN, Treasurer
Telephone Roxbury 72
Marconi or Cable address, "Undertaker Boston."

JOHN IRVING FLORIST
Cut Flowers, House Plants, Funeral Designs
Flowers for Weddings and Parties.
PEARL STREET NEWTON
Telephone Connection

Monumental Work
IN GRANITE AND MARBLE
Lettering in Cemeteries satisfactorily done
Open Wednesday, Friday and Saturday Evenings
M. KEANE, Telephone 188-2 731 Main St., Waltham

Brae-Burn Nursery
G. HOWARD FROST & CO., 193 FULLER STREET WEST NEWTON

Hairdressing and Manicure Shop
Boston's Most Unique and "Up-to-the-Minute"
Most improved and advanced methods used in Manicuring, Facial Treatment
Shampooing and Hair-Dressing
SHEPHERD AND FORD Telephone 1950-2 Oxford
178 TREMONT STREET, ROOM 46-47 (Fourth Floor) BOSTON, MASS.
(Near Tremont Theatre)

Newtonville.

—Mrs. H. D. McIntosh and children are ill at their home on Jenison street.

—Mrs. F. A. Bennett is spending a part of the month in Lakewood, N. J.

—Miss Nellie Dorney is ill with pneumonia at her home on Frederick street.

—Mr. James W. Brine of Harvard street is back from an extended Southern trip.

—Mr. Albert H. Sisson has returned from a two months' visit to Providence, R. I.

—Mrs. S. E. Eaton is making extensive improvements to her house on Walnut street.

—Mrs. William F. Hawley of Lowell avenue left Wednesday for a few weeks' absence.

—Mills undertaking rooms, 817-819 Washington street, Newtonville, Tel. Newton N. 112-3.

—Miss Grace A. Brown of Washington street is spending the week on a vacation trip to New York.

—Miss Harriet Burns left the last of the week for New Brunswick where she will be the guest of friends.

—The annual meeting of the Mission Circle, connected with the Universalist church, will be held next Wednesday.

—Rev. and Mrs. Richard T. Loring of Washington street returned Tuesday from a visit to their summer home in Duxbury.

—Mr. Albert Edward Hooper of Austin street has recovered from an attack of pneumonia and is able to be out.

—Daniels & Howlett Co., Morse Building, Newtonville, painting, decorating, hardwood finishing and wall papers.

—The Polymnia is to give a subscription whist and bridge party next Monday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Henry F. Ross on Walnut street.

—The annual meeting of the Young Peoples' League was held Sunday evening in the New church parlors. The work of the coming year was considered.

—Mr. Charles S. Thomas of Walnut street was in Amherst last Saturday where he was a speaker at the High School Institute and educational conference.

—Mrs. Frederick A. Payne, formerly of Newtonville, who has been visiting her friend, Mrs. Alfred E. Vose of Cabot street, has returned to her home in New York.

—Under the auspices of the Sewing Circle of the Universalist church the annual children's May party will be held Saturday afternoon, May 8th, in Temple hall.

—Harold, the young son of Mr. Robert J. McAdoo of Crafts street, who has been ill with a severe attack of pneumonia, is at the Newton hospital for medical treatment.

—Mr. George M. Bridges and family are located at the home of Mrs. Emma O. Gilman on Claffin place for a few weeks previous to opening their summer home in Marshfield.

—A children's dancing party will be given under the auspices of the Newtonville Women's Guild in Temple hall, May first from 3 until 5:30 P. M. Ice cream and cake will be served.

—Prof. George C. Cell of the Boston University School of Theology, will occupy the pulpit of the Methodist church next Sunday morning. The choir will appear for the first time in vestments.

—Miss Dorothy Bradshaw of Otis street has recovered from her recent illness and will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred M. Russell of California street during the remainder of the school year.

—Abraham Klein, the tailor on Washington street, was removed Wednesday morning to the Newton hospital suffering from severe burns on the face and hands received from a fire in his store caused by an explosion of gasoline.

—Robert Katz, a painter living in Malden, fell from the roof of the Cotton dwelling, Newtonville avenue, Monday afternoon, where he was working with several others, and sustained severe cuts and bruises which made necessary his removal to Newton Hospital.

—The annual choir concert will be held in the New church parlors next Friday evening. The program will consist of four part choruses, trios, piano and vocal solos. The proceeds will be used in building and equipping a tennis court at the boys' summer camp at Winchendon.

—Prof. and Mrs. Lewis E. Moore of Washington park will have the sympathy of their many friends in the loss of their daughter, Grace Imogen on Saturday. The child was 4 years of age.

—Funeral services were held from the family residence, Tuesday afternoon, at 2:30 and were conducted by Rev. Jay T. Stocking, pastor of Central church. Mrs. Gertrude Cochran Fletcher of the church quartet, sang "O Paradise," and at the grave in Newton cemetery she sang "Abide With Me." There were numerous floral tributes from relatives and friends.

—At the Methodist church last Wednesday evening a farce entitled, "The Village Postmaster," was presented under the auspices of the Young Peoples' Society, and under the direction of Messrs. George M. Bridges and Frank G. Westwood. The setting for the country store and post office was excellent and artistic work was done by Mr. Harrison Hyslop as the postmaster and Mrs. Charles Soden as the clerk in charge of the store. Others taking part were Mrs. Terrell, Miss Davidson, Miss Sylvester, Miss Mina Coombs and Messrs. W. T. Rich, Kenney and Green.

—In the parish house of the Universalist church last Friday evening the final meeting of the Theopians for the season was held. The play "The Man From Texas" was artistically presented by Miss Alice Wedger, Miss Grace Brown, Mr. David Pentz and Mr. Frank M. Grant. The rest of the program consisted of music and dancing.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Norman Sladen have sent out cards for the marriage of their daughter Miss Emma Louise Sladen to Mr. Joshua Loring. The ceremony to take place at Grace church, Newton, Friday evening, May 7th, at 8 o'clock.

West Newton.

—Mr. George A. Frost is making improvements to his residence on Chestnut street.

—Mr. M. W. Baxter and family are moving to Oak Square, Brighton, and will reside on Montfern avenue.

—The residence of Mr. E. T. Ward of Highland street is undergoing extensive improvements and alterations.

—The Brae Burn Country Club has been placed in section one in arranging for the coming competition for the state golf trophy.

—Mr. Daniel G. Wing of Otis street, president of the First National Bank of Boston, will spend the month of April in London and Paris.

—Alfred L. Barbour of this village has been appointed Trustee under the will of the late Mrs. Julia G. Foster, formerly of Randolph, an estate of about $20,000.

—Mr. F. S. Webster and Mr. Louis A. Webster of Waltham sailed last Friday on the Ellet Friedrich from New York for a trip to Colombia, South America.

—Ground was broken this week for a modern residence and garage at the corner of Commonwealth avenue and Dartmouth street for Mr. Thos. A. Crimmins of Brookline.

—Anthony Louis formerly of West Newton announces that he is now engaged with M. H. Haase, Newton. All orders for upholstery, by mail or telephone, will receive his personal attention.

—Mr. Arthur F. Luke has formed a co-partnership with others under the firm name of Luke, Banks & Weeks, to conduct a banking business and general brokerage business with offices in Boston and New York.

—Mr. Harvey G. Ruhe of Prince street has been appointed a member of a committee from the New Chamber of Commerce to go on the proposed trip through New England in the interests of its commercial development.

—Mr. Joseph Cheever Fuller, a sophomore at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, has this year distinguished himself by his connection with the Tech Show, "That Pill Grimm," the most important social activity at the Institute. Mr. Fuller has written the music for two pieces and is a dancer in the Spanish Sextette.

Newton Centre.

—Mr. W. G. Snow and family of Pleasant street have moved to Devon road.

—Mr. Joseph F. Kelley has rented for immediate occupancy a suite at Bradford Court.

—Mills undertaking rooms, 817-819 Washington street, Newtonville, Tel. Newton N. 112-3.

—Mr. James F. Cronan has rented and will soon occupy the Hawthorne house on Pelham street.

—Mr. E. F. Russ has purchased for occupancy the new McDonald house located on Loring street.

—Mr. William Bliss is again at his home on Center street, after a three months' stay in New Hampshire.

—Mr. E. Clifford Potter has purchased the MacDonald estate, located on Ballard street, corner of Centre street.

—Mr. A. W. Nickerson and family are moving here from Roxbury and will occupy the Barnes house on Homer street.

—Miss Mildred M. Frost, who is a member of the junior class at Wellesley college, has received one of the honor scholarships.

—The annual meeting of the Newton Centre Improvement Association will be held in the library of the Mason school next Tuesday evening at 7:45 o'clock.

—Mr. Henry D. Degen of Commonwealth avenue has been chosen a manager of the Preachers' Aid Society connected with the Methodist denomination.

—Messrs. John Richardson, Jr., and F. H. Burr are the two graduate members of Harvard college chosen members of the governing board of the Harvard Union.

—Miss Sarah Louise Arnold of Crescent avenue dean of Simmons college, has been elected a vice president of the Women's Municipal League of Boston.

—Rev. Dr. George F. Phinney, who has been acting pastor of the Methodist church, was appointed at the conference to the pastorate of the Bethany church in Roslindale.

—Mr. J. E. Wolf of Cambridge has purchased the Stephen L. Bartlett estate on Hammond street, Chestnut Hill, comprising a large colonial style house, stable and two acres of land.

—Mr. Chester C. Buits of Sumner street, who is a student at Dartmouth college, has been elected a member of the board of editors of the Aegis, the annual published by the junior class.

—At the recent annual meeting of the American Ramblers Association held in Boston, Miss Clementina Butler was elected a member of the board of managers and chairman of the Executive Committee.

—The Luther Paul Company has been incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts, with a capital of $50,000, to deal in coal, wood and similar merchandise. The directors are L. G. Paul, president; Irving C. Paul, treasurer, and H. O. Paul.

Satisfaction, contentment, and gratification, are three gradations of joy experienced by every user of a steam or hot water heater. If you are contemplating heating your dwelling, write Smith & Thayer Company, 236 Congress street, Boston, Mass.

—Satisfaction, contentment, and gratification, are three gradations of joy experienced by every user of a steam or hot water heater. If you are contemplating heating your dwelling, write Smith & Thayer Company, 236 Congress street, Boston, Mass.

—Satisfaction, contentment, and gratification, are three gradations of joy experienced by every user of a steam or hot water heater. If you are contemplating heating your dwelling, write Smith & Thayer Company, 236 Congress street, Boston, Mass.

—Satisfaction, contentment, and gratification, are three gradations of joy experienced by every user of a steam or hot water heater. If you are contemplating heating your dwelling, write Smith & Thayer Company, 236 Congress street, Boston, Mass.

—Satisfaction, contentment, and gratification, are three gradations of joy experienced by every user of a steam or hot water heater. If you are contemplating heating your dwelling, write Smith & Thayer Company, 236 Congress street, Boston, Mass.

—Satisfaction, contentment, and gratification, are three gradations of joy experienced by every user of a steam or hot water heater. If you are contemplating heating your dwelling, write Smith & Thayer Company, 236 Congress street, Boston, Mass.

—Satisfaction, contentment, and gratification, are three gradations of joy experienced by every user of a steam or hot water heater. If you are contemplating heating your dwelling, write Smith & Thayer Company, 236 Congress street, Boston, Mass.

—Satisfaction, contentment, and gratification, are three gradations of joy experienced by every user of a steam or hot water heater. If you are contemplating heating your dwelling, write Smith & Thayer Company, 236 Congress street, Boston, Mass.

—Satisfaction, contentment, and gratification, are three gradations of joy experienced by every user of a steam or hot water heater. If you are contemplating heating your dwelling, write Smith & Thayer Company, 236 Congress street, Boston, Mass.

—Satisfaction, contentment, and gratification, are three gradations of joy experienced by every user of a steam or hot water heater. If you are contemplating heating your dwelling, write Smith & Thayer Company, 236 Congress street, Boston, Mass.

—Satisfaction, contentment, and gratification, are three gradations of joy experienced by every user of a steam or hot water heater. If you are contemplating heating your dwelling, write Smith & Thayer Company, 236 Congress street, Boston, Mass.

—Satisfaction, contentment, and gratification, are three gradations of joy experienced by every user of a steam or hot water heater. If you are contemplating heating your dwelling, write Smith & Thayer Company, 236 Congress street, Boston, Mass.

—Satisfaction, contentment, and gratification, are three gradations of joy experienced by every user of a steam or hot water heater. If you are contemplating heating your dwelling, write Smith & Thayer Company, 236 Congress street, Boston, Mass.

—Satisfaction, contentment, and gratification, are three gradations of joy experienced by every user of a steam or hot water heater. If you are contemplating heating your dwelling, write Smith & Thayer Company, 236 Congress street, Boston, Mass.

—Satisfaction, contentment, and gratification, are three gradations of joy experienced by every user of a steam or hot water heater. If you are contemplating heating your dwelling, write Smith & Thayer Company, 236 Congress street, Boston, Mass.

—Satisfaction, contentment, and gratification, are three gradations of joy experienced by every user of a steam or hot water heater. If you are contemplating heating your dwelling, write Smith & Thayer Company, 236 Congress street, Boston, Mass.

—Satisfaction, contentment, and gratification, are three gradations of joy experienced by every user of a steam or hot water heater. If you are contemplating heating your dwelling, write Smith & Thayer Company, 236 Congress street, Boston, Mass.

Dry Cold Storage

Furs, Clothing and Rugs

Constant improvement of our facilities and increase of this branch of our business enables us to offer the

Reduced Rate of 3%

of the agreed valuation with reasonable minimum charges.

Our modern scientific methods of examining and cleaning furs by expert furriers before they are put in storage is worth alone the entire cost. REDUCED PRICES on all furs purchased or remodeled now, with STORAGE FREE.

FURS CALLED FOR AND DELIVERED

Telephone Oxford 1399

A. N. COOK & CO.

N. C. COOK, Proprietor
HATTERS AND FURRIERS

161 TREMONT STREET, BOSTON

NEWTON FREE LIBRARY

List of New Books

BROOKE, Stopford Augustus. Four Victorian Poets: a study of Clough, Arnold, Rossetti, Morris, with an introduction on the course of poetry from 1822 to 1852. ZYP.B791
BURNETT, Frances Hodgson. The Spring Cleaning; as told by Queen Crosspatch. JYL.B93a
CARPENTER, Frank George. Foods; or how the World is Fed. (Carpenter's Industrial Readers.) JRU.C219
CHURCHILL, Winston Leonard Spencer. My African Journey. G72.C47
Crichfield, George W. American Supremacy: the rise and progress of the Latin American Republics and their relations to the United States under the Monroe Doctrine. 2 vols. P95.C86
DAVIES, Randall, and Hunt, Cecil, eds. Stories of the English Artists from Vandeyck to Turner, 1600-1851. W45.D28
EMERSON, Edward Randolph. Beverages, Past and Present: an historical sketch of their production together with a study of the customs connected with their use. 2 vols. RXB.E53
FLOYD, Frederick C. History of the Fortieth (Mozart) Regiment, New York Volunteers. F834N.F6
GRANT, Robert. The Chippendales. G767 c
HARVEY, George Brinton McClellan. Women, etc.: some leaves from an editor's diary. Y.H26 w
KENEALY, Arbella. Whips of Time. K351 w
KLEISER, Grenville. Humorous Hits and how to hold an Audience: a collection of short selections, stories. ZXS.K67
LANE, Elinor Macartney. Katrine. L341 k
LEES, G. Robinson. A Woman's Way through Unknown Labrador. G62.L51
MELTZ, Leo Leopold. The Opera Goer's Complete Guide: comprising two hundred and nine opera plots with musical numbers and casts, translated by Richard Salinger. VV10.M48
MOODY, William Vaughn. The Faith Healer: a play in four acts. YD.M77 fa
O'BRIEN, S. W. Life of Mary Baker Eddy. EE215.O
ROGERS, Robert William. The Religion of Babylonia and Assyria; especially in its relations to Israel. BZH.R63
April 21, 1909.

Confirmation AND Graduation Suits for Boys

It isn't a bit too early to think of getting the Boys' Clothes ready for these two most important events—besides, you who buy now get the advantage of buying from stocks which are greater in quantity than at any time in all the year—quality, of course, is always here.

This Store makes a Specialty of Clothing for Boys from 2 1-2 to 16 years old.

Blue Serge Suits

Made of an all wool fast color, indigo dyed serge—Knickerbocker Pants; lined throughout, perfectly tailored. Select from two lines which are here in generous quantity. All sizes from 7 to 16 years. $4.50 and $5.00 each

Good Stylish Suits at $3.95

Six different patterns to select from at this price, affording a range of colors and patterns sure to please. Both Worsteds and Casemere materials, and every one guaranteed pure wool. Made also with Knickerbocker Trousers. $3.95 each

Serviceable Suits for $2.98

As low as this price we show a good assortment of suits for boys from 7 to 16 years. They are put together with an eye to durability—designed to give all the wear possible in a suit at the price—10 different styles at $2.98 each Caps, Blouses, Shirts, Belts, Suspenders, Ties, Odd Pants, Overalls, Brownie and Rough Rider Suits, Sweaters. Everything that the Boys need and at the prices that economical Parents want.

Come and Bring the Boy

P. P. ADAMS'

BIG DRY GOODS DEPARTMENT STORE

133, 135, 137, 139 Moody St., Waltham

Legal Stamps

Free Delivery

Caroline MILLINERY
486 BOYLSTON ST., BOSTON
In Block of Brunswick Hotel
27 SPRING OPENING

Newton Centre.

—Mr. and Mrs. Alanson Bigelow, Jr., have arrived in England, going across on the Ivernia.

—Mr. and Mrs. Isaac F. North of Montvale road are back after a winter's absence.

—Rev. Daniel Riordan of the Church of the Sacred Heart is spending a few days in Canada.

—Alderman and Mrs. Allston Burr of Chestnut Hill road are spending the spring season in California.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ernest F. Russ have moved from Allerton road to the new house located at 25 Loring street.

—The Ladies' Benevolent Society of the First church will observe its 50th anniversary next Tuesday evening.

—Last Monday evening at the home of Chester Jones of Graycliffe road a company of young people were entertained.

—Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Robinson of Moreland avenue are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son last Monday.

—Last Wednesday afternoon at the Mason school the teachers were addressed by Miss Thurston, librarian of the Newton Free Library.

—Mr. Samuel Ward, representing the Boston Stationers' Association, is active in protesting against the abolition of rail differentials to Boston.

—Mr. H. E. Johnson has been awarded honorable mention in the Herald photo contest for his excellent picture of Institution hill in winter.

—The annual dues of $1.00 each of the Newton Centre Improvement Association for 1929-30 are now payable and should be sent to Mr. Wm. H. Rice, Treasurer, 1032 Centre street.

—Last night in Circuit hall Captain John Ryan of police headquarters delivered an interesting address before the M. C. O. F. on the Custer Mass. acre. A large number were present.

—Major Morton E. Cobb, adjutant of the 2d brigade, has been granted a three months' leave of absence with permission to go beyond the sea. Major Cobb has gone to South America on a business trip.

—At the annual dinner of the Boston Real Estate Exchange held at the Hotel Somerset last Saturday evening, Messrs. A. E. Alvord, A. Dudley Dowd, Adams Claffin and W. M. Flanders were among the guests present.

—Miss Sarah Louise Arnold, dean of Simmons college, was the guest of the Bible School Association of the Melrose Highlands Congregational church last Wednesday evening and made an address on "Teacher as an Interpreter."

—Mr. and Mrs. Alden D. Wheeler who have just moved here from Hyde Park were tendered an enjoyable farewell reception last week Monday in the Methodist church of that town. Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler were presented with a fine hall clock.

—President W. E. Huntington of Boston university and Rev. E. M. Noyes were among the prominent guests present at the dinner given by the Old South Club in honor of Rev. Dr. George A. Gordon at the Hotel Somerset, Boston, last Thursday evening.

—Last Sunday afternoon the Rev. E. M. Noyes officiated at the burial services of Mrs. Grace Sproul, wife of Mr. G. W. Ulmer, Jr., of Willow terrace. The deceased was born in Waterville, Me., twenty-eight years ago, the daughter of Capt. Thos. and Mary Sproul of that place. The interment was at the Newton cemetery.

—Last Monday afternoon while Miss Ryan of Nonantum was watching the runners in the marathon race, she was struck by a motor cycle, injuring her so severely that she was sent to the hospital by Drs. White and Thompson of Newton Highlands. The cause of the accident was due to the fact that the chain came off the cycle and the rider therefore lost control of the machine.

—Last night at the Methodist church reception was extended to the pastor the Rev. Chas. M. Melden, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin M. Fowle and Rev. E. T. Sullivan assisted Dr. and Mrs. Melden in receiving. After supper several toasts were given by the prominent men of the different churches. Mr. William M. Flanders acting as toastmaster. The speakers were Dr. Wm. P. Cooke, Rev. M. A. Levy of the Baptist church, Rev. E. T. Sullivan of Trinity church, Senator Harwood and Mr. Kelsey representing the First church, Mr. Fred Melcher of the Unitarian church, and letters were read by Mrs. Avery I. Rand from Dr. Hoar, president of the Baptist theological seminary, Rev. Dr. Geo. A. Philney, a former pastor, and Rev. Fr. Riordan, rector of the Church of the Sacred Heart. Over three hundred people were present.

Newton Highlands

—Herbert N. Colby left Tuesday for Great Barrington, Mass.

—Mr. Geo. B. King of Lake avenue has been in New York this week.

—J. F. Doyle of Floral street is having improvements made on his house.

THE NEWTON TAILORING CO.

Ladies' and Gent's Custom Tailors.

Suits Made to Order in the Latest Styles. Cleaning, Dyeing, Pressing and Repairing. Ladies' Garments Altered and Remodeled.

413 CENTRE STREET OPP. THE POST OFFICE NEWTON, MASS.

Work called for and delivered. Special Arrangements for Monthly Pressing. Tel. 766-4. Open Evenings

GEO. T. HOYT CO.

Bunting-Flags

Canopies for Church and Home Weddings
Horse and Wagon Covers
Tents, Etc.

52 SOUTH MARKET STREET
Corner Commercial, BOSTON, MASS.
Tel. Michwood 1618

—B. G. Pond is making improvements on the Sedgwick house, Floral street.

—Mr. E. B. Musgrove and family have moved from Oak terrace to Terrace avenue.

—E. J. Smith of Lake avenue will occupy the Bellamy house on Lake-wood road May first.

—The C. L. S. C. will meet next Monday at 2.30 with Mrs. A. F. Hayward of Centre street.

—The young son of Mr. C. E. Walker, Walnut street, who has been quite ill is now recovering.

—Mr. Morris Page of Walnut street left this week for Keeler, Cal., where he is interested in mining.

—Mr. D. B. Eddy and family from East Orange, N. J. will occupy the house numbered 19 Montford road.

—Mr. German of Souths and German has rented the Atkins house on Floral street and will occupy May first.

—Mr. C. B. Lentell is making repairs and improvements on the Moore house on Cook street which he recently bought.

—The first social and dance of Garden City Encampment, No. 62, I. O. O. F., will be held in Lincoln hall this evening.

—Mills undertaking rooms, 817-819 Washington street, Newtonville. Tel. 112-3. Leave calls with H. S. Hiltz, Eliot Station.

—Mrs. Goodwin and daughter Miss Marjorie Goodwin who have spent the winter in Boston have returned for the summer months.

—Mrs. J. Weston Allen of Lake-wood road returned home Friday from Milwaukee, Wis., where she has been visiting several weeks.

—The Richards family of Floral street expect to leave the middle of the month for Allerton, Mass., where they will spend the summer.

—Mr. A. W. Burnham and family will move from Mr. Thos. White's house on Floral street to Mr. John Ruddle's house on Harrison street, Eliot.

—Mr. H. N. Taylor and family who have occupied the Barnes house on Hyde street for several years will move the middle of the month to West Virginia.

—Parishoners of the Methodist church tendered a reception Wednesday evening to Rev. George K. Bailey, who has just begun a pastorate of the church, succeeding Rev. John E. Charlton.

—A series of entertainments under the direction of the Men's League of the Congregational church closed Tuesday evening, when a large audience heard an interesting address by Ex-Gov. Gould on "The National Flag."

Upper Falls.

—Miss Viola Estelle was serious injured while watching a game of baseball at Needham.

—Thursday night the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church gave a supper in the church vestry.

—Tuesday afternoon, in a closely contested game, the Ralph Waldo Emerson school's baseball team defeated the Claffin school by a score of 10 to 7.

—The patrons of Miss Wallace's dancing school enjoyed a pleasant evening at an apron and necktie party held in the Wade school last Tuesday evening.

—Wednesday evening, at the Wade school hall, the Perlan Club held a whist party for the benefit of the new play grounds. A large number attended. The prize winners were Mr. Charles Cobb, first prize for gentlemen; Mrs. Henry Manning, first prize for ladies; Mr. Thomas Gamble, second prize for gentlemen, and Mrs. Thomas Shaker, second prize for ladies.

Newton

—Mrs. William H. Bliss left last Saturday for several weeks in New York.

—Miss Marjorie Capen of Park street is recovering from her recent illness.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ivy of Fairmont avenue have returned from their western trip.

—Mr. William F. Grace and Miss Nellie C. Grace of Pearl street, leave today for Old Point Comfort, Va.

—Master Edward Tuttle of Billings park is recovering from an operation performed last Tuesday at the Newton hospital.

—The Newton Woman's Exchange which has heretofore been closed during the lunch hour will hereafter be open from 8.30 to 5.30 daily.

—Mrs. Augustus Gray Harris of Concord, N. H., announces the engagement of her daughter, Julia Atherton, to Mr. Robert Whiting Harrington of Newton.

—Mrs. Oscar J. Locke entertained the Lend-A-Hand last Wednesday evening at her home on Charlesbank road. After the business session whist was enjoyed.

On account of the illness of Mrs. S. L. Durgin of Arlington street, the chaffing dish supper which was to have been held at her home last Wednesday evening was postponed.

—Rev. Carleton P. Mills of Winchester, secretary of the Sunday School Commission of the Episcopal Diocese of Massachusetts, will preach at Grace church, Sunday, April 25th.

—Mr. William C. Bates of Belmont street read a paper, "My personal experiences in Confederate Prisons—1861-62," before the Brookline Historical Society last Wednesday evening.

—Mr. John A. Gardner is president and treasurer of the American Oak Leather Company, recently incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts to carry on a general leather business.

—At the North Evangelical church Sunday at 7 P. M. Frank F. Davidson of Auburndale, president of the Union Rescue Mission of Dover street will speak with converts and workers including the lady missionary, Miss Trescott.

—The Hornbrook Memorial Committee have received a letter from the sculptor, Mr. Cyrus Dallin, who is now in Paris, saying he will return this summer and will be ready to take up the work of the memorial immediately upon his arrival.

—The third annual ladies' night of the Immanuel Baptist Associates will be held in the vestry of the Immanuel Baptist church, Thursday evening, April 25th. Supper served at 6.45 and Rev. F. B. Matthews will make a farewell address.

—Mr. L. D. Gibbs of Oakleigh road, who is assistant advertising manager of the Boston Edison Company, made an illustrated address on "Store Window and Sign Lighting" last Tuesday evening at a meeting of the New England Section Illumination Engineering Society held in Boston.

—The Christian Endeavor Society of the Immanuel church at their annual business meeting Wednesday evening elected the following officers: President, Theodore H. Morton; vice-president, Walter A. Dale; recording secretary, Miss Margaret L. Barnes; corresponding secretary, Miss Nettie M. Dolbler; treasurer, Harold Moore.

CITY HALL NOTES

The Committee on Public Franchises were the guests of their chairman, Alderman Palmer, last evening at dinner at the Brae Burn Club.

Miss Ella F. Olmsted of the Street Department office has been in Newport, R. I. this week.

Deputy Street Commissioner Geo. E. Stuart has been tendered the post of judge for the coming Boston Horse Parade on May 31st. This is Mr. Stuart's fourth year of service in this place.

MRS. HARDY DEAD

Mrs. Matilda Knowlton Hardy, the wife of Mr. Fred S. Hardy, died yesterday morning at her home on Mt. Vernon street, Newtonville, from an illness of pneumonia. Mrs. Hardy was born at Rockford, Ill., January 14, 1866 and has resided in Newtonville for the past six years. She was a member of Central church of the Newtonville Woman's Guild and other organizations, and was much beloved by all who knew her. She is survived by her husband and three children. The funeral services will be held from her late home, 162 Mt. Vernon street, on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock.

A NOTICEABLE EXODUS

The reception given to Mr. and Mrs. Alden D. Wheeler, Monday evening, who are about to remove from Hyde Park to Newton Centre, invited attention to the fact that that city has made unusual demands upon our prominent citizens in the last few years. Several of our families having taken up their permanent residence there. Brookline and Milton also have invaded our territory for good citizens, but Newton got a bunch to be proud of, and it takes away our "boom" we have guarded so zealously the past forty years. A few years ago Dr. Everett and Percy M. Blake and families went to Newton to reside and later they were followed by H. N. Cole and W. E. Bartholomew, and now the wheels have left us. If they will all come back no question will be asked and we promise to get out the band.—Hyde Park Gazette.

NEWTON BOAT CLUB

The Newton Boat Club has just had its annual meeting and have elected the following officers: President, H. Alfred Hansen, Vice-President, Frank Booth, Secretary, Ernest Booth, Treasurer, Charles E. Hatfield, and Captain, Charles E. Fogg. The Club House is now undergoing repairs, and is expected to be complete within a few days for the coming boating season. Many new applications are coming in and there is still an opportunity for a few more applications before the limit is reached. Last season the demand for club boats was greater than for many years past, and it is expected this year will exceed last year to a much greater extent.

(Boston Post, March 11, 1929.)

I desire to express my thanks to Messrs. Rowe & Porter, Insurance Brokers, 15 Central St., representing the Queen & North British & Mercantile Ins. Cos., for their absolute fairness and speedy settlement of the loss of my property on March 7, when practically all was annihilated. Mr. George L. Allen comes in for his share. As a delegate of the above companies to adjust my claims, he showed himself to be fair-minded, safeguarding the interest of not only the insurers but of the insured as well.

THE FOREIGN LANGUAGE PRESS
P. S.—Will resume business in a short time.

Notice is hereby given, that the subscriber has been duly appointed administrator with the will annexed of the estate of Katherine F. Wyman, late of New York, in the State of New York, deceased, testate, and has taken upon himself the duties of said office.

All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to

LAWRENCE BOND, Adm.
Address, 1040 Old South Building,
Boston, April 16, 1929.

Notice is hereby given, that the subscriber has been duly appointed administrator with the will annexed of the estate of Katherine F. Wyman, late of New York, in the State of New York, deceased, testate, and has taken upon himself the duties of said office.

All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to

LAWRENCE BOND, Adm.
Address, 1040 Old South Building,
Boston, April 16, 1929.

Notice is hereby given, that the subscriber has been duly appointed administrator with the will annexed of the estate of Katherine F. Wyman, late of New York, in the State of New York, deceased, testate, and has taken upon himself the duties of said office.

All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to

LAWRENCE BOND, Adm.
Address, 1040 Old South Building,
Boston, April 16, 1929.

Notice is hereby given, that the subscriber has been duly appointed administrator with the will annexed of the estate of Katherine F. Wyman, late of New York, in the State of New York, deceased, testate, and has taken upon himself the duties of said office.

All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to

LAWRENCE BOND, Adm.
Address, 1040 Old South Building,
Boston, April 16, 1929.

Notice is hereby given, that the subscriber has been duly appointed administrator with the will annexed of the estate of Katherine F. Wyman, late of New York, in the State of New York, deceased, testate, and has taken upon himself the duties of said office.

All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to

LAWRENCE BOND, Adm.
Address, 1040 Old South Building,
Boston, April 16, 1929.

Notice is hereby given, that the subscriber has been duly appointed administrator with the will annexed of the estate of Katherine F. Wyman, late of New York, in the State of New York, deceased, testate, and has taken upon himself the duties of said office.

All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to

LAWRENCE BOND, Adm.
Address, 1040 Old South Building,
Boston, April 16, 1929.

Notice is hereby given, that the subscriber has been duly appointed administrator with the will annexed of the estate of Katherine F. Wyman, late of New York, in the State of New York, deceased, testate, and has taken upon himself the duties of said office.

All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to

LAWRENCE BOND, Adm.
Address, 1040 Old South Building,
Boston, April 16, 1929.

Notice is hereby given, that the subscriber has been duly appointed administrator with the will annexed of the estate of Katherine F. Wyman, late of New York, in the State of New York, deceased, testate, and has taken upon himself the duties of said office.

All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to

LAWRENCE BOND, Adm.
Address, 1040 Old South Building,
Boston, April 16, 1929.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

PROBATE COURT.

Middlesex, ss.
To the next of kin and all others interested in the estate of John Adams, deceased, known as John Q. Adams, late of Newton, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, Almon Adams, the administrator of the estate of said deceased, has presented to said Court for allowance the first account of his administration on said estate and a petition has been made for a distribution of the balance in his hands among the next of kin and persons interested in the estate of said deceased:

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the twelfth day of May, A. D. 1929, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause why you have, why said account should not be allowed and distribution made according to said application.

And the petitioner is ordered to serve this citation by publishing the same once in each week, for three successive weeks in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in Newton, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by delivering or mailing post-paid a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this fifteenth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

PROBATE COURT.

Middlesex, ss.
To the heirs-at-law, devisees, legatees and all other persons interested in the estate of James H. Clark, late of Newton, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, Abbie M. Elwell and Emma L. Harrington, executrices of the will of said deceased, have presented to said Court their petition for license to sell a public parcel of land, whole of two parcels of the real estate of said deceased for the payment of debts, and charges of administration, and for other reasons set forth in said petition:

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the eleventh day of May, A. D. 1929, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioners are ordered to serve this citation by delivering a copy thereof to each person interested in the estate fourteen days, at least, before said Court, or by publishing the same once in each week for three successive weeks in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in Newton, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this twentieth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

PROBATE COURT.

Middlesex, ss.
To the heirs-at-law, devisees, legatees and all other persons interested in the estate of Isaac D. Brewer, late of Newton, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, Isaac D. Brewer, late of Newton, in said County, deceased, dated August 1st, 1890, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book 199, Page 574, (George B. Blinn, of Bedford in said County having succeeded the said William D. Brewer, late of said Newton, as trustee, as trustee, and as administrator, and for other reasons set forth in said petition:

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the eleventh day of May, A. D. 1929, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioners are ordered to serve this citation by delivering a copy thereof to each person interested in the estate fourteen days, at least, before said Court, or by publishing the same once in each week for three successive weeks in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in Newton, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this twentieth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

PROBATE COURT.

Middlesex, ss.
To the heirs-at-law, devisees, legatees and all other persons interested in the estate of Isaac D. Brewer, late of Newton, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, Isaac D. Brewer, late of Newton, in said County, deceased, dated August 1st, 1890, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book 199, Page 574, (George B. Blinn, of Bedford in said County having succeeded the said William D. Brewer, late of said Newton, as trustee, as trustee, and as administrator, and for other reasons set forth in said petition:

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the eleventh day of May, A. D. 1929, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioners are ordered to serve this citation by delivering a copy thereof to each person interested in the estate fourteen days, at least, before said Court, or by publishing the same once in each week for three successive weeks in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in Newton, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this twentieth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

PROBATE COURT.

Middlesex, ss.
To the heirs-at-law, devisees, legatees and all other persons interested in the estate of Isaac D. Brewer, late of Newton, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, Isaac D. Brewer, late of Newton, in said County, deceased, dated August 1st, 1890, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book 199, Page 574, (George B. Blinn, of Bedford in said County having succeeded the said William D. Brewer, late of said Newton, as trustee, as trustee, and as administrator, and for other reasons set forth in said petition:

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the eleventh day of May, A. D. 1929, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioners are ordered to serve this citation by delivering a copy thereof to each person interested in the estate fourteen days, at least, before said Court, or by publishing the same once in each week for three successive weeks in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in Newton, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this twentieth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

PROBATE COURT.

Middlesex, ss.
To the heirs-at-law, devisees, legatees and all other persons interested in the estate of Isaac D. Brewer, late of Newton, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, Isaac D. Brewer, late of Newton, in said County, deceased, dated August 1st, 1890, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book 199, Page 574, (George B. Blinn, of Bedford in said County having succeeded the said William D. Brewer, late of said Newton, as trustee, as trustee, and as administrator, and for other reasons set forth in said petition:

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the eleventh day of May, A. D. 1929, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioners are ordered to serve this citation by delivering a copy thereof to each person interested in the estate fourteen days, at least, before said Court, or by publishing the same once in each week for three successive weeks in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in Newton, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this twentieth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

PROBATE COURT.

Middlesex, ss.
To the heirs-at-law, devisees, legatees and all other persons interested in the estate of Isaac D. Brewer, late of Newton, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, Isaac D. Brewer, late of Newton, in said County, deceased, dated August 1st, 1890, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book 199, Page 574, (George B. Blinn, of Bedford in said County having succeeded the said William D. Brewer, late of said

We Cure Sick Chimneys

If you have a chimney which does not draw well we will make it draw or will make no charge. Smoky fireplaces absolutely cured by the use of our ventilators. Write for particulars.

The Vacuum Ventilating Co.
6 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass.

Tel. May, 972

LADIES FINE DRESSMAKING

Suits & Outside Garments of every description made to order. LATEST NEW YORK DESIGNS. (Evening Dresses a Specialty)

MRS. T. A. COLEMAN, New York Dressmaker
11 Chestnut Street, WEST NEWTON

BUY AN ADJUSTED

DOC MUZZLE
for 25c, 50c and 75c of

D. J. MAHONEY, Harnessmaker

Waterbury Square
Mr. of Fine Harness and Dealer in Ready Made Harnesses, Robes, Blankets, Whips, Etc.

Goodyear Rubber House

24 School Street Boston
Tel. Main 840

Ping Pong Photos

35 for 25c, taken in five positions (day or night, Frames 10c, doz.)

JUMMINGS PING PONG STUDIO
103 MOODY ST. WALTHAM

HARRIS E. JOHNNOT

Electrician and Contractor

431 CENTRE ST., NEWTON

Telephone: (Office, 725-2; Residence, 725-2) Newton

LADIES' TAILOR AND DRESSMAKING SUITS,
SKIRTS AND COATS TO ORDER.

And Costumes for all occasions, style and fit guaranteed. Alterations, Cleaning and Pressing.

L. E. CARNALL

268 Moody St. WALTHAM, MASS

Midsex Collection Agency

COLLECTIONS MADE ANYWHERE
No Collection, Established 1908. No Charge
General Office, Room 8, A. D. U. W. Building
Waltham

30 YEARS' EXPERIENCE!
Scientific Spraying and Trimming of Trees
and ALL BRANCHES OF FORESTRY
GYPSY AND BROWN-TAILED MOTH WORK
Given Careful Attention

Four years with the Massachusetts Board of Agriculture on Gray North Commission
W. J. HUNTER, Expert Forester
Prospect Hill Ave. Waltham, Mass

Boston Elevated Railway Co.

SURFACE LINES

WATERTOWN TO HANOVER ST.
(Via Arsenal St.)—5.31 a.m., and intervals of 10, 15 and 20 minutes to 11.31 p.m. SUNDAY—7.03 a.m., and intervals of 20 and 15 minutes to 11.32 p.m.

NEWTON AND WATERTOWN TO HANOVER ST. (Via Mt. Auburn)

—5.16 a.m., and intervals of 8, 15 and 20 minutes to 12.13 a.m. SUNDAY—5.54 a.m., and intervals of 15 and 10 minutes to 12.13 a.m.

NIGHT AND EARLY MORNING SERVICE. Newton to Adams Sq., via Mt. Auburn. 12.42, 1.39, 2.39, 4.39 (5.39, Sunday) a.m. Return leave Adams Sq. 12.35, 1.35, 2.35, 3.35, 4.35 (5.35 Sunday) a.m.

NEWTON AND WATERTOWN TO PARK ST. SUBWAY (Via Mt. Auburn St.)—5.40, 5.54 a.m., and intervals of 8 and 15 minutes to 11.09 p.m. SUNDAY—5.53, 7.23, 7.54 a.m., and intervals of 15 minutes to 11.09 p.m.

C. S. BURGHART, Vice-Pres.
January 9, 1909.

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

Photographer and... Frame Maker

MR. HAMILTON BURIED

There were many friends and former business associates present at the funeral of Charles W. Hamilton, who was engaged in the wholesale shoe business in Boston, at his late home, 403 Walnut street, Newtonville, Friday afternoon. The service was conducted by Bishop W. F. Mallon of Auburndale and Rev. J. W. Campbell of the Newtonville Methodist church. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful. The body was taken to Falmouth for burial on Saturday.

Charles Wesley Hamilton was the son of the Rev. W. C. P. Hamilton and Henrietta M. (Dean) Hamilton of Ohio. He was born in Smithfield, Ohio, in October, 1861. When his father died in 1871, he came with his mother to reside with his brother, the Rev. John W. Hamilton, now Bishop Hamilton of Boston. He was educated in the Boston Latin School.

He began his business career in the firm of D. W. Butler & Co. and succeeded Mr. Butler in the business. In November, 1887, he was married to Miss Louise Fisher Butler, daughter of Mr. D. W. Butler. He came to reside in Newtonville in 1888 and has lived since on Walnut street.

He was widely known in business circles.

He leaves a wife and two children, Daniel Butler Hamilton, who was in business with his father, and Miss Dorothy Dean Hamilton. His brothers, Bishop John W. Hamilton and E. Wilbur Dean Hamilton, Professor in the Boston Normal Art school, resided in Boston. The Rev. Franklin Hamilton, another brother, is Chancellor of the American University at Washington, D. C. A fourth brother is the Rev. J. Benson Hamilton, D. D., of Brooklyn, New York. His only sister, Mrs. S. L. Parker, resides in Hadley, Mass.

He was a member of the Newton Free Library.

List of New Books

ATKINSON, E. The Boyhood of Lincoln. EL638.AT

BEXTON, Josiah Henry. The Story of the Old Boston Town House. F844B.44

BOSTOCK, Frank Charles. The Training of Wild Animals. OC865

COMSTOCK, Harriet T. Tower or Throne: a romance of the girlhood of Elizabeth. J1379.1

CUNDALL, Herbert Minton. A history of British Water Colour Painting with a biographical list of painters. WP45.C91

DAFFAN, Katie. Woman in History. ED13

FOSTER, Joshua James. Chats on Old Miniatures. WPV.F81 c

GEORGE, Marlan M., ed. A Little Journey to China and Japan. (Library of Travel). J166.G29

HOUGH, Emerson. 54-40 or Fight. H514.7

LANDSAY, C. H. Forbes. Daniel Boone, Backwoodsman. EB644.L

REID, Sydney. Josey and the Chipmunk. JYL.R27 J

SIDGWICK, Frank, ed. Legendary Ballads [from Percy's "Reliques"]. YN.S56

SMITH, F. H. Captain Thomas A. Scott, Master Diver: one who was not afraid and who spoke the truth. (True American Types.) ES428.S

SMITH, Gertrude. Little Nellie. JS648.3

STEVENSON, Burton Egbert, ed. Poems of American History. YP.9884 p

TOMPKINS, Juliet Wilbur. Open House. T5994 o

WEITENKAMPF, Frank. How to Appreciate Prints. WQW43

WHITE, Henry A. Stonewall Jackson. EJ138.W

WILLARD, Josiah Flint, Jr. An introduction by Arthur Symonds. EW6614.W

WRIGHT, John. Some Notable Altars; in the Church of England and the American Episcopal Church. WGLW93

Women's Clubs.

The annual meeting of the State Federation will occur on May 19 and 20 at Springfield, the Springfield Woman's Club being the hostess.

The Newton Federation is anxious that the public should be informed regarding the work it is doing relative to the cure and prevention of tuberculosis. It has placed a building upon the hospital grounds which is being used as an out-patient department. Here on Wednesdays from 12 to 1 P. M. Herman T. Baldwin of Chestnut Hill is on duty and on Sundays at the same time Dr. Henry Watters of Newton Centre. Both may be consulted free of charge. Circulars have been sent to the physicians telling of the opening of the out-patient department and giving names of women who will put them in communication with the Federation committee at a moment's notice. Notwithstanding all the efforts on the part of the Federation both by these circulars and through the columns of the local papers, the committee is constantly running across persons who seem to be entirely ignorant of what is being attempted for the benefit of tuberculous patients. The Federation particularly desires that the physicians, dentists and ministers of the city to bear these facts in mind and report to the committee in charge whenever their assistance is needed. It is particularly important that incipient cases should be reported as soon as possible. Mrs. B. E. Taylor, 283 Grant avenue, Newton Centre, and Mrs. G. W. Ayransson, 49 Judkins street, Newtonville, are in charge and both may be reached by telephone.

LODGE NOTES

The anniversary entertainment of Gen. Hull Lodge, A. O. U. W. will be held Friday evening, April 30th, in Denison hall, Newtonville. The talent will be Miss Alice H. Lane, pianoforte; Miss Katherine C. Churchill, violin; Miss Ora Lathard, violoncello; assisted by Miss Leslie B. Kyle, soprano and Miss Alida M. Donnell, reader.

See Read's advertisement for Moderate Cost Home in Newton Centre. A pleasant home for only $4,000.

REAL ESTATE

John T. Burns, Newton, reports leases signed for 66 Clyde street, Newtonville, to Mr. Thomas Wales of Brookline, the lessor being Mrs. M. M. Trowbridge. Mr. Wales and family occupy May 1st.

The Mrs. Charles Elliot estate, 205 Mount Vernon street, West Newton Hill, which has been vacant for 15 years has been leased to Mr. William Cooper of Newton Lower Falls. The estate is being remodelled and lessee will occupy May 1st. John T. Burns was the broker in above transaction.

Mrs. A. Atkins of Newtonville has leased the Charles W. Leonard house, 311 Lowell avenue, Newtonville, through John T. Burns. The new occupant has already taken possession. Mr. Arthur Williams of Boston has leased 7 Channing street, Newton, Mr. L. Farquhar was the lessor and John T. Burns the broker.

Henry H. Read has leased the house owned by J. F. Barnes, No. 204 Homer street, Newton Centre, to Mr. E. W. McKeesson, who moves from Roxbury.

Henry H. Read has leased house situated No. 25 Hyde street, Newton Highlands, to Mr. H. S. Dennie, who moves here from Brookline, Mass.

CITY HALL

Mayor Hutchinson has made a satisfactory arrangement with Wellesley to rebuild the foot bridge over Charles river at Lower Falls. The wooden structure which has done service for about a score of years, and which was in a state of disrepair, will be replaced by a new one.

POLICE NOTES

Joseph Cannon is the new assistant to Francis W. Sprague, 2d, clerk of the Newton police court. Hereafter the clerk's office will remain open daily until 4 P. M., instead of being closed at noon. An assistant to the clerk became necessary because of the increasing amount of business.

LIEDERHEIM SCHOOL OF VOCAL MUSIC

Is prepared to furnish especially trained voices for CHURCH CHOIRS, both for permanent positions and for SUBSTITUTE work on short notice. Also for Entertainments, one, or several voices. Fine talent. Popular prices. Many attractive combinations of talent; for example: ECHOES FROM THE BALKANS. An original and unique Entertainment of BULGARIAN and ORIENTAL FOLK-SONGS and NATIONAL AIRS. Vocalist: Mrs. MAY SLEEPER RUGGLES, Boston and Auburndale. Narrator and Instrumentalist: Rev. WILLIAM WASHBURN SLEEPER, Wellesley, Mass.

"Delightfully out of the ordinary. Bright as a May morning. Fascinating, exquisite." (Rev. Dr. Turk, Natick.)

Another combination is "THE LAWSON SISTERS TRIO." Charming songs and charming singers.

For particulars address Mrs. MAY SLEEPER RUGGLES, Principal, Auburndale, Mass. (Telephone connections.)

Newton.

—Comfortable Shoes and Men's furnishings at J. McCummon's. If

—Mrs. N. P. Coburn of Franklin street returns this week from Washington, D. C.

—Mr. James Coulter is building a large two story addition to his house on Green street.

—Mr. Albert Chalmers of Pearl street is improving from his recent severe accident.

—See the moderate price bathroom set in our window. Gallagher Bros., 413 Centre street.

—Miss Harriet Reid has returned after some weeks spent in Atlantic City and New York.

—Hon. Samuel L. Powers of Arlington street has returned from a trip to Washington, D. C.

—Miss Lynch of Eldredge street has resumed her studies at St. Agnes' school, Albany, N. Y.

—Mr. Ernest Smith, who has been visiting friends here, has returned to his home in the West.

—Mr. and Mrs. Raymond G. Coppins moved this week from Dorchester to Parsons street, Faneuil.

—Miss Pearl Whitcomb of Centre street has returned from a vacation trip to Washington, D. C.

—Mrs. J. D. Taylor of Galen street is back from Waterville, Me., where she was the guest of friends.

—Mrs. William Macpherson of Washington street has returned from a short visit in Portland, Me.

—Mrs. H. A. Dodge of Tremont street returned the last of the week from a visit in New Hampshire.

—The Elliot Guild held a well attended sewing meeting last Tuesday afternoon in the parlors of Elliot church.

—Dr. Charles A. Davenport and family will move the first of the month across the street, their new location being 25 Park street.

—Mr. and Mrs. William Grogan of Nonantum have purchased the Blandford farm in Newbury and will go into the poultry business.

—Mrs. William H. Ely of the Hollis has arrived in England, going across in the Winifredian of the Leyland line, and will make an extended visit to relatives.

—Messrs. J. Q. A. Whittemore, A. J. Wellington, C. J. Bailey and George A. Graves have been recently elected members of the Merchants' Association of Boston.

—Mrs. Carl Baermann of Centre street was among the patronesses for the annual concert of the Pierian Society of Harvard university, held last week in Sanders Theatre, Cambridge.

—Dr. Robert Reid has an interesting article entitled "The Power of Sympathy in Health and Disease" in the April number of the Massachusetts Medical Journal, of which for upwards of twenty-five years he has been editor.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

PROBATE COURT.

Middlesex, ss.
To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Joshua W. Davis late of Newton in said County, deceased.

WHEREAS, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Samuel B. Capen who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to him, the executor therein named, without giving a surety on his official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge in said County of Middlesex, on the twenty-seventh day of April A. D. 1909, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in Newton in the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing post-paid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this sixteenth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

PROBATE COURT.

Middlesex, ss.
To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of Ellen A. Potter late of Newton, in said County, deceased.

WHEREAS, a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Charles A. Potter and John A. Potter, both of Newton, in the County of Middlesex, without giving a surety on their bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the fifth day of May, A. D. 1909, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in Newton, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this fourth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

PROBATE COURT.

Middlesex, ss.
To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of George D. Harvey late of Newton in said County, deceased.

WHEREAS, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Carrie Balch Harvey, William D. Harvey and George D. Harvey who pray that letters testamentary may be issued to them, the executors therein named, without giving a surety on their official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge in said County of Middlesex, on the twenty-sixth day of April A. D. 1909, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioners are hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in Newton in the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing post-paid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this sixteenth day of April in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

PROBATE COURT.

Middlesex, ss.
To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Ellen S. Chambers, late of Newton, in said County, deceased.

WHEREAS, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Nellie L. Goring, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to her, the executrix therein named, without giving a surety on her official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge in said County of Middlesex, on the twentieth day of May, A. D. 1909, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in Newton, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing post-paid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this fifteenth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

WANTED

WANTED—Second Hand Furniture of all kinds. Spot cash and fair prices paid. Good bargains always to be had. New and Second Hand Furniture at The Furniture Exchange, 688 Main St., Waltham (next to gas office).

Lost Savings Bank Book

Savings Bank Books as listed below are lost and application has been made for payment of the accounts in accordance with Sec. 46, Chap. 890, of the Acts of the Commonwealth. Payment has been stopped.

Newton Savings Bank Book No. 60333

Notice is hereby given, that the subscriber has been duly appointed executor of the will of George W. Bartlett late of Newton in the County of Middlesex, deceased, testate, and has taken upon himself that trust by giving bond, as the law directs. All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are hereby required to exhibit the same and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to.

LOUISE C. BARTLETT, Executrix.

Address, care of J. P. Prince, 55 State St., Boston.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

PROBATE COURT.

Middlesex, ss.
To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of Josiah Otis Broad, late of Newton, in said County, deceased, intestate.

WHEREAS, a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Beale Imogene Broad, of Newton, in the County of Middlesex, without giving a surety on her bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the fourth day of May, A. D. 1909, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in Newton, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this thirteenth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

PROBATE COURT.

Mme. Buettel Arnould Millinery Parlors

AND

J. C. Arnould French Ostrich Feather Work

ARE NOW LOCATED AT 7 TEMPLE PLACE, ROOMS 63-64 BOSTON

TAKE ELEVATOR

MANUFACTURERS OF

Flags Tents Awnings

[And all kinds of Canvas Goods]

COTTON DUCK
From 1 to 12 Feet WideFor Roofs, Wagons, Landings, Boats; and various other purposes.
CANOPIES TO LET FOR WEDDINGS, RECEPTIONS, ETC.

C. H. BATCHELDER & CO.

Telephone, Richmond 1375

234-236-238-240 State Street, Boston

First-Class Dressmaker
would like engagement to go out by the day. Address L. L. BOWER, 50 Bower Street, Newtonville.

Trees! Shrubs! Roses!

Buy Direct From Grower
and Save MoneyWe are the largest growers of Fruit and Ornamental Trees, Shrubs, Roses, and Old Fashioned Flowers in New England. 300 Acres. No Agents.Large Illustrated
Catalogue FREE

THE NEW ENGLAND NURSERIES, Inc.,

Bedford, Mass.

Telephone Lexington 274-3

MAX KEEZER

HARVARD STUDENTS' CAST-OFF
CLOTHING FOR SALE

DRESS SUITS TO LET

3 Bow St., Cambridge Mass

Take Harvard Square Car and get off at Quincy Hall

TELEPHONE 1731-1 CAMBRIDGE

Fine Upholstering Refinish- ing and Repairing Mattresses Made Over

Antique Furniture Bought and Sold

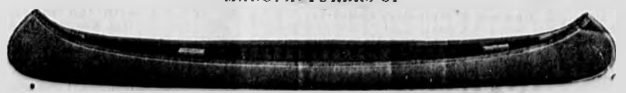

W. H. TABOR
Upholsterer567 Main Street, Waltham
Telephone 448-4

NEWCOMB'S

Newton and Boston
EXPRESSCHARLES G. NEWCOMB
PROPRIETOR AND MANAGER402 Centre Street - Newton
Telephone North 690

H. B. ARNOLD & CO.

MANUFACTURERS OF

Canvas Boats and Canoes

Above canoe represents ARNOLD'S ORIGINAL BOW. We build the prettiest, safest and easiest paddling canoe on the river. If you are thinking of purchasing a canoe call on us and we will show you what we have in the canoe line.

Boats and Canoes To Let

299 Crescent Street, Waltham, Mass.
ELECTRIC CARS PASS THE DOOR.

SOCIAL EDUCATION

BY NEWBOLD HAZARD

Author of the Human Limit

(Copyright 1909 by Edwin Chase Merrill)

(Continued from last week)

The other extreme type in the salesman works against his firm by looking at the business situation almost wholly from his customer's standpoint. He is honest, true and unselfish in purpose; but he is weak at the very time when he should be strong. The customer hypnotizes him; and, instinctively realizing his weakness, he pursues his calling with very little confidence in himself, or his ability; altho in reality, he is generally the mental and physical superior of type number one. Under existing conditions, his financial success is meagre; but he gets a good deal out of life in other ways. He is constantly experiencing the exquisite pleasure of giving, being generous to the core, and he is so charitable by nature that he gives without expectation or hope of return. Being so accustomed to looking at everything from the "other fellow's" point of view, his social relations are rarely pleasant; he grows more and more reserved and introspective from year to year, and many of his kind withdraw from the world of defeated philosophers. Duty is always a paramount consideration in his dealings with others outside of business relations, and it is not rare with him to sacrifice even the happiness of his home to satisfy his ideal as a relative or friend. When one of the latter is "up against it," as the phrase goes, and comes to him for a little "temporary aid," his hand goes into his pocket almost before he is asked for a loan. This type has a multitude of friends when he is filling a good position, and very few when he is "out of a job." These few staunch friends, however, are worth more to him than all the others combined. His wealth of feeling towards humanity is so apparent that his fair-weather friends are almost ashamed to take his money. It comes from him so easily; but when the money is "blown in," they recover from this feeling and "make another call."

This type of salesmen work conscientiously early and late, live frugally and are minutely particular as to detail in all matters. Instead of trying to forget business during their hours of recreation, they dwell upon it and silently study what they believe to be the employer's interests. Their problem is to think out methods of manufacture or purchasing devices, in order to increase trade on the plan of always giving more and more to the customer without increasing the price, and still leave a satisfactory margin of profit for the firm. Give them free rein and they will conscientiously ruin any business in short order; for their mathematical ability is usually deficient.

Under the prevailing system of competition, it is not strange that they have the constant fear of their customers' opportunities for buying goods at ridiculously low prices, and they will lie awake half the night worrying over some trifling mistake of the day, or planning how to add more of just such despotic buyers, (as they regard them) to the books of the firm.

These salesmen are serious, straightforward and earnest in their efforts to be of the highest value to the houses that employ them, and their word is as good as their bond. They are the last to believe in dishonesty of any kind, and had circumstances been kind to them they would have made ideal employers, instead of inefficient employees.

Being what they are, their superiors in business relationships rely implicitly upon their integrity and industry, but constantly deplore their want of tact, and the moral courage involved when the critical time arrives to agree upon prices and terms, which are too often made elastic to allow for the ability of type number one. They are quite certain to give all their "leeway" to the customer, in one way or another, in order to secure or retain his such; but they do not realize the danger of making habitual concessions. If once made they are always expected. More customers are lost than are either secured or retained by following such a course; for liberties granted through courtesy are soon demanded by right. It is the buyer who grins when he takes advantage of the weakness of this class of salesmen.

The third, or ideal, type of salesman is neither positive or negative in his method of selling goods. He never sacrifices or over-estimates either the buyer, his firm or himself. He stands off and occupies an independent ground that is strictly his own, and from which he can look on both sides clearly and judge impartially as to the merits of his house, the standing of their goods in the market and the requirements of the purchasing power. He occupies a middle ground between production and consumption, and strives to equalize the interests of each upon an equitable basis of exchange. He makes it his business to know what his customers need as well, if not better, than they do themselves. Knowing the market he desires to supply, he furnishes the required specifications to his employer, who has learned to rely upon his judgment, and the selling of the goods themselves means the selection of the best medium of distribution. From this larger point of view, he finds the moral courage to tell the truth, to treat both his principal and the customer with kind courtesy, and to be patient with all the dwarfed ideas of selfishness. His own motives are never wholly selfish or unselfish. He occupies the ground where honesty is always the best policy. He makes more money than both the other types of salesmen put together, and often more than his employer. He works on the general principles of supply and demand; he stands in the middle and arbitrates; he instructs both the producer and consumer as to the profitable course to pursue. The petty rivalries generally met in business transactions do not enter into his atmosphere; he travels in an orbit of his own and defies competition. There is room enough for everybody to make an honest living in his estimation, and he builds up without feeling the necessity of tearing down.

By occupying a place of his own that he creates and sustains by superior intelligence, he reserves the larger part of his social nature for strictly social purposes. He does business legitimately, he lives legitimately, and he is a credit to society. He is a fitting model to the coming generation, as his life is healthy, clean and active, mentally, morally and physically.

He is in harmony with the highest ideals of ethics, morals and religion.

(To be continued)

THREE ALARM FIRE

Fire destroyed a stable and seven horses, the adjoining blacksmith shop and carriage building and a dwelling a quarter of a mile away at Newton Highlands Monday afternoon. Several other buildings were scorched, including a grain elevator, and for a time the houses along Boylston street were threatened.

The stable off Needham street containing live stock, several carriages and tools, a blacksmith shop and a carriage house containing the large and three small punks, all owned by Henry W. Crowell of 11 Copley street, Newton, and the dwelling occupied by Charles F. Gilman at 946 Boylston street, were gutted.

"The fire started on the roof of the stable from a brush fire on the land in the rear," said Mr. Crowell. "Several of my employees had extinguished the brush fire in the forenoon, fearing that it would spread to the buildings because of the strong breeze, but the fire was rekindled in the afternoon. There were only a few men about the place in the afternoon and about 1.30 they discovered the roof of the stable ablaze."

One of the men smashed in a window in the office of the Highland mill in the grain elevator close by, conducted by Mr. Crowell, and telephoned fire headquarters. The first alarm was sent in from box 65 at 1.38. The stable burned like tinder and Chief Randlett sent in a second alarm at 1.55 and a third alarm five minutes later.

Because of the isolated place in which the plant was situated the apparatus was unable to approach nearer than a quarter of a mile. Lines of hose were stretched from every available position, several being strung across the Boston & Worcester street railway tracks a quarter of a mile away, blocking the cars.

The employees of the grain elevator had left at noon for a half holiday, but there quickly gathered many volunteers who endeavored to assist the firemen in taking the horses out of the stable. Several men, including Morris Armstrong, went into the stable several times, but they were able to get out only one horse. Another animal was cut loose but ran back into the fire. In a sty underneath the stable a number of pigs perished, but larger number got out alive.

The blacksmith shop was quickly destroyed with its contents and the flames then spread to the carriage shed in the rear, burning that structure and its contents. Embers were blown to the top of the grain elevator, nearly 250 feet high, but firemen scaled the walls and saved that building from nothing more serious than a bad scorching.

Embers were carried a quarter of a mile across the N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R. tracks to the houses on Boylston street, practically destroying that occupied by Mr. Gilman, with much of its contents. With the assistance of neighbors Mr. Gilman succeeded in saving considerable personal effects, clothing and some of the furnishings. His family was given quarters in the house of Edwin N. Kent, 950 Boylston street.

The house at 904 Boylston street, owned by Charles B. Lentell and occupied by Mrs. H. W. Hanna and family, caught, but here the fire was extinguished without serious damage. A signal shed owned by the N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R., and several other small buildings caught fire from the sparks which were showered upon the surrounding neighborhood, but were quickly extinguished. The all out signal was sent in at 4.15.

The damage is estimated at about $10,000, of which over $5,000 is on the (Crowell) property, $3,000 on the house occupied by Mr. Gilman and $1,000 on its contents.

CHURCH CONSECRATED

With impressive services attended by many parishioners and visiting clergymen the Episcopal church of the Messiah, Commonwealth avenue, Auburndale, was consecrated Monday by Bishop Lawrence.

The service took place at 10.30 o'clock. The sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. Henry S. Nash of the Episcopal theological school in Cambridge. Following the service luncheon was served the special guests in the vestry.

The church was organized Nov. 6, 1871, and years later was admitted to the Episcopal convention. For several years services were held in a hall in West Newton. In the former edifice of the First Unitarian church and later in Laseel seminary.

The present chapel was built in 1881, having been designed by Charles E. Parker, the senior warden, who gave his services to the society. The cornerstone of the church was laid by Bishop Brooks in 1902.

HOLMES-COOK

Miss Bertha Cook and Mr. Joseph Holmes, both residents of Waban, were married in Duxbury last week Thursday afternoon. The ceremony was performed at St. John's Episcopal church by the Rev. C. H. Mockridge. The bride was given away by Mr. William Gilmour of Boston. Mr. Nelson H. Marvin of Waban was best man and Miss Marion Gilmour of Boston was bridesmaid. The wedding trip will consist of an automobile tour and a trip through the South.

Most anybody can retail butter, eggs and vegetables, but we have never met a man smart enough to re-tail a dog.

The Children's Favorite Photographer.

Webster, Waltham.

111 MOODY STREET

Real Estate and Insurance

INSURANCE

Do you realize that the average loss by fire in U. S. is about $500,000 a day. Right here in Massachusetts over 8000 dwellings were either destroyed or damaged during 1907, costing insurance companies $1,180,862.

Failure to insure is gross negligence. The cost is small, protection absolute. Be sure your automobile is covered. Accidents are alarmingly frequent.

J. B. Macomber

151 Milk Street Boston

Telephone 430-2 Newton North

Established 1857 Telephone 2957

EDWARD F. BARNES

Real Estate Agent and Broker

Expert Appraiser, Notary Public

MONEY TO LOAN ON MORTGAGES

Insurance Agent and Auctioneer. Member of the Real Estate Exchange.

31 STATE STREET, BOSTON

Brackett's Block, Newton

W. S. & F. EDMANDS

INSURANCE

AGENCY

Established 30 Years

Fire Marine Burglary

Automobile Accident

Strongest Stock and Mutual Companies

178 Devonshire St. 392 Centre St. 81 Union St.

BOSTON NEWTON N. CENTRE

Tel. 319 M. 1312-1 N. N. 722 N. S.

FRANCIS MURDOCK

Insurance Agent

BANK BUILDING - NEWTON, MASS.

INSURANCE TO ANY AMOUNT

placed in first-class Stock and Mutual companies

Sole Agent for Newton of the Middlesex Mutual of Concord, Mass.

HENRY F. CATE

Successor to STEPHEN F. CATE

Undertaker

1251 Washington St. West Newton

Telephone Connection

CEO. W. MILLS

Undertaker

18 Years' Experience Highest Reference

Cliffin Bldg., 817-819 Washington St., Newtonville

Telephone Office 112-3, Residence 855-2 N. N.

SPOT CASH PAID

For All Kinds of

Furniture, Carpets, Rugs, Ranges,

Bedding, Old Feather Beds

Antiques, Etc.

PIANO AND FURNITURE MOVING

P. R. PHELAN, 729 Main Street, Cambridgeport

Dentists.

DR. S. F. CHASE

DENTIST

Dennison Building, Washington Street

Corner Walnut, Newtonville

Careful and thorough operating in all branches

New Method for Artificial Teeth

Lawyers.

LAW OFFICE

W. S. & W. S. SLOCUM

JWINFIELD S. SLOCUM

City Solicitor of Newton

Rooms 1103, 1104 Carney Bldg.

44 Tremont St., BOSTON, MASS.

Residence, Newtonville

Is Your House Wired?

WITH ELECTRICITY AT

12 CENTS

Every Household Should Obtain Estimates

Wm. H. Colgan

ELECTRICAL CONTRACTOR

1238 Washington St., West Newton

Tel. N. West 310

Carriage and Automobile Painting

L. P. BONNIER, Shop 80 Arsenal Street, Watertown

(Formerly with the best Automobile Painter in N. Y. City.)

ALL WORK GUARANTEED. CALL AND GET OUR PRICES.

Back Bay Veterinary Hospital

332 NEWBURY ST., BOSTON

THE BEST ORDERED AND EQUIPPED HOSPITAL FOR ANIMALS IN BOSTON

Outside Calls Given Prompt Attention Day or Night

OPERATIONS A SPECIALTY

JAMES WILLIAM TOBIN, M. D. V.

SUCCESSION TO LYMAN & LYMAN

Telephone, Hospital 2200 Back Bay.

[Residence Telephone, Brookline 1101-1]

ROBERT F. CRANITCH

(Successor to L. H. Cranitch)

House, Sign and Ornamental Painter

Paper Hangings in Great Variety.

Work promptly Done.

Walnut Street Newtonville

FRENCH MILLINER

Leading Styles in Millinery

Mlle. Robillard

48 Main Street Watertown Square

MRS. B. HOFFMAN

CHIROPY

Hair Dressing Manicuring

Shampooing Facial and Scalp Massage

Parmenter Building

Room 5, 27 Moody St., Waltham, Mass.

Tel. 896-4.

CAST OFF CLOTHING

WANTED

HIGHEST CASH PRICES PAID

TED SKINNER 39 Boylston St., Harvard Sq.

CANT. Tel. 223-1 Camb

H. W. BERRY

Sole Agent for the Celebrated Gold Medal

STRICK & ZEIDLER, also first class H. W.

BERRY, JAMES & HOLMSTROM and KEL-

LER & SONS

PIANOS

648 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON

Tel. 1278-2 Oxford.

JOBING PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO

Estimates Given

HARDWOOD FLOORS A SPECIALTY

RODERICK MacLEAN

Carpenter and Builder

Shop: 10 Centre Place, Tel. 384-2

Residence: 36 Thornton Street

Newton, Mass.

VISIT THE

Waverley Conservatories

Beautiful Plants and Flowers

WILLIAM W. EDGAR CO.

Tel. 88-1 Belmont

Monumental Works

Established 1873.

GEORGE R. SANDS

457 Mt. Auburn Street

CAMBRIDGE

Telephone

JAMES PAXTON & CO.

Confectioners

and Caterers

388 Centre Street, - Newton

ELIOT BLOCK

Telephone, Newton North 68

Custom Harness and Fine

Trunk and Bag Repairs

John F. Conley

176 MOODY STREET WALTHAM, MASS.

I. L. CORTELL & CO.

Formerly with Shreve, Crump & Low and Jordan Marsh & Co.

Electricians and Gas Fitters

JOBING IN ALL BRANCHES

373 Washington St., Brighton

Telephone 108-2 Brighton

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC.

Newton Free Lib.

VOL. XXXVII.—NO. 32.

NEWTON, MASS., FRIDAY, APRIL 30, 1909.

TERMS, $2.00 A YEAR.

First National Bank of West Newton

Capital $100,000

Surplus and Undivided Profits $68,000

Officers
CHARLES E. HATFIELD, President

JOSEPH B. ROSS, Cashier

Directors

Harry L. Burrage
Ernest B. Dane
A. Stuart Pratt

George P. Bullard
Charles A. Potter
George Royal Pulsifer
Edward F. Woods

Alfred L. Barbour
Charles E. Hatfield
Robert W. Williamson

Depository for United States, Commonwealth of Massachusetts and City of Newton

Safe Deposit Vaults for the Storage of Valuables

Sweets to the Sweet

In breadth of variety as well as in the degree of quality, the line of confectionery at Hubbard's is easily the finest in Newton. Just a hint of what our line is.

Saturday Candy 29c; Huyler's, 80c; Wenz, 70c; Foss, 50c; Utopian, 50c; Fenway, 60c; Maple Sugar 25c and Mints, 25c.

F. A. HUBBARD, 425 Centre St., Newton

NOW IS THE TIME TO Purchase an attractive home. Several varieties of single houses, some modern, others Colonial, shingled, dutch-roof, Queen Anne, etc., are among the list of over 1200 properties I have listed for sale, prices from $3500 to $35,000.

NEWTON Very substantial 9-room modern house, oak floors, open fireplace, piazzas and other improvements, cost $9500, price $6500, mortgage $6000—an excellent house for $1500 cash.

EVERYTHING LISTED TO RENT John T. Burns, Real Estate 363 Centre Street Newton 90 Bowers Street Newtonville

NECKWEAR FOR MEN AND WOMEN

We are presenting an exquisite Collection of Spring Neckwear to our patrons, chosen with fine care and with due regard for the differences in Men's taste. Friends refer to our shop as

"THE FINE ART HABERDASHERY"

BLANCHARD KING & CO

250 Boylston Street Boston

Patents-Pensions

Patents secured or no fee charged. All kinds of pension claims prosecuted. Call or write Elmer C. Richardson, 37 Tremont St., Boston Associated with a Washington Patent Attorney

ROUD 420 Boylston St., Boston Ladies' Tailor Tel. 3159-1 Back Bay Your inspection of Spring Styles is invited. Tailored Suits $35 up. Suits made from Customers' materials $18 up. Also Garments remodelled, refitted, Pressed and Cleaned

F. A. WALKER & Co. 83-85 Cornhill, Boston ESTABLISHED 1825

THE MONOGRAM MAN All the latest designs in H< HUCKLES on FINE Mr. of POBS and MONOGRAMS for all leather goods. Also AUTO MONOGRAMS. JOHN A. SALMAN 21 Bromfield Street BOSTON

OPENING AT McDOWELL'S 25 WINTER STREET, BOSTON Imported Crinoline Models and Latest Paris Fashions We will exhibit our new models of SKIRTS, COATS, SUITS, JACKETS AND SHIRT WAISTS Only place of its kind where ladies are invited to call and try on Crinoline models and see the effect of the garment, patterns for which are on sale.

SADDLE HORSES TO LET Lessons in Riding C. M. GILBERT 580 California St., Newtonville Tel. Newton North 1356-1

A. L. McWHIRTER Piano Tuner Res. 45 Irving Street Watertown Tel. 520-2 or 573 3 Newton North Experience from May 1886

HALL CLOCKS PRATT 53 Franklin Street, Boston

CONDENSED STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION OF THE NEWTON TRUST COMPANY AT THE CLOSE OF BUSINESS APRIL 28th, 1909

FROM REPORT TO BANK COMMISSIONERS OF MASSACHUSETTS

RESOURCES
Bonds and other Investments (Market Value exceeding $700,000)	630,589.16
Loans and Discounts	1,031,804.15
Overdrafts	94.56
Banking House (assessed value $50,000)	44,803.50
Demand Loans	110,120.00
Due from Banks	256,981.04
Cash in Office	122,550.00
	$2,256,951.47
LIABILITIES
Capital Stock	$175,000.00
Surplus Fund	175,000.00
Earnings Less Expenses, Taxes and Interest Paid	20,146.55
DEPOSITS	1,887,981.04
	$2,256,951.46

The above resources are absolutely clean in every respect.

NOTE. No defaulted notes or other "dead wood" of any kind being included in them. The investments are of the gilt edge type and their quick market value is shown to be considerably in excess of the book value. All loans are in first class condition and are absolutely good to the best knowledge and belief of the Directors and Officers.

Newton.

—Hon. Samuel L. Powers of Arlington street is much improved from his recent illness.

—Mrs. John T. Lodge of Fairmont avenue is visiting relatives in Germantown, Pa.

—Mr. Gordon N. Stearns and family left this week for their summer home at Windemere.

—Mr. Charles W. Snow and family of Washington street are back from a winter's stay in Boston.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlehan, the new janitor at the Newton Free Library, is moving here from Auburndale and will occupy a suite in the Willard on Centre street.

Established 1860
JAMES I. WINGATE & SON
Painters & Decorators
402 BOYLSTON ST., BOSTON

We solicit an opportunity to demonstrate our ability to quote satisfactory prices on

Exterior Painting
Interior Painting
Hardwood Finishing
Ceilings, Etc., Etc.

Wall papers and Draperies
Furniture and Hardwood Floors
Rugs and Carpets

Secure our Estimates before placing your orders
Special designs without charge

J. MURRAY QUINBY
206 Waverley Ave.
NEWTON REPRESENTATIVE
Telephone 491-1 N. N.

BOOKS

Wanted to buy Books, Pamphlets, Magazines, Prints, Etc.

MISS LIENEMANN
38 Nevada Street Newtonville

Fernald & Squire
REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE
1105 Tremont Building, Boston

FOR SALE. Auburndale. Well located; house, 9 rooms, bath, open plumbing, hard floors on first floor, 5720 ft. land, more if desired. Only $3650.

AUBURNDALE. In best residential section. 11 rooms, bath, new plumbing and furnace, stable, 20,000 ft. land. Exceptional price, $6200.

Now is the time to list your properties for sale or rent.

PLANTS AT AUCTION TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS

Hardy Roses, Shrubs and Fancy Evergreens for Tubs and Lawns

N. F. McCARTHY & CO., AUCTIONEERS

84 HAWLEY STREET, BOSTON

Metropolitan Laundry WATERTOWN, MASS.

H. H. Sawyer, Prop.

Best Work Possible to be Done

Work called for and delivered in all parts of Newton

Write or telephone and team will call

Rambler
Automobiles

THE CAR FOR COUNTRY ROADS

FOR SALE BY

A. H. WAITT

390 Centre Street

Newton

PHONE 962-2 NEWTON NORTH FOR A DEMONSTRATION

Ladies Tailoring and Millinery

H. WANSKEH (Formerly with J. Edmister & Co.)

MME. W. KOPFLER Paris Berlin

STREET COSTUMES RIDING HABITS

LATEST FASHIONS IN MILLINERY

REPAIRING AND ALTERING

MILLINERY

363 Washington Street, Corner Thornton Street, Newton Telephone 706-1 Newton North

Metropolitan Storage Warehouse Co. BUILDING ABSOLUTELY FIREPROOF

184 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge, near Harvard Bridge

One of the best equipped warehouses in the country for the storage of Furniture, Pianos, Books, Pictures, and Valuables. Every room practically a large safety vault. Loads taken directly to rooms requiring but one handling.

An inspection of the building and our prices will interest all in want of storage. Telephone, 612 Cambridge.

Weber's Sample Shoe Outlet

OPPOSITE ADAMS HOUSE — 564 WASHINGTON STREET — ROOM 4

Just received 5000 pairs from different manufacturers of the very latest Snappy Up-to-Date Shoes and Oxfords in White, Tan and black. These are samples and countermands.

Women's $3.50 Shoes at $2.25 and $2.75
Men's $5.00 Shoes at $3.00
Men's $3.50 Shoes at $2.80

This is no humbug ad. We give you a square deal every day in the year. Buy your shoes of us and save from $1.00 to $2.00.

Exclusive agents for the famous

We are also the exclusive agents for

We guarantee this hosiery for 6 months or new pairs given.

Guaranteed six months.

DON'T FORGET THE PLACE

564 Washington Street, Room 4. Up One Flight, Take Elevator

Open Evenings Until 7. Saturdays Until 10.

The 'KRAKAUER' he Piano with a Human Voice

GEORGE LINCOLN PARKER

Successor to Lincoln & Parker

211-213 TREMONT ST., BOSTON

Opp. Hotel Touraine

THE MOST IMPORTANT ARTICLE in a woman's wardrobe today is her corset, and whatever style of dress she may choose it is the corset that shows through it all and expresses her taste or the lack of it. The CZARINA Custom-Made CORSET corrects negligence and compels the wearer to assume a graceful carriage and to avoid the stiff appearance that comes from an ill-fitting corset. This corset comes in all prices. Also a full line of Special Ready-Made CORSETS that will be fitted and altered Free of Charge.

MISS M. STRETCH 48 WINTER ST ROOM, 44, BOSTON

SOCIAL EDUCATION

BY NEWBOLD HAZARD

Author of the Human Limit

(Copyright 1909 by Edwin Chase Merrill)

(Continued from last week)

The three types of salesmen described will serve to illustrate our original proposition that harmony is a force that carries us into dangerous currents, or along the peaceful meadows of life, according to the underlying motives which set this social activity in motion.

It can be seen further, that there are two wrong ways of selling merchandise to one right way. One of the wrong ways may be stated in terms of a purely selfish motive: "I will give as little as possible and take all that I can get." This is stated from a purely material standpoint from gross ignorance of man's three-fold nature; for no one in full possession of his senses would deliberately barter his future peace of mind in this world for the means of gratifying a desire for happiness which his business methods create. No one can sell his social nature without ruining his happiness. The less happiness we have, the more we crave it. The extreme type of social prostitution exemplified in salesman number one, realizes that money is "the whole thing" because he is convinced it will require a good round sum to pay for all the social pleasure he has been training his nature to desire.

The truth which may be drawn from our first illustration, is that if our efforts are constantly bent in the direction of getting rich at any cost, our success materially results in mental and social failure. These "Smart Alecs" almost invariably have low foreheads, coarse features and an abundance of avoirdupois. They are red-faced, out of proportion and apoplectic. A sudden rush of blood to the head is extremely dangerous to them, for their brains are weak and their circulation too strong. Their mental habit of giving nothing and taking all leads them to overload their stomachs and growl at scanty servings and the cost of living. They need money for doctor's bills on all sides, and life to them grows into a serious affair—from the "inside looking out." On the other hand, their prosperous air, jovial nature and assumed good fellowship, are often the envy of type number two, who is on the "outside looking in," and whose generous soul cannot see the cowardly littleness in the heart of his brother salesman.

One of the most peculiar facts in psycho-physics—the attraction and repulsion of the extremes in nature, whether human or otherwise,—is very prominently illustrated in the two extreme types of salesmen which we have used to enlighten our readers as to the true method of salesmanship as viewed by the Good Idea Club. Strange to say, they have an affinity for each other. They have the utmost respect for the qualifications which they perceive they do not themselves possess, but constant association results in secret rivalry, envy and jealousy. They strive to emulate each other in the most ridiculous way when they are separated, and talk to others in the most disparaging manner of the deficiencies in their opposite natures their perceptive powers have discovered. Yet each fascinates the other and both will brag of their accomplishments by the hour when they are together. They feel quite stimulated and balanced in each other's presence, but rave continuously about the other's shortcomings to a third party. Those who are looking on regard them as natural enemies who are striving to undermine and supplant each other. This may be true, when they are apart, but nothing is more untrue when they are closely united for any length of time. During the latter period each has a good deal of charity for the other's deficiencies, which they make a pretense of hiding, and for the time being. Their natures act and react each upon the other, until both feel equal to any business situation that may present itself in which they may be jointly interested. The only serious subject of discord is the right of both to be treated as equals. They not only expect to be treated as equals in point of salary and salesmanship, but they demand the same right from their inferiors, as well as their superiors. This they do not get, as a rule, from either source; for a salesman's salary is gauged according to the number of sales he makes, the amount and the net profit there is in them, from the firm's standpoint; while fellow salesmen and outsiders estimate ability almost wholly from the size of a salesman's salary. Dignity, intelligence and moral support do not count unless the sales are made and at a satisfactory profit.

The terms of the purely selfish motive may be stated as follows: "I will give all I can and take whatever comes." This is the sublime faith of salesman number two. It is a very noble attitude, morally, but it does not fit in as it should with modern business methods. It savors of a negative mentality. It lacks both analytical and mathematical power, but is strongly imaginative, conceptive and ingenious. The fault it not with the man so much as with modern business systems which sharp competition has made unhealthy and infinitesimally narrow. The prevailing idea in business is special training in the doing of one thing. The same is true of the modern teacher in the public schools. Every employee in a modern business establishment, as well as every teacher, is a part of a machine with a very slight conception of the largeness of supply and demand, or the value of all-round education in

THE COBB EASTMAN COMPANY

SUMMER FURNITURE

Willow-ware and rattan in beautiful patterns in tans, green silver-gray and natural, with taffeta and cretonne cushions in new designs.

Mission Furniture in fumed oak in our own and other patterns.

New taffetas and cretonnes in domestic and foreign designs all ready for inspection.

372-378 BOYLSTON STREET, BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS
101 PARK AVENUE, NEW YORK

the business of life. The extreme difficulty in making all parts fit into one grand scheme, and the harmonizing of all differences of opinion, is therefore keenly felt on every hand.

By co-ordinating the two types of salesmen, which we have designated as types number one and two, by taking a middle stand between them and looking on both sides of the question without prejudice, we have evolved the third, or ideal type. We have allowed the law of affinity to have its sway and done away with dual nature of the positive and negative types, creating one whole-souled, evenly balanced ideal type of salesman. This man usually works on commission. He is too large for an ordinary house to handle, for he knows altogether too much about things. On his part, he understands the situation sufficiently to know that if he falls to sell goods enough to pay a commission, he would stand very little chance of retaining his position on a much smaller relative salary, which types number one and two prefer to have guaranteed, owing to a lack of confidence in themselves. Instead of assuming too much or too little in respect to individual importance, he withdraws and co-operates. His motto is, "I will give as much as I take." (To be continued.)

Robinson Crusoe kept warm by clothes made from skins. He adopted the best method at his command. Nowadays, people of equal judgment use steam or hot water heat with a "WINCHESTER" in the cellar. This heater never disappoints.

Smith & Thayer Company, 236 Congress street, Boston, Mass.

PARKS TO BE IMPROVED.

By the passage of appropriation of $1600 last week Monday evening, the Park department is enabled to take active steps towards improving the parks and playgrounds of the city. The plans now made by Forest Commissioner Bucknam contemplate an expenditure of $2,000 on Nye park, Auburndale, $700 on Paul park, Newton Centre, $1000 on the Beacon Triangle, Newton Centre, formerly known as Cousen's block, $1000 on the Newton Centre playground and $600 on the playground adjoining the Stearns School, Nonantum.

The appropriation also covers simple gymnastic equipment on the several playgrounds on Crescent street, Allston lot, Boyd Pond, Cabot park and the Newton Centre playground, consisting of swings, teeters, flying rings, jumping boxes and light apparatus. It is also the intention of the city authorities to employ a special instructor throughout the season from June first, who shall give about two hours each day in each of these playgrounds, showing the children how to use the apparatus.

MAY PARTY

A reception and donation party will be given by the directors of the Newton Hospital Aid Association at the Newton hospital, to-morrow afternoon, from 3 to 6 o'clock. There will be a special table for donations from children and tea will be served in the dining room. Guides will conduct visitors about the hospital.

The picture here shows gypsy moths depositing their egg-clusters in the fall of the year, at the base of a tree and also on the street side of the curbing, illustrating the care which must be used by the party employed to paint with creosote all nests found on a person's premises.

It also suggests to the property owner that he comply with the request of the Forest Commissioner that all estates where moth work is done by a private party, his hired man or a contractor, be inspected by a city inspector, to insure their being clean. If this inspector finds any nests that remain untreated, he points them out to anyone at home, and after they are destroyed he turns his report in to the office and a postal is sent to the owner stating that the place is clean, which is done free of charge. This form is adopted to protect the owners of real estate, and prevents contractors or others from half doing the work and then claiming full payment for it, after which the city men come along and finish the work, charging for same, which makes two payments for the one work.

It is very important that this rule be followed and a very satisfactory understanding will be reached between the owners of real estate and the Forestry Department which has charge of the moth situation.

CHARITY SQUARE LUNCHEON

The annual luncheon of the ladies of the Charity Square of Central church, Newtonville, is always enjoyable, but this event this year was the largest and most successful of all. It was held on Wednesday afternoon at the church, and was served at twenty tables of ten each. The tables were particularly attractive with their decorations of jonquills and the tiny baskets, filled with nuts, added greatly to the effect. Mention should also be made of the beautiful gowns worn by the ladies, making the affair one of the social events of the spring season.

After lunch, remarks were made by Rev. J. T. Stocking, pastor of the church, and by Dr. F. E. Emric, secretary of the American Missionary Society, who gave an interesting account of the efforts to Americanize the foreign element in the cities and towns of western Massachusetts.

Some delightful music was given by Mrs. Fletcher and Miss Harding in duets and by Miss West at the piano. The afternoon closed with the singing of America.

The success of the affair is largely due to the efforts of the committee in charge. Mrs. Arthur P. Felton, president of the Square, Mrs. S. J. Spear, Mrs. Joseph Myers, Mrs. Wm. Price, with Mrs. F. E. French in charge of the dining room and Miss Gertrude Spear in charge of the waitresses.

A BOSTON BANK ACCOUNT

The American Trust Company accepts deposits by mail, thereby enabling persons residing outside of the city to have a bank account in Boston without being required to visit the bank in person. It is the aim of the management to render the highest degree of personal service, prompt attention being given to the requirements of out-of-town patrons.

Please write for our booklet which contains full information concerning our facilities.

American Trust Company

53 State Street, Boston, Mass.

Capital $1,000,000 Surplus (Earned) $1,800,000

OFFICERS

R. G. FESSENDEN, President
J. C. HOWE, Vice President
J. J. OLDFIELD, Treasurer
C. H. BOWEN, Secretary
G. W. AURYANSEN, Asst. Sec.
A. D. AURYANSEN, Asst. Sec.

FLOOR FINISH

What You Can Do to Floors

You Can Put in Trap Doors

TO MAIM THE UNWARY. Another way, almost as deadly, is to WAX or otherwise GREASE them.

You Can Shellac Them

and they'll SCRATCH WHITE in twenty-four hours and SPOT WHITE with the FIRST DROP OF MOISTURE.

You Can Varnish Them

and suffer an AWFUL SMELL and STICKINESS for two or three days. After the've had their legitimate wear you'll spend $10 to $12 on each room to REMOVE enough of the old stuff to start over again.

You Can Avoid Every One of These Pitfalls

by using FARRINGTON FLOOR FINISH which gives a surface that will outwear anything else. It works so easily under the brush that a novice can apply it. Full directions with every can.

Dries Instantly. Oderless. Never Slippery.

If your dealer does not keep it we will send to any address EXPRESS PREPAID on receipt of price, $2.50 per gallon.

Booklet Sent Free on Request.

FARRINGTON COMPANY
MANUFACTURING CHEMISTS
15 STATE ST. BOSTON, MASS.

BASEBALL NIGHT

Ills were bunched last Friday evening when the Newton Catholic Club observed "baseball night" in its clubhouse at West Newton. The national game figured in song and story, a goodly part of the program being contributed by members of the Boston (American league) team.

Martin H. Garrity was chairman of the evening, presenting the different entertainers to an audience which packed the clubhouse. Paul Shannon, a newspaper man, gave an interesting account of the southern trip of the team. Danzig told of his recent excursion into China and Manila, while Ambrose McConnell, Arellanes, Wolter and Hooper related stories giving many highlights on the game which kept the audience in continual merriment.

"Jim" Byrnes of the "Eight Bells" company contributed a monologue and dancing sketch, Frank L. Cunningham of Auburndale exercised the piano and P. J. Kelly of Waltham gave a number of recitations, his "O'Grady's Cat Did That" scoring a great hit. Alderman Thomas J. Lyons was in charge of the arrangements. The members of the Catholic Club baseball team were special guests.

A GOOD NAME

How many new Brands of Food Products might have been a success if they had started out under a good name? About 20 years ago the now famous White House Brand of Coffee was placed upon the market by Dwinell-Wright Co., in a small way at first, to be sure, but of such an unusual quality and with the prestige of the "White House" name that it soon won a National Reputation. Millions of pounds of this Coffee were sold to the trade in the year 1908 and the output has steadily increased so far this year.

The Dwinell-Wright Co. are jealously careful that no undignified or inconsistent advertising on this Brand goes out in print, and extraordinary skill is exercised in the selection and preparation for market of this splendid Coffee. Most dealers sell it or will get it for you. If not, please write the Proprietors.

Caroline MILLINERY
488 BOYLSTON ST., BOSTON
In Block of Brunswick Hotel
SPRING OPENING

A Boston Bank Account

There are many conveniences in having a Boston bank account

There is also the advantage of being personally known to a strong metropolitan Bank.

You can easily open an account with us by mail. Send your check or money order, payable to this company, and we will send you a check book, and each month a statement of your account. Interest allowed on deposits.

Request by postal card will bring further information. Or, if you are in town, call in and talk with us.

City Trust Company
50 STATE STREET, BOSTON, MASS.

1828 1908

Lewandos
AMERICA'S GREATEST
Cleansers
Dyers
Launderers

TELEPHONE 300 NEWTON NORTH CONNECTS ALL DEPARTMENTS

Cleanse or Dye and Refinish
Clothes Portieres Blankets Curtains
Rugs Carpets Draperies Rugs
Gloves Lace Ribbons

Ostrich Feathers Cleaned Curled Dyed and Old Feathers made over into Tips and Plumes

Our terms running from Watertown Shop 1 Galen Street call for and deliver packages in all the Newtons

OUR LAUNDRY WORK IS THE BEST OBTAINABLE

Lewandos Lewandos Lewandos

Boston Shops 284 Boylston Street and 17 Temple Place

BANKS

NEWTON SAVINGS BANK.

BANK BUILDING, NEWTON, MASS.
INCORPORATED 1881.
Business Hours, 9 to 3, Saturdays, 9 to 1.
Total Assets last Quarter's Statement,
January 9th, 1909 $6,213,952.03

Quarter Days the TENTH of January, April, July and October. Dividends are payable not before January 17 and July 17.

TRUSTEES:
John Ward, Samuel M. Jackson, Francis Murdock, Charles T. Pulsifer, William C. Brown, Eugene Fanning, B. Franklin Bacon, Samuel Farquhar, G. Fred Simpson, Edmund T. Wiswall, Thomas W. Proctor, William F. Bacon, Bernard Early, Henry E. Bothfield and William F. Harbach.

BOARD OF INVESTMENT:
Charles T. Pulsifer, Francis Murdock, Samuel M. Jackson, William F. Harbach, Henry E. Bothfield.

The Board meets every Tuesday afternoon to consider applications for loans.

CHARLES T. PULSIFER, President.
ADOLPHUS J. BLANCHARD, Treasurer.

WALTHAM SAVINGS BANK

702 Main Street, Waltham

Assets March 20, 1909, $4,183,509.35

Deposits begin to draw interest from the first day of January, April, July and October, and deposits made on any of the three business days immediately following the first day of said months are treated, in computing dividends, as having been made on the first day and will share in the next following dividend if remaining on deposit on the dividend date.

Dividends are payable on the second Wednesday of April and October.

Board of Investment

Henry N. Fisher, Enos F. Lucas, Nathan Warren, Charles O. Morrill, Thomas H. Armstrong.

The Board meets every Monday at 4.30 P. M., to consider applications for loans.

GEORGE R. BEAL, Treasurer.

Waltham Forge Blacksmithing

All kinds of Steel and Iron Forging with Power Hammer

BUILDING IRON WORK

Lawn Mowers Sharpened

SHOP, GIFFORD AVE., HALLS CORNER, WALTHAM

Telephone 304-1

JOHN IRVING FLORIST

Cut Flowers, House Plants, Funeral Designs, Flowers for Weddings and Parties.

PEARL STREET NEWTON

Telephone Connection

Monumental Work

IN GRANITE AND MARBLE

Lettering in Cemeteries satisfactorily done

Open Wednesday, Friday and Saturday Evenings

M. KEANE, Telephone 188-2 731 Main St., Waltham

Hairdressing and Manicure Shop

Boston's Most Unique and "Up-to-the-Minute" Most Improved and advanced methods used in Manicuring, Facial Treatment, Shampooing and Hair-Dressing

SHEPHERD AND FORD Telephone 1986-2 Oxford

178 TREMONT STREET, ROOM 46-47 (Fourth Floor) BOSTON, MASS. (Near Tremont Theatre)

CHOCOLATES

We have just added a new line of FINE CHOCOLATES to our already fresh stock of Home-made Candies. Our Chocolates are natural fruit flavors, the finest made. Prices 30c, 40c, 60c and 80c per lb.

TORRE'S

338 CENTRE STREET, NEWTON

Telephone 732-1 Newton North

Q'Brien Havel and Company in a sketch that has been making a great success; Monte Mine, Newhold and Carroll and others.

Tremont Theatre—Boston's great admiration for "The Servant in the House" and the Henry Miller Association Players has been attested by four weeks of large and interested audiences at the Tremont Theatre. The unusual features of this epoch-making drama and the superior kind and quality of the acting of the famous Henry Miller Company are still matters of animated conversation wherever plays and playing are discussed. No theatre lover's experience is complete until he has made the acquaintance of the gentle Manson, the terrible Drain Man, the avuncular Bishop, the wise child, Marie, the remorse-stricken vicar, the idolatrous wife, Martha, and the conventional page boy, Rogers. Matinees will be played Wednesdays and Saturdays throughout this engagement.

Colonial Theatre—"A Stubborn Cinderella" direct from a run of 150 nights at the Broadway Theatre, New York and one sold year at the Princess Theatre, Boston, will be the attraction at the Colonial Theatre, Boston, for a limited engagement beginning Monday, May 3. The play is said to be as dainty, witty and unselfish as anything the stage has produced in years. The story is not written in extravagant form as might be imagined, but instead the piece has a well-defined and cleverly developed plot, with just a touch of fantasy to add zest. The story goes that the daughter of a Scottish Earl who has never been allowed to speak to a stranger and is traveling across America to meet a man whom she is pledged to marry but has never seen, stops as a guest at the unassuming of a statue at Columbus University. There she meets the student "Mac," a leader of all the college pranks. In addition to John Barrymore and Sallie Fisher who assume the roles of Mac and Lady Leslie, respectively, others in the big company which Mr. Singer has provided are: Alice Dovey, Charles Prince, James Marlowe, Helen Salinger, and others, including a chorus of forty unusually pretty girls. The usual matinees will be given on Wednesdays and Saturdays during this engagement.

Castle Square Theatre—The expected has happened at the Castle Square. The third week of "The Runaway Girl" begins Monday evening, and there is no doubt that it will continue to amuse large audiences. The two opening weeks have brought large crowds to see and to hear Mr. Craig's second musical production of the season, and the pleasure in it, and praise for it has been unanimous. Many and cordial have been the comments upon it, upon the music, upon the scenic production, upon the interpretation by the John Craig Stock Company, and it appears to be the unanimous opinion that it excels even "The Circus Girl" which ran for nine consecutive weeks during the past winter at the Castle Square. It should be remembered that for the remainder of the season the Monday matinees at the Castle Square will be omitted.

OPENING OF THE BIJOU THEATRIUM

The undersigned takes extreme pleasure in extending through the columns of the Graphic a cordial invitation to all lovers of clean wholesome amusement in the City of Newton and to the Public in general to visit on our opening week our new family amusement parlor, The Bijou, which we will open in Nonantum Block at Nonantum Square on or about May 1st, 1909. We will endeavor to present amusing educational and refined entertainment as now produced by Moving Pictures throughout the entire world. Our Theatre will be conducted on the same exclusive policy as the leading Motion Picture House of Boston. Our films will be carefully and cautiously selected so as to eliminate all chances of objection. We shall cater especially to the entertaining of Ladies and Children and will have special features to amuse the little ones. Our staff will be composed of thoroughly competent ladies and gentlemen and the comfort, convenience and safety of our patrons will be attentively looked after. We hereby extend our sincere thanks to His Honor the Mayor, the Honorable Board of Aldermen, the Chief of Fire Department (Chief of Police, Street Commissioner and all others who directly or indirectly favored the granting of the exclusive privilege of opening Newton's first Theatrum.

Very respectfully yours,
J. H. BARRY,
GEORGE D. SAMSON.

GOOD IDEA SOCIAL

Fully a hundred guests were present at the April social of the Good Idea Club in Norumbega hall, Auburndale, on Tuesday evening. The program included vocal selections by a ladies' quartet, instrumental music by the club's ladies' orchestra, Miss Brian, leader, readings by Mr. Arthur Trevelyan and dancing. A novel feature of these socials is the arrangement whereby the dances are interspersed between the other numbers on the program.

COFFEE
FREE DELIVERY
TEA

Sign of Big Tea Kettle
Greatest Variety and Finest Stock of Teas and Coffees in the World
Retailed at Wholesale Prices

No State Packages. Your Order Filled with Fresh Roasted Coffee or New Crop Tea ORIENTAL BLEND BERRY JAVA Best in the World

Oriental Tea Company
Importers and Retailers
ESTABLISHED IN 1908 AT
87 COURT ST., SCOLLAY SQ., BOSTON
SEND FOR PRICE LIST

ALLEGED BURGLAR

A maid was awakened by the sudden glare of a match in her room in the house of Dr. F. M. O'Donnell, 619 Washington street, early last Friday morning. The little flicker of light shown upon the face of a strange man, who ran down the stairs and out of doors when she screamed.

A quarter of an hour later patrolmen Goode and Hannon arrested Frank T. Bryson, aged 19, of 47 Lincoln road, this city, whom they found near the Boston & Albany R.R. signal tower nearly opposite the dwelling. He was locked up on a charge of breaking and entering, and in court later was held for the grand jury in $3,000 bonds.

Miss Margaret Ryan, the maid, told the court that when she was suddenly awakened by the glow of the match she got a good look at the face of the man standing just inside the chamber, near the door, and that she was positive that the prisoner was the man.

Her screams awakened the household, and police headquarters was quickly notified by telephone. The officer at headquarters got into communication with the two policemen in station 2 at Nonantum, and the patrolmen ran from the station house to the house of Dr. O'Donnell, at Washington and Crafts street, a distance of more than a mile.

They found footprints leading from the rear of the dwelling. Following the tracks toward the street they saw Bryson acting suspiciously near the signal tower. He was unable to give a satisfactory account of himself and they placed him under arrest.

The policemen removed Bryson's shoes and, they testified to-day, found that they fitted the tracks around the rear of the dwelling. Entrance had been gained by forcing a window nearly on the level with the second floor, which opened upon the stairway. The muddy tracks on the caseement showed where the intruder had climbed in.

Bryson told the court that his father had not allowed him to come home that night because he had not paid his board for the previous week. "I went to the city stables, expecting to find a place to sleep, but they would not let me stay there," he said. "Then I went out onto Washington street and met a young man who said he was looking for a boarding place. He said he guessed he would enquire at the house, and I saw him go into the yard." Bryson denied that it was himself who had entered the place, as was charged. Bryson pleaded not guilty, but probable cause was found and he was held in $3,000.

Y. M. C. A.

The final arrangements for the organization of the Twilight Baseball League will be made at a meeting to be held at the Association Saturday evening, May 1st. It is expected that enough men will be interested so that 4 teams will be formed. Games will be played twice a week from 5 P. M. to 6.30 P. M., the game being from 5 to 7 innings.

The names suggested for these teams are as follows: "Married Men," "Intermediates," "Seniors" and "Old Timers." Any man who wishes to play baseball this summer is urged to attend this meeting. If you cannot come to the meeting, telephone the Association for particulars.

The Senior Road race Thursday evening afforded a great deal of interest. The men started from West Newton and finished at the Building. Austin MacRae won. R. Macnamara was 2d and Wm. Houlihan was 3d. The Annual Meeting will be held next Monday at 6.30 P. M. Reports will be given by members and officers of the Association. The banquet will be served by the Women's Auxiliary. Music and an address by Rev. James Campbell will add to the pleasure of the evening.

As announced in the "Graphic" last week, Newton people are to have the opportunity of hearing two of the best Association speakers on May 9th. Mr. Fred B. Smith of New York City, at Elliot church and Mr. Edward W. Hearne at the Methodist church. Mr. Hearne will also address the Men's League at the Immanuel Baptist church, Sunday, May 9th, at 12 o'clock. The membership is still growing, 419 to-day, 7 new members the past week. The baseball team will play the Cambridgeport team Saturday on the So. Diamond, Cabot Park.

TAXATION

To the Editor of the GRAPHIC:—

There is no subject of more vital importance to the progress of the human race than the subject of taxation.

There are only two things that can be taxed. These two things are man and the earth he lives on. Therefore labor values and land values are the only two things upon which taxes are or can be imposed. That taxes are essential to the administration of government is undeniably true; and that something must be taxed is directly apparent.

The right thing to tax is monopoly; the wrong thing to tax is labor; because the government sustains monopoly.

Our new and thoroughly modern banking rooms and safe deposit vaults place at your command banking facilities that are second to none.

The Commonwealth Trust Co.

88 Summer Street corner Devonshire Street, Boston

MCKENNEY & WATERBURY COMPANY.
Designers, Manufacturers and Jobbers of ELECTRIC GAS AND OIL FIXTURES
"The Light World"
181 Franklin St., Boston, Mass.

Why should wealth-production and poverty be always associated? Nature gives nothing to idleness. Why should the worker be poor and the idler rich? It is because men are rewarded, not in proportion to what they do, but in proportion to what they monopolize.

Divorce government from monopoly, and the latter falls. Separate labor from land and humanity dies. This is what the land speculator tries to do. The workingman's real enemy is the land speculator, not the capitalist.

Since the evil has been and now is largely due to unscientific taxation, what more sensible plan could be suggested than to place the burden of government where it properly and justly belongs.

Tax land values. Leave labor entirely free from taxation.

S. H. HOWES.

REAL ESTATE

Mrs. Wm. H. Rand of Chestnut street, West Newton reports the rental of 209 Austin street to Mr. Lemuel G. Hodgkins. For Mrs. Nath'l Allen, 40 Webster street to Mr. C. D. Haskell of Springfield, Mass.

Rented to George B. Port of New York the house, 858 Watertown street, West Newton.

AUBURNDALE REAL ESTATE

Through the office of E. Arthur Robinson, Auburndale, Charles H. Dow, of Boston, has leased 44 Bourne street. Alfred H. Adrich of Newton has leased 20 Fern street.

Mrs. Lucy A. Pickard of Dorchester, and whose daughter teaches in LaSalle Seminary, has leased premises 30 Vista avenue.

This is the Universal Incandescent Kerosene Mantle
1000 Lamp 10 1/2
the best and cheapest to be had. 100 candle power, six hours for one cent. Brighter than Gas or Electricity. The most perfect reading or sewing light yet invented. Odorless, smokeless, can not explode, no parts to get out of order and easy to care for.

These Lamps can be seen on orders left at the following places:—

HARRINGTONS NEWS STAND NEWTON
WOODMAN'S NEWS STAND NEWTON CENTRE
or telephone Garden City Supply Co., Newton Centre

THE Woman's Journal

A SUFFRAGE PAPER

Published Weekly

EDITED BY

Alice Stone Blackwell

6 Beacon St., Boston

$1.50 PER YEAR

Gold Spring Boat House

NEEDHAM STREET BRIDGE

Newton Upper Falls

Boats and Canoes for Sale and to Lct. Storage by the month, season or year. 20 miles of river without a carry. Ice, Cream, Confectionery

Tonics, Moxie, Tobacco and Cigars

for sale. Gasoline and Valvoline for Motor Boats and Automobiles.

Newton and Boston Street Railway

to Oak Street. Tel. Newton South

21398.

JAMES B. LESTER, Proprietor

DRAKE'S

TRADE MARK

Plain Pound Cake

The flavor is rich because only the highest grade materials are used—it is dainty, because of our skilled method of mixing and baking and the extreme neatness of our establishment.

Sold in any quantity by your grocer.

Drake Bros. Co.

BOSTON

Telephone Automobile Supplies

James Cramp MACHINIST

LAWN MOWERS
and All Kinds of Tools Sharpened

GENERAL MACHINE WORK

Automobile and Bicycle Repairing

All Work Promptly Attended To

Ballou Place
NEWTONVILLE, MASS.
Near Orr's Hardware Store

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC

Published every Friday at 10 Centre Place, - Newton, Mass.

Entered at the Post-office at Boston, Mass.,
as second-class matter.

$2.00 per Year. Single Copies, 5 cents.
By mail free of postage.

All money sent at sender's risk.

All checks, drafts, and money orders must be made payable to

NEWTON GRAPHIC PUBLISHING CO.,
J. C. BRIMBLECOM, Treas.

TELEPHONE NO. 77.

The GRAPHIC is printed and mailed
Friday afternoon and is sold at all News-stands in the Newtons, and at the South Union Station, Boston.

All communications must be accompanied with the name of the writer, and
unpublished communications cannot be returned by mail unless stamps are enclosed.

Notices of all local entertainments
to which admission is charged must be paid for at regular rates, 25 cents per line
in the reading matter, or $1.00 per line in the advertising columns.

Women's Clubs.

Edited by Miss Grace M. Burt

The club women are reminded of the May Day reception to be held at the Newton hospital on Saturday afternoon under the auspices of the Hospital Aid Association. At this time there will be opportunity to inspect the building erected by the Newton Federation for the tuberculosis work and to see how much has been accomplished in the year since the movement was first set on foot. That there is need of the work is daily being demonstrated and a personal visit cannot but increase interest in it. On this account the women should embrace the opportunity so far as it is possible. At the annual meeting of the Federation next Tuesday morning a full report to date will be given of what is being done along all lines.
It is hoped that the club women will feel not only the duty, but also the privilege it is to be there and learn at first hand the part they are having in this beneficent work. As this meeting practically closes the club season put aside the home attractions in the way of spring cleaning and sewing and be there.

The annual meeting of the Newton
Federation of Women's Clubs will be held on Tuesday, May 4, at 10:15 A. M., at the Congregational church, Newtonville. The morning session will be occupied with the usual business of the annual meeting, reports and election of officers. Luncheon will be served at one o'clock. Tickets for which must be secured from the presidents of the clubs at sixty cents each not later than Saturday, May first.
The afternoon session will open at two-thirty. There will be a presentation of the work of two of the committees of the Massachusetts State Federation by Mrs. Eliza J. Bates of the Household Economics Committee and Mrs. F. H. Tucker of the Forestry Committee. Mrs. John T. Prince will speak of industrial work done by the Women's Educational and Industrial Union of Boston. Those who have heard Mrs. Prince feel that a treat is in store for the members and also that it is an opportune time in which to have this subject presented preceding so closely the opening of the new Technical High School. Music will be furnished by the Waban Woman's Club.

The last meeting of the Social Science Club for the season will be held at the Hunnewell Club next Wednesday morning. "History of Wood-Engraving" will be the subject of the paper. Guests may be invited.

The Newton Mothers' Club will meet with Mrs. A. P. Carter, 104 Highland avenue, Newtonville, on Monday, May 3rd.

At the annual meeting of the West Newton Women's Educational Club held at the Braeburn Club on April 23, the following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs.
A. H. Clifford, vice-presidents, Mrs. T.
M. Elwell, Mrs. Robert Gorton, Mrs.
G. D. Byfield, Mrs. W. J. Furubush; recording secretary, Mrs. Bernard Early; corresponding secretary, Miss Lillian Huddick; treasurer, Mrs. M. E. Heards-ley; auditor, Mrs. W. A. Clark; directors, Mrs. E. S. Waters, Mrs. Ellen M.
Cook. The club has had a prosperous year with an unusually fine program.
Luncheon was served at the close of the business meeting.

The Monday Club of Newton Highlands held its annual meeting on April 26. The reports were of much interest. Although the club meets every week from October to May four members had a perfect record of attendance. The club voted to present the benefit of the small children. Next year the club will take up a course of literature, English and American authors and their works. These officers were elected for the ensuing year:
President, Mrs. H. A. Miller; vice-presidents, Mrs. Sweetser, Mrs. Martell; recording secretary, Mrs. H. A.
Eagles; corresponding secretary, Mrs.
F. MacCallum; treasurer, Mrs. Bartlett; auditor, Mrs. E. W. Jones; directors for two years, Mrs. H. E. Durgin, Mrs. Cummings. A picnic will be held on May 25th by invitation of Mrs.
Sweetser at Wellesley Hills.

The annual meeting of the Social Science Club was held on Wednesday morning, April 28, with Mrs. F. H.
Tucker in the chair. Owing to a change in the constitution last year postponing the annual meeting from the first Wednesday in March to the last Wednesday in April, the year just closing was the longest in the history of the club, there having been thirty-three meetings exclusive of no receptions at the homes of members.
Three members had been present at all the meetings. In looking back over the year's work the members feel that the plan of having a connected line of study for a part of the winter is a decided improvement over the former miscellaneous program. Next

1865 THE OLD FIRM 1909

George H. Gregg & Son

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

All the Newtons 296 Walnut St., Newtonville

The "Domestic Plant" will be considered during the first part of the season. The reports were of more than passing interest. The stamp saving committee have attended faithfully upon their work. Two members visit the Bigelow, Underwood and Lincoln schools one day each week to shine or collect the money which the children bring. $310 have been paid in by the children during the year in which the work has been going on. The club has raised about $600 for philanthropic work and contributed to the Newton hospital, the Nonantum Day Nursery, a scholarship to Hampton Institute, and small sums to the Chelsea and Italian Earthquake sufferers. The following list of officers was elected for next year: President, Mrs. H. H. Powers; vice-presidents,
Mrs. Fred H. Tucker, Mrs. Wolcott
Calkins, Mrs. Cornelius H. Patton,
Mrs. Francis B. Hornbrooke, Mrs. F.
E. Stanley, Mrs. Sterling Elliott; recording secretary, Mrs. L. S. Drake; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. F.
Bothfield; treasurer, Mrs. H. K. Hobart; auditor, Mrs. George Angier; directors, Mrs. Frank A. Pickernell, chairman, Mrs. Edward M. Moore, Mrs.
Vernon B. Sweet, Mrs. Charles H.
Breck, Mrs. George Angier.

The Newton Ladies' Home Circle
will not hold any meeting Tuesday, May 4th, owing to the City Federation meeting coming on that date. The last meeting of the season will be held two weeks later, Tuesday, May 18th, at the residence of Mrs. J. Childs, 391 Lexington street, Auburndale.

Because of the holiday the last meeting of the Waban Woman's Club was held on Thursday afternoon, April 22. The club's annual Children's Day was then observed. Mr. John Beach giving "A Stevenson Story and Song Recital." After a brief sketch of the author's life, Mr. Beach read and explained a number of poems from the "Child's Garden of Verse." Several of these he had set to music and they were sung in a very pleasing manner by Master Travis Walsh.

On May 3 the annual meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs.
Joseph Breck.

Charlotte Perkins Gilman of New York will speak to the Newton Equal Suffrage League on May 10 on "Women and Economics."

FAREWELL RECEPTION

An occasion of unusual interest was the farewell reception given by the congregation of Immanuel church to its retiring pastor, Rev. F. B. Matthews, and Mrs. Matthews, on Wednesday evening. The vestry of the church was tastefully decorated with cut flowers. Music was furnished by the Harvard Trio, the choir of the church and Dr. L. H. Naylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthews were assisted in receiving by the deacons and their wives. Not only was the congregation well represented, but there were invited guests from the Newtons, Watertown, Allston and Boston, who came to express their high regard for Mr. and Mrs. Matthews, and regret that they were to leave Newton.

In behalf of the women of the congregation, as a parting gift, Mrs. C. W.
Bradley presented Mrs. Matthews with a pearl sun-burst pin and chain. A purse was given to Mr. Matthews by the men of the church.

The committee of arrangements was composed of Mrs. F. E. Kimball, Mrs.
J. W. Blaisdell, Mrs. W. H. Capen,
Mrs. C. W. Bradley, Mrs. T. S. Allen,
Mrs. E. D. Secomb, Mrs. S. Wallace
Moore, Mrs. C. B. Galloway and Mrs.
J. C. Ivy. The refreshments were in charge of Mrs. Frederick J. Fawcett, Mrs. Otis W. Holmes, Mrs. E. P. Tuttle, Mrs. S. W. Moore, Mrs. C. V.
Moore, Mrs. L. H. Naylor, assisted by a number of young ladies.

The ushers were, Mr. E. P. Tuttle,
Mr. J. W. Blaisdell, Mr. W. C. Wrye,
Mr. G. F. Harwood, Mr. F. E. Kimball, Mr. O. W. Holmes, Mr. F. N.
March, Mr. C. V. Moore, Dr. C. W.
Bradley, Mr. F. H. Tucker and Mr. C.
B. Galloway.

RESOLUTIONS

The following resolutions were adopted last Friday evening at a meeting of the Immanuel church:

WHEREAS, Our beloved pastor, Rev. Frank B. Matthews, has been called to a larger field of usefulness in the Master's kingdom, after association with this church for nearly ten years, therefore

RESOLVED: That we here record our appreciation of his unblemished character as a man, his unselfish devotion to duty as a pastor, his unswerving faithfulness as a friend, his ability and strength as a teacher of righteousness, his freedom from cant as a theologian, and his spiritual power as an evangelist.

While the ties of affection engendered by nearly ten years of Christian fellowship cannot be lightly broken, yet we believe that he has sought and found Divine direction in accepting the call to the Baptist church at Redlands, California; hence

RESOLVED: That we accept his resignation in the spirit in which it is offered; and while we shall part with regret, our prayers will follow him and his loved family that their life may be as bright as the sunny clime to which they go, and that the presence and blessing of our common Father be abundantly manifested to them and those under their charge.

RESOLVED: That we send cordial greetings to the church at Redlands, assuring them of our resignation to the will of the Master, and that while our loss will be their gain, we ask their prayers for us as ours will be for them, that the interests of the kingdom of God upon earth may be promoted hereby.

VAUDEVILLE SHOW

The Suburban Railway Club will give a vaudeville show at Lincoln hall, Newton Highlands, next Monday evening.

SCHOOL BOARD

An important meeting of the school committee was held Wednesday evening.

It was voted to graduate all pupils from the advanced eighth grades at the end of the current year.

At the request of W. C. Brewer of Newton Centre, Mr. W. E. Parker was designated to act as the representative of the school committee in a new corporation to be formed in that village to provide for athletic direction of the playground.

The resignation of Miss Emille F.
Emerson, clerk of the High School, was accepted and these appointments authorized: Ethel M. Willett, asst.
household economics, Elizabeth M.
Eaton, biology, Technical High School, Gertrude T. Harris and Bessie
C. Baker, special assistants grammar grades, and leaves of absence on half pay were granted Carrie M. Ring, Peirce school, and Emma H. Parker,
High School for a sabbatical year.

Tuition for non-resident pupils was fixed at $100.

Authority was granted the Nonantum Improvement Association to use the hall of the Stearns schoolhouse, for one year as soon as suitable lighting arrangements are made.

In accepting the resignation of Miss Eleonor J. McKenzie, principal of the Burr school, the following resolutions were passed:

RESOLVED: That in accepting Miss McKenzie's resignation, the members of the School Board express their high appreciation of her services for the last eleven years, five years as teacher in the Williams School and six years as principal of the schools of Ward IV. Under her direction, the schools of Auburndale have increased steadily in numbers and in efficiency, and thanks are due to her more than to any other one person for obtaining a most admirable collection of pictures and especially for procuring the beautiful windows in the hall of the Charles C. Burr School.

The committee express their sincere sympathy for Miss McKenzie in her illness and dep regret that she is obliged to discontinue her work in the Auburndale schools.

The board also adopted the following resolutions on the recent death of Miss Smith:

RESOLVED: That in the death of Miss Smith the Newton school board lost a most valued and faithful teacher.

For thirty-five years she has taught the little ones of the first grade of the Williams School and by her unfailing patience and gentleness, as well as by her marked ability, she has won the affection and esteem of the children and parents of Auburndale.
The members of the School Board wish to express their appreciation of her services in the Williams School.

N. H. S.

Last Monday Newton played Malden on the Clifton Field, Newtonville, being defeated, 5-3. Both teams played well considering the weather which was far better for football than baseball. "Tip" O'Neill was the bright star of the game, getting three hits, scoring three runs, stealing four bases, and getting four put outs. "Jim" Ryan also caught a fine game for Newton.
Capt. Morey of Malden played the best game of his life. The batteries were Helding, McCourt, p. and Ryan c., Newton. Morey, p. and Morgan, c., Malden.

Wednesday Newton defeated Everett on the Clifton Field by a score of 8-4.
Newton won by being able to hit the ball better than Everett. Chamberlin and Ryan starred for Newton, while Huckley played well for Everett. The batteries were McCourt and Ryan, Newton. Rosenthal and Lanching, Everett.

This evening a concert will be given in the assembly hall for the benefit of the fund for the school library. The concert will be given entirely by past and present members of the school, including solos by Miss Eva Sanderson, Mrs. A. L. Wakefield (Josephine Martin) and Albert S. Kimberley, vocalists, Miss Elsie S. Kimberley, violinist, a trio for violin, cello and piano by Misses Ruth Ivy, Edith Soden and Vida Chase and the High School Chorus.

CITY HALL NOTES

Civil service examinations were held on Monday and Tuesday under the direction of Chief Examiner Henry Sherwin, 43 applicants for police, fire, janitor, inspector and clerks were examined. Mr. Sherwin recently examined 1197 applicants within two weeks.
The spring meeting of the Civic Club will be held May 12 at the Newton Clubhouse, when Mr. Hiram A.
Miller, Chief Engineer of the Commission will give an illustrated talk on the Charles River Basin.

City Forester Buckman reports that the work of painting the nests of the gypsy moth and destroying the nests of the brown-tail moth was completed last Tuesday at a total expense of $28,795.13, of which $16,677.60 was on private property.

OLD RESIDENT DEAD

Mrs. Matilda J. Kimball, one of the oldest residents of this city, died Wednesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles A. Burgess, 46 Otis street, Newtonville. Death was due to old age.

Mrs. Kimball was the widow of George Kimball, who was acting master of the Charlestown navy yard when the civil war broke out. Upon his death in 1863 his wife removed to this city, where she had since made her home. Mrs. Kimball was born in Hoxbury, Feb. 4, 1813. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Gilman H. Tucker of New York, Mrs.
Joseph S. Jenks of Indianapolis and Mrs. Charles A. Burgess of Newton-ville. She was a member of the Church of the New Jerusalem.

Funeral services will be held at her late residence to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

GOLDEN WEDDING

A golden wedding of more than local interest was observed Wednesday by Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Francis N.
Peloubet at their home on Woodland road, Auburndale. Dr. Peloubet, who is best known as the author of Peloubet's Sunday school lesson notes, has also written many books for Bible workers and his name is known throuout the civilized world.

Guests were present from 3 to 5 in the afternoon and from 8 to 10 in the evening, and many came from a distance. The Natiek church of which Dr. Peloubet was pastor at one time sent a delegation of about 100 to extend congratulations. The house was decorated with flowers and palms, with roses, phlox and ferns in the hall, library and dining room. Dr.
and Mrs. Peloubet were assisted in receiving their friends by their daughters, Mrs. Norton, Mrs. Swallow and Mrs. Fairquhar. An interesting feature of the day was the presentation by Rev. Dr. E. E. Strong, of a purse of gold. Miss Dyer read a poem written for the occasion, and a poem sent from South Africa by Miss Louise M. Hodgkins was also received. Miss Hodgkins also wrote a poem at the silver wedding of Dr.
and Mrs. Peloubet. There were also many presents from friends.

Miss Louise Peloubet, Margaret Norton were in charge of the dining room, while the ushers were the Messies Knowlton, Dummer and Louise Davidson.

The following "Golden Wedding Song" was sung by the guests to the tune of "Auld Lang Syne."

All hail, Peloubets, man and wife,
At half century's end!
Along the golden path of life
Your golden lives extend.

CHORUS:

All hail, Peloubets! Read ye long
The same bright page;
With heart aglow and spirit strong
For fine old age.

May heaven's grace and glory rest
Upon this golden pair.
With golden fruit their lives be blest,
All beauteous and rare.—Cho.

And we who see the happy twain,
And watch their golden way,
The benediction will remain
Upon our souls for aye.—Cho.

Dr. Peloubet was born in New York, Dec. 2, 1831, and was graduated from Williams college in 1853, from Bangor theological seminary in 1857 and received the degree of D.D. in the University of Tennessee.

He was married in Bangor, Me., to Miss Mary Abby Thaxter, six years his junior, whom he had met in Cambridge, the ceremony having been performed April 28, 1859.

Dr. Peloubet served the Congregational church in Lanesville as pastor from 1857 to 1860, was pastor in Oak-ham from 1861 to 1866, in Attleboro from 1867 to 1871 and in Natiek from 1872 to 1883.

During his pastorate in Natiek he conceived the idea of encouraging and simplifying study of Sunday school lessons by carefully prepared "notes" and his work soon became the most important one of the kind. After a few years he was obliged to resign his pastorate to give all his time to his literary work, and since then preaching has been only an incidental part of his work for nearly a quarter of a century.

Dr. Peloubet is a member of the Congregational, Twentieth Century,
Boston and Woodland golf clubs.
Dr. Peloubet's home in Auburndale was built after his own design. It is a square mansion made irregular by bay windows. The study hexagonal in form, is his abiding place. There is a large fireplace at one end, and the walls are overflowing with books, each one of some thousands of volumes pertaining to the Bible. There are also in the study many rare curiosities, every one of which also relates to the Bible.

Dr. and Mrs. Peloubet have four daughters living. There are 11 grandchildren, seven of whom have been or are at present in college.

DON'T let the weather find you unprepared to meet it in comfort. The time to prepare is just about now.

We have everything you need for working or lounging on your piazza or lawn.

We particularly emphasize our willow goods. They are light to move about and unequalled for comfort and rest.

Not the least of their attractions is their inexpensiveness.

BEMIS & JEWETT

SUMMER FURNITURE

NEWTON CENTRE

NEEDHAM

LAWN MOWERS

The Victory, Premier, Flyer and Universal, Ball Bearing

14, 16 and 18 inch cut

$5.00 and Up
Yankee Mower, '2.75 and '3

GARDEN HOSE AND REELS

Tools, Fertilizers and Insecticides

SEEDS AND BULBS

CHANDLER & BARBER

HARDWARE DEALERS

124 Summer St., Boston, Mass.

A. H. WAITT

390 Centre Street

Phone 882-2 Newton North

FOR RENT

Lower apt. in new house, will be ready MAY 1st. 7 rms. and bath, set
tubs, gas, gas range, hot-water heat,
lease at $9 per month, including water.

Nice 10-room house in good neighborhood, convenient, for lease at $30
mo.

BRIGHTON

A new 2-family house, ready April
15th. Upper, 7 rooms and bath, $28.
Lower, 6 rooms and bath, $25.

Now is the time to list your houses
with me for results.

REAL ESTATE AUTO INSURANCE

FOR SALE

WEST NEWTON
Modern 7-room house and stable,
6,250 feet land, $3,250.

BRIGHTON

NEW 2-family house, $6,200.

WEST NEWTON

Newly refurnished house, 9,420 feet
land, $8,000, easy terms. INVESTI-GATE.

A house of 11 rooms, bath, etc.,
7,500 feet land, $6,500.

AUBURNDALE

A nice house, 9 rooms and bath,
5,900 feet land, $2,750, $300 or $400
down, bal. mfg.

Consult my new up-to-date list of SPRING BARGAINS if you contemplate buying.

Gates
Millinery

SPRING MILLINERY

80 Bowers Street Newtonville

Opp. Depot

GOING AWAY THIS SUMMER

Why not telephone our main office (Waltham 282) and see if any of our teams or agents can call at your summer residence? This little precaution taken NOW will insure you against summer "laundry troubles."

Waltham Laundry Co

Telephone Newton West 345-4

G. A. FREEMAN, Agent

2163 Commonwealth Avenue, Auburndale

NEWTON CO-OPERATIVE BANK

SHARES SOLD MARCH AND SEPTEMBER

Money Available at all times on Newton Mortgages

Bank Meetings Monthly, 1st Tuesday, 8 P. M.

JAMES W. FRENCH, Pres. J. CHEEVER FULLER, Secy. and Treas.

Tremont Bldg., Boston. 297 Walnut St., Newtonville

SPECIAL FOR THIS WEEK

Our $4.98 Trimmed Hats

in all the leading shapes, trimmed with flowers and foliage.

We are also carrying a line of

Mushroom, Sailors and Bucket Shaped Hats

which we are selling at reasonable prices. Call and inspect our line

Mrs. S. M. GILMAN 99 Moody Street, Waltham

We are busy as Bees

PHONE NEWTON NORTH NO. 733-4 FOR ALL KINDS OF BEDDING PLANTS
 GERANIUMS VERBENAS
 PETUNIAS
 TOMATO PLANTS
 NEWTON ROSE CONSERVATORIES
 Newtonville Ave. and Harvard St., Newtonville
 H. S. COURTNEY, Manager

COOK'S AVENUE HAT

Will outwear two
 of the ordinary kind and look better in the end

$4.00

Cold Storage of Furs
 and Clothing
 Articles called for

A. N. Cook & Co
 161 Tremont Street, Boston

Newtonville.

—Mr. N. Henry Chadwick is reported quite ill at his home on Walnut street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Calvert Cray of Foster street are back from an extended southern trip.

—Mrs. James B. Trowbridge of Clyde street has rented her house and will move to Bowers street.

—Mr. E. W. Greene of Mt. Vernon street has been entertaining friends from New York the past week.

—Daniels & Howlett Co., Morse Building, Newtonville, painting, decorating, hardwood finishing and wall papers.

—Miss Gertrude A. Strout of Lowell avenue returned Saturday from a vacation outing in Western Massachusetts.

—Mrs. J. P. Smith gave a pretty bridge party for a few friends last Friday afternoon at her home on Lowell avenue.

—Mrs. Geo. F. Lowell is a delegate from the Massachusetts Peace Society to the 2d National Peace Conference to be held at Chicago next week.

—Miss Catherine T. Bryce, the primary supervisor in the Newton schools, who has been seriously ill at her home on Otis place, is improving in health.

—Miss Grace A. Brown of Washington street has returned from a week's visit in New York and has resumed her duties in the treasurer's office at City Hall.

—The Newton Choral Union has concluded not to give the concert advertised until October. The rehearsals of the Union have been discontinued until autumn.

—Under the auspices of the Sewing Circle of the Universalist church the annual children's May party will be held Saturday afternoon, May 8th, in Temple hall.

—Mr. George R. Pulsifer of Birch Hill road is to have one of the character parts in the dramatic entertainment to be given next Thursday by the Boston City Club.

—Miss Clara B. Cooke of Prescott street, who recently returned from Washington, D. C., resumed her work as a teacher in the Brockton high school on Monday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bradford Sargent, formerly of Leicester and Worcester, announce the engagement of their daughter Adelaide to Mr. Samuel Dike Hooper of Newtonville.

—Mr. Albert Perry Walker was one of the speakers at the teachers' institute held today in Dedham under the direction of the State Board of Education.

—A business meeting of the Every Saturday Club will be held Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. George H. Wilkins on Walnut street. Officers will be elected and the program for the coming year will be considered.

—The business men of the Methodist parish held their second luncheon at the Commonwealth Hotel, Boston, Thursday noon. There was a good attendance and an hour was spent in a social way.

—Miss Elsie V. McLaughlin of Harvard street was among the passengers sailing for Glasgow, Scotland, Wednesday on the Hesperian. Miss McLaughlin intends to be abroad for some time.

—Mrs. Bridget Taylor, wife of John J. Taylor of Clark place passed away last Thursday after a short illness, aged 51 years. She is survived by her husband, two sons and three daughters. Funeral services were held from the Church of Our Lady Saturday morning at 9 o'clock and the burial was in Calvary cemetery.

HARCOURT'S MARKET

841 Washington Street

Headquarters for the Famous
 Watch Brand of Canned Goods
CHOICE MEATS
FRUITS and VEGETABLES
BUTTER and EGGS

Our Motto: The Best.

Newtonville.

—Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Carter Allen have returned from Europe, where they were married February 14th. Previous to her marriage to Mr. Allen, Mrs. Allen was the Countess Maud d'Alc Coral of London and Paris.

—Mr. Charles W. Ross of Hull street, the Newton street commissioner, returned the last of the week from New York, where he attended a convention of civil engineers and a conference of street commissioners.

—The annual ladies' night of the Universalist Club will be held Monday evening in the parish house of the Universalist church. Dinner will be served at 6.30 and an entertainment will follow.

—A special business meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society was held Wednesday afternoon in the vestry of the Methodist church. A number of important matters regarding next season's work were considered.

—Rev. Richard T. Loring of Washington street attended the annual meeting of the Diocesan Convention held in Trinity church, Boston, on Wednesday. Rev. Mr. Loring and family have moved to their summer home in Duxbury.

—In the New Church parlors last Friday evening a concert was given by the choir assisted by the Christ church choir of Andover. Beside the chorus and trio parts piano solos were given by Leslie Mander and Hubert Ripley and vocal solos by Wilson Knipe and C. J. V. Pettibone.

—The subscription whist and bridge party given Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Henry F. Ross on Walnut street, under the auspices of the Polymnia, was well patronized. Two tables were occupied at whist and 10 tables at bridge. The whist prize was won by Mrs. Mullaney and the bridge prizes were awarded to Mesdames Rogers, Young, Talbot, Wadleigh and Boyden.

—The funeral of Mrs. Matilda Knowlton Hardy, wife of Fred S. Hardy, who died Thursday was held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock from her late residence on Mt. Vernon street. Rev. J. T. Stocking, pastor of Central church was the officiating clergyman. Beside relatives and friends a number of members of the Newtonville Woman's Guild were present. There were numerous floral tributes. The burial was in Newton cemetery.

—The annual meeting of the Mission Circle connected with the Universalist church was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Elden H. Jennison on Austin street. The annual reports were read, plans for the coming year considered and the following officers chosen: President, Mrs. Albert Hammett; vice president, Mrs. Frank W. Wise; secretary, Mrs. Elden H. Jennison; treasurer, Mrs. Charlotte E. Dobson.

—At the May dance to be given by the Young Woman's Club of St. John's church on Friday evening, May seventh, in Temple hall, the matrons will be Mrs. Richard T. Loring, Mrs. Edward P. Hatch, Mrs. Frank Richardson and Mrs. E. K. Hall. The patronesses are Mesdames Elisha L. Avery, Enoch C. Adams, Robert S. Bowen, H. W. Crocker, Charles W. Flitts, T. E. Gammons, E. K. Hall, Frederick W. Hill, P. B. Howard, D. B. Kyle, G. T. Lincoln, Charles H. Veo, W. C. Warren, Hubert L. Carter, Hector M. Gordon.

West Newton.

—Mr. Harry L. Ayer of Prince street is in Mexico on a business trip.

—Mrs. Edward B. Wilson of Otis street gave a luncheon on Tuesday afternoon.

—Mr. Joseph N. Lovell is making improvements to his house on Otis street.

—Mr. Fred L. Pratt is making improvements to his house on Highland street.

—The Misses Bullivant of Mt. Vernon street have returned from Philadelphia.

—Mrs. Stephen Whidden of Sewall street entertained at whist last Friday afternoon.

—Mrs. Herbert L. Felton of Prince street entertained at bridge on Friday afternoon last.

—Miss Esther Lowe of Highland street has returned from a two weeks' stay in Montreal.

—Mrs. Hope Dale of Otis street has returned from a visit to relatives in Providence, R. I.

—Mrs. Olive W. Wheeler of Prince street has returned from a month's sojourn in Maine.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Edson of Sterling street arrived home on Tuesday from a southern trip.

—The Journey Club met at Mrs. Lawrence Mayo of Chestnut street on Thursday afternoon last.

—Mr. Vernon E. Carpenter of Waltham street, who has been confined to his home on account of illness is convalescent.

GEO. A. EDMANDS

Apothecary

AGENT FOR

EASTMAN

Kodak Supplies

HIGH GRADE

DEVELOPING and PRINTING

MASONIC BUILDING

NEWTONVILLE MASS.

Remember Our Toric Bifocals are

The Best Combination of Far and Near Lenses that can be made

Pinkham & Smith Company

TWO (288-290 Boylston Street / Boston
 STORES (13 1/2 Bromfield Street)

—Mr. George H. Ingraham and family of Chestnut street left this week for their farm at Rindge, N. H.

—Mrs. Robert Kirk of Washington street is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Robert M. Copeland of Revere.

—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Perkins of Lexington are the guests of Rev. and Mrs. John Mattison of Auburn street.

—A hat sale will be held in the Caroline Block next Tuesday from 2 to 7 for the benefit of the West Newton Day Nursery.

—Mrs. H. M. Gordon gave a pretty whist and German to a number of college girls last Saturday afternoon at her home on Regent street.

—Mrs. Thomas Dukehart, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. P. Talbot of Otis street, left on Monday for her home in Baltimore.

—Miss Dora A. Allen and Miss Edith A. Matteson of Washington street arrived home on Sunday from a five months' absence in Bermuda.

—Mr. and Mrs. Orrin C. Hubbard of Hillsdale avenue have returned from a southern trip embracing points of interest in Washington, Richmond, Old Point Comfort and Atlantic City.

—The Walton residence on Chestnut street is undergoing improvements and it will be occupied by Lewis H. Jack of Washington street on August 1st.

—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Frost and the Misses Frost of Chestnut street are registered at the Brae-Brown Country Club for a few weeks, while their residence is undergoing alterations and improvements.

—The slight cracking in the plastering of one of the piers of the Unitarian church, first noticed last fall, gave rise this week to a baseless rumor that the foundations of the church were settling.

—A public meeting was held Tuesday evening in Pierce school hall to interest residents of ward 3 in the campaign for boys' work. The need of suitable playgrounds and other attractive features for youths was explained by Bert Hall of Milwaukee, John Gunchel of Toledo and Miss Jane Day of New York.

Auburndale.

—The postponed Author's Reading by Mrs. Margaret Deland will be given at Lasell Seminary on next Wednesday evening, at 7.45 o'clock. The public is cordially invited.

—In Norumbega hall last Monday evening the comedy "The Two Burglars" was presented by these members of Castle Sterling, Knights of King Arthur: Charles W. Blood, Harold Allen, Percival Allen, Scott Rider and Stuart Rider.

—Tuesday evening, May 4, at eight o'clock, an organ recital will be given in the Congregational churches by Miss Marion Chapin. Miss Julia Pickard, violinist, and Mr. Waldo Cole, baritone, will assist. The public is cordially invited.

—At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Holmes in Holliston last Wednesday evening occurred the wedding of their daughter, Nettie Theresa, and Mr. Albert Edgar Knowlton. Minnie of this place, Rev. T. P. Evans officiated. Miss Maud Mae Sherman, Shelnut, a sister of the groom, was bridesmaid and the best man was Mr. Frank Leslie Holmes, a brother of the bride. A reception followed the ceremony from 7.30 to 9. Mr. and Mrs. Shelnut will spend their honeymoon in the West and on their return will reside at 19 Woodbine street.

MINSTREL SHOW

Players' hall, West Newton, was crowded to the doors last evening at the minstrel show given by the Ladies' Aid Society for the benefit of the Working Boys' Home at Newton Highlands.

—Frank Cunningham, Wm. Gero, Henry Turner, Albert Moore, Albert Ryan and Robert Blue were the end men, and Mr. Mark V. Croker was a clever interlocutor.

The following were members of the chorus:

Mrs. Thomas Delaney, Miss Kathryn Ryan, Miss Evelyn Croft, Miss Alice McGrath, Miss Frances Fitzgerald, Miss Katherine Kenless, Miss Gertrude Leonard, Miss Minnie Lill, Miss Mary Blake, Miss Margaret Ryan, Miss Frances Mulvihill, Miss Florence Fitzgerald, Miss Nellie Murphy, Miss Sarah Leonard, Miss M. Elizabeth Lane, Miss Katherine Croft, Miss Cecelia Ryan, Miss Agnes Calne, Miss Lillian Blake, Miss Mary Bryson, Miss Winifred Leonard, Miss Genevieve Gero, Miss Minnie Sheehan, Miss Frances Cavanaugh, Miss Marian Gero, Miss Sarah McKenna, Miss Mary McKenna, Mrs. J. Donahoe, Miss Nellie Sheehan, Miss Beatrice Slattery, Miss Nora O'Sullivan, Miss Jennie Edmonds, Miss Helen M. Murphy, Miss Mary Dolan, Miss Marcella McKenna, Miss Mary Sweeney, Miss Margaret Lane, Miss Gertrude McKenna, Miss Mary Smith, Miss Della O'Halloran, Miss Mollie Morrisale, Mr. John Spellman, Mr. Frank H. Maguire, Mr. Michael O'Halloran, Mr. Thomas Delaney, Mr. J. R. Maskell, Mr. Peter Rooney, Mr. Francis Healy, Mr. Edward Brosnahan, Mr. Walter Carley, Mr. John Leonard, Mr. Joseph McCarthy, Mr. Edward Smith, Mr. Richard Lyons, Mr. W. A. Murphy, Mr.

MORTGAGES

LOANS AT FAIR RATES ON NEWTON REAL ESTATE

WEST NEWTON SAVINGS BANK

HOURS, 8.30 TO 12 AND 1 TO 3

SATURDAY, 8.30 TO 12

Clarence Scarry, Mr. Raymond Stuart, Mr. Henry Boudrot, Mr. Joseph Marcel, Mr. Daniel Kenless, Mr. Fred Maguire, Mr. John Delaney, Mr. William Mullin, Mr. S. P. Mallet, Mr. Al-Philip Gero.

A SENSIBLE VIEW

On the movement looking to a World's Fair in Boston in 1920, Mayor Hutchinson has recently given the following interview:

My first thought is that it is unwise to at present divert the minds of our people from the very apparent and pressing needs of Boston. There are sufficient problems requiring and demanding our immediate consideration, viz: Improved governmental conditions, equitation of taxation, industrial education, relations and service of railway and steamboat corporations, greater inducements to trans-Atlantic lines and perhaps of most importance, a New England awakening which shall tend to an improvement of our manufactured products such as shall make us universally famous for quality.

Furthermore, I am confident that enthusiasm before, rather than after, the event would be our experience were we to have a World's Fair, and I seriously question, in this case, if even a "before" enthusiasm could be sustained at a sufficiently high degree for as long a period as 1909 to 1920.

My judgment and observation do not warrant me in favoring this project for Boston, but if it seems advisable that we should have a world's fair, with all its questionable features and, as many admit, uncertainties of result, might we not defer consideration and not now divide our energies in view of the commendable efforts which are being made for the ethical, civic and commercial betterment of our city?

CITY OF NEWTON

Milk Inspection

OFFICE, 263 WASHINGTON ST., STRYKER BLOCK, NEWTON, MASS., May 1, 1909. In accordance with Chapter 56, Section 53, of the Revised Laws, all licenses must be renewed before the first day of June.

All Persons Selling Milk
 not licensed or registered, must be registered at this office before that date.

Blank forms of application may be obtained by applying at the above named address. Office Hours, 9 A.M. to 1 P.M.

ARTHUR HUDSON, Milk Inspector

Lost Savings Bank Book

Savings Bank Books as listed below are lost, and application has been made for payment of the accounts in accordance with Sec. 46, Chap. 550, of the Acts of 1908. Payment has been stopped. Newton Savings Bank Book No. 40838 Newton Savings Bank Book No. 26717

FOR SALE

HOUSE AND STABLE
 18 Webster St., West Newton

Desirable location, convenient to steam and electric cars, place has considerable ground, fruit trees, etc. Key can be had of Mrs. Hunt next door. For further particulars write H. T. Farrar, 222 Fifth Avenue, New York, N. Y.

W. A. FAYEN

Practical Harness Maker

Full Equipment of Stable Furnishings

Trunks and Bags Repaired

529 Waltham St., West Newton

Tel. 492-1 Newton West

Painting, Interior Decorating

AND PAPER HANGING

Now is the season to send in your orders.

G. W. TERRELL

888 Waterdown Street WEST NEWTON

Telephone 256-5 Newton West.

The Allen School

WEST NEWTON, MASS.

EVERETT STARR JONES, Head Master.

For Boys ranging in age from ten upwards Special attention given to individual requirements. Large and efficient corps of instructors. First class equipment.

Telephone N. West 361-1.

HOUSE LOTS, NEWTONVILLE

FOR SALE—Desirable building lots in good locality, 5 to 10 minutes' walk from railroad station. Apply in person, by mail or telephone to G. W. Auryansen, 49 Judkins St., Newtonville.

HALL & LYON CO.

OF NEW ENGLAND

The Retail Store.

APOTHECARIES

HALLS CORNER, 117 Moody St., WALTHAM

WALTHAM'S MONEY SAVING DRUG STORE

Spring Medicines

Cleanse your system now of the sluggish accumulations of the blood, thus avoiding many ailments arising from inattention to this important duty.

$1.00 Quaker Bitters	85c	50c Swamp Root	40c
$1.00 Sulphur Bitters	85c	$1.00 Swamp Root	71c
$1.00 Burdock Bitters	85c	$1.00 Kickapoo Sagwa	85c
$1.00 Greene's Nervura	75c	50c Kickapoo Sagwa	45c
$1.00 Wampole's Cod Liv. Oil	75c	$1.00 Pinkham's Comp.	71c
$1.00 Wheeler's Vitalizer	85c	$1.00 Gude's Pepto. Mang.	79c
$1.00 Cooper's Discovery	85c	$1.00 Cuticura Resolvent	85c
25c Brandt's Pills	20c	50c Doan's Pills	39c
25c Carter's Pills	13c	50c William's Pink Pills	39c
25c Newcase	20c	25c Morse's Pills	20c
Beef, Iron & Wine, pts.	45c	Bland's Iron Pills	100 for 19c
Co. Syr. Hypophos, pts.	89c	2-grain Quin. Pills	100 for 19c
Sarsaparilla Tonic, pts.	69c	Sedilz Powders, doz.	20c
Celery and Iron Tonic, pts.	75c	Cod Liver Emulsion, pts.	50c

Cedar Lavender Compound

Cheaper and better than Camphor. Kills the Moth and Destroys the Eggs. Put up in one pound boxes.

15c

Iver Johnson Racycle Columbia

STANDARD MAKES OF BICYCLES IN STOCK

Hardware, Paint and Oils

KODAKS and SUPPLIES

W. E. Tomlinson EDDY BLOCK WEST NEWTON

There is Something Here You Need

Latest Styles in Shirt Waists and New Idea Patterns, Veilings, Ruchings, Chamois Gloves, Dressmakers Findings, Etc.

MARY E. HOSMER

1405 Washington Street - West Newton

A. L. JORDAN

House Painter and Interior Decorator

Latest Designs in Wall Papers. (Refinishing Furniture a Specialty)

54 Chestnut Street (near depot) West Newton Telephone Connection

PARIS PATTERN SUPPLY CO.

Are fitting Ladies to Dresses Absolutely Perfect in Paper Patterns of Advanced Designs

Shirts, Jackets, Waists and Shirt Waists, Etc. From these fitted patterns a lady can make her dress without trying on.

169 Tremont Street, Near New Herald Bldg. Boston

WANTED

Three hairs from your head. Falling hair is caused by pinched nerves; all hair is governed by nerves; send me 3 hairs wrapped in a clean paper have chemical analysis. MYRON EFFORD, competent osteopath on hair, 194 Boylston Street, Boston.

JANE O'DONNELL

Ladies' Dress and Coat Maker

Alterations and Reparing. Latest Patterns on hand. Fit and Workmanship Guaranteed

853 Washington Street Newtonville

Miscellaneous.

—EXPERIENCED DRESSMAKER would like more engagements by the day. Address D. Graphic Office.

FOUND—Jordan, Marsh Co. Indentification check, which owner can have by applying at this office and paying for this advertisement.

FOUND—in Newton—A bunch of keys. Apply 1 Channing street.

FOUND—in Newton—A watch for owner may have same, by proving property to A. P. Pickernell, 86 Sargent street, Newton, Mass.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—A gentleman's driving horse, formerly property of Mr. Geo. H. Shapley. For particulars inquire of Harrington's stable, Washington street, Newtonville.

Wants.

WANTED—Coachman and general man, married, wants situation. Understands care of horses, carriages, cow, garden, lawn and shrubs. J. J. C. 55 Henshaw street, West Newton.

WANTED—A girl to work in a waiting-station. Small salary to start on. Must furnish good reference. Call evenings, Newton St. R. R. waiting-station, corner Commonwealth avenue and Washington street, Auburndale.

WANTED—Stenographer, experienced, desires position, references given. R. J. M. 322 Centre street, Newton.

WANTED—Immediately, 50 cords of hard wood delivered at Newton Boulevard pit. Simpson Bros. Corp., 146 Devonshire street, Boston, or telephone J. H. Brogie, 515-6 Brighton.

</

Boston Safe Deposit and Trust Co.

67 MILK STREET, BOSTON
In Active Business Since 1875

A capital, surplus and undivided profits of $3,500,000 make this company one of the strongest of Boston's financial institutions. It offers its services in the following departments.

BANKING DEPARTMENT Pays interest on deposits subject to check. A legal depository for Executors, Administrators, Trustees and Money in Suit.

Bond and Transfer Department Acts as Trustee under Railroad and other Corporation mortgages and as transfer Agent and Register of stock.

Safe Deposit Department Offers absolute security for papers and other valuables, and a location in the heart of the financial district.

Trust Department Acts as Executor, Administrator, Trustee, Guardian of Property and Attorney.

Capital $1,000,000 Surplus (earned) $2,000,000

PLAYGROUNDS

Newton Centre Holds Enthusiastic Mass Meeting

A movement which started in a casual discussion at one of the men's clubs in Newton Centre, a few weeks ago, culminated Monday evening in a well attended and enthusiastic meeting in the Mason school hall. The affair was devoted to playground work and needs, and addresses were made by Mr. Thos. Curley of Waltham of the playground committee of the Massachusetts Civic League, by Miss Jane Day of New York, by Mr. Frederick W. Swan of the Quincy school, Boston, who gave practical experiences with playground work, and by Mr. S. B. Paul, master of the Newton Centre Improvement Association but will co-operate with that organization for the betterment of the village and city.

Monday night's meeting was planned by a committee consisting of Mr. Wm. C. Brewer who presided, Mr. John Barry, Mr. A. H. Leonard, Mr. Abbott B. Rice, Mr. L. H. Pitch, Mr. S. Harold Greene, Mr. A. C. Burnham representing the different churches of Newton Centre, Mr. S. B. Paul, master of the Mason school, secretary of the committee, and Mr. Wm. E. Parker of the school committee.

Previous to the speaking Mr. Brewer made an extended report of the plans the committee have in mind, and which include a bath house, swimming tank and gymnasium for physical development as well as furnishing an opportunity for work on moral and ethical lines. The plan does not contemplate any interference with the excellent work done by the Newton Centre Improvement Association but will co-operate with that organization for the betterment of the village and city.

WOOD—BARLOW

A pretty home wedding took place Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mr. B. F. Barlow on Parsons street, Newtonville, when his daughter, Miss Nellie E. Barlow became the bride of Mr. Peter Wood of Plymouth, Mass. The house was attractively decorated with a profusion of pinks and greenery and the bride carried a bouquet of pinks. At the conclusion of the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Albert Hammatt, pastor of the Universalist church, a dainty collation was served. Mr. and Mrs. Wood will make their home in Plymouth, Mass.

No matter how well mother may feel she is continually on the mend. The wife of a henpecked husband is usually set in her ways.

Something New in Cold Storage of Furs

Our new (permanently installed) VACUUM PROCESS for the cleaning of FURS and RUGS is just completed. By this new method surprising results are obtained without the least injury to the furs.

Absolute cleanliness is insured without injury to the pelts, which was unavoidable under the old method of whipping now commonly in use. This new cleaner is used on all furs and rugs without further charge than regular storage rates.

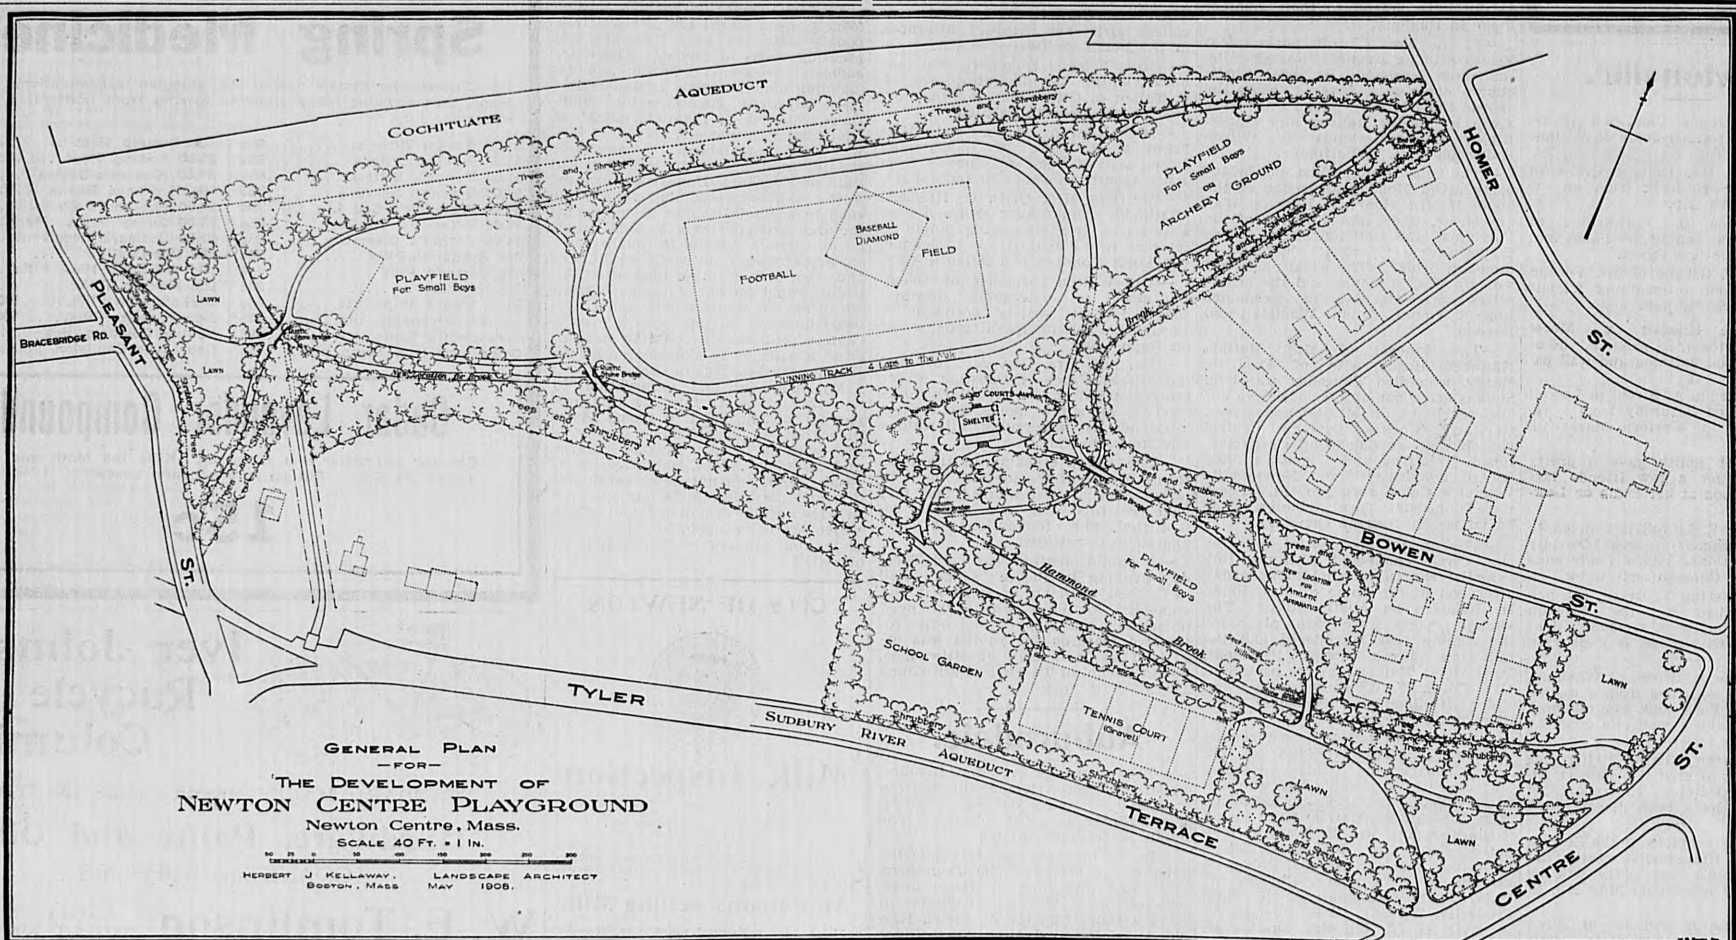

FURS CALLED FOR AND DELIVERED

Telephone Oxford 620-621

LAMSON & HUBBARD

FURRIERS

92 Bedford St., Boston, Mass.

Newton

—Telephone MacLean, 384-2 North, for all carpenter work.

—Mr. Oliver M. Fisher of Franklin street returns this week from a business trip through the West.

—Mr. James L. Leach has been confined to his home on Marlboro street the past week by illness.

—Mr. John P. Lovett, who has been ill at his home on Tremont street, is reported improving in health.

—Rev. and Mrs. H. Grant Person of Bellevue street are spending a few days in Washington and Baltimore.

—Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Curtis are spending their honeymoon in Washington, Baltimore and other Southern points.

—Dutch Clip for children. Fell Bros., Washington street, opp. Bank.

—Mr. George Wallace has moved from Morse street to Channing street.

—Mr. Bernard Raymond of Watertown street is substitute clerk at the post office during the absence of Miss Grace.

—Mr. J. H. Blount and family of William street will move the first of the week to the converse cottage on Cabot street.

—Mrs. Charles Edmond Gullid, who has been spending the winter in Cambridge, is in New York this week, where she went to see her sister off for Europe.

—Mr. John A. Gardner has purchased two lots of land fronting on Jewett street near the corner of Waban street and will improve by building two houses for investment.

—Arch Supports made to fit your arch. One dollar per pair. J. McCammon.

—Mr. Sumner F. Chapin has purchased the house he occupies on Waban street.

—Mrs. Mary L. Tucker of Church street, who is chairman of the forestry commission of the state federation of women's clubs, was a guest and speaker Wednesday afternoon at the meeting of the Melrose Highlands Woman's Club.

—The Woman's Association met Tuesday afternoon in the parlors of Eliot church. Under the auspices of the foreign missionary department the subject, "The Nearer and Farther East," was considered with addresses by Miss Mabel Mason and Mrs. Wolcott Calkins.

—The annual Ladies' Night of the Immanuel Associates was held last evening in the vestry of the Immanuel Baptist church. Supper was served at 6.45 and later President Beverly G. Second presided over the exercises. Rev. and Mrs. Matthews were presented with a beautiful loving cup and they responded with appropriate remarks of acceptance, other addresses were made and there was a musical program under the direction of Mr. Harris S. Shaw.

—The annual meeting of the Entertainment Club was held Monday evening in the parlors of Channing church. The annual reports were read, a part of the profits of the season appropriated for the various activities of the church and the following officers chosen to serve the coming year: President, Henry P. Curtiss; vice president, Dr. Charles L. Pearson, Miss Helen Clarke, Mrs. Edward M. Moore, Robert D. Holt; secretary, Mrs. A. W. B. Huff; treasurer, Horace C. Harrington, auditor, Frank H. Burt.

—Many Newton friends attended the wedding of Miss Mildred Blanchard Palmer and Mr. Alton Harrison Hartford, which took place last Thursday evening at the home of the bride's parents on Garnet street, Watertown. Rev. Charles W. Holden, pastor of the Methodist church, officiated. The bride was attended by Miss Phoebe E. S. Ashley of New Bedford and the best man was Mr. Herbert L. Palmer. A reception followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Hartford will reside in Duxbury where Mr. Hartford is a teacher in the high school.

—New asbestos slates are being laid on the roof of the armory on Washington street. These slates are fire proof and the building will be less likely to be destroyed from sparks from the passing locomotives.

—At Eliot church last Friday evening Rev. Roy B. Gould, secretary of the Church Building Society, gave a lecture on, "Winning the West Up to Date." With the assistance of a large number of fine stereopticon views Mr. Gould gave an account of the work being done in the West along missionary lines.

—The celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the organization of the Bible school was held at the Immanuel Baptist church last Sunday evening. The exercises consisted of singing, responsive reading, the anniversary hymn, written by Mr. Stephen Moore, prayer by Rev. Frank B. Matthews, addresses of welcome by Donald Moore, historical sketch by Mr. Stephen Moore, reminiscences for the children by Mr. H. F. Bent; Rebecca Pomeroy memorial, Jennie Wandless; violin solo, Miss Ruth Ivy; exercise, "The Future," members of the primary department. Baptism followed and benediction.

—You may now purchase your Kodaks and Supplies (the Eastman) and have your developing and printing done at Geo. A. Edmunds the apothecary, Masonic Building, Newtonville.

—Mr. James H. Kendall and family of Woodland road have returned from their summer home in Holden.

—Mr. Fred H. Fowle has rented for immediate occupancy the new Feldberg bungalow on Auburn street.

—Mr. Edward Hanlon of Melrose street has recovered from an attack of pneumonia and is able to be out.

—Mr. A. J. Blackburn, the well known engineer, has leased for a home the Darling house on Maple terrace.

—Mr. Theodore Friebe, who is a member of the Castle Square Theatre Company has moved into the house 81 Central street.

—Rev. John Matteson of Auburn street attended the annual meeting of the diocesan convention held at Trinity church, Boston, on Wednesday.

—Rev. and Mrs. Herbert M. Allen, who are missionaries in Turkey, were in Constantinople at the time of the invasion by the Young Turks' army.

—The young son of Mr. Herbert E. Smith of Auburndale avenue returned from the Newton hospital the last of the week and is much improved in health.

—Mrs. Alice Peloubet Norton and Miss Grace Norton of Chicago are guests of Mrs. Norton's parents Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Francis N. Peloubet of Woodland road.

—Mr. Frank E. Kennedy and family are moving this week into the Kivlahan house on Lexington street. Mr. Kennedy is a car inspector on the Boston & Albany railroad.

—Mr. Henry Mozealous will be the baritone soloist at the annual concert of the pupils of the Perkins Institute for the Blind to be held in Jordan hall, Boston, next Wednesday afternoon.

—On the Woodland Golf Club links last Saturday afternoon a two ball foursome was played. Messrs. A. J. Wellington and L. Folsom were the winners, their score being, gross 90, handicap 12, net 78.

—Through the real estate office of James W. Beasley, agreement papers have been passed for the sale of a lot of land on Groveland street to Mr. H. M. Daggett of this place. Mr. Daggett intends improving the property later.

—Mr. H. R. Miller was chosen a delegate to the National convention of the Independent Order of Good Templars to be held later in Waupaca, Wisconsin, at the annual convention of the Massachusetts grand lodge held Thursday at Springfield.

—The faculty of Lasell Seminary tended a reception to the pupils and their friends last evening. The sophomore French class gave a unique entertainment on Friday evening consisting of a series of old French nursery songs, illustrated in pantomime.

J. D. Packard & Sons Co.

29 BRIGHTON AVENUE, ALLSTON

Have on hand a large assortment of high grade horses, consisting of Matched Pairs, Sadlers and family horses.

Telephone Brighton 361-3

Nonantum Cycle Co.

Bicycles of all kinds Sold and Exchanged

AUTOMOBILE AND BICYCLE REPAIRING

Auto and Bicycle Tires Sold and Repaired. Lawn Mowers Sharpened and broken parts replaced.

Send postal or call
Work called for and delivered

NONANTUM CYCLE CO.

363 Watertown Street

Newton, Mass.

F. R. DENNING, Manager

Auburndale.

—Mr. Joseph Kent is spending a few weeks with friends in Maine.

—Dr. Miles Standish of Boston has opened his summer home in Weston.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Whitney of Central street have moved to Wrentham.

—Mr. Charles W. Baxter and family are moving to Montfern avenue, Oak Square.

—Letter carrier Louis M. Gates has been ill this week at his home on Higgins street.

—Mrs. Caroline A. Boyer of Woodland road is with friends in Hartford, Conn. for a few weeks.

—The M. Millie Beardsley Concert Co. gave the entertainment for the 25th anniversary of the Charlestown W. R. C. on Tuesday evening.

LADIES TAILORING

Suits, Riding Habits and Out side Garments a Specialty
Orders Taken Without a Deposit. All Work Guaranteed. Repairing and Remodeling Etc.

L. FELDBERG

327 Auburn Street, Auburndale

Telephone 363-2 Newton West

DOES YOUR HOUSE NEED PAINTING

OR

Papering this Spring

We have a select line of latest designs in Wall Papers; Mixed Paints, Jap-lac, Liquid Veneer, Picture Mouldings, Etc. at Boston Prices.

GEORGE S. GORDON, 325 Auburn Street, Auburndale

Telephones, Office 528-5 N. W. Residence 528-1 N. W.

LLOYD'S EYEGLASSES & SPECTACLES

Comfortable, becoming, well made, well fitting glasses, are the result of years of labor and an abundance of material to work with; so our fine factory arrangements, our great stock of material, and our many years of experience are a high guarantee of our glasses.

ANDREW J. LLOYD CO.
315 Washington St.
710 Boylston St.
75 Summer St.
Boston.
and 1252 Massachusetts Ave. Cambridge

Real Coffee

Most people prefer to buy things that are GENUINE. That's why so many folks are buying "White House" because there's no doubt about ITS honest purity.

FOR SALE BY THE BEST DEALERS

HODGES

LADIES' HATS
Cleaned or Dyed
and made over into the latest prevailing fashions.
WE SAVE
YOU
HALF

BLEACHERY

P. SIMONS

The Old Reliable Ladies' Tailor

Suits and Outside Garments Made in the Latest Styles.

PERFECT FIT GUARANTEED

3 MOODY ST., WALTHAM.

Telephone 185-3 Waltham.

FINE UPHOLSTERING

Antique and Second Hand Furniture
Bought and Sold
Window Shades To Order
Furniture Packing and Shipping
SEELEY BROS. CO.

303 Washington St., Newtonville. Tel. 703-1 N. N.

Automobile Painting and Repairing

Alterations Made and Repairing a Specialty
J. P. RAMBE
515 WALTHAM ST., WEST NEWTON
Telephone 398-3 Newton West

Telephone 306-2 Brighton

MATRESSES
MADE OVER

WILLIAM P. MULCAHY

UPHOLSTERING
CARPET WORK

372 Washington St., BRIGHTON, MASS.

T. D. MURPHY

Real Estate and Mortgages
AUCTIONEER

34 CHANNING STREET NEWTON, MASS.
Telephone 928-3 Newton North

CARE OF REAL ESTATE

is solicited. Having now the management of fifty or more estates in Newton and other suburbs, I have every facility to make my returns to owners the largest that is consistent with good management. My charges are reasonable and if your real estate is not paying you well, telephone E. Arthur Robinson.

NOTICE

This is to give notice that I will not be responsible for any bills contracted by my wife, Flora A. Taylor, 10 Beach Street, Newton.
J. E. TAYLOR.

Homer St. Tracks Ordered Removed by the Board of Aldermen

The most important business transacted at the regular meeting of the board of aldermen last Monday evening was the passage of an order revoking the track location of the Newton & Boston Street Railway in Homer street. The vote for this measure was 13 to 2. Alderman Day being excused from voting, and five being absent.

President Weston was in the chair and Alderman Avery, Bacon, Cabot, Day, Doherty, Gray, Holmes, Jones, Moore, Palmer, Stone, Underwood, Williamson, Clarke and White were also present.

No one appeared at hearings held upon petitions of the Telephone company for attachments on Waterloo street, Lexington street and on Commonwealth avenue, and upon orders for concrete sidewalks on Centre and Cypress streets under the betterment act. At the hearing on improvement of Charles street no one appeared, but later the matter was reopened and Mr. E. G. Frost spoke in opposition, saying that he would need this land eventually for extension of his business and had no doubt that the Metropolitan Park commission would be willing to allow him to use it for that purpose, altho he admitted, in response to questions that he had no right at the present time.

On recommendation of the City Engineer, orders were passed for a sewer in Elm road to reach the new Technical High School, and also making certain sewer charges and assessments.

Governor Bradley's proclamation for Arbor Day was filed.

Petitions of J. J. Miskella to move building on Bridge street, and of Bernard E. Barry to move building at Lower Falls, were granted. On petitions of W. H. Colgan Co. for license to keep and sell gasoline and of the Newton Street Railway Co. for cross-over and derailing switch on Commonwealth avenue, near Lake street, hearings were ordered for May 24th.

Petitions for damages to clothing from peanut machine by Miss M. T. Gore, of F. H. Seales for sewer in Commonwealth avenue, of C. B. Carrigan for wagon license, of John A. Gould, et al. for playground at Upper Falls, were referred.

Petitions of J. F. Flanagan for street sprinkling on Jackson road, of T. P. Stuart for the same on Green street and of C. H. Barney, et al. for the same on Breanmore road, and of L. A. Whitaker for license for a moving picture show at Channing church on April 30th were granted.

The invitation from Charles Ward Post G. A. R. to attend the memorial day exercises was read and accepted. The following letter was sent to the Board by the Mayor, to whom it was addressed.

"I wish through you or the board of aldermen to thank the Newton Fire Department for the prompt and efficient manner in which they handled the fire in my house on Boylston street, Newton Highlands, April 19th.

Taking into consideration the high wind and the fact that they had two other fires on their hands at that time, I feel that they deserve much praise for their prompt action. I think the City of Newton has reason to be proud of their fire department.

Yours very truly,

C. B. Lentell."

On recommendation of the Committee on Public Franchises and Licenses, the annual list of licenses was granted, substantially as printed in the Graphic two weeks ago.

Leave to withdraw was granted on the license petitions of Sam Wax, Junk, C. H. Keefe, James Troy, and W. C. McIntosh for wagon and liquor permits and to P. H. Donahue for wagon license.

On recommendation of the same committee, the application of John Shorten to erect a frame store on California street, and the petition of the Telephone Co. for attachments on Harvard street were granted.

The same committee report no further action necessary on the order requesting the Chief of Mass. District Police to refuse a permit to C. A. Person to keep gasoline on Winchester street.

On recommendation of the Committee on Public Works, hearings were ordered on May 10 on concrete sidewalks under betterment act on Auburn and Woodbine streets, and leave to withdraw grants on petitions for concrete sidewalks on Winchester street and for sewers in Woodcliff and Rockledge roads.

Orders were adopted requesting the Committee on Rules to prepare a rule requiring appointments of the mayor to lie over one meeting of the board before confirmation, and authorizing concrete sidewalks on Centre and Cypress streets, under the betterment act.

The order revoking the track location in Homer street was presented by Alderman Palmer, and the official reasons for the action are stated as follows:—

First. Because the public necessity and convenience no longer requires the location of said tracks in said street.

Second. Because said street railway company may for the purposes of its traffic run its cars upon the street railway tracks upon Commonwealth avenue and thereby dispense with the necessity of said tracks in said Homer street.

Third. Because said tracks as at present located are a public nuisance in said street and interfere with the public travel thereon and said street is not of sufficient width or capacity to accommodate the said street railway tracks.

Fourth. Because certain portions of said Homer street as now laid out and constructed are narrow and inadequate for the operation of a street railway and for the due safety and convenience of other public travel.

Alderman Palmer said: The Committee have unanimously decided that public necessity and convenience do not require that these tracks should be retained and that is the only reason why tracks are allowed in the public streets. The street is narrow and winding and if the tracks were not already there we would never grant a location. The location was originally granted for the public convenience, but since the construction of Commonwealth avenue there has been no such reason. The only reason remaining is private convenience, not necessity, and our streets are not maintained for the benefit of the immediate abutters but for the whole public. Car tracks in a street are a necessary nuisance like telephone poles, and when the same service, needed service, can better be given elsewhere the tracks should be removed. This was done with the Paul street when the car tracks were put in Centre street.

Commonwealth avenue is an avenue constructed with a separate way for cars where they can be run at great speed with safety and where the people from Homer street can receive a service that is better than 75% of the residents of the city receive from the car lines in the city. The cars on Homer street due to the sharp curves are a great nuisance, especially to the church congregations. They are a menace to all vehicles and in the winter it is dangerous because of the snow. Commonwealth avenue is parallel and so near that very few will have to walk much further than they do now to obtain better service, while many more will have a shorter distance to travel.

We believe the interests of the people are safeguarded in this service, for there is an agreement with the Homer the Mayor and the Street Railway Co., stating that the service over Commonwealth avenue will be as heretofore. In fact you will notice that this is something that the bondholders have looked after. Then there is also a proposition regarding the repair of the street and he also has an agreement a sum will be paid by the Street Railway Company to the city if they have to remove their tracks and the cost to the city will be not more than or as much as must be expended if the tracks remain, while the result will be one of the handsomest residential streets in the city instead of a makeshift roadway as it is at present.

For the reasons that have been named in the order and for the others you have heard, the committee are unanimous in their report favorable to revoking the location, and I honestly believe that if the tracks are removed and the street put in first-class condition, even those who are remonstrants will agree within a year's time that the change has been for the benefit of all concerned and they will be proud of their street.

Alderman Avery said: To my mind the real people benefited by this movement are the Railroad Company. We have no control over the railways with regard to fares, and when they find they are not making money they charge more fares. This petition is unfair to those who live on the street because it removes their rights and privileges. There is no question as to the narrowness of the street, but if you decide to take up this track the residents there will be inconvenienced and it is not altogether fair and just.

Alderman Palmer said: We have tried to show by our report that we long as there is a N. & B. road the accommodation for car transportation was furnished the people or we should not have recommended the taking up of the tracks. The Committee honestly believes that the Homer street people will have an adequate and proper and convenient service under the new arrangement.

Alderman Cabot: I was in the Board when it was asked to have the location revoked three or four years ago, and I cannot see why it should be. I cannot see where the petitioners made out very much of a case. They had men come to the hearing to ask for the removal of the tracks; men who are interested only as citizens, who certainly talk well, but when you only talk about being disturbed in the churches at the corner of Centre and Homer streets it does not amount to much. One gentleman stated here that he attended the church there, and afterwards we found out that he only went twice a year, Christmas and Easter.

One reason why I do not feel that it is necessary to take up these tracks at the present time is that we are all asking for money for different things, playgrounds, parks, etc., and I do not believe the city should put $3,000, $4,000 or $5,000 into this. I believe it would be more dangerous on the Boulevard, especially for the children. We know what time the cars are coming along but can never tell about the automobiles. It was also stated that there were some 50 or 60 children accommodated by these cars to the school. There are perhaps 200 or 300 people who should be considered altogether. I would certainly want to know the exact amount of money that has got to be spent.

Alderman Palmer said: The Engineer and Mr. Ross have estimated that it will cost $3,400. The city says we do not want the paving blocks and that the railway company will keep the blocks and will pay in cash $1,500, so that will leave the cost to the city about $1,900.

Alderman Jones said: It may perhaps not be out of place to have a word from the ward that is most interested. In reference to the reurfacing of the street I understand that this work is absolutely necessary. I think that absolutely without exception the petitioners either live or are property owners on the street. They represent fully two-thirds of the property on the street. There are ten or twelve families on Pleasant street and Tarleton road, who will be affected by this change and there is little question but what they will be somewhat inconvenienced.

venience. The great majority live in what is known as the Ashton park section and a large part of these are about an equal distance from Homer street and from the Boulevard.

I took occasion to inquire from some of the people as to what their interest was in the matter and found that they had little interest if the service was to be maintained and if they could be assured that the cars would run on the Boulevard the same way.

The gentlemen from Ward 2 have, I think, failed to lay proper stress upon the fact that has been made before, that the operation will directly convenience many times more people than can possibly be inconvenienced. There is a thickly settled section to the north of the Boulevard who are likely to take a car to Newtonville. These people have no through service but have to transfer at Walnut street. I think it is a fair statement also that no one of the remonstrants will not be reasonably near. In any fair sense of the word, to the car service running on the Boulevard. It seems to me that a great inconvenience is to be saved and I believe that a very great convenience and desirable betterment for that part of our city will be brought about by the removal of these tracks.

There is no question that public sentiment in Ward 6 is very largely in favor of the removal of the tracks.

Alderman Gray said: I would speak of but two things. First, I would offer a great example of the inconvenience the Homer street location is to many people residing on the north side of the Boulevard.

One of the aldermen in speaking in favor of the retention of the tracks expressed himself that those residing on the street had certain rights that others did not. That is not a sound argument. Every citizen of the city has as much right in the public streets of the city as any other citizen regardless of where he resides and it seems to me that this Board does not sit here to legislate upon questions merely affecting certain persons, but they must pass upon these questions in the broad light of the rights of all of the citizens of the city. It is not an easy thing for me to take a stand that will put many friends of mine who live on Homer street to any inconvenience, but I feel that this is a question of right, that the tracks have no place in that street.

Alderman Cabot: How long will that service be maintained?

Alderman Palmer: It is absolutely necessary that the service be always maintained. The bondholders have looked after that and they certainly will not allow a dead end. We have the interest of the bondholders and as long as there is a N. & B. road the service will be maintained.

Alderman Cabot: If they go to the Railway Commission they usually get anything they wish.

Alderman Palmer: I don't think that is true. I think they have to give their reasons for a thing each time and then the Railway Commission pass on the basis of facts presented.

The order was then adopted, 13 in favor. Aldermen Avery and Cabot opposed and Alderman Day excused.

Dry Cold Storage

—FOR—
Furs, Clothing and Rugs

Constant improvement of our facilities and increase of this branch of our business enables us to offer the

Reduced Rate of 3%

of the agreed valuation with reasonable minimum charges.

Our modern scientific methods of examining and cleaning furs by expert furriers before they are put in storage is worth alone the entire cost. REDUCED PRICES on all furs purchased or remodeled now, with STORAGE FREE.

FURS CALLED FOR AND DELIVERED

Telephone Oxford 1386

A. N. COOK & CO.

N. C. COOK, Proprietor

HATTERS AND FURRIERS

161 TREMONT STREET, BOSTON

A COW AND DOG TALE

Did the cow chase the dog or the dog chase the cow? There appeared to be no difference of opinion as to the effect of the exercise upon the bossy, for all agreed that she would have grown thin had it been kept up much longer, but to determine which was the pursuer and which the pursued proved a puzzle in the police court Saturday.

The trouble resulted from the habit James W. Spring's dog had of running across a grass plot where William H. Wales' cow was moored to a stake. Mr. Wales told the court that the dog ran after the cow, but Mr. Spring testified that his dog merely walked past each day and that the cow would invariably run after the animal.

Finally, Mr. Wales testified, his neighbor's dogs chased and killed some of his hens and once pursued his hired man and bit the leg of his overalls. For three years the men had been neighbors in the sparsely settled Oak hill district, but finally Mr. Wales felt obliged to complain of Mr. Spring for alleged keeping a barking and biting dog, and the case was heard before Judge Kennedy this morning.

Mr. Wales has lived for many years at 26 Greenwood street, where he has a quite extensive farm. Three years ago Mr. Spring, a lawyer, built a country home at the corner of Greenwood and Dudley streets, not far from that of Mrs. Elizabeth Stuart Phelps Ward. Being fond of animals, he said he began breeding dogs for amusement.

"Once Mr. Wales told me my dogs had killed several of his hens," said Mr. Spring. "I told him I did not know what ordinary hens were worth, but gave him $5 to pay for those he had lost and told him I would confine my dogs thereafter. I then built a run about 45 by 20 feet in size and since have kept the dogs there except when they are out in care of myself or one of my employees."

It was brought out that one of the dogs had been used to chase off hens which had come onto Mr. Spring's premises. The court observed that once the practice of chasing hens had been formed by a dog it could not be overcome. "Mr. Spring must keep his dogs off his neighbor's premises and Mr. Wales must keep his hens at home," said Judge Kennedy. "The case stands continued till July 10."

WOMEN'S GOLF

Brae-Burn Country Club announces the following women's golf schedule for 1909:

Tuesday, May 4th. Women's Club Championship, (A).
10.00 A. M. Qualifying Round, first eight to qualify for championship cup, second eight for consolation cup.

Tuesday, May 11th. 10.00 A. M. Scotch Foursome handicap.

Wednesday, May 19th. Club Mixed Foursome handicap.

Tuesday, June 1st. 10.00 A. M. Medal play handicap.

Saturday, June 12th. Mixed Foursome Handicap for members and guests. Scratch.

Tuesday, June 15th. 10.00 A. M. Two Ball Foursome handicap.

Wednesday, August 18th. Club Mixed Foursome handicap.

Tuesday, September 14th. 10.00 A. M. Medal play handicap.

Tuesday, September 28th. 10.00 A. M. Handicap vs. Bogie.

Wednesday, October 13th. Club Mixed Foursome handicap.

Tuesday, October 19th. 10.00 A. M. Two Ball Foursome handicap.

The man who persistently sits down is sure to become hard up.

There are no stripes on a flagstone, but if one falls on it hard enough he will be likely to see stars.

Muslin Curtains

Hundreds of pairs in our new spring stock 45c
to $1.25 pr.

In the Midst of Housecleaning?

Lace Curtains

Every house keeper will be pleased at the assortments we show from 75c to $4
pair.

Everything upset, everybody cross; you yourself tired to death in the anxiety to get it over as quickly as possible. Half the burden of work is often caused by fret and worry. Why not let us help you.

USE THE TELEPHONE

239-3 WALTHAM

Whatever you need we'll have it there on time, and save you at least the trouble of a trip here.

RING US UP

Here are a few of the Good Things that our Basement Department offers

JAPANESE MATTING

Complete new stock. Patterns never before shown here 19c to 29c yd

CHINESE MATTING

First pick of an importer's new spring stock; good selection at 17c to 25c yd

SMYRNA RUGS

Full size, good heavy Rug, 30x60 inches, in good variety; all new, bright and clean 95c each

VELVET RUGS

Be on the safe side and come here first; over 250 styles of Rugs from 95c to $3.50 each

GRANITE ART SQUARES

6x9 feet; just the needed covering for summer bed room $1.98

"FIBRE RUGS"

Sanitary and easily taken care of; 9x12 size $9.50

WOOL ART SQUARES

Full room size $4.50 to $12.50

WINDOW SHADES

The shade that we sell complete with all fixtures is exactly the same as most stores get 10c more for; all colors 25c each

COUCH COVERS

Beautiful colorings; all best qualities to be had at prices from 95c to $8.00

TAPESTRY TABLE COVERS

Extra large size, well made covers; $1.30 value $1.19

TAPESTRY CUSHION COVERS

Made complete, ready for use 20c

Designed especially for use on gas and oil stoves; a clever device that toasts four slices of bread at the same time, crisp and even. Works like a charm. Try one while they are only 19c each

SEEN THE NEW

Vulcan Bread Toaster?

MONEY REFUNDED
IF NOT SATISFIED

P. P. ADAMS

133 TO 139
MOODY STREET
WALTHAM

BIG DRY GOODS DEPARTMENT STORE

Newton Centre.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Rand of Grafton street have moved to Institution avenue.

—Mr. Allston Burr of Chestnut Hill road has been elected a member of the Merchants' Association of Boston.

—Mr. John Lowell and family of Hammond street, Chestnut Hill, have returned from a winter's stay in Boston.

—Captain Joseph Cousins who has been spending a few months in Georgia has returned to his home on Summer street.

—At the Unitarian church next Sunday, the former pastor, Rev. Alfred H. Brown, will preach on the subject, "The Soul's Gethsemane."

—Hon. J. M. W. Hall and Mr. W. C. Bray are among the Boston business men who will go on the New England tour of the Boston Merchants' Association.

—Miss Mabel H. Kingsbury is a delegate from the Massachusetts Peace Society to the 2d National Peace Conference to be held at Chicago next week.

—Colonel Edward H. Haskell of Beacon street sailed Wednesday on the Adriatic of the White Star line for a short business trip to England and the Continent.

—Mr. David B. Waters, who is a member of the sophomore class at Boston college, has been selected to participate in the annual public oratorical contest to be held the second week in May.

—Last Tuesday afternoon the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church held a meeting at the home of Mrs. Ella F. Brown of Institution avenue, during the afternoon refreshments were served.

—Mr. W. Barry of Newton Centre, who is a student at the New England Conservatory of Music, Boston, took part in a concert of chamber music by students of the wind instrument classes held last week Wednesday evening, April 21.

—Last Wednesday morning while Mr. Antonio Wolfe was unloading a wagon load of ladders in the yard at the rear of Bray Block the horse started, hurling Mr. Wolfe to the ground and rendering him unconscious. He was picked up by some workmen and taken to his home on Langley road, where he is now resting comfortably.

—The safety of a party of New England tourists in charge of Prof. Albert E. Bailey, 21 Lake avenue, was assured on Monday when Mrs. Bailey received a cablegram from her husband. The message was dated at Constantinople, Saturday, and announced simply that the party was safe. Later information was received that the party had sailed for Naples.

—The 90th anniversary of the Ladies' Benevolent and Church Aid Society was observed Tuesday evening in the parlors of the First church, and was largely attended. The members of the receiving party, who wore old fashioned costumes, were Mrs. Albert L. Harwood, Mrs. Samuel Ward, Mrs. Henry Bailey and Miss Harriet S. Cousins. The program consisted of old fashioned songs by the Village Choir, Mrs. Lesh accompanying on the melodian; historical sketch by Miss Cousins; chronicles read by Mrs. Harwood, tableaux, some of them illustrating Lowell's "The Yankee Courtship," read by Miss Dorothy Taylor. An old fashioned lunch was served and the choir and company sang "Auld Lang Syne."

ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Newton Centre Improvement Association was held in the library of the Mason schoolhouse on Tuesday evening. Satisfactory reports were received of the various enterprises in which the association has been engaged during the year, and these officers were elected: President, Alfred E. Alvord; vice-president, Sumner Clement; secretary, Geo. W. Pratt; treasurer, Wm. H. Hile; directors for three years, Allen Hubbard, Morton E. Cobb and M. S. Buckley; director for one year, Wm. G. Snow.

Waban.

—The Rev. Mr. Seabury is back from a short vacation at the Bermuda and conducted the service at the Union church last Sunday.

—The Sewing Circle of the Union church held its fortnightly meeting at the home of Mrs. F. W. Webster, Windsor road, Tuesday afternoon.

—The Good Shepherd Guild met on Tuesday with Mrs. Pingree, Windsor road, to complete arrangements for its sale, held this afternoon in Waban hall.

—Mrs. Lewis H. Bacon of Chestnut street is at the Cushing hospital in Boston, where she underwent an operation last week. Although convalescing well she will not be home for some time.

—The house on Windsor road occupied by Mr. Clinton M. Hill was purchased last week for his own occupancy, by Professor Wm. C. Collier of Roxbury, formerly head master of the Roxbury Latin School and well known as a student and author in the classics.

—Deep sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Max Newberry who reside with Mrs. C. H. Wardwell, Plainfield, street, on the death last Thursday morning of their little daughter, Maxine, aged four years. She was seized last week with violent convulsions which left her unconscious and fatally ill with tubercular meningitis.

—Next Friday evening under the auspices of the Young People's League of the church, the minstrel show given so successfully some weeks ago by the St. Paul's Boys' Club in Newton Highlands will be presented in Waban hall. The first part consists of a lively minstrel act given wholly by the boys and the second half is a pleasing cantata sung by the older members of the choir.

—Last Friday evening the Union Society held one of its series of socials at the residence of Mr. J. H. Breck, Beacon street. A large number were present and the affair one of the liveliest of the winter. Lemons were the price of admission the number of seeds determining the amount and the entertainment appropriately consisted of a journey around the world. A very clever guessing contest, for which a number of artistic prizes were given. During the journey the travellers were treated to an excellent entertainment consisting of dialect readings by Mrs. Sarah Douglass of Newton Highlands. Both were enthusiastically received. Miss Douglass sang as a first number, "The Way of June," which displayed her pure, lyric soprano voice excellently, and as a second group, several of Edward Lear's "Nonsense Rhymes," set to difficult music by Margaret Lang. Mr. Robinson accompanied acceptably.

Upper Falls.

—Mr. Samson Shaker of Elliot street was removed to the Newton hospital and operated upon for appendicitis.

—Wednesday evening in the vestry of the Methodist Episcopal church Rev. F. White of Worcester gave an interesting talk on socialism.

—Last Saturday, Miss S. Jennie Freeman, a well known resident of this town, passed away at her home on Summer street. Miss Freeman was 68 years of age and is survived by one brother, Dr. Coburn Freeman of Pasadena, Cal. A large number attended the services held at her home Monday afternoon. Rev. Walter Healy officiating. The body was interred at the Newton cemetery.

SHOOTING AFFRAY

As a result of a shooting affray Wednesday night near Centre and Franklin streets, which aroused many residents of that section, Samuel J. McWilliams, a coachman, was fined $35 in court yesterday for carrying a loaded revolver. Michael McTague, a gardener, was fined $15 for disturbance and $5 for drunkenness. According to testimony the men met for the first time while riding out from Boston on an electric car and went to McTague's house at 9 Brook street to dine. With a Miss Flynn, a cousin of McTague, they later started for a walk, intending to go to the estate of F. W. Stearns, 269 Park street, where McWilliams was employed. The men had an altercation, but neither could tell what started the trouble. They fell to fighting and knocked each other over some ash barrels on the sidewalk. Finally, it was declared, McWilliams whipped out a revolver and fired three times. Neither bullet took effect, and he fled, as did also the young woman.

Residents of the vicinity became alarmed and appealed to the police. Patrolmen were sent searching the surrounding neighborhood within a radius of more than a mile for several hours. Patrolman Desmond found McTague nearly helpless on the sidewalk.

THE PLAYERS

"Why Smith Left Home," George H. Broadhurst's amusing comedy, was presented by The Players, Newton's best known dramatic organization, in the organization's hall at West Newton before large audiences on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

The cast included Miss Bertha Eddy, Miss Sibyl Stone, T. E. Stewart, Miss Adelaide Fairbrother, Miss Ethel Howland, Osgood Perkins, Miss Elmer Johnson, Miss Marian Stutson, Mrs. F. B. Bancroft, Charles G. Smith, Arthur W. Hollis and Waldo Glidden.

LODGES

A successful and largely attended pop concert was given in Dennison hall, Newtonville, last Monday evening, under the auspices of Mr. Ida Council, Royal Arcanum. A program of instrumental music was rendered by the Hayden Trio and refreshments were served at small tables by young lady waitresses dressed in white. Dancing followed the entertainment.

Palestine Chapter, Order Eastern Star, will hold a sale of fancy articles and candy at Temple hall, Newtonville, next Tuesday afternoon, to be followed by a supper for members and guests at 6.30. In the evening at 8 o'clock, following a short business meeting, there will be a public entertainment.

On Thursday, members of Palestine Chapter, Eastern Star were guests of H. P. Hood & Co. at their milk establishment in Charlestown.

Newton Highlands

—The funeral of H. N. Carter, formerly of this village took place last Tuesday at St. James' church, Roxbury.

—Mr. Geo. D. Atkins and daughter, Miss Ethel Atkins, left Monday for Boston, where they will spend the month of May. About June 1st they go to Duxbury for the summer.

—Rev. Dr. B. F. Trueblood is a delegate from the Massachusetts Peace Society to the 2d National Peace Conference to be held at Chicago next week.

—A May festival will be held at St. Paul's parish house to-morrow afternoon and evening. There will be Japanese pantomime, tableaux and dances.

—Among the pupils of Mr. Ernest Makechne taking part in a recital last Saturday at West Somerville were Thelma and Gordon Scholard of Dickerman road.

—Miss Edith Carter, formerly of Montford road, this village, was married last Saturday evening at Needham to Mr. Geo. W. Wilcox, Rev. Mr. Phipps of Newton Highlands officiating. They will reside at Wollaston, Mass.

—The annual meeting and dinner of the Men's League was held at the Congregational church last evening and there was a large attendance. Hon. Samuel L. Powers, Mr. Harry H. Ham and Mr. Frank A. Day addressed the league.

Newton.

—Rose Sale—25c a doz. Saturday only. Lane's, Wash'n st., opp. bank.

—"Guaranteed Sox." Six pairs guaranteed to wear 6 mos. 25c per pair, J. McCammon.

—Mrs. C. H. French of Maple avenue returned last Saturday from a winter's sojourn in the South.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Corey of Copley street are back from an extended trip to Mexico and California.

—Mrs. William E. Litchfield entertained the Neighborhood Circle Monday afternoon, at her home on Bellevue street.

The ladies of Elliot church are preparing barrels of clothing to send to the Normal School at Grandview, Tennessee.

—Mr. Hector E. Lynch and family of Eldridge street are back from a short outing at their summer cottage at Allerton.

—Mr. Charles Stevens, who has been the guest of his parents on Church street, is on his way to his home in California.

—The Helpers will meet this afternoon in the Elliot church parlors. The topic to be considered will be "Twentieth Century Pioneers."

—Mrs. Elizabeth Campbell quietly observed her thirtieth birthday yesterday at the home of her son, Mr. Hugh Campbell, on Newtonville avenue.

—Rev. Dr. Laurens MacLure of Church street has returned from Pennsylvania where he visited relatives and friends in Pittsburgh and Allentown.

—Miss Ina F. Hackett has returned from Dover, N. H., and will spend the remainder of the spring season at the home of her cousin, Dr. J. F. Frisbie on Centre street.

Newton

—See the moderate price bathroom set in our window. Gallagher Bros., 413 Centre street.

—Special rates to large estates on papering and painting. J. W. Blakeley & Co., 713-2 North.

—J. S. M. Holley and family are moving to one of the Merritt houses on Elm road, Newtonville.

—Mrs. George D. Hyfield of Eldredge street returned this week, having spent the winter South.

—Mr. Edward E. Stafford was in charge of the service at the Beulah Baptist chapel, Nonantum, last Sunday afternoon.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burton Colting, who were married a few weeks ago, will be at home to their friends after May 1st, at 161 Jakkleigh road.

—A game of base ball was played Saturday between the Nonantum Boys' Club team and the Alcotts. The Nonantum team won by a score of 9 to 6.

—A recital of organ and piano music will be given at the Elliot church by the pupils of Mr. Everett E. Truette next Thursday evening at eight o'clock, to which the public is invited.

—Rev. and Mrs. Herbert A. Jump of Brunswick, Me., have been recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Day of Sargent street. Rev. Mr. Jump occupied the pulpit of Elliot church on Sunday.

—Mr. Everett E. Truette presided at the organ for the choral part of the Masonic session of the Massachusetts Consistory, 32 degrees A. S. R., held at the Masonic Temple, Boston, last Friday.

—Miss Annie Blackwell of Newtonville avenue left Wednesday to visit her brother in Los Angeles, California. The Misses Helen and Jennie Blackwell have moved to the Cutler house on Maple avenue.

—The Newton New Thought Center holds its regular meetings every Monday at three o'clock, at 312 Centre street, in Nonantum Block, Suite 23. May 2d Dr. Anna B. Davis of Boston will address the meeting. Mrs. Emma Boomer, leader.

—The Seven Leaf Clover Club of Roxbury were entertained by Mr. A. Thwing on Thursday evening, April 29, at 312 Centre street. This is a New Thought Club and after the usual services light refreshments were served by the host.

—The Library Art Club has an interesting collection of about 70 pictures for children on exhibition in the delivery room of the Newton Free Library. They are by Walter Crane the decorator and painter and illustrate fairy tales and nursery rhymes.

—The Elliot choir, with a few friends, were entertained Saturday evening at the home of Mr. Everett E. Truette on Dean road, Brookline. After choir practice Mr. and Mrs. Truette played piano and organ duets and later games were enjoyed, followed by refreshments.

—Miss Gladys L. Forbush of Church street gave a Baby Party to some of her Normal Art school friends last Wednesday evening. Mr. Brennan, '11, sang and played during the evening. Miss Ireland, '12, of Jamaica Plain and Mr. Darney, '12, of Worcester were the prize winners.

AUTOMOBILE

FIRE AND LIABILITY

Insurance

ROWE & PORTER

15 Central Street, Boston

Tel. Main 884

Trees, Shrubs Evergreens and Vines

Rhododendrons a Specialty

Write for Catalogue or telephone

Jamaica 377

Eastern Nurseries

HENRY S. DAWSON, Mgr.

Office at Jamaica Plain, Mass.

Nurseries at Holliston

Golf Stockings

Hewins & Hollis

4 Hamilton Place, Boston

Moderate Cost House

$4000, Newton Centre

9 rooms, 10,000 feet High Land near Station

Henry H. Read, 45 Milk Street, Boston

17 PAUL STREET, NEWTON CENTRE

MONEY TO LOAN

ON WATCHES, DIAMONDS, JEWELRY, etc.

Highest Cash Prices paid for Old Gold and Silver

Fine Watch and Jewelry Repairing

BRIGHTON LOAN OFFICE

30 Washington Street, Cor. Chestnut Hill Avenue, Brighton

DR. E. HEATH CLARK

OSTEOPATH

Ripley Terrace, NEWTON CENTRE

Monday and Thursday, Hours 1 to 4

Evenings by Appointment

Boston Branch Office, 785 Boylston Street, Newton South 884-4

Back Bay 346

BUTTONS

DRESS PLAITING

I HAVE introduced new methods for the production of SUNBURST SKIRTS, which enable me to play Sunburst Skirts for $1.50

Covered and Ivory Rim Buttons in great variety to order

I give prompt attention to mail and express orders.

C. E. FANNING

48 WINTER ST., Room 50, BOSTON, MASS

TELEPHONE CONNECTION.

Steam, Hot Water Heating and Plumbing

Attachments applied to Hot Air Furnaces to heat one or more rooms by Hot Water ... GENERAL REPAIR WORK ...

WALTER B. WOLCOTT

65 Elmwood Street, - Newton

Telephone

CANOEES

We carry a large Stock constantly on hand of MOTOR AND PADDLEING CANOES

made of the best Materials and in all Styles. Prices from $25.00 to $65.00. Painting, Varnishing and Repairing neatly and promptly done. Paddles, Back Boards, Canoe Stock and Fittings sold at Wholesale and Retail. 200 Canoes to select from, long and short deck. Unfinished Canoes for sale with or without Canvases. Our business covers 23,580 feet of floor space. Mail orders receive careful attention.

Waltham Boat and Canoe Co.

H. P. BARTLETT, Prop. Woerd Avenue, Waltham, Mass.

Telephone 577-2 Waltham

Cafe Bova

THE LEADING

Italian Restaurant

OF BOSTON

96 Arch Street, Boston

3 Doors from Summer Street

$1.00 Table D'Hote Dinner

INCLUDING WINE

(SATURDAY $1.25)

5 to 5.30 P. M.

Booths Reserved Until 6.30 P. M.

Music Until 11 O'clock

Leo E. Bova & Co., Proprietors

Tel. 1812 Fort Hill.

RUSSIAN IMPORTING CO.

428 Boylston Street, Boston

Different from everything else

Every article in this shop bears the marks of quality, quaintness and beauty, and is the product of Russian peasant handicraft.

Linens and Lace

Shirtdress Patterns

Old Jewelry and Silver

Copper and Brass

Artistic Newton Cottages

Delightfully located on a charming knoll, near the high school, Newtonville. Thoroughly modern, single story structures, 8 and 9 rooms hardwood floors, open fireplaces, etc. Well constructed, cellars of solid concrete, 10,000 foot lots with grand old oaks. Low prices and reasonable terms to effect immediate sale.

ALVORD BROS., & CO.

AGENTS

Newton Centre Newtonville

79 Milk Street, Boston

Wear the

Lamson & Hubbard Hat

None Better Made

$300

$400

$500

Lamson & Hubbard

92 Bedford St. and 173 Washington St.

BOSTON

Notice is hereby given, that the partnership heretofore existing between John B. Turner and George F. Williams has been dissolved by the death of George F. Williams.

The insurance business of said firm will be carried on by John B. Turner and the real estate business has been sold to John T. Burne.

All persons indebted to the firm of Turner & Williams are requested to make payments to

JOHN B. TURNER,

90 Bowdoin St., Newtonville.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

Middlesex, ss.

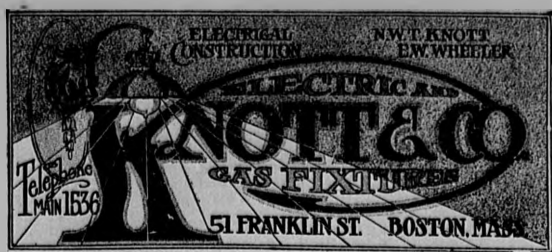

To all persons interested in the estate of Elizabeth T. Barry of Newton in said County of Middlesex, an insane person.

Whereas, George Lemist Clarke, guardian of said insane person has presented to said Court, his petition praying that he, on request of his ward, may be permitted to expend, distribute or lend, in such sums, manner and proportion as she may designate to him, not, however, to exceed seventeen hundred dollars yearly, to the persons therein named, from her income, sums not exceeding in the aggregate seventeen hundred dollars for the year ending March 1910.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the seventeenth day of May A. D. 1909, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is ordered to serve this citation by mailing a copy thereof to each of the fourteen days, at least, before said Court, and by publishing the same once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic a newspaper published in Newton the last publication to be one day at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First

LADIES FINE DRESSMAKING

Suits & Outside Garments made to order.
LATEST NEW YORK DESIGNS.
(Evening Dresses a Specialty)
MRS. T. A. COLEMAN, New York Dressmaker
11 Chestnut Street, - WEST NEWTON

BUY AN ADJUSTED

DOG MUZZLE

for 25c, 50c and 75c of
D. J. MAHONEY, Harnessmaker
Waterbury Square
Mr. of Fine Harness and Dealer in Ready Made Harnesses, Robes, Blankets, Whips, Etc.

Goodyear Rubber House

24 School Street Boston
Tel. Main 540

Ping Pong Photos

35 for 125c, taken in five positions (day or night). Frames 10c. doz.

JUMMINGS PING PONG STUDIO

103 MOODY ST. WALTHAM

HARRIS E. JOHNNOT

Electrician and Contractor

431 CENTRE ST., NEWTON
Telephone: {Office, 725-2} Newton {Residence, 758-2}

LADIES' TAILOR AND DRESSMAKING SUITS,

SKIRTS AND COATS TO ORDER. Waists and Costumes for all occasions, style and Guaranteed. Alterations, Cleaning and Pressing.

L. E. CARNALL

286 Maddy St. WALTHAM, MASS

Middlesex Collection Agency

COLLECTIONS MADE ANYWHERE
No Collection. Established 1908. No Charge
General Office, Room 8, A. O. U. W. Building
Waltham

30 YEARS' EXPERIENCE!

Scientific Spraying and Trimming of Trees
and ALL BRANCHES OF FORESTRY
GYPSY AND SHOW-TAILED MOTH WORK
Gypsy Careful Attention & Skill
Four years with the Massachusetts Board of Agriculture on Gypsy Moth Commission
W. J. HUNTER, Expert Forester
Prospect Hill Ave. Waltham, Mass

WANTED

WANTED—Second Hand Furniture of all kinds. Spot cash and fair prices paid. Good bargains always to be had in New and Second Hand Furniture at The Furniture Exchange, 688 Main St., Waltham (next to gas office).

Boston Elevated Railway Co.

SURFACE LINES

WATERTOWN TO HANOVER ST.
(Via Arsenal St.)—5:31 a.m., and in intervals of 10, 15 and 20 minutes to 11:31 p.m. SUNDAY—7:03 a.m., and in intervals of 20 and 15 minutes to 11:32 p.m.

NEWTON AND WATERTOWN TO

HANOVER ST. (Via Mt. Auburn St.)—5:15 a.m., and intervals of 15 and 20 minutes to 12:13 a.m. SUNDAY
—5:54 a.m., and intervals of 15 and 10 minutes to 12:13 a.m.

NIGHT AND EARLY MORNING SER-

VICE. Newton to Adams Sq., via
Mt. Auburn. 12:42, 1:39, 2:39, 4:39
(5:39, Sunday) a.m. Return leave Adams Sq. 12:35, 1:35, 2:35, 3:35, 4:35, (5:35 Sunday) a.m.

NEWTON AND WATERTOWN TO

PARK ST. SUBWAY (Via Mt. Auburn St.)—7:02 a.m., and every 15 minutes to 10:49 p.m. SUNDAY 8:17 a.m., and every 15 minutes to 10:49
p.m.

WATERTOWN SQ. TO SUBWAY

(Via North Beacon St. and Commonwealth Ave.)—5:40, 5:54 a.m., and intervals of 8 and 15 minutes to 11:09
p.m. SUNDAY—6:53, 7:23, 7:54 a.m., and intervals of 15 minutes to 11:09
p.m.

C. S. SERGEANT, Vice-Pres.

January 9, 1909.

Photographer

and . . .
Frame Maker

Partridge

WE have on exhibition in our window at the NEWTONVILLE STUDIO the finest display of PORTRAITS in free-hand ever shown in this vicinity. They are in CRAYON, RED CHALK and WATER COLORS on IVORY, PARCELAIN and PORCELAIN. We should be pleased to quote prices. We should also be pleased to have you call and see them whether you wish to order or not.

BROOKLINE, 27 Harvard Street

Why Certainly

You Can Rid Your House of Water Bugs and Roaches if You Use . . .

Barnard's Water Bug and Roach Exterminator.

ITS WARRANTED. SOLD EVERYWHERE. BY MAIL 50c.

BARNARD & CO., 7 Temple Place

FROM MONTE CARLO

Last Letter From Our Correspondent In Europe

Cap Martin Hotel,
Easter Monday.

On one of the loveliest capes of the lovely Cote d'Azur, we are spending the last ten days ashore, of our charming six months abroad. Far out at sea, five or six miles south-east of Monte-Carlo, where we go daily—or twice a day—to the fishes. I leave you to guess which of us plays!
It is my first visit to the Riviera, and I am delighted with the scenery, and a return to the menus and manners of the "foujours polle" French. Italy was rainy, dirty, impolite, immoral!
Yet I enjoyed it all—and feel I know my Rome and Naples pretty thoroughly.
But we came into the land of sunshine and flowers when we left Rome last Wednesday—and though one misses the sense of spring reur-rection in a country where the leaves and flowers bloom all winter, the delight of living is daily renewed. Such mats and masses of flowers—Oak leaf and ivy geraniums hanging over high walls and clambering thirty feet or more, up the fronts of balconied houses—masses of marguerites, yellow or white, giant magnolias and mimosa trees, with every variety of fruit and ornamental trees, palms in date, and medallars, just blossoming, and orchards of yellow lemons and oranges; and a luxuriant purple bloom, I suppose he crepe myrtle, overhangs and climbs everywhere. In Monte Carlo the beautiful, everything looks so prosperous.
No poverty—no begging—all advantage taken of the natural scenery—new, clean, bright. It is an earthly paradise, the some people call it the other place! Don't you believe it.
They bring that with them and carry it wherever they go. How true that is all through life: ego dominates us—everywhere—and very much more delighted with out-door beauties than with the social or casino life—but that too is an interesting study.
The eager or dissipated faces, the excitement which rages when the individual wins, and wanes when the Bank gobbles up all!—The many types of faces—the divers nationalities, Germans and English predominating, and the scattered scraps of conversation, and all of interest to my analytical mind. The twenty tables each seat sixteen players beside the Croupiers and there are as many standing around, reaching over the sitters to risk gold or silver as the rouge or noire. There are expert players always at the tables, playing for the Bank so that whether the Bank loses or wins, it always comes out ahead!
The roulette wheel is more attractive but less comprehensible. Some stroll from one table to another, but never travelling over to Monaco, investigated the lower plain cathedral, saw quiet and respectable—not a sight or a sound offends the eye or ear. The hotels are far less moral in appearance. Nothing "shady" is tolerated—for that would drive away the desirable and moneyed people, and "run down" the place. The theatre under the same roof, the municipality, even the church, are run by and for "The Company of the Baths," as the corporation styles itself—a misnomer no one ever patronizes the "Baths" on the lower plain and Plage. The parks and gardens are the most immense I have ever seen, and the restaurants where all the world "Teas" at four o'clock, are first class in every respect. I roam around them, and hear the birds—many unfamiliar—and enjoy the flowers and the sunshine, so different from the fetid atmosphere inside the casino, which we found horrible—sickening—dizzying—the one evening we have returned there, I went over to Monaco, investigated the beautiful modern cathedral, saw the palace of the prince of the most monarchy—one of the four smallest in the world—Do you know the other three? I enjoyed the view from the ramparts and chatted with the small, bloused, school boys—who seemed perfectly happy to entertain themselves by throwing tissue paper over the high, broad wall and then they try to hit it out of the tree tops below, with three and four pin fish hooks! Then back again to Monte Carlo—the beautiful—where "every prospect pleases, and only man is vile." Then more study, of the problem, especially the ethical effects on the players. The self-complacent and satisfied, greedy look of the winners is almost as revolting to me as the sad disappointment of those who see their little all "raked in" by those remorseless little rakes.

The whole town is full of the gambling fever—and now is full of clubs—casino and rink—all for the game. I am assured many well-to-do people go away from here ruined every season. Oh, the pity of it. Like the liquor habit and other vices, only the very rich can afford to risk it.

I went by open trolley car, along the lower and newer "Corniche road, bordering the sea. All the way, through Monaco, Villa Franca and Beaulieu to Nice—for my Easter services. It was a joy to see and hear again my longtime friend, our former fellow citizen Rev. Wm. Hall Williams of Newton Highlands, and Waban school, who has been assisting in Nice three seasons, and is chaplain in charge of our American church in Lucerne, from the middle of June till late September.

Bishop Jagger had told me last month,
in Rome, what a tower of strength and of comfort he was to him, in his recent affliction—for he was in Lucerne when Mr. Jagger died suddenly in West Newton—and could not get back for any of the obsequies. The pretty little church was crowded to the doors, the Easter flowers and music very good, and I was thankful to receive the Sacrament at the hands of an American Priest.

The whole town was on fête—A children's carnival—and after the service at three p.m.—excuse me, fifteen o'clock—I saw many of the Nicols proudly watching their children, hadocked in the cheapest and most un-dignified or paper costumes, masked and covered with confetti. These French are such childish people—so "pleased with a rattle, tickled with a straw." I wonder what they would think of our grand costume parties or the pageants of England. They are a well-to-do, very economical people.

Rev. Mr. Williams told me the French people, as a nation, are the richest in Europe—not an artisan but his little savings—and the wealth well distributed. I have always liked them (and the language) better than the Italians, though my winter in Italy has been a joy, and I have met many charming people. The extremes of Italy are not so visible here—the cab-are better, the horses fine, the drivers in neat liveries instead of mats of dunnies and patches. I saw en route yesterday the old fashioned high collars and saddles on work horses, carrying loads of wood topped by bags of the fir-cones; (the snow French garcon thinks half a cone enough to kindle a blazing fire), and met the old styled
"vis-a-vis," low, easy carriages for four, with their poncek canopies, such as only "the prince of Boston clothiers," has dared to drive, on the North shore, for the last twenty years! It is primitive, yet up-to-date in many ways.
To-morrow we drive to Mentone, to see the battle of flowers, another children's fête—and on to the custom house on the frontier, Ventimiglia, to hunt up some missing boxes—to be back by the Grand Corniche road, high up on the Maritime Alps, a veritable cornice, and probably on Friday turn our backs on the most lovely spot on earth—except Hawaii—and take ship at Genoa for dear, dirty, noisy little old New York. Pray for those at sea.
L. A. C.

Newton.

—Comfortable Shoes and Men's
'urnishings at J. McCammon's. 11

—Mr. George W. Pillsbury of Centre street is in Mexico for an extended visit.

—Mr. Thomas Kingsbury is making improvements to his residence on
Centre street.

—Mr. Charles B. Fillebrown is making improvements to his house on Bellevue street.

—Rev. Adelbert L. Hudson returned Saturday from his summer home at Ellsworth, Maine.

—Mr. F. W. Sweet of Medway was in town the first of the week the guest of friends.

—Mr. Guy Haskell of Binghamton, N. Y., has been a recent guest of his parents on Sargent street.

—Miss Elizabeth H. Dwyer of Wesley street has returned from a several weeks' visit in New York.

—Mr. George R. Burrows of Washington street is located in California where he has business interests.

—The pupils of Mr. Everett E. Truette will give an organ recital in Eliot church, Thursday evening, May 6th.

—Master William Rich, son of Mr.
and Mrs. W. T. Rich of Sargent street, is ill with an attack of scarlet fever.

—Mrs. Alvin R. Bailey of Richardson street has returned from a trip through the South and to Washington, D. C.

—Mr. Thomas Merton and family of Boyd street will make their first home in the new Dix house in Buri-ngton.

—Mrs. Amelia S. Heard and Miss Heard of Church street leave soon for their summer home in New Hampshire.

—The federation of young people's societies will be held at Channing church next Sunday afternoon and evening.

—Mr. Wilfred J. Bernier of Rees &
Bernier, will move this week from Hunt street to the Charlton on Washington street.

—Mr. Grosvenor Calkins is recovering from an operation, for appendicitis and has returned to his home on Bellevue street.

—The annual meeting of the Sunday school board connected with the Methodist church will be held in the vestry this evening.

—At the west side of Farlow park a number of sand beds have been placed for the use of the children who frequent the park.

—Mr. Winthrop T. Peterson and family of the Willard will make their future home in the Daniels house on Washington street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Eugene E. Murphy of a well-to-do street will make their future home with Mrs. Murphy's mother on Emerson street.

—Mrs. Maria J. Phinkham and her daughter Miss Nellie M. Hart of Richardson street are back from Pinehurst and other Southern points.

—A union service will be held at the Immanuel Baptist church next Sunday evening. Rev. Frank B. Matthews will preach the sermon.

—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gravatt, formerly of Baldwin street, are returning from a two years' stay in Chicago and intend making their home here.

—Rev. Dr. Charles F. Rice of Newtonville avenue has been elected district superintendent of the Cambridge District Epworth League.

—Mrs. Cornelius H. Patton, who is president of the Woman's Home Missionary Association has been in North Adams this week where she presided at the semi-annual meeting.

—At the meeting of the Business Men's Class at Eliot church next Sunday Prof. Henry K. Rowe will continue his lectures on World Wide Christianity. His special theme will be "The Mohammedan Crescent."

—A wedding of interest which occurred Wednesday, April 21st, was that of Miss May Margaret Bird of this place and Mr. Allen Gibson McVean of Malden. Rev. James F. Kelly, assistant rector of the Church of Our Lady, was the officiating clergyman.

—A well attended sociable was held last Thursday evening in the Eliot church parlors. The entertainment, given under the auspices of the Cooperative Club, consisted of selections by a mandolin trio, songs by a quartet, piano duets and a black face sketch.

Mortgagee's Sale of Real Estate

By virtue and in pursuance of the power contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Alfred A. Sherman of Somerville, in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, to William D. Cochran of Boston in the County of Suffolk and Commonwealth, dated September twelfth, 1906, and recorded in the Middsex South District Registry of Deeds, in Book 3254, Page 511, for breach of the conditions contained in said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction, on the premises or in the premises, conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows, viz:
A certain parcel of land lying on the Southernly side of Boylston Street, in Newton in said County of Middlesex, numbered eleven (11) on a plan of land in Newton, E. S. Smith, Surveyor, dated September 1, 1906, bounded as follows, viz: Northernly on Boylston Street, twenty-five (25) feet; Eastern-ly on the lot numbered ten (10) on a plan of land in Newton, E. S. Smith, Surveyor, dated September 1, 1906, and twenty-eight (28) feet; Southernly on land of Achorn twenty-five (25) feet; and Westernly on lot eleven (11) on a plan one hundred and twenty-eight (128) feet.

Being a part of the land conveyed to said Alfred A. Sherman by deed of
E. Achorn and wife duly recorded,
and subject to the right of passageway
and restrictions in said deed contained, and granting all rights of way in said
deed mentioned.

The above described premises will be sold subject to any and all unpaid taxes, tax-titles or assessments; also subject to any and all liens, claims,
one hundred dollars will be required
to be paid in cash at the time and place
of sale, other terms announced at sale.

WILLIAM W. BABCOCK,
Assignee and present holder of said
mortgage.

101 Tremont Street,
Boston, Mass.
Robert F. Miller, Auctioneer.

Mortgagee's Sale of Real Estate

By virtue and in pursuance of the power contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Alfred A. Sherman of Somerville, in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, to William D. Cochran of Boston in the County of Suffolk, and Commonwealth aforesaid, dated September twelfth, 1906, and recorded with Middlesex South District Registry of Deeds, in Book 3254, Page 511, for breach of the conditions contained in said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction, on the premises or in the premises, conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows, namely:
A certain parcel of land lying on the Southernly side of Boylston Street, in Newton in said County of Middlesex, numbered eleven (11) on a plan of
land in Newton, E. S. Smith, Surveyor, dated September 1, 1906, bounded as follows, viz:
Easternly on lot No. Ten (10) on said plan one hundred and twenty-eight (128) feet; Southernly on land of Achorn, twenty-five (25) feet; Westernly on lot twelve (12) on said plan, one hundred and twenty-eight (128) feet; and Northernly on Boylston Street, twenty-five (25) feet.

Being a part of the land conveyed to said Alfred A. Sherman by deed of
E. Achorn and wife, duly recorded,
and subject to the right of passageway
and restrictions in said deed contained, and granting all rights of way in said
deed mentioned.

The above described premises will be sold subject to any and all unpaid
taxes, tax-titles or assessments; also
subject to any and all liens, claims,
one hundred dollars will be required
to be paid in cash at the time and place
of sale, other terms announced at sale.

WILLIAM W. BABCOCK,
Assignee and present holder of said
mortgage.

101 Tremont Street,
Boston, Mass.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

PROBATE COURT.

Middlesex, ss.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of Mary A. Reed, late of Newton, in said County, deceased,
Intestate.

WHEREAS, a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter
of administration on the estate of said deceased to Charles A. Potter and John
A. Potter, both of Newton, in the County of Middlesex, without giving a surety on their bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a
Probate Court to be held at Cambridge,
in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of May, A. D. 1909, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause,
if any you have, why the same should
not be granted.

And the petitioners are hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in Newton, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire,
First Judge of said Court, this ninth
day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

PROBATE COURT.

Middlesex, ss.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of Mary A. Reed, late of Newton, in said County, deceased,
Intestate.

WHEREAS, a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter
of administration on the estate of said
deceased to Charles A. Potter and John
A. Potter, both of Newton, in the County of Middlesex, without giving a
surety on their bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a
Probate Court to be held at Cambridge,
in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of May, A. D. 1909, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause,
if any you have, why the same should
not be granted.

And the petitioners are hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published
in Newton, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire,
First Judge of said Court, this ninth
day of April, in the year one thousand
nine hundred and nine.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

PROBATE COURT.

Middlesex, ss.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of Mary A. Reed, late of Newton, in said County, deceased,
Intestate.

WHEREAS, a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter
of administration on the estate of said
deceased to Charles A. Potter and John
A. Potter, both of Newton, in the County of Middlesex, without giving a
surety on their bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a
Probate Court to be held at Cambridge,
in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of May, A. D. 1909, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause,
if any you have, why the same should
not be granted.

And the petitioners are hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published
in Newton, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire,
First Judge of said Court, this ninth
day of April, in the year one thousand
nine hundred and nine.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

PROBATE COURT.

Middlesex, ss.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of Mary A. Reed, late of Newton, in said County, deceased,
Intestate.

WHEREAS, a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter
of administration on the estate of said
deceased to Charles A. Potter and John
A. Potter, both of Newton, in the County of Middlesex, without giving a
surety on their bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a
Probate Court to be held at Cambridge,
in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of May, A. D. 1909, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause,
if any you have, why the same should
not be granted.

And the petitioners are hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published
in Newton, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire,
First Judge of said Court, this ninth
day of April, in the year one thousand
nine hundred and nine.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

PROBATE COURT.

Middlesex, ss.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of Mary A. Reed, late of Newton, in said County, deceased,
Intestate.

WHEREAS, a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter
of administration on the estate of said
deceased to Charles A. Potter and John
A. Potter, both of Newton, in the County of Middlesex, without giving a
surety on their bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a
Probate Court to be held at Cambridge,
in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of May, A. D. 1909, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause,
if any you have, why the same should
not be granted.

And the petitioners are hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published
in Newton, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire,
First Judge of said Court, this ninth
day of April, in the year one thousand
nine hundred and nine.

Mme. Buettel Arnould Millinery Parlors

AND

J. C. Arnould French Ostrich Feather Work

ARE NOW LOCATED AT 7 TEMPLE PLACE, ROOMS 63-64 BOSTON
TAKE ELEVATOR

MANUFACTURERS OF

Flags Tents Awnings

(And all kinds of Canvas Goods)

COTTON DUCK

From 1 to 12 Feet Wide

For Roofs, Wagons, Laundries, Boats; and various other purposes.
CANOPIES TO LET FOR WEDDINGS, RECEPTIONS, ETC.

C. H. BATCHELDER & CO.

Telephone, Richmond 1375

234-236-238-240 State Street, Boston

First-Class Dressmaker
would like engagement to go out by the day. Address L. L. BOWER, 50 Bowers
Street, Newtonville.

Schools and Teachers.

THE ALMON WALTHAM ORCHESTRA

(Fifth consecutive year at Mr. Ida School Over 300 consecutive Saturday Evening Concerts at C. S. Cobb Co's Dept. Store.)
MUSIC FOR ALL OCCASIONS
Address:
14 Fiske Avenue, Waltham, Mass.

L. EDWIN CHASE

TEACHER OF

Violin and Mandolin

BEST METHODS

Warner Building Newton

VOCAL AND

VIOLIN INSTRUCTION

(Belgium Bowing)

MRS. MARCUS G. HALEY

9 PARK STREET NEWTON

A. H. HANDLEY

MUSIC For All Occasions

105 OAKLEIGH ROAD

NEWTON

Member of the Master Builders Association
166 Devonshire Street
(Established 1896.) (Incorporated 1894.)
(Connected by Telephone.)

JOHN FARQUHAR'S SONS,

INCORPORATED.

Roofers and Metal Workers.

Dealers in All Roofing Materials.
late, Copper, Tin, Tile, and Composition
Roofing, Skylights, Cornices, Gutters,
Conductors, etc.

Special attention given to repairs of all kinds of Roofing.

Office, 20 and 22 East Street, Boston, Mass.
Vharr, 60-72 Washington Ave., Boston, Mass.

Directors: Samuel Farquhar, Pres.; Joseph Farquhar, Treas. and Supr.; Frank C. Far-quhar Sec'y.; Rollin Farquhar.

Geo. W. Bush Co.

FUNERAL and FURNISHING

Undertakers

Coffins Caskets Robes

and every modern freestanding for the proper performance of the business constantly on hand.

Elmwood Street, Newton

VINELAND

UNFERMENTED GRAPE JUICE

A Life Giving Drink

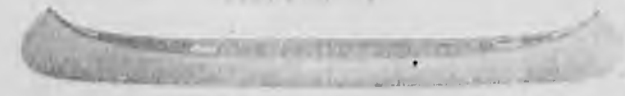

25 and 45c.

G. P. ATKINS

Centre Street Newton

H. B. ARNOLD & CO.

MANUFACTURERS OF

Canvas Boats and Canoes

Also canvas represents ARNOLD'S ORIGINAL BOW. We build the premier, tested and easiest, paddling canoe on the river. If you are thinking of purchasing a canoe call on us and we will show you what we have in the canoe line.

Boats and Canoes To Let

299 Crescent Street, Waltham, Mass.

ELECTRIC CARS PASS THE DOOR.

ASSOCIATED CHARITIES

The monthly meeting of the Associated Charities was held April 22, in the parlor of the Central Congregational church, Newtonville.

After the transaction of the regular business, Miss Gertrude L. Farmer, assistant head worker in the Social Service Department of the Mass. General Hospital, addressed the directors, visitors and invited guests on the subject of her work. This work was begun three and a half years ago by Dr.
Richard Cabot and at first employed the services of one person only. Now five women give their whole time, one half time, and a stenographer is employed. The work has also been begun at the Carney hospital, the children's hospital, and the Eye and Ear Infirmary, while at the Massachusetts General, where the work was once confined to the out-patients, one woman is now employed in the wards.

When a physician sees that a patient is in need of more than medical or surgical treatment, he sends him with a card stating his physical condition and such detail of his circumstances as have transpired during the examination, to the Social Service department, where an effort, rarely unsuccessful, is made to win his confidence and find out what his needs really are.
What after these have been ascertained, the work is done by the Social Service Workers, if possible, who, in conversation with him, and investigation often taking the worker into his home, means are sought to meet them, and improve the man's condition. Although the hospital is purely private, and not a State hospital at all, its prestige and its name bring it patients from all over the State, eighty towns having been represented last year. In seeking means to relieve a patient,
the Social Service Workers, if possible, refer him to the town from which he comes, and Miss Farmer had several stories to relate of patients who had been referred by them to Mrs. Martin and had been adequately helped. It is a great comfort always to find that a patient comes from a town that has an established Associated Charities.

RESOLUTIONS

We, the members of the Nonantum Athletic Association, desiring to express our appreciation of the character of our fellow member, Nassus Henry Grimes, whose death we deplore,

He was a loyal member of our Association, ever ready to respond to the call for service and always working for the welfare of the Club.

On the Athletic field, among his fellow workers, in social life, and at the Club, he stood for all that was manly and strove for all that was best.
Keenly interested in everything which he undertook, in work and recreation, kind and courteous to all whom he met, his quiet faithfulness, together with his gentlemanly conduct,
made his impression upon his friends and associates whose hearts have been saddened by his going away.

We desire that this statement of our regard and affection for him be placed upon the records of our Association and that a copy of the same be sent to his sorrowful family whose hearts with ours feel their common loss.

William Hanson, President.
Edward Mitchell, Secretary.
Adopted April 26, 1909.

THE HOUSE FLY

A Few Words of Warning

In the light of modern knowledge the house fly has ceased to be regarded merely as a pest, but is known to be a positive source of danger to the human race by carrying and spreading certain diseases, notably typhoid fever, certain intestinal diseases and to a less extent tuberculosis.

Indeed it is so well recognized as a carrier of typhoid fever that L. O.
Howard, entomologist of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, has suggested calling it the "typhoid fly" to emphasize the fact.

The whole life history of the fly is a "record of nastiness"; it breeds in filth, especially in horse manure; it feeds on filth; human excreta, tuberculosis spitum, dead and decaying organic matter of any description, and lays its eggs in the same kind of material to produce a new brood.

From its breeding place in the manure pit or privy vault, it enters the house, crawls over the baby's lips, falls into the milk or walks over the food which we afterwards eat.

It has been conclusively shown that flies have come directly from pits containing typhoid bacteria and infected food which was afterwards eaten.

Besides acting as a mechanical carrier of typhoid germs, it has been shown that the fly passes the germs through its intestinal canal with its food, and that the so-called "fly-spit," which it secretes in great quantities and so be come food of disease.

Typhoid fever is not the only disease which may be spread by the fly.
It may carry Asiatic cholera, dysentery, cholera morbus and other bacterial diseases, tuberculosis and certain intestinal diseases of the eye.

Health authorities everywhere are convinced in an active way against flies and the contamination of the public can be much lessened.

And the best course when the fly will be exterminated, much can be done to lessen the danger by reducing the filth harbors.

One of the first things to be done is to remove all filth from the house, especially of flies. Every door and window should be carefully screened, and as soon as the weather permits, every room should be thoroughly aired.

Stoves, hearth and articles of food, which it is to be well understood, where there is any possibility of a fly coming in contact with it.

This is especially important in the case of milk and food.

All articles of food exposed for sale in shops should be carefully screened.

We often see mosquito netting hanging over beds, and while it is advised for sale and the vendor probably thinks that his wares are protected. When attention is given to the mosquito netting, the house fly is not protected.

can come in contact with the fruit through the meshes of the net, and such a method of protection is worse than useless.

The netting must be so arranged that it does not come in contact with the articles it is supposed to protect.

Much can be done to lessen the number of flies by reducing the number of its breeding places.

The favorite breeding place of the fly is horse manure, but it also breeds in human excreta, carcasses of animals, garbage and almost any form of decaying organic matter.

We must therefore be careful that no accumulations of filth are allowed to exist.

Manure pits and other places where horse manure is kept should be made fly proof and be cleaned out at least once a week.

The sinks and gutters should be carefully screened and cleaned daily and treated with chloride of lime at least once every week.

No manure should be allowed to accumulate around the shoot or on the floor.

Privies are a source of danger and where they exist should be made fly proof and the doors and windows carefully screened.

The garbage pail should be kept covered and great care taken that no garbage is scattered around the place where the pail is kept.

Carcasses of dead animals should be promptly buried or notice sent to the proper authorities for their removal.

Finally, if every citizen will see to it that his own premises are kept free from accumulations of filth, and report to the proper authorities the presence of any danger spots on vacant land in his neighborhood it will aid greatly in lessening the danger of disease and in improving the general condition of the city.

ABOLISH THE MOSQUITO

The following suggestion for getting rid of the mosquito are published in Suburban Life for May, and are right to the point.

Do away with all stagnant water about; mosquitoes cannot breed without water.

Remove tomato-cans, broken bottles, old buckets, or anything of a similar nature which may catch rain-water.

Permanent standing water should be covered with coal-oil. The oil must make a thin film over the entire surface, preventing the wrigglers from coming to the surface to breathe. One ounce of oil will cover fifteen square feet of water.

Although mosquitoes do not breed in weeds and bushes, the latter will harbor them. Weeds should be removed and even shrubs thinned out.

Place gold-fish, minnows and sunfish in watering-troughs, lily-ponds, or mountains. They will eat the wrigglers.

To rid the house of mosquitoes, fumigate it with sulphur or pyrethrum powder. It will stupefy them. When they fall to the floor, they should be swept up and burned.

MOVING PICTURES

This evening, there will be given in the Channing church parlors, under the auspices of the C. B. C., an entertainment in behalf of the Calhoun Colored School, Calhoun, Alabama.
This is for the purpose of providing funds for the maintenance and education of one colored boy at this school, and for the purpose of making out of him a self-respecting and self-supporting citizen.

The entertainment will take the form of an exhibition of moving pictures of a high order of merit, and will be both unique and interesting.

The members of the Channing Boys' Club of the Channing church have worked hard to make this entertainment a success, and will appreciate the support which may be given by the citizens of Newton in their presence at the Channing church parlors at 8 P. M. to-night.

Auburndale.

—Mr. Ernest W. Young, of Owaton-n street is entertaining his mother from Somerville.

—Mrs. Thurston will move the first of the month from Freeman street to Auburn street.

—Mr. Ross and family are moving here and will occupy the Potter house on Auburn street.

—Mr. James J. Kivlahan and family of Lexington street have moved to Centre street, Newton.

—Mrs. Desmond S. Lamb and family of Auburndale avenue are back after a few weeks' absence.

—Mr. William Snow is having the foundation put in for his new house on Whiting park, Watertown.

—Miss Ethel Underwood of Commonwealth avenue is entertaining
Miss Agar from Tolland, Conn.

—Mr. Ernest K. Lindquist has purchased for improvement the house located at 71 Auburndale avenue.

—Two daughters of Mr. Moses J.
Ciley of Auburn street are ill with scarlet fever at the Newton hospital.

—Miss Annie C. Strong of Central street has been attending the semi-annual meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Association in North Adams this week, where she went to fill a speaking engagement.

—Dr. Arthur S. Conley and Mr.
Theodore S. Conley of the Conley Tones sailed with a party from New York Thursday on the White Star liner, "Finland," for Naples and a trip through Italy, Switzerland, Germany, France, Belgium, Holland and England.

A number of changes and improvements are being made in the Woodland Golf Club this season. The new clubhouse, which was constructed last year, will be in use this season.
The natural hazard at number five has been cleared up, the low marshy ground in front of number 15 has been reclaimed and several important sand traps have been put in. The club is entirely fortunate in securing the services of Charles Burgess, who has acted as professional of the Royal Auburn Golf Club of Montreal. Scotland for the past 6 years and has had a wide and successful experience as a member of golf.

—Mr. and Mrs. Howard Arthur
Wood have returned from their wedding trip and will make their home at 23 Maple terrace. Previous to her marriage Mrs. Wood was Miss Hazel Alice Pike, daughter of Mr. Elbridge
N. Pike of Central street. The wedding took place last Thursday and Rev. William C. Gordon, pastor of the Congregational church, was the officiating clergyman.

—An entertainment and sale was held at the Centenary Methodist church yesterday. The sale opened at 2 o'clock in the church parlors and was well attended by members and friends of the parish. In the evening an entertainment was given consisting of music and tableaux by pupils from Miss Loughton's school of expression. The proceeds will be used to defray expenses of recent improvements.

—The last meeting for the season of the Ladies' Benevolent Society was held Thursday afternoon in the chapel of the Congregational church. A brief review of the work of the year was given. The auxiliary meeting was in charge of Mrs. Strong and an address was made by Mrs. Ida Voss Woodbury, field representative of the American Missionary Association. A candy sale with refreshments and a social hour followed.

Real Estate and Insurance

INSURANCE

Do you realize that the average loss by fire in U. S. is about $300,000 a day.
Right here in Massachusetts over 8000 dwellings were either destroyed or damaged during 1907, costing Insurance companies $1,180,062.
Failure to insure is gross negligence.
The cost is small, protection absolute.
Be sure your automobile is covered.
Accidents are alarmingly frequent.

G. B. Macomber

151 Milk Street Boston

Telephone 438-2 Newton North

Established 1857 Telephone 2957

EDWARD F. BARNES

Real Estate Agent and Broker

Expert Appraiser, Notary Public

MONEY TO LOAN ON MORTGAGES

Insurance Agent and Auctioneer. Member of the Real Estate Exchange.

31 STATE STREET, BOSTON

Brackett's Block, Newton

W. S. & F. EDMANDS

INSURANCE

AGENCY

Established 30 Years

Fire Marine Burglary

Automobile Accident

Strongest Stock and Mutual Companies

178 Devonshire St. 392 Centre St. 81 Union St.

BOSTON NEWTON N. CENTRE

Tel. 3159 M. 1312-1 N. N. 72-2 N. S.

FRANCIS MURDOCK

Insurance Agent

BANK BUILDING, NEWTON, MASS.

INSURANCE TO ANY AMOUNT

placed in first-class stock and mutual companies

Sole Agent for Newton of the Middlesex Mutual of Concord, Mass.

HENRY F. CATE

Successor to STEPHEN F. CATE

Undertaker

1251 Washington St. West Newton

Telephone Connection

GEO. W. MILLS

Undertaker

18 Years' Experience Highest Reference

Cliffin Bldg., 817-819 Washington St., Newtonville

Telephone Office 112-3, Residence 855-2 N. N.

SPOT CASH PAID

(For All Kinds of)

Furniture, Carpets, Rugs, Ranges

Bedding, Old Feather Beds

Antiques, Etc.

PIANO AND FURNITURE MOVING

P. R. PHELAN, 799 Main Street, Cambridgeport

Dentist.

DR. S. F. CHASE

DENTIST

Dennison Building, Washington Street

Corner Walnut, Newtonville

Careful and thorough operating in all branches

New Method for Artificial Teeth

Lawyers.

LAW OFFICE

W. S. & W. S. SLOCUM

WINFIELD S. SLOCUM

City Solicitor of Newton

Rooms 1103, 1104 Carney Bldg.

44 Tremont St., BOSTON, MASS.

Residence, Newtonville

Is Your House Wired? WITH ELECTRICITY AT 12 CENTS

Every Householder Should Obtain Estimates

Wm. H. Colgan

ELECTRICAL CONTRACTOR

1238 Washington St., West Newton Tel. N. West 310

Carriage and Automobile Painting

L. P. BONNIER, Shop 80 Arsenal Street, Watertown

(Formerly with the best Automobile Painter in N. Y. City.)

ALL WORK GUARANTEED. CALL AND GET OUR PRICES.

Back Bay Veterinary Hospital

332 NEWBURY ST., BOSTON

THE BEST ORDERED AND EQUIPPED HOSPITAL FOR ANIMALS IN BOSTON

Qualified Gals Given Prompt Attention Day or Night

OPERATIONS A SPECIALTY

JAMES WILLIAM TOBIN, M. D. V.

SUCCESSION TO LYMAN & LYMAN

To phone, Hospital 3200 Back Bay. Residence Telephone, Brookline 1101-1